Mr. Dumble says I would snatch at a $30,000 gift; I guess I would, quick, unless it looked waspish, with the usual sting in the tail. But I would surely be a simple Simon to take part of any man's superfluity and bind myself and property, to pay in return, in perpetuity, one-tenth of that received per annum and then try to look cheerful. Fishing in a tub for Friday's dinner" would, I believe, be more profitable, for my friend's security would be worth just double his present. To put it in another way, if it should happen at a future time that some financial cause should compel the city to lift the $3,000 annuity, it would be found that at least $70,000 would be required for the purpose, and it goes without saying that neither the Nicholls' estate endowment, nor the Government grant could be applied to the extent of one dollar for the purpose.

In substitution I suggest that the city float $30,000, thirty years debentures, or whatever it may be thought needful, which could be done at a cost of from seven to seven and one-half per cent., raised during the term, and at the end of it would be free again; and I press this upon the consideration of all who are taking an interest in the subject.

I intended, at length, but find I have not time to refer to the fact that Detroit and many other cities in the United States and the Old Country have refused the Carnegie offer, while in other places the buildings after erection have remained vacant, that several cities defaulted in payment of the annuity, or wholly repudiated the foolish bargain, but more of this anon.

Your obedient servant,
W. H. MOORE.

Seven Liberal Members Are Asked for Their Resignations

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 19.—A mass meeting of citizens last night, called by the Asiatic Exclusion League, passed a resolution calling upon the seven Liberal members of British Columbia in the Federal House to resign. They also censured the Toronto Globe for declaring that the people of British Columbia were satisfied with the agreement Sir Wilfrid Laurier had made with Japan over the immigration question. Copies of the resolution will be forwarded to the Federal members and Sir Wilfrid.

Fifteen hundred people attended the meeting, and the prophecy was freely made that if the Federal members resigned not one would be returned at the polls. The anti-Asiatic feeling is more intense than ever before witnessed here. Chief of Police Chamberlain had special police guarding the approaches to the Oriental quarter, but there was no suggestion of violence.

The meeting decided to hold another parade on March 7. The last parade resulted in the notorious riots, when the mobs invaded the Oriental quarters. Japanese and Chinese have already taken steps to secure protection from the police.

Picture Agent Insisted Upon Entering Water St. Residence

Edward Blanchard, a picture agent who gave his place of residence as Toronto, was arrested this afternoon by P. C. McHurry but after having been detained an hour or so was allowed his freedom. It appears that Blanchard called at the residence of Mr. A. Stewart, Water street, today, and asked for some pictures to frame. He was told by the lady of the house that she had none that she wanted framed, but he insisted on entering the house very much as the lady stated, against her will. He even took a picture, after having been told that he could not have it.

Anxious to have her picture, Mrs. Stewart 'phoned the police with the result that the picture agent was taken into custody, by the police. Upon instructions from the magistrate he was allowed to go on the condition that he give up the picture and behave himself in the future. Blanchard was a short, dark, rather handsome young fellow. He was accompanied by another gentleman. They have been in the city about a week.

Gibson Girl a Back Number

The Gibson girl is out of style hopelessly, and what to call the new girl goodness only knows! Perhaps some bright reader will suggest a name for her. The athletic pose is passe, and now we must all strive vainly or not, to be limp and graceful and wily and seductive—the Mrs. Patrick Campbell style of women in word. As a step towards this ideal, all the girls are parting their hair in the middle and striving to look picturesque. The other day in a tea room, I was struck by the fact that all the pert bows on the back of the head and enormous pompadours had disappeared, and the damsels who served us with tea had their carelessly waved locks parted and gathered in a bunch behind. Such is fashion. She rules supreme even in a tea room.

THE SMART BLOUSE.

Colors at the neck are seldom as becoming to women as white for street wear, and so an inflexible rule has been established of having a white guimpe set in every blouse that matches a tailor costume, no matter what the color of the costume may be. White at the throat makes any women look younger, and it is far daintier than anything else. White lace bands are put on the cuffs to match the guimpe. The belt is a soft crush affair, not very wide, and formed of the voile, so that the blouse and skirt blend perfectly.

It is so difficult to find lace in the patterns and shades that one wants that dyeing has grown to be a feature of dressmaking. It is very easy to have the most delicate and unusual shades copied in dyes that are used on cotton and linen laces, and these colored laces are far more effective than white or cream. The guimpe need not be of the same kind of lace as that used for the rest of the trimming. It is smart to combine two or three varieties on the same garment.

REFUSED TO LET THEM ENTER

Vancouver, Feb. 18—Two Japanese entering from the American side were stopped at Blaine by the Provincial police as immigration officers. They failed to pass the language test as required by the Provincial Natal Act. They showed railway tickets from Portland to Vancouver and refused to return to Portland. The pair were removed to the Provincial jail at New Westminster. The new Consul, Mr. Yada, will act in the case.

THE CARNIVAL OF WHITEWEAR
BEGINS
THURSDAY AT 9 IN THE MORNING

Out they will flutter—clouds of dainty Undermuslins, White Fabrics, Laces and Embroideries and Waists—and all marked at Entering Prices. Now comes a long anticipated event—Our Annual White Sale. Ready for a period of underpricing of Lingerie, Waists, Fabrics, in fact everything White is involved in this sale.

Now the bargain winds will blow in departments where white goods are sold. How the snowy clouds of white merchandise will dissappear—melting like the snow (which they outrival in whiteness) under a July sun. We bought widely for this event—and well. Elaborate, Frenchy Undermuslins, whose prices have been almost prohibitive, were offered us by "panic-stricken" manufacturers at half prices. And in other lines of goods—Fabrics, Garments, Laces, etc.—bought at even greater price concessions. Put two and two together and the importance of this sale is evident, Beautiful Undermuslins and other Whitewear, which ordinarily, few can afford, are on sale here at prices to accommodate every purse.

The sale begins Thursday. While our stocks are the largest we ever assembled for a White Sale so unusual, are the values that many of the choicest may not last the event through. For that reason—Come early.

About Twenty of St. Peter's T. A. S. Drove to Ennismore Last Evening

About twenty members of St. Peter's T.A.S. drove out to Ennismore last evening, where they were the guests of St. Martin's T.A.S. The evening was spent in a closely contested series of games of forty-fives, which finally resulted in St. Martin's Society winning. After cards a sumptuous supper was partaken of, after which an informal programme of songs, speeches and recitations were given. Several selections on the banjo were given by Mr. J. K. Galvin, of Ennismore, and Mr. P. Kane played his violin, while Messrs. Wm. Crough and Dan Cushing gave a step dance that was much enjoyed.

Before departing for home a hearty vote of thanks was tendered St. Martin's Society for their kind entertainment. The visitors arrived home about five o'clock this morning, all declaring that they had never had a better time.

"Trial by Jury" Was Given Finished Presentation

Sir Arthur Sullivan's Cantata Heard by Large Audience at Conservatory Music Hall Last night—Clever Work on Part of Cast and Chorus—Splendid Programme Preceded the Operatta—Will be Repeated To-night.

"Trial by Jury," that interesting dramatic cantata, with the score by the unapproachable composer of light but lasting melodies, the late Sir Arthur Sullivan, was presented before a large audience at the Conservatory Music Hall last night. The piece possesses much merit and was given a pleasing interpretation. It is a humorous operatta in the true sense of the word every line being sung. It is much superior to the large majority of modern productions that resemble it to some extent—although it is really original both in the matter of conception and treatment.

The scene is laid in a court room. The plaintiff sues the defendant for breach of promise. The jury and everybody else concerned—with the exception of the defendant is overwhelmingly prejudiced in favor of the plaintiff, without pausing to consider the merits of the case. The judge himself finally becomes so enamored of the plaintiff that he himself expresses a desire to marry her, and to this she agrees without reluctance. She takes her seat beside the judicial dignitary on the bench, thus matters are happily adjusted.

The solo members of the cast are assisted in the presentation of "Trial by Jury," by twelve jurymen, who judiciously burlesque the parts of "twelve good men and true," and by a chorus of pretty bridesmaids and fair spectators.

Judge—Mr. Wm. McIlroy.
Plaintiff—Miss Carrie E. Reesor.
Counsel for Plaintiff—Mr. Vernor Morphet.
Defendant—Mr. J. Harry Scriver.
Foreman of Jury—Mr. W. Allan.
Usher—Mr. Mortimer Johnson.

Mr. McIlroy as the judge gave an exceedingly clever portrayal. His delineation was marked by an intelligent comprehension of the part, and he sang in splendid voice, and with distinct enunciation. Miss Reesor as the plaintiff, was particularly happy and sang and acted in a captivating character. She displayed much histrionic and vocal talent and was very interesting in the role of the distressed maid, who elicited so much sympathy and ultimately won the heart of the learned judge. Mr. Vernon Morphet conducted the case for the defence in a faultless manner both from a vocal and technical viewpoint.

As the unfortunate defendant, Mr. Harry Scriver scored a decided hit and his excellent tenor voice was used to great advantage—that is as far as the audience was concerned, although he found it impossible to obtain either the confidence or the verdict of the jury or sympathy of the judge, jury or spectators. Mr. W. Allan was excellent in the role of foreman of the jury. With the judge and counsel the most dignified man in the court was the usher. Mr. Mortimer Johnston, the popular local baritone, soloist, played this part to perfection and his splendid vocal work was one of the prominet features of the entertainment.

The support lent by the jurymen, the bridesmaid's chorus, and the spectators calls for the highest commendation. The former supplied a large amount of the comedy element and their makeups were original and amusing. The bevy of comely young ladies who were the bridesmaids and the spectators lent charm not found in the ordinary court room and sang remarkably well. One of the prettiest numbers of the evening was the bridesmaids' chorus, "Comes the Broken Flower."

The orchestra for the occasion played in splendid sympathy and added materially to the success of the cantata. The different instruments blended nicely and the accompaniments were played in a faultless manner. The orchestra was; Violins, Miss Choate, Miss Kathleen Wallis. Miss Lenore Sanderson, Miss McCarthy: piano, Miss Grace Task; cornet, Mr. Wood: flute, Mr. Mendel; clarinet, Mr. Adkens.

Previous to the cantata a delightful programme was given as follows:

Selection—Orchestra.
Song—"The Slave Song," Terese Del Riego—Miss Pearl Lundy.
Violin solo — "Allegro," — Miss Choate.
Solo—"Dreaming" —Mr. J. Harry Scriver.

The above three artists were given a flattering reception and the audience demanded an encore number from each.

Mr. Gliddon who acted as instructor for those taking part in "Trial by Jury" and as musical director, deserves the warmest praise and the choir of All Saints under whose auspices it was given are to be congratulated on its success. It will be repeated at the Conservatory Hall tonight and should attract a capacity audience.

Interesting Recollections of Early Days in These Parts

Archivist Fraser, or Miss Carnochan, of Niagara, would like to become possessed of a copy of the Cobourg Star of Feb 18th, 1835 belonging to Mr. W. J. Wilson, forman of the Toronto News composing room, and formerly proprietor of the Star. The paper, in spite of over seventy years of handling, is still in a good state of preservation. The notices and advertisements give some very interesting information. Mr. Geo. S. Boulton whose solicitor's card appeared, was a brother of Mr. D'Arcy Boulton. Mrs. Burnahm, whose death is recorded, was the mother of Hon. A. A. Burnham and ancestress of a large and talented family in Central Ontario. The proprietor of a newly erected distillery was Mr. Jas. Calcutt, whose sons, and grandsons were until recently the owners of the steamers running from Rice Lake to Peterborough. Hon. Ebenezer Perry was also an advertiser in that issue. The freight rates of the day are indicated in an advertisement which bids for freight at one shilling and ninepence per hundredweight from Cobourg to Peterborough. Lands apparently unimproved, are offered for sale at 20 shillings per acre. The price of the paper is fifteen shillings per year in advance, or one pound at the end of the year. Flour is quoted at 20 shillings a barrel, wheat at 3 shillings per bushel, potatoes at one shilling and six pence, beef at four pence, butter at nine pence, pork 20 shillings per hundred, wood 7 shillings per cord, hay 35 shillings a ton, and Canada whiskey from two shillings and ten pence to three shillings per gallon. Though this was Feb. 18th, 1835, the report of the proceedings of the Provincial Parliament in Toronto was only brought down to Jan. 20th, but in the selection, editing and printings of the news, local and foreign, this old four-page paper puts to shame many a modern journal. Altogether it is a most interesting relic of pre-rebellion days in Ontario.

Irish Immigrant Attempts to Evade Being Deported.

Escaped From Train at Sharbot Lake —When Pursued Laid Down on the Track—Pullman Car Passed Over Him—Both Legs Were Severed—Only Survived For Half an Hour—Preferred Death.

Smith's Falls, Feb. 20.—The body of a stranger, an Irish immigrant from Toronto, it is said, lies in the public ward of the hospital here as the result of a tragic occurrence on the C. P. R. at Sharbot Lake yesterday morning at 4 o'clock.

The man was one of a dozen immigrants being deported, and was in a tourist car along with the others in charge of a guard. It seems he was opposed to going back to the old land and had resisted deportation in every possible way. At Sharbot Lake station he walked out of the car and made an attempt to escape by walking up the track. Some of the men about the platform had noticed him going off, and when an enquiry was made for him, they made known the fact. Immediately the train was backed up the line in pursuit and soon came within sight of him. When he saw the train bearing down on him, he lay down on the rails evidently being more willing to die than to continue his journey back to the place from whence he had come. Before the train could be stopped the wheels of the last truck of the big Pullman car had passed over him completely severing both his legs close to the body.

The poor fellow was picked up and brought to the Smith's Falls hospital, but died in half an hour after reaching here. He regained consciousness for a few minutes just before he died, but refused to talk.

The man was about 38 or 40 years of age, and on some of his clothing there was the name McCartin.

It seems the water in Lake Ontario is high. Been kept too long, no doubt.

DARING DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

Windows Smashed and $15,000 Worth of Diamonds Taken.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 20.—A $15,000 diamond robbery in broad daylight, in the heart of New Orleans, with hundreds of persons passing at the time, was perpetrated here yesterday afternoon at the jewelry establishment of M. Waldhorn & Co., Conti and Royal streets. Two men drove up in front of the store in a buggy. One of them alighted and smashed one of the large plate glass windows in the front of the store.

He quickly seized two trays filled with diamonds and, jumping back into the buggy, was driven off. A large crowd started in pursuit, but the men, buggy and horse were soon lost to sight in a cloud of dust in the old French quarter.

ATTACKED SNAKE IN DREAM.

Rock Island, Ill., Feb. 20.—Ensign and Mrs. Robert Booth, in charge of the Salvation Army post here, were held by the coroner yesterday, accused of murdering their 2-weeks-old son, who was found dead in their bedroom with a fearful gash in his neck.

Booth contends that the child was murdered by an unknown person, who left the door open and a bloody razor on a table. The wife tells of a dream during the night, that she was attacked by a snake, which she killed with a knife. The police have a theory that the woman killed the child in a fit of pueperal insanity. The mother is 18 years old.

EXPLOSION INJURES ELEVEN.

Economizer Attached to Boiler Explodes In Lowell, Mass.

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 20.—Eleven men were injured, one probably fatally, by the explosion of the economizer attached to one of the boilers in the new power house of the Hamilton corporation, a cotton manufacturing establishment in this city yesterday. Another man, Thomas Kenelly, a rag collector, was run over by a fire engine that was responding to the alarm, and was badly injured. The explosion caused an extensive property damage and throws out of employment more than 600 operatives.

Is British Fleet Coming?

Halifax, N.S., Feb. 20.—Halifax is much interested in a report current here that a large British fleet will spend some time in this station during the summer, and while the Marine and Fisheries Department here know nothing of the matter, the British Admiralty is steadily increasing its reserve supply of coal and coke at the dockyards.

There is now over 7,000 tons of Welsh coal and coke belonging to the Admiralty at the dockyards, and an Admiralty collier, the Camperdown, is due here next month with a large cargo of Welsh steam coal.

Anglo-American Treaty.

Washington, Feb. 20.—A treaty providing for a joint commission to adjudicate what are termed minor claims between the American and English Governments, as well as between citizens of each Government has been drafted, passed upon by the State Department, and delivered to Ambassador Bryce for the consideration of his Government. It was explained yesterday that it was the intention to provide for the disposal only of existing claims, and not such as may arise in the future.

Won Race For Son's Life.

Charlottetown, Feb. 20.—Fraser Macdonald of Hampton was attending a temperance meeting on Monday night when he received word that his house was on fire. He ran a mile to the burning building, and entered just in time to save his adopted son, a nine-year-old boy, who was asleep alone in the house. He had just snatched him from the bed when it was buried under bricks from a falling chimney.

The dwelling was totally destroyed, with a loss of $1,500.

Motorists In a Snow Storm.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—A despatch to The Tribune from Michigan City, Ind., says: Paul Picard, in the pilot car sent out by the Chicago Motor Club to meet the New York to Paris racers reached Michigan City Tuesday afternoon after two days and a night spent in fighting the terrible roadways of Northern Indiana. The last seven miles were made through drifts in the face of a blizzard which almost shut from view the trees and fences along the roadside. Mr. Picard returned to Chicago, convinced that further travel was impossible until the storm has passed.

John Banta, driving the Chicago Automobile Club pilot car is still fighting on. He is less than five miles from where he was Monday night.

Japan Is In Earnest.

Tokio, Feb. 20.—(C.A.P.)—All evidence goes to prove the Japanese Government has been unsparing in its efforts to avoid further complications on the emigration question, but has to face a powerful opposition from the emigration companies, who are now behind a proposal to move a resolution in the Diet censuring Hayashi's policy towards China, United States and Canada. Should the resolution be introduced it would probably be defeated by a narrow majority. Its passage would entail the resignation of the Cabinet.

PETITIONS AGAINST CLAUSE.

Short Session of Legislature — Only Two of the Opposition Present.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—Many of the members having gone to Guelph to visit the Ontario Agricultural College, only 22 were in their seats when the Legislature opened yesterday afternoon. All the Ministers were present, excepting Hon. Mr. Monteith and Hon. Dr. Reaume. The Opposition consisted of two, led for the time by Richard Harcourt.

Hon. Mr. Crawford opened the House in due form, but the business consisted of the reading of a half dozen petitions against the three-fifths clause in the local option law. Hon. Mr. Foy presented one such petition from the Metropolitan Methodist Church. Hon. Dr. Pyne presented two petitions, one from the Simpson avenue Methodist Church and the other from the Royal Templars of Temperance.

W. K. McNaught gave notice of a bill to amend the Assessment Act.

Elections In Newfoundland.

St. John's, Nfld., Feb. 20.—The final session of the Legislature came to an end yesterday, and it was announced that the general elections would be held next fall.

It has developed that the British Government paid the fines of the colonial fishermen who shipped on board the American schooner Ralph L. Hall, off Bay of Islands, in 1896, in defiance of the Newfoundland law. The prosecution of these fishermen was made a test case in the controversy between the Colonial Government and American fishing interests. The Supreme Court decided in favor of the Government, but subsequently an order-in-council adopted by the British Cabinet set aside the colonial regulations, an act which was condemned at the session of the Legislature which closed yesterday.

Extend Local Option.

Winnipeg, Feb. 20.—Further extension of local option and the abolition of the bar were the chief features of demands made upon the Government yesterday morning by a large deputation, comprising many representatives of churches and public bodies in Winnipeg and throughout the province.

When Premier Roblin forecasted vigorous measures to anticipate the sentiment of the province on bar regulations, he was cheered vociferously by those present. Crowded galleries and hundreds of citizens packed into them bore testimony to the deep interest with which the subject is regarded by the general public. The great majority, not only of the Government, but also of the Legislature, were present.

Government Will Give $300,000.

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has given notice that to-morrow he will move the following resolution: "That it is expedient to provide that the sum of $300,000 be expended for the preservation, in a suitable manner, of the historic battlefields of Quebec, in connection with the tercentenary of the said City of Quebec."

This practically assures a contribution of $400,000 towards the scheme, as the Provincial Government has promised a grant of $100,000.

Mistake Drives Mother Insane.

St. John, N.B., Feb. 20.—Because her 7-months-old baby was given by mistake a pill containing strychnine which had been prescribed for herself, Mrs. George E. Hay, aged 26, has become insane, and was Tuesday taken to the asylum.

Mrs. Hay's mother administered the medicine, and the baby became violently ill, though it will recover. The young mother has already buried two children.

Poisoned by Dirty Money.

New York, Feb. 20.—John McD. Hopkirk is dead as the result of handling poisoned money. He contracted malignant scarletina while cashier of a hotel in which cheap lodgings are given to the poor. In that capacity he handled hundreds of dirty germ-laden bills coming from the slums of the city.

Bryan Committed For Trial.

Belleville, Feb. 20.—Lewis Bryan, alias William Vanblaricom, alias Maurice Longe, who is accused of attempting to pass a spurious note for $816 on the Farmers' Bank of this city, was yesterday committed for trial.

Verville Must Pay.

Montreal, Feb. 20.—Mr. Alphonse Verville, M.P., must pay Mr. Mederic Martin, M.P., $200 damages, besides costs of a suit in the Superior Court and court of King's Bench, according to a decision handed down by the latter court. The suit was entered by Ald. Martin shortly after his election to the House of Commons, in reply to remarks anent his candidacy by Mr. Verville, who was supporting the labor candidate.

Rescued by Firemen.

Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N.Y., Feb. 20.—The old colonial mansion in which the family of Admiral Farragut lived during the years of the civil war, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Of late the house has been occupied by Charles Gruen and family. Mrs. Gruen and her two children were rescued from an upper window by firemen after escape by the stairways had been cut off. The loss was about $10,000.

Will Disallow Natal Act.

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—The report of the Minister of Justice on the Natal Act has been submitted to the Cabinet. It is understood that the report recommends disallowance on the grounds of the act being ultra virus. The Cabinet did not meet yesterday so that the report will not be taken into consideration until to-day.

Madame Calve Went on Strike

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—Madame Calve, the distinguished singer, who appears here tonight, has had trouble with her manager. Her fee is $1,700 each concert, and this was to be paid each morning after. However, it seems that the manager owed Calve $4,800, and she refused to sing tonight unless she were paid. Lawyers were brought into the case, and eventually the situation was saved.

BIRTH

MAJOR—At All Saints' rectory, on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, to the Rev. Wm. and Mrs. Major, a son.

WRITTEN BY CONVICT

Who Obtained Pardon as a Consequence.

I cannot fawningly implore.
As feeble false hearts can;
But in humility before
The power that bars my prison door
I plead as man to man.

Oft fully more than vice appears
In errors we have made.
The ideal that the man reveres
Is not the dream of early years—
Youth's brief delusions fade.

Though hearts embittered still retain
A grudge for old mistakes.
Excessive penalties are vain—
The long monotony of pain
No restitution makes.

The ancient eye for eye decree
God has Himself destroyed;
Still speaks that Voice from Calvary.
Shall Shylocks with their ghoulish plea
Make this commandment void!

Ay, blessed are the beautiful!
Oh, Christian heart, relent!
For sins of folly, faults of wit
A contrite penitent.

Long have I been with sorrow, Long
The agonising years
Have had no freight of love and song
And laughter—only pain and wrong.
And penitence and tears.

The coarse Soul but lightly feels
The daily dole of ill;
But what distress each hour reveals
For him in his heart conceals
Some aspirations still!

For home and love, for liberty
To toil as free men can,
Oh, Hand of Fate that bars to me
The gates of Opportunity,
I plead as man to man

ONCE MORE WELL

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" ALONE CURED HIM

Clarence J. Placey is a farmer of Ulverton, Que., known as a man of integrity and good judgment. He writes in no uncertain terms of the great benefit he derived from taking "Fruit-a-tives" for a long standing kidney trouble.

Ulverton, Que.

I suffered for many years with kidney trouble, with bad pain in the back and all symptoms of disease of the kidneys. I took every known kidney remedy and kidney pill but nothing gave me relief and I was getting discouraged. I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I did so—and this medicine cured me when every other remedy failed. I used altogether fifteen boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" and from the outset they give me relief and I am now practically well again, no pain in the back, no distress, and all the symptoms of severe kidney disease have entirely left me. I am very thankful to be once more well and I freely make this statement for the sake of others who may suffer as I suffered and to them I say "Try "Fruit-a-tives." 151

THE PLEASURES OF LIFE

Since Sir John Lubbock, now Lord Somebody or other, wrote his great work, "The Pleasurees of Life," popular attention has been more or less directed to the pleasures of life as a scientific pursuit, not to be left to the hap-hazard, whimsicalities of impulse or selfishness. At first sight the scientific pursuit of the pleasures of life, by which is meant, of course, the happiness of life, seems absurd. Men are accustomed to regard pleasure even in its true and proper sense as a sort of general freedom from restraint. It is this very idea that the distinguished author desired to combat. He maintains that a sense of duty should always guide us in our pleasures, which means, logically speaking, that people must never at any time give rein to their mere natural instincts. We are all accustomed in this "vale of tears" to regard the jolly good fellow as a sort of social stimulant, acceptable at nearly all times. "The Pleasures of Life" include "the one hundred books worth reading," and in general it seeks to direct our attention to something in life besides whiskey and cigars. As a mere code of conduct apart from religion, which it does not deal with, the book had quite a vogue, but like Prof. Drummond's "The Greatest Things in the World," and other works of similar title, it did not last beyond its own day, for the simple reason that human advice, however good, after all brings little consolation or satisfaction to the human heart in storm and stress.

THE JAPANESE QUESTION

The arrest of a number of foreign violaters of the laws of British Columbia has brought the crisis at last to a head. It remains now to have the Dominion Government once more disallow the Natal Act and then the great farce of provincial rights, loyalty to Britain and the admission of coolies all jumbled up together and played by the Laurier administration for the benefit of the G.T.P. will be complete. The position of B.C. is apparently both morally and legally unassailable. One Government or the other will have to succumb in the struggle and we venture to predict that it will not be the government of British Columbia. There is now open before the people of Canada a more interesting chapter of history-in-the-making than any yet made in our annals since Confederation. So many of the fundamental principles of good government and liberty are at stake that when we fully realize it we will stand aghast.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Hear! Hear!

Two hundred and thirty-six applications for western lands by one man under two hundred and thirty-six different assumed names! This is a triumph of diplomacy. (Does the Globe blame or explain this? Not at all.

"A good name is better than great riches, and is worth more votes to the Whitney Government than a big campaign fund."—The Telegram.

The history of governments demonstrates the truth of this but still political pirates prefer to play the old game in the old way. They are aided and abetted too by many lukewarm or indiscreet men who are inclined to laugh at it all as a good joke and then profess to wonder that the country is going to the bow-wows. Such men do greater, deeper and more lasting wrong than any other class.

The Globe is putting on its armor for the coming fray but if all its editorials are to be like that on Mr. Borden and the original document question it won't need any armor. Its skin is evidently pachydermatous enough. The duties of a party paper of the first-class are not to do the bowling or obscure the issues. Does the Globe believe that the practice of bringing down original documents should be abolished? What, and, we repeat, what show would this country have of knowing the truth if it were left to the discretion of some ministers whether original documents should be brought down or not!

FROM HANSARD

"Mr. Taylor: If there is one man in the country who is ready to justify any and every act of this Government, no matter how glaring and how bad it may be, the Minister of Agriculture (Mr. Fisher) is prepared to do it. This country is satisfied that one of the biggest frauds ever perpetrated in this country was the expenditure in reference to the steamer 'Arctic.' We have expenditures for the 'Arctic' in the item under discussion. I read a speech made by the Minister of Agriculture a few days ago. He was endeavoring to rally the Reformers and make them believe that this was money well expended, because he knew that the statements made from this side of the House with reference to that great extravagance were having their effect and he said:

Why should any Reformer be ashamed of anything in connection with that incident? We find that in the year 1904-5, the year in which great complaint was made as to the expenditures for the supplies, for the steamer, $112,050 had been expended, but I point out that in the year 1905-6, the expenditure for the supplies for that steamer was only $12,813 and in the year 1906-7 the expenses were only $11,568. And those of us who are as well informed as we ought to be, know of the splendid work the 'Arctic' and her officers have done for Canada since that investigation took place. We know that the 'Arctic' has gone to the northern seas, has taken possession for Britain and for Canada of islands that otherwise might have remained disputed territory; we know that the Union Jack was planted on islands over which it never waved before; we know that the Hudson bay has been marked without any uncertainty as a closed Canadian sea—matter which will probably prevent very great friction between this country and the United States, and has secured for us undisputed rights in territory that will be of very great value.

Thus the Minister of Agriculture justified that expenditure. Has a Liberal paper in this country attempted to justify it? Let me read a statement made by one of them—and if ever there was a damning statement these statements by these organs in reference to that expenditure are damning statements. This is an editorial published in September, 1907:

Captain Bernier is back from the Arctic regions. He brings with him a cold in the head and a large number of interviews for the reporters. The real treasures he leaves behind in the frozen seas, properly ticketed so that there will be no mistakes about ownership.

For many years now Captain Bernier has cherished the desire of finding the north pole, but the north pole is obdurate, although the world agrees that if ever the pole were going to reveal itself it would be to the indomitable courage of Captain Bernier. Such was the perseverance of this noble man in high endeavor that, until his efforts were placed on a government footing, hardly a year passed that he did not take up a collection. Undaunted was he by wreck and hunger and darkness and horrid cold. He could not pick up a newspaper without reading disaster but he looked these terrors gaily in the face, and, humming a merry song the while, passed the hat with undismayed zeal. This went on for years and every year Captain Bernier brought out a new scheme for reaching the pole, enduring the hardships of the dreadful voyage, in the most jocund spirit. Presently his explorations brought him to the House of Commons at Ottawa, and there the Captain made a great hit as a vote discoverer. It was a sight for sore eyes to see the brave navigator seated in No. 16, his pipe in his hand, and a thrilling sea tale on his lips. To behold him there surrounded by the dangers he was prepared to encounter —the Arctic silence, broken only by the seals gargling, the long Arctic night, so long that a poker game once started has to last six months, the northern lights with their fierce blinding glare untempered by lamp shades,—to behold him thus, girdled with perils, was, we repeat, a heroic spectacle. No. 16 melted to this bold spirit. The captain sailed clean through the icy of reserve which besets most governments and secured an appropriation. With the appropriation was bought and stocked the 'Arctic.' The 'Arctic' was brought across the Atlantic under her own steam, the captain handling her as if to the binnacle born, ably assisted by a crew of French journalists. The voyage was a great success. There were four meals a day, and the main brace was spliced every hour. It was felt that the captain had established his right to take his ship anywhere that a man may go on pemmican, pate-de-foie-gras, truffles and certain other bare necessaries of life. The pole has not yielded to the captain. It still keeps its secret just as the end of the rainbow still hides its pot of gold.

The captain has not been able to put into effect his ingenious plan of sailing three hundred and fifty miles northwest of the pole, and then drifting back to it. He has never realized his dream of climbing the blamed thing, striking a fine attitude, and waving a Union Jack from the top of the world. He has done none of these things, but the Arctic is, nevertheless the wonder of the northern seas. Captain Bernier may not have found the pole, but he can find an island with his eyes shut. Let it disguise itself how it will with wrappings of ice, there is no fooling Captain Bernier. He just scrapes the rind off with his knife, and there's the island underneath, and, sooner than you can say Jack Robinson, swifter than second base can put it on the runner, quicker even than Toronto University can tack an LL.D. on a distinguished visitor, Captain Bernier has the island down on the chart, latitude and longitude noted and the British flag flying from the highest iceberg on that part of the map. Captain Bernier is the greatest island namer and claimer in the business. With its terrific speed—four knots an hour under forced draft—the 'Arctic' can overhaul any island that was ever made. When the 'Arctic' is seen in the offing, bearing down on an island, the island feels at once that it cannot get away from such a relentless pursuer as Captain Bernier, to say nothing of the fact that islands in those waters are generally weighted down with ice, which interferes even more than barnacles to prevent them showing an enemy a clean pair of heels.

Now, I ask my hon. friends who are prepared to justify that expenditure, as the Minister of Agriculture did, what they think of that article from the leading Grit organ of this country, the Toronto 'Star.' can find for the grossly extravagant expenditure on the 'Arctic.' and yet the Minister of Agriculture defends it. He is prepared to get up and defend anything no matter how bad. I am sorry that the Minister of Customs was not in the House a little while ago.

RINGWORM

Stubborn Case Healed by Zam-Buk

The most troublesome and obstinate of all scalp trouble is Ringworm. Mrs. H Girdlestone, of 106 Rawdon street, Brantford, Ont., says;—"My daughter had ringworm very bad, so bad that I was compelled to have her hair cut off. I obtained a preparation from the druggist to paint the sores, but instead of curing, the Ringworm developed into nasty sores mattering and smelling badly. I saw Zam-Buk advertised in the newspaper and immediately sent for a box. After several applications I could see a great improvement and as I kept up the Zam-Buk treatment daily the disease was soon checked. The nasty sores were thoroughly cleaned and healed and all trace of Ringworm banished from the child's scalp in a few weeks after commencing with Zam-Buk. I cannot recommend Zam-Buk too highly."

Zam-Buk cures cuts, burns, chapped hands, cold sores, itch, ulcers, eczema, running sores, catarrh, piles, bad legs, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, abscesses and all diseases of the skin. Of all druggists and stores, 50 cents, or post-paid upon receipt of price, from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 6 boxes $2.50.

ALL NATIONS AFFECTED

China has commenced to move her Titanic muscles, and that movement will affect every nation on the earth.

John R. Mott, secretary of the World's Student Volunteer Movement spoke to the Canadian Club yesterday on "Urgency and Crisis in the Far East," and his address was a strong exhortation to Christian nations to see that Christian ideals shall have their influence in China's awakening.

"China is demanding education for her people," said Mr. Mott, "and this is not a religious or non-religious awakening. It is a purely intellectual; but it is of the greatest importance to the nations of the west that the education of China shall not be a materialistic education, but shall be based on ideals of righteousness upon which your nation's greatness rests.

"It is not strange that with the awakening has come a strong national spirit. Flags on the school buildings, books on patriotism, the American boycott, and the anti-opium crusade are all indications of the new national spirit. The nations of Europe and America could no more resist the rising patriotism of the East than they could resist the rising tide of the ocean. And it was not meant to be resisted. It is a gift from God."

As an indication of China's progress, Mr. Mott quoted statistics to show that twelve years ago there were but 200 miles of railroad there, while today there are 3700 miles, and 1600 miles building. Post offices and telegraph systems have been introduced and in Pekin are 11 daily newspapers. Western education has been established by royal edict, and 1000 of China's brightest youths are studying in English and American universities. The nation demands education.—Toronto Telegram.

AMUSEMENTS

ROYAL ALEPANDRA PLAYERS

The coming of the Royal Alexandra players to Peterborough, who will appear at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday, Feb. 25th, is being looked forward to with great expectations by local theatre-goers. The fame of this noted company has already preceded them and those who take an interest in dramatic events are well aware that they will be given a rare treat, when "Diplomacy" is produced by this excellent company. When Sardou wrote "Diplomacy" he chose a time when there was an international strain between the different diplomats in Europe, and evolved from the love of Captain Julien Beauclerc for Dora, the daughter of a penniless Marquis, a drama that has never lost its entertaining powers. Julien is beginning his diplomatic career as an attache of the British Embassy. Countess Zicca is a spy in the service of Baron Stein, who is a secret agent of the Russian Government; she is also in love with Julien. At the Baron's suggestion she steals from Julien an important plan, for which he is responsible for safe delivery. She contrives to have the blame of the theft placed upon Dora. The plan is subsequently recovered by Henry, Julien's brother, who succeeds in placing the crime where it belongs. This is brought about by so much ingenuity that only a Sardou could have thought out.

A SHOW WORTH WHILE.

Another enthusiastic audience greeted Green's Moving Pictures at the Grand last night. The programme, if possible, was even more interesting than the one of the opening night.

The pictures were unusually good, and were veritable silent plays covering the widest possible range—comedy, melodrama and tragedy. Prof. Green showed splendid judgment in the presentation of the pictures, varying the humorous and the serious in a way that met with the unanimous approval of the audience. His explanatory lectures of the different pictures proved a feature that was much much appreciated.

Mr. Bert Peters again was flatteringly received and sang the illustrated songs in splendid voice. They were all most acceptable in the matter of lyrics, music and illustrations.

For a clean, interesting and instructive entertainment it would be difficult to excel Green's Picture Show.

Three-fifths Clause Said To be Unfair

Subject Discussed at Annual Convention of of Royal Templars in Toronto

The 26th annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Royal Templars of Temperance is being held in Toronto. The convention opened yesterday and closes tonight. Rev. C. H. Coon was appointed the delegate from the local Order, but was unable to attend owing to having to attend the annual meeting of the Programme Committee of the Bay of Quinte Conference, held in Lindsay yesterday.

The 26th annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Royal Templars of Temperance was held in Zion Congregational Church, College street, yesterday. Mr. W. J. Armstrong, Grand Councillor, of Toronto Junction, presided. In an address he stated that he considered the three-fifths local option clause unfair. A committee will ask its amendment. The fact that ten members of the order, including the Mayor, were members of the Toronto City Council, was a subject of congratulation. The Grand secretary, Mr. W. M. McMillan, of Hamilton, reported a membership of 5,884, or an increase of 17 for the year. The order has now 171 councils. The general fund showed a net deficit of 1,253, and more funds must be supplied before aggressive work can be carried on. The sum of $4,405 was paid in sick and funeral benefits.

At the night session Mayor Oliver presided. In opening the meeting he expressed his entire sympathy with the work, especially with that particular feature of the Order's activity which was to be displayed in the educational exercises of the evening. Eight contestants for the diamond medal, from different parts of the province, all winners of Templars" gold medals, delivered recitations. The winner was Miss Hetty Kelday, of Hamilton. The other aspirants were Miss V. Munro, Toronto, Mr. Stanley Harrison, Stirton, Ont.; Miss Edna Steop, Toronto; Miss Nettie M. Robertson, Drayton, Ont.; Miss Flora Watts, Toronto; Miss G. Fenwick, Toronto. A choice musical programme, including a cornet and vocal solo by the Sisters Shepperly, was rendered.

Oysters Must be Thrown Away

Dealers Who Asked Prohibitive Prices Got no Buyers

Montreal, Feb. 19.—The combination which had in hand the Canadian oyster business during the present season has overstepped itself to such an extent in raising prices to prohibitive figures that it was today announced that at least three thousand barrels of Malpecque oysters now lying in this city in cold storage would within a short time be consigned to the city dump.

The prices for these oysters during the present season have ranged from $9 to $15 per barrel, but the public refused to buy. Rather than bring them down, however, the owners of the same preferred to hang on, with the result that they must now throw away thousands of barrels.

Test of Ferry's Speed is Made

Cobourg, Feb. 19.—A demonstration was made of the speed of the new G. T.R. ferry, Ontario, No. 1, in crossing from Charlotte a few days ago. On board were the president and secretary of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Railway, and Mr. W. R. Smith, manager of the ferry. The run was made to Cobourg in three hours and forty-five minutes. For fully twenty-five miles on this side of the lake the ferry was obliged to cut her way through an immense sheet of ice. This she was able to do without apparently lessening the speed of the boat. It is said that just after the recent severe cold weather Lake Ontario was frozen from shore to shore.

FIRE HELL IS REAL

Rev. Father Staley preached on eternal punishment at high mass at St. Basil's church Sunday morning.

He said that the words of Jesus in reference to eternal punishment could not be taken in a figurative sense. The very words which proved that the punishment of the wicked was everlasting were also used in the reference to the eternal felicity of the saved.

"We sometimes hear those outside the church, and even Catholics, say that the fire referred to is the fire of remorse," said Father Staley. "According to a decree from Rome we cannot grant absolution to those who refuse to believe that this is a real fire."

AN OLD DECREE.

A priest of the Roman Catholic Church, in conversation with the Telegram this morning, stated that the decree was issued by the Sacred Congregation. This was to the effect that anybody who did not believe that the fire referred to was something distinct from conscience, after being duly warned, should not be granted absolution. As to the nature of the fire itself the doctrine was not distinctly defined.—Toronto Telegram.

Quakers Want to Play for the Peoples Shield

A meeting of the Quaker Association Football Club was held last evening in the Examiner office. All the members of the senior team were present and expressed a strong desire to go west in April to play for the People's Shield. The obstacle to the trip is the lack of finances, and if any of the citizens are desirous of helping the team, their assistance would be much appreciated. The Quakers are worthy of support and it is to be hoped that a most generous response will be made in the matter of raising funds.

Warning to the Reckless Drivers

Drivers in the city are warned against furious driving on the city streets. This morning a local bank manager, was almost knocked down owing to the reckless driving of a grocery deliverer. The gentleman spoke to the fellow about driving too fast, but was told that he would drive as he liked. The chief of police says that pedestrians have the right of way, and if reckless driving continues, the offenders will have to face the magistrate.

Left City Owing a Board Bill

Mrs. A. Edgar, Sherbrooke street, called at the police station this afternoon and complained that, a man that had been boarding with her had left the place owing her two months' board bill. She wanted to know if she could not make him pay, but she got little encouragement. Chief Rusael told her that she should have collected it in advance. He said that he could not make people pay their debts.

LARGER BRITISH NAVY

This Year's Estimates to be Increased.

It is understood that the Cabinet has already considered the question of the Army and Navy Estimates. Some slight uncertainty exists regarding the former, as it is by no means quite established that the Territorial Army will be evolved as cheaply as was anticipated, but Mr. Haldane is understood to be prepared for the possibility of certain slight modifications. Nevertheless, it is expected that he will be able to show that the new system is working well on the financial lines which he anticipated—viz., the expenditure of £27,750,000.

As regards the Navy, there will be an increase in the estimates, though not a large one. There will be no special scheme of battleship construction in reply to the efforts of other countries in this direction. This may be necessitated in the 1909-10 estimates, and there are many well-informed people who regard this course as practically certain. As already stated, the estimates will this year more especially provide for cruiser and destroyer programmes.

MADE BIG HIT AT BUFFALO

A Buffalo paper of recent date says,

"An unusually interesting concert was given by the Church of the Ascension choir, under the direction of H. F. Ferguson choirmaster in Orpheus Hall last night. A large audience was present and gave very cordial applause to the excellent choir and assisting artists. Mr. Ferguson, the popular young director, is a gifted and capable musician, with standards and ambition only too rare in the profession. Last night showed his remarkable ability in training a choir, in the exceptionally good attack and finish of the choral numbers. It was a great pleasure, too, to see the total absence of forcing in the singing. Effects were brought out with sole care for their value musically.

It is creditable in a high degree for a choir to take such numbers as those by Spohr, Faning, McFarren and Roberts, and sing them in the manner of the Ascension choir last night. To increase the practice of choral music is of the first importance, and Mr. Ferguson has shown in a delightful way what his choir can accomplish.

The choir was assisted by Clarence Quarrington, soprano, who delighted everyone with his pure and beautiful voice, and Dr. Prescot Le Breton, tenor, who aroused much enthusiasm with his very interesting singing of songs and solos with the chorus. The accompaniments were well played by Mr. Bertram S. Forbes.

Letters to The Editor

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

REPORT IS CRITICIZED

To the Editor of the Review;

Dear Sir,—I noticed in a late issue of your widely read paper an account of a recently held meeting of the Philomathean Society. Now who was responsible for the write-up I am unable to say positively, but I would wager that it was somebody who occupies a high position in the said society. If so, it was a hasty and altogether unreasonable action on his part and should call for a speedy revenge from his comrades. The report of the conduct of some of the students was very insulting, not only to the students themselves, but also to the whole school. And moreover, it could not have been correct as the critic (a teacher), paid the school a hearty compliment on the manner in which they aided and supported the programme.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, and hoping that this epistle will strike home, I remain,

Yours truly,

EX-PUPIL.

Pill Pounders Held "At Home"

Enjoyable Affair in the Foresters' Hall Last Evening

The Pill Pounders "At Home" in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe St. last evening was one of the most enjoyable functions that have been held this winter. Over one hundred couples were present and a varied programme of dances was run of. The Pill Pounders on two previous occasions have entertained their friends to "At Homes" but last evening's was pronounced by all the best ever held. Excellent music was provided by Misses McCabe and Quinn and their playing was the subject of much favorable comment. At midnight dainty refreshments were served.

The Pill Pounders are to be congratulated on the success of the affair and it is the wish of all who attended last evening that the time is not far distant when another such pleasant event shall be given.

Respected Resident of Eastern Town is Called Away Suddenly

Special to This Review

Norwood, Feb. 20—George Kemp, a highly respected resident of this town who had conducted a merchant tailoring establishment for some years, died very suddenly last night. He had complained for a few days of rheumatism, but nothing serious was thought of it until a few minutes before the end came when the rheumatism went to his heart and he became unconscious. Kempt was 38 years old and leaves a widow.

Canadian Club Banquet To-night

Hon. A. B. Morine Will be the Speaker and the Attendance Should be Large

The meeting of the Canadian Club of Peterborough this evening promises to be largely attended. Dinner will be served at 8.30 o'clock, and the speaker of the evening will be the Hon. A. B. Morine, late Attorney-General of Newfoundland. The subject of the address will be, "The Ancient Colony."

Mr. Morine bears the reputation of being a most excellent speaker, and the club is fortunate in securing him. A large attendance is looked for, as all Canadians should be interested in Britain's oldest colony.

A man sued Toronto railway for damages, and claimed as the reason that since the accident there was a constant buzzing in his ears. That, however, proves nothing. All married men have that.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Mme. Melba has been on the lyric stage twenty years. She made her first appearance in opera as Gilda in Brussels.

So devoted to her canine pets is Lady Aberdeen that she is having models of her principal favorites made by an Italian sculptor.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland will be one of the delegates to represent New Jersey at the Congress of Mothers to meet at Washington March 15-17 next.

Mrs. Anna Weightman Walker has contributed $50,000 to aid in providing a new building for the Franklin institute, Philadelphia. Mrs. Walker is one of the wealthiest women in the world.

Enrolled on the books of the County Council Dairy school in Chelmsford, England, is the name of Lady Helen Grimston, daughter of the Earl of Verulam, her father being a practical farmer. She is very ambitious to learn to make good butter.

Mrs. Margaret Ash of the miscellaneous division of the bureau of engraving and printing recently celebrated the forty-fourth anniversary of her entering the service of the government. During the civil war Mrs. Ash was appointed a printer's assistant in the bureau.

Miss Mona McKenzie while at work in Chicago was stricken blind from no apparent cause and remained so nine days. On the tenth morning when her mother raised the curtain she suddenly exclaimed, "I can see!" and it was found that her sight had been perfectly restored.

Mrs. Kate E. Jones, the recently elected national president of the Woman's Relief corps, is well known throughout the country for her active work for many years in the order. As national patriotic instructor for two terms she did good work along all lines in the Woman's Relief corps. She has a fine presence and an excellent platform voice and is noted for her eloquence.

GOWN GOSSIP.

Taffetas will be worn a great deal, but the newer fancy is for the soft thick silks.

Brocades are in again. They are usually shown in soft satins, ninons and crapes for evening dresses and blouses.

The veils worn this year with mourning hats are mostly quite short and of light weight, the long heavy crape being seldom seen.

For shirt waists and everyday blouses cashmere, nun's veiling and fine cloth will be very good, as will also the French lelaine.

Needlework and hand painting decorate the surface of many of the more beautiful satins, velvets and chiffons. Velveteen, too, is very popular.

Some of the new brooches are brightened with touches of gold and silver thread, picking out the pattern, and here and there beautified with pearls and other beads.—Brooklyn Citizen.

STAIN REMOVERS.

Medicine stains may be removed from silver spoons by rubbing them with a rag dipped in sulphuric acid and washing it off with soapsuds.

A clean cloth dipped in hot water, then a saucer of bran, will speedily clean white paint without injury to it. The soft bran acts like soap on the dirt.

Cold water, a tablespoonful of ammonia and soap will remove machine grease when other means would not answer on account of colors running.

To remove ink stains from linen dip the articles in milk and let it soak for about two hours, then take out and wash with soap while the milk still remains on the spots of ink. This will remove any long standing stain.

APPEAL WAS DISMISSED

Today's Toronto papers contain the following note of local interest in the Osgoode Hall news;

Lawless v. Crowley.—W. H. Wallbridge for the defendants, S. T. Medd (Peterborough), for the plaintiff, contra. Appeal from the County Court of Peterborough upon the dismissal of defendants counterclaim, resumed from yesterday. Appeal of defendant dismissed with costs, on the ground that this court was not the proper forum but by consent of plaintiff's counsel the order dismissing the defendants counterclaim is vacated and he is to be permitted to litigate same in such forum as he may be advised.

A BRITISHER'S OPINION

In your issue of Jan. 9th were a few lines by an individual signing himself "Subscriber," about English immigrants. I must say I felt rather hurt when I read his extremely sweeping remarks with regard to English boys. He seems to class them all under one heading, viz., "No good.' I also think that he is greatly exaggerating when he says that there were not more than half a dozen who were any good. Did he really try to find out how many were some good? Perhaps he really means that that there were only half a dozen that were no good. May I earnestly and respectfully ask 'Subscriber' not to get into that hard and narrow way—so un-Canadian-like—of thinking that no Englishman can come to his own countryman.

I only arrived in this country last April and must say that Canadians have come up to my fullest expectations. My boss is just a cracker. He seemed surprised when he read "Subscriber's" remarks, and also said he didn't think he was a Canadian or he would have been fairer in his judgment of the English immigrant. At the same time I do admit that certain societies in England seem to gather up the refuse of the towns and ship them to Canada; but in nearly 40 per cent. of the cases it will be found that there is a large foreign element. Thanking you for your valuable and interesting information that I have received from this weekly perusal of your journal.

MOODY'S COMMENT

Attorney-General Moody, was once riding on the platform of a Boston street car, standing next to the gate that protected passengers from cars coming on the other track. A Boston lady came to the door of the car, and, as it stopped, started toward the gate, which was hidden by the gate, which was hidden from her by the men standing before it.

"Other side, please lady," said the conductor.

He was ignored as only a born and bred Bostonian can ignore a man. The lady took another step toward the gate.

"You must get off the other side," said the conductor.

"I wish to get off on this side," came the answer in tone that congealed that official in momentary silence. Before he could explain or expostulate, Mr. Moody came to his assistance.

"Stand to one side, gentlemen," he remarked quietly, "the lady wishes to climb over the gate."

ASSAULT WAS BRUTAL ONE

Two Men Pounded Another Causing Him to Bleed Freely at Nose and Mouth—A Drunken Row

This morning about a quarter to two, a young man who resides in the south end of the town, witnessed the rather brutal spectacle of two men mercilessly pounding another. The fracas took place between the Central Milling Co's plant and the C.P.R. station. All three of the men were somewhat under the influence of liquor, and the one who was being assaulted pleaded hard to be let alone. He was bleeding rather freely from the nose and mouth and was struck repeatedly by his assailants. The young man who was a passing witness of the affair, has no idea of the cause of the row.

REV. HUGH PEDLEY MAKES A SUGGESTION

In the course of his sermon at Emmanuel Congregational Church last evening the Rev. Hugh Pedley made a strong plea for total abstinence. After pointing out some of the evils of strong drink Mr. Pedley referred to the vast amount of money spent on liquor in the different countries. He estimated that in Canada alone some eighty or ninety millions of dollars were spent annually.

"Think what could be done with that amount of money," he said. "With eighty million dollars another transcontinental railway could be constructed; it would be sufficient to build a fourteen foot channel from the mouth of the French River, on the Georgian Bay, to Lachine; another year it would give us a magnificent and unquestioned ship channel to the Guelph. Think what it would mean to universities and high schools and public schools if that amount of money were poured into them year by year."

One of the chief reasons why men drank said the preacher, was because it was the fashion to drink. In this connection he had a suggestion to make.

"I am not behind any one here in the respect that I have for him who sets upon the throne of the British Empire," he said, "but my suggestion is this: If Edward VII. were to take a stand against liquor—I do not know what his personal habits are in his court and among his companions—but if he would say 'to drink is not now the fashion,' he would be doing more for the British Empire than his great ancestor, Edward the III. did on the field of Crecy, and more than Queen Elizabeth did when she inspired her heroic navy to destroy the mighty Spanish Armada. If King Edward would but 'set the fashion,' it would make itself felt throughout the whole Empire."—Montreal Star.

Mr. Dumble Urges Acceptance Of Carnegie Library Grant

Points Out That There Would be a Big Saving. Yearly by Accepting Money From Carnegie Over Raising it by Issuing Debentures.

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir,—I am glad Mr. Moore is presenting the other views regarding the Public Library. As he puts them I cannot realize that so level headed a man propagates them as his own—all the same, it will enable people to see both sides of the question, and so, perhaps, form the best conclusion.

It is admitted that we must have a new library building. It is only a question then whether we will put up all the money or accept the building from Carnegie as a gift. It must be understood primarily that it must be a Public Library—That is a free library—The Nicholls money is given to all the people, and money raised by taxation is from all the people. These gift monies must not be applied for a library for a paying class—it must be free to rich and poor alike—a free library.

If we put up the building independent of Carnegie, we will be out the interest on the cost of the building in addition to the cost of keeping it up—that is, salary of librarian, heating, books, etc. If we take Carnegie's money we pay nothing for interest. Let us put this in figures. Supposing the building costs $25,000.

Interest for all time on $25,000 at 4 1-2 per cent	$1125.00
Cost of running library, say 10 per cent. on $25,000	2500.00
Total cost of running library yearly	362500
Deduct 4 1-2 per cent. on Nicholls grant, $1125.00, with Government grant, $180.00	1305.00
Net yearly cost to be raised by taxation	2320.00
On Carnegie basis; 10 per cent. on $25000	2500.00
Deduct 4 1-2 per cent. on Nicholls grant, $1125.00, with Government grant, $180.00	1305.00
Net yearly cost to be raised by taxation	1195.00
Difference per annum in favor of Carnegie library	1125.00

Can Mr. Moore get over these figures?

Mr. Moore admits that his objection to the Carnegie gift is that it imposes onerous conditions. Do my figures show onerous conditions? Mr. Moore illustrates his argument with the case of a man who gives another ten jack knives on condition that the donee gives yearly for all time, one knife to him or his nominee. Mr. Moore laughed when he put that in writing, because he knew that Carnegie does not impose that we give him or his nominee yearly ten per cent. on the cost of the building. Carnegie does insist that we give to ourselves the ten per cent. It is a case of a boy who used a jack knife every year in profitable work being obliged to buy himself a new one every year to keep up the equipment. He is like the man who gives me $25,000 on a mortgage at ten per cent., but never asks for the principal and allows me to give the interest to myself every year. That would not be hard to take. Come on Carnegie, you are the man we have been looking for.

Of course if the money he insists on our spending in keeping up the library was wholly beyond the requirement, then and there only would there be an objection to the gift—but long experience proves that if the building is not extravagantly built beyond the requirements of the people, ten per cent. is not too much on which to run a good library. Now the money it will actually cost us is less than 5 per cent. on $25,000, thanks to the Nicholls estate, should we hesitate? The offer is open to us to day—it may not be always available. The argument that some places feel the burden of Carnegie libraries severely does not fit in our case, for we have a free site and half the money from other sources. They perhaps bit off more than they could comfortably chew. Let us keep to the $25,000 and we will always feel like thanking the Nicholls estate and Carnegie. I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,
D. W. DUMBLE.

AMUSEMENTS

The largest crowd since the entertainment has been given here, greeted Green's Picture Show at the Grand last night. New pictures and songs were presented, and as usual the audience displayed much enthusiasm, rounds of applause greeting all the pictures and songs. Mr. Bert Peters, who is getting every band as a picture singer was particularly well received last night, and was heard in some very pretty melodies, beautifully illustrated. As usual Prof. Green displayed the best of taste in the matter of showing both serious and humorous pictures, and the bill was an excellent one in every respect.

The Legislature at Toronto; Clarke Gives Out the Secret

Gives Inside History in Liberals' Temperance Propaganda.

Ross Tried to Carry Party to Prohibition—Caucus Turned Him Down—Ontario Looking For Cheap Power—Studholme Scores Immigration—Work of Salvation Army — Mr. Ferguson's Maiden Speech.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—Despite the efforts of the Prime Minister, Hon. Mr. Whitney, to make progress, the debate in the Legislature goes over into another week. Mr. Allan Studholme, "the Labor party," got the floor yesterday afternoon and continued his address to a late hour last night, when the Opposition leader moved the adjournment. On Tuesday Hon. Mr. Mackay will speak and the Prime Minister will wind up the debate.

Mr. Sam Clarke (Northumberland) resumed the debate. It had cost the province a good deal to get his honor's address and consequently it was fitting to give it full consideration. He reminded the Provincial Treasurer that he "didn't have to work" for that part of his surplus which was represented in the increased subsidy from the Dominion. He commended the idea of the experimental farming station in New Ontario to test the possibilities of the country, and he thought it would be fairer on the part of the Government to delay rushing settlers into the new country until its agricultural possibilities had been fully determined.

Passing on over the clauses in the speech from the throne, Mr. Clarke availed himself of the reference to the report of the committee that toured Europe looking into asylum conditions to pay tribute to Hon. Dr. Willoughby and express regret at his continued serious illness.

"I can't see what great things this Government have done," declared Mr. Clarke. "They have proved themselves good collecting agents, that's all. They have reaped in the rewards of the good work of those who went before them."

The interest which had developed in the progress of New Ontario, Mr. Clarke declared, was largely attributable to Mr. C. N. Smith, member for Sault Ste. Marie. So long as the Government followed his advice and "stole his clothes" they would not go far wrong.

Referring to the spoils system, Mr. Clarke said last time he had referred to it one of the hon. gentlemen opposite had reminded him that he had "a friend with a job." "So I've been very quiet ever since," added Mr. Clarke amid laughter.

Mr. Preston (Durham)—"And he's still got the job."

Mr. Clarke, amid laughter—"Yes, yes, that's it. He's still got the job."

Continuing the member for Northumberland read from The News of March, 1906, to show that the Government had dispensed with hundreds of justices of the peace, license commissioners and inspectors, fishery overseers, division court clerks and bailiffs, and issuers of marriage licenses.

"I see," he added, "that they have added over 800 issuers of marriage licenses. Well, I think that's wise, for this is leap year." (Laughter.)

Mr. Clarke wanted to know why all the plaudits from the private benches of the Conservatives were for the Minister of Mines and the Provincial Secretary. Of the others nothing was heard.

"What would become of this country if those two men died?" he asked. "If the good Lord took them, though I don't think He needs them." (Laughter.)

"I am sorry the Minister of Power is not here," he was proceeding when Hon. Adam Beck, who was conferring with the Premier at the side of the membership benches, spoke up "Here he is."

"I want to tell him," continued Mr. Clarke, "that the people of Toronto and Western Ontario are still looking for cheap power, and the waters of Niagara are flowing on uncaged. Three years of time has been taken up by the Government on the power policy, and nothing has been done yet."

Referring to the temperance question, Mr. Clarke declared that the license laws were no better enforced than under the old Government. Mr. Whitney, he said, had promised majority rule and a square deal, instead he gave them the three-fifths handicap. "I want to say," he announced, "that the Premier deceived the people on the temperance question."

Mr. Clarke undertook to tell a little inside history. "Hon. G. W. Ross," he said, "had pledged himself to Miss Temperance and he honestly intended marrying her. (Laughter.) But he got into difficulty. When he came to the caucus he had determined to stake all on the prohibition issue, to go in for it on his own hat. But he only had three of a majority and his associates were not willing to go with him. His difficulties prevented him from fulfilling his promise."

He expressed surprise and regret that the Opposition was aggrieved over the introduction of legislation giving the settlers timber and mineral rights. That view had been held by Mr. Ferguson and his constituents for years. The Minister of Agriculture was to be commended for his efforts to procure efficient farm laborers and to discourage the immigration of useless foreigners. The farmers were willing to pay good wages to those who did their work well.

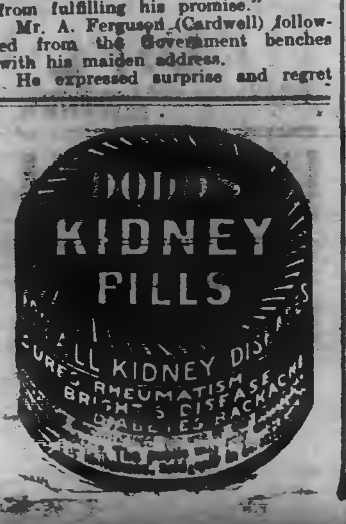
As a new member Mr. Ferguson was surprised to hear that the only one thing the Opposition had brought against the Government was the purchase of a supposed blind mare. Mr. Ferguson declared that eight foals of this mare had sold for $25,000 in Scotland, the home of the Clydesdale. As a practical farmer he believed a splendid bargain had been made in purchasing the mare for $1,500.

"I have never been so proud of being a follower of Mr. Whitney as I am now," concluded Mr. Ferguson.

The very vigorous applause which greeted the rising of the "Labor Party," Mr. Allan Studholme (East Hamilton) led that gentleman to remark that he hoped the cheers would be as vociferous when he concluded.

"What Ontario wants," declared Mr. Studholme," is more patriotism and less partyism." Many things had been mentioned in the speech from the throne, but not a single word of benefit to the wage-earning classes.

"Labor, like Lazarus at the door of Dives, is being refused even the crumbs from the legislative table," was Mr. Studholme's simile. He spoke of the needs of the unemployed in Toronto and the suffering among the poor. The Legislature was partially responsible in bringing undesirable citizens from the old land. Mr. Studholme particularly criticized the grant to the Salvation Army and scored the immigration work of that organization.



RUSSIA'S NAVAL PROGRAM.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—Representatives of the Russian Admiralty submitted yesterday to the Commission of National Defence of the Douma the financial outline of the much-discussed naval program. The matter was discussed with open doors, instead of in private, as had been expected.

The program is to be completed in 1909, and it includes not only the construction of a fleet of battleships, but also hydrographic work at several of the ports of Russia. The expenditures involved amount to $1,078,000,000. One of the features of the program is a duplicate complement of guns for every ship to be constructed. Russian yards will be able to handle and complete the entire program, including the installation of turbine machinery.

An alternative minor program also was submitted. This provides for the construction of only four battleships and a fleet of smaller vessels. The estimated expenditure under this schedule is $225,000,000.

DOMESTICS FOR B.C.

General Booth Defends Emigration Policy of Salvation Army.

London, Feb. 21.—(C.A.P.)—F. L. Goldsmid reported gratifying progress on the project to establish "Tunbridge Wells In Canada" at a meeting of supporters. Last year 169 persons emigrated. He urged that the Government should move in the matter of supplying the colonies with British emigrants.

Addressing a batch of emigrants, mainly agricultural laborers and female domestics, en route for British Columbia, General Booth defended the Salvation Army's emigration policy. He was satisfied the Army was on the right lines, and that it would go on progressing. It was being considered to place 3,000 to 5,000 men on railway construction work.

Five hundred of the 800 emigrants who sailed yesterday go to British Columbia under the terms of the Salvation Army's agreement with the British Columbia Government.

GUERILLA WAR IN MANCHURIA.

Native Chinese Are Fighting—Drove Japs From the Towns.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 21.—Advices have been received in Portland from Hong Kong, and other Chinese cities that a species of guerilla warfare has broken out in Manchuria, between the Japanese soldiers who make up the army of occupation, and the native Chinese, who are bent on driving out of the country the representatives of the power whom they fear as an encroaching menace.

It is said in these advices that several conflicts have already occurred between the soldiers and the people, and that the Japanese have been driven entirely from the towns of Hop Gi Bin and En Tai Hop Gi.

The fact that trouble exists between their country and Japan is well known to well-informed Chinese of this city, and all look upon the situation as serious; some of them even say that a long and bitter struggle has begun.

Factory Girls In Danger.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Several hundred girls employed in the large hosiery mill of Thomas Henry & Sons, Trenton avenue and Tioga street, in the northeastern section of the city, were driven from their work yesterday by a fire which destroyed the mill. About twenty of the girls were overcome by smoke, but they soon revived after reaching the street. The loss is placed at $150,000.

Roosevelt May Hunt In Ontario.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Feb. 21.—President Roosevelt is considering an invitation extended by W. F. Knox and George P. McCallum of the Michigan Soo, to take a hunting trip in the Canadian woods, north of here, after the expiration of his term.

He said he would endeavor to arrange for the trip, which will include a long tramp after moose and bear.

RIOT IN PHILADELPHIA.

Twenty Persons Injured In Clash With Police—Unemployed March.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—The marching of nearly 1,000 foreigners upon the City Hall, where they said they intended to make demands for work, precipitated a riot on Broad street, in the heart of the city, late yesterday, and 20 persons were injured before the police dispersed the marchers and arrested 11 of them.

The men marched from the foreign settlement, in the lower section of the city. The leaders and a score of others in the line carried red flags, having a black border. When they reached Broad street, a few blocks below the City Hall, several wagons attempted to pass through the line and three drivers were dragged from their seats by the marchers and badly beaten.

Policemen ran to the rescue of the drivers and a riot call was sent in. When soon a large body of police reached the scene a general riot ensued.

Some of the marchers drew revolvers and began firing at the police, and the mounted officers riding into the centre of the fight, used their batons right and left upon the heads of the offenders. In the melee three policemen were shot and slightly wounded and a bystander was struck in the leg by a stray bullet. Reserve Police Officers Byott and Smith were severely beaten and were removed to a hospital.

Harry Druding, one of the drivers in question, was beaten and nearly stripped of his clothing. Fourteen participants in the demonstration were severely clubbed by the police and were sent to an hospital.

These fourteen were either foremost in the ranks of the marchers or were flag carriers, who were singled out by the police and arrested, when it was ascertained that the men had secured no permit from the city officials to parade. The charge against the men arrested is inciting to riot.

THIRTY-ONE REPORTED KILLED.

Victims of Terrible Explosion In California—Mostly Chinese.

Berkeley, Calif., Feb. 21.—It is reported that between 25 and 31 Chinamen and four white men were killed and six white men seriously injured in an explosion yesterday.

Brockville Man Murdered.

Brockville, Feb. 21.—News has just been received here of the murder at a little place called Fance, 20 miles from Florence, Wis., on the 3rd inst., of Patrick Campbell, a former resident of this town, who went to Wisconsin 25 years ago.

Campbell, who was 52 years old, was unmarried and resided alone in his log cabin on a farm of 40 acres. On the evening of the 3rd a Pole called at the cabin and demanded a night's lodging. Campbell did not like the look of the stranger, and told him so, whereupon the latter departed. A few minutes later, on going out, Campbell received the charge of a shotgun just as he was leaving the door.

Twelve hours later he was found by a neighbor in his hut, still breathing and conscious, and from a description given of the stranger the authorities arrested Paul Kass, who is now being held.

Billek Sentence Affirmed.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 21.—The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the decision in the Cook County Criminal Court, in the Billek murder case.

Herman Billek was convicted of the murder of one of the children of Mrs. Mary Vzral. He was a clairvoyant and fortune-teller, and acquired great influence over Mrs. Vzral, and it is claimed by the police that the couple, by means of arsenic, killed Martin Vzral, the husband of the woman, and four of the children, in order to obtain life insurance carried by the victims.

Mrs Vzral committed suicide when she heard she was about to be arrested.

DEATH FOR STOESSEL

Sentence on General Who Surrendered Port Arthur to Japs.

Court Recommends That It Be Commuted to Ten Years In Russian Fortress — Petition to Empress—Terrorist Plot Discovered — Ten Policemen Wounded and One Killed—Fifty Arrests Made.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21—Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel was condemned to death last evening by a military court for the surrender of Port Arthur to the Japanese. Gen. Fock, who commanded the Fourth East Siberian division of Port Arthur, was ordered reprimanded for a disciplinary offence, which was not connected with the surrender, and Gen. Smirnoff, acting commandant of the fortress, and Major-Gen. Reiss, chief of staff to Gen. Stoessel, were acquitted on the charges against them for lack of proof. The court recommended that the death sentence of Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel be commuted to ten years' imprisonment in a fortress and that he be excluded from the service.

Commutation of sentence was asked on the ground that "Port Arthur, beset by overwhelming forces, defended itself under Gen. Stoessel's leadership with unexampled stubbornness and filled the world with astonishment at the heroic courage of its garrison; that several assaults had been repulsed with tremendous losses on the part of the enemy; that Gen. Stoessel throughout the siege had maintained the heroic courage of the defenders and, finally, that he had taken energetic part in three campaigns."

Before the sentence was read measures were taken to prevent a demonstration in favor of Stoessel by a number of the younger officers and witnesses who were present. These later sent a despatch to the Empress saying that they would humbly bear testimony that Gen. Stoessel was the soul of the defence of Port Arthur, that he has always encouraged and put heart in the garrison to the best of his endeavor, and that in case of war they would wish to serve again under such a hero. They asked the Empress graciously to bespeak from the Emperor a full pardon.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—Attempts that had been planned against the lives of exalted personages were frustrated by the police last night by a succession of arrests in various parts of the city, aggregating fifty men and women. This is the greatest number of terrorists ever taken by the police in the capital. The majority of them were heavily armed, some with bombs, and they made desperate resistance against the police. During the course of the arrests ten policemen were wounded and one was killed.

The operations centred around the palace of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch, who, it is surmised, was the immediate object of the plot. Late yesterday several hundred gendarmes drew a cordon around an entire city block in the vicinity of the grand duke's palace, comprising 600 occupied apartments. Agents of the police searched these apartments from top to bottom and unearthed stores of explosives and firearms.

A fashionably dressed woman was arrested on the street. She carried a muff in which was concealed a quantity of dynamite and was escorted by a man who wore flat under his belt an infernal machine of a new type. Both opened fire when the police approached them, wounding three of them.

Britain's Premier Ill.

London, Feb. 21.—The health of the Prime Minister, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, does not improve. Dr. Sir Thomas Barlow, physician to the King's household, has been summoned to confer with Sir Henry's own doctor.

The bulletins which are issued do not show anything alarming, but Sir Henry's friends are anxious and refer to his condition as serious.

Father Murdered Infant.

Woodstock, N.B., Feb. 21.—Deputy Sheriff Foster and his assistants yesterday found the remains of an infant alleged to have been slain by Richard Grey of this place, who is now under arrest. The mother of the child is Grey's daughter, while Grey himself was its father. The finding of the coroner's jury will be murder. Grey says he thought the child would be better out the way.

"Black Hand" Atrocity.

New York, Feb. 21.—The dismembered body of a man, believed to have been a victim of a mysterious Black Hand murder, was discovered in a dump in the "Flatbush" section of Brooklyn yesterday. The trunk of the body had been cut in two, and portions of the arms and legs were missing, while the face was so slashed as to make the features almost unrecognizable.

Home-Bound English Miners.

Montreal, Feb. 21.—A hundred miners from Lethbridge and the west are here to-day on their way home to Lancashire. They came here to the coal mines on the promise of steady work, but they say they have worked but six weeks, and are almost starving.

Longshoremen Sue.

Montreal, Feb. 21.—Montreal longshoremen have taken seventy actions, owing to failure to pay them the bonus of 2 1-2c. awarded them last summer.

Won't Resign.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—The British Columbia Liberals refuse to take seriously the request of the Asiatic Exclusion League that they resign.

In Parliament at Ottawa; France is the Chief Gainer

Discussion in House of Commons on New French Treaty.

Sharp Criticism From Opposition Members—Grape-Growing Industry Will Suffer Heavily—Canada Gets Worst of Bargain—"Gold Brick" Says Mr. Cockshutt—No Consideration For Ontario.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—The bill respecting the French treaty was given its second reading last night after a lengthy discussion. At midnight the House adjourned and the bill will be taken up in committee again today.

The Opposition sharply criticized the main features of the convention. Messrs. Smith (Wentworth) and Cockshutt (Brantford) analyzed the treaty from the standpoint of business men, and declared that the advantage gained by France was in the proportion of 5 to 1 to that gained by Canada. While it was admitted the agricultural implement industry would gain, the Opposition to the treaty claimed this would be more than offset by the loss to the grape-growing industry.

Claude Macdonell (Toronto) objected to the direct shipment feature, while Mr. Borden devoted his time to the claim of the Ministry, that a departure had been made in respect to our treaty-making powers.

There was no division on the second reading, it being outside the power of the House to amend the treaty in the slightest particular.

Treaty Favors France.

Dr. Daniel commenced by saying that outside of the sentimental aspect of the question there was a business side. He thought the convention might well be called "a treaty to facilitate imports of French manufactures into Canada." In the French Chamber practically the only criticism offered was with regard to items of boots and shoes, and as to the value of Canadian manufactures imported into France was only $441 in a year, it could not be claimed that the treaty was much to the disadvantage of French manufactures. There was a great disparity between our exports to and imports from France, figures for nine months being $6,679,349 of French goods imported and $1,469,572 of Canadian goods exported to France.

Special treatment had been given to articles of exclusively French manufacture, while there was no provision for exportation to France of special products of Canadian soil.

Proprietory Medicines.

Regarding proprietary medicines, Dr. Daniel showed that while we import to the value of $40,000 yearly from France, we had not the power to export a single dollar's worth of these medicines to France. Absinthe, a particularly dangerous decoction of French manufacture, was given special treatment under the new tariff.

Dr. Daniel feared the reduction of the duty on light wines would have a serious effect on the Canadian grape-growing industry. More than one-third of the grapes grown in Canada were converted into wine. France, he declared, had got much the better of us. She had been given real advantages of trade, while we must look to the future for any advantages that may come to us. He, however, commended the direct shipment feature of the treaty.

Stable Tariff Needed.

Claude Macdonell asserted that the people of Canada desired a stable tariff. The various forms of tariff were creating an unrest and insecurity among the established industries of the country, which was bound to have a serious effect.

The new treaty did not extend advantages to products unloaded at the great lakes ports. He had seen direct vessels discharging cargoes at Toronto, while the treaty gives preference only to direct shipments to sea and river ports. This was not the time to enforce the port to port clause. The facilities were not adequate as there were only two boats in seven weeks.

There was an apparent intention of the framers of the treaty to benefit the port of Montreal without considering the interests of western importers. Mr. Macdonell protested against the making of treaties or selection of channels of transportation by order in council. Toronto importers desired more freedom of choice of port of entry, and in the interests of these importers and those of other sections of the country, there ought to be a change in this respect. Unfortunately, we were so situated that during exceptional winters shipments by way of St. John were delayed, to the loss of business.

Grudge Against Ontario.

Mr. Cockshutt (Brantford) held that the advantages secured were "infinitesimal." The Finance Minister seemed to have a grudge against Ontario. A short time ago a cutlery industry at Brantford went down for want of a little encouragement; later he attacked binder twine industry and now was doing injury to the grape-growing industry. Where was the Minister of Customs when Ontario industries were being jeopardized?

"Hit Ontario was the policy of this Government," declared Mr. Cockshutt, while it had been admitted by Mr. Brodeur that plenipotentiaries had a principle in view, the advantage of Montreal. The least the Finance Minister could do to the wine industry was to admit free spirits for fortifying wines.

Mr. Cockshutt was losing faith in the Government as a treaty-making power. The worst day for Canada was when Parliament let the Japanese treaty go through without full discussion. The Ministers would yet see their mistake, as he believed the Japanese treaty would cause trouble for ten years to come. As for the French treaty, it would benefit France $5 for every $1 gained for Canada. In short, it looked to Mr. Cockshutt like a gold brick.

Hartley Writes About the Big Six Day Walk at Kansas

Mr. R. J. Munro Receives Letter From Peterborough Pedestrian—All Kinds of Money Being Wagered on the Event—Hartley Keeping Quiet Concerning His Chances.

Mr. R. J. Munro, proprietor of the Munro House, has received a letter from Dave Hartley at Kansas City, Mo., in which the writer states there is the liveliest interest being displayed over the six days' walking contest that is to take place there, commencing next Monday morning. Hartley says there is a great deal of betting on the race, and when the six days' grind is over there will be a clean-up for somebody. The bookies, of whom there are a great many, are doing a land office business.

The Peterborough painter is in good shape and has been training faithfully for the event. He says he is up against a fast field, but hopes to be within the money when the race has finished.

Hartley is pursuing the wise policy of doing no talking, and says it is well down there to keep quiet. Since he has been there one man has been shot for talking too much, and while Hartley doesn't fear any fate like that, he deems it wise not to discuss his chances with anyone. He writes the letter from his boarding house on 13th street.

Notes About the Lemon Brigade

Passing Comment on Josiah Craig, the Limerick King, Poet, Author and Sportsman

When the Review meets the Examiner they will knock the Limericks out of Josh Craig.

Talk about Limerick Craig and the Poet Laureate, well, there certainly is no comparison.

The celebrated Italian handcuff expert, Prof. Falsetto Hohanni HogannI, will positively do a manacle turn between the first and second burlesque. Spectators are requested to reserve their bouquets until after the show is over, as it will be impossible to put on the second part of it with a fruit blockade.

The appearance Lim. Craig will present will be about as rough as the Limericks he writes.

Anybody having any fairly good Limericks on the game are asked to send them to Lim. Craig at the Examiner office.

Since the "professional" editor of the Examiner won $3 in the Lipton Limerick competitions he has refused to write any for the Grit gooseberry. This is the first time he has ever made anything for writing outside his weekly ten, and he is naturally a little elated at securing last money.

John Dough Clarke has little to say concerning the game. When seen this morning by a representative of the Morning Times, he refused to give an interview to the reporter from the independent journal.

Besides doing the handcuff turn Prof. Falsetto Hohanni Hogannl will act as house constable. It is understood, of course, that the position is purely honorary.

Since Lim. Craig has started to spiel verse the insurance companies refuse to take any further risks on him.

The admission fee to the game is only ten cents. This is about the size of Josiah Craig's ability to write poetry.

A despatch says that a man in Illinois, whose clothes caught fire, ran ten miles and saved himself from burning by jumping in a river.

The fire must have been about as fast as the Examiner hockey team.

Wanted.—Seven hockey players. Apply at Examiner.

Of course the announcement contains no news.

Shakespeare's description of the boy "creeping like snail unwillingly to school" gives one a fine conception of the way the Examiner hockey team travels.

Besides the handcuff turn Prof. Hoganni will do a rube act without make-up.

The half time score will be 8—0 in favor of the Review. The Tory septette will not warm up till the second half.

The tickets for the game will be placed on sale in a few days at 25 cents each. The admission is ten cents.

The proceeds of the great press game will go to the Children's Aid Society. Review would recommend that the society spend a portion of it on the protection of John Dough Clark, the boy wonder of the Examiner.

If the Review can hand the Examiner a deal as raw as the verses Josiah Craig is writing we will be fully satisfied.

It certainly was a case of from bad to worse when Josh Craig jumped the prose ranks and started to write poetry.

Have you noted the mellow quality of the Examiner verses? That mellowness will likely lead to something.

There are still hopes for B. T. Huston's success in life. President Garfield was a raw looker when he was a boy.

A new sheet metal roof is being put on the rink to prevent Late Premier Robinson from poking holes in the covering and letting in the starlight.

McKerchers Won From Fast Men

McKercher's got away from Noble's boarding house seven in the second half of their game between 10 and o'clock last night, scoring four straights and winning by 5—1. At half time the score was 2—1.

The winners lined up as follows;—

Goal—McCoy.
Point—Gibbs.
Cover—Kearns.
Rover—Watson.
Centre—Cross.
Right—Barclay.
Left Tucker.

Newmarket, Feb. 20.—In an exhibition hockey game played here tonight between Pharmacy of Toronto and Newmarket, was witnessed a close and exciting contest throughout the entire game. The score stood at half time 4 all, and at the finish 12 to 10 in favor of Pharmacy, C. W. Roberts of O.C.P., made a strict and impartial referee. The players;

HOCKEY

The Chieftains defeated a Collegiate seven yesterday afternoon from 5 to 6 by 7-2. At half time the score was 3-0. The winners played great hockey, their combination work being particularly good.

Midland Juniors tied the Stratford Midgets in Stratford last night, the score being 6—6. At half time the visitors led by 4—1. Stratford was looked upon as easy winners and the result was the surprise of the season.

MATCH TONIGHT.

The Rough Riders and Knockers will meet tonight at Brock street rink between seven and eight o'clock. The members of the Knocker team are asked to be on hand in good time.

Sporting Comment

At a meeting of the Quakers held the night before last the team was unanimous in a desire to go to British Columbia to play for the People's Shield. The competition for the shield takes place in April and eight teams will compete. The Quakers have an aggregation of footballers that is a decided credit to Peterborough, and they should have a good chance for the shield. What they lack, though, is financial assistance. It's up to the citizens to contribute generously and thus give the locals a chance of proving their mettle. The team is worthy of every support and it would be a great advertisement for Peterborough, as well as a notable athletic achievement should they succeed in landing the shield.

WEDDING BELLS

TEDFORD—DECK

Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 12th, the home of Mr. Thomas Deck, Douro, was the scene of a very pleasant event, the occasion being the marriage of his only daughter, Mable Olive, to Mr. John A. Tedford, of Smith.

The wedding took place at two o'clock, in the presence of about 75 guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. G. Potter, under an arch of evergreens, and bell of white flowers and smilax.

The bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was played by Miss Mary Pratly of town.

The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of cream silk eolina, with the usual wedding veil, and carried a shower boquet of white carnations and ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Lilly Porter of Toronto, was dressed in cream silk, and carried a boquet of pink carnations.

Miss Beatty Deck, cousin of the bride, made a sweet little flower girl, she being dressed in white silk, and carrying a pretty basket of flowers.

The groom was supported by his brother.

After the ceremony the party retired to the dining room, which was nicely decorated for the occasion, where a heavily ladened table awaited them. Instead of the usual toasts, Mr. Potter gave a very appropriate address, which was much applauded. The bride who is very popular, was the recipient of a very large number of useful and handsome presents.

The bride's gift to the pianist was a gold brooch set with baroque pearl, while the groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful fur-lined coat, to the bridesmaid, a gold watch fob, and to the little flower girl a gold ring.

The happy couple left, amid showers of rice and good wishes, on the 5.30 G.T.R. train for Toronto and other points west. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Tedford, will reside in Omemee.

Women's Canadian Club Likely To be Organized in Peterboro'

An agitation is on foot for the formation of a Women's Canadian Club in Peterborough. Arrangements are being made for holding a meeting in the near future to discuss the matter and there is every probability that the movement will be carried to a successful issue.

It has transpired that since the ladies have been hearing about the excellent addresses and general success of the Peterborough Canadian Club they have become interested in the matter and have come to the conclusion that a Women's Canadian Club is wanted in Peterborough and have taken steps towards the organization of one.

The ladies of Peterborough are not without a precedent in this connection. In Montreal there is a Women's Canadian Club that is meeting with great success. Many prominent speakers have addressed the ladies and the Club is steadily growing in members and influence.

There is no doubt that if a Club is organized in Peterborough it would have a large membership and prove as successful as the organization already in existence.

"Scene from Victorien Sardous' Masterpiece "Diplomacy" which will be presented by the Royal Alexandra Players at the "Grand" next Tuesday Evening. Plan opens to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Lumber Company Case Followed With Much Interest at Havelock

Many Prominent Lumbermen Summoned as Witnesses—Fancy Dress Ball the Event of the Season—C. P. R. Station Agent is Transferred.

Special to the Review.

Havelock, Ont., Feb. 20th.—The arbitration case between the Thompson Lumber Company and the McBurney Lumber Company, of Toronto, which has been in progress for some time, and had two sessions, has adjourned again for the next ten days in order to get other witnesses and evidence. John Brown, the veteran lumberman of Belmont, is upholding the claim of the Thompson Lumber Company, and D. T. White, of Midland, that of the McBurney Lumber Company, while F. E. Hodgins, K.C., of Toronto, is the third arbitrator.

Besides a large number of witnesses from town and Belmont, there are other prominent men in the lumber and timber business have been in town as witnesses on the case, which is exciting much interest in this vicinity and elsewhere. The witnesses included A. A. Wright, of the Victoria Harbor Lumber Company; W. H. Tovering, of Toronto, and Messrs. J. B. McWilliams and Geo. Cochrane, of Peterborough. Owing to the parties in the case, and also the witnesses, being well-known, great interest is taken in the outcome. It has been reported that the case would be concluded in Toronto, but on account of the large number of local witnesses, it will likely be concluded in Havelock.

W. D. McPherson, K.C., and Mr. G. J. Sherry were counsel for the Thompson Company, of which Mr. Jas Thompson, of town, and Warden of the county, is president, while Mr. W. R. White, K.C., and Mr. Shaver, of Toronto, were counsel for the McBurney Lumber Co.

Mr. Thompson claims $8,525.00 from the McBurney Lumber Company.

The R. W. Marks No. 1 Dramatic Company held the boards in the opera house here Monday night in a first-class comedy, "Woman Against Woman," in which the several members of the company showed up well. They showed at Marmora on Tuesday night, as the Havelock hall was taken for that night for the fancy dress ball under the auspices of the Havelock Hockey Club. They returned on Wednesday, and pleased large audiences at a matinee in the afternoon, and a fine play, "Under Two Flags," in the evening. The citizens of Havelock have waited a long time for this promised company, and they regard it as a treat indeed. A great feature of the performances were the specialties by the several members of the company. The company has now changed hands and is no longer under the management of R. W. Marks, Mr. Jos. Machan taking that position in the future.

Mr. Jas. Frost, proprietor of the Park Grove rink, has given notice that he will hold another carnival on Monday evening of next week, Feb. 24th. Valuable prizes will be offered for comic and comic costumes, and several races will likely be run. A foot race will be the feature of the evening. The last carnival was a most successful affair.

Jas. Gilbert, the local milkman, has reduced the price of milk from 6 cents to 5 cents per quart, and it is likely that the other milkmen will do the same.

The social under the auspices of the Presbyterian choir at Mr. Mr. D. Burgess' residence, Belmont, was a great success, as a great many took advantage of the opportunity to enjoy a sleigh ride.

Mr. P. G. Cromar, the local C.P.R. agent, has received notification that he has been transferred to North Bay. Mr. Cromar will leave in a few days to take charge of his new position. It is not known who his successor will be. His many friends in town will regret his removal from here, but are extending congratulations on his promotion to the position at North Bay.

The hockey club were the hosts of their friends at a fancy dress ball in the opera house on Tuesday night, and was indeed a very enjoyable affair. There was a large number in attendance from outside towns as well as Havelock. Those present were robed in very brilliant costumes, and the evening will long be remembered. Great credit is due to the committee in charge of the dance. Dancing commenced at nine o'clock, music being furnished by the Campbellford orchestra. Among those in costume were;—

Mrs. Stewart—Violets.
Mrs Herrington—Chorus Girl.
Mrs. Robinson—Night.
Mrs. Ostrander—Scotch Lassie.
Mrs. Innis—Boo Peep.
Miss C. Dorricott—Forget-Me-Nots

La grippe is making its rounds in Havelock. Look out or the germ and endurance on the mat and in the Spring is already making some desperate attempts to overpower winter, but that monster seems to parry all the blows.

The voting on the bylaw to raise the hotel license fee from $350 to $750 will take place on Monday, Feb. 24th.

Surveys are at present being made on the Trent Valley Canal between Trent Bridge and Healey Falls.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 18th, Miss Mary Alice Spencer, daughter of Mr. Mark Spencer, of town, was united in the bonds of wedlock to Mr. Thos. Flynn, of Stetler, Sask., in the presence of the near relatiives of the contracting parties.

On Wednesday, Feb. 26th, a social under the auspices of St. John's church, will be held at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Webb.

A first-class concert, under the auspices of St. John's church, will be held in the opera house on Monday, March 2nd. Among those who will take part are; Bert. Harvey, humorist, of Toronto; J. Harry Scrivers, tenor, of Toronto, and Miss Carrie Reesor, mezzo-soprano, and Miss Julia Choate, violiniste, of Peterborough.

Miss Goldman, the anarchist, lectured in Toronto in the Finnish hall. No more appropriate location for the lady's diatribes could have been secured, as she is understood to favor almost any kind of a finish that is sudden and violent.

IN DEATH THEY WERE NOT PARTED

Some Details of the Death of the Late George Greer at Dunkirk, New York

The Buffalo Express had the following despatch from Dunkirk, on Feb. 16th;

Dunkirk, Feb. 16—George Greer, who was brought to this city from Chicago Friday to say good-bye to his brother, William T. Greer, who was then on his deathbed, died at noon today just two hours before the funeral services of his broher.

The two brothers had not seen each other for a number of years. Last week, while the death of Wm. Greer was hourly expected a message was received telling of the critical condition of George Greer, in a Chicago hospital.

A third brother, who was here, hastened to Chicago and found the latter on the verge of death from consumption. When George Greer heard of the fatal illness of his brother in Dunkirk he pleaded to be taken to him. He arrived at the home of his brother shortly before the latter died.

The funeral of William T. Greer was held this afternoon from the family home in West Fourth street. Brief services were conducted by the Rev. Wm. Gratz, and Irondequoit Lodge, F. & A.M., of which Mr Greer was a member.

The burial services were in charge of Irondequoite Lodge, which with Dunkirk Lodge, accompanied the body to the cemetery.

The Hall Was Again Crowded

The Conservatory Music Hall was again filled last night when the cantatta, "Trial by Jury," was presented for the second time. It was given in an even more finished manner than on the first night, and was greatly enjoyed. An excellent programme preceded the cantatta, and at the close of the evening's entertainment, those taking part, enjoyed an impromptu "hop."

THE CARNIVAL OF WHITEWEAR

BEGINS

THURSDAY AT 9 IN THE MORNING

Out they will flutter—clouds of dainty Undermuslins, White Fabrics, Laces and Embroideries and Waists—and all marked at Entering Prices. Now comes a long anticipated event—Our Annual White Sale. Ready for a period of underpricing of Lingerie, Waists, Fabrics, in fact everything White is involved in this sale.

Now the bargain winds will blow in departments where white goods are sold. How the snowy clouds of white merchandise will dissappear—melting like the snow (which they outrival in whiteness) under a July sun. We bought widely for this event—and well. Elaborate, Frenchy Undermuslins, whose prices have been almost prohibitive, were offered us by "panic-stricken" manufacturers at half prices. And in other lines of goods—Fabrics, Garments, Laces, etc.—bought at even greater price concessions. Put two and two together and the importance of this sale is evident. Beautiful Undermuslins and other Whitewear, which ordinarily, few can afford, are on sale here at prices to accommodate every purse.

The sale begins Thursday. While our stocks are the largest we ever assembled for a White Sale so unusual are the values that many of the choicest may not last the event through. For that reason—Come early.

Choir Leader Was Remembered

Presentation to Mr. J. C. Miller by Choir of Mark St. Church

It was the last occasion of their practice under the leadership of Mr. J. C. Miller, who has during the past four years been associated with them in that capacity. During that time, he has proven himself a very agreeable and efficient teacher.

Before separating a presentation was made Mr. Miller accompanied by the following address to which he very suitably replied.

Dear Mr. Miller,—

Since learning that the termination of your relations with us as our leader was determined upon, We, the members of the Mark street Methodist church choir have been effected by a deep and sincere regret that we were to lose your genial personality from among us, and your much valued assistance in our work.

During the years of our association in choir work we have prized very highly your renderings of sacred song your qualities as a director and very especially the kind and courtly manner of your treatment of all who at any time have been connected with you.

You have never been captious or severe.

You have never resented our familiarities.

And with all our poor efforts to respond to your training, you have exercised an unlimited measure of long suffering.

We cannot allow your connection with us as leader to be severed without giving this expression of appreciation and our sincere regret over your departure. That you may receive from our hands something which will serve as a memento of associations which we trust have been in some measure pleasant to yourself, as they have been pleasant to us and profitable we ask you to receive this watch fob and ornament, a slight token indeed, which may, perhaps, be esteemed more for what it stands for—our friendship, and Christian affection, than for its intrinsic value.

Our prayer is and will be, that a kind Providence may guide your way, and that your voice may continue to be employed in the Master's service, and unto the glory of Him whom we love.

Signed on behalf the choir
MISS MARY SPEER, Organist
MISS M. HOWSON.

Mr. Miller who will henceforth worship with his family at the George street church will be greatly missed by the Mark street congregation among whom he has labored with unstinted devotion not only in connection with the choir, but as Sabbath School superintendent for some time past.

It has not yet been determined who will become his successor.

Comprehensive Address on Provincial Committee's Work

Given at Members Banquet at the Y. M. C. A. Last Night by Provincial Secretary Copeland—Equipment of Building a Topic That Brought Forth Many Suggestions as to Improvements That Might be Judicously Effected.

A generous discussion of matters pertaining to the walfare of the Y.M.C.A. took place last night at the members' banquet held in the association's gymnasium. There was a large number in attendance and the addresses on the part of the different speakers were of a thoroughly practical character. The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. Copeland, the Provincial Y.M.C.A. secretary. Mr. J. C. Shook president of the local Y.M.C.A., was in the chair.

The spread which was provided by Messrs. Coleman Brothers, was an excellent one and after the tempting menu had been disposed of, the toast list was run off. It was not a lengthy one but was very important and called for somewhat long proposals and replies.

These were marked by a great seriousness and remarks of some of the speakers were direct and right to the point.

After the supper had been partaken of, Mr. J. H. Scriver sang, "Love Me and the World is Mine," and the selection was generously applauded.

The toast to the Provincial Committee was then proposed by Mr. Connal, who referred to the good work of the committee and Mr. Copeland.

The latter in replying expressed his sincere thanks at the kind words spoken. Peterborough, he said, was one of the best fields in the whole Province in the matter of Y.M.C.A. work, but the best results here had not been reached yet. The Y.M.C.A. was young and its purposes had not been fully realized, although the association had grown very rapidly.

There are some fundamental necessities in the carrying out of the work. The first was the spiritual movement. Then there was the personality of a man. The building was simply incidental, what was needed was the man. The successful work of the Y.M.C.A. was centred around personality. An important point was the one of adaption. The Y.M.C.A. must adopt itself to the needs of young men according to local conditions.

There are different classes of men. Those attracted by the bargain day instinct are not easily held. There must be work to attract men. In this respect the Y.M.C.A. offers the greatest chance for service of the highest type.

Mr. Copeland dwelt for some time on the Provincial Committee. It starts associations in various towns and guides them. It accomplishes things which local associations could not. It is the agency for united effort.

Opportunities are presented on all hands and opportunities bring with them obligation.

Thousands of immigrants are flocking to the country. In the mines shanties and in construction work there are employed in Canada, so the speaker was informed, over 250,000 men. In many cases nothing is being done in Christian work among these men.

Out west the work of the association is flourishing and new buildings are being opened up at different points there. The idea of the committee was to co-operate with associations and to assist them in any way. The speaker told of the money that had been raised in different parts of the Province and said the committee had given this work their heartiest support. The membership of the local association was 450 and that could be doubled in a short time if the members used their influence and brought to bear their personality.

In conclusion Mr. Copeland wished that Mr. Wright, the local secretary the local association generally, the heartiest success.

MR. SHOOK SPEAKS.

Mr. Shook said he was sure that those in attendance had greatly benefited by Mr. Copeland's remarks and endorsed his sentiments in every respect. He spoke of the next toast to be proposed which was a peculiar one inasmuch as it was a toast to themselves. It would be proposed by Rev. Mr. Webb, and responded to by Messrs. E. M. Best and W. D. Campbell. It would then be open for discussion and he hoped many original and helpful suggestions would be made. He then enumerated some of the wants of the association and stated its object as a social and spiritual institution. There was a great work to be done by the young men—"there is energy enough in this room," said Mr. Shook, "to make this association an ideal one."

He stated good work was being done now and urged the members to keep it up. There was not enough success in either religious or educational work. It was no use to pat themselves on the back for what he said was true. It was up to them to put all their best efforts behind the work.

"BETTERMENT OF ASSOCIATION."

Mr. Webb thanked the gathering for the honor they had conferred upon him in allowing him to propose the toast for the "Betterment of the Peterborough Association." He would be brief but also wanted to be careful. He didn't want to bring anything discordant into the harmonious gathering of the evening.

"We are not here, though to hear ourselves talk or bring any discord into the meeting," he said.

There was that which was not only to be done but how was it to be done and who was to be found who would do it? There were three heads to the subject. In the first place it depended on the directors of the association. The moment they took the deepest possible interest in the work the association would be reborn. Something was needed in the way of equipment in the work of the association. This was a known fact. The speaker was a father of boys and he was thinking of the day when they would be away from him, —strangers in strange cities. He was thinking of the time when they would be in the midst of great temptation.

He would rather see the building burned down than have games of chance brought within the walls but he thought it was a positive duty of the directors to introduce harmless games of skill.

Mr. Webb spoke of the subscribers. There are some men in the city of Peterborough who simply give to get rid of their solicitors. This was not the light in which the subscribers should look at the matter. They should be made to look at it in such a way that they would look upon giving to the association as a blessed privilege. He wanted to lay the burden of the association upon the members as well as upon the directors and subscribers. The members have a personal interest in the association work.

MR. BEST'S REPLY.

Mr. Best felt privileged to reply to the toast of "How to Better our Association." The name of the toast indicated that there was a need for betterment. The Peterborough Association in the opinion of the speaker, had fallen. But he believed everything could be righted and the association brought up to its former high level if those interested were willing to put their shoulders to the wheel. He spoke of the different rooms and departments of the building and suggested many improvements. The boys' room was a critical part of the building. It was practically impossible to get the boys into their room as there was nothing there to attract them. A boys' secretary and a physical director were needed. He also referred to the need of an assistant secretary.

Speaking of the directors he said there were men of different abilities among them. Some were very efficient, others not so good. Some subscribers have cut down subscriptions as low as possible on the plea that affairs were not being managed in a business like way. The YMCA was about the only business institution that has gone back. Practically only 150 men formed the adult active membership of the association. The work of the association has fallen off greatly and something had to be done in this matter. The boys were simply using the building as a place of convenience. A boys' department and a men's department were urgently needed. A physical director was also needed for twelve months of the year.

The YMCA should dominate in the sports of the town and a physical director was needed to be behind the athletic movements of the association.

Some changes could also be made with advisability on the Board of Directors. It was necessary to have men on the Board who had a mutual confidence in themselves as well as the confidence of the public. New blood should be introduced into the association and many improvements had to be made. If those interested were aggressive in the cause there needed to be no fear as far as things financial were concerned.

In conclusion he urged that all be bold and shoulder the responsibility.

SUPPORTED MR. BEST'S SENTIMENTS.

Mr. Campbell also pointed out the necessity of improvement and modifications. He had confidence in the ability of the Board of Directors, but said they were called upon to show as much interest in the Association as in their private business affairs. He supported Mr. Best's opinion that a competent physical director was needed, and spoke of the necessity of installing bowling alleys and pool and billiard tables. By the installation of these games young men could play them in a clean and healthy environment. The games themselves were clean and helpful.

DIRECTORS SPEAK.

Mr. J. H. Connal, a member of the Board of Directors, spoke when the matter was left open for discussion. He said there was need of many improvements and of making the building bright and attractive.

Mr. Harding told of his long service on the Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. He said he belived every member of the Board of Directors was an honest and conscientious man and each had done the best work he could. What Mr. Best and Mr. Campbell had said about the equipment of the building was right. Five years ago he himself had realized the necessity of the establishment of billiard tables in the Y.M.C.A. He realized that necessity today. He believed the boys needed consideration and that new equipment should be added. What had been said about required changes was all right, but where was the money coming from? During his term in office a change of secretary had been made, and he said Mr. Copeland had lent great assistance in the matter of securing one. The speaker had done what was in his power in helping on the work, and was always willing to do so whether he was a director or not.

Mr. W. Richardson, an active member, endorsed the sentiments of Messrs. Best and Campbell, and saw room for much improvement. He thought with the proper officials the Y.M.C.A. could be placed on a paying basis.

Mr. G. M. Roger, another of the directors, said he had been a member of the Board for many years and admitted many things said concerning the directors were true. But he did not agree with all that had been said. The directors were not the only ones who had to do with the success of the Association. In the matter of equipment he said that the local Y.M.C.A. was better than that of the large majority of buildings in Canada, United States and the Old Country. In his opinion, however, the equipment was not the important point, but the spiritual work should predominate. The success of the Association depended upon the spiritual work. He thoroughly agreed with Mr Best's practical address, however, and thought he should be a member of the Board of Directors. If the spiritual work was done, in his opinion there would be no trouble in getting the money. He was glad of the discussion and said the directors would be pleased to hear at different times from committees of members.

Mr. Fred C. Freeland sang in fine voice, "Down in the Depths Below," and was given a most enthusiastic recall, responding with an excellently rendered number, "A Warrior Bold."

Mr. Knapman said he wished to say a few words being a director. He thought the members had a distinct obligation to fulfill and they should get out after new members themselves. The directors were getting too old for that part of the work. He said the directors had done all in their work in connection with the uplifting of the Y.M.C.A., and deserved the gratitude of all connected with the Association.

The different magazines coming to the Y.M.C.A. reading room were sold by auction by Mr. Knapman.

The last toast of the evening was that of the ladies. It was neatly proposed by Mr. E. Bruce, and fittingly replied to by Dr. Middleton.

Wm. English Co. Send Four Large Canoes to London Eng.

That the canoes of the Wm. English Company, are widely known in all parts of the world is evidenced by the fact that this morning eight twenty foot canoes were finished, ready for shipment. They were all made for the Hudson Bay Co., four of them will be sent to their headquarters at London, Eng., from which place they will be shipped to different trading posts of the company. Four other canoes will be sent to the northwest, to some of the company's quarters in the far north. That Peterborough canoes should receive such fame, not only in Canada, but in many other countries is a thing local citizens should be proud of, as it is widely advertising this city.

Letters to The Editor

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

ON IMMIGRATION.

To the Editor of The Review;

Sir—"I.E.N." writes in "London Opinion," Canada is undoubtedly a splendid country for any farmer who does not jib at hard work, who has capital and who can wait a few years for a yield from his farm. The latter two facts are not placed before the would-be emigrant by the writers of immigration literature. "The immigrant to Rhodesia is not blinded by mendacious pamphlets. He is told what the Canadian emigrant is not told—that to succeed he requires more or less capital, and that he must work on his farm before it will produce."

"For years to come Canada must be kept more or less closed against immigrants, farmers with capital excepted, and that if philanthropic societies desire to do a good turn for our surplus population they must analyse our emigration literature and by practical testing see to it that they do not make bad worse, by taking our unemployed from the kingdom where they have friends and poor houses, as a last resort, to dump them where they are not wanted, where there are no poor houses, and where the starving, freezing, stranger finds little if any sympathy."

Yours truly,
W. A. PAILEY.

SWORE WITHIN HEARING OF THE CHIEF

Young Man Arrested in Front of Police Station—Was Disorderly

Thos. Mahoney took a great chance this morning when he undertook to use profane language in front of the police station. However he took the chance and lost it for his outbursts of profanity came within the hearing of Chief Roszel who had him placed behind the bars.

The young man had imbibed rather too freely of the cup that cheers and was exceedingly talkative when he appeared before the Magistrate this morning. He was fined two dollars or ten days in gaol for the offence.

He then wanted to swear out a warrant for the man who assaulted him.

"I'll see if there is any justice in Peterborough," he said, as he handed the Magistrate the forms to fill out. "Can you read English," he asked His Worship.

At this remark the crowd burst into laughing.

"Let them laugh," said Mahoney "but excuse me, that is not an insinuation."

"I love and respect the Bible, and I will kiss it both inside and out," he said.

Mahoney had not the necessary two spot, so had to go down to his cell until some good kind fellow came to his assistance.

Father Bernard Vaughan Discourses Upon Modernism

Father Bernard Vaughan, the famous and eloquent London Jesuit preacher, has enlightened an inquiring medical student by this following appropriate communication:

Dear Friend—You ask me what is 'Modernism' and what I think of it. I will answer your questions in the Socratic method, by asking you another. What is appendicitis and what do you think of it? You will tell me that appendicitis is a disease in the human body of a rudimentary organ which seems to serve no purpose but that of finding work for the surgeon's knife; and you will add that appendicitis is no new disorder, but only a new name for an old one—for typhlitis, perityphlitis, etc. Now I will answer your question. "Modernism" is a disease in the Christian organism of members whose only excuse for being in the body is that they must be expelled from it; and let me add, "Modernism" is not a new malady, but only a new name for scepticism, naturalism, rationalism, etc. As appendicitis, unless got rid of by manual operation, would not unfrequently prove fatal to human life, so, too, "Modernism" unless treated surgically, might easily poison the very springs of spiritual life. The sum of this, than the "Modernism" condemned by Pius X in his Encyclical is a far worse evil than appendicitis. It is a canker, which, unless speedily got rid of, would eat into the life itself of Christianity.

Yours truly in Christ,
BERNARD VAUGHAN

FRIDAY, FEB. 21, 1908.

THE CANADIAN CLUB

The Canadian Club in Peterborough is apparently a success. It is in excellent hands and will not drift on the political or we hope the financial rocks. So long as the speakers are men of prominence and have something to say they will as Mr. Morine did, attract a crowd and please it. The dinner was excellent and paved the way for something necessarily better. We did feel though as if we had been "shoved in," when we fell to without grace but this may have been merely a case of oversight. Mr. Kerr, the president, and Mr. O'Connell the vice-president, welcomed and farewelled the speaker comme il faut. It is a difficult thing to be a good, that is a discreet chairman, but Mr. Kerr was all that and something more. Mr. O'Connell very eloquently summarized the main points of the address adding as a conclusion the fervent wish of every true Canadian that the Dominion should be rounded off by the union of Newfoundland and Canada. In acknowledging the vote of thanks Mr. Morine very aptly remarked that if the people of Newfoundland heard that Daniel O'Connell was "in favor of union" it would be a fait accompli within a short time. The address itself was most interesting and to Mr. Kenner the thanks of the Club are due for a most enjoyable evening. There is one thing we should like to add. Our loyalty to Canada in our humble opinion should be taken as a matter of course. It is a reflection and largely unmerited to say that some of us still look somewhere else for our national spirit and inspiration. It is true some of our corps still dress in borrowed clothes but they will get over this probably, in the course of time.

THE LIVING WAGE

It is still largely the custom for the well-to-do to sneer at reports of "sweating." It is likewise true that the great body of strenuous business men and employers make every effort to treat their employees fairly, and sometimes get no thanks for it. We are concerned, however, with what Kipling calls "things as they are." In the whole line, from maker to wearer the weakest and most defenceless is the maker where he, or, more often, she, has no more hands in her factory than her own two. The way to fight socialism is to see to it that every one has a fair chance to work and that pay therefor shall be fair, and not mean and niggardly. This requires constant watchfulness. The very liberty which a man enjoys to be "good" enables him also to be "bad." The ruthless sacrifice of human life and human feelings, love and the craving of the poor human heart, will in the end raise up an avenger, and it is better that it should be remedied than that the victims should be aroused. But we must not consider these things sordidly. There is too much sham in our treatment of the working poor. The whole system of employment needs a Commission and an inspection with a prompt report, and a still prompter acting upon that report. Anyone who takes an interest in the (to coin a word) uncapable and their way of finding work and of working will admit that favoring conditions could go a very long way to make them happy. The following clipping from Collier's Weekly will illustrate our contention:—

In March an exhibit to show the evils of such conditions as the Consumers' League is trying to better will be held in New York. Probably it will be discouraging to the professional optimist. The idea is to show people who buy things from the stores the actual state of the people who make the things. Mrs. Nathan, president of the New York League, thinks the few typical cases she cites in her annual report need no comment, either on "the miserable wages of the worker, whom society is obliged to help by charity, or the wrong done the consumer, who has no assurance that the finished article he buys is free from contamination." Here are two cases:—

(1) In one house where Katharine and Angelina lived, four other children, Vito, aged fourteen; Katie, twelve; Jennie, nine, adn Antoinette, seven, were at work making 'June buds' at eight cents a gross. Their total earnings, combined with the wages of their mother and older sister, were between fifty and sixty cents a day."

(2) "With the father ill of tuberculosis, Vincenza no longer able to work, and four younger children, aged eleven, seven, five, and two, to be cared for, Rosina, who had helped to support the family since she was six years old, was now the chief wage earner. Her brother, Giuseppe, aged eleven, helped in the sewing after school hours. But, at the price of four cents a pair for 'felling' seams, finishing linings, and sewing buttons on trousers, all the workers in the family—father, mother and two children—by united effort could not earn more than four or five dollars a week."

Theoretically, tenement work is licensed. Practically, children under five are sweated. Of sixty-seven children found in one small section at work and not attending school, forty were violating the compulsory education law, and twenty-seven were too young to be protected by its provisions. No; the exhibit won't be a cheerful one, but we think it will none the less be effective in increasing the total of the world's good intentions.

BINDER TWINE

The Brantford Binder Twine Co. is distributing its annual dividends. This year the dividend is ten per cent. Since its beginning it has never paid less, and one year it paid sixty per cent, and another year no less than ninety per cent. It has repaid the capital subscribed three times over to its stockholders. We are pleased to note that its progress has been rapid and continuous. Even in times of stringency, as at present, it pays, as we see, a handsome dividend. Success like this must please the farmers' hearts. We will go so far as to say that it would please us. Is there any of this stock for sale? The premium demanded would probably equal that of the Bank of Montreal. Anyhow, it is a most successful, and evidently well managed concern, and we congratulate the stockholders, one and all.

THE SETTLER'S RIGHTS

"Where it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines by inspection and report of an officer or officers appointed by him for such purpose that the lands in any township or portion of a township being Crown lands not reserved from settlement are not valuable for their pine trees or their mines or minerals but are agricultural lands suitable for cultivation and settlement the minister may under authority of an order-in-council in that behalf open such lands for location and sale . . to actual settlers. . ."

This reservation of all but the stumps and bracken to the Crown does not strike us as generous treatment. We are aware that this is the old way of doing, but we had hoped for a radical improvement, our idea being based upon "the short and simple annals of the poor." Pioneers who go in and fight solitude, starvation and the toil of the early settler are entitled to everything that can be given them.

Surely it would add immensely to the attraction of going into the bush to settle if the settler felt that he might strike it rich some day. As it is his prospects are cribbed, and we had almost said "coffined" by the legislature and are dreary indeed. Why should fly-by-night prospectors and proposition-mongers obtain "rights" which as a matter of fact no man but the settler is really entitled to. A settler with a family would then have some hope in life, but as it is he must take what is set before him and be prepared for prosecution if he offend against even the game laws. The whole question of settlement of the hinterland needs re-casting in our humble opinion, and then instead of a system of immigration agencies we would have every man his own agent. Nothing is too good for the pioneer.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Guelph Board of Trade has passed and had printed for distribution a resolution taking strong ground against bonuses, exemptions, etc., for and in behalf of all business concerns. We confess that we have never been able to see the philosophy of this craving for prohibiting everything. It originates usually in the minds of people, who, if they had their own way, would prohibit everything that they themselves don't want. There is an under current of anarchism in it if the truth were known. What the merits of the bonus system are we are not at present expressing an opinion concerning, but with resolutions like the one we referred to, other people's opinions are not asked for.

The exodus of American ladies to Hungary, Germany, France and England has been protested against by the newspapers of the U.S. as a menace to the balance of trade. The very singular feature of this protest is that it takes no cognizance of the amount brought in by immigrants, who, just as respectable, although less notorious, are treated with contempt by the title worshippers of U.S. As a matter of fact one million immigrants on an average enter the U.S. every year, bringing with them 200 millions of dollars. Now the amount of money taken out of the country by emigrants is less than 60 million dollars per year, some years of course going more. So that in the long run the Yankees gain considerably.

FROM HANSARD

Mr. Boyce. It is regrettable that the hon. gentleman from Halifax,—Mr. Wm. Roche—is not as always charitable as he is to this government in regard to the defects and extravagances which have been pointed out by my hon. friend, from Leeds—Mr. Taylor. His argument is that in recent years, things have changed and I fancy that we, on this side of the House can agree with him in that respect, we agree that things have changed in the past years, and especially with regard to the administration of the Marine and Fisheries Departments as well as other departments. But my hon. friend, refers to the terrible perils to which the sailors are exposed, and says that the vessels should be thoroughly outfitted. He says that the vessels of today are much stauncher than they were years ago, and that therefore it must be more expensive to man them. I might, if I desired, animadvert upon the hon. gentleman's position in this House, and refer to the remarkable nautical skill he has exhibited in avoiding the political reefs and rocks whereon he might have been stranded. I have on one or two occasions referred to that subject before, and it is surprising to see that the hon. gentleman bobs up serenely again at this stage. This is the fourth time he has skillfully avoided, sighted, taken the soundings of and avoided all the political derelicts, election trials, election subpoenas and examinations for discovery, appeals to the Supreme Court, of Canada, and so on. And here he sits session after session, while there is piled up against him, as everybody knows, a record of probably the most damning evidence that was ever piled up against any gentleman in the election courts of this country. One might even speak of the hon. gentleman from Halifax himself as being a political derelict, but his concern for others who have to fight the perils of the deep—not the political deep that my hon. friend himself has so successfully navigated, but the real deep,—it almost brings tears to one's eyes. What an outrage, it is exclaims the hon. gentleman in his eloquent style, to compel seamen on one of our government boats to go to sea without proper equipment. What an outrage it would be for the sailors on one of these steamers to go to sea without a dickey on, what an outrage if they were to go to sea without having proper table linen, proper table napkins at $2.50 each, proper table cloths at $30 each, proper silver, proper cut glass, vessels to drink out of, and Radnor water to be served with their whisky! That sort of thing would be a great outrage, which would justly be resented by the very generous Minister of Marine and Fisheries. Now in dealing with the question, for instance of finding the men, the hon. member for Leeds has drawn attention to the fact that it costs today $25 per man per month to find these men (whereas under the old government it cost infinitely less, something like $10 or $12 per man per month. Can the hon. gentleman explain the discrepancy except upon the plea the member for Halifax makes, namely, that without mahogany tables, without Radnor water and Laurier cigars—

PEAT FOR FUEL.

Dominion Parole Officer Archibald Will Speak on March 5th

The next meeting of the Peterborough Canadian Club will be held on Thursday evening, March 5th, when Mr. A. Archibald, of Ottawa, Dominion Parole Officer will give an address. Mr. Archibald has made a special study of criminology and has spoken on this subject before the Canadian Clubs in many of the larger cities. His work consists largely in looking after prisoners after their sentences have expired and those who for various reasons are given their freedom before they have served all their time for which they were sentenced. The members of the Club will be delighted to hear that Mr. Archibald has been secured.

Patients Lay Some Charges

Claim That Dr. Harvey the Toronto Eye Specialist Did Not Effect Cure—Appeared in Court

The Dr. Harvey referred to in his following dispatch from Renfrew dated February 20th, has been in Peterborough on different occasions.

Renfrew, Feb. 18.—A police court case that excited considerable interest, was tried before Police Magistrate Eady, when Dr. Harvey, an eye specialist from Toronto, was charged by detective Rose, on behalf of the Medical Association, of practising without a license.

Another charge was laid by Mrs. Brown of Admaston township, of practising medicine and surgery, attending and prescribing medicines contrary to the Ontario Medical Act.

Harvey has visited Renfrew at regular intervals during last year, and had quite a lote of patients. For his services, he charged, it is said, a big fee, and there were patients who claimed no cure had resulted from the expenditure. A Mrs. Brown, of Admaston township made complaint of a non-cure. She had made a deposit on her account, and on the advice of the detective had not paid the balance of the charges.

Mr. J. E. Thompson, from Arnprior, conducted the case for the plaintiff, T. McGarry, K.C., Renfrew, defended Harvey.

A number of witnesses were examined who had been treated. They told of the glasses being unsuitable, and in most cases when patients called, not only glasses but a special treatment was recommended by the specialist. As high as $40 being paid for said treatment. One witness for the prosecution stated in contradiction to her mother that the glasses did her good, and that she could not see without them.

Mr. Harvey, in his own defence, stated that he was connected with the Empire College of Ophthalmology, Toronto, a chartered institution, doing business in Toronto for years, he was president of the college. Had a diploma as doctor of optics. The defence claimed he did not prescribe for his patients, simply tested, and fitted the eyes with glasses. The lawyers summed up the evidence, and the magistrate announced that he would give a decision in a week.

In the evening a second charge was taken up;—that of practising without a license. The same witnesses were called as in the first case. All swore that they understood Harvey was a medical doctor, as his advertising so styled him. Mr. Harvey in his defence stated that he received his title of Doctor of Optics from the college with which he was connected; his advertising was not intended to lead people to believe that he was a doctor of medicine. It was customary in his profession to use the title of Doctor. The magistrate reserved decision in this charge for a week.

HOW TO MAKE THE BEST REMEDY

FIX THIS FOR YOURSELF

A large health publication tells its readers of a number of simple and safe prescriptions that can be made at home. The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles, receives the greatest praise, viz., Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce, Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is further stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially for the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic afflictions, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings in a short time.

A well known local druggist states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them power to shift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

Cut this out and hand to some sufferer, which would certainly be an act of humanity.

DOG STORIES

Of all our dogs there is none so versatile in mind and body as the terrier. There is no service that a dog can do for us in sport or as a companion, says a writer in "Blackwood's Magazine," that he is not capable of.

I know one terrier in India who devoted herself to the dangerous and exciting sport of snake-killing. Her method was to irritate the snake into sitting up. She would dance around it, sparring for an opening, as it were. Then with incredible swiftness she darted at the reptile and gripped it close behind the head—a sharp bite and the snake was dead.

She was marvellously successful till on an unlucky day, when one of her puppies was with her, she found a snake; the puppy got in her way at the critical moment and the snake struck Nettie on the nose.

The wound was slight; it was cauterized at once, and a strong dose of whiskey administered. Apparently Nettie was quite well the next morning, but as she was playing with the puppy she suddenly turned head over heels, and when we reached her she was dead.

A fox once went to ground in a narrow drain. Two terriers were running with the pack. The first went in and, unable to get up to the fox, caught hold of the brush, the only point he could reach.

The second terrier also went in, but could not, of course, get far, as his companions blocked the way, so he caught hold of the first terrier's tail. Then came the whipper-in, and he stooped down, put in his arms and feeling the second terrier, he caught hold of him and pulled him out.

There was considerable resistance, but at length, to the amusement of the field, the second terrier appeared holding tight to the tail of his predecessor, who in his turn was holding to the brush of the fox.

TWEED MAY BE LOCATION OF SMELTER

Mr. E. J. Cowain is at present in Pittsburg, where he has gone to interest capital in the new galena ore which he has discovered on his property near Bogart. The ore samples are very fine and there is large quantities of it on his property, which is located in Bedford township of the K. & P. Railway.

He has recently had this ore treated by a chemical process which in a little over an hour will change the ore into pure white lead, medium chrome lead and light chrome lead.

Mr. Cowain has already formed the Frontenac Mining and Smelting Co. in which several local men are interested, and if he can carry out his arrangements in Pittsburg and Oil City he will return to Tweed with the intention of erecting a plant here for the treatment of the ore. It is said that Tweed would be the best location for such a plant owing to its proximity to the Sulphide works where the acids necessary to the process can be obtained.

Little more of the plans of the company can be learned and as much depends on the success of the trip to the Pennsylvania cities, it is to be hoped that it will be entirely successful.—Tweed News.

OYSTER SUPPER WAS A SUCCESS

Enjoyable Event Held Yesterday Under Auspices of W. A.

The social held yesterday afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. J. J. Turner, Jr. Water street, under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Luke's church was a great success. A large number attended and the affair proved to be one of great pleasure to all who were fortunate enough to be present. During the afternoon cake and coffee was served and in the evening oysters were partaken of. The excellent manner in which the oysters were prepared was the subject of much favorable comment. During the evening several instrumental solos were given by Miss Charlotte Bright.

As a result of last evening's social a substantial sum was realised which will be devoted to missionary work.

Eloquent Plea for Union Of Canada and Newfoundland

Hon. A. B. Morine Gave Splendid Address Before Peterborough Canadian Club—The History, Development and Characteristics of Britain's Most Ancient Colony.

An eloquent plea for the union of Canada and Newfoundland was made by Hon. A. B. Morine of Toronto, at the meeting of the Peterborough Canadian Club last night. Mr. Morine is the late attorney-general of Newfoundland, and his address last night was, "Britain's Most Ancient Colony." He covered the subject in a clean thorough and comprehensive manner, touching on the discovery of the island, its geographical position and extent, the number and character of its people, form of government, resources, and winding up by a strong appeal for the union of the island with the Dominion—an appeal based upon material as well as patriotic and sentimental grounds.

The meeting was held at the National Hotel, and was the second held by the local Canadian Club. The attendance was larger than at the first meeting, about one hundred being present. The dinner while not elaborate, was pronounced excellent and was served in faultless manner. The members sat down at 8.30 sharp, and the meeting was over by 10.30. Hon. Mr. Morine spoke for an hour and ten minutes and was listened to with the deepest interest. His address aroused new interest in a subject in which the average man has not given a great deal of attention, and will result in the widening of a sentiment in favor of the confederation of the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland.

The president of the club, Mr. F. D. Kerr, presided, and introducing Mr. Morine extended him hearty welcome to Peterborough. Mr. Kerr also covered in a comprehensive manner the progress of the movement having in view the purchase of the Plains of Abraham as a national park. He gave some details of the meeting of Canadian Club delegates held at Ottawa recently at the suggestion of the Governor-General, Earl Grey, to discuss the proposed plan to purchase the historic battle ground The delegates had unanimously favored the scheme but the details as to how it was to be carried out had not been gone into in a lengthy manner. The suggestion had been made that the Dominion Government and the Government of the Province of Quebec should vote sufficient money to purchase the plains and convert them into a park. The president asked that the members of the club give this matter careful thought and consideration.

Commencing Mr. Morine thanked the Canadian Club for the opportunity of addressing the representative men of Peterborough. Since he had become a resident of the Province of Ontario he had felt it is duty to know the people as well as possible, and he was glad of the occasion to increase this acquaintance in Peterborough.

Mr. Morine said he was a native of Nova Scotia, but had been a resident of Newfoundland for twenty-three years, going there in 1883. Although not a native of the island he could claim that he was a representative son of it. He came away from Newfoundland with a warm devoted feeling for its people and its interests and hoped to see the day when the confederation of the island with the Dominion would be a reality.

Continuing, Mr. Morine said, the people of Newfoundland rejoice in having their island called England's most ancient colony.

Newfoundland was sometimes said to be noted for three things, its cod, fog and dog. While the cod was the best in the world, the fog was not the worst in the world and the dogs were as good as any.

Newfoundland, continued the speaker, was a colony of Great Britain before Canada had become known. Long before Cartier had sailed up the St. Lawrence, John Cabot had landed on Newfoundland. It was in 1497 that Cabot discovered Newfoundland landing at Cape Bona Vista. The importance with which the island was regarded in those days might be judged from the following entry in the books of King Henry, the Seventh "To him that found the new island, ten pounds."

Later on Cabot was granted a pension of twenty pounds per year and apparently he was satisfied to retire from the business of discovering islands as he is not heard of afterwards.

After touching on some other points in connection with the history of the island, Mr. Morine said it had been granted responsible government in 1855 and in 1858 the first Atlantic cable was landed on Newfoundland's shores. It latter was an important event in the history of the North American continent as it effected a great change in the life of the people.

For 300 years Newfoundland had been noted for its great fishing industry. This had played an important part in the building up of the British navy. England had paid much attention to the fishing industry but had not interested herself greatly in the other affairs of the island with the result that Newfound land today was one of the most backward of Britain's colonies.

The government of Newfoundland consisted of a Governor sent out by the British Government, a Legislative Council and a House of Assembly. There were two political parties, Liberals and Conservatives, and as was the case at Ottawa now the Liberals were in and the Conservatives out.

The population of the island totalled about 250,000 persons and they were practically of Irish English and Scotch extraction. The Irish were the most numerous, then came the English and then the Scotch. As regards religious life, the Roman Catholic church was the strongest, the Anglicans were second and the Methodists were the least numerous. There were only the three denominations on the island. The educational system is along sectarian lines. It is supported by the Government, but the Roman Catholics have separate schools. The clergy had shown a deep interest in the schools and were largely responsible for the advance made.

The area of Newfoundland is about 42,000 square miles, and the resources of the island consist of fisheries, minerals, timber and agriculture. Fishing is the most important industry. The value of the cod exported annually runs from $120,000 to $130,000. The cod fishing is carried on in three places, on the Newfoundland shores, on the Labrador coast and on the banks about fifty miles south of Newfoundland. The shore fishing is carried on in small boats and is the largest of the three methods of fishing. The Labrador coast fishing is carried on by men who go from Newfoundland in large vessels and live in huts on the Labrador shore while the fishing season is on. The 'banks' consist of the shallow bottoms about fifty miles south of the island.

The herring fishing was also an important industry. It was engaged in largely by Americans. The seal fishing was also most important, 250,000 or 300,000 seals being taken in the two weeks which the season lasted. The value of these was about $700,000. The young seals were captured on the large ice floats.

Newfoundland was rich in mineral wealth. The iron mines of the island produced all the ore that was used by the Nova Scotia Steel Company and the Dominion Steel Company. There was no reason to suppose that the east coast of Labrador a strip of which belonged to Labrador was not as rich in minerals as the Yukon and Alaska. The rock was the same formation and everything pointed towards richness in minerals in the northeast as well as in the northwest.

Mr. Morine devoted the last part of his address to a plea for the union of Newfoundland and Canada. He outlined the various steps in the federating of the Canadian provinces and pointed out that while at one time Nova Scotia had been strongly opposed to the union with the other provinces, it was now one of the most loyal provinces in the Dominion. For various reasons the people of Newfoundland were opposed to confederation there was a more friendly feeling towards it than at any past time and when the matter had been placed before the Newfoundlanders in its true light there was little doubt but that they would consider it favorably. Mr. Morine pointed out the great desirability of having the union consummated. The people of both countries were subjects of the same sovereign, they were of the same extraction and the geographical situation of the two was such as to make the union highly desirable. Both countries would be benefitted by it in many ways.

Mr Morine referred to the relations of the United States and Newfoundland and the disputes that have arisen in conjunction with fishing rights. From a strategic stand-point it was highly desirable that the two countries should be united as Newfoundland commanded the entrance to the St. Lawrence.

Mr. Morine was greeted with prolonged applause on resuming his seat. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered him eloquently moved by Mr. D. O'Connell, and seconded by Mr. D. Hughes-Charles.

Mr. Morine made an appropriate reply.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Disorderly House Raided in East City

Keepers and Inmates Placed Under Arrest—Appeared Before the Magistrate This Morning

As a result of a raid by Police Constables Newhall, Meharry and Adams upon a disorderly house at 219 Carlisle Ave., at midnight last night Albert Crouter and his wife, Crenie Grant, an inmate of the house, and Elton Yorke, a frequenter were taken into custody and spent the night in the police cells.

Before Magistrate Dumble this morning Crouter and his wife pleaded not guilty to being the keepers of a disorderly house. They were remanded until next Thursday for trial.

Yorke when charged with being a frequenter of the place admitted being there but stated that he had just taken Crouter home as he was intoxicated. He also was remanded but bail was granted him at $200.

Crenie Grant was also remanded for a week on the charge of being an inmate of the house.

"I was just rooming there and was not aware that it was a disorderly house," she said.

"But you have been previously convicted for a similar offence in Toronto," added Chief Roszel.

From complaints that have reached the police authorities regarding this house from neighbors, it was decided to take them by surprise last night. The two women were handcuffed and walked to the police station in front of P. C's. Newhall and McGinty. The men were also linked and were under P. C. Adams' vigilant eye.

They will appear for trial next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

BIRTH

WILSON—On Burnham St., on Feb. 19th, to Mr. and Mrs. E. Roland Wilson, a son.

A man sued Toronto railway for damages, and claimed as the reason that since the accident there was a constant buzzing in his ears. That, however, proves nothing. All married men have that.

Fire Inquest at Mount Albert—Mabel Allen Accused of Incendiarism—Sensational Evidence—Farmer Admits Gross Immorality — Girl Is Alleged to Have Threatened Revenge—Defence Sets Up an Alibi.

Mount Albert, Feb. 22.—Such disclosures of moral depravity as were made yesterday during the fire inquest in connection with the burning last Friday morning of Mrs. John Hopkins' farm buildings, on lot 16, in concession 5, of East Gwillimbury, have seldom if ever been equaled in the annals of York County. Whether the girl, Mabel Allen, who is now charged with being the incendiary, is guilty or not remains to be proven. She is in the custody of County Constable Cook, at his home, in Mount Albert, and will appear on a charge of arson before Magistrate Moore on Monday. The case will be tried in the Town Hall, Mount Albert.

Provincial Detective Rogers was the presiding coroner, while Crown Attorney H. L. Drayton, K.C., conducted the prosecution. The bulk of the crown evidence was secured by Provincial Detective Greer.

C. R. Fitch of Stouffville appeared on behalf of the girl.

The nature of the relations between Miss Allen and Hopkins were of such a private character that the presiding coroner cleared the court room of all spectators while the girl was on the witness-stand.

The evidence apart from its direct connection with the fire, pointed clearly to the indication that this dark-eyed girl of 18 summers has been cruelly wronged by the man who, as a result of last Thursday evening's occurrence, has been suddenly and maliciously robbed of the property and effects which would have been his on the death of his aged widow mother.

The first witness called was Jacob Hopkins, son of Mrs. John Hopkins who owned the burned property.

He admitted that he had some trouble with the girl because she wanted him to marry her, but stated that he found it impossible to do so, since he was unable to obtain a divorce from his wife. Questioned by Mr. Drayton. Hopkins said the girl knew he was a married man. The relations between the two had not been of a moral nature, in fact he admitted he had seduced the girl a few weeks after she had come to live at his mother's home.

Mrs. Hopkins also testified to the truth of her son's evidence, and added that the girl in moments of passion sometimes threw knives, forks, spoons, stove-lifters and frying pans at the boys in the house. On one occasion the girl threw a knife at her son Jacob, which missed him and struck in a board.

The Allen girl even threatened once to burn the buildings, the old lady stated, and on many occasions inferred that she would bring great losses to the family.

Story of the Fire.

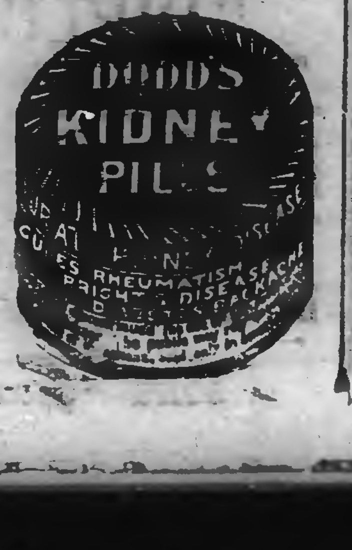
About 2 o'clock last Friday morning Jacob Hopkins awoke and, according to his own statement, "went to the bedroom window to see what the weather was like, as I saw that The Toronto World forecasted showers." On looking out he was horrified to find the whole farm buildings ablaze. Hastily donning some clothing he rushed out, to find that the fire had gained such headway as to dispel all hope of saving the live stock and farm produce that were in the buildings. The loss included 13 head of cattle, 3 horses, 2 pigs and 65 hens, besides 200 bushels of turnips, 200 bushels of oats, 100 bushels of barley, 75 bushels of wheat, 10 tons of hay and many valuable farm implements.

The loss on live stock and produce is estimated at $1,500, the entire loss, including buildings, $3,000. The total insurance is $950.

Six or seven young men who reside around the neighborhood hastened over to the scene of the conflagration and discovered footprints in the snow, leading up to within four feet of one of the buildings. They commenced a trail of the footprints and Norman Kay, one of their number, stated yesterday under oath that they followed the impressions in the snow right to the gate of the Allen home, near Brown Hill, a distance of five miles across the fields. These footprints constituted the main part of the incriminating evidence and the crown's purpose was to prove that they were those of Mabel Allen. The impressions of the rubbers were in the soft snow, and the witnesses stated that there were particular markings, that the prints were about 9 1-2 inches long by actual measurement and that they were evidently those of a young woman. Mr. Fitch, on the other hand, stated that the girl's rubbers measure ten inches and that the impressions noticed around and in front of the house might have been caused by some of the sisters, who were accustomed to go to the pump nearby for water. The rubbers were produced in court.

The girl positively denied being out of her own house during the night of the tragedy, and in this she was substantiated by the members of her family. She left the Hopkins' home in August of last year.

The town hall was crowded and the greatest interest taken in the case by the townspeople, who regard the occurrence as one that will live in the records of Mount Albert for many a day. The crowds, after being ejected from the court room, remained outside during the entire hour and a half the girl was on the stand, and when the doors were opened they rushed in again in stampede fashion.



Brakeman Killed.

Nelson, B.C., Feb. 22.—Neil McDonald, a C.P.R. brakeman, was killed by falling between the cars and the station platform at West Robson yesterday morning. He was 28 years of age and a native of Nova Scotia.

SIFTON GIVES DENIAL.

Has No Connection With Imperial Pulp Co. He Declares.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—Clifford Sifton does not do much talking these days. The only times he is heard are when the newspapers mix him up with some mysterious transactions. Mr. Sifton yesterday called attention to a despatch referring to the officers of the mysterious Imperial Pulp Co. and stating that the managing director is Hon. Clifford Sifton, and the secretary William Sifton.

Mr. Sifton desired to say that he was not now and never had been managing director or other director of the company. He was not now and never had been a shareholder or stockholder, and he had no interest either directly or indirectly in the company.

Twenty-Eight Were Killed.

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 22.—With a force that shook the entire bay region like an earthquake, the packing-house of the Hercules Powder Works at Pinole, 14 miles north of here, blew up at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and in the explosion four white men and twenty-four Chinamen were killed. Ten tons of dynamite went up in the terrific blast, shattering the sheds to dust and splinters. A panic ensued, and many were cut by flying glass and crushed and trampled on.

Motor Car Plant Burned.

Dayton, Ohio, Feb. 22.—The plant of the Dayton Motor Car Co., with its contents, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $300,000, covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have been due to spontaneous combustion. The flames made rapid progress and the entire local department battled for many hours before subduing them. Ten newly-finished automobiles valued at $3,000 each were consumed.

A Political Deduction.

London, Feb. 22.—(C.A.P.)—The News points out that the only country showing a decline of domestic exports is Canada, whose imports advanced $10,000,000.

"As imports, according to protectionists here, is the grand index inversely taken of national prosperity. Canada is rapidly approaching bankruptcy."

Mr. Emmerson Probable.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—It was stated on excellent authority last night that Hon. H. R. Emmerson, ex-Minister of Railways and Canals, will be appointed a member of the Railway Commission when the bill for the increase in the membership of the board is passed. Rumor gives to Mr. Emmerson the post of assistant chief commissioner, with a salary of $9,000 a year. There are two others to be appointed.

Dropped Dead After Hockey Match.

Moncton, N.B., Feb. 22.—After attending a hockey match, where he cheered his team on to victory, Clarence Hill, an enthusiastic supporter of the Victoria hockey team, Thursday night, dropped dead in the Brunswick Hotel. Heart failure consequent on the excitement of the game caused his death.

RUSSIAN POLICE MADE COUP.

Abortive Attempt at Assassination—Serious Blow For Terrorists.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 22.—The frustration in this city Thursday of a terrorist plot and the arrest of fifty men and women for alleged complicity was followed yesterday by the capture in suburban towns of several other persons implicated in the abortive attempt at assassination. The police believe they have made the most important and telling move against the terrorists that has been engineered in several years.

The plot came very much nearer maturity than did the last unsuccessful conspiracy against the Emperor, the participants in which were tried and condemned last July. According to the police, the band had two victims in view. Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch and Judge Chtcheglovitoff, Minister of Justice. Both were to have been assassinated between their residences and the railroad station and Tsarskoe-Selo, where they were going to see the Emperor. Two distinct revolutionary organizations were concerned. The first had its headquarters in Finland, and the second was the so-called Northern Flying Column, recruited in the vicinity of Moscow.

Alarmed at the recent arrests of agitators at Viborg and Helsingfors, and the prospective closing of Finnish territory as a shelter from which to conduct their operations, the first organization decided to put its plans into immediate execution. The Moscow allies were notified and joined the group from Finland in St. Petersburg.

The police, however, had been informed of what was in the air, and as a result almost all the men and women implicated are now in prison. The entire force of the secret service was employed.

Most of the prisoners are young, between 17 and 21 years, well dressed and well supplied with money.

The Italian who was taken in on the Grande Morskaia is the accredited correspondent of two prominent radical Italian newspapers—one at Rome and the other at Milan. He was in receipt of the press privileges of the House of Parliament and the Council of the Empire. His friends, however, insist that he had no connection with the plot, and the Italian embassy is taking steps to have the matter of his arrest investigated promptly.

TO ESCAPE UNPOPULARITY.

Probable Reason Says Bowell For Trial of Japanese Cases.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—In the Senate Sir Mackenzie Bowell asked why the Department of Justice had instructed its British Columbia agents to appeal the case of the two Japanese arrested for violation of the Natal Act.

Sir Mackenzie said that it looked like an effort to escape the unpopularity which would attach to the disallowance of the act by leaving it to the courts to possibly decide that the legislation was ultra vires.

Hon. Mr. Scott replied that the Government had given the order for the defence of the prisoners, because it felt that it was the duty of Canada to protect Japanese when arrested in violation of treaty rights. That had been done in this case and that the act was ultra vires was indicated by the 95th section of the B.N.A. Act, which declared that a province could not pass immigration legislation in conflict with federal legislation.

"If the courts hold that the Natal Act is not ultra vires, will the federal Government then disallow it?" asked Senator Lougheed.

Hon. Mr. Scott said he could not advise in advance of the case arising what the action of the Government would be.

Catching Fishermen.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Feb. 22.—Fisheries Overseer T. A. Hand had several cases of importance to deal with during the past few days. Sunday afternoon Thomas O'Reilly was caught by Mr. Hand fishing for trout through the ice near the island, south of the ship canal. Hand hid in the bushes and waited long enough to convince himself O'Reilly was engaged in illegal fishing. After a chase of three-quarters of a mile O'Reilly was overhauled. He admitted the offence and was fined $30.

Mr. Hand visited Gros Cap and lifted some nets, which were supposed American in Canadian waters. After seizing the nets Mr. Hand observed a couple of men leave the American side in a rig. They proceeded to the Canadian side and Hand placed them under arrest. The men proved to be William Milligan and Andrew Neyland, Baymills. The outfit was confiscated. They had fish on board. The men appeared before Mr. Hand Wednesday. They requested the trial to be postponed one week, Milligan and Neyland putting up cash security of $150 to guarantee their appearance. Mr. Hand states that the nets seized were of American make.

Shooting Was Accidental.

Dunnville, Ont., Feb. 22.—In the shooting of nine-year-old Richard McVay, the jury returned a verdict of accidental death, but censured the parents for leaving the three lads alone to look after the farm. The parents were residents of Buffalo.

MOTHER'S GUIDE

When a young girl's thoughts become sluggish; when she has headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep; dislikes the society of other girls; then the mother should come to her aid promptly, for she possesses information of vital importance to the young daughter.

At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and has helped to bring three generations safely from girlhood to womanhood. Read what has accomplished for Miss Olson.

Miss Ellen M. Olson, of 417 North East Street, Kewanee, Ill., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham says:

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of backache, sideache, and established my periods after the best physicians in Kewanee had failed to help me, saying that an operation was necessary."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

GIRL'S FIGHT FOR LIFE.

Emo, Ont., Feb. 22.—Miss Edith Knopke, who lived on a homestead claim across the boundary in Minnesota, was almost burned to death in her solitary cabin, and had one of the most trying experiences which ever fell to the lot of one of her sex. She was cooking meat when her clothing caught fire, and the wall paper also ignited. She was too dazed by the sudden conflagration to take any effective measures, and when she got out of the cabin her clothes were literally burned from her body, and she was suffering terribly. Her home in ruins and she in a naked condition and alone in the wintry woods at night, she made a plucky attempt and succeeded in walking a mile and a half and reached the home of a neighbor, John Reid, who, with the help of other neighbors, did what he could for the unfortunate woman.

Medical aid was summoned, and telegrams were sent to relatives in the east. The badly burned young lady was fixed up as comfortably as possible and taken by train from Fort Frances to Minneapolis. Hopes are entertained for her ultimate recovery. She is twenty-seven years of age, and expected to prove her claim to her homestead in about four months.

SYMPATHY FOR STOESSEL.

St. Petersburg Press Believe Sentence Will Be Commuted.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 22.—The passing of the death sentence by a court-martial upon Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel, who was tried on charges of cowardice and treason in surrendering Port Arthur to the Japanese, is received with little satisfaction in the Russian capital, where it is felt that the trial of Gens. Stoessel, Fock, Reiss and Smirnoff has done practically nothing towards establishing the real responsibility for the fall of the fortress.

The newspapers express sympathy with Gen. Stoessel and declare that the death sentence undoubtedly will be commuted. They demand also that Gen. Kuropatkin, Viceroy Alexieff and other officers still more intimately responsible for the loss of the war, be placed on trial.

Australia's Invitation.

Washington, Feb. 22.—An exceedingly cordial invitation to have the American battleship fleet visit Australia has been extended by Hon. Alfred Deakin, Prime Minister of Australia. Secretary of State Root in acknowledging the invitation remarked:

"The eventual movements of our fleet has not yet been determined. While it is probable that the vessels will return by way of Suez, I would be glad if some of them could be sent by the Australian route, but it would be premature to promise this."

Rumors In Portugal.

Lisbon, Feb. 22.—The air is full of rumors of plots and counter plots. Some speak of increased revolutionary agitation among the Republicans. Others of the revival of "Francoism"; yet others of a palace and barrack plot to establish a military dictatorship.

Oporto newspapers state positively that the Government has discovered a Francoist plot at the palace, and is prosecuting Counts Arnoso and Tarouca, and Major Jose Lobo, who are alleged to be the leaders.

What Will be Fate of Charles Burke the Allleged Robber?

Evidence on the Charge of Robbing Purser's Store, at Buckhorn Was Heard Before His Honor Judge Weller This Morning—Many Witnesses Testified—Case Enlarged Until 2.30 This Afternoon.

The evidence in the trial of Chas. Burke was heard this morning and all the testimony is in with the exception of a deposition from Mrs. Conroy, who gave evidence in the preliminary hearing, but who was too ill to appear to-day.

The case was enlarged until 2.30 this afternoon.

Miss Eliza Purser, the first witness called, is a sister of Mr. John Purser. Was in her brother's store at Buckhorn when a stranger came in between 8 and 8.30 o'clock. Bought some tobacco and paid for it. Was between $25 and $35 in drawer behind counter in bills and silver. Gave stranger change and she went into the house which adjoins and he proceeded towards door. Miss Higgins who was in the store, being on a visit to Miss Purser, called her back and the man was behind the counter. She interfered and he pointed a revolver at her head. Saw the man since in gaol and said he was the prisoner. There was no doubt about it.

Mr. Gordon asked witness concerning the prisoner's overcoat, but she didn't remember anything about it. Mr. Cochrane showed her a photograph. She said could not identify man by the photograph shown.

"You're sure that this is the man to-day," said Mr. Gordon.

"Yes," was the reply. The night of the robbery was a very dark night. There were about six or eight lamps lit in the store at the time prisoner came in to buy tobacco. Didn't remember whether prisoner had coat collar turned up or whether he wore a hat or a cap.

"Why didn't you tell Mr. Cochrane at the time you picked him out that Burke was the man?" asked Mr. Gordon.

"Miss Higgins had said so."

"Did you hear Mr. Eastwood say that there was a man up in Buckhorn about the time of the robbery, who went around with a handkerchief over his hands?"

The witness had not, but admitted she heard from other sources that such a man had been in the vicinity about that time.

After leaving the gaol witness had told Mr. Cochrane that she would not appear in the witness box and for that reason did not tell Mr. Cochrane that Burke was the man.

"Why didn't you want to appear in the witness box?" asked Mr. Wood.

"Because I didn't want to be on exhibition," was the reply.

The witness was put through a searching cross-examination as to why she didn't want to tell Mr. Cochrane that prisoner was the man who robbed the store.

Miss Lucretia Higgins was visiting Miss Purser on November 5th, and was in the store when the robber went behind the counter and opened the cash drawer. She asked him if there was anything he wanted. She went behind the counter. He drew a revolver and put it to witness' head. Saw the man in gaol and as far as she could tell he was the robber. The prisoner was that man.

"Did the man have his coat collar turned up," asked Mr. Gordon.

"Not when he was in front of the counter, but I can't tell whether he did or not when he was behind the till."

Told Mr. Cochrane she could not identify the man by the photograph he showed her. In gaol she picked out Burke as being the man.

To His Honor she said she told Mr. Cochrane that Burke looked like the man. She had heard about the man wearing the handkerchief over his hands, and who was suspected in the neighborhood of the robbery. Mr. Cochrane at the goal asked her to look at prisoner's hands. She did so, but could find no marks on them by which she could identify him.

Mr. Gordon—Did you tell Mr. Edward Conroy and his wife that you couldn't swear positively that this was the man?"

"I may have."

Mrs. Margaret Kidd, of Lakefield, was at home alone with her daughter for a while last fall, her husband being away on the hunt. She saw a stranger at her house at the same time that the robbery was reported. It was about 9.45 in the morning. He said he was going to Buckhorn. Had not seen him again until today. She thought the prisoner was that man. Saw a photograph in the paper and thought it looked like the man. To Mr. Gordon she said she couldn't swear that the prisoner was the man who was at her house on the morning of the robbery.

Miss Kidd, daughter of the former witness, was at home when the man came for the lunch. Her mother was upstairs. She got her to come downstairs and get him a lunch.

Cross-examined by Mr. Gordon, witness said she couldn't positively swear that the prisoner was the man who had the lunch.

Miss Gertrude Northey, of Smith, remembered a stranger coming to her home about 4.15 on the day of the robbery. He asked for a drink of milk. She hadn't the least doubt that the prisoner was the man. Prisoner wore an overcoat.

The former witness said prisoner had no overcoat, but one was missed from her father's house on the day the prisoner was there.

He stayed at Miss Northey's house for about five minutes. Hadn't noticed anybody else walking along the road that day. Mr. Eastwood, of Buckhorn, telephoned down the news of the robbery that night.

"There's a possibility that Burke isn't the man who called at your place, isn't there?" asked Mr. Gordon.

"There's a possibility," she replied, "but I have no doubt that he is."

George Taylor, of the Chemong Reserve, went from Lakefield to Buckhorn on the day of the robbery. Saw a man about seven miles from Lakefield on the way to Buckhorn, and near the fingerboard. He caught up to him and stopped his horse and asked him to have a ride with him. Got a good look at him. Thought it was peculiar that he should refuse a ride with the roads so bad. He recognized the prisoner as the same man. He told Mr. Gordon that the man was wearing either a Christy or a felt hat. He was pretty certain that Burke was the man.

"That's the case, Your Honor," said Mr. Wood.

His Honor then adjourned the court until 2.30 this afternoon.

In the Ontario Legislature; To Protect the Children

Amendment to Shops Act Introduced by Minister.

Measure Aimed Directly at Child Labor—Minimum Age of Employment Raised to Twelve Years—Licenses Reduced During Year—Local Option Law Rigidly Enforced—County Boards of Health.

Toronto, Feb. 22.—The determination of the Provincial Government, as a result of the investigations of last year, to put a legal stop to child labor in Ontario was evidenced in the Government measures introduced by Hon. Nelson Monteith at yesterday's session of the Legislature, placing a higher minimum age upon the employment of all children.

Hon. Nelson Monteith introduced three Government bills. His act to amend the Horticultural Society Act gives societies power to apportion one-half of their funds to any one of the objects for which they are organised, instead of only one-third as formerly. The other two measures are aimed directly at child labor, as a result of the investigations of the special legislative committee last year. The Act to amend the Shops Act raises the minimum age at which children can be employed in shops from 10 years to 12.

The act to amend the Factories Act provides that no child under 12 years of age can be employed in a canning factory.

Hon. Mr. Hanna presented the report on the operation of the Liquor License Acts for 1907, in which attention is called to the fact that the number of licenses have been reduced by 198 from the total of the previous year. In local option municipalities the law had been vigorously enforced and the fines collected amounted to $4,175. The provincial revenue from the license branch for the year was $567,126.60.

Mr. P. H. Bowyer (East Kent) introduced an important amendment to the Municipal Drainage Act, providing that engineers must consult with farm owners before proceeding with drainage works through their properties. The measure further provides for the amendment of section 72 of the present act by enlarging the powers of municipal councils in making drainage improvements.

Mr. Hislop (Huron) secured an order for a return showing a classified statement of all payments by the province to the Toronto University; while Mr. Munro (North Oxford) was granted an order for returns of amount of losses by fire throughout the province.

Mr. May (Ottawa) got orders for returns on the several commissions appointed by the present Government and for a list of Fair Associations to which the Agricultural Department sent judges.

A bill was introduced by Mr. J. P. Downey providing for the creation of County Boards of Health, with representatives from all municipalities, to have jurisdiction in tubercular troubles. The bill further provides for compulsory notification in cases of consumption. These county boards are designed to supply the machinery towards preventing a spread of the disease.

KNOCKERS WIN CLOSE GAME

Rough Riders Beaten by Them by 2-1—No Scoring in the Second Half

The Knockers and Rough Riders played a close game at the Brock street rink from 7 to 8, last night. The game was not a lady-like exhibition by any means, and there was some pretty strenuous play indulged in. Referee Graham Ferguson was kept busy in keeping the teams in order.

At half-time the score was 2—1 in favor of the Knockers, and as neither team found the nets in the last half that also represented the final score.

Norwood and the Straths.

Great Game to Take Place on Wedneseay Night—The Result Delightfully Uncertain

The game on Wednesday night between Norwood and Straths will be the best game of the season. Both teams are out for the victory and the most interesting kind of struggle will take place. With Norwood's formidable forward line to buck against the Straths will have to travel some to put it over the speedy seven from the eastern town. Great interest in local sporting circles is being taken in the game.

RUNNING

MARATHON TRIAL COURSE.

"The chances are that the Marathon trial race will be run on the Kingston road," said John J. Ward, of the Olympic Committee today. "It will probably start at Pickering, or down that way and finish on the Woodbine course, where an admission fee will be charged to benefit the Olympic fund. The course will be an exact 25 miles 600 yards. It has been suggested that we utilize the new Christopher Marathon race, from Hamilton to Brantford, or vice versa, for the trial, but if we did we have a claim from the Ward Marathon, Montreal Star, or Hamilton Herald race people for the honors for their races."

Had No Relatives at Port Hope

The Port Hope Guide has the following regarding the old man named Hicks who passed through Peterborough on the Grand Trunk with his feet badly frozen:

"No relatives of the man could be found here and as he was desirous of reaching Gananoque he was given transportation to Cobourg."

THE DEPUTATION AND MR. WHITNEY HE REFUSES TO INTERFERE WITH COUNCIL

Mr. Haverson and a Deputation Present a Monster Petition Against the Action of the City Council of Toronto—A Far Reaching and Important Event—A Question of Great Interest to the Whole Body Politic.

One of the most important events in the history of Ontario transpired yesterday at the parliament buildings in Toronto when Mr. Whitney and his cabinet met Mr. Haverson, K.C., and a deputation from the Licensed Victuallers' Association bearing a petition with 38,000 bona fide signatures. They appealed to the government to over-ride the action of the City Council of Toronto, which recently by a vote of Council only, cut off thirty-four licenses. The decision embodies the last word in municipal rights and will undoubtedly have a far-reaching effect on municipal elections and on municipal government generally. Wherever people are gathered together as a municipal entity their will shall be supreme in municipal affairs, is what it amounts to. It will increase municipal responsibility and promote municipal self-respect. Beyond a doubt also wherever injustice is worked the people may be relied upon to see it remedied.

"The spokesman for license-holders was Mr. James Haverson, K.C., and with him were the chairmen for the six wards, who had been instrumental in getting the petitions signed: James Seymour, Shamrock House; Edward Hyland, Boulevard; George A, Graham, Iroquois; R. Falconer, Richardson House; W. Luneas, Jersey House, and M. J. Clancy, Cecil Hotel.

They did not appear greatly surprised at the decision.

"The Government's hands are tied by the law," said Mr. Graham, speaking afterwards to The News, "but we had to try this means anyway."

Premier Whitney presided at the conference, and at his right side was the Provincial Secretary, Hon. W. J. Hanna, Hon. Dr. Pyne was also present, but took no part in the discussion.

On the petitions were the names of 173 lawyers, a number of bank managers and business men and others, and about 500 women.

PETITIONS, OVER SIXTY POUNDS.

The petitions were done up in three bundles and weighed over 60 pounds. Mr. Haverson left his office with them at 11 o'clock and drove to the buildings, where he met the rest of the deputation. The proceedings were in public.

"How are you; won't you shake?" asked Mr. Hanna as he met Mr. Haverson in the corridor, and there was nothing in his voice to reveal the fatal decision that had already been prepared.

"There are 150 hotelkeepers of Toronto——" began Mr. Haverson.

Mr. Whitney—"Thirty-four of whom ——"

Mr. Haverson—"Are in extremis. They don't know over whose head the sword hangs."

In presenting the petitions Mr. Haverson declared that they were printed in clear type and had been thoroughly explained by the newspapers, so that there was scarcely a possibility of misunderstanding by those who signed.

"I make this remark because the temperance people in the press last night declared, with their characteristic charity, which some mistakenly call venom, that it was not proper."

There were unavoidably, a few duplicates, and Mr. Haverson became sarcastic for a moment.

"It is an absolute impossibility even for temperance people who do everything right, to avoid duplicates, but there are not more than 200 or 300 altogether.

Mr. Haverson declared that the cutting off of the licenses was a very serious thing not only to the hotel men, but the public and went on to review the reducing of 74 in 1887, the vote in Council against reduction in 1905 and the vote of the people in 1906. This, every one, press, people and commissioners took as a finality and the latter, "at the point of the bayonet," forced improvements on the hotel men of over $1,500,000.

"The calling in of the people by the Council in 1906 changed the whole situation."

"Let us see one," said Mr. Hanna, reaching across, and Mr. Whitney also looked one over.

THREE MONTHS' EXTENSION

"We ask that the principle of three months' extension should be repeated to the first of February. Why, a little country hotel gets three months."

Mr. Hanna—"I think you'll admit that that extension refers only to the hotels cut off by the commissioners. Is there any doubt that on the first of May there cannot be any more than 110 licenses in Toronto? Any doubt in regard to extension?

Mr. Haverson—"There can't be in local option, I admit, but in London when six licenses were cut off by council three months' extension was granted.

Mr. Hanna—"Isn't this your view that no one might object to three months' extension.'

"Yes; but the principle should be extended up to, say, Feb. 1 so as to allow them to dispose of their business."

Mr. Whitney at once cut in, refusing to accept the disposal of business as the object in asking an extension, and forced Mr. Haverson to admit he was right.

"You mean," he observed, "that you want an extension in order to do away with the will of the Council'."

Mr. Haverson—"There is no use of being dishonest. If I wanted only three months I would go to the License Board."

Then Mr. Whitney started to enunciate his principle that with the people must rest the remedy, and from his first words the deputation realized that all was up.

"If the Legislature did wrong the remedy would rest with the people."

DID COUNCIL DO RIGHT?

Mr. Haverson, slowly—"Yes, but the question is, did Council do right.'

Mr. Whitney—"That is for the people to say. There is no reason for you to appeal to a higher court to undo what Council has done. You should apply to the source of that power. You know that as well as I do."

"Haven't there been appeals to higher authorities."

"Tell me one."

"In the disallowance of Acts of Provinces."

Mr. Whitney—"Not if they were wrong: only if they were illegal.'

"I suppose that is the case."

Mr. Hanna wanted to know why the petitions had not been sent to the City Council."

"These 37,000 reasons have a very direct interest for Council."

"There is nothing of 'Put Mowat in the hole,' 'Put Ross in the hole' in this." Mr. Haverson hastened to declare.

"We have not addressed you on the merits of the reduction, only on the fact of Council not heeding the vote of the people."

Mr. Whitney—"That is only another way of saying there is nothing the Government can do. If there were, you would have presented us the merits of the case''.

COUNCIL HAS POWER.

In answer to further appeals of Mr. Haverson as to the injustice of Council's action, Mr. Whitney said, 'What you ask is to do is this. The law gives Council the power to do a certain thing. Suppose you say it is unwise. That may or may not be. What would be the condition of affairs if on the allegation that the Council has done something wrong in one of the many questions under its jurisdiction we not only changed the law but went back on the Act itself.

"If your case has merits public opinion will settle it. I do not believe the public will stand aside and allow a great section to be imposed on. I cannot see how the Government can change the law and at the same time destroy the act done by a body of men under a law giving them the power to do the act. I assure you the Government will interfere whenever it is right for it to do so."

The deputation then withdrew."—The News.

Roll of Bills in Old Trousers

Given by Benevolent Society to Man Who Found Money in Pocket

Port Hope, Feb. 21—Of all the clothes being distributed to the poor, those given by Mr. Robert Gray, the highly efficient secretary of the Benevolent Society are most in demand. It has been found that they sometimes contain treasures of far greaetr value than the clothes themselves.

Mr. Percy Moss, who lives on Hope street and who is now employed driving Mr. Jas. Hunter's delivery wagon, recently visited Mr. Gray's office and was there given some clothes that had been sent to the Benevolent Society for distribution among the poor. One of the articles he received was an old and much soiled pair of trousers. Mrs. Moss took the trousers to wash for him, and before plunging them into the tub, noticed that something was in one of the pockets. She put her hand in the pocket and found that it contained a roll of bills, six dollars in all, composed of two two dollar notes and two one dollar notes.

The Reason Why
Zutoo
Is Used by Thousands.

It would probably surprise you to know how many thousands of people are using Zutoo Tablets who had never before used a headache cure.

This is due to three facts.
They tried the tablets.
The tablets cured their headache.
The tablets did not hurt them.

Like sensible people, they do not suffer from headache any more. They either let Zutoo ward off the headache—nip it in the bud—or assist nature in stopping it.

Which do you do? Do you suffer from headache or do you take Zutoo?

Local Doctor Lost Road and Was Wandering on Chemong Lake

Track Was Obliterated by Drifts and He Was in Precarious Situation—A Fortunate Rescue.

Lost on Chemong Lake was the unpleasant predicament in which a Peterborough doctor found himself on Wednesday night of this week. He was driving out to see a patient in Ennismore and as the track was badly drifted the horse got off the road and the doctor was unable to find it again. All signs of the road were almost obliterated and the doctor kept driving the horse on the lake, hoping to be able to strike the track again. He was unsuccessful, however, and was in a very unpleasant predicament. Fortunately, however he did not get far from the road and heard the talking of a party of T.A.S. members who were driving out to Ennismore on Wednesday night. The medical man shouted and those in the sleigh answered him with the result that he got back on the road and reached the shore. It is unnecessary to add that he was glad to be rescued from his precarious situation.

Seven Dogs Poisoned and The Owners Are Indignant

Seven dogs have been poisoned during the past two days in the vicinity of the corner of McDonnel and Downie streets. A valuable hound and collie are among the number, and the residents of this locality, especially the dog owners, are up in arms. Mr. Arthur Blodgett's dog was also poisoned, but when his owner noticed that the animal was sick he gave him an emetic, and the dog got alright.

There is no doubt but that some one is putting out poison for the dogs but the strange part of it is that the good dogs are getting killed and the bad whelps seem to escape it.

Tragic Death of Young Man About to Come to This City

Edward L. Hunter, of Montreal, Instantly Killed by Kick From Horse—Had Secured Position With Local Firm—A Very Distressing Fatality.

A local merchant who has been negotiating with a young man by the name of Edward L. Hunter of St James street, Montreal, to take charge of one of the departments of his store received the shocking intelligence this morning that the young man had met a tragic death.

He was at the farm of his uncle, Mr Wilson Hunter, who resides about two miles from Montreal and was kicked by a horse, the horse's hoof striking him on the head and crushing his scull in. Medical assistance was summoned but the young man was dead when the doctor arrived.

The Peterborough merchant who was going to employ the deceased man has requested the Review not to use his name in connection with the affair owing to the tragic details in connection with it. The letter to him containing the news of the fatality was written by Mr. Eugene Delaire of the firm of Delaire Bros. who were the employers of the late Mr. Hunter up to the time of his death. He was twenty-four years of age.

STRIKE MAY BE RICH ONE

A Latchford, New Ontario, despatch says;

Today another Peterborough man "struck it rich" on the Montreal River, close to Latchford, and also very near the Famous Mine, which is situated on lot 20, con. 6, Coleman township. It is said by men well versed in mining values, that the new "strike" is one of the most valuable in the camp. It was made by Mr. Wm. Whitton, who left Peterborough only a few days ago. The pro is in slate formation, being a lead two feet wide with calcite, heavily charged with argentite and leaf silver.

Miners and prospectors are getting very busy, and in a few weeks the great camp will be as busy as it was a year or two ago. Foreign mining men are coming in on every train. Those from a distance appeared to be well supplied with funds.

ORANGE JUICE AND HEALTH

For Stomach and Skin.

Few of us realize what an important part the skin plays in keeping us well or making us ill.

The millions of tiny glands, or pores, are intended to rid the system of waste matter, which the blood brings to the skin. It is a well-known medical fact that the healthy skin carries off more Urea or waste matter than the kidneys. Just think how much poison remains in the system when there is any skin trouble.

The skin and stomach are intimately associated. Find a person with a dry, harsh skin and you will find one with sallow with indigestion or constipation, and both, usually.

Both may be relieved by a judicious use of orange juice. Both can be cured by taking the juice of an orange every morning before breakfast, and taking "Fruit-a-tives" at night. "Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices in tablet form. The fresh juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes are separated from the pulp, and then combined in such a way that the medicinal action is intensified.

Orange juice alone will not cure Skin, Stomach or Bowel troubles. But when taken in connection with "Fruit-a-tives," a positive cure results. "Fruit-a-tives" may be obtained at all dealers or will be sent on receipt of price—50c a box—6 for $2.50. "Fruit-a-tives" Limited, Ottawa.

Letters to The Editor

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

"OBSERVER" IS UPHELD

To the Editor of the Review;

Dear Sir,—I am glad that an "Observer" has taken up the question of the socialistic debate at the Y.M.C.A., and as one who is very much interested in this subject, and while admitting, that socialism may be a healthful subject to be discussed, on occasions, and in places where it may with propriety be discussed, but I agree with "An Observer" that the Debating Club of the Y.M.C.A. is no place for the introduction and propagation of doctrines which have had the results of socialism from a moral point of view. Just imagine a man who is a socialist, realizing his "chimerical dreams." If you can imagine such a thing, if not, just allow the "agitator" to have sway for a short period and where will his ideas end!

Touch a match to a train of powder and it will soon explode, just so with the socialist. He does not know what he wants. They have very fine ideas, of collectivism, and a few other "isms," but the isms which they preach are only dreams. Mr. Shiner in his letter of the 19th, says "I see no reason why socialism should not be discussed in the Y. M. C. A. Building." He is right in this so long as the members of the Y.M.C.A. pay for the up-keep of the building, and its work, but they do not any ways repay it, and those who Mr. Shriner and some of his colleagues condemn because they have money and employ men and means, without his advice or the advice of his fellow socialists to enrich themselves and the country are the very men who go down deep into their pockets to support an association for "agitators," to air their views on subjects which the constitution of the Y.M.C.A. debars, "Politics and religion." An alert may be that when the subscription lists are presented, some may not renew their donations on account of the "agitators'" work. He also says, "providing that the discussion is done openly," but when "An Observer" states facts and surely, Mr. Editor, you did not make any mistake in your reports of the Debating Club. Messrs. Common and Shiner attempt to deny that such took place. Now, Mr. Editor, I have made enquiry and am told that "An Observer's" statements are all correct, who are the executive of the Y.M.C.A., Mr. Shiner and Mr. Shiner, and Evidently from his letter that [illegible] composes it. When I was a member of that institution, such a discussion would not be tolerated for one moment. And I do not think it should be now. What has the public to do with what the Grits or Tories endorse? What we have to deal with is this, is whether we as a long-suffering public are going to support an institution to agitate, trumped up petty grievances and jealousies, which dissatisfied emigrants to this country choose to discuss.

The fund of subjects, and good live ones too, are legion without taking up questions which are considered to be purely political today. Mr. Shiner contradicts himself in his letter. He says, "with regard to the propagation of socialism that is different, and I absolutely and emphatically deny the suggestion made by "An Observer, etc"—later on in his letter he says, "The first debate certainly brought out three or four speeches and some of the arguments were the same as would be used by a socialist, and the same will I expect be true of the second debate on March 4th." Now, Sir, the president knows that socialistic views and arguments will be used on March the 4th, And I would like to know if he and the executive are not responsible. They certainly are and they cannot shirk the responsibility.

I shall be an interested party at the debate on March 4th, and hope to hear discussions that will teach a good moral than otherwise. If Mr. Shiner wishes to build up the Y.M.C.A., he should steer a better course than he has heretofore, and not distress his hearers with a lot of fanatical ideas. I do not in the least wish to have any controversy over this matter, but I certainly shall take the opportunity of writing more fully if the second debate is not of a more healthful nature than the first one. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am Sir,

Yours Respectfully,
"CAPITALIST."

Dust is Flying Around Calgary

Advent of Water Wagon is Hailed With Delight

The following from the Calgary News sounds rather strange down this way where there are four feet of snow:

"Today reminded one of early summer. The brilliant sunshine, the warm breeze, and oh, just think of it—the water wagon laboring along Eighth avenue upon its mission of mercy, all tended to send one's thoughts back, or forward if you like, to the 'good old summer time.'

"The advent of the first sprinkler in Calgary this year—dear knows they have been needed long enough—is hailed with delight by the Eighth avenue business man and pedestrian alike. Hurrah for the sprinklers, and many of 'em.'"

Special Train Was Delayed

Wheel Broke and Masons Were an Hour Late in Getting to Lindsay

The local Masons who left by special train for Lindsay last evening at seven o'clock were delayed about an hour on their way there. At Reaboro, a small station between Omemee, and Lindsay, an axle of the tender of the engine broke and caused the delay. However it was repaired as quickly as possible and then excellent time was made. Otherwise the Masons were highly pleased with the excellent train the G.T.R. provided for the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin Honored by Residents of Smith Township

On Wednesday evening, February 19th about forty of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin, Smith township, assembled at their home, giving them a complete surprise to spend one more evening with them before their removal to their new home in Peterborough. An enjoyable evening was spent by both old and young with games and music, vocal and instrumental. Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin are highly esteemed by both old and young in the neighborhood of which they have been residents for the last five years. They will be greatly missed not only in the community at large but in the church and and Sunday School of which both have taken an active part. CAMPBELLFORD GETS INDUSTRY

Agreement Closed With Canadian Steel Rolling Mills Company

Campbellford, Feb. 20—As was intimated a few weeks ago, the Canadian Steel Rolling Mills Company has definitely decided to locate in Campbellford. The decision was reached at a meeting of the directors in Buffalo, N.Y., this week at which Mayor Dpxsee represented the town.

Some few weeks ago, Mr. Babcock, Buffalo, N.Y., and Mr. Marwick of Ohio, manufacturers, accompanied by Messrs. Davidson and Rudkins of Peterborough visited several towns and cities in this province with a view to selecting the most suitable place for locating a large steel industry. The inducements of Campbellford and particularly the cheap electric power proved most convincing and the result is that we shall have another large and thriving industry in our town within the next twelve months. This new manufacturing concern will manufacture sheet or bar steel, and they have agreed to begin operations by the first of January, 1909.

Who Will Get Nomination?

Much Speculation Among Conservatives in the East

Havelock, Feb. 21.—The contest among the Conservatives in this riding for the nomination of the party for the coming Provincial and Dominion elections, promises to be an interesting one.

Among the names mentioned as probable candidates for the Legislature are Reeve Jas. Thompson, of town, Warden of the County; Jas. Andrews, of Asphodel, ex-reeve and ex-County Councillor; D. H. Moore, of Dummer, the defeated Conservative candidate at the last Provincial elections, and Joshua Smithson, of Otonabee, one of the License Commissioners.

For the Dominion House nomination the name of Mr. J. A. Sexsmith of Belmont, is the one most prominently mentioned, and it is said that Dr. Fraser, of Lakefield, is also an aspirant. Mr. Sexsmith was before the people for Dominion representation at the last two elections, and each time succeeded in cutting down the majority of the Liberal member.

WOMAN'S KINGDOM

This struggle for life is not in it with the struggle for supremacy between Man and Woman now on. We will bet on woman. Look at the suffragette!

The time is coming when men will constitute the weaker sex, when women will take off their hats to us and give us their seats in a street car. Do you believe it? Sure.

Mrs. Cup-and-Saucer, M.P. for Labelle, rose at 5.30 p.m. to a point of order. She said that certain members and she wouldn't call them honourable members either (Cries of oh! Ha! ha!) had gone round making nasty remarks about her, and that she wouldn't stand it —that's all. She moved that the House go into supply on the question of providing funds for seal-skin sacques for the members (great applause). She gave notice of motion to confer the franchise on men (laughter). She demanded admission for women to membership in the Canadian Club. Weren't women the authors of all Canadians? She characterized men as a lot of contemptible puppies (applause)

Making love or courting is too hard work these days. Again a man works all day, he is in no fit condition to go sparking at night. This may account for the celibacy of the modern bachelor. At least so it is thought by those who don't know.

It is the fashion for women this spring to cultivate beards. The fashion originated in a desire to beat men at their own game. "My wife won't use her own razor and by golly, she ain't going to use mine no more!" "The brute!" exclaimed the wife. And thus old woman once more 'raise a" row.

The Daily Review

SATURDAY, FEB. 22, 1908

A FALSE POLICY

Mr. Morine, the speaker at the Thursday evening meeting of the Canadian Club, spoke very strongly against the present policy of bringing in all and sundry from the four corners of the earth, and he might have added, at our expense. Our immigration policy should be directed to the bringing into the union of the 250,000 good Canadians and true of Newfoundland. These people are moral, upright and intelligent. It would, he maintained, add greatly to our solidarity and prestige to have this large island with its Labrador annex, forming practically our whole sea-front on the Atlantic Coast, a province of the Dominion. Strategically we do not realize our weakness, and if the U.S. won over Newfoundland from her allegiance, we should be, as Mr. Morine remarked, in a sorry plight indeed, boxed in both on the east and west sides. We agree with Mr. Morine also that it is most necessary that this policy of paying a secret organization to pick up for us the drift and shift of Europe should cease at once. We cannot and should not absorb them. It is like in many cases planting moral leprosy in our midst. Why the Dominion Government persists in this suicidal policy no one seems to know. The famous secret organization of possible suicides, viz., the North Atlantic Trading Company evidently has a hold upon their employers. But it will be stopped after the next election and the people relieved of a great and dire burden. This we may rest assured of.

UTILITY AND BEAUTY

Those who spend part of their time in intelligent contemplation of the heavens need not and do not worry about scenic changes in the face of the earth. To us it seems fairly conclusive that Niagara wholly engaged in developing electrical energy is vastly more splendid nay, more magnificent than Niagara feasting the eye as a phenomenon of nature. The gratification of a mere aesthetic taste is at any time inartistic and unscientific if divorced from utility. Few intelligent people would prefer the waters of the great fall pouring over a precipice to the same waters pouring through tunnels and debouching upon the river below after having through the ingenuity of man developed 7,500,000 hp. If we feel that a contemplation of the beautiful as such is necessary to our well-being then the moving splendour of the nightly skies will suffice to satisfy even the most ardent. Nothing however, in this whole cosmical economy is done without a useful purpose and if we imitate the Creator in this regard, we cannot go wrong. Much of the sentiment around is unintelligent and selfish. It is vastly more important that all should find power for production than that some should weep for a vanished beauty while others weep for the necessaries of life. This same argument applies to the Plains of Abraham. The spending of $300,000 on this project when so many people are in need of food is an outrage. It is selfishness personified. Surely one warm pulsating life is worth more than the field of a battle whose memory is already preserved in the pages of history. We would go so far as to say that to disregard the claims of deserving poverty in order to gratify a taste for historical memories in perishable form is a shameless waste.

THE POWER POLICY

The Hydro-Electric Commission is the agency of the Ontario Government whereby Niagara power is to be distributed to municipalities in Ontario requiring it. The only private company proposing to do the same is the Electrical Development Co., which has just been taken over by Wm. Mackenzie.

The state of the case at the present time is simply this; "Will the Government absorb the E.D. Co., or what will it do with it?" No doubt some equitable and proper arrangement will be made between the two since manifestly it would be an injustice to the bondholders of the private company if their rights duly and legally granted were snatched out of their hands. What the course adopted will be the public is waiting to find out, and probably will find out within a short time. It would not be impossible for the province to buy out the E.D. Co., altogether. This may or may not be done.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mr. Morine remarked that Newfoundland, pronounced "Newfunland," was not a land of fog. It is usually termed a land of cod and fog and dog, and he surprised us by saying that the cod were better than supposed but the dogs not so good.

"What is the matter with Hanna?" Nothing. If you ask us, Mr. Foy and he make a fine team. They work well together, are gentle in harness and can draw the load, without doping either themselves or the electorate.

"Courage!" was the word alike of encouragement and direction given by the great emperor to his soldiers. Sometimes they were in dire straits and sometimes in need of a firm directing hand. This quality of knowing what to say and when to say it is one of the great qualifications of leadership. Sir Wilfrid, however, prefers to say nothing and perhaps it is just as well. It is sometimes more politic to remain silent than to endanger one's position by speaking out.

The rooms of the Young Conservative Club are now open free to the unemployed and scores of men out of work are taking advantage of the club's invitation. It has become also an employment agency. The rooms are warm and comfortable, while upon the tables are plenty of newspapers, English and Canadian, and other sources of information. Cards, pool, draughts, etc., enable those so inclined to indulge in innocent amusement, while many content themselves with a smoke and a chat in an easy chair, about other lands and other times. Let these good men have courage, however, Canada will yet take them to her heart, and they will find her a capable and kind mother.

Mr. R. M. Roy the Local Photographer Secures New Process—Photographs Taken Perfectly Reproducing Color to the Smallest Detail—What Was Declared Impossible at Length Accomplished.

After years and years of experiment, perfection has at last been obtained in the art of photography. What has been declared impossible by chemists and scientists has been accomplished. It would take columns of space to fully explain the process by which the wonderful accomplishment has been made, and an adequate account of it would be far beyond the ability of the writer, and above the comprehension of the casual reader.

To Mr. Antoine Lumiere, of Paris, France, belongs the credit of having solved the problem of taking a colored photograph. The colors in the photo are reproduced by the process employed in the actual taking of it, and not by any tinting or other means. In an hour after the shutter has closed, the photograph is finished and the result is at once pleasing and wonderful. Special plates and chemicals are used for securing the photograph.

A representative of the Review paid a visit to Roy's studio and saw some of the colored photographs. The first one of these was taken on Wednesday last. Mr. Kennedy, the Yonge street, Toronto, photographer, and Mr. Roy are the first in Canada to employ the process. They heard of this new photography through a friend in France and decided to secure the process. Mr. Roy purchased it through the Montreal house of photographic supplies, owned by M. Lumiere, its inventor. He is naturally very enthusiastic over this new discovery, and was delighted with the results obtained in his own studio. The photos are beautiful and artistic, and one never gets tired looking at them. They are perfect reproductions in the minutest respects, every bit of color being shown, even to the color of the sitter's eyes. A necktie, a flower in a buttonhole, a plume in a hat, the shade of a suit of clothes, all are given by the new process with a correctness of detail and color that even the best artists would be unable to obtain.

"St. Bridget of Kildare" Subject of Very Interesting Essay

Was Read by Miss L. Denneard at Regular Meeting of Ladies' Literary Society Last Night—Splendid Programme Was Given—A Particularly Large Attendance.

The assembly hall of St. Peter's T. A.S. was taxed to its utmost capacity last evening, when the regular meeting of the Ladies' Literary Society was held. The programme presented was one worthy of the high aims and worthy aspirations of the Society. It consisted of a very interesting essay on "St. Bridget of Kildare," the patroness of Irish womanhood, by Miss L. Deannard and a musical programme gracefully presented by some of the Society's local artists.

Miss Deannard's essay was a most comprehensive account of the life of this holy woman. The subject was introduced by referring to the constancy, steadfastness and fervor with which the people of "Fair Erin" adhered to their faith. Though at times, enveloped with the darkest clouds, they emerged from them with the light of faith shining as brilliantly as ever.

This same devotion and attachment to the faith that characterized Erin's children of old and won for their bright little insular nation the proud distinction of "Isle of Saints and Scholars," still live with undiminished fervor in the Irish heart. History tells us that standing out from all others renowned for their faith was the apostle St. Patrick, the founder of Christianity in Ireland and St. Bridget, that beloved patroness of Irish womanhood.

In beautiful language, perfectly in harmony with the reverential point of view from which the subject was approached, the essayist laid before the audience the authenticated facts concerning the life of this chosen soul 'St. Bridget of Kildare' was born at Faughart in 453, her parents being of royal descent. Reared by pious parents, thoroughly instructed in every branch which tends to give dignity to a true christian, her virtues of modesty and charity were soon visible. At an early age she consecrated herself to God and spent most of her time in the performance of many holy and beautiful practices. Her reputation for sanctity became greater each day. Her life was an uninterrupted series of holy acts and she seems to have occupied herself entirely in promoting the welfare of others. Our Divine Lord seemed ever present to assist her by His Divine Grace.

The attention of our beloved patroness was especially given to cultivating and sanctifying the souls of her own sex, for whom she provided schools and for many shelter. Encouraged by her example, many other young ladies consecrated themselves to God. Soon a religious institution was founded and our Saint assumed the superiority of it. Her reputation for sanctity became great on each day and in proportion as it was diffused throughout the country the number of candidates for admission into the new monastery increased. Consequently many great monasteries were founded the origin of which must be attributed to the work of this pious Saint. The site on which Kildare now stands was soon chosen by the saint and her faithful followers as an abode. Soon a beautiful edifice was erected there, the fame of which spread abroad. Well may the daughters of "Fair Erin," feel grateful to her for her tender solicitude on their behalf. In so much reverence is she held, that there is scarcely a family in Ireland but one of its fair daughters has chosen her for their holy patron saint.

After seventy years devoted to practices of the most sublime nature, corporal infirmities admonished her and the time of her dissolution was near at hand. Fortified by all the rites of her holy religion, her soul quitted her mortal body and winged its flight to the bosom of Him whom alone she had loved and served.

Her relics were enshrined in the church of Kildare, which for ages was frequented by pilgrims from all parts of Ireland and Great Britain. The fame of her sanctity reached Germany and France and the people of these countries cherished the most profound veneration for her. Her memory was universally revered. Great indeed was the honor paid to St. Bridget of Kildare." The shrine containing her relics was preserved in the monastery at Kildare until about the year 850. when owing to the ravages of the Danes it was removed to Downpatrick, where the relics of St. Patrick were enshrined.

The sweetness and docility of this beautiful life was very ably portrayed by the clever essayist. The essay besides being of a most interesting nature, written in a clear and concise style contained many passages of remarkable beauty and strength.

The musical part of the programme which preceded the reading of the essay was rendered in a faultless manner and reflected much credit on the performers.

The following was the musical programme introduced by Miss K. McGrath who occupied the chair for the evening:

Instrumental duet—Misses Doris.
Vocal duet—Mr. Koen and Miss Delaire.
Recitation—Misses Mary and Josephine Fernly,
Vocal solo—Mr. Koen.
Instrumental solo—Master Harold Otis.

Dispute Over Owenership of a Fox Terrier in Police Court

A rather amusing case was aired in the police court yesterday afternoon when a lively dispute arose over the ownership of a little fox terrier took place. Miss C. Garvis, of Demetre Bros, confectionery store, called at the police court yesterday morning and swore out a search warrant. She stated that she bought the dog from a lady living on Romaine street, and she was told that the terrier was concealed at her place.

Shortly after eleven o'clock P. C. McBerry in company with Miss Garvis went to Romaine street, where they called at the home of the lady, inquiring after the lost canine. They were informed that it was not there.

On the strength of the search warrant, P. C. McBerry entered the house and after looking into several parts of the residence finally found the animal hid in the cellar.

The little "doggie" was brought to the police station and at five o'clock yesterday afternoon the harborer of the dog appeared before Magistrate Dumble. Mr. Ozias de La Plante defended here, and Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for Miss Garvis. Mr. La Plante argued that as he held a chattel mortgage on the property of the defendant, which included the fox terrier in question, Miss Garvis had no right to the ownership of the animal.

His worship did not agree with Mr. La Plante as to the dog being included in the mortgage and gave his judgment in favor of Miss Garvis, on condition that she pay the costs, which amounted to $1.59. She paid the money and picking up her terrier walked off as happy as could be. The dog is valued at ten dollars.

Answer to Deputation Will Not Interfere

"It is not a case in which my colleagues and I think we have any right to interfere. More than that, we think it would be distinctly improper to interfere.

"Injustice has been done by various legislative bodies in the past, and the remedy has always been sought from the source of power, namely, the people.

"If we interfered once we might do it every week. That would result in anarchy, pandemonium, universal disorder. It would do away with all continuity and permanency in legislation.

"Every one who gives it consideration must see that it is impossible for us to act in this case without throwing away every vestige of regard for the rights of a legislative body given it by law. If your case has merits, public opinion will settle it. I have great faith in public opinion."

The above is Mr. Whitney's reply to the petition of 38,000 names and to the deputation accompanying it. If the people want the licenses restored, they are the ones to do it. The Legislature has limitations. The will of the people is supreme in such cases.

Local Man Describes Russia As "the Centre of Darkness"

Mr. B. Lastar apparently has not a very high regard for Russia. City Tax Collector Green today received a picture post card from Mr. Lastar who is a visit to friends in Germany and Russia. This card was mailed from a post office in Russia and was dated January 5th. On it were written the following lines,

"From the centre of darkness, where no man, woman or child is safe. Greetings to the land of freedom and liberty."

Seed for French Canned Peas Largely Raised in This District

Houedry & Sons Supply About 50,000 Bushels a Year—The Extent of Their Operations and How They Are Carried on—Beans Will Also be Cultivated for French Market and New Business Will be Established by the Firm in Western Ontario.

To Canada in general and to Peterborough in particular falls the honor of supplying the seed from which these peas are produced.

Thousands of bushels are grown by the farmers in and around Peterborough the seed being furnished in comparatively small quantities from France.

It is forwarded to Peterborough and here is given to farmers. By cultivation in suitable soil the original amount planted is increased six and seven fold. There are between sixty and seventy kinds raised in Peterborough and adjoining counties. Some are of the late variety, some early, some medium. Then some are sweet, tender and juicy while others are firmer and not so delicious.

The firm, which receives sacks of peas from Dol-de-Bretagne, France, and supplies the farmers and gardeners with the seed is Houdry & Sons, of Peterborough. They have been carrying on this business for fifteen years. After the seed is given out and planted it is returned to the company here. After passing through a large electrically operated separator, which sorts the different kinds and thoroughly fans away all dirt and refuse, it is placed in sacks and sent back to the head establishment in France. It is generally in the month of September that such shipments are made from Peterborough. In France, the seed, which is raised in Canada is given out to farmers and gardeners, who raise crops either for the market or for canning but the seed is not hand ed out until it has all been thoroughly hand picked.

Three years ago the Peterborough branch of Houdry & Sons, shipped 24,000 bushels to their head establishment at Dol-de-Bretagne, France and each year since the output has increased.

A NEW DEPARTURE

The firm of Houdry & Sons, intend raising seed beans in Canada, for shipment to France. This is a step in advance—a new departure. They find the best soil and climate for growing seed beans is near Chatham, Ont. and in that section possibly at Blenheim, Ont., they will open a bean establishment.

A brief history of the firm will prove interesting. The headquarters are at Dol-de-Bretagne, France. About fifteen years ago, in visiting Ontario it was found that the Peterborough district was the best suited for cultivating seed peas and so a storehouse was opened in the old Bridge Works building. A few years later another branch was started in Africa at Bone, Algiers. Expansion has been the watchword and a fourth branch for undertaking the cultivation of seed beans will be located at or near Chatham, as previously mentioned.

Few know the nature and extent of the firm's enterprises. Its head is Mons. Jean Louis Houedry and the sons are Maurice and Louis who control the Peterborough business.

It may be asked why the seed peas raised here are not canned in this country instead of being sent to France. The reason is that the latter climate is much more favorable for raising green peas. They ripen more slowly. Two crops can be raised in the one season from the land, while in Canada only one crop could be harvested. In the land of the Gaul the seed is sown in January and the first yield of green peas for the cannera is gathered about the middle of March. A second crop is immediately put in and garnered during the latter part of May or early in June. After that, if he desires, so mild is the climate, the farmer can still raise a crop of buckwheat on the soil. Peas raised for canning factories in Canada are planted early in May and must be harvested about the middle of June; otherwise they re-open rapidly. In France the process of ripening is very slow and the peas can be harvested for several days and taken to the canning factory without much difference in their consistency.

A BIG SHIPMENT.

On the eighth of February there was shipped from France to the firm in Peterborough 202 sacks of peas and half a car load of beans. The consignment will reach here in a few days. Each contains about 215 lbs. or four bushels, so that there are over 800 bushels now on the ocean. These comprise some 60 or 70 varieties, and will be dealt out to the farmers in this district for seed for the coming season. Planted in May, the ripe peas must, according to the terms of the contract entered into with the farmers be delivered to Houdrey & Sons storehouse here by September 10th. After being put through the separator they will be shipped back to France and there given out, after being carefully hand-picked and assorted, to the farmers and gardeners who will deliver them green to the canneries—two crops being taken off the land each year. Possibly 50,000 bushels will be forwarded from Peterborough next fall. Already over 500 farmers have applied to the firm for contracts. Some get 10 bushels of seed, others 20. 30, 40, etc.

Two or three clauses in the contract may be quoted for the information of the public.

The party of the second part shall deliver free to Houdrey & Sons at their storehouse and in their sacks the total crop grain from the seeds so furnished on or before the 10th September, 1908.

At the time of such delivery the peas shall be hand-picked and the good peas and bad peas shall be separated by Houdrey & Sons, who are to be sole judge of quality, and they will first deduct out of the good peas an amount of peas equal to the sowing stock furnished, and they agree to pay for the balance of such peas the prices following;—

All bad peas deducted will be given back, or paid at cleanings price, to the party of the second part after cleaning, but must be taken before the 31st December, 1908, and all accounts must be settled before the 31st December, 1908.

The price paid to the farmers is from 75 cents to $1.10 per bushels, according to the variety, and the total sum distributed in a season among the thrifty yeomen in this section is from $60,000 to $70,000.

At the storehouse of the firm in France, experiments are constantly being carried on to propogate new varieties of peas and beans, in order to gratify the various tastes of consumers of canned peas, and to place something new in that line on the market.

In France labor in the canneries is cheaper than in Canada, and French canned peas are shipped to many places in the Dominion at a less figure than the output of some of the peas factories in this country.

The Frenchman dearly loves green peas either from the garden or canned, and judging by the augmented output each year from the canneries other people also find that this succulent delicacy goes a long way in tickling the palate and satisfying gastronomical desires.

Lighthouse Keeper Storm Bound For Seven Days.

Toledo, O., Feb. 22.—Fleeing in terror over long stretches of treacherous ice from the Toledo harbor lighthouse, where for seven days he had been imprisoned, with the dead body of Capt. Delos Hayden, Joe Berner reached the city yesterday afternoon. He brought the news of the death to friends and relatives, telling of the nerve-racking vigil beside the dying man in the lonely lighthouse and his still more terrifying experience while watching over the dead body, waiting for a turn in the weather which would permit his escape.

Hayden was conscious to the last and left a message for each of his relatives and friends. He died in his faithful companion's arms. Berner placed the body in one of the lower rooms of the lighthouse and began his wait for an opportunity to reach shore.

Around the lighthouse the ice was firm under the snow, and when Berner started out at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon he had strong hopes of reaching the shore in safety. Yet the trial was extremely perilous. He was not even equipped with a pike pole with which to sound the ice, and he fell many times into airholes. He also found much open water and frequently by the merest chance escaped death.

Berner cannot explain how he happened to reach Cedar Point Thursday. He had no idea as to the direction in which he was walking, and had he gone 200 feet either east or west of the course he happened to take he would have missed land altogether. He took a few hours' rest at Cedar Point, and then proceeded to the city.

Are You a Member of a Union?

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 20.—Liberals, Socialists and two Government supporters, one the Minister of Education, voted in favor of a bill to make it illegal for an employer to ask the question: "Are you a member of a union?" The bill was defeated by a majority of nine. It was aimed to prevent the introduction into the province of western American methods. The Government regarded it as unwise and ineffective.

MAN RELEASED FROM PETERBOROUGH GAOL THREW HIMSELF BEFORE TRAIN

Tragic Death of Arthur R. Turner, Who Was to be Deported to the Old Country.

Lay Down on the Rails and Waited for the Train to Crush out His Life—Died in Smith's Falls Hospital.

The young immigrant who committed suicide by laying down in front of a CPR train at Sharbot Lake on Wednesday was Arthur R. Turner, who had been taken from the Peterborough jail by Mr. P. Devlin, Immigration Inspector, to be deported to the Old Country. He was arrested on the 28th of January by the local police charged with vagrancy and sentenced to jail for one month. Mr. Devlin came to Peterborough on Tuesday to secure Turner but the local jailer refused to give him up as his time did not expire until January 28th. However, Mr. Devlin secured an order from the Minister of Justice for Turner's release and left Peterborough with his man on the midnight train on Wednesday. A despatch from Smith's Falls describes the tragic affair as follows; Smith's Falls, Feb. 20—The body of Arthur R. Turner, an Irish immigrant, from Peterborough, lies in the public ward of the hospital here as the result of a tragic occurrence on the CPR. at Sharbot Lake yesterday morning at 4 o'clock.

The man was one of a dozen immigrants being deported, and was in a tourist car along with the others in charge of a guard. It seems he was opposed to going back to the old land and had resisted deportation in every possible way. At Sharbot Lake station he walked out of the car and made an attempt to escape by walking up the track. Some of the men about the platform had noticed him going off, and when an enquiry was made for him, they made known the fact. Immediately the train was backed up the line in pursuit and soon came within sight of him. When he saw the train bearing down on him, he lay down on the rails evidently being more willing to die than to continue his journey back to the place from whence he had come. Before the train could be stopped the wheels of the last truck of the big Pullman car had passed over him completely severing both his legs close to the body.

The poor fellow was picked up and brought to the Smith's Falls hospital, but died in half an hour after reaching here. He regained consciousness for a few minutes just before he died, but refused to talk.

The man was about 38 or 40 years of age, and on some of his clothing there was the name McCartin.

Many Attended To-day's Market

The market was crowded today with buyers and sellers. The farmers were present in large numbers. On the past two Saturdays the weather has been so unfavorable that they have been unable to get to town. The roads are now in pretty fair condition and little difficulty is being experienced by drivers in the country today.

The prices on the market were practically the same as they have been for some weeks. Butter sold at 28 and 30 cents per pound, while eggs brought the same price per dozen. Chickens sold at 85 and 90 cents, and $1.00 per pair, while a few small turkeys brought $1.00 a piece.

On the outside market, pork sold at 9 and 10 cents per pound, and beef at 5 1-2 and 6 1-2 cents.

Coming to Reside in Peterborough

Mr. and Mrs. A. Goodfellow Honored by Their Neighbors in Otonabee

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Goodfellow, who reside near Lang in Otonabee, but who are moving to Peterborough to live, were waited upon by a large number of their neighbors and made the recipients of an address and presentation. A china tea set and a silver butter dish were the gifts and the address was read by Miss Beatrice Starke and Miss Mamie Brealey made the presentation. Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow's departure is much regretted, as they are highly honored residents of the district where they reside. A jolly social time was spent by those present on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow made suitable replies to the kind sentiments expressed in the address and expressed their thanks for the handsome gifts.

The address was as follows;

Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow;

To every thing there is a season and a time for every purpose; a time to be born and a time to die; a time to sow and a time to reap; a time to kill and a time to heal; a time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance; a time to get and a time to give away; a time to rend and a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak; a time to love and a time to hate; a time of war and a time of peace; a time to work and a time to rest; a time to eat and a time to sleep; a time to meet and a time to part.

And as the time of our parting as neighbors is drawing nearer we feel what a loss will be ours. By your sterling good qualities and Christian character, you and your family have gained a place in our midst which will be most difficult to refill. You have always taken an interest and active part in all our undertakings, both in church life and in the social life of our neighborhood. Your motives have always been felt to have been prompted by no love of selfish gain but, merely, to further the paths of truth and honor.

We cannot allow this opportunity to pass without expressing to you in some slight way the regard in which you are held and we ask you to accept this china tea set as a token of our good will. May you live many years to use them and have many happy meals of them.

Our earnest wish is that you will have health and prosperity and that God's blessing will abide with you in your new home.

(Signed.)

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION

New York, Feb. 22.—Although it is still the popular theme to attack anything and everything with which Wall Street is either directly or indirectly connected, evidences are constantly accumulating that a revulsion in sentiment regarding the financial center is taking place and that the stock market is gradually recovering from the depression which has prevailed for some time. It is felt in various parts of the country that the Stock Exchange and the numerable interests which it represents have been subjected to a great deal of unjust criticism, and while political demagogues continue their tirades, the fact is becoming to be recognized by the people at large that these onslaughts are in the main for political purposes only.

During the past weeks prices for stocks generally have advanced more or less sharply and at the close twelve representatives industrial issues show an average gain over prices curent at the close of last week of about one dollar a share, while those for twenty representative railway stocks show a gain considerably in excess of that amount. These stocks, however, are still very much under the high points reached in January last, and as in its recent sharp decline the stock market has, according to prevailing sentiment in well informed quarters, pretty thoroughly "discounted" all present and prospective developments of an unfavorable character. The expectations are that a still further advance will take place in the immediate future. It is recognized that a number of prominent railway and industrial issues are at present selling on practically a receivership basis, this being especially true of the Gould stocks, and that therefore they should be bought no matter what may happen. In addition to this, the industrial situation is beginning to improve and it is expected that the earnings of the United Steel Corporation and other large industries will during the present and succeeding months show gains over those recently reported. The National Lead Company has just closed the most prosperous year in its history, and this, together with the declaration of its regular dividends, has created a much more hopeful sentiment concerning the general industrial outlook. Besides, reports are curent of enormous sales of copper metal, our export and home consumption, at an average price of 12c per pound, and this has led to an advance in the quotations for that metal here at the closing of the week. There are some indications that the Standard Oil interests have lately been buying into the American Smelting & Refining Company, and while the Guggenheims maintain that they still retain control of that property, there is more than a suspicion that the recent serious slump in Smelters stock, has been connected in greater or less measure with the reported efforts of the Rockefellers to get hold of that company.

Professional operators on both the New York Stock and Consolidated Stock Exchanges, having cleaned up handsome profits on the short side of the account, have now turned about and are working on the opposite tack. Moreover, commission brokers in both these exchanges in numerous instances report a growing influx of buying orders from outsiders, all of which goes to show that, notwithstanding the great hue and cry against Wall Street in general, confidence among investors throughout the country is gradually being restored. The presence in this city of unusually large numbers of commercial buyers with big orders, the steady growth in exports of our leading cereals and staple goods, the recent decision in favor of E. H. Harriman in the Illinois Central and Union Pacific case and a further considerable increase in the reserves of the New York city banks, which brings their surplus up to $2,468,550, as against $4,509,575 at this time last year, are among the factors which account for the more cheerful sentiment at present prevailing in the stock market and which are expected to add even greater strength to values before long. Shocking Affair at Denver; Was Shot Dead at the Altar

Priest Victim of Anarchist's Fury—Man Was Kneeling to Receive the Sacrament at the Time—Pressed a Revolver Close to His Body—Panic in the Church — Crowd Threaten Vengeance Against Murderer.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 24.—Father Leo Heinrichs was shot and killed yesterday by Alio Guizeppe, an avowed anarchist and priest hater, while the priest was administering the sacrament at the early mass in St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic Church.

Kneeling at the altar rail, between two women, Guizeppe pressed the muzzle of a revolver against the body of the priest, after receiving from him the consecrated water, and shot the priest through the heart.

Exclaiming, "My God, my God," Father Leo fell prone in front of the altar and died.

With an inarticulate scream, the assassin sprang into the aisle and waving the smoking pistol about his head dashed to the church door. For a moment the hundred or more persons in the church were dazzled. Then a woman shrieked and the congregation became panic-stricken. Several women fainted and many others became hysterical. Several men, including Patrolman Daniel Cronin, started in pursuit of the murderer, Policeman Cronin overtook the fleeing Italian on the church steps.

Guizeppe attempted to shoot the policeman, but was foiled and overpowered after a desperate struggle, in which several men assisted the officer.

The murderer was hurriedly removed to the city jail. As threats of summary vengeance by men who collected in front of the church, Chief of Police Michael Delaney called out the reserve force of patrolmen, who were kept on guard all day and last night.

Before the commotion caused by the tragedy subsided, the Franciscan brothers connected with the St. Elizabeth's Church silently brought candles for the dead and placed them besides the body of their superior, where he lay. By direction of Bishop Matz the church was closed for the day.

A single bullet hole in the white communion robes of the priest showed that the lead had gone straight to the heart. The bullets remaining in Guizeppe's revolver had sharpened points.

Guizeppe was placed in solitary confinement. He admitted to the policeman that the priest whom he had killed was a stranger to him, and in explanation of his crime, said:

"I just went over there because I have a grudge against all priests in general. They are all against the workingman. I went to the communion rail because I could get a better shot. I did not give a blank whether he was a German priest or any other kind of a priest. They are all in the same class.

"I left Italy three months ago, and went first to Central America and then came to Denver. I am an anarchist and I am proud of it. I shot him, and my only regret is that I could not shoot the whole bunch of priests in the church. I am a shoemaker, but have not worked since coming to Denver."

Fatalities in Railroad Wreck; Nine Were Crushed by Express

Dreadful Accident to Party of Merrymakers at Spring Valley.

Six Dead and Three Frightfully Injured—Fatality Occurred at Ontario and Western Crossing—Were Going to Ball Game—Wagon Battered to Pieces by Engine—Bodies Terribly Mutilated.

Spring Valley, N.Y., Feb. 24.—A foam-flecked pair of horses that tore through the streets early yesterday, dragging between them a splintered wagon pole, brought to the village the first news of a grade crossing accident, in which nine members of its most prominent families were either killed outright or frightfully injured.

The runaways brought up at the livery stables of George Young, from whom they had been hired the night before to take a party of men and girls to a basketball game at Nyack. Returning in the early hours of the day the wagon load of merrymakers was run down at a West Nyack crossing by an Ontario & Western passenger express train. Four of the party were instantly killed, two died while being removed to the Hudson County Hospital at Hoboken, N.J., and the other three lie in a serious condition at that institution.

At the hospital last night it was stated that the outcome of the injured could not be predicted for several hours. Of the three the condition of Miss Bird was said to be the most desperate.

The Spring Valley basketball team and eleven supporters drove to Nyack, occupying two carriages. The party of sixteen included six young ladies. The teams started for home a half hour apart. As the first wagon load approached the crossing at West Nyack the southbound mountain express running over the West Shore road came in sight.

It was behind time, and being pushed, it is stated. The gateman says he lowered the gates and at the same time waved a warning to the merrymakers, whose shouts of laughter could be heard as their horses came galloping along. He believes that young May thought he could beat the train. At any rate the gateman says that the team plunged through the gate and the next moment the wagon was poised on the cowcatcher of the locomotive. As the vehicle fell to pieces the occupants tumbled some to one side, the others directly under the engine's wheels. The train run a considerable distance before it could be stopped. Then it was backed up and the injured placed upon it.

The bodies of the dead were literally crushed to pieces and scarcely recognizable. In the dim light it was impossible to complete the work of recovery, which was renewed yesterday.

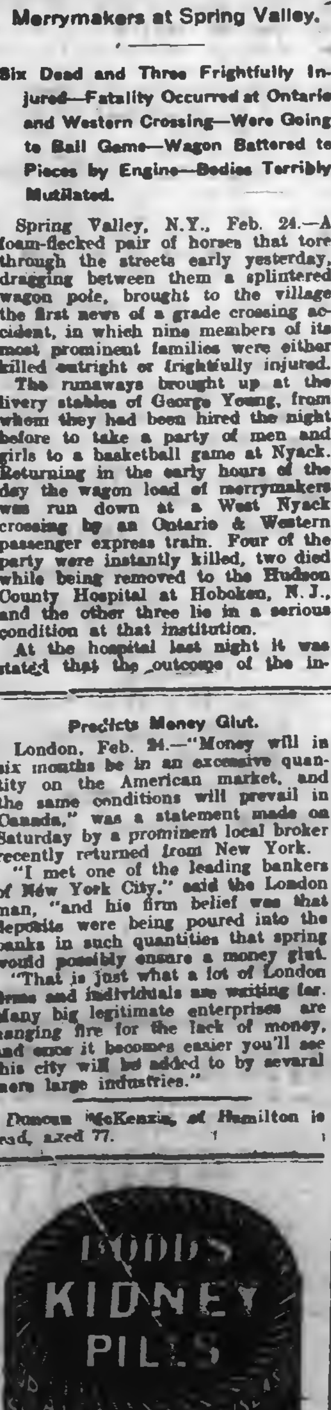
Predicts Money Glut.

London, Feb. 24.—"Money will in six months be in an excessive quantity on the American market, and the same conditions will prevail in Canada," was a statement made on Saturday by a prominent local broker recently returned from New York.

"I met one of the leading bankers of New York City," said the London man, "and his firm belief was that deposits were being poured into the banks in such quantities that spring would possibly ensure a money glut.

"That is just what a lot of London firms and individuals are waiting for. Many big legitimate enterprises are hanging fire for the lack of money, and once it becomes easier you'll see this city will be added to by several more large industries."

Duncan McKenzie, of Hamilton is dead, aged 77.



Fire at Hastings.

Hastings, Feb. 24.—Fire broke out about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a frame building occupied by a tailoring establishment and A Chinese laundry, and for a time threatened the postoffice and the residence of John Tracey.

The fire brigade, however, managed to confine the flames to the building in which they broke out, and, although it was soon a mass of ruins, little damage was done to any of the surrounding buildings. The exact loss and insurance are not known.

Steamer Beta Wrecked.

Turk's Island, Feb. 24.—The British steamer Beta, Capt. Pye, from Halifax, Feb. 14, for Bermuda, Turk's Island and Kingston, was totally wrecked off here yesterday. The crew and passengers were rescued, and part of the cargo probably will be saved. The steamer was of 667 tons.

Brothers Killed by Train.

Gloversville, N.Y., Feb. 24.—Samuel O. Shepard of West Day, Saratoga County, and his brother, Delbert Shepard of Woodbine, Iowa, were struck by a Delaware & Hudson passenger train near Corinth, late Saturday afternoon, and both instantly killed.

Uruguay Lines Tied Up.

Montevideo, Feb. 24.—The employes on all the railways in Uruguay have gone on strike. There are about 1,200 miles of railway in Uruguay, which are controlled by British capitalists.

BRITISH HOUSE BEGINS WORK.

London, Feb. 24.—The session of Parliament, up to the present apparently uneventful, will begin to-day a busy and important week, with the introduction of a new education bill and the publication of the naval estimates, over which there is said to have been much divergence of opinion in the Cabinet. On Tuesday the Government will make a statement on the Macedonia situation and the Congo debate will occupy Wednesday. The licensing bill, one of the Government's principal measures, will be taken up on Thursday, and on Friday the woman's suffrage bill.

The health of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Prime Minister, is improving, but very slowly. There is not the slightest hope that he will be able to resume active leadership before Easter, even if then, and the party is beginning to take for granted the advent of Herbert H. Asquith as Premier, which would be an important development in many ways, as Mr. Asquith is the leader of the imperial section of the Cabinet, while Sir Henry leads the Radical section, which is committed to home rule and other advanced measures.

As Mr. Asquith holds the influential position of Chancellor of the Exchequer, his appointment as Premier would give his party enormous strength, which might result in some modification of the policy of the Cabinet as a whole. Rumors that the Premier has already offered to resign, however, are unfounded.

It is understood that the naval estimates will show an increase of about $5,000,000 over last year, the shipbuilding program being a modest one.

FREIGHT TRAIN DITCHED.

Rail Had Been Removed to Wreck a Passenger Express.

Sedalia, Mo., Feb. 24.—An attempt to derail an eastbound fast passenger train on the Missouri Pacific, evidently for the purpose of robbery, was made at Otterville, 20 miles east of here, at midnight on Saturday, a rail having been removed.

The bad place in the track was struck by an extra freight train from St. Louis.

The freight was wrecked, the engineer, fireman and brakeman being seriously injured.

The train that the wreckers evidently sought to catch left Kansas City at 9.10 for St. Louis. It was supposed to carry considerable money.

The wreckers had removed a rail a mile and a half east of Otterville, and built a fire between the tracks to bring the passenger train to a stop. The freight crew did not notice the fire until too late to stop, and the engine and several cars were derailed and badly damaged.

The injured men were brought to a hospital at Sedalia. There is no clue to the would-be robbers.

Fatal Elevator Accident.

London, Feb. 24.—As a result of injuries received in an accident at Reid Bros.' blank book and paper box factory Friday afternoon, Wilber Read, the 16-year-old son of Mr. Samuel Read, of the Asylum road, Pottersburg, died at Victoria Hospital on Saturday.

The accident happened shortly after 5 o'clock, the elevator falling from the fourth storey to the ground floor, carrying the young man with it, inflicting such injuries that he never regained consciousness.

How the accident occurred cannot be accurately ascertained. Young Read, who works in the box department, had, along with Foremen Fred James, taken a number of boxes to the fourth floor. Mr. James had just stepped off the lift, when in some way the elevator started to drop. Whether the cable broke or not cannot be learned. The guards provided for such emergencies failed to act, and the elevator and the boy fell to the ground floor.

Society Shuns Castle.

Dublin, Ireland, Feb. 24.—Many English fashionables, both in the nobility and out of it, come here each year to enjoy the gayeties of the Castle season which begins this week and will last until St. Patrick's Day. But this year the court of the viceroy, the Earl of Aberdeen, is rigorously boycotted, not only by the English, but by the Irish aristocracy, and the season threatens to be a flat failure. There is only one reason for this, of course—the scandal surrounding the theft of the crown jewels from Dublin Castle.

Wants Yankee Fleet.

Melbourne, Feb. 24.—(C.A.P.)—Premier Deakin has issued a statement respecting the invitation of the United States fleet to visit Australian ports, wherein he referred to its importance upon the future development by the appearance of such a great body of warships on the Pacific. He says: "Receptions of the fleet in South American ports would be eclipsed in Australia and the visit of the fleet would mark a new era in the history of this part of the world."

No Color Line at Capital.

It arose out of an effort by Mr. Heflin of Alabama to amend the District of Columbia Street Railway trackage bill, by requiring separate cars for whites and negroes.

For over an hour and a half the subject was fought out with the result that the amendment was overwhelmingly defeated.

Bustillo Finance Minister.

Madrid, Feb. 24.—Sanchez Bustillo has been appointed Finance Minister in place of Osma Y. Scul, who has resigned on account of ill-health.

TORNADO IN ENGLAND

Train Blown From Track While Crossing a Viaduct.

Nearly Crashed Into Bog—Passengers Were Rescued Unhurt—Eight Men Drowned in Mersey—Fatalities in Several Cities — Dozen Grand Stands Blown Down — Churches Unroofed and Trees Uprooted.

London, Feb. 24.—The northwest of England and the north of Ireland were in the grasp of a hurricane on Saturday which left death and destruction in its wake.

In the Mersey River a schooner was capsized and eight men drowned. Several small steamers are reported in distress off Holyhead, while a number of small craft have been driven ashore.

No less than one dozen grandstands at several provincial points, were blown down, and many of the occupants, who had gathered to witness local football matches, injured.

A train running between Burtonport and Donegal was blown off the rails by the wind while crossing a viaduct, and nearly crashed into a bog beneath. The passengers were rescued unhurt.

The launching at Belfast of the new 25,000-ton steamer Rotterdam for the New York service of the Holland-American line, had to be postponed on account of the gale.

Blinding hailstorms added discomfort to the day.

The tornado was of short duration, but most violent, unroofing schools and churches and uprooting trees. Fatalities are reported through the collapse of buildings in Manchester, Sheerness, Wisbech and Leeds. The tramway services in Liverpool and Manchester were partially suspended because of trees that had fallen over the tracks. The lightship at Grimsby was sunk, but the crew was rescued by a trawler. A schooner foundered off Sheerness, and the skipper was drowned. Many were injured at Birmingham.

SHOOTS WIFE AND SELF.

Six Children Witness Tragedy Caused by Sudden Rage.

Hotchkiss, Col., Feb. 24.—Insane with rage because his wife objected to his scolding one of their children, I. D. Stoneburner, aged 41, a prominent and wealthy farmer, living near this city, shot and fatally wounded the woman and then placed the smoking revolver against his own heart and committed suicide before his six little children, seated around the supper table.

Stole Whisky From Car.

London, Feb. 24.—After hearing the evidence of a score of witnesses, Police Magistrate Love Saturday morning, registered a conviction against Perry Sinclair for stealing five cases of whisky from a bonded Grand Trunk car, and against Joseph Lenahan on a charge of receiving a quantity of the liquor. Sinclair was remanded for sentence and Lenahan will appear in a week.

Through evidence secured by Grand Trunk Detective Day, the car was traced from Glencoe to this city, and it was shown that Sinclair and a man named Cotter had been seen after the car had been broken into burning a box and a number of straw bottle casings. Richard Blackwell swore to this.

Lenahan, it was shown by the evidence, had attempted to dispose of the whisky to hotelmen in the city, and this was the strongest point against him. It was not proven that Lenahan had known that the whisky was stolen.

Sold Country's Secrets.

Toulon, Feb. 24.—Charles B. Ullmo, an ensign in the French navy, has been found guilty by a court-martial of attempting to sell naval secrets to a foreign power and sentenced to life imprisonment in a fortress and to be degraded from his rank.

Ensign Ullmo was arrested at Toulon, Oct. 25, on the charge of being a spy. An examination of his effects showed him to be in possession of many valuable documents, and he afterwards confessed to having abstracted a secret signal book and the naval cipher. An army reserve officer named Burton was arrested later at Vendome on similar charges and at Toulon on Nov. 10, five ringleaders of an important association of international spies were taken into custody. It is believed that all these men were in some way connected with Ullmo's plan. The authorities found evidence that Ullmo had offered to sell information concerning the defences of France to a German agent.

Troubles in Italy.

Rome, Feb. 24.—Urgent precautions were taken by the authorities Saturday to prevent demonstrations in the vicinity of the Chamber of Deputies by adherents of members of the extreme parties, who in the recent debates in the chamber have urged the abolition of all religious teachings in primary schools.

When the demonstrators arrived they found a cordon of soldiers and police thrown around the building, and they were kept at a safe distance. Inside the Chamber troops were stationed to quell any disturbance that might arise. In driving back the crowd in the streets the police were compelled to arrest several of the more unruly demonstrators.

A Young Man's Suicide.

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—Frederick J. Brinnier, a former law partner of Alton B. Parker of New York, and lives in Kingston, N.Y., was found yesterday in a hotel here with a bullet wound in the abdomen. It is alleged that it was self-inflicted. He came here about a week ago and registered at a hotel largely patronized by theatrical people.

YOUHT ADMITS PERJURY.

Says the Police Told Him to Swear Billik's Life Away.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Eighteen-year-old Jerry M. Vzral, whose testimony more than any other person's served to convict the Bohemian fortune-teller, Herman Billik, of the murder of six members of the Vzral family, has, it is announced, recanted and in an affidavit declares that the testimony was simply perjury.

Billik is under sentence to be hanged March 20. The Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment, destroying the man's last chance, unless Governor Deneen shall issue a pardon.

Not only does the Vzral boy impughn his own evidence, but he declares that two of his relatives also lied.

In the affidavit the boy states that all the vital part of his testimony was perjury, taught him by a high police official and an assistant state's attorney. He specifically names the men whom he accuses.

In the affidavit Vzral, who is now a student in Valparaiso, Ind., asserts that he told the story because a police official threatened him with the murder unless he did as the officer wished.

The credit for polishing off the fictitious narrative he gives to an assistant state's attorney, with whom, he says, he was closeted 40 times, the conferences being from one to four hours in duration.

He further asserts that the inspector of police summoned him at least 50 times, and that these conferences usually lasted two hours.

The confession was obtained by the instrumentality of Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan, head of the Paulist Fathers in this city and pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, who has been working in Billik's behalf for several months. Father O'Callaghan says he was interested in the case through Sister Rose, a nun at the Columbus Hospital, who firmly believed in Billik's innocence. It was Sister Rose who converted the carbarn bandit, Gustav Marx, who was executed with Niedermeyer and Vandine, the only one of the trio that died a Christian.

The total immigration for the first ten months of the fiscal year was 240,855 an increase of 20 per cent.

The Alliance Insurance Company's building on St. James street, Montreal, has been sold for half a million dollars.

Speaker at Navy League Dinner Fears War May Result.

London, Feb. 24.—Washington's birthday was celebrated Saturday night by the London section of the American Navy League by a dinner at Hyde Park Hotel.

The speakers included are Newton Crane, who has represented the United States Government on several important occasions. He spoke at length on "The Yellow Peril," which he characterized as the bogey of labor union demagogues. He also expressed strong disapproval of the voyage of the American fleet to the Pacific, and said he feared when it reached San Francisco it would excite passion which might result in war.

Apologized and Paid Costs.

London, Feb. 24.—In the motion brought by Lawson & Jones against Lind, Kerrigan & Co., in the weekly high court, before Mr. Justice Clute, yesterday morning, a decision was given in favor of the former firm.

The motion was brought to commit the defendant, Mr. Kerrigan, to jail for a breach of an injunction issued by the court, the breach being a failure to deliver light, heat and power.

For the defendant it was contended that no breach was intended, or, in fact, made.

The court ordered that upon the defendant filing an affidavit that no breach was intended, and apologizing for the breach, paying the costs and that no further proceedings be taken under the motion, without prejudice to the claim for damages which the plaintiff may have.

The firm of Lawson & Jones has also issued a writ against Lind, Kerrigan & Co. for damages for failing to deliver light, heat and power, as it was agreed, according to the claim filed by the plaintiffs. Other firms are interested in the outcome of this suit.

Brute Is Bigamist, Too.

Kingston, Feb. 24.—Mrs. Lizzie Baker of Yarker found herself wife No. 2 of Alex. S. Babcock of Murvale, when the husband was tried for inhuman cruelty to a child, breaking its arm, while in a temper. He was constantly threatening to kill the four-months-old infant. He was sent up for trial. It was disclosed in the evidence that Babcock was a bigamist. He admitted it. His first wife was Edith Ella Mattice of Plum Hollow, who left him. He married Miss Baker in 1903. He was also sent for trial on this charge.

Ship's Crew Rescued.

New York, Feb. 24.—Capt. Lacey and eight sailors of the American schooner Edward J. Berwind were brought here on the steamer Campania from Liverpool. They were picked up in mid-ocean by the British steamer Mercedes de Larrinaga and landed at Liverpool.

The Edward J. Berwind was bound from New Orleans for Philadelphia, when her crew was forced to abandon her.

Three Children Burned.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Three children of Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley of Madawaska were burned to death as the result of an oil lamp being overturned. The victims' ages were 5 and 3 years and 3 months.

The parents left the house and locked the children in, and nothing was known till the house was in flames.

Attack on Alderman's Seat.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Municipal circles were considerably stirred by the news of proceedings to unseat Ald. W. E. Brown of Victoria Ward. The papers have been filed and the allegation is that bribery and corruption were practiced.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

Down here in Cactus Center we have had a [illegible] debate
On reformin' of our money so enough will circulate.
It was started by Bear Hawkins, who allowed
'twas his belief
That brass checks that called for likker would bring quick and sure relief.

Old Lone Star Thomas argued from the gold and silver side,
And the talk got kinder heated, till the barkeep runs to hide;
Then the lead begins to scatter, and we sidestepped strayin' shot,
While the ablebodied chipped in jest to keep the trouble hot.

So we argued for some minutes, and we laid out Chinese John (Some one said a "pro." had done it, and still others said a "con."),
But we seed it warn't settled and a gun
play was no use,
So Pecos Johnson calls us underneath a flag of truce.

"It's plain," said Pecos, smoothlike, as we tucked our guns away,
"That a compromise, good townsfolk, is the way to save the day,
So let's appeal to congress with our pens and with our lips
To stretch our legal tender with a lot more poker chips!"

Gouged Wife's Eye Out.

Montreal, Feb. 24.—The police of No. 5 station were aroused on Saturday by a woman, whose name is not known, who rushed into the captain's office, screaming that a murder was being committed at 31 St. Urbain street. She was in a great state of excitement, and before any details could be gathered she had disappeared.

Lieut. Gorman and three constables on reserve at the station immediately hurried over to the address given. The house was all lit up and there was a great racket going on inside. Gorman knocked and demanded admittance, but no one came to the door, and the shrieking and screaming continued. The four officers then put their shoulders to the lock and, with their combined weight and strength, crashed in the panel.

Inside, in one of the bedrooms, the lieutenant found a man, who later gave his name as Fred Rodgers, fighting desperately with a woman. Her face was covered with blood, one of her eyes was hanging from its socket, and the furniture, bedding and pictures in the room were turned topsy-turvey. After the police had separated the two and investigated the matter, Rodgers was arrested, charged with assault. The woman is said to be his wife.

Sues Goderich Star.

London, Feb. 24.—James Dwyer of Richmond street on Saturday instructed his solicitor, W. R. Meredith, to institute proceedings against The Goderich Star because of a statement published in their issue of last week. He mentions $5,000 as the amount.

Mr. Dwyer states that he holds an option of a patent of John P. Conway's, who resides in Goderich. He has the patent papers in his possession, and he claims that the newspaper stated that he was wrongfully holding them.

Bishop Satterlee Dead.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—Bishop Satterlee died Saturday after a few days' illness. The Episcopal cathedral in course of construction in the outskirts of this city will be a monument to his energy.

It was he who twelve years ago served as the bearer of a non-political petition to Emperor Nicholas II., entreating him to use his influence in connection with other powers to put an end to the Armenian massacres.

River "Flows With Blood."

Fez, Feb. 24.—A letter has reached here from Mulai Hafig, the Sultan of the South, announcing a "massacre of the infidels." Its reading was saluted with the firing of 200 guns. Mulai Hafig says, among other things, that the stream where his men are encamped is "overflowing with the blood of the French."

Another Murder.

Montreal, Feb. 24.—Just one more Italian murder here and still no arrests.

One Silvio was shot dead Saturday evening, and his compatriots say the murderer's name is Carmirro.

The latter disappeared soon after the crime.

Engine Throws Car on Platform.

Wingham, Feb. 24.—A railway accident occurred at the C.P.R. station Saturday afternoon, in which the passenger engine of the 1.15 p.m. train was wrecked.

As the train was approaching the station a freight train was pulling off the main line on to a siding. The last car of the freight did not get far enough past the switch, and the passenger engine caught the car, throwing it completely off the tracks on to the platform.

Had the accident happened a few feet nearer the station, the telegraph office would have been wrecked.

Australia Buys Paper.

London, Feb. 24.—(C.A.P.)—Australian advices to The Financial News state that Canadian paper manufacturers are making strong inroads in all centres of the Commonwealth. If the standard and quality of the paper is maintained, there will be a strong preference in favor of the Dominion's product against United States. Wallpaper manufacturers are also finding a good market.

Panic at Teheran.

Teheran, Feb. 24.—Ten persons were killed and a score or more wounded, including several ecclesiastics, as a result of a panic in the main streets here yesterday, during the passage of a religious procession celebrating the Mohammedan muharrma religious festival held during the first month of the Mohammedan year.

Windmill Severs Arm.

Owen Sound, Feb. 24.—Thomas Burdge was the victim of a distressing accident yesterday, by which he will lose an arm.

He was fixing the windmill two and half miles east of here, when his arm was caught and nearly severed. He hung for some time before help arrived.

CUT DOWN PREFERENCE

Effect of French Treaty in Regard to Great Britain.

Mr. Fielding's "Amazing Confession"—Ambassador Bryce an Interested Listener to the Debate — House Talks About Horse Meat — Work Cut Out For Great Canadian Hog—Members Are Facetious.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—The House went into committee yesterday afternoon on the French treaty. Right Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador to the United States, occupied a seat on the floor of the House, and was an attentive listener to the discussion.

The debate at once turned on the effect of the treaty in cutting down the British preference. Mr. Fielding read an item which seemed to show there was no reduction, but being asked to read the next it showed a considerable cut.

"It seems to me," said Mr. Henderson, "that if the British ambassador, when he comes, hears this, he will think we are treating Great Britain rather meanly."

Bryce Smiled.

The British ambassador smiled.

"If the hon. gentleman's remarks ever reach the ears of the British ambassador," returned the Finance Minister, "he will not think we have done unwisely."

Mr. Foster regarded Mr. Fielding's statement that the effect on the British preference was not considered, as "an amazing confession." The Premier and his Cabinet, both in Great Britain and Canada, had plumed themselves on the preference given to Britain.

Was the Government prepared to abrogate the British preference by making treaties with other powers? asked R. L. Borden.

Mr. Fielding said when Parliament a year ago adopted the intermediate tariff it was well understood that we were opening the way for negotiations. Moreover, a great majority of the items set out in the French treaty were not produced in Britain.

David Henderson (Halton) complained that when a preference was given on French gloves a reduction was not made on fine leathers used in the manufacturing of gloves in Canada.

Colored French Peas.

Mr. Marshall (Elgin) commented on the unfairness of allowing French peas (highly colored) in under special terms, while Canadian canners were debarred from using coloring matter.

Mr. Brodeur said under the Adulteration Act a person offering for sale adulterated food is liable to a fine.

Mr. Smith said the act was a dead letter.

Horse Meat Possibilities.

During the discussion, Mr. Paterson, by way of impressing the committee with the benefit of the treaty concessions to Canadian farmers, quoted from an American weekly, The Breeders' Gazette, an article in which it was contended that under the treaty Canada might be able to supplant with wholesome beef and pork a portion at least of the demand now met by the slaughter of dogs and horses. In Paris alone, for example, the paper said there were consumed in 1906 the carcasses of 54,000 horses. An Opposition member asked if this meant that we were going to pay $40 to $60 per head duty on horses to have them killed for horse beef.

"No," replied the Minister of Customs, "it means all are to supplant this with our hog products."

Mr. Zimmerman of Hamilton, in a brief address, made an important statement as to the bearing of the treaty on a portion of Canadian trade. The International Harvester Co., which employed 1,800 men at its Hamilton works, he said, was so much impressed with the possibilities of the treaty that the heads of its export department had come from Illinois to investigate. As a result they had practically decided that the whole of their export trade with France, now amounting to over $2,600,000 annually, would be manufactured in the Canadian branch. This would probably result in doubling the capacity of the works and staff in Hamilton. He had also, he said, received assurances from a prominent pork-packer that the treaty would place Canada in a much more favorable position than the United States as regards the canned meat trade, and that it was quite possible the big trade in this line which Canada had some years ago would be regained and large advances made.

Keep Out of Politics.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—Mr. Foster in the House yesterday renewed his enquiries regarding alleged participation of the two Leblancs, employes of the I.C.R., in the New Brunswick elections. The Minister of Railways had been making an investigation. He had wired the general manager and had been informed that one Leblanc had been in New Brunswick over Sunday and had returned to his duties in Quebec; the other had been absent from duty, and the general manager did not know where he was.

Mr. Graham had wired the general manager that while employes of the railway were at perfect liberty to use the franchise as they liked, the Department did not want them to interfere in election matters.

Society Woman Asphyxiated.

New York, Feb. 22—Mrs. William P. Burden, formerly Miss Natica Rives, was found dead in her room in Fifth avenue yesterday afternoon from illuminating gas poisoning. Mrs. Burden was prominent in New York society and was 22 years old.

Roosevelt an Anarchist.

He says Haywood would have been hung but for the anarchists.

Defence in Burke Case Plays Strong Card; Attempts to Establish Alibi

Blind Witness From Toronto Swore That Burke Was in His Company at 96 Sherburne Street, Toronto, on the Night of November 5th When the Buckhorn Robbery Was Committed—New Development in Interesting Case—Burke's Record Shows Long Terms of Imprisonment—Counsel Gave Addresses—Judgment on February 26th.

A blind youth by the name of Kimball and a familiar figure on the streets of Toronto, where he sells shoe laces, etc., gave evidence in the Burke case on Saturday before Judge Weller, and, if his testimony is true, an alibi has been established. But, then there is the evidence of a number of witnesses for the prosecution. It is not for a newspaper to comment on the value of that evidence as the matter is under the consideration of the judge, and if there is any doubt in the matter of identification, the prisoner gets that benefit. In the matter of the evidence of Kimball, however, it is entirely different, as the last mentioned witness positively swears that Burke was with him on the night of the robbery of Purser's store at Buckhorn.

Kimball is blind, and therefore could not see Burke, but by reason of his blindness his other senses are naturally more acute as Judge Weller remarked during the course of the trial.

Kimball's evidence was given in a direct and matter of fact way. He said he remembered the date as Nov. 5th because it was on Guy Fawke's night, and he and Burke were together and they had a little celebration at 96 Sherburne street in company with some friends.

He was questioned at great length by Mr. G. N. Gordon, counsel for the defence, and Crown Attorney R. E. Wood cross-examined him at some length, but his evidence did not appear to be shaken.

The most interesting witness who has given evidence during the trial is Burke himself. After Kimball had given his testimony. Mr. Gordon told Burke to take the box. The prisoner testified in an intelligent way and left the impression that he was a bright witness.

He said he was arrested on the 4th of January of the present year in Toronto, and held on suspicion on a charge of vagrancy. He didn't know of what he was suspected till he was brought to Peterborough. He was questioned as to what was said to him concerning the shooting of Mr. Porteous at Millbrook, and he said that nothing definite about the matter had been said to him. He believed that Chambers, who was suspected of the offence and who was serving a life sentence in Kingston Penitentiary, bore a resemblance to him.

He said that on the night of Nov 5th, when the robbery was committed, he was in Toronto, having come there from Montreal on the same night. He said he had worked in Firstbrook's and another box factory. More recently he had sold rings and cheap jewellery. He had seen some persons who had come to the gaol to identify him. He was sitting on a bench behind the stove at the time with an old man named Powers. He had heard them say nothing himself as to whether he was identified, but the other prisoners had told him that the young ladies said they couldn't identify him.

Burke, in reply to a question of Mr. Wood, said he had been here in October last.

"Were you here with Jas. Murray?" asked Mr. Wood.

Burke objected to answering his question.

(Murray was the man arrested by P.C. Newhall at the C.P.R. station last fall. He had been selling cheap jewellery and drew a revolver on the officer. He was given a year in the Central Prison). Mr. Wood said that under the Evidence Act a witness had to answer questions as long as he was assured of the protection of the court. He stated that what the witness would say would not be used in evidence against him on any other charge. Mr. Gordon objected to the witness answering the question saying that two constables were in court to arrest him on another charge should he be acquitted. Mr. Wood read the portion of the Evidence Act referring to the particular phase of the case under consideration, and Burke at length answered the question.

"Were you here with Murray on Oct. 23rd?" asked Mr. Wood.

Burke admitted he was. Another man was with him. At the time of the arrest of Murray he said he was near Jackson Park. This was after midnight. He left Peterborough on the following day.

Mr. Wood then read a record of his criminal career, showing that the prisoner had served eight years, six months and ten days in prison. He admitted he had helped Quackenbush escape, and for this was given three years in Kingston.

Mr. Gordon said in summing up that nothing had been proven against Burke, while Mr. Wood said that his identity as robber of Purser's store had been clearly proven. His Honor reserved judgment until Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

Engagement Must be Certified To by Priest or Two Laymen

Important Announcement Read at St. Peter's Cathedral Yesterday—An Ordinance That is Causing Much Discussion.

At the masses at St. Peter's cathedral yesterday Rev. Father McColl read a papal decree that has caused considerable talk in the city, especially among those of the Catholic faith It was to the effect that an engagement to be recognised by the Catholic church as canonical must be certified by the parties thereto signing in the presence of the Bishop or a priest or in the presence of two laymen, to that effect. Otherwise the church will not recognize the engagement as such.

This ordinance is for the purpose of preventing the numerous and embarassing misunderstandings which have arisen regarding so-called engagements where the church has been asked to interfere.

To obviate this the above precaution has been ordained.

The announcement is being widely discussed today but of course it is impossible to state how many persons will be affected.

Occupants of Cutter Had Narrow Escape in Runaway

Mr. Bruce Savigny, of Otonabee, Had Cutter Badly Smashed on Saturday Afternoon—Frightened Horse Dashed Into Sleigh on Hunter St.

An exciting runaway that resulted in considerable damage being done, took place on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the horse of Mr. Bruce Savigny, of Otonabee, became frightened and made a wild dash for liberty.

Left standing at a house on the corner of Simcoe and Queen streets while Mr. Savigny called at a house, it became scared and started off at an awful rate up Queen street. It was attached to a cutter and at Hunter street a bad accident was narrowly averted. The spirited animal going as hard as it could, dashed into a sleigh driven by Mr. Michael Conroy, of Douro. Mr. Conroy was knocked off his seat and two small boys sitting beside him were also thrown to the road. It was fortunate that Mr. Conroy had a bobsleigh, as a cutter driving beside him in which were seated two ladies, would surely have been struck and the ladies no doubt would have suffered serious injuries.

The excited horse continued in its mad gallop and at the Munroe House collided with great force with a wood sleigh. Here the cutter was smashed beyond further use, and was left standing on the roadside, while the animal with the broken shafts trailing behind it turned up Water street going a pace that startled everyone who witnessed it. It finally slackened and was stopped on Water street north.

Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, but the damage to the cutter was considerable and it will have to be replaced by a new one.

Work Y.M.C.A. is Doing in India

Rev. J. H. Keith Gave Address at Y.M.C.A. Yesterday Afternoon

Rev. H. J. Keith gave a splendid illustrated address at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday on "The work of the Y.M.C.A. in India." Mr. Keith told of the different classes and their worship and the training the young men of India received, yet they were willing to hear of Christianity. The Y.M.C.A. was able to accomplish a great work, especially among the students. Views of the different Y.M.C.A. buildings were shown and also pictures of the people of the country and their temples and gods. The excellent work of Mr. J. N. Farquhar, the Ontario representative, was referred to and highly commended. The Peterborough Association contributes toward the support of Mr. Farquhar and at the close of the meeting every one was invited to co-operate in the work in India. A number of pledges were received. A special committee has been appointed to keep the work before the members and their friends and any further contributions may be handed to the secretary of the Association or any of the committee, Messrs. N. Jagger, Rev. H. J. Keith, F. Turner, W. Richardson and W. Commons.

The Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. meet to-morrow, Tuesday night, at 8 p.m.

Had a Narrow Escape From Asphyxiation

Members of Ops Family Were in Dazed Condition When Aroused

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, of School Section No. 6, Ops, and members of the household, narrowly escaped asphyxiation one night last week owing to an escape of gas from a coal stove.

That a fatality did not occur was probably owing to the fact that the family sat up later than usual chatting with Mr. Albert Duck, their guest for a few days. When about to retire the stove in the hall downstairs was shaken down and the drafts left supposedly secure, but at an early hour in the morning, Mr. Walker awoke to find himself gasping for breath. Realizing instantly what was the trouble, he managed to reach the window, when the incoming oxygen quickly restored himself and wife. The other members of the household were then visited several being found in a half-dazed condition from the effects of the gas. The unpleasant symptoms did not pass away for several days.

PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine for Woman's ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

No other medicine has such a record of success for woman's diseases, or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, Inflammation, Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.

It has relieved more cases of Backache and Local Weaknesses than any other one remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development.

Irregularities and periodic pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.

It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues." These are indications of Feminine disorders, which this medicine overcomes as well as slight derangement of the Kidneys of either sex.

Women who are sick and want to get well should refuse to accept any substitute for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Should Subscribe to Church Paper

Rev. Canon Davidson Advised Members of Congregation to do so

At the services at St. John's church yesterday Rev. Canon Davidson urged upon the members of the congregation the desirability of subscribing to some church paper. This was almost a necessity this year in view of the fact that two important gatherings are to be held this summer, the Lambeth conference and the Pan-Anglican convention at London, England. A church paper should be in the hands of every member of the congregation so that they might read the reports of the assemblies. Canon Davidson spoke very highly of the "Ontario Churchman," which could be obtained for twenty-five cents per year. There was therefore no financial reason why everyone should not have the paper.

The Ontario Churchman is edited gratuitously by Mr. Pense, MPP, editor of the Kingston Whig and one of the brightest newspaper men in Canada. It is filled with interesting news from all parts of the world, and should be in the hands of every churchman. A large number have recently subscribed in Peterborough.

The boys are working hard for the success of the concert and will no doubt have a most successful concert.

Best Carnival of the Season

Radial Railway Company Giving Carnival on Friday Night

For the second time this year a fancy dress carnival will be held at Jackson Park on Friday, February 28, under the auspices of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company. Valuable prizes will be given and will be announced later. The 57th Regimental Band will be in attendance to provide music for the skaters.

The very best car service will be given and will be superior to the last time. A big bonfire will be lighted in Jackson Park and additional colored lights will add gayety to the scene. In fact nothing will be left undone by the Radial Railway Company to make the Carnival the most successful ever held under its auspices.

HASTINGS HAS ANOTHER FIRE

Hastings, Feb. 23—Fire broke out about 5 o'clock this afternoon in a frame building occupied by a tailoring establishment and a Chinese laundry, and for a time threatened the post office and the residence of Mr. John Tracey. The fire brigade, however, managed to confine the flames to the building in which they broke out, and, although it was soon a mass of ruins, little damage was done to any of the surrounding buildings. The exact loss and insurance are not known.

PRODUCTS OF LOCAL FIRMS

Interesting Display in Peterboro' Hardware Co's Window

An interesting display of the products of local manufactories is shown in the south window of the Peterborough Hardware Company's store. There is nothing in the entire window except what is manufactured by Peterborough firms.

The display consists of the following; Builders' hardware from the Peterborough Lock Company's plant; auger bits from the Rapid Tool Co.; binder twine from the Canadian Cordage Co.; shovels from the Peterborough Shovel and Tool Co.; flags from Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, and brooms from Messrs. T. McQuinlan, and Robert Hamilton, the local broom manufacturers, and electric irons from the Collier-Cunningham Co.

The Lemons Came His Way

Young Man Didn't Appreciate Joke of His Lady Friends

A local young man was somewhat surprised one day last week when the expressman called at the place where he is employed and left him a parcel about the size of an ordinary shoe box. His surprise, however was turned to disgust when he opened it and found it contained about a dozen big juicy lemons. He had to pay the express on the parcel, and wasn't altogether pleased with the transaction.

NOTES OF THE DAY

The U. S. Consulates in Port Hope and Port Rowan may be abolished.

The Hamilton Beach Commissioners talk of establishing a fire department.

Herkimer street Methodists of Hamilton propose a new church at a cost of $20,000

The Moulders' Union of Hamilton will oppose the reduction of wages by the founders.

The operating expenses of McGill University last year were $33,600 more than the revenue.

A reciprocal demurrage will be provided for a Government railway bill to be presented shortly.

London cigar manufacturers object to a uniform tariff being placed on domestic and foreign cigars.

Hon. R. W. Scott says that seals are in danger of extermination and protective measures are needed.

Poultry Feed.

Wheat, corn and oats, with a little barley occasionally and some ground up oyster shells to aid digestion, make a good feed for poultry. Very hot boiled potatoes should be fed at least once a week.

A Gorgeous Shield.

The shield of Charles V. was inlaid with gold and contained over 600 figures engraved on its face.

Darning Stockings.

Use black knitting silk for darning stockings, and you will be pleased with the work, for the needle runs smoothly under and over the stitches, with the result that the patch is very neat, much more so than when darning cotton is used.

Trains of Peeresses.

The length of a peeress' train varies with her rank. A duchess may have her train three yards long, a marchioness two and a half yards, while countesses are limited to two yards.

Lithography.

The invention of lithography is generally ascribed to one Alois Senefelder about the year 1796. The art was partially known in England in 1801, but its general introduction is credited to Ackermann of London about 1817.

Early Theaters.

Scilly Island Rats.

Rats abound on the Scilly islands near the seashore. At low tide crabs drift into the underground avenues leading to the rat holes, and the rats gnaw off their legs to prevent their escape.

Pearl Oysters.

Combs.

Combs soon split if washed. A stiff nailbrush is a good thing for cleaning them. After using the brush take a damp cloth and with it wipe between each tooth of the comb.

Lobsters.

Cardinal Wolsey.

Eight hundred persons composed Cardinal Wolsey's household. Three tables were served in his hall, and in his kitchen presided a master cook, robed in a suit of velvet decorated with a chain of gold.

China's Millions.

By common consent the most reliable census ever taken in China was that of 1812. This gives the figures as more than 362,000,000. In 1868 the population was estimated at nearly 408,000,000, but in 1881 it had fallen to 380,000,000, the great Taiping rebellion, in which so many millions of people lost their lives, being one of the principal causes undoubtedly for this great decline. It is now about 300,000,000.

Sporting Comment

From Lindsay's standpoint the game was a plain steal. There is little doubt that Roberts was not hurt bad enough to necessiate his retirement, and there is absolutely no doubt about how the game would go with seven men aside. Their forwards were checked so close that Lindsay's defence got them every time. Their cover and point men could not stop the Lindsay rushes. They were five goals to the bad, with 25 minutes still to go. Truly, something had to be done, and they did it. Some Lindsay people remember another team that did it, too; Belleville got sick three at a time. Peterborough used to have a man with a broken skate start the game and then have to quit. They could never find another skate for him, and the game would always go on 6 a side.—Lindsay Post.

There was no call whatever to ring in Peterborough or Belleville in the latter part of this excuse. The second half was played six men against six and on the result in Midland and Lindsay Midland undoubtedly has the better team. One man's absence from the team couldn't have made all the difference alleged and the disinterested outsider will readily agree that it would have been in much better taste for the Post to accept the bitter pill Lindsay was forced to swallow without doing any unnecessary squealing.

The game between the Rough Riders and Keene tonight should be given a good patronage. Keene defeated the Rough Riders in Keene a short time ago but the locals will try to trim the Otonabee seven in tonight's match. They are in the best of condition but will have their work cut out for them in getting ahead of the fast visitors. The ice is in splendid condition.

CURLING

GRITS VS. TORIES.

The Tories will meet the Grits at the curling rink tonight at 7.30 o'clock. Both sides are requested to be well represented.

PEDESTRIANISM

As shown by the letters received here by friends of Hartley and the large number of fast men entering the six day walking race at Kansas City, Mo., it will be the walking event of recent years. The local man realizes he is up against the hardest kind of proposition and is taking no chances whatever,

Train on Which Mr. Lastar Was Travelling Was Wrecked

Mrs. B. Lastar has received a letter from her husband, who is on a visit to friends in Germany and Russia, in which particulars are given of a railway wreck in which the train on which Mr. Lastar was travelling was mixed up.

The accident took place in Russia not far from the German border. The express on which Mr. Lastar was travelling ran into a freight train and nine cars were derailed. A number of persons were injured but none of them fatally. Mr. Lastar luckily escaped without getting hurt although the wreck proved a considerable inconvenience to him in his journey.

Mr. Lastar is expected home in about three weeks.

SPORTING NEWS

Rough Riders and Keene; Splendid Game To-night

The Rough Riders and the Keene Trent Valley septette clash to-night at the Brock street rink in what promises to be one of the fastest games of the season. Both teams are very strong and are confident of winning Keene having tied Norwood, one of the fastest teams in the City League, on the former's ice last week, while the local boys journeyed to the village of peacefulness and succeeded in holding the Keene club down to a margin of one goal, which leaves both teams about evenly matched, so a great game is assured. The Rough Riders are playing sterling hockey and should qualify for junior O.H.A., as there is plenty of good fast material. Now it is up to the public if they want to see Peterborough's game resting in the limelight again, to turn out and encourage the boys who in the future shall earn honor as well as fame for their town by bringing future hockey championships to the city. Be a sport, turn out and cheer for the boys to-night.

Line up for Rough Riders:
Goal—L. Giroux.
Point—W. Cahill.
Cover Point—A. Campbell.
Rover—C. Hayes.
Centre—C. Giroux.

Whitcroft's Team May Come East After the Stanley Cup

In a letter to a friend in the city, Fred Whitcroft states that the winners of the league in which Edmonton is playing will play off with the winners of the Manitoba league to decide which team will come east to try and lift the Stanley cup. There is little doubt but that Edmonton will win the western league and on the form they have been showing Whitcroft's team should be pretty nearly able to take the Manitoba champs into camp. The Strathconas of Winnipeg and the Portage team are now tied for first place in the Manitoba league.

If the other five men on the Edmonton team are in the same class as Whitcroft and Crowley they should be able to give the Ottawas or Wanderers a hard run.

Norwood-Strath Game Will Attract a Large Crowd

Everybody is looking forward to the Strathcona-Norwood game on Wednesday night. It is creating greater interest than any game that has taken place this season, and a big crowd is sure to be on hand. There are two reasons why the attendance will be large. One is because the game is bound to be an exciting and hard fought one from start to finish and the other is because a great many want to see which is the better team of the two. It is expected that Norwood will be accompanied by a big delegation of supporters.

The fact that Mr. George Lynch will referee assures a clean contest.

BIG CONTEST STARTS TO-DAY

David Hartley is Now Walking at Kansas City

The big six-day walking contest at Kansas city, in which David Hartley is a competitor, commenced this morning, and will continue until Saturday night. The walkers will go twelve hours each day for six days. The latest advices received from Hartley are to the effect that he is in good shape and confident of making a good showing. He has been "lying low," and may give the Yanks a big surprise.

May Go to London for Olympic Games

Mr. Melville Robinson May Represent the Toronto News

Mr. Melville M. Robinson, assistant sporting editor of the Toronto News, spent Sunday in the city, the guest of his father, Mr. W. B. Robinson. It is leaned from a reliable source that Mr. Robinson may go to London next summer to represent the News at the Olympic games at which Canada will have a large number of representatives. Mr. Robinson is meeting with success in the journalistic field and is constantly advancing.

BASKETBALL

At last the local baseball club is showing signs of life. Next Monday the annual meeting of the shareholders will be held, and according to the statements of directors, all necessary steps will be taken to assure good ball for Edmonton this year. The directors have invested a considerable sum in the grounds and they mean to get action for their money.

Private advices received from Wetaskiwin and Strathcona show that both will be in the league with Edmonton next season. Calgary will be the fourth city, and it is likely that Lethbridge and the Hat will be dropped, the distance being too great. Calgary is not showing the vim just at present that is needed, but the wise ones say that the southern town will wake up in time.

Deacon White has turned down the offer of the management of Vancouver and will remain true to his Edmonton love. The Vancouver directors left it too late. A man cannot jump into the management of a club at the last moment and produce a good team. It takes time to get a club into proper shape and the early manager catches the best players. If a manager takes hold too late in the season he takes chances of putting in the summer with a poor aggregation that can refect no credit on him or on itself.

This is also what the Edmonton club must look out for. The reserved men must be either signed or lost by March 1st.—Edmonton Journal.

BRIDGENORTH AND QUAKERS

Will Play To-night After Keene-Rough Riders' Match

After the Rough Riders-Keene game to-night the Quakers will play Bridgenorth. This match should be a first class one as both teams appear to be very evenly matched.

The Quakers will line up as follows:
Goal—Sullivan.
Point—Sturdee.
Cover—Heaslip.
Right Wing—Long.
W. Rose will referee.

HOCKEY

Hastings, Feb. 22—In a Trent Valley League match here tonight between Hastings and Norwood, Norwood was the victor by a score of 5-2. The game was close and exciting and there was very little roughness. Pearce, of Norwood, gave every satisfaction as referee.

The line-up;

Norwood—Doherty, Brycke, Edwards, Rodgers, Scott, Morrow, Curry.

Hastings—Scriver, Tucker, Coughlan, Fitzgerald, Rice, Runnells, Prest.

McKercher's challenge the Park street Baptist church to a game of hockey, to be played at the Park street rink at as early a date as the rink can be arranged for.

NOTES ABOUT PRESS GAME

There was consternation in the Examiner camp yesterday when it was learned that B. T. Huston was missing. Josiah Craig surmised that he had gone to train on the reserve in Otonabee, and made a flying visit to a number of wigwams in that township but was unable to locate the missing wing player. It has since developed that B. T. was in Toronto trying to persuade the one and only original M. J. Hutchinson to come down and bolster up the Examiner's timber team. Hutch, however, gave his old confrere, the cold shoulder, refusing to have anything to do with the misfits from whose company he was glad to depart, Mr. Huston returned to Peterborough today carrying a grip in which were stored a change of collars and his original feelings.

Mr. G. B. Van Blaricom, of Toronto, a former editor of the Review, was in the city over Sunday, and when seen by a Review reporter at his residence, denied the interview in Saturday's Examiner, in which it was stated that he had no faith in the Review seven.

As usual, the Grit gooseberry is wrong," he said, "and I want you to announce that I have looked over the Examiner's material for a hockey team, and find that they have as much chance of having a winning seven as Josiah Craig has of becoming a poet."

It is to be hoped that the press game will not be as much of a fake as some of B. T. Huston's specials from Coboconk, Mulock's Corners and other centres of light.

Mr. B. Lastar refers to Russia as the "centre of darkness." Apparently the Examiner office has a few competitors after all.

Yes, dear reader, it might have been Josiah Craig's feet on Sunday night that inspired the song, "And they went travelling."

The young fellows are expected to take their girls to the press game.

If the Examiner team gets its photograph taken by the new colored process yellow will be the predominating hue. A few specks of blue may also be noticeable.

HOGANISMS.

The amiable professor says he is daily rehearsing his handcuff act and is learning many new, bewildering and interesting tricks.

The Examiner is thinking of making Professor Hogan goal umpire. The Review objects. The professor is honest and well meaning but not competent—from the Review's viewpoint—for a position involving the amount of responsibility that that of goal umpire does.

Mr. E. L. Goodwill, secretary of the Children's Aid Society will face the puck at the Examiner-Review game on Thursday, February 27th. It has been suggested in view of the company he will be keeping for a short time that Mr. Goodwill wear a lemon-proof suit.

MONDAY, FEB. 24, 1908.

REV. A. H. BRACE D. D.

Last evening the people of Park St. Baptist church were grieved to hear their pastor, the Rev. A. H. Brace, D.D., announce his resignation. A short review of his connection with Park St. may be of interest. Dr. Brace entered upon the field in Peterborough with the true spirit of a missionary. Hardly ten dollars was forthcoming as a first payment upon the lot which now boasts a comfortable and handsome church. The finances of this church, likewise, are in excellent shape and the spirit of the people all that could be desired. But Dr. Brace rightly feels that having done so much here he can leave the field to a younger man while he gives the benefit of his experience and what we must be allowed to describe as his beneficent and commanding influence elsewhere, in the cause of the church. Amongst the Orangemen his departure will be especially regretted for his addresses to their various lodges have been uniformly inspiring and kindly. Earnest, truly sincere, and sympathetic Dr. Brace will be a distinct loss to Peterborough. As a speaker he occupied a foremost place combining a fine voice with a ready flow of wit and wisdom.

THE THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE

The vehement hostility of the prohibitionist party to the three-fifths clause in the local option law is hard to understand. It may be true, as alleged, that it was inserted in the interest of the license holders. Certainly it never was suggested by the temperance party. But admitting that it was a concession to the liquor interests, its value to them is more than doubtful.

There are many ardent temperance workers, whose sincerity is unquestioned, that regard the requirement of more than a simple majority for the adoption of the measure as one of the most valuable amendments that has been made to the law. They point to many municipalities which, having carried local option by a narrow majority have been the centre of a vigorous agitation for repeal for the three years, and a final return to the license system. There is nothing that discredits the whole movement so decidedly as this. It is better not to have had local option than to have it and not retain it. The bitterness that is developed in such a municipality is the saddest feature of the whole agitation. It does almost as much injury to the characters of those engaged in it as would the maintenance of licenses. For it must not be forgotten that an uncharitable spirit is to be condemned equally with intemperance of any other kind.

The necessity of securing a three-fifths majority has the effect of reducing this unneighborliness to a minimum. Unless the local sentiment is clearly in favor of the law, there is little probability of a campaign. If it is, and if the bylaw carries upon being submitted, the verdict of the electors is likely to be accepted as final. The license holders will throw up the sponge. There is nothing to encourage them to maintain a three years' agitation in hope of having the Act repealed. Consequently, the town or village affected settles down to the new conditions as permanent, and speedily those who were opponents in the campaign forget their differences and become as good friends as ever they were.

We speak in general terms, of course, for there are always a few irreconcilables on every question. After all, it is the man who can take a moderate view that exercises the greatest influence on public questions, because there must be continual compromise in pressing forward any great reform. It is a pity that this fact is not more generally recognized.

It is reported that the Manitoba Government will amend the liquor legislation by striking out the three-fifths requirement in local option contests. From this it is anticipated that Mr. Whitney may follow suit. Whether he does or not, our opinion will not be affected thereby. As we see it the highest interests of a community—having regard for all the circumstances—will be best served by such changes in the law being made only when public sentiment is strong enough to maintain the new position and enforce the law.—The Sentinel.

MR. WHITNEY IN OFFICE

From the Toronto News.

Mr. Whitney is to banquetted by the Conservatives of Toronto. Both as a successful party chief and as the head of an active and enterprising Administration he deserves this recognition. Whitney came into office as the result of a great upheaval of public opinion in Ontario. Thousands of those who voted for his candidates were perhaps more concerned to defeat the old Administration than give power to the Conservative leader. It will, however, be generally admitted that the experiment has been successful and that Mr. Whitney still enjoys a good measure of the confidence of those Liberals and independents who gave him their support three years ago.

There have been far too many officials removed for party reasons, but when it is remembered that for more than thirty years the whole public service of Ontario was monopolized by Liberals it will be admitted that it was difficult to resist the importunate demand for a fairer division of the spoils. It was a mistake to continue a partisan administration of the license system. Moreover this action was a practical violation of pledges made in Opposition. But generally an honest attempt has been made to enforce the liquor laws and the use of technicalities to evade convictions and set aside local option has been discouraged.

The power policy, in the judgment of The News, rests upon an insecure foundation, has dealt harshly with private interests established upon solemn public contracts, and has menaced the public credit abroad. But this policy has received an overwhelming public endorsation, and has the general support of the Liberal Opposition. It is probable that the ultimate result will land more than one municipality in difficulties and create serious problems for the province. But as yet these apprehensions are not entertained and criticism awakens no general response.

It is by no means clear that all the Government's mining legislation has been well devised. But it is certain that the Administration was actuated only by honest intentions and a high regard for the public interest. Generally, indeed, the administration of forests and mines has been strong and prudent, distinguished by courage and a high sense of rectitude and remarkable alike for firmness and consistency.

In the reorganization of the University the Government was signally courageous and progressive. Entirely fortunate in this connection was the appointment of Dr. Falconer as President of the University. It may be found that the Board of Governors is unwieldy. But from this no serious evils need result. No one looks for perfection in any system of government.

There has been a certain vacillation in the Department of Education, but some sound measures of reform have been instituted and upon the whole, there has been earnest, sustained and practical effort to increase the efficiency of the schools, to adapt the system to the needs and conditions of the people, to improve the position of the teaching profession, and to get good results from the educational expenditures. The school book problem in some of its chief aspects is still unsolved, and it may be found more difficult than was expected to give satisfactory school books at the prices which used to figure in Conservative campaign speeches. Quality as well as cheapness, is a prime consideration and the two factors are not easily reconciled. Fortunately, another election will be out of the way before we have a final solution of this problem, and an opportunity to compare pre-election pledges with the actual results.

The creation of the railway and Municipal Board was a fine piece of constructive legislation, and, notwithstanding some hasty criticism, in which perhaps, the News had a part, and some early disappointment, the Board, which was appointed seems likely to justify itself, and to secure the public confidence. The management of prisons and hospitals constitutes one of the distinguishing features of the Administration, and, if proposals under consideration are carried into effect, Ontario will hold an enviable position for the breadth, sympathy, sanity and humanity of its treatment both of the afflicted and criminal classes.

A progressive measure of law reform is now before the Legislature, and, if it is not emasculated by changes which are certain to be demanded by the agencies which have made thorough legal reform in this Province impossible for a generation, here again a great public service will be performed. In the field of agriculture the work of the Government has been thoroughly sympathetic, practical and enterprising. There has been progress in various directions, a sound continuity of policy, and a praiseworthy freedom from partisan considerations in the management of the Department.

Revenues have been abundant, but there are no signs of waste or jobbery. No electoral scandals have developed. The facilities for electoral fraud have been restricted by legislation. A further measure to guarantee the honesty of elections, and to equalize conditions between the parties, is now before the Assembly. There is a reason to expect that this disposition will be manifested also in the rearrangement of constituencies which is about to be effected.

This in brief is the record of the Government, and upon the whole it is one of which the Ministers do not need to be ashamed. Mr. Whitney has faults as a party chief and a leader of Parliament. He is often impulsive, and sometimes thoroughly, arrogant. But the real man is sincere to the core, and is essentially generous and fair-minded. He has none of the arts of advertising; makes no parade of his virtues, and is absolutely candid and straightforward. Thus far his reputation for courage and honesty has not been impaired. What would be his genius for leadership under more difficult circumstances has still to be determined. The general opinion will be that the Government has done better than was expected, and that its good work far outweighs its blunders and errors.

Under Mr. Graham, the Opposition was effective, considering its numerical weakness, and Mr. McKay has qualifications for leadership certainly equal to any that Mr. Graham possessed. The Government is strong, it would be as well for the Province if the Opposition were stronger, and this may be said without at all all depreciating the ability of the Liberal contingent in the Legislature. Mr. McKay has been active in the constituencies. The Government has trusted to its majority and its record in legislation and administration. Upon this the Province is likely to pronounce an early judgment, it is, no doubt, intended that the banquet to Mr. Whitney shall open the campaign for the Government.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Senator G. W. Ross, formerly premier of Ontario has withdrawn his motion for the establishment of a system of permanent undersecretaries of parliamentary departments. His attempt to force it upon the attention of parliament was unsuccessful. Although a skilled parliamentarian Senator Ross has not been a signal success as a senatorial leader.

Chief Justice Hunter of B.C. has got the Laurier Government out of a pretty bad box—for the present. He has declared the Natal Act ultra vires. This act which is a language or educational test is a reasonable one and was suggested to Laurier by the British government. What B. C. will do will be a matter of speculation, but it is not likely that any province will tamely allow itself to be a dumping-ground for Federal purposes.

Peterboro' Band to Hold Concert

In Y.M.C.A. Hall on Wednesday Evening of This Week

A concert will be held in the Y. M.C.A. Hall on Wednesday evening of this week under the auspices of the Peterborough band. The band is a new organization, having been formed about Christmas time, but it has already reached a high state of efficiency, and with a little assistance from the public will be placed on a successful basis. Some of the best talent in the city will contribute to the programme on Wednesday night and a most enjoyable evening is assured.

New Industry in North Country

Wood Alcohol to be Manufactured at Fenelon Falls

With the opening of spring a new industry will be started in the north country—a plant for the manufacture of wood alcohol, acetate of lime, etc., similar to the one which has been in operation in Fenelon Falls for years. Toronto capitalists are interested and operations will be commenced on an extensive scale. The promoters have secured the services of Mr. Thomas Hodgson, late with the Fenelon Falls Company, to oversee the getting out of a supply of wood, and over 200 men have been employed for the past couple of months on the English Land Company limits. Local men were at first given the preference, but the quantity cut was not satisfactory to the Toronto men. A number of Italians were then sent north to cut by the cord, and since then, is is said, the wood has stacked up at a great rate.

THE AGE OF PADDING

This is the age of padding, and it is the chief drawback of our civilization. Everything is padded either with sawdust, or excelsior, or rags, or cotton batting, or wind. Great trusts water their stocks; that is only another name for padding. Liquor men pad their whiskey with water, and the fakirs pad their pies with bread, cornstarch and gum sugar.

People nowadays pad their calves, their biceps, their shoulders, their bosoms, their reputations, their checks, their bank accounts—in short they pad everything. The big Sunday paper is a large wad of padding—that's all. People pad the ballot box, and a good ballot box padder can get large chunks of money. Dope is a kind of pad, and they pad the track and the time, and the purse, and the crowd.

We pad the jury, and they say that some of the judges are padded; and you can't get a great lawyer to plead your case unless you pad him with the long green things until he is as big as a barrel. We pad our Sunday schools, and we pad our congregations—indeed, we keep professional paddists for the purpose. We pad the voters' list, and we send our children to school while they are yet babies and pad and pad them with a lot of educational rubbish till they become anaemic, idiotic, or infant prodigies—or, rather monstrosities.—The Khan, in the Hamilton Herald.

IMRORTANT CONVENTION IN TORONTO

Prevention of Spread of Tuberculosis Will be Discussed

The programme for the conference of municipal representatives called to meet in the Royal Alexandra theatre, Toronto, on March 4th, by the National Sanitorium Association, to discuss how more effective provision can be made for the relief of those who are suffering from, and fo rthe prevention of the spread of tuberculosis, is one that will likely attract a large number of delegates from all parts of the province.

His Excellency Earl Grey, will preside, and address the conference. Addresses will also be delivered by His Honor Sir Mortimer Clark, a number of leading medical men, mayors, wardens and others.

The Mayor and Council of the city of Toronto propose to entertain at luncheon the municipal delegates at 12.30 noon, and His Honor, the Lieut.-Governor, will give a reception in the evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The conference will be opened at 2 p.m.

There has been a remarkable awakening within the past year regarding the tuberculosis problem. There is little doubt that the outcome of the conference of March 4th, will have an important bearing on legislation that is expected from the local legislature during the present session.

There is not a municipality in the province that is not interested in this great problem.

Municipal officers, medical men, clergymen, and everyone in fact interested in th estudy of this question will be made welcome by the National Sanitarium Association. Arrangements have been made for special railway fare, full particulars of which can be obtained by writing Mr. J. S. Robertson, secretary-treasurer National Sanitarium Association, 347 King-st. west, Toronto.

MONTH WILL END STRONG

Hick's Predictions for Latter Part of February

A regular storm period is central on the 23rd, prevailing from the 21st to the 26th. The storms of this period will culminate in central to eastern sections from Sunday the 23rd to Tuesday, the 25th. The barometer will fall in western extremes by the 21st followed by cloudiness and rain in those sections by the 22nd, but these conditions will widen and intensify as they pass eastwardly across the country during the 23rd to 26th. The vernal equinox will add force to the storms, especially in the southern parts of the country, through all the last half of February and severe to dangerous equatorial storms will be quite possible, beginning about the 17th toward the West Indies and working up to our South Atlantic and gulf coast regions about the 22nd to 25th. In the event of such storms in the south we must confidently count on rough storms and cold, disagreeable weather over most part of the interior. A reactionary storm period will be in progress from February into March the culminating stages of which will fall on, March the 1st and 2nd.

Williamsons Again in Court

Geo. Williamson Given 10 Days in Gaol for Being Disorderly

The Williamsons of the city who it was reported had departed for Detroit, Mich., have returned and one of their number who has, frequently appeared in police court, was the sole occupant of the prisoner's dock this morning. He was charged with being drunk and disorderly on Saturday evening last. He pleaded guilty but promised that if allowed to go he would go at once to the minister and sign a pledge for a year. "I wasn't very well on Saturday and took a glass but it went to my head," he said.

"Two dollars to be paid forthwith," said the Magistrate.

Williamson had not the necessary, so will sojourn at Castle Nesbitt for the next ten days.

Letters to The Editor

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

A BIG SUGGESTION

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—To appoint an officer in plain clothes should be considered by, the police authorities, to put a stop to the crime and lawlessness so prevalent. I notice many suspicious characters about, well-dressed sharpers, beggars, pick-pockets, etc., who know well the portion of the town patrolled. It is not possible for an officer in uniform to watch the loafers and those about to commit crime, therefore when our police authorities are engaging new men it would be well to act uponthis suggestion.

Yours, etc.,
WM. WELLIAMSON.

THE CARNEGIE PROPOSITION

To the Editor of The Review;

Dear Sir,—In looking over the columns of your paper I see a good deal of discussion regarding the public library.

There is none who has the best interests of the city at heart would oppose any reasonable proposition for the establishing of a free library, well equipped with all the latest and best books and magazines, etc., as an adjunct to the other educational institutions of our city. But Sir, I think the question is one that will require some careful consideration by the citizens and council as the burden of taxation is large enough at the present time with no possible means in sight of lowering but every possibility of a very large increase owing to the heavy demands for the necessary public improvements and also the proper provision for the introduction of new manufacturing industries to our city. Of course the acceptance of the Carnegie gift is not a debt other than the providing for the ten per cent of the amount given for the keeping up of the library and that means a large increase in the assessment or in othes words a direct charge upon the property of the taxpayer and this point in the discussion should be kept clearly before the public mind.

It seems to me that while the discussion going on between two of our most respected citizens, viz., Messrs. Moore and Dumble, is doing no harm but rather good as it is keeping the question before the public that there are two things to be considered.

1st. Has the council ever taken any steps to ascertain the exact conditions concerning the Carnegie gift?

2nd. Have the ratepayers ever been asked for an expression upon the question.

If not, I would say let the council prepare a bylaw and submit it to the people at as early a date as possible and if the vote is in favor of a free library then go after the Carnegie gift as fast as possible for there is no reasonable objection that can be advanced against its acceptance.

Now, Sir, I must differ with my esteemed friend, Mr. Dumble in regards to the site, viz., the southeast corner of the Central Park as it would never do to put up a building in front of those already to obscure the view in any way and again I think the citizens will bear me out when I say there should never be a building of any kind put upon the Central Park, and hope the day will never come when one of the most central breathing spots will be used for any other purpose than that for which it has already been designed.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
W. S. ROBINSON.

First Ordination Ceremony in Peterborough Since 1876

Interesting Event Will Take Place at St. John's Church Next Sunday Morning.

For the first time since 1876 an ordination ceremony in connection with the Church of England in this district will be held at St. John's Church next Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Announcement to this effect was made in St. John's and St. Luke's churches yesterday, the notice coming from His Grace, the Archbishop of Toronto. The candidates who will be ordained are Mr. C. E. Wilkins, of Apsley and Mr. F. H. Battersby of Young's Point and they are to be raised to the order of deacons. The examination of the candidates will take place on Friday.

The ordination ceremony will be performed by His Lordship Right Reverend Bishop Reeve, of Toronto.

It is interesting to note that this will be the first Anglican ordination that has taken place in this district since 1876. At that time, Rev. W C. Allan, now of Millbrbok, and Rev. E. Soward, of Peterborough (retired) were ordained.

The ceremony of ordination will be a most interesting one and the occasion will be graced by the presence of a number of prominent clergy of the church from points outside the city.

Rev. A. H. Brace Resigns As Pastor of Park St. Church

Has Been in Charge for Five Years and Believes That is Long Enough Time for a Minister in One Church

The congregation of the Park St. Baptist church was greatly surprised yesterday morning by the statement from their pastor, Rev. A. H. Brace, of his intention to resign his charges and that he would formally place his resignation in the hands of the church in the evening. Accordingly at the close of the evening service the members were asked to remain. Deacon T. G. Gillespie was called to the chair and Rev. A. H. Brace read the following statement:

Baptist Parsonage,
Park St. Peterborough
Feb. 22, 1908

To the Deacons and members of the Park street Baptist church, Park St., Peterborough.

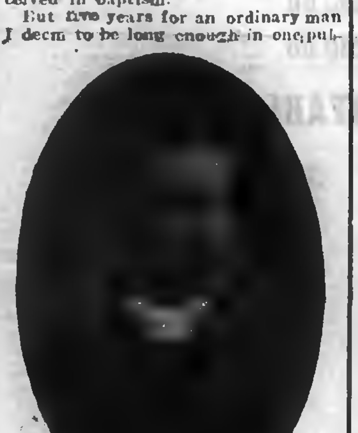
The building committee last Friday evening decided to put off building for at least six months in view of the strained condition of the money market and the high rate of interest just gives me the opportunity of retiring.

After careful consideration I have decided to give up my charge. I have spent five very happy and successful years and the church has steadily grown. You nobly raised your pledge to $700 to give me a call, the prosperity granted us warranted the increase of salary and it now stands at $850.

The lot for which we could not lay our hands on $10 to make deposit at sale is bought and paid for, over $500 raised and mortgages burned. Hard cash going to interest in bank and thousands pledged for a forward movement.

I rejoice with you in over 100 received in baptism.

But five years for an ordinary man I deem to be long enough in one pulpit. I therefore tender my resignation to take effect Sunday evening, May 3rd, 1908.



REV. A. H. BRACE

Yours sincerely,
A. H. BRACE.

After very seriously discussing the situation further consideration of the subject was deferred for one week.

Another Pleasant Evening at Young Conservative Club

Saturday evening witnessed another large crowd present to listen to the very excellent address of Mr. Kenner, M.A., on "A Summary of the History of Canada," and to the excellent vocal programme accompanying it. A number of recent arrivals from the old country were present and contributed some excellent volunteer songs. Mr. Firth and Mr. Chambers are usual delighted the audience while Mr. Coleman, the George St. caterer brought down the house. Mr. Bradburn, M.P.P. made a short address of congratulation upon the excellent character of the entertainment and the spirit of energy apparent in the party ranks. Mr. Chas. Benton made a very acceptable chairman. The pianist, Mr. W. Barrie, was a host in himself and accompanied the volunteer singers without preparation.

These Saturday night re-unions and free-and-easy's are very popular and will be continued throughout the season. The prizes for the euchre tournament are on exhibition in the concert room. The opening of the rooms daily to the unemployed for free use by them from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. has been largely taken advantage of. A renewal of the invitation was heartily extended by the president, Ald. Buller on Saturday evening. General appreciation was expressed of the address of Mr. Kenner which was outlined as an introduction to the more intimate study of Canadian history. It was listened to with great interest and profit.

Mother Went to Awaken Child, But Found it Dead

Sudden Death of Ruby Bettes, 496 Rogers St. East City This Morning—Mother Grief Stricken Over Shocking Demise of Her Child.

Leaving her six months' old child sleeping peacefully on her bed this morning at seven o'clock when she arose, Mrs. Albert Bettes of 496 Rogers street, East City, was shocked on her return to the room a few hours later to find that her little one had passed away. The child was black in the face, but the grief-stricken mother had not even heard a cry to tell her that her baby had suffered.

All day yesterday the child appeared to be in excellent health and was very playful. This morning, when Mrs. Bettes arose, the child was sleeping sound and the mother went downstairs and carried out her household duties, all the time thinking her baby was well, enjoying a good sleep. About 11 o'clock she thought that she had better bring her downstairs, but on going to the room she found her child dead.

Dr. McCulloch was called in and after an examination attributed the cause of death to an inward convulsion.

Mr. Bettes is away in Guelph, but has been wired.

The child's name was Ruby Christina. She is survived by one sister. Mr. and Mrs. Bettes have the heartfelt sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sad bereavement.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Mission to be Held At St. John's Church

Will Commence on March 8th and Continue Until March 18th

Commencing on Sunday, March 8th and concluding on Wednesday, March 18th, a mission will be held at St. John's church. Rev. Canon Davidson made this announcement at the services yesterday and dealt with the subject at some length. He referred to previous missions that had been held in Peterborough, the one at St. John's in 1881 conducted by Rev. O. F. Ford, of Toronto, and the one in 1890 conducted by Rev. F. H. Du Vernet now Bishop of Columbia. Mention was also made of the mission held at St. Luke's church in 1898, conducted by Rev. G. O. Troop.

The full details for the mission have not yet been made public but it has been given out that while all help will be used the services will be conducted in a manner in harmony with the spirit of the Church of England.

Fellowship Tea Pleasant Event

Many Were Present at Y.M.C.A. Yesterday

A pleasing feature in connection with the Y.M.C.A. social work is the monthly strangers' tea given by the Strangers' Fellowship Club to new members of the Association and to any known strangers in the city. Last evening's repast was provided by the ladies of George street Methodist church and was presided over by Mr. R. F. Harding, who made a most congenial chairman. He briefly outlined the Y.M.C.A. work especially with regard to strangers in the city and extended a hearty welcome to those present.

Short addresses were delivered by the Secretary, Mr. Coleman and others, who also joined in welcoming the guests of the Strangers' Fellowship Club.

Those present who partook of the ladies' hospitality were Mr. R. F. Harding, Mr. H. O Wright, Mr R. Wright, Mr. Smith, Mr. Fox, Mr. L. A. Oke, Mr. A. Weart, Mr Gibbs, Mr. J. H. Seaver, Mr. Daly, Mr Little, Mr. S. Wade, Mr. Gale, Mr. Laing, Mr. C. Coleman, Mr. G. Wright, and Mr. Arthur Rodgers.

The house of Edward Vinnette at 10 Lisburne St. Auburn, was entered last evening between seven and nine o'clock and robbed of forty dollars. Mr. Vinnette on returning thought that the house looked as if it had been ransacked and going to the room where he had the money concealed he found that it had been stolen. ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST BURKE

If Acquitted on Robbery Charge Will Have to Face Court for Assault

If Chas. Burke is acquitted on the charge of robbery at Buckhorn, he will still have another charge to face. On Saturday, P. C.'s Newhall and Meharry were in court in readiness to take him into custody on the charge of assaulting P. C. Newhall at the C.P.R. station on October 23rd, when the officer said he endeavored to place him under arrest, he being one of the companions of Chas. Murray, who is now serving a year's sentence in the Central Prison. Burke denies he was there but P. C. Newhall positively identifies him as the right man.

Former Local Man Visits City

Mr. John Primeau, jr., of Winnipeg, Man., is home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Primeau, Driscoll Terrace, East City. Mr. Primeau is being warmly welcomed by his many friends, who are pleased to see him again. It is two years since his last visit to Peterborough. Mr. Primeau holds a prominent position with the T. Eaton Co., in that city, and likes living in the Western city very much. He will visit here for a couple of weeks before returning.

ANOTHER DOG IS POISONED

There is apparently no let up to the dastardly work of the dog poisoner. Yesterday Mr. Bruce Hutchinson, Sheridan street, was surprised to find his valuable white fox terrier lying dead in the yard, evidently having been poisoned. The canine was prized very highly, and Mr. Hutchinson feels its loss very keenly. He, like a good many others, would like to ascertain the whereabouts of the dog poisoner and he would soon prosecute him.

KILLED BY WIRELESS

It is announced that the naval pigeon service is to be abolished at all places except Malta. The loft at the latter place will be retained pending further instructions.

There are lofts at Portsmouth, Sheerness, Devenport, Malta, and Gibraltar, and they are stocked with some very fine birds. Presumably these will be sold, and, if so, this will be a great opportunity for fanciers. The service has been in existence some years and the pigeons proved very useful upon many occasions. One was during the salvage operations upon the submarine A8, when reports of how work was progressing were regularly sent ashore by pigeon post.

It is understood that the abolition of the pigeon service is an outcome of the introduction of wireless telegraphy into the fleet.—Overseas Mail.

MAKING PURE SILVER NOW

Mr. L. O. Armstrong, tourist and colonization agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has just returned from a trip to Western Ontario, during which he visited the new silver smelters at Copper Cliff, which after much expensive experimenting have discovered the secret of making pure silver out of the Cobalt ore. Until recently this Cobalt ore has been mainly melted in the United States, but it now appears likely that it will be perfected in Canada, so that ere long the silver from the Ontario region may be shipped direct to Ottawa to be converted into coin.

While at Copper Cliff, said Mr. Armstrong, he noticed at the railway station a number of small kegs, carefull packed, and secured at the bunghole with seals. On enquiry he found that these contained pure silver refined from Cobalt ore at the works of the Canadian Copper Company at Copper Cliff.

On further enquiry Mr. Armstrong was told that for some time past the company had been experimenting on the proper method of smelting and refining this difficult ore, and had wasted a lot of valuable ore in the experiments, it being calculated that some three thousand ounces of silver had been lost before success was achieved. It is probable however that this waste will not be complete, and that some of this silver will yet be recovered. The secret however was finally mastered, and Mr. Armstrong arrived at Copper Cliff in time to see the first large shipment of pure silver from the refinery. In future it is expected that most of the Cobalt ore will go to Copper Cliff for reduction, instead of the works across the line.

"Solomon's Song" will be staged in Queen's Gate Hall, London.

ALL RUN DOWN

Weak---Nervous---Unstrung.

Thousands get run down and become invalids before they realize anything is wrong. By permitting low vitality to develop, the way is paved for fevers, pneumonia and diphtheria. To put off makes it all the harder to get well. The time to repair the system is right now, before the damage gets any worse. The remedy is Ferrozone; it revitalizes, renews, builds up vitality that outlasts old age.

FERROZONE is a genuine invigorator that banishes weakness, and instils surplus force and vigor into every organ of the body. Ferrozone sharpens the appetite, produces rich nutritious blood, and thereby contributes that sense of buoyancy that adds so enormously to one's pleasure and usefulness in life.

For all forms of debility, weakness, lack of blood or nerve tone, sleeplessness, tiredness and exhaustion, there is no medicine so vitalizing and potent as Ferrozone. Even one trial demonstrates its rapidly and certainty of action.

To restore the energy of youth, to get back your vital stamina and reserve force, there is positively no treatment so certain as Ferrozone. You have only to try Ferrozone to know the enormous benefit it invariably brings to all in poor health.

FERROZONE

Miss Dorothy B. Leduc of Chester gives the following convincing evidence of Ferrozone's power:—"My work compels me to rise early in the morning and work ten hours daily as a saleslady. Last Spring I was run down, lost my color, and fell off in weight. I seemed to lack ambition and the life was out of me. A friend recommended Ferrozone, and I took one tablet after meals with wonderful results. Ferrozone brought back my complexion, and has given me new strength and abundance of energy and spirits. I would advise all young ladies to use Ferrozone."

Mrs. H. G. Wilder of Dexter says:—"My daughter was not very well last Winter, and lost her strength completely when the Spring came. I gave her Ferrozone, and am glad to say it did wonders. After six boxes were used my daughter was strong and looked the picture of health."

Gave New Strength

FERROZONE

WARNING—Beware of any substitute for Ferrozone; it alone can cure you. Sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine, only in 50c boxes containing 50 chocolate-coated tablets. By mail to any address if price is forwarded to N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., or Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

In the British Parliament; Bill Still Fails to Please

Education Bill Again Introduced in the Imperial House.

Balfour Leads a Bitter Attack on New Measure—Two Classes of Schools to Receive State Assistance—If Rejected May Mean Total Abolition of Religious Instruction—Churchmen Indignant.

London, Feb. 25.—The new educational bill was introduced in the House of Commons yesterday by Reginald McKenna, president of the Board of Education. The bill regulates the conditions under which public money may be applied in aid of elementary education in England and Wales. The House of Commons was crowded for the occasion.

The new measure is not as contentious as the Birrell educational bill of 1906, which the House of Lords threw into the waste-paper basket without ceremony. The two main principles embodied in the new bill, are that there shall be complete public control of the elementary schools by locally elected bodies, and that there shall be no denominational tests in the appointment of teachers.

In speaking of the bill, Mr. McKenna said that failure to pass the Ministerial proposal would give a most powerful impetus to the movements to secure the total abolition of religious instruction in the schools.

Mr. McKenna explained that under this bill there would be two kinds of schools receiving state assistance. The first and predominant would be the public elementary school, provided for by the public, controlled by the public, and managed by the public, while the second and exceptional type would be the voluntary schools which are supported by the various denominations. The latter, if not carried on for profit, would be given exchequer grants in aid, but they would receive no support from the rates. The local authorities have to provide simple Bible instruction in all the elementary schools, but the school buildings would be available after school hours for denominational instruction by volunteer teachers, the pupil voluntarily staying over for such teachings.

A. J. Balfour attacked the bill bitterly, and in spite of the modifications introduced by Mr. McKenna, it is apparent that the Conservatives and the churchmen intend to wage as uncompromising a war upon the present measure as they did upon the Birrell bill of 1906.

Bannerman Still Leads.

London, Feb. 25.—There is no truth in the report that Premier Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has offered to resign.

The situation remains as previously stated in these despatches. Should the health of the Premier not improve sufficiently within a certain period he will vacate his post, and Henry Asquith is assured practically the unanimous support of the Cabinet as his successor.

There is little doubt in political circles that this will be the ultimate outcome, but in the meantime both the Cabinet and the party rank and file are anxious that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman retain the leadership so long as there is the slightest possibility of his being able to resume active work.

HAD CHANGE FOR TEN.

Man Seeking Relief Carried Roll of Bills Up His Sleeve.

St. Catharines, Feb. 25.—Some of the humors of the poor relief work here are coming to the surface. A well-known local gentleman of means is maintaining a free soup kitchen at his own expense. Feeling that some of the men who were taking advantage of the free meals were not really in need, the gentleman went to the "kitchen" at meal time recently and in a voice loud enough for everybody to hear asked if anyone could change a $10 bill. Immediately a brawny Armenian seated at table called up "I can," and he pulled out a roll of bills as big as his arm and solemnly counted out the change.

Each Set Herself Afire.

Allentown, Pa., Feb. 25.—Choosing fire as the medium of death, Miss Emma Fink of Slatington committed suicide in a tragic manner.

Standing where she could see the ruins of her old home, which was destroyed by fire about a year ago, she poured coal oil over her clothing and then set fire to her skirts. The girl had been in ill-health.

Cleveland, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Augusta Strey, 73 years of age, considered herself a burden upon her grandson, with whom she was living, and who had lost his position. She arose early, and, going noiselessly to the street, poured kerosene upon her clothing and applied a match. She died.

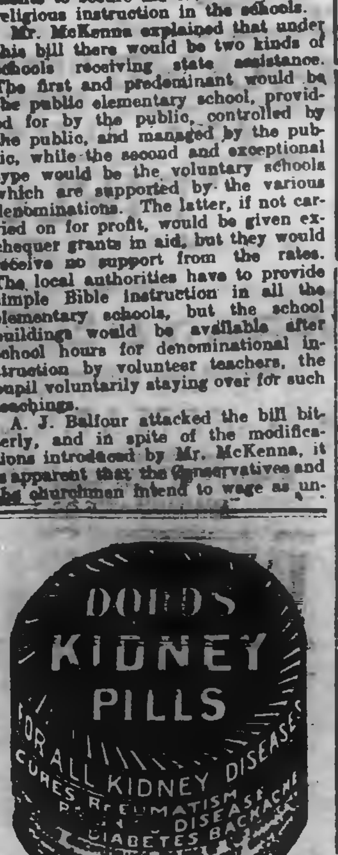
Dry Wave In Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Feb. 25.—Hotelmen admit that prohibition in Winnipeg is very certain, since the new law permits women to vote.

The worst feature of the law, they claim, however, is that clause which permits submission of local option each year, rendering permanent investments out of the question in hotels.

The Immigrant Van Guard.

Montreal, Feb. 25.—The annual rush of immigrants from the old country is starting, and the first signs came yesterday when a message was received from Liverpool by the C.P.R. stating that the Empress of Ireland had sailed from that port with a passenger list numbering over twelve hundred



"BLACK HAND" OUTRAGE.

Store In Brooklyn Wrecked by a Bomb—Occupants Escaped.

New York, Feb. 25.—An Italian bomb explosion similar in character to many which have taken place in this city within a year occurred in Brooklyn yesterday, when Peter Locato's music store, Morgan avenue, was wrecked.

Locato had received many so-called "Black Hand" letters, but, having refused to pay for immunity, his store was first blown up last spring. In December last another bomb was left on the stoop, and the doors and windows were demolished. Since then he has received letters demanding money, but has ignored them, and a third mysterious attack has now followed.

The lives of Locato, his wife and his three children, who occupied rooms in the rear of the store, were endangered by the last explosion, but they escaped with slight injuries.

Saw Abandoned Schooner.

New York, Feb. 25.—The American schooner William H. Skinner was sighted, waterlogged and abandoned, 200 miles northeast of Cape Hatteras, on Saturday by the steamer Byron, which arrived yesterday from Rio Janeiro. Except for her foremast, the schooner had been dismasted and a white flag was flying at the foremast head.

There was nothing to indicate the fate of her crew.

Two Italians Arrested.

Montreal, Feb. 25.—Calderone Carmano, an Italian, sought since Saturday on the charge of killing a compatriot, surrendered yesterday afternoon. He pleads self-defence.

Michael Tortoro, an Italian living at 511 St. Timothee street, was placed under arrest on a charge of killing his wife. He claims the shooting was accidental.

Year For Bigamy.

Kingston, Feb. 25.—Alexander S. Babcock was sentenced to the Central Prison for one year for bigamy and suspended sentence on a charge of cruelty in breaking the arm of a four-months-old infant. Babcock is weak-minded. The first woman he married when 15 years old. They parted and at 19 he married a second time.

Young Englishman's Plight.

Hamilton, Feb. 25.—While out taking snapshots of the ice banks at the beach on Sunday, John Feast discovered a young man in the lake up to his waist in water. Feast got help and bravely went out and rescued the man, Walter Brent, a farm hand, who came out from England last summer. He was almost dead.

Shot Chief of Police.

Fayetteville, N.C., Feb. 25.—Chief of Police Benton was shot dead in front of his home by a negro, Sam Murchison, crazed with drink. This man also shot two negroes a few minutes before he shot the chief.

Hill's Engineers Out.

Medicine Hat, Feb. 25.—Engineers of the Hill system are again active through this section, and it is apparent that the C.P.R. line will be paralleled from a point near Brandon, due west to the mountains. This line will pass half way between the border and the C.P.R., opening a virgin agricultural country.

GIRL SENT FOR TRIAL.

Child Says Miss Allen Threatened to Burn Barns.

Mount Albert, Feb. 25.—The crown's evidence in the preliminary arson trial here yesterday was noticeably weak at times, and entirely circumstantial, as is always the case in charges of this nature. Assistant Crown Attorney Monahan nevertheless handled the material at his command so well that the presiding magistrates in simple justice could not dismiss the case against Mabel Allen, the girl who is accused of firing the farm buildings of Mrs. John Hopkins, in East Gwillimbury, during the early morning hours of Friday, Feb. 14. She was accordingly committed for trial before Judge Winchester at the next Court of General Sessions in Toronto. The $1,000 bail fixed for her release was promptly furnished by County Constable Cook.

New evidence was produced in the form of a letter from Thomas Allen, the girl's father, to Mrs. Hopkins, threatening the latter with court proceedings if she did not pay Mabel wages due her while she was in the Hopkins' home in the capacity of domestic.

An interesting part of the crown evidence was given by Minnie, the little 10-year-old daughter of Thomas Moore, the previous witness. The child, though she knew what it was to tell the truth, did not know the nature of an oath and blurted out crying. The curtain in front of the platform was lowered to shut off the view of the spectators and after being consoled by her father she told her story.

"I was in the parlor with Mabel Allen on Sunday afternoon," said Minnie, "and she told me she was going home and that she was going to kill somebody or burn his barn."

"Did you ask her whom she referred to?" said Mr. Monahan.

"Yes, but she said she would not tell his name, but his hair was turning gray."

MADE COIN IN PRISON.

Counterfeiter Worked at Night In His Cell—Official Involved.

Rendsburg, Prussia, Feb. 25.—For some time past counterfeit five-mark pieces have been circulating in Northern Prussia. The authorities started to investigate, with the result that in a number of instances the false money was traced to this town, and it was finally learned by the police that they were being paid out by persons connected with the prison here. To clear up the mystery Detective Inspector Scheder had himself committed as a convict and was shut up in a cell in the jail.

After a day or two of observation he located a sound of faint hammering in a detached cell, where a counterfeiter was serving a long term of imprisonment. With this evidence Scheder called in some of his colleagues, and Sunday night they raided the cell of the midnight workers. They found it to be a veritable counterfeiter's workshop, in which the convict minted five mark pieces.

It appears that the convict, after being brought to jail, told the prison inspector where his coining apparatus was hidden. The inspector found the dies and brought them to prison, and arranged that the convict could work at night to make the coins, the inspector and his family putting them into circulation.

The inspector, his wife and his mother-in-law have been taken into custody.

Brings Back Murderer.

New York, Feb. 25.—After a chase of over 10,000 miles, lasting nearly a year, Detective Baldwin of Roanoke, Va., has brought back from the Argentine Republic by way of England, Moses Faris, a young Syrian, wanted in Virginia for the killing of a countryman, Frank Ashaid, last March.

Faris asserts that he killed Ashaid, who was a merchant in Roanoke, in self-defence after the man had attacked him with a knife. He fled to Canada, with $600 in his pockets, returned to New York and sailed for Buenos Ayres.

Warnock Post Mortem.

Brockville, Feb. 25.—The post-mortem over the body of the late J. G. Warnock was conducted yesterday afternoon at the request of the Attorney-General's Department by Drs. Horton and Harding. On behalf of interested parties, two doctors each were present for Mrs. Agnes Warnock and Mrs. Eva Warnock, the conflicting widows.

The body was completely thawed out, and the result of the finding will not be made known until the adjourned inquest on Thursday night.

Deporting One Jap.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 25.—The two Japanese released under the decision of Chief Justice Hunter, that the Natal Act, in view of the Japanese treaty, does not apply to Japanese, are still held under the Dominion immigration. One will be deported for failing to show a passport direct. The other will be given the opportunity to prove his claim of former residence which would entitle him to remain.

St. Catharines' Postal Delivery.

St. Catharines, Feb. 25.—For some months past the city has been persistently applying to Ottawa for inauguration of the free postal delivery and yesterday the good news arrived that the Postmaster-General had acceded to the request and had given instructions to have the delivery put in operation.

In the Commons at Ottawa; Foster Gets After Pugsley

Sharp Attack In the House of Commons—Twits Minister With Lack of Courage — Challenges Laurier to Have Investigation — Minister of Railways Treats Matter Lightly—Bill to Regulate Booming.

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—During the discussion of the alleged activity of employes of the Intercolonial Railway in New Brunswick elections, Mr. Foster made a sharp attack on Hon. Wm. Pugsley for waiting to substantiate in the House charges made against the leader of the Opposition in connection with the raising of a huge campaign fund in the last general election.

He drew from Mr. Pugsley a challenge to Mr. Borden to move for a committee of enquiry.

"In which case," said Mr. Pugsley, "I am prepared to substantiate everything I have said in any place."

Said Mr. Foster: "He picks a quarrel with the hon. member from York (Mr. Crockett), the hon. member for St. John (Mr. Daniel), and the hon. member for Queen's and Albert (Mr. Fowler) because, forsooth, these cowardly M.P.'s attacked him in his absence, when of all men I should think my hon. friend (Mr. Pugsley) would not vaunt himself as so terrible that any man on this side would fear to criticize him in his presence. For he, himself, did not show that mettle of knightly courage and great daring when he was called to account again and again by hon. member for East Toronto for the brave sayings he had uttered on the platforms 800 miles away from the opponent whom he attacked.

Leblancs Energetic Politicians.

Mr. Foster had moved adjournment of the House to discuss the question of interference of Intercolonial officials in local elections in New Brunswick. Mr. Foster had two affidavits, setting forth that the two Leblancs, who were charged with this offence in the House about the 13th inst., continued to take part in meetings praising the Liberal candidates without let or hindrance by the Railway Department. The excuse that H. Leblanc was on leave of absence was no excuse at all.

Was the Government simply "jollying" the country in permitting these practices while flying the flag of a non-partisan Government service for religious and independent newspapers to take notice of? What shall we say of the higher officials? asked Mr. Foster, referring to the visit of Hon. Mr. Pugsley to New Brunswick with bribes to the electors. Going back to 1904, the present Minister of Justice (Mr. Aylesworth) went through the County of Durham with a town clerk on one shoulder and one of the mouths of the Trent Canal on the other.

Mr. Foster said 10-20ths of the officials in the Northwest were simply party managers and party participators. There never was a more gratuitous insult to the people of the country when they took R. E. A. Leach, a man who defrauded thousands of Conservative voters in a way that could not be defended, and gave him the administration of three million dollars worth of seed grain.

Mr. Graham said it showed the state of public opinion that a suspicion about a couple of minor officials on the Intercolonial Railway had got so much notice. One of the complaints of employes of the I.C.R. was that they were not allowed so much latitude in political affairs as in the old day. Regarding the Leblancs, he had done as much as he was called upon to do, having wired the manager of the road that employes must not take part in political campaigns.

Held Out No Promise.

Mr. Pugsley followed. He could well understand why friends of the Government should be disposed to have a part in election when they saw so many Conservative Government employes so active. For his part Mr. Pugsley had held out no promise to the people of New Brunswick. It was not necessary for him to do it. It was enough to point to the record of the Government. Surely there was nothing wrong in pointing out to the people of St. John that the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific would mean the requirement of an outfit for a great deal of traffic by way of St. John.

Mr. Pugsley claimed that it was a suggestion of Mr. Foster that prominent Conservatives in New Brunswick had withdrawn their support from the Provincial Government and undertaken to run the election on party lines. The contest was to a large extent a federal one, and Mr. Pugsley thought it not unfair to ask his Liberal friends to rally to the support of the party who are the friends of the Provincial Government.

Minister Was Flippant.

R. L. Borden feared that Mr. Graham hardly realized the importance of the question. His answers were indirect, and he spoke even with a tone of flippancy, while his manner showed the spirit of levity, with which he regarded the occasion, indicating that he was not aware that the House had passed a resolution prohibiting participation of employes of the Government in election matters. Mr. Graham should have been prepared to say whether or not these men had been doing election work. Although apprised that these men had been taking part in the election, apparently no action had been taken. Did he propose to continue to treat the matter with contempt?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he proposed the meet the question squarely. It was not a new question. Whenever there had been an election, whether under this Government or the old, he had always heard that the Government allowed its employes to take part, and the House ought to discuss the matter without throwing mud. He agreed with Mr. Foster that the Government employes ought not to be allowed to take part in elections. But in this case Mr. Graham had given strict prohibitory orders. So far the position was well defined, and if employes took part in elections they did so at their own risk. If Senator Gilmour had been the author of certain bad actions, Sir Wilfrid did not propose to take the blame for them.

Mr. Foster concluded with a challenge to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to have an investigation into the conduct of his partisan officials in Manitoba and the west, as well as in New Brunswick, who were taking an open and offensive part in local politics.

Regulating Booming.

In the House yesterday Mr. Pugsley introduced a bill to regulate the placing and maintaining of booms in international streams. The Minister explained that the bill provides that no boom or shear boom shall be attached to the Canadian shore of any international stream, or placed in the bed of such stream on the Canadian side without a license from the Minister of Public Works, the penalty being a fine of $100 to $1,000. The necessity for the proposed measure was the action of an American company on the St. John River in so booming the stream as to divert all logs into their own booms. The bill was read a first time.

Mr. Lavesque introduced a bill to amend the Railway Act by providing that railway companies shall run on schedule time or forfeit $5 per minute for every minute's delay, unless from unavoidable cause. Another clause in Mr. Levesque's bill seeks to compel subsidized steamships plying on inland waters to carry members of Parliament free, the same as the railways. The bill was read a first time.

A BRIEF SESSION.

Legislature Were Not Overworked Yesterday Afternoon.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—A brief session of the Legislature yesterday enabled Mr. Duff to move the first reading of a bill to amend the Municipal Act. Mr. Smith (Soo) obtained order for returns, the details of which have been already published, relating to the clearing of the right of way of the T. & N. O. Railway, and with regard to contracts held by McRae, McNeil and Chandler.

Dr. Preston (Lanard) obtained an order for a return of the several commissions issued during the years 1902, 1903 and 1904, with their cost to the province. This will offset the return asked for by Mr. May relating to the commissions issued by the present Government.

Mr. Lennox will introduce a bill to amend the Ontario Architects' Act.

East Toronto is seeking power to hold its municipal elections on New Year's Day. Also to reserve a residential area select from laundries, factories and other commercial drawbacks.

Ottawa wants to take over the remaining toll roads and to spend $115,000 on city improvements, without the formality of a bylaw.

One hundred and eight petitions asking for the repeal of the three-fifths clause in the local option law were laid on the table.

It is expected that the debate on the address from the throne will be concluded this afternoon, when the leader of the Opposition, Hon. A. G. MacKay, and Premier Whitney, will speak.

Boy Burglars In Cells.

New York, Feb. 24.—James Larkin, a youth of 21, was arrested yesterday on the request of the Boston police, who said he is wanted in that city to answer a charge of burglary. He is said to have confessed to two sensational burglaries in this city as well. William Schwarts, aged 22, whose arrest also was requested by the Boston police, was found with Larkin and was taken into custody.

The officers say that when they found the two men in a lodging house in East 100th street, Schwarts refused to say anything about himself. Larkin, however, was ready to talk, they say, and told in detail of robberies in the Hotel Endicott and the Hargrave Hotel in this city last November, which netted the burglars $6,000 and $3,000, respectively.

Former Minister Sentenced.

Rome, Feb. 25.—Nunzio Nasi, who was at one time Minister of Public Instruction, was yesterday sentenced to eleven months and twenty days in prison for continued speculation from the state treasury. This sentence was handed down by the Senate, sitting as a high court after ten hours deliberation. Furthermore, Nasi is interdicted from holding public office for four years and two months.

His secretary, Signor Lombardo, was acquitted for lack of evidence.

License Worth $50,000.

London, Feb. 25.—An interesting incident connected with Earl Grey is related here, apropos of the new licensing bill. The Northumberland magistrates granted a new public house license which Earl Grey found increased the value of the place £10,000. This is described as the commencement of his attention to the question of disinterested management of public houses.

Hand Shattered by Shot.

ESTIMATES ARE DOWN

Britain's Plans For the Army and Navy During 1908

Expenditure to Be $3,000,000 More Than Last Year — Agitation Has Caused Modification of Admiralty Program—Reduction In the Army Abroad—Fast Cruisers to Be Built —Only One Dreadnought.

London, Feb. 25.—The British navy estimates for 1908-09 were issued last evening. They amount to $161,397,500, as against $157,087,50 for 1907-08.

The agitation for economy has had some effect on the shipbuilding program, which contemplates only one improved warship of the Dreadnought type, instead of the three expected. The Government proposes to build one large armored cruiser, six fast protected cruisers, 16 torpedo boat destroyers and some submarines. The number of the last mentioned vessels is not given, but they are estimated to cost $2,500,000.

In an explanatory statement Lord Tweedmouth, the first Lord of the Admiralty, points out that an increase in expenditure is inevitable, but by the strictest economy he was able to confine it to $4,500,000.

In April next the British navy will have under construction seven battleships, four armored cruisers, one unarmored cruiser, ten torpedo boat destroyers, 20 torpedo boats and eight submarines.

Lord Tweedmouth shows how a gradual and continuous diminution in the amount required for new construction, which was initiated in 1906, when it reached the maximum of $57,500,000, was still possible, the amount being $37,725,000, as compared with $40,500,000 last year. He announces the definite intention to proceed with the construction of a naval base at Rosyth, Scotland, which, in addition to having a basin capable of accommodating 22 warships, will include a depot for submarines and destroyers. The whole work, it is estimated, will occupy a decade in building and cost $16,250,000.

Among the inevitable increases in expenditure, such as the increased cost of coal and provisions and the higher pay of the men, he mentioned the Cunard subsidy, for the Lusitania and Mauretania, which now stands at the full amount of $750,000.

The naval estimates provide for exactly the same number of officers and men as last year.

Army Expenditure.

The War Secretary, Mr. Haldane, in a statement regarding the army, says: "Looking to the future, I am convinced that it is impossible to make further diminutions in the army expenditure on a considerable scale, unless we first of all reduce the number of troops serving abroad.

"Garrisons abroad," he adds, "will be reduced whenever that can be safely done, but if reductions in the regular army are carried too far demand will ultimatey have to be made on the citizen force, such as hitherto has never been contemplated."

The army estimates for 1908-09 total $154,185,120, and the War Secretary estimates for a total 185,000 men in the home and colonial establishments, irrespective of India, a decrease of 5,000 men from last year.

Toronto Junction Live Stock.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Feb. 24.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 65 carloads, composed of 1027 cattle, 225 hogs, 247 sheep, 33 calves and 73 horses.

Exporters.

Prices ranged from $4.85 to $5.15, with one prime load at $5.35. Export bulls sold at $3.75 to $4.40 per cwt.

Butchers.

There was a fairly good trade for best butchers' cattle at about the same quotations as given last Thursday. Prime picked lots $4.85 to $5; loads of good, $4.60 to $4.80; medium, $4.40 to $4.60; common, $4 to $4.25; cows, $2.25 to $4 per cwt.

Milkers and Springers.

About 20 milkers and springers were on sale. There was a strong market on account of two Montreal dealers being on hand to get supplies. Prices ranged from $38 to $60 each.

Veal Calves.

The limited supply of veal calves met an extra good market, with prices ranging from $4 to $7.50 per cwt., and an extra quality of new milk fed veal calves would bring $8 per cwt.; in fact one dealer reported paying that price to-day.

Sheep and Lambs.

Deliveries of sheep and lambs were 247 in number, for which there was a brisk market at higher quotations. Export ewes sold from $4.50 to $5 per cwt.; lambs, $6 to $7 per cwt.

Hogs.

The dealers in hogs seem to be all of one mind as regards the price of hogs. Gunn's, Limited, and H. P. Kennedy's agent, Mr. Taylor, both reported selects fed and watered, at $5.15, and $4.90, f.o.b., cars, at country points.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Feb. 24.—(Special.)—At the Montreal Stock Yards West End Market, the receipts of live stock for the week ending Feb. 22 were 1000 cattle, 250 sheep and lambs, 2341 hogs and 251 calves, while the supply for local consumption this morning consisted of 1100 cattle, 250 sheep and lambs, 1700 hogs and 150 calves. There were no new developments in the local cattle situation, except that the undertone to the market was firmer on account of the fact that supplies were fully 500 head smaller than a week ago, but prices show no actual change. The quality of the stock coming forward is much better than it has been of late, but really choice beeves are somewhat scarce yet. There was a large gathering of buyers, and, as they all wanted some beef, the demand was good and a fairly active trade was done. Choice stock sold at 5¼c to 5½c; good at 4½c to 5c; fair at 3¾c to 4¼c; common at 3¼c to 3½c, and inferior at 2½c to 3c per lb. Cable advices from Liverpool on Saturday stated that trade in cattle was brisk, and that the market was strong, with American steers ½c per lb. higher than a week ago, at 12c to 12½c, and Canadian steers ½c up, at 11½c to 12¼c, with bulls selling at 10½c per lb.

Owing to the continued small supplies of sheep and lambs coming forward, the tone of the market is strong, and prices have advanced fully ¼c per lb. The demand from local buyers is good, and sales of mixed lots of sheep and lambs were made at 6¼c per lb., but straight lots of choice lambs would bring 6½c to 6¾c; good, 6c to 6¼c, and common, 5½c to 5¾c, while choice sheep were quoted at 4¼c to 4½c; good at 3¾c to 4c, and culls at 3¼c to 3½c per lb.

In spite of the weak cable advices from all the leading markets on Canadian bacon last week, which noted a decline in prices of from 1s to 6s per cwt., as compared with values quoted the previous week, a stronger feeling developed in the local hog situation this morning, and prices advanced 15c to 25c per 100 lbs., which was due to the smaller run and the good demand for the same from packers and dealers, as they were somewhat short of supplies. An active trade was done, and sales of selected lots were made at $5.75 to $5.90 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Feb. 24.—Cattle—Receipts, 2000 head; fairly active; strong to 10c higher; prime steers, $6.00 to $6.25; shipping, $5 to $5.60; butchers, $4.50 to $5.25; heifers, $3.50 to $5.25; cows, $3 to $4.75; bulls, $2.25 to $4.75; stockers and feeders, $3 to $4.50; stock heifers, $2.50 to $3.

Hogs—Receipts, 20,400 head; fairly active; heavy, 5c lower; others 20c, to 25c lower; heavy, $4.50 to $4.55; mixed, $4.55 to $4.60; yorkers, $4.60 to $4.65; pigs, $4.60; roughs, $3.75 to $4; stags, $3 to $3.25; dairies, $4.50 to $4.60.

New York Live Stock.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Beeves, $3.25 to $5.47; steers, steady to a shade higher; bulls, firm; thin cows, 10c higher; others, firm. Steers, $5 to $5.90; oxen and stags, $4.00 to $4.80; bulls, $3.60 to $4.20; cows, $2 to $4; tops, $4.15. Exports to-morrow, 600 cattle.

Women's Pains

"I received your sample of Zutoo Tablets, and took them for severe pain (monthly) and headache. At the end of 30 minutes I was entirely free from pain and experienced no more throughout the period. I suffer a great deal at these times and feel grateful that I now have a remedy which affords quick relief. Every woman in the land should know about Zutoo Tablets and what they will do."

Dramatic Club is Now Proposed

One May be Organized in Connection With Collegiate Institute

One sometimes hears it remarked, in the corridors or elsewhere, that the pupils of the Collegiate Institute "slow." And when one reads of the gay doings in other Collegiates, it seems as if there were really some truth in the statement. We hope that the new Collegiate will remedy mattgers somewhat. The Glee Club is a step in the right direction. Why should we not have a Dramatic Club as well? The excellent practice which such a club would afford will have more value than almost any other feature of our society. What if we do not possess the proper costumes and stage properties? When When Burbage played, the throne of Denmark was a chair. The audience, no doubt, will obligingly supply in imagination whatever may be lacking in reality.

Such a club would supply variety to our programmes, which are becoming far too stereotyped. We have got into a rut, and it is so comfortable that nobody likes to suggest getting out again. A Dramatic Club would do it. Who'll take hold?—Collegiate Echoes.

Who Remembers This Incident?

Sensational Affair of 50 Years Ago is Recalled

The following is from the Toronto Globe of February 16th, 1858;—"Some miscreants, for whose apprehension a reward of $3,000 has been offered, recently placed a tie across the rails of the Port Hope and Lindsay Railway, and spiked it down for the purpose of throwing the train off into Cottingham's mill pond, a short distance south of Omemee station. The tie was placed across the rails and spiked down, and was further secured by braces. When the locomotive reached the obstruction the point of the snow plough fortunately entered under it and dashed it aside.

Local G. T. R. Employees Retire After Many Years of Service

Messrs. Geo. Nottingham and Sam McIlroy Receive Notification to Retire—Have Been Gatemen at Simcoe St. Crossing—Will be Pensioned.

In compliance with the rule of the Grand Trunk Railway Company that employees at the age of seventy years must retire from active service and receive their pension, affects two local gentlemen. Mr. George Nottingham and Samuel McIlroy received notification today that they are to retire on the first of March, and will in the future be pensioners of the company. These gentlemen have been gatemen at the Simcoe street crossing, Mr. McIlroy having held that position for the past seven years, and Mr. Nottingham for four years. For fifty-three years, Mr. Nottingham has been a faithful servant of the G.T.R. For several years he was section foreman up until the time of his taking the position of gateman.

Mr. McIlroy has been fifty years in the service of the company. He was the first gateman at Simcoe street, but previous to that was watchman at the old diamond which was situated where the G.T.R. and C.P.R. crossed in East City. About thirty years ago, Mr. McIlroy, while engaged on the old Midland railway had an accident in which he lost one of his arms.

Both gentlemen are old railway employees and have witnessed the growth of the G.T.R. from its infancy. They will be much missed from their post of duty at Simcoe street. They will be replaced by Messrs. Geo. Davidson and F. Reid of this city.

Havelock Carries By-law to Raise Hotel License to $750

Majority in Favor Was 55, the Vote Standing 153 for and 98 Against—Hotel Keepers May Close Their Places of Business.

Special to The Review.

Havelock, Feb. 24.—The high license bylaw to raise the hotel license in town from $250 to $750, was voted on here today and carried by a majority of 98. There were 153 votes polled for and 55 votes against. There was great excitement over the outcome.

The trouble started in December when the hotel keepers asked for a constable that they might have protection. The citizens got up in arms at having to pay out $33 a month for a constable for the hotels. It was then too late to vote on local option but they took another way. They were sorry when they did not vote on local option while several of the surrounding municipalities, including Norwood, Asphodel and Campbellford voted on it and got it.

On January 24, Mr. R. J. Graham, one of the elders of the town, who has helped the village in many a matter during his residence here presented a petition to the council signed by himself and 99 other ratepayers asking to submit a bylaw to the electors to raise the fee for $500 more than the present fee. A bylaw was submitted to a vote of the people today with the above result.

What caused more interest in the matter was the fact that the hotel keepers had demanded a copy of the petition to see whose names were signed on it.

There are three hotels in town, The Armstrong House, the Dineen House, and McNicholl House. The licenses run out on May 1st, and if they wish license for the next year, they must pay $500 additional.

One of the hotel keepers when interviewed, said he would close his house on May 1st.

Application for licenses must be made before April 1st.

The vote on bylaw in sub-divisions was;

The Norwood Convention; Special Train for Returning

The Liberal-Conservative Association of East Peterborough will hold a convention at Norwood tomorrow to select candidates for the forthcoming Dominion and Provincial elections. The largest gathering of Conservatives ever held in the East Riding is assured, as delegates have been appointed according to regulation procedure from every polling sub-division in that part of the county, and the greatest enthusiasm prevails.

The convention is called for one o'clock and a large number of Conservatives from the city will be in attendance, the majority of them going down on the noon train.

In the evening an open meeting will be held, at which the principal speakers will be Hon. Geo. E. Foster, M.P., and Mr. J. P. Downey, M.P.P. Both these gentlemen are brilliant speakers and will be heard by a vast audience.

The annual meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association will be held in connection with the convention, when officers will be elected for the coming year.

A number of good men will allow their names to go before the convention, and there should be no difficulty in selecting two candidates who will be able to carry the Conservative banners to victory.

The Young Conservative Club has succeeded in getting the C.P.R. to put on a coach to leave Norwood at 12 o'clock sharp tomorrow night for Peterborough. This will give all those desirous of going to the great Conservative convention there a chance to hear Messrs. Foster and Downey, and to return the same night. Going down either the 11.16 a.m., or the 7.48 p.m. may be taken.

Vancouver Island to See Stampede This Summer

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 24.—If the news brought last night is true, Vancouver Island will see a stampede this summer unequalled since the Klondike rush. On the beach sands of Wreck Bay at Sydney Inlet, on the west coast, a bank of sand 100 feet high has been found rich in gold.

Walter Myles, an old-time miner of Colorado and Yukon, has had numerous samples essayed. The sands pan out five to fifteen cents to the pan and the yield averages from $43.20 to $104.48 to the ton. Myles staked out eight claims.

"In all my experience in Colorado and Yukon I have never known its equal," said Myles. "Near the beach sands there is a plentiful supply of water and every natural circumstance is favorable to cleaning up gold."

Minister Gives Favorable Reply to the Deputation

Deputations representing eighteen councils of four counties on behalf of the Northumberland-Durham Power's request for the intervening portion of Upper Healey Rapids, visited Ottawa Friday last.

Prominent business men and manufacturers from Belleville, Deseronto, Cobourg, Port Hope, Norwood and Havelock, were present on behalf of the company. The deputation was handled by Messrs. J. A. Culverwell, managing director, Port Hope; T. R. Latt, secretary; and E. C. S. Huycke, KC, of Cobourg, solicitor for the company. The deputation was introduced by Mr. John Finlay, M.P. Norwood; J. B. McColl, M.P. Cobourg, and Col. E. W. Rathbun, MPP Deseronto. Other parliamentarians present were: W. B. Northrup, K.C, MP, Belleville, J. M. Hurley, MP, Belleville, C. L. Owen, MP, East Northumberland, and Col. H. A. Ward, KC, MP. of Port Hope.

The three northern councils afterwards met and passed a vote of thanks to Mr. John Finlay, MP. for the interest displayed in the deputation.

The deputations were received by the Hon. George P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, very favorably, and after the explanations made by the solicitor of the Company, (E. C. S. Huycke, K.C., of Cobourg,) and members of the deputation, the Minister stated that he understood the matter differently than before. He also stated that when the location of the canal works at Healey Falls were completely arranged (the surveys now being completed) and that when the legal matters are decided by the Minister of Justice, that the Northumberland-Durham Power Company would be favorably dealt with and that these matters would soon be settled. The works of the Company must also be subject to the approval of the Department. Deputy Minister Butler was also present.

A law suit began 478 years ago in Berlin, Germany, has just been settled.

Since the theft of the crown jewels at Dublin Castle society functions have been boycotted.

The British naval estimates will show an increase of £5,000,000 over last year, it is said.

Clocks Hands Have Been Still

Something has gone wrong with the northern face of the Post Office clock. The hands have not moved for several days and some people have been considerably annoyed.

It is not known what has caused the standstill but one thing is sure, however, and that is that it was not the Examiner hockey team. They are not vigorous enough to stop even a clock.

OBITUARY

EUGENE BOURGOURD

The death occurred this morning after a lengthy illness of Eugene Bourgourd at his late residence, Park street two doors south of King street. The deceased was 32 years of age. He was highly respected by all who knew him and who will learn with regret of his untimely demise. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing wife who is left to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place at 2.30 o'clock on Thursday to the Little Lake Cemetery.

A newspaper poll in Sheffield shows a majority of over 5,000 women who are opposed to woman suffrage.

Next Saturday, matinee and night at the Grand Manager George W. Kenney will present the clever young Irish singing comedian, Allen Doone, in his new and successful romantic comedy drama, "A Romance in Ireland" a completely equipped scenic production in four acts and eight stage settings. In "A Romance in Ireland," Mr. Doone has a part which suits his peculiar genius to a nicety and affords him unlimited opportunity for the display of his remarkable versatility. His supporting company is said to be on a very high plane, and far superior to the average.

A number of new songs will be rendered by Mr. Doone.

FIVE GAMES IN ONE NIGHT AT BROCK ST. RINK

Bridgenorth Scored Winning Goal in the Second Half

Quakers Defeated by 2-1—At Half Time Both Teams Had Scored One Goal—The Play Was by no Means Ladylike and Referee Rose Gave Out Several Penalties.

Five goals in two consecutive games probably constitute the minimum record at the Brock street rink, and if this be so that record was established last night. After Keene and the Rough Riders had played a tie game 1—1, Bridgenorth stacked up against the Quakers and won out by 2—1. Bridgenorth and the Quakers have been looking for a game for a long while and last night came together for the first time and as will be seen by the score neither team had it on the other by a very wide margin.

Bridgenorth got the first, and Quakers the next making the score at half-time 1—1.

Bridgenorth scored the solitary counter in the last half leaving the final score 2—1.

Kelly made his first appearance in goal for Bridgenorth this season and played a stellar game. On a couple of occasions he made wonderfully good stops, and his work was steady all through. He was given good support by the rest of the defence. Cullen and F. Jopling were the most conspicuous of the visitors' forwards.

Pratt and Long were efective for the losers and Sturdee at point also did nice work at times. Mr. W. Rose was kept pretty busy looking after the game, both teams roughing it considerably, but did impartial and satisfactory work.

Keene and Rough Riders Each Scored One Goal

Locals and Visiting Seven Figure in Interesting Contest—A Hard Fought Match—Final Score Was the Same as Half Time Tally, Neither Team Scoring in Second Half.

In a game that was marked by clean and hard play Keene and the Rough Riders broke even at Brock street rink last night, the score being 1-1. When the two teams met in Keene the result was 6-4 in favor of the Indian river puck chasers, so it will be seen there is not much to choose between the two teams.

The visitors presented a heavier line-up than the locals and played a strong, steady game. The homesters seemed more brilliant and the second half had the puck in Keene territory most of the time but could not score. This was owing largely to the good work of Dickson, who played the star game of the visiting seven at point. He blocked a great many rushes and combination plays and relieved well. McCarthy on the forward line also did good service on the sorts in grey and white, scoring their goal.

L. Giroux played an excellent game in goal for the Rough Riders and distinguished himself by his neat work. Cahill and Porter at point and cover point were always in the game while the forwards Campbell, Hayes, Cockery, Waram and Giroux, (who played right wing in the second half) played fast and steady games.

Mr. Ralph Quinn of the High Lifes handled the bell and his work met with the approval of both teams.

Caretaker Jack Thirnbeck had the ice in good shape and the conditions were ideal from the spectators' stand point, the weather being mild and everyone in attendance saw the game in comfort.

THE GAME.

About three minutes after the puck was faced Waram got the first one 1-0.

Campbell took the notion to jab [illegible] and the referee ordered a three minutes' sojourn beyond the boards.

McCarthy scored for Keene 1-1.

Waram was given a minute's penalty.

Half time score—1-1.

SECOND HALF.

C. Giroux took right wing this half instead of Waram, this arrangement being made before the game commenced.

McCarthy was allowed a minute's breathing space. A little later he was again given the same length of time on the bench. Spiers tripped Porter and was put off for three minutes. McCarthy was chased 2 minutes for tripping. Hayes slashed and had to retire for a minute.

No goals were scored in this half and the full time score ended;

Rough Riders—1.

Defeated Team Picked From Lower Forms B. and C. by 7-3—For Collegiate Championship

A team picked from forms I. and II. of the Collegiate Institute defeated a team picked from Forms Lower B. and C. for the collegiate championship yesterday afternoon from 5 to 6 at the Brock street rink. The score was 7—3, the winners being ahead 5—1 at half time. Allan Campbell, of the Rough Riders gave good satisfaction as referee. Both teams went in hard from the start and the contest was a strenuous one.

Morgan scored the first on a good shot. 1—0. Carry secured the next 2—0. Crane tallied for the lower forms; score 2—1. Gale did the necessary for the upper septette, 3—1. Morgan scored again, 4—1. Just before half time he repeated the trick. 5—1.

Old Maids and the Bachelors

Will Play on Knox Street Rink on Thursday Next—A Novel Contest

The following has been sent into the Review concerning a unique game to be played at Knox street rink;

'An interesting game of hockey will be played on Knox rink, Thursday evening from 7.30 to 8.30, when the Old Maids of the city will play the Bachelors. As neither team are very well used to playing with anything so small as a puck, a football is to be substituted, and to make sure they won't miss the foot ball brooms are to be used for hockey sticks.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE THIS.

Miller and Howell Were Both Good

Both Starred in Recent Game at Berlin

In its recent report of the match at Berlin between the Brantford and Berlin pros. the Brantford Expositor says;

MILLER GOOD

The playing of Miller was of the bright variety and the Peterborough man who handled Dumart had a hard task. He proved all to the good, however, and assisted valuably at times. Crout who took Jack Mark's place played a very useful game. The Stratford youngster was game all through and checked back well, although he had not the same speed as the Pittsburger. Spectators said that it was the best game they had played this winter. Perhaps it was the company.

A GRAND PLAYER

Ted Howell is still a grand player. The science of his checking tactics and the relieving work he did last night could not be excelled. Howell used his hockey brains in great style. He never went out to Berlin but let Berlin come in, and it was very seldom that man and puck both got by the famous "Ted."

Ackerman's Won From Can. Canoe Co.

Defeated Them by One-Sided Score of 12-3

Between six and seven o'clock last evening Ackerman's hockey septette defeated the Canadian Canoe Co. in a rather one sided game, the score being 12-3. A half time the score stood 4-3 in favor of Ackerman's. Mr. F. Gillespie made a satisfactory referee. The teams were as follows;

Ackerman's		Can. Canoe Co.
Daxsee	Goal	B. Sharpe

Band Will be in Attendance

At Big Press Game on Thursday Evening

The Peterborough Band will be in attendance at the big press game at Brock street rink on Thursday evening. This will be good news to the hundreds interested as in addition to providing enjoyment to the spectators the music will inspire the the players to noble deeds of daring and anything else that may be required. Just imagine how Josiah Craig will prick up his ears if the band starts to play, "Hey, Mr. Joshua!"

The bandsmen are giving their services gratuitously on account of the proceeds being given to the Children's Aid Society. Their action is to be highly commended. A fine programme of music will be supplied.

OFFICE BEAT THE TOOL ROOM

The team from the C.G.E. office defeated the tool room septette at Knox rink last night by three goals to two. The half time score was 2—1 in favor of the office men. The game was well contested and the result was always in doubt. The teams were as follows;

Office.		Tool-room.
Killingbeck	Goal.	Stewart
Hughes	Point.	McDonald
Cook	Centre.	Kenneally.
Fitzgerald	Right.	Hall
Armstrong.	Left.	Mulloy

Mr. R. Laing gave satisfaction as referee.

Few Grits Appeared at the Rink

Tories Again Victorious in Annual Curling Match

The annual curling match between the Grits and Tories which was to have been played at Charlotte street rink last night resolved itself almost entirely into a game between Tory rinks. The Grits, the few of them who showed up made a sorry sight. They had recollections of the drubbings received the past two seasons and apparently went to bed or some place where they would not be easily located. Three Tory rinks were on hand ready to play but only one rink of Grits was in evidence but in order to have a game the Tories generously lent their opponents some men and four rinks played, the real Tories win nine out by ten shots.

The rinks were as follows;

HOCKEY

ELIMINATE ROUGH WORK.

The Ottawa Journal sees the faults of rough hockey in its true light and the sentiments in the following paragraph will be re-echoed by every true followers of the game;—"All the dirty work in hockey today is due to individuals who urge their own team on by such gentle remarks as "Chop his head off," "Cut him down," "Get after him," and numerous others not fit to print. These alleged sports should be muzzled, and made behave themselves at games, or else made an example of. They annoy all decent people at the match with their loud bellowing, and if they acted in the same manner on the streets would be taken to the lock-up for creating a disturbance. Why shouldn't the same law be enforced at hockey games.

STRATFORD WON

Midland, Feb. 24—Stratford Juniors came up tonight and sent the Midland Juniors down to defeat to the tune of 10 to 4. In the first half Stratford scored 7 goals, mostly the result of individual rushes. In the last half the Midland boys played a much better game, getting several shots on the Stratford goal, but the goalkeeper, putting up an excellent game, kept the Midland boys from scoring often. Midland, however, scored 4 goals to Stratford's 3, making the score at full time 10 to 4 for Stratford.

The line-up;

Referee—Green Colwell.

MAPLE LEAFS WON

Winnipeg, Man., Feb, 24—In Manitoba Hockey League tonight the Maple Leafs defeated Strathconas by the score of 11 to 8. This win puts the Leafs at the top of the League, and next Wednesday night's game at Portage la Prairie, between the Maple Leafs and Portage will decide the championship. The game this evening was fast and clean. The half-time score ended 3 each. In the second half the Maple Leafs had the best of it.

Considering its size, Keene is certainly a pretty good hockey burg. Some resplendid sevens have represented the rival hamlet and the greatest interest taken in the game by the citizens.

If David Hartley Wins Listen to the Big Noise

The Kansas City Contest Probably the Most Important Athletic Event in Which a Local Man Has Ever Figured.

Athletic events of importance always arouse the greatest enthusiasm in Peterborough and one of the most important events of years as far as this city is concerned is the six day walking contest in Kansas City, Mo., in which the local pedestrian hero David Hartley is a starter. From a citizen who was by no means widely known Hartley sprang into the white light of publicity by his two celebrated walks the first against time from Peterborough to Bailieboro and return and the second when he defeated the veteran Reynolds in a twelve hour walk at the Mutual street rink, Toronto.

The greatest enthusiasm prevailed at the finish of his first walk but when he won out from Reynolds the jubilation of his local admirers was unbounded. Wildly cheering crowds bands, skyrockets, decorations, congratulatory speeches, etc., welcomed the champion on his return. If he wins the mammoth contest now on, Peterborough with all its confusion and noise will resemble San Francisco on a busy day. Of course he hasn't won, and for that matter may not, but every true citizen of Peterborough wishes him the best of luck in his gallant undertaking.

Will the Quakers be Able To Make Trip to the East?

Local Football Team Needs Financial Assistance if it is to Try for the Peoples Shield—Secretary Huston to Write Western Towns Concerning Exhibition Games—Team Met Last Night.

The Quakers met in the Examiner office last night, about ten members of the team being in attendance. The trip to the coast in April to play for the People's Shield was the principal matter considered. If the Quakers compete for the shield they will have to play teams from the following British Columbia towns; Vancouver, Victoria, New Westminster and Naniamo.

Secretary B. T. Huston of the Quakers, will write to western teams along the line of travel in Winnipeg, Calgary, Brandon and other places, with a view of arranging exhibition games with them on the return trip to Peterborough, should enough financial assistance be provided the team to enable them to make the long jaunt after the shield. It is certainly up to the citizens in view of the highly creditable standing of the Quakers to give them all the aid possible. Moral support is all right, but it will take good hard countable cash to make the journey across the prairies.

Association football is one of the games in which Peterborough has yet to win a wide distinction, and the opportunity is now open it for a local aggregation of eleven pigskin punters to show what they are capable of doing. That's of course if the financial end of the matter receives the consideration from the citizens that it deserves. Now is the time to contribute while the question is still young, and as the contributions come in the team will be in a position to know whether or not they will be likely to go after the People's Shield.

THE RING

Burns has deposited £400. Interviewed, he said, "I would like to fight Johnston in England, where the people have been very good to me. We shall see now if he is so anxious to meet me."

Though professional boxing contests are tabooed in Toronto certain section seems to think the reverse to be the case. Two weeks ago a third-rate scrapper, named Young Otto, appeared at one of the local theatres, and his manager talked about his willingness and ability to knock out any aspiring pug. When it came to the match he would only accept the man he wanted, refusing to take a chance. Frank Carroll asked to go on, but was refused on account of an alleged difference in the weight, when Otto was probably the heavier. Then there are the wrestlers with offers of real money and their best is, nine times out of ten, only arrangements with their partners. It is the old subterfuge of palming off exhibitions for the legitimate any way to draw the crowd. Because Matthews and Farns refused to fight at the Star last night, some of the gallery dissented, and they wish it understood that theirs is an exhibition pure and simple but a good one.—Toronto World.

SPORTING COMMENT

The Lindsay Post says: Prof. Edmonds, of Wonderland has generously placed the entire proceeds of his pretty little theatre next Friday night at the disposal of the Lindsay Intermediates and promises an entirely new programme of pictures and illustrated songs.

The Lindsay hockey team needs sympathy as well as money.

Lindsay has been defeated and the Post's rooster ceases to crow. Another unfortunate example of the best team winning.

Suffered 20 Years

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured in 2 Months

St. Raphaels, Ont.

For over twenty years I suffered from Chronic Constipation of the bowels, and I could get no medicine to cure me. I tried doctors and every known purgative, or laxative, medicine known but I was no better. Sometimes, if I did not take medicine, I would go four or five days, without any action of the bowels. During all this time I was weak and suffered from Indigestion constantly.

About a year ago a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives" as they had helped her. I began taking "Fruit-a-tives" and from the outset I began to feel better, and inside of a month the pains were almost gone and the Constipation relieved. In two months I was perfectly well again, no pains, no constipation, and my complexion had lost all that sallow appearance.

(Sgd) MARY A. McDONELL.

"Fruit-a-tives"—or Fruit Liver Tablets—are the only remedy known to science that actually cure Constipation. They do this by making the liver healthy and active—thus causing more bile to flow into the bowels. 152

"Fruit-a-tives" — or "Fruit Liver Tablets" are sold by dealers at 50c a box —6 for $2.50—or will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

THE HIGHER CRITICISM

Higher Criticism is either a good thing or it is not—either desirable or undesirable. At any rate it has become the great issue of the day in theology. Disturbing or otherwise it is too prominent in the thoughts of the world for a paper that pretends to reflect public opinion to ignore it. Our exchanges almost without exception contain letters and editorials upon this most important subject. In the meantime, what are we to do with it? It is being said more and more by clergymen that only the technically proficient are at all qualified to express an opinion upon the correctness or otherwise of criticism high or low.

This makes it a rather awkward matter for us. However, it is probable that we are qualified (more or less) to give our views of the views of others and with this apology we propose to proceed.

Sabatier, Bruce, Driver, Davidson, Welch, Smith and other learned divines agree that as the mind of Man developes he sees or is permitted to see more of God and His holiness. They premise that at the dawn of man's development he could realize but little of God's great purpose and therefore was unable to describe even his own feelings in that regard. Later on when his development had proceeded and when in the fulness of time the sacrifice became necessary, Jesus the divine Son by His atonement, as the word implies, united man with their Father. With the higher critics and their followers the development of man is still proceeding. What it may result in is not yet foreseen. So far, however, it has resulted in a critical attitude towards a book called the Bible out of which by dint of paring and padding they propose to make the real Word of God. They feel themselves inspired by the inward unfolding to them of the Divine purpose, so to do. The lower critics regard all this as presumption, as an extra-biblical attempt to give to the world a true revelation.

It is not, however, a revelation which as a hierarchy they have been expressly bidden to reveal, but one which they conceive of themselves that they are bidden to reveal. This makes Higher Criticism a subtle distinction between Evangelicism on the one hand and Catholicism on the other.

There is no one to say, however, where it should at any time end. The reason of the individual reader, these critics maintain is that reader's final court of appeal necessarily. Yet, as we remarked before, this even does not seem to be permitted by them, since they also maintain that the individual reader may not be qualified. We have then in the last analysis a constituted heirarchy of higher critics who do not agree among themselves and cannot agree farther than to say that their theory is identical in manner of interpreting even if their interpretations prove contradictory. We feel less qualified than ever after thinking it over in this way to express an opinion and therefore we feel bound to let it go without one. We can only trust that something will be done by somebody to settle the unsettled and give us spiritual peace.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The murder of the priest at the altar in Denver, Col., is one of the most cold-blooded of recent tragedies. It is an extraordinary confession of weakness on the part of the police national and local, that they cannot stamp out an organization avowedly murderous. Incapacity of this sort will result in mob rule, as is usual in such cases. Our national leaders must be to blame somewhere.

It is to be regretted that there is no real likelihood of times becoming better. If next summer does not bring excellent crops next winter will be a time of mourning. Why? Because our material to buy with has either gone out of the country, the balance of trade being against us, or is locked up in institutions that are afraid of a run. Unless, however, the government restrains the disposition to send money out of the country no plentitude of crops will do us any good.

It is said that it takes all sorts of people to make a world. If this be true there is no good in kicking. It is the penalty of freedom just as various minor disorders are said to be the penalties of health. Why the Blake Act is not amended and enforced, or at least enforced in the case of foreigners as well as in our own, it is difficult to see. As they say in England 'Nothing will be done until a director is killed." When a tragedy of the first importance is enacted there will be an effort made, no doubt, but in the meantime the slashing goes briskly on.

In the debate on the buying of ties in Minnesota for the National Transcontinental Railway, Mr. Boyce Conservative member for West Algoma, took exception to that proceeding. In their usual quibbling way when in difficulties, and that occurs daily, efforts were made by Mr. Fielding and Mr. Conmee, Liberals, to side-track Mr. Boyce, on a variety of pretences. Mr. Boyce, however, was more than their match. At last, Mr. Conmee admitted, "I regret it very much," were his words, that this objection was well taken. Why could Mr. Fielding not have paid greater courtesy to the amenities of debate and to the patriotic needs of the Dominion? It is a gross scandal that the time of parliament should be taken up with a mere series of quibbles as an apology for a defence.

FROM HANSARD

Mr. Bergeron. Not at all. My right hon. friend knows very well that last year or the year before original documents were brought down from the eDpartment of the Interior, and they were found to have been mutilated. There was a contract entere into by the Dominion of Canadda with a company which never had any existence, and when that contract was submitted to the House the signatures were torn off. And after the refusal of the Government to bring down the original documents today, and after seeing the manner in which their supporters have stood up to uphold that refusal, I am myself convinced that the Government is afraid to bring down this original document. They know what it contains; we don't know; they are afraid to bring it down. Is it not a most extraordinary thing to see a Liberal Government attempting to curtail the liberties aand rights of the people? All the admitted that they are obliged to bring down original documents before a committee of the House; it is done every day. But the committee only has the power to demand these originals by an order of the House of Commons, which is paramount over all committees. My hon. friend from Lanark (Mr. Haggart) has cited the only cases where originals of public documents of official correspondence may not be brought down, but the present case does not come within the purview of the exceptions. Everything bearing on the administration of departments belongs tgo the House of Commons, and the ministers are obliged to submit them to parliament, and they should do so unless there is something that the government wants to hide, as I think there is in this case.

DISORDERS IN A CHURCH

St. John, N.B., Feb. 22.—Because Baptists and Presbyterians cannot agree on doctrine, there is trouble in the United States Baptist Church at Brighton, which has led to destruction of property. The Rev. Mr. Anderson, Presbyterian, has been holding services, which are objected to by the Baptists, who have ordered him to discontinue. Mr. Anderson's friends regret this, and the church has been entered several times and the furnishings destroyed. While prayers were being made a Presbyterian supporter by the name of Rideout, entered and tore down the blinds. He is now on trial, and feeling runs high. Threats have been made to burn the church.

PILES

8 Years Torture Ended by Zam-Buk

Mr. George Lee, 35 Steiner St., Toronto, says: "For 8 years I suffered torture from blind, itching piles. During that time I believe almost everything in the line of ointments and salves was used, but in vain. The very first application of Zam-Buk gave me relief from that terrible itching, and a little perseverance with the balm brought about a complete cure. I have not been troubled again and it is now over six months since Zam-Buk was used. If this statement can be used for the benefit of other sufferers from this trouble, you are at liberty to publish it."

Boston Man's Bride Endowed by Carnegie

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 23.—Miss Annie Wallace, of Atlanta, who was married to Marx Franklin Howland, of Boston, received $100,000 from Andrew Carnegie as a wedding present. Miss Wallace has been in charge of the Carnegie Library ever since it has been established here, and in that position she has been frequently been brought in contact with Mr. Carnegie, who became fond of the young woman.

When Miss Wallace announced her engagement she received a congratulatory letter from Carnegie, which closed with the statement that he would send her a "little remembrance," on her wedding day. The remembrance takes the form of $100,000 of Steel Trust bonds, bearing 6 per cent. interest. These bonds have been deposited with the Home Trust Company, of Hoboken, with instructions that the income of $6,000 is to be paid to the Atlanta girl.

Letters to The Editor

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

ENGLISHMEN'S NIGHT

To the Editor of the Review;

Sir,—Responding to the "Englishmen's Night" at the meeting in the Young Conservative Club on Saturday evening, I am pleased to give a vote of thanks to the members of the club on behalf of the Englishmen that were present on Saturday evening as one of the unemployed myself. I think all due respect and honors were shown to the men in the way in which we were treated, and I can gladly say we spent a very enjoyable evening; it was what I should term a good English smoking concert for there was some good selections and some good songs and some very interesting speeches, and also may say that the men are very pleased, and most thankful for the use of the rooms and games during the day time as it is far better than roaming around the streets on these cold days. So once again I thank the club and its president. Of course we must remember that the old proverb stands good yet, "Unity is strength," and I hope that before long we will have another night together, and still a far better sing song. So thanking you, Mr. Editor, for a space in your valuable paper, I remain, Sir,

A. E. MILLER,
476 Albert St.

GEORGE ST. CONDEMNED

Sir,—I read of the hovels of insanitary conditions in Toronto. Is not George street a slum all the way from Romaine to Charlotte St? Whilst writing, might I ask if the authorities have intentionally erected the death-trap on Lock street.

Yours,

WEDDING BELLS

McCONNELL—DARLING

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday last, at the residence of Mr. John Darling, 4th line of Smith Township, when his sister, Miss Ida Pearl Darling, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Arnott McConnell, of Emily. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of guests, by Rev. Mr. Peckover, of Omemee. The bride, who was given away by her brother, was gowned in a handsome creation of cream crepe de Chine, with the usual beautiful bridal flowers. The bridal couple, during the ceremony stood under a tastefully elaborate arch of evergreens. The duties of bridesmaid were performed by Miss Violet King. The groomsman was Mr. Harold McConnell, brother of the groom. The wedding march was played by Miss Alma Darling, cousin of the bride. The large array of beautiful presents testified to the popularity of the bride in the community, where she has passed her life, winning hosts of friends by her amiability and attractive qualities of character. At the conclusion of the ceremony and after the happy couple had been the subjects of hearty congratulations, an elaborate wedding banquet was served. Mr. and Mrs. McConnell will reside in North Monaghan.

PICTURES ARE APPRECIATED

It affords us no small amount of pleasure to be able to acknowledge the receipt of four photographs from Mr. J. A. Fife, late Science Master in the Peterborough Collegiate Institute and now a member of the staff of the Edmonton High Schools. Although circumstances have thrown more than two thousand miles of Canada between us, we still think of each other, and we greatly appreciate Mr. Fife's interest in the "Echoes," and only regret that through the present state of our finances we are unable to publish the pictures.—Collegiate Echoes.

Lindsay Interested in the Water Frontage Tax By-law

Mayor Begg of Lindsay and Mr. Duncan Ray, secretary of the Board of Water Commissioners, of that town, are in Peterborough today enquiring into the provisions of the water frontage tax bylaw passed at the recent municipal elections. The bylaw it will be remembered imposing a tax on vacant property fronting on a water main.

Lindsay has no bylaw of this kind at the present time, but there is an opinion that it might be advantageous to pass one. The waterworks system at Lindsay is under municipal control and it is the intention of the commissioners to make a number of improvements in the near future. The visit of Mayor Begg and Mr. Ray to Peterborough is in this connection. They were given considerable information by City Clerk Armstrong, W. H. Moore and others.

He Missed the Money But Recovered it Later

A peculiar incident occurred last night in East City. A young man had just received a cheque for $45 from the Trent Canal, and getting it cashed about six o'clock, made a small purchase at a place of business there. He was accompanied by a couple of friends.

After he had made the purchase he put his hand in his pocket and the money was missing. He said that some one present had taken the money. This was denied but a little later one of the men pulled the roll out of his pocket and threw it on the floor. He did it without the owner of the money seeing him, but another man who was present witnessed the act. He called the owner's attention to it, and the latter pocketed the cash.

A Hissed Actor Wants Damages

Amateur Complains of His Reception at Ottawa Theatre

Ottawa Feb. 24.—Mr. Omer Cousineau, of Hull, has sent a letter to the manager of Bennett's Theatre demanding $500 damages for alleged insult. Mr. Cousineau was one of the amateur performers on Friday evening at Bennett's, and states that by order of the management insults and ridicule were heaped upon some of the performers to amuse the audience. Mr. Cousineau says he was one of the sufferers, and claims that because of the ridicule his engagements with other companies have fallen through. He intends to have the suit filed in the High Court if the management of Bennett's does not make adequate reparation.

Mr. Gus Greening, manager of the theatre, said he had heard nothing of Mr. Cousineau's complaint as yet.

"It is true," he said, "that a number of the people in the gallery hissed the performers, but this was by no means at our instigation. All the amateurs were hissed, but I think it was done in fun only. Mr Cousineau has not, I think, ever performed at the theatre before. He was not hissed more than the others."

Will Leave City Before Midnight

Wm. Wallace Who Just Got Out of Gaol Appeared in Court To-day

Wm. Wallace, who was just released from a ten days' sojourn at Castle Nesbitt yesterday, appeared in police court this morning, and pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly last evening. Wallace got into a fight which resulted in his arrest.

"My people live in Pittsburg, and I will go there today if you let me off," said Wallace.

"I think we better take the offer," said the Chief.

"Well you can go, and leave here right away," replied his Worship.

"I will be out of town before 12 o'clock tonight," said Wallace, as he left the court room.

REGINALD CAME BACK.

But He Was Not Worthy of Her Love, She Decided.

"I think," he said, rising as the clock struck 12, "that I had better be going."

Pocahontas Poindexter drew a deep sigh, and there was a wistfulness in her fawnlike eyes that caused him for a moment to hesitate.

Twice within an hour he had started to say something and then checked himself as if fearing to proceed.

"I am sorry," she said in trembling tones, "that time has flown so quickly. It seems as if you had been here only a few minutes."

"Yes," replied Reginald Rutherford, "time always seems to fly when I am with you, but I hope that some time—that some day I—that it will not always be"—

She looked at him eagerly and waited when he paused.

"When I came here this evening," he resumed, "I had something that I—Good night, Miss Poindexter."

"Good night," she said, with a note of sadness in her rich musical tones. "I hope you will not have to wait long for a car."

He turned at the door, and his lips parted as if he had decided to say the words that were struggling for utterance, but he did not speak, and after he had gone Pocahontas sank down on the stairway. She put her hands over her face, and her form shook as if with deep emotion. A moment later she heard him coming back up the steps, and when he knocked gently at the door she flew, with gladness in her heart, to open it.

"I guess," he said, stepping into the hall, "that I've got the wrong umbrella."

Then she slammed the door after him and went to bed, convinced that he was not worthy of her love.—Chicago Record-Herald.

His Favorite Parable.

"My lad," he said, "you have, of course, heard of the parables?"

"Yes, sir," shyly answered the boy, whose mother had inducted him in sacred history; "yes, sir."

"Good!" said the clergyman. "Now, which of them do you like the best of all?"

The boy squirmed, but at last, heeding his mother's frowns, he replied:

"I guess I like that one where somebody loafs and fishes." — Woman's Home Companion.

SHIP'S ROUGH VOYAGE

ADVENTURES AT SEA OF A BRITISH BARK.

Chapter of Accidents — Had Run of Bad Luck—Man Dropped Dead at Wheel—Fought Against Hurricanes —Icebergs Close Alongside — Captain Buried In Storm — Faced Many Perils.

Few ships have experienced such a series of misfortunes as the British bark Annesley, now lying at Ipswich. The story of how this vessel fought her way out to San Francisco in order to obtain a cargo of barley is a sharp reminder of the perils which the sailing-ship must face. It is 30 years and more since they built this stout iron bark — she was at the outset a full-rigged ship—and sent her out to battle with the waves. Since then she has weathered many a storm that threatened to engulf her, but probably never did she have such a run of bad luck as was experienced on her last outward voyage. It is as long ago as April 24, 1906, that the Annesley began the round voyage which she finished a few days back. She sailed from Shields on the date named with a cargo composed of nothing more romantic than coke, fire-bricks, and useful things of that description.

The Precursor of Misfortunes.

She worked her way down the North Sea and through the English Channel, and she had barely got clear of Portland Bill before her troubles began. The mate noticed that one of the crew, an old seaman, was not strictly attending to the wheel. It turned out that the man had taken his last "trick." The old salt presently dropped down on deck, and a little later died, and was buried at sea. The incident proved the precursor of further misfortunes, although for the moment it made, perhaps, no greater difference than that which is always occasioned when one member of the crew falls out, and there is one man less to do the work of the watch. Presently the master, Capt. Culbert, fell sick, to recover, however, before the Equator was crossed. By July the Annesley was well down by Cape Horn, and here her ill-luck entered on a chronic stage. It was the depth of the Austral winter. Week after week the bark fought against hurricane and hailstorm. Icebergs, too, were sighted close alongside. During one of the snow squalls the fore-lower-topsail—one of the stoutest storm-sails in the ship—was lost. The braces by which the yards are hauled round were frozen fast in the blocks. When it was necessary to put the ship about it was found impossible to tack. The frozen fore-braces had to be taken to the capstan, and three mortal hours were occupied in "wearing" the vessel.

Death of the Captain.

For full five weeks the ship was buffeted about in the gales off Cape Horn. At the end of July, when the bark, to use a sailor's expression, was right off the tip of the Horn, the captain died. Next day the dead shipmaster, enshrouded in canvas and weighted with lengths of chain, was consigned to the deep. He was buried in the midst of the storm. The setting constituted a savage and sombre sea scene. The unlucky bark, still trying to beat her way in the teeth of a bitter gale, hail and snow alternately falling, threatening icebergs towering on either hand, the reeling decks of the frozen ship as slippery as glass—it was amid surroundings like these that Capt. Culbert's body was borne over the side. Here, in that stormy sea which of all others the outward-bound mariner dreads, Fate decreed that this sturdy seaman should find his last resting-place.

Repaired at Monte Video.

Finally the mate deemed it prudent to seek a port of refuge. The bark had sustained some damage aloft, and her decks were leaky. So a course was set for the River Plate. At Monte Video she lay for two months while needful repairs were effected, and here a new commander took charge of her in the person of Capt. Ceries. When once again the Annesley put to sea, it was with no intention of making another attempt to round the Horn. It was decided to continue her voyage "east-about," even though it meant sailing two-thirds round the world. Passing the Cape of Good Hope, the Annesley eventually put into Lyttelton, New Zealand, for fresh provisions, and the opportunity was availed of to get rid of some of the clustering marine growths which had attached themselves to her plates. Barnacles and grasses many inches long thickly covered her below the water-line, and naturally rendered her sluggish. Eventually the Annesley reached San Francisco on May 12, 1907, having taken thirteen months to get from Shields to San Francisco. An average passage would have occupied about five months. What wonder that a crew in such circumstances gets not only sick of the ship, but of the sea and all that therein is!

Homeward Bound.

On July 8 the Annesley sailed for home. Everything had then been made shipshape, and her holds were full of barley. This time she was lucky enough to get a fine weather passage. Cape Horn was passed in September, with nothing more than a squall as a reminder of her former experiences in that region, and in the closing days of November the bark was towed up the peaceful Orwell to the quaint old port of Ipswich, after a voyage of more than 18 months' duration. Her crew, needless to say, were delighted to find themselves in England once more, with a good pay-day before them. Over the fire these sailormen can talk of nothing else but this last disastrous experience of theirs. But the chances are that these very men will soon be sailing once again towards the same stormy latitudes. Nowadays to the seaman, as distinguished from the steamship deckhand, a deep-water voyage practically means Cape Horn or nothing.

Very Sympathetic.

The manager of a shop in Lewes stood in the doorway the other day when a man with a wooden leg and a crutch came along and said:

"I want you to do me a favor. I want to leave my leg with you for a few minutes and go around to the next street and work a house for half a crown. I've an idea that the folks are very sympathetic. If I go with one leg I am sure of it."

"Very well," said the shopkeeper. "Just leave your leg here, and I'll take care of it."

The wooden substitute was unstrapped and handed over, and the cripple used the crutch to help himself down the alley.

Five minutes later he rang the doorbell of a house in the next street, to have it opened by the man he had just seen.

"Wh-wh-what!" he gasped.

"Very sympathetic family lives here," quietly replied the other. "You seem to have met with a sad loss, and I'm anxious to help you. Here is a wooden leg which may fit you."

The leg was handed over. The man sat down on the steps and strapped it on, and as he got up and stumped through the gate he said to himself:

"I've heard of coincidences since I was a youngster, but this is the first one that ever hit me with both feet at once."—London Answers.

NOTES ABOUT PRESS GAME

The public will get a big ten cents' worth at the Brock street rink next Thursday evening. From 8 to 9 o'clock the Review and Examiner teams will be engaged in deadly combat and afterwards there will be an hour's skating. The admission is only ten cents and the proceeds will be handed over to the Children's Aid Society. It should be distinctly understood that the great press game is not going to be turned into a fruit social, although it will be impossible for the Review to prevent Josiah Craig and the six other lemons from the Grit gooseberry from going on the ice. As Josiah is easily excited, the public is asked to leave their lemon squeezers at home.

It is learned that a newspaper hockey league is likely to be formed in this district, the component teams to be the Examiner, Millbrook Reporter, Lakefield News, Bobcaygeon Independent and Norwood Register. Josiah Craig's outfit would have little chance in such company, but they are to be commended for the fine spirit of sportsmanship shown.

The Review would humbly suggest that all persons having grievances against each other should settle their disputes on the ice in the orthodox way, like the Review and Examiner are doing.

Long Primer Robinson, of the Examiner team, should remember the words of the poet. "We live in deeds, not length."

If any one desires to have an illustrated song about the press game we give them the tip that Harry Burdidge can supply the slides.

This joke has been patented and cannot be used elsewhere.

There is an unfounded report that Thomas Begley has a warm spot in his heart for the Examiner team on account of his Irish extraction and consequent love for the green.

The Examiner team will practice tonight between six and seven o'clock. Those who like good burlesque should not miss this treat.

At half time James Dough Clark will give an interesting lecture on "The relation existing between the ice and my nose, and where has the skin game."

If Josiah Craig lies down in the nets the Review spearmen are likely to prod him gently.

Beef Tea Huston has been taking a correspondence school course in hockey, and has arrived at the conclusion that the team scoring the largest number of goals usually wins.

Harry Theobald will have his little banjo out and will play that touching little selection, "What are the Wild Maids Saying?"

Sporting Comment

A short time ago in these columns it was predicted that Midland would defeat Lindsay, and by so doing arouse the ire of the great advocate of Scugog sport —the Lindsay Post. However, the prediction came out all right although the Review claims no medal for making the right guess.

The Strathcona-Norwood game on Wednesday is the chief topic in local sporting circles at present. This season has provided the fastest hockey ever witnessed in the city league and Norwood and the Straths have proved themselves the fastest teams in this league. There should be something doing when the two meet.

The scrub games of a couple of years ago used to be looked upon as a joke, as big a joke in fact as the Examiner-Review annual set-to. But this winter many of them have been fast and interesting and many players figuring in the games should develop into first-class men.

These two cities produce the finest dress fabrics in the world, each manufacturing a distinct and separate style of cloth.

The main pattern feature for Spring and Summer '08, is the beautiful stripe effect. Never before has there been such pronounced tendency to any one pattern. There are also a great many plain clothes shown, such as Panamas, Voiles, Eolinnes, Armures, Cord de Soie, etc., in shades of Brown, Tan, Blue, Green and Grey. We also show some very nice light tweed effects for the Summer costume.

They are made with folds, designs and silk trimming, in Chiffon, Panamas, Voiles, fine Serges and Venetians. All the newest styles of cut and trim are found here prices from $8 to $17

GRACEFUL CORSETING

D. and A., the embodiment of grace and beauty, with pliancy and comfort a strong feature. The pose of the figure has a great deal to do with the appearance of a costume. The D. and A. Corsets are the result of art genius and skill, they will embellish and beautify the wearer—give comfort and style alike. D. and A. Corsets are made in Canada and are the celebrated Corsets of form. All prices from .50 to 4.00

Premier Reviews Record of Conservatives While in Power

Premier Whitney Shows Splendid Record of Work Done.

All Closed Up But Law Reform—Makes Campaign Close to Debate on Address — Leaders Hold Floor and Outlines Policies—Mr. MacKay Says Followers Have Not Deserted Him.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—"What have we done?" enquired Mr. Whitney, in closing the debate in the Legislature yesterday with the air of a man reading with an answer.

When he had occupied the office of Attorney-General for the first four months of the present Parliament he had acted as a policeman and closed the pool rooms. That was a milestone.

The Government had cut off from the statute book the act which authorized it and there would be no numbered ballot in future.

They had appropriated large sums and reorganized the university.

They had dealt with the public schools and the County Councils Act.

They had showed that the license law could be enforced, and what was of more importance, that it would be enforced as long as the Government was in office.

They had almost completed the T. & N. O. Railway.

They had, through the Provincial Treasurer, managed to sell $3,000,000 of railway bonds to the people of the province, bankers, farmers and business men, at par, without a dollar of expenditure, except $2,000 for advertising, and, if the hon. members would not take it amiss, without any $25,000 commission.

Law reform was the only question left which the Opposition to the late Government had indicated they wanted to legislate upon. Every other question had been disposed of. There would be no law reform bill this session, however, as it was not desirable to hurry in such a matter, and the resolutions would have to be thoroughly discussed.

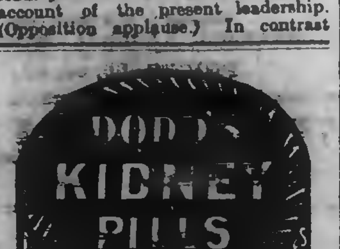
MacKay Was Subdued.

Hon. A. G. MacKay closed the debate for the Opposition in a very able speech, subdued in tone and almost diffident in manner, becoming to his position in the first official effort as leader of his party. Those who had not heard him previously might have left disappointed, but his followers took courage behind the quiet confidence and masterly grasp that Mr. MacKay exhibited in handling a situation which by common consent is one of the most difficult a public man was ever called upon to assume.

He noted the desire of the Opposition not to make political speeches, but, as Mr. Harcourt had done, suggestive speeches, taking up important topics like that of technical education. The speeches of the Government members had been on a pretty high level, but he resented the suggestion that he had not a united party behind him. That statement was not in accordance with the facts.

Holding His Own.

In reply to the taunt that his party was leaving him, Mr. MacKay first pointed out that the retiring members in West Kent, East Huron and South Brant had announced their intention before he was selected as leader, and not one was leaving on account of the present leadership. (Opposition applause.) In contrast to the narrow spirit of such a view, he owed it to the press of the province to say that they had treated him fairly and decently and handsomely as any public man could expect.



With respect to the expected surplus of $500,000, announced by Mr. Donovan, he pointed out that the estimated excess of receipts in last year's budget was $1,093,156. Moreover, when the historic channels were considered, through which the revenue flowed, and the debates remembered in which those channels were dug, the Liberal party might congratulate themselves upon any surplus that might accrue.

In the three acts passed by the Liberal party, the Succession Duties Act, the Supplemental Revenue Act and the Brewers' and Distillers' Act, they had the origin of $9,000,000 of revenue, and if scarcely a matter of congratulation from the party standpoint, the province would appreciate the fact that during the year $875,000 flowed in revenue as a result of the Liberal policy.

Mr. MacKay expressed regret that a comprehensive scheme of law reform would not be brough down this session, but Premier Whitney objected to the inference he drew from the clause in the Government resolutions respecting communications to be had with the Imperial and Dominion Governments.

For Model Schools.

Mr. MacKay attacked the policy of abolishing the model schools. Those pupils who went there first were better fit for attendance at the normal schools afterwards. He was in the judgment of the best professional opinion in saying that as good teachers would not be produced as under the old system. They did not want more subjects taught in the schools, but more accuracy, more thoroughness, and completeness of knowledge in those elementary subjects which were taught as far as the average child goes at school.

He knew that double time was given to algebra, geometry, chemistry, physics, because the certificate of the master was not accepted in these subjects as it was in the others. He pleaded for the incoming generation, and 90 per cent. of the pupils of the province, who would have more moral stamina and backbone with stricter training. The farmers' sons and daughters were not getting as full an education in their opinion as if they came and lived in town.

"Hear, hear; hear, hear," said the Premier.

Against Three-Fifths Clause.

With regard to the three-fifths clause, the divisions in the House and the record of the yeas and nays would show where the parties stood. With the Liberals majority rule was a principle. It was absurd to say that on one day up to 5 o'clock 60 per cent. was necessary to carry a bylaw, and that next day 41 per cent. could sustain it.

With regard to the electric power policy, he observed that not a single municipality had completed the contract which had been voted for last January. This raised the question as to whether the bylaw would again have to be referred to the people with a new schedule of prices. He wondered where the hydro-electric commission was at with regard to carrying out the bylaws.

Premier In Reply.

Premier Whitney began by characterizing the debate as the most peculiar of all he had heard in the House. He devoted six minutes to the graceful amenities usual to such an occasion. He joined with cordial appreciation of the performances of hon. gentlemen opposite, and others in their references to those who had gone from among them and whose faces they would see no more.

The hon. member for Monck (Mr. Harcourt) who was the father of the House, with Hon. Dr. Willoughby and himself, were the only three members now left who had sat in the House when he first entered it. He was not finding fault with the Opposition, but in twenty years' experience he had never known such procedure in a debate. Hon. gentlemen opposite had dealt with a number of subjects after the manner of a public debate. But the only attitude of an Opposition should be one of criticism. It was very creditable to the Government, of course, but attacks were to be made on the Government.

Premier Whitney showed that the big gun resolution of the Liberal convention of 1904 spoke only of timber limits north of the height of land. When they had gone up near James Bay and found themselves up to the neck in water the old Government were willing to throw these limits open to competition. It was only a sub-target convention after all. The argument that a mill at Ottawa was less beneficial to the immigrants of Northern Ontario than one at Pembroke, in the County of Renfrew, was hardly worthy of Mr. MacKay's acuteness.

Premier Whitney quoted The Globe May 2, 1906, to show that on the minimum salary question for rural teachers the Opposition desired plain figures, and he confuted Mr. MacKay's argument as to the effect of high school certificates by reading the resolution of the Dominion Educational Association last July, approving the admission of students by certificate. If there was any one thing that should be stamped out without delay or mercy it was the system of examination after examination which had done an infinity of harm to scholars.

Not Closing the Schools.

No distinct charge had been made by Mr. MacKay regarding model schools. He said it was all wrong to close them.

"Well, we are not going to do it, and the hon. gentleman is merely beating the air," said the Premier. They had erected four new Normal schools and no objection had been made. The students were able there to obtain a permanent certificate lasting for life and without fee. They forgot the appropriation to be made for urban schools, which would bring the expenditure on education close to $2,000,000. They had not stolen any limits to do this. It was all done out of honest revenue, and there was more left than they needed.

The increased grants for agricultural purposes were the subject of Mr. Whitney's sole comment on this head. The expenditure had risen from $415,000 in 1904 to $589,000 in 1907.

Critical Stage In Entente.

London, Feb. 26.—Lord Fitzmaurice, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, was asked in the House of Lords yesterday for information regarding the Macedonian reforms and the effect of the Austrian project for the construction of a branch railroad line through Turkish territory, to connect Vienna with Saloniki.

In reply. Lord Fitzmaurice said he regretted that he had no cheerful news to impart.

A very critical stage had been reached, he said, in both the local affairs of Macedonia and in the diplomatic entente known as the concert of Europe.

Italian Crime In Montreal.

Montreal, Feb. 26.—Antonio Ardasco, banker and employer of labor, who was once actually crowned king of the Italians in Montreal, and who has himself been twice stabbed almost to death, advises the lash and imprisonment for carrying weapons, three months' imprisonment for the first offence and increasing it up to five years.

The Italian consul-general suggests the employment of Italian detectives to cope with the lawlessness among that class here.

Whither Are We Drifting?

London, Feb. 26.—(C. A. P.)—The Freeman's Journal points out that English writers feel Canada is drifting away. There are signs of movements started from London to re-Anglicize the Dominion. The Journal satirizes one writer's declaration that nothing is wanted to establish in Canada a British nobility and democracy, but leaders inspired by the faith of their fathers, and adds that Canada now does not give much hope to the wandering Celt.

JURY TOSSED TO DECIDE.

Judge Fined Them Each $50 For Contempt of Court.

New York, Feb. 26.—Justice Guy in the New York Supreme Court set aside the verdict of a jury yesterday and fined twelve jurymen $50 each for deciding the verdict by the flip of a coin. The case was a suit brought against the New York City Railway Co. for damages in causing the death of a child.

The jury brought in a verdict in favor of the railway company. The evidence in the case seemed to Justice Guy to be so much apart from the verdict that he asked the foreman of the jury how such a verdict had been arrived at. The foreman told the justice that they had agreed on their finding by the toss of a coin. The justice then said to the jurors that they had violated their oaths and committed contempt of court. He imposed the fine and ordered their names stricken from the jury list.

One of the jurymen, explaining the verdict, said that the jury was hopelessly divided, and that one of its members had $6,000 in his pocket to close a business deal and was anxious to attend to his business.

A News Agent's Protest.

London, Feb. 26.—The Times, replying to the editor of The Canadian Bookseller, who commented on a letter from a news agent, who complained because British publishers send their publications to Canadian subscribers direct, says that every measure for cheapening production and delivery must create hardship for some one, and that the news agent's argument is akin to that of operators who protested against the introduction of machinery.

Is 105 Years Old.

Quebec, Feb. 26.—One hundred and five years old and still enjoying good health, Mme. Emilie Voisine, widow of the late Antoine Tremblay, one of the pioneers of the parish of Hebertville, Lake St. John district, may with all likelihood lay claim to being the oldest woman in the Province of Quebec. She was born at St. Denis, County of Kamouraska, in June, 1803.

A reciprocal demurrage will be provided for a Government railway bill to be presented shortly.

This woman says she was saved from an operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Frank Emsley, Lindsay, Ontario, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"When I wrote to you some time ago, I was a very sick woman suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the feminine organs and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do.

"A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

TROUBLE IN PORTUGAL

Boy King In the Hands of His Father's Foes.

Portuguese Leaders Are Discredited Politicians—Throne Is Imperilled—Country Under a Republic Would Be as Unstable as Central American States—Political Struggle Is Predicted—Knell of Monarchy.

Lisbon, Feb. 26.—Whether or not a republic is soon to supplant the monarchy in Portugal, it is practically the unanimous opinion here that the near future will witness a violent political struggle, in which the life of the monarchy may be at stake. The comparative tranquility since the assassination is simply a breathing spell. The masses of the people in the country are ignorant and have hitherto been entirely indifferent to the political battles which have convulsed the capital. Lisbon, for political purposes, is Portugal, and the Republicans are confident that the influence of the capital, which they assert is most unanimously Republican, will sound the knell of the monarchy.

Disinterested opinion, however, does not consider Portugal ripe for a republic. It believes, in fact, that the country, under a popular regime in the present backward state of the masses would become a prey to the ambitions of politicians, and, like the Central American republics, would be without stability, and probably witness a series of popular uprisings and dictatorships. Nevertheless the fear exists in these quarters that the monarchy is doomed.

The young King, Manuel, has yielded to the enemies of his father and Franco. They have persuaded him to sponge out the dictatorship and to begin as a strictly legislative sovereign, but above all to place himself in their hands. Under the present circumstances the course of the King is most dangerous, as he had turned the throne over to the leaders of the two discredited old parties — men whose past prevents them from meeting their adversaries in the open field of political discussion, and who the people will insist must be disciplined.

Three Perished In Flames.

Brainard, Minn., Feb. 26.—Despatches to the Minneapolis and International Railroad offices bring news that three persons, a servant girl, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Owens, and a brother of Mrs. Owens, perished Monday night in a fire in a store building at Briers, a town near here. Mr. and Mrs. Owens were badly burned.

Marconi Hopeful.

London, Feb. 26.—Signor Marconi, in the course of a lengthy address to the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce on "Telegraphy Through Space and Some of Its Commercial Applications," said in about four months, when the latest apparatus was installed, they would be able to deal with at least 20,000 words a day.

Laredo, Texas, Feb. 26.—Thirty persons are reported to have been injured in the derailment of an excursion train carrying a number of nothern tourists at Orville, twelve miles north of Laredo. Several cars were thrown from the track and piled up in a ditch.

News of the Dominion House; Land for the Volunteers

Resolution Passed by the House of Commons Yesterday.

Proposals to Extend Grants to Veterans and Nurses—Opposition Is Generous—Laurier Hints at Pensions—Members Urge That All Provinces Should Be Treated Alike—No Discrimination.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—It is not often that the Opposition in the Commons has to find fault with the Government on the score of parsimony, but that was the ground of complaint yesterday.

The resolution granting 320 acres of land to every volunteer from Manitoba and the Northwest who served in South Africa was taken up early in the afternoon and debated until late at night. The Opposition took the stand that the grant should be made general to South African volunteers from all parts of Canada. They pointed out that the limitation proposed in the resolution would create an invidious discrimination against volunteers from other parts of the country, but as the rules forbid an amendment the protest had to be confined to criticism and reproof. In the course of the debate the Prime Minister used words capable of the construction that a pension for South African volunteers was within the possibilities.

Veteran Land Grants.

The House took up consideration of the resolution awarding the land grants of 320 acres each to volunteers of Manitoba and the Territories who served in the South African war.

Mr. Bergeron made a stout plea to have the grant made to volunteers from all provinces.

Mr. Oliver said the resolution was founded upon a motion by Col. Hughes which the House passed last session.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier agreed with Mr. Bergeron that there should be no discrimination. But inasmuch as the provinces of British Columbia and Ontario had already granted land to veterans resident in those provinces, it would be making a double grant in some cases.

Col. Sam Hughes pointed out that when he first introduced his resolution the Prime Minister declared the grant could not be made as it had not then been decided whether the lands in the Northwest could be given to the new provinces or retained by the Dominion. Finally it was decided that the Dominion should retain control. Then, however, the Prime Minister raised the objection to a general grant that two of the provinces had already provided their volunteers with land, and it was to meet this objection that he introduced his resolution of last year, confining the grant of Dominion lands to South African volunteers from Manitoba and the old territories.

"That resolution carried," said Col. Hughes, "but I knew then that the Prime Minister's sense of justice would correct that discrimination and lead to the grant being made general. Indeed, I can assure him that he'll have a veritable hornet's nest about his ears unless he does justice in this matter."

R. L. Borden pointed out that it was not at all incumbent upon the Government to regard itself bound by the resolution of last session in the matter of limiting the grant to volunteers from Manitoba and the new provinces. Three or four years ago, he pointed out, the House unanimously passed a resolution declaring that the manufacture and sale of cigarettes should be prohibited.

"Not unanimously," Sir Wilfrid corrected.

"Well, not exactly unanimous," replied Mr. Borden, "but the minority was very small, and the right hon. gentleman knows minorities have no rights in this House." (Laughter.)

However, the resolution passed and yet no bill had been introduced, said Mr. Borden, adding that a resolution had been passed unanimously declaring that only goods entering by Canadian ports should be entitled to the British preference, yet the Government announced that there would be no legislation on those lines for years to come. The proper course for the Government to pursue was to treat all men alike. The resolution before the House could not be amended by a private member, but certainly in its present form it was unjust and inequitable. Had the grant been made immediately after the war, as it should have been, there would have been no excuse to-day of provincial grants.

Sir Frederick Borden said that this was a question of rewarding men for their services. These lands were in the west and the Government was bound to recognize the opinions of the western Governments. The Ministers and Assemblies of the western provinces had asked that rewards of western lands be given to the western men. That was the mandate on which the Government had acted.

"Does the Minister of Militia not think that when the Government is rewarding South African volunteers it should reward all alike," asked Dr. Sproule.

"Yes, when, as far as possible," Sir Frederick replied. He went on to say that other provinces might follow the example of Ontario. Quebec and New Brunswick had plenty of land and could provide any reward they chose. It is a matter of fact that the volunteers had been well treated by Canada.

Invidious Discrimination.

R. L. Borden pointed out that the western lands were as much in the control of the Dominion as any dollar in the treasury. "When the new provinces were being formed I protested against it," said Mr. Borden, "but I protested in vain." But even the argument that the Government could not alienate those lands was no excuse for discrimination in this case. "The Government had other ways of compensating the veterans from other provinces, and so avoid this invidious discrimination."

Sir Wilfrid said he had thought Col. Hughes' resolution of last session was worded as it was meant, but that hon. member, it now appeared, had something in the back of his head at the time that he intended to bring out later. Mr. Lefurgey interrupted to observe that he himself had last session asked that the land grant be extended to veterans all over the Dominion.

"And couldn't persuade one member on his own side to join him," replied the Prime Minister. "He was like the last rose of summer, left blooming alone."

The Government, he went on to say, had acted on the recommendation of Col. Hughes, but no sooner had they done so than he wanted the whole Dominion included. The Government had accepted Col. Hughes' resolution because there was some sense in it, the principle of it being that the volunteers of the west were entitled to land grants, but the western provinces had no lands to give.

In the case of a pension, it might be given to all the South African veterans in the Dominion. "If we are to give a monetary compensation," said Sir Wilfrid, "that must be debated on its merits, but as to land grants, they must come from the provinces.

In the course of the further discussion, Mr. Monk suggested that the Fenian Raid veterans should be given land grants, and Mr. Galliher proposed similar recognition for the Nile voyageurs with whom, by the way, he himself served in Egypt and Soudan.

Mr. Herron of Alberta urged that the grant to volunteers in the Northwest be given to the heirs of volunteers who had lost their lives in South Africa, or had died since their return. The resolution was finally reported, the bill founded upon it, and read a first time.

Attacked Public Ownership.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—In the Senate yesterday Hon. James McMullen moved a resolution declaring that public ownership would not be in the interest of the Dominion.

Senator Cloran opposed the resolution, pointing out that private ownership of public utilities resulted in monopoly and exorbitant charges. Senator Cloran predicted a popular rising against improperly accrued wealth in the United States, and asked that care be taken not to reproduce a similar condition in Canada.

Senator Cloran has given notice of a resolution deploring the recent increase of murderous crime in Montreal and other parts of Canada, caused by an undesirable foreign element.

BRITISH DIPLOMACY

By "Chic"

Has diplomacy benefited Canada? Has England considered the interests of Canada in her diplomatic relations with the United States? Let us see! Allow me to review the ill-advised action of English diplomats Ever since the Treaty of Paris in 1782, the arrogance of the American representatives and the gullible innocence of the representatives of Great Britain has been one of the predominating features of all arbitration proceedings in which Canada has suffered every time. During the negotiations of the Peace of Paris, the diplomats of the United States wanted everything and gave nothing. Clause III gives to the citizens of U. S., the right to fish in Canadian waters just the same as if they were British subjects. Nowhere in the Treaty has the same right been given to citizens of Canada—and this has always been refused—and through out the negotiations with the United States representation, Messrs. Franklin, Jay and John Adams, Mr. Richard Oswald certainly did not show that he was the man to do justice to Canada, and the Empire, Lord Shelburne, who was then in power, appointed Mr. Oswald, at the suggestion of Dr. Franklin, one of the American representatives. An eminent American diplomat speaks of his appointment as follows;

"The individual picked upon by the United States was a respectable and amiable gentleman, nominated at the suggestion of Dr. Franklin, with whom he was to treat, because he thought he would get along easily with him; but by no means a match for a combination of three such men as Franklin, Jay and Adams."

Dr. Franklin gave Mr. Oswald, what is now known as the 'Canada paper" and had the effrontery to propose that Great Britain should "Voluntary Cede" the whole of Canada and United States and Nova Scotia to the United States. This 'paper" Mr. Oswald had the weakness to endorse and said that he would urge upon Shelburne the necessity of acquiescing in this proposals made by Franklin. It was not until the 10th of June that Mr. Fox, secretary of Foreign affairs for Great Britain, heard of this remarkable suggestion, Shelburne having withheld the knowledge of the contents of the 'Canada papers" His colleagues were furious when they found out the existence of such important documents. At that time Canada was Great Britain's largest and most important territorial possession. Mr. Oswald described it contemptuously as the "back lands of Canada," "A country worth nothing and of no importance." Six years prior to this this portion of Canada was described by the U.S. representatives as "The triangular track of land between the Mississippi, the Ohio and Lake Erie is the finest spot of earth on the globe, swelling with moderate hills, but no mountains; watered by the finest rivers and of the most delightful climate; the soil, as appears from the woods, with which it is clothed, is of the most abundant fruitfulness and vegetation. It abounds with coal; and there are multitudes of salt springs in all parts of it. There are mines of iron, copper and lead. Wild rye grows there spontaneously." Had this part of Canada been retained by Great Britain, her combined possessions in North America would have been 4,160,574 square miles. This country, which Lord Shelburne and his colleagues then in power, was so ready to give away for the asking, has an area of 476,000 square miles, and contains a population of 26,000,000 of people. Mr. Oswald's opinion, which by the way, was valueless, as he had never been over any part of Canada was "that in his opinion, Canada should be given up to the United States, as it would prevent occasions of future differences and as the government of such a country was worth nothing, and of no importance, and that he was not without hopes it would be agreed to." Dr. Franklin and Congress, for they recognized the position intelligently —as one which would render the situation towards the thirteen colonies, as 'truly hazardous if Great Britain retained it. (The lands, as you know, continues Dr. Franklin to Congress, are infinitely better than those on the coast; they have an open communication with the sea by the River St. Lawrence and the Mississippi and with each other by those extensive inland seas with which America abounds. They will be settled with the utmost rapidity from Europe, but more particularly from those States, for the fertility of their soil will 'Invite numbers to leave us," while Mr. Oswald was doing his utmost to give away this great territory, the Government of France and of Spain, were hostile to the extension of the United States boundaries through Canadian territory to the Mississippi and to their claims to the Canadian fisheries.

The French foreign minister openly argued against the American commissioners in favor of England and in out positively declared that the demands of the Americans were unreasonable and that France would not continue the war for American objects. France even sent her minister for foreign affairs, M. de. Vergennes, to London to protest against the willingness of Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan to give away this vast and arable territory to the Americans. He persistently urged the government of Great Britain to caucus in a concert of measures for the purpose of shutting out the Americans for the possession of this territory from the Mississippi—because it could only be accomplished with the approval and aid of Great Britain. M. D. Rayneval also wrote to the American commissioners; "It is clearly evident that the Court of London, when it was as yet sovereign of the Thirteen Colonies, did not consider the vast territories situated eastward of the Mississippi as forming part of these same colonies." About this period in the negotiations the Congress of the Thirteen Colonies instructed their commissioners secretly that "Although it is of the greatest importance to the peace and commerce of the United States that Canada and Nova Scotia should be ceded, and more particularly that the equal common right of the United States to the fisheries should be guaranteed to them, yet a desire terminating the war has induced us not to make the acquisition of these objects an ultimatum on the present occasion."

You will see from this the persistent willingness of the representatives of Great Britain to give away, and the arrogate indifference to the instructions of Congress and to the protests of the government of France and of Spain, by the trio, Franklin, Jay and Adams, were the means of robbing Canada of nearly a half million square miles of territory — The American trio knew the men they were dealing with better than Congress, or France and Spain or even Lord Shelburne himself, and knew very well that if they only persisted they would gain all they were contending for, but more—the American commissioners were fully aware, before the negotiations commenced with Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan, that Congress had modified and practically limited its ultimatum to the independence of United States and the validity of the treaties with France. But not being as simple minded as Mr. Oswald or Mr. Vaughan, they did not reciprocate the blundering indiscretion of these gentlemen by disclosing to them the secret and confidential instructions of Congress respecting the desired treaty with Great Britain. Congress knew that it was on its last legs. "No money to maintain the army," who were importunate in their demand for the arrears of pay due them. The Secretary of State wrote to Dr. Franklin, "Never was there a time when money was more necessary. The total abolition of paper money, the length of the war, the arrears of debts and this slender thread by which the public credit hangs, put it totally out of our power to make any great exertions without the immediate supply of money." The Congress was ready to withdraw, but not so, Dr. Franklin." He persisted and he won. There were two men in Lord Shelburne's cabinet, who were very bitter against Oswald and Vaughan, and demanded their recall and declared that they were only two additional American commissioners. Mr. Jay, with the ready assent of Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan drew up a draft treaty and the latter sent it to London as 'a true copy of what has been agreed on between the commissioners of the United States and Great Britain. It provided for:

1. The independence of United States.
2. The cessation of nearly the whole of Canada, including what are now the best settled parts of Ontario with thousands of British Loyalists.
3. The cessation of the Canadian fisheries.
4. The free navigation of the River Mississippi —but without any means of entrance on exit for her ships.

Compensation for the Loyalists, reversal of confiscations, and payment of American debts to British merchants were refused and thereupon abandoned by the commission. These latter, Lord Shelburne insisted upon should be supported by the French government but it was no use. Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan pressed the treaty to a conclusion and approved of the clause, rejected and did not leave one foot of territory where a Loyalist could find a refuge from political persecution or a home for their families. The severity of the treatment by the United States of the Loyalists, whose only crime was their fidelity to the lost cause of Great Britain was extreme. It was not until Mr. Jay's draft treaty was before the British government that Lord Shelburne and his colleagues woke up and began to realize their position, through lack of efficient supervision in allowing the colonial and territorial interests of Great Britain in Canada to fall into the hands of the American government.

JUDGE SCORES B.C.

No Shadow of Constitutional Doubt as Regards Natal Act.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 26.—Something of a sensation was occasioned yesterday by the outspoken manner in which Justice Clement arraigned the Provincial Government for disloyalty, treason and unCanadianism in connection with the recently enacted Natal Act, directed at the exclusion of Japanese.

The unusual comment was embodied in his lordship's judgment in the full court, dismissing an appeal from the chief justice's decision that the act is ultra vires of the Legislature. Justices Irving and Morrison concurring with Justice Clement. After sketching the relative jurisdictions of Dominion and province, Justice Clement said:

"No doubt honest differences may exist as to where the line is drawn by the B.N.A. Act, or as to which side of the line a particular matter may fall upon, but to suggest doubt where no real doubt exists, and particularly as to matters apt to inflame, is not to be commended. Such a matter we have here. This matter of Japanese immigration has been dealt with properly, that is to say, constitutionally, by the Parliament of Canada, and I must say it smacks strongly of disloyalty to our settled form of Government, when the authorities of one province undertake to override and render abortive the will of the people of Canada."

The dead priest was stabbed previously in Paterson, N.J., and it is believed that he may have incurred the enmity of the anarchists there.

News of the Dominion House; Land for the Volunteers

Resolution Passed by the House of Commons Yesterday.

Proposals to Extend Grants to Veterans and Nurses—Opposition Is Generous—Laurier Hints at Pensions—Members Urge That All Provinces Should Be Treated Alike—No Discrimination.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—It is not often that the Opposition in the Commons has to find fault with the Government on the score of parsimony, but that was the ground of complaint yesterday.

The resolution granting 320 acres of land to every volunteer from Manitoba and the Northwest who served in South Africa was taken up early in the afternoon and debated until late at night. The Opposition took the stand that the grant should be made general to South African volunteers from all parts of Canada. They pointed out that the limitation proposed in the resolution would create an invidious discrimination against volunteers from other parts of the country, but as the rules forbid an amendment the protest had to be confined to criticism and reproof. In the course of the debate the Prime Minister used words capable of the construction that a pension for South African volunteers was within the possibilities.

Veteran Land Grants.

The House took up consideration of the resolution awarding the land grants of 320 acres each to volunteers of Manitoba and the Territories who served in the South African war.

Mr. Bergeron made a stout plea to have the grant made to volunteers from all provinces.

Mr. Oliver said the resolution was founded upon a motion by Col. Hughes which the House passed last session.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier agreed with Mr. Bergeron that there should be no discrimination. But inasmuch as the provinces of British Columbia and Ontario had already granted land to veterans resident in those provinces, it would be making a double grant in some cases.

Col. Sam Hughes pointed out that when he first introduced his resolution the Prime Minister declared the grant could not be made as it had not then been decided whether the lands in the Northwest could be given to the new provinces or retained by the Dominion. Finally it was decided that the Dominion should retain control. Then, however, the Prime Minister raised the objection to a general grant that two of the provinces had already provided their volunteers with land, and it was to meet this objection that he introduced his resolution of last year, confining the grant of Dominion lands to South African volunteers from Manitoba and the old territories.

"That resolution carried," said Col. Hughes, "but I knew then that the Prime Minister's sense of justice would correct that discrimination and lead to the grant being made general. Indeed, I can assure him that he'll have a veritable hornet's nest about his ears unless he does justice in this matter."

R. L. Borden pointed out that it was not at all incumbent upon the Government to regard itself bound by the resolution of last session in the matter of limiting the grant to volunteers from Manitoba and the new provinces. Three or four years ago, he pointed out, the House unanimously passed a resolution declaring that the manufacture and sale of cigarettes should be prohibited.

"Not unanimously," Sir Wilfrid corrected.

"Well, not exactly unanimous," replied Mr. Borden, "but the minority was very small, and the right hon. gentleman knows minorities have no rights in this House." (Laughter.)

However, the resolution passed and yet no bill had been introduced, said Mr. Borden, adding that a resolution had been passed unanimously declaring that only goods entering by Canadian ports should be entitled to the British preference, yet the Government announced that there would be no legislation on those lines for years to come. The proper course for the Government to pursue was to treat all men alike. The resolution before the House could not be amended by a private member, but certainly in its present form it was unjust and inequitable. Had the grant been made immediately after the war, as it should have been, there would have been no excuse to-day of provincial grants.

Sir Frederick Borden said that this was a question of rewarding men for their services. These lands were in the west and the Government was bound to recognize the opinions of the western Governments. The Ministers and Assemblies of the western provinces had asked that rewards of western lands be given to the western men. That was the mandate on which the Government had acted.

"Does the Minister of Militia not think that when the Government is rewarding South African volunteers it should reward all alike," asked Dr. Sproule.

"Yes, when, as far as possible," Sir Frederick replied. He went on to say that other provinces might follow the example of Ontario. Quebec and New Brunswick had plenty of land and could provide any reward they chose. It is a matter of fact that the volunteers had been well treated by Canada.

Invidious Discrimination.

R. L. Borden pointed out that the western lands were as much in the control of the Dominion as any dollar in the treasury. "When the new provinces were being formed I protested against it," said Mr. Borden, "but I protested in vain." But even the argument that the Government could not alienate those lands was no excuse for discrimination in this case. "The Government had other ways of compensating the veterans from other provinces, and so avoid this invidious discrimination."

Sir Wilfrid said he had thought Col. Hughes' resolution of last session was worded as it was meant, but that hon. member, it now appeared, had something in the back of his head at the time that he intended to bring out later. Mr. Lefurgey interrupted to observe that he himself had last session asked that the land grant be extended to veterans all over the Dominion.

"And couldn't persuade one member on his own side to join him," replied the Prime Minister. "He was like the last rose of summer, left blooming alone."

The Government, he went on to say, had acted on the recommendation of Col. Hughes, but no sooner had they done so than he wanted the whole Dominion included. The Government had accepted Col. Hughes' resolution because there was some sense in it, the principle of it being that the volunteers of the west were entitled to land grants, but the western provinces had no lands to give.

In the case of a pension, it might be given to all the South African veterans in the Dominion. "If we are to give a monetary compensation," said Sir Wilfrid, "that must be debated on its merits, but as to land grants, they must come from the provinces.

In the course of the further discussion, Mr. Monk suggested that the Fenian Raid veterans should be given land grants, and Mr. Galliher proposed similar recognition for the Nile voyageurs with whom, by the way, he himself served in Egypt and Soudan.

Mr. Herron of Alberta urged that the grant to volunteers in the Northwest be given to the heirs of volunteers who had lost their lives in South Africa, or had died since their return. The resolution was finally reported, the bill founded upon it, and read a first time.

Attacked Public Ownership.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—In the Senate yesterday Hon. James McMullen moved a resolution declaring that public ownership would not be in the interest of the Dominion.

Senator Cloran opposed the resolution, pointing out that private ownership of public utilities resulted in monopoly and exorbitant charges. Senator Cloran predicted a popular rising against improperly accrued wealth in the United States, and asked that care be taken not to reproduce a similar condition in Canada.

Senator Cloran has given notice of a resolution deploring the recent increase of murderous crime in Montreal and other parts of Canada, caused by an undesirable foreign element.

BRITISH DIPLOMACY

By "Chic"

Has diplomacy benefited Canada? Has England considered the interests of Canada in her diplomatic relations with the United States? Let us see! Allow me to review the ill-advised action of English diplomats Ever since the Treaty of Paris in 1782, the arrogance of the American representatives and the gullible ignorance of the representatives of Great Britain has been one of the predominating features of all arbitration proceedings in which Canada has suffered every time. During the negotiations of the Peace of Paris, the diplomats of the United States wanted everything and gave nothing. Clause III gives to the citizens of U. S. the right to fish in Canadian waters just the same as if they were British subjects. Nowhere in the Treaty has the same right been given to citizens of Canada—and this has always been refused—and throughout the negotiations with the United States representation, Messrs. Franklin, Jay and John Adams, Mr. Richard Oswald certainly did not show that he was the man to do justice to Canada, and the Empire. Lord Shelburne, who was then in power, appointed Mr. Oswald, at the suggestion of Dr. Franklin, one of the American representatives. An eminent American diplomat speaks of his appointment as follows;

The individual picked upon by the United States was a respectable and amiable gentleman, nominated at the suggestion of Dr. Franklin, with whom he was to treat, because he thought he would get along easily with him; but by no means a match for a combination of three such men as Franklin, Jay and Adams."

Dr. Franklin gave Mr. Oswald, what is now known as the 'Canada paper" and had the effrontery to propose that Great Britain should "Voluntary Cede" the whole of Canada and United States and Nova Scotia to the United States. This 'paper" Mr. Oswald had the weakness to endorse and said that he would urge upon Shelburne the necessity of acquiescing in the proposals made by Franklin. It was not until the 10th of June that Mr. Fox, secretary of Foreign affairs for Great Britain, heard of this remarkable suggestion, Shelburne having withheld the knowledge of the contents of the 'Canada papers" His colleagues were furious when they found out the existence of such important documents At that time Canada was Great Britain's largest and most important territorial possession. Mr. Oswald described it contemptuously as the "back lands of Canada," "A country worth nothing and of no importance." Six years prior to this this portion of Canada was described by the U.S. representatives as 'The triangular track of land between the Mississippi, the Ohio and Lake Erie is the finest spot of earth on the globe, swelling with moderate hills, but no mountains; watered by the finest rivers and of the most delightful climate; the soil, as appears from the woods with which it is clothed, is of the most abundant fruitfulness and vegetation. It abounds with coal; and there are multitudes of salt springs in all parts of it. There are mines of iron, copper and lead. Wild rye grows there spontaneously." Had this part of Canada been retained by Great Britain, her combined possessions in North America would have been 4,100,574 square miles. This country, which Lord Shelburne and his colleagues then in power, was so ready to give away for the asking, has an area of 476,000 square miles, and contains a population of 26,000,000 of people. Mr. Oswald's opinion, which by the way, was valueless, as he had never been over any part of Canada was 'that in his opinion, Canada should be given up to the United States, as it would prevent occasions of future differences and as the government of such a country was worth nothing, and of no importance, and that he was not without hopes it would be agreed to." Dr. Franklin and Congress, for they recognized the position intelligently —as one which would render the situation towards the thirteen colonies, as 'truly hazardous if Great Britain retained it. The lands, as you know, continues Dr. Franklin to Congress, are infinitely better than those on the coast; they have an open communication with the sea by the River St. Lawrence and the Mississippi and with each other by those extensive inland seas with which America abounds. They will be settled with the utmost rapidity from Europe, but more particularly from those States, for the fertility of their soil will 'invite numbers to leave us," while Mr. Oswald was doing his utmost to give away this great territory, the Government of France and of Spain, were hostile to the extension of the United States boundaries through Canadian territory to the Mississippi and to their claims to the Canadian fisheries.

The French foreign minister openly argued against the American commissioners in favor of England and most positively declared that the demands of the Americans were unreasonable and that France would not continue the war for American objects. France even sent her minister for foreign affairs, M. de Vergennes, to London to protest against the willingness of Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan to give away this vast and arable territory to the Americans. He persistently urged the government of Great Britain to caucus in a concert of measures for the purpose of shutting out the Americans for the possession of this territory from the Mississippi—because it could only be accomplished with the approval and aid of Great Britain. M. D. Raypival also wrote to the American commissioners; "'It is clearly evident that the Court of London, when it was as yet sovereign of the Thirteen Colonies, did not consider the vast territories situated eastward of the Mississippi as forming part of these same colonies" About this period in the negotiations the Congress of the Thirteen Colonies instructed their commissioners secretly that "Although it is of the greatest importance to the peace and commerce of the United States that Canada and Nova Scotia should be ceded, and more particularly that the equal common right of the United States to the fisheries should be guaranteed to them, yet a desire terminating the war has induced us not to make the acquisition of these objects an ultimatum on the present occasion."

You will see from this the persistent willingness of the representatives of Great Britain to give away, and the arrogate indifference to the instructions of Congress and to the protests of the government of France and of Spain, by the trio, Franklin, Joy and Adams, were the means of robbing Canada of nearly a half million square miles of territory — The American trio knew the men they were dealing with better than Congress, or France and Spain or even Lord Shelburne himself, and knew very well that if they only persisted they would gain all they were contending for, but more—the American commissioners were fully aware, before the negotiations commenced with Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan, that Congress had modified and practically limited its ultimatum to the independence of United States and the validity of the treaties with France. But not being as simple minded as Mr. Oswald or Mr. Vaughan, they did not reciprocate the blundering indiscretion of these gentlemen by disclosing to them the secret and confidential instructions of Congress respecting the desired treaty with Great Britain. Congress knew that it was on its last legs. 'No money to maintain the army," who were importunate in their demand for the arrears of pay due them. The Secretary of State wrote to Dr. Franklin, "Never was there a time when money was more necessary. The total abolition of paper money, the length of the war, the arrears of debts and the slender thread by which the public credit hangs, put it totally out of our power to make any great exertions without the immediate supply of money." The Congress was ready to withdraw, but nott so, Dr. Franklin." He persisted and he won. There were two men in Lord Shelburne's cabinet, who were very bitter against Oswald and Vaughan, and demanded their recall and declared that they were only two additional American commissioners. Mr. Jay, with the ready assent of Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan drew up a draft treaty and the latter sent it to London as 'a true copy of what has been agreed on between the commissioners of the United States and Great Britain. It provided for:

1. The independence of United States.
2. The cessation of nearly the whole of Canada, including what are now the best settled parts of Ontario with thousands of British Loyalists.
3. The cessation of the Canadian fisheries.
4. The free navigation of the River Mississippi —but without any means of entrance or exit for her ships.

Compensation for the Loyalists, reversal of confiscations, and payment of American debts to British merchants were refused and thereupon abandoned by the commission. Those latter, Lord Shelburne insisted upon should be supported by the French government but it was no use. Messrs. Oswald and Vaughan pressed the treaty to a conclusion and approved of the clause, rejected and did not leave one foot of territory where a Loyalist could find a refuge from political persecution or a home for their families. The severity of the treatment by the United States of the Loyalists, whose only crime was their fidelity to the lost cause of Great Britain was extreme. It was not until Mr. Jay's draft treaty was before the British government that Lord Shelburne and his colleagues woke up, and began to realize their position, through lack of efficient supervision in allowing the colonial and territorial interests of Great Britain in Canada to fall into the hands of the American government.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 26.—Something of a sensation was occasioned yesterday by the outspoken manner in which Justice Clement arraigned the Provincial Government for disloyalty, treason and unCanadianism in connection with the recently enacted Natal Act, directed at the exclusion of Japanese.

The unusual comment was embodied in his lordship's judgment in the full court, dismissing an appeal from the chief justice's decision that the act is ultra vires of the Legislature. Justices Irving and Morrison concurring with Justice Clement. After sketching the relative jurisdictions of Dominion and province, Justice Clement said:

"No doubt honest differences may exist as to where the line is drawn by the B.N.A. Act, or as to which side of the line a particular matter may fall upon, but to suggest doubt where no real doubt exists, and particularly as to matters apt to inflame, is not to be commended. Such a matter we have here. This matter of Japanese immigration has been dealt with properly, that is to say, constitutionally, by the Parliament of Canada, and I must say it smacks strongly of disloyalty to our settled form of Government, when the authorities of one province undertake to override and render abortive the will of the people of Canada."

Railroads Battling Against Another Heavy Snowstorm

Traffic on Both Lines Greatly Hindered To-day—Trains Were Several Hours Behind Scheduled Time.

Another fierce battle is on between the railroads and the elements. The struggle began last night about nine o'clock and up to the present the storm has had the better of it. Probably in no other winter have there been such tie ups on the railways as during the present season. An unusually large amount of snow has fallen and it has been a source of great expense and annoyance to the different railroad concerns.

While the snow storm last night and today has not caused a complete hold up, it has greatly delayed traffic, many of the trains being several hours behind scheduled time.

The snow that fell last night and today is of a soft and heavy nature, making it exceedingly difficult to shovel. On account of its heavy nature it fortunately did not drift but it packed so closely around the rails that it was impossible for an engine to clear its way through. The snowploughs worked all night and are still running over the roads, keeping them clear today. Despite the incessant downfall of snow the trains have managed to get through, although they were some hours late.

On the CPR the midnight trains from the West did not get here until about 5 o'clock this morning, arriving within twenty minutes of each other. The early morning trains from the East were an hour late and the local had to remain here an hour waiting the arrival of the snowplough. The noon express today pulled into the depot about 12.45, an hour and a quarter behind scheduled time.

The GTR seemed to experience greater difficulty than the CPR. The train that is due here at 8.30 in the morning from Port Hope was snowbound at Carmel. The Belleville train was two hours late and Conductor Jobbitt did not start for Lakefield until eleven o'clock. The noon G.T.R. train from Toronto got in here about a quarter to one and was stalled here until the snowplough got through from Port Hope.

Everything possible is being done to give the best service possible.

Members of the Ontario Branch of the Domion Alliance Wait Upon the Government—Will Not Change Policy for Threats or Anything Else

Special to the Review.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—Replying to the members of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, who to the number of over one thousand, waited on the Government this morning to press their views regarding the three-fifths clause in the local option legislation Premier Whitney in a lengthy speech expressed the sympathy of the Government in the temperance movement, but declared that it would stand by the three-fifths clause. Neither threats nor anything else would divert them. Mr. Whitney announced that if the three-fifths clause was to be made a party issue the Government threw down the gage of battle.

Field Battery May Attend The Celebration at Quebec

There is a probability that the 24th Field Battery of Peterborough may be present at the ter-centenary celebration at Quebec city during the summer. It is understood that all the batteries in Canada are to be invited to attend and if this is done the Peterborough men will likely accept the invitation. It would be a fine trip and the members of the corps are hoping that the plan may materialise.

It is likely that something definite about the matter will be learned when Col. Young of Kingston, visits Peterborough early next month.

Had Leg Broken in Two Places by Fall From Load of Straw

While loading a straw stack to bring to the city on Monday morning, Walter Sullivan, son of Mr. Michael Sullivan of Ennismore, fell from the top of the load and suffered painful injuries. In falling, Mr. Sullivan struck the rack of the sleigh. He was unable to get up and had to be carried to the house. He was brought to the city and Dr. McNulty had him removed to St. Joseph's hospital, where upon examination it was found that both bones below the knee in his left leg were fractured. As a result of the accident, Mr. Sullivan will be unable to be around again for a few weeks. At present he is progressing favorably and doing as well as could be expected.

Bell Telephone Employee Was Overcome by Gas

This morning about eleven o'clock Frank Croff, an employee of the Bell Telephone Company was overcome by gas while splicing a cable in the manhole at the corner of George and Hunter streets. The manhole had been covered for some time and the gas had accumulated in it and became too strong for Croff to stand. He was rescued by one of his companions and taken to the Bell Telephone Company's central office by Mr. Jas. Reid. Drs Leitch, Amys and Fredericks were called and Mr. Croff was resuscitated in about half an hour.

Good Site for Public Library

Citizen Makes a Suggestion That is Worth Consideration

"I notice," said a citizen this morning 'that the question of a site for the proposed new public library is being discussed. I do not think they could get a better location than the lot on the south east corner of George and McDonnell streets. This property is vacant and is in every way well suited for a library site. The library could be built so that it would face Central Park and a prettier view could not be wanted. Then on the north there would be George street Methodist church, making the surroundings artistic and beautiful in every respect."

St. Andrew's W.F.M.S. Hold an "At Home"

A most delightful afternoon was spent at the residence of Mrs. William Carter, 530 Bolivar street. The "at home" was given under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society and was well attended. The tea room was very prettily decorated and refreshments were served by the Executive Committee.

The musical programme was very pleasing, Miss Mildred Brightman and Mrs. E. Tully contributed a number of instrumental solos, and Miss Bella King sang very sweetly, "The lost chord."

The afternoon was spent in a most sociable and friendly way, and will tend to strengthen the association in their good work.

At the close a most interesting event took place when the members of the hoop drill whose services have been appreciated at seval public entertainments, presented their leader, Miss E. Tully contributed a num teacher's Bible. Miss King was alto altogether overcome by the surprise and expressed her appreciation in a few well chosen words.

The prayer meeting tonight in St. Andrew's church, will be of a special home missionary character. The congregation is particularly interested in the Toulon Hospital, Man., whose lady superintendent is Miss Elizabeth Bell, formerly of St. Andrew's manse. All are invited to participate in the interest of the monthly missionary prayer service. Any desiring to help in the hospital work will have the opportunity of doing so.

IN THE WEST.

A circular letter, stating that future marriages of two Catholics by a Protestant minister will not be recognized as valid, in accordance with recent instructions from Rome, has been sent out by Archbishop Langevin for publication from the pulpits of his diocese on Sunday next. The council of Trent enacts that marriages of two Catholics not performed by a priest are invalid. This has always held away in eastern Canada, but up to this time it has not been deemed judicious to press the point too strongly in the west.—Winnipeg Free Press.

ALLEN DOONE

Ireland's Sweetest Singing Comedian to Play a Return Engagement Here—Good News for Lovers of Refined Irish Comedy.

Next Saturday at the "Grand" matinee and night will mark the third visit to Peterborough of the clever young singing comedian, Allen Doone, who will appear on that date in his brand new and successful comedy-drama, A Romance in Ireland, supported by George W. Kenney's capable company of carefully selected players, with a first-class scenic production and all accessories complete. Mr. Doone will be seen in the part of "Larry O'Daly," a dashing young blade, who sings his way into the hearts of all the pretty colleens in the County Mayo, and overcomes all his rivals by reason of the excellent brand of "blarney" which he dispenses. A Romance in Ireland is said to be a consistent, wholesome play with a somewhat melodramatic plot and considerable sentiment, full of clean comedy situations and witty sayings. The story is located in the picturesque seventeenth century, and the characters are handsomely costumed in the quaint garb of that time. There are four acts and eight scenic settings. Mr. Doone will be heard in several of his characteristic songs, especially composed for this production.

(Plan opens to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

Too Much Snow for Lumbermen

Some Lumber Camps are Closed —Traffic Stopped on Stony Lake

(Special to the Review.)

Mount Julian, Feb. 26.—The annual tea meeting of Eden church, which was to have been held on St. Valentine's evening, and was postponed on account of the roads will be held on Friday evening, Feb. 28th. Tea will be served in the school house from 5.30 till 8 o'clock. A good programme of music, speeches, recitations and dialouges will be given in the church beginning at 8 o'clock.

The schools had to be closed for a few days as the weather was very cold and the snow too deep for the children to attend.

The amount of snow in the woods made it impossible for the men to work, and the Hamilton Bros. near Mount Julian have closed their lumber camp.

The usual traffic across the ice on Stony Lake, was stopped for a few days, as there was so much water with the snow on it that teams could not get over.

Mrs. George Lane and little son and daughter, have been visiting her mother, Mrs. S. Northey.

Little Howard Spence, who was very ill with tonsilitis, has recovered.

Hartley Not Among First Five at End of 24 Hours

Peterborough Man Does Not Appear to be Doing Very Well at Kansas City—Hoagland of Auburn, N. Y., Has Good Lead.

Special to The Review.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 25—At the end of the 24th hour of the six day walking match, W. A. Hoagland, of Auburn, N.Y., was six miles ahead of his nearest competitor. The score of the five leaders at midnight was as follows:

Hoagland, Auburn, N.Y. 108 miles; H. O. Messier, Milwaukee, Wis., 102 miles; H. G. Player, Kansas City, 101 miles; Tom Slater, Syracuse, N.Y., 100 miles; H Tuttle, Pittsburg, 93 miles.

The above despatch, it will be noted, has no word about Hartley, of Peterborough. It seems strange that the Peterborough man should not have covered at least 93 miles, which was the distance traversed by Tuttle, of Pittsburg, the fifth man in the list.

Great Press Game To-morrow Night at 8 O'clock; Some Notes

The Examiner Stumbled Through the Final Rehersal Last Night—Showed Poor Form—A Few Expressions of Public Opinion.

Between times the Peterborough Band will play "Captain Johnnie Hogan." It is the band arrangement of that popular song, the chorus of which is:

Captain Johnnie Hogan of the Talking Horse Brigade,
Takes very hard to capture every pretty little, witty, blue eyed maid;
But they all hand him lemons of rich and yellow shade,
Captain Johnnie Hogan, of the Talking Horse Brigade.

Another number of much merit the band will give will be one of Professor Hoganni's own compositions, a discriptive piece entitled, "The Click of the Handcuff." The Professor will lead the band with a policeman's baton.

Prof. Hoganni has been booked at a salary of $10 a week more than he now is receiving to do a handcuff specialty on Keith and Proctor's vaudeville circuit. It is understood the Professor's salary will be $11 a week. The act is said to be an interesting and puzzling one and will be known as "The Boy with the Bracelets."

Although he has not even been considered as spare man the Professor is of the opinion that he can put up a better game handcuffed than any of the bunch of dubs on the Examiner line-up can under the most favorable conditions.

A new name the ladies have for the Professor is "Lemon Boy."

Harry K. Theobald is the only one of the Grit rummies that can lay claim to being anything of a hockey player. He feels much ashamed at being associated with the team but has to do so under penalty of forfeiting his position. Even with him on a win cannot for a moment be thought of.

Beef Tea Huston is bluffing his rural acquaintances to bet on the Examiner outfit. It is said that on the side he has agents covering the money.

The spectators at the Examiner's rehearsal yesterday afternoon of that burlesque, 'Beaten Again," enjoyed themselves immensely.

Prof. Hoganni in order that he may be noticeable has asked to be allowed to ring the gong indicating half and full time. The Review, however, will not make this concession on the ground that the referee might take the rings for false alarms.

The People's Band will play 'Consolation" in the Examiner dressing-room after the game.

And the presumption of the Grit seven to imagine they have even a chance of winning. This is the amusing part of it all—not by any means the alleged jokes that appear

The presence of wind instruments in the band will add special interest to the game for Prof. Hohanni Hoganni.

If the weather man insists on handing out a thaw it will be necessary for Prof. Hoganni to put the handcuffs on him.

The spectators will have difficulty in distinguishing between the noise of the big drum and the loud sounds of John Dough Clark falling on the ice.

The puck will be faced at 8 o'clock sharp. It is hard lines on the puck having to face such objects as Josiah Craig, B. T. Huston, Harry Burridge et al.

After the game there will be an hour's skating, all for the small sum of ten cents. The proceeds will go towards the Children's Aid Society.

The familiar cry of "Get the Hook" will be heard when the Examiner team appears on the ice. Of course the hook has no reference to Josiah Craig, although the Examiner goaltender is crooked.

Goal—Josiah Craig.
Point—John Dough Clark.
Cover-point—Baseball Burridge.
Rover—Mr. Theobald.
Centre—Beeftea Huston.
To spare—Prof. Hohanni Hoganni.

Josiah Craig gets a Mogul cigarette for every shot he stops to-morrow night.

The Examiner have not considered it necessary to make any allowance for any cigarettes.

Professor Hoganni attempted to write a parody about one of the Review seven yesterday but after he had pondered on it from early morning until it was time to go to press, it was consigned to the waste paper basket. The sporting editor said it was even worse than his poetical jumbles and consequently it was unfit to print. The Morning Times also turned down the misdemeanor.

The Examiner of last night says A. Chopin Yokome will wear the "Flower of Japan" as a mark of distinction. It is not necessary for Josiah Craig to wear a lemon blossom.

Professor Hoganni received his brand new nickel-plated handcuffs from New York to-day for his act tomorrow night and has given back to the police station the single-handed nipper he has been carrying around with him for the past month, for demonstration purposes.

It is rumored that if the Review is beaten the Crane will migrate to the south and feed on new rice beds.

KELLY'S TEAM THE VICTORS

Cahill Seven go Down After a Hard Fight—Score Was 5-6

A couple of impromptu teams were the only ones to hold the boards at Brock street rink last night. Cahill's and Kelly's seven met in a warmly contested game. Kelly's puckchasers won by 6-5.

A feature of the game was a door to window rush by Whaley, who was only stopped by the wall, getting by the entire Kelly defence. He shot on goal but was too far beyond, the puck hitting the wrong side of the nets.

"Lajoie" Derocher made a flawless referee.

Four rinks of Peterborough curlers will go to Lindsay on Thursday to meet the Lindsay club in the second round of the competition for the Peterborough-Lindsay cup. This portion of the match should be played in Peterborough but cannot on account of the lack of rink accommodation. Lindsay has a lead of seventeen points but the locals are hopeful of pulling it down and landing the silverware.

On Friday afternoon the Peterborough rinks will meet Orillia on Lindsay ice in the second round for the Shepherd-Neill trophy. Orillia has a lead of 21 points, the first part of the competition having been played when the Peterborough curlers were at the Orillia bonspiel.

Received Letter From Kansas City

Mrs. David Hartley Got Word From Her Husband on Monday

Mrs. David Hartley, Robinson street, East City, received a letter from her husband in Kansas City on Monday night. The letter was written on Friday last. Mr. Hartley stated in it that he was highly pleased with everything and was in fine shape for the start on Monday morning. He spoke very highly of the treatment that he was receiving at the hands of Mr. Scoville, who is conducting the affair. He further stated that he had secured a good Canadian trainer. Every morning in preparation for the contest Mr Hartley would walk fifteen and twenty miles. Speaking of the city, the pedestrian was loud in his praise of it. It was a beautiful place, but Mr. Hartley states the price of everything was exorbitant. The people of Kansas City were taking great interest in the big six days' walk and considerable betting was being done. Referring to the tournament, the local pedestrian said that Morton, of Newcastle, England, who had never been beaten in a walking match, is most to be feared.

When asked as to what position she thought her husband would hold at the finish, Mrs. Hartley replied that she was sure he would not come first, but hoped that he would be among the first.

Mrs. Hartley does not expect any further word until the close of the tournament.

CRICKET

London, Feb. 25.—Australia had a great innings yesterday, and at the end of the day's play, with only six wickets down, had scored 657 runs. Trumper had a wonderful innings, making 166 before being put out. Englishmen are still hopeful of being able to win the match, as they have a lead of 144 runs on the first innings.

ATHLETICS

New York, Feb. 25.—Matthew P. Halpin, manager of the American team that is to go to London for the Olympic games of 1908, announces that the team will sail from New York on the steamer Philadelphia, of the American line, on Saturday, June 27th. The team will arrive in London about July 4th and will have about a week in which to prepare for the competitions, as the stadium will be open on July 13th. Accommodation for 78 men has been reserved on the Philadelphia.

HOCKEY

Only seven clubs remain in the three O.H.A. competitions, and of these Stratford is represented by two series, both of which have come to the final stage. Tonight the seniors go to Kingston, and on Monday the championship will be settled when the return is played in Stratford.

AMUSEMENTS

What evil a woman's jealousy can work on a unoffending rival was shown last night in the masterly presentation of "Diplomacy" at the Grand by the Royal Alexandra Players of Toronto.

A woman deprived of the love of the man whom she regards as her affinity, is inspired by her jealousy with an intense hatred for the other woman who although innocent of any wrongdoing is made the victim of a plot involving serious diplomatic complications. The strongest suspicion that she stole an important military paper becomes directed toward the wife, and it is only by a deduction the clue to which is presented in an accidental and most fortunate way that the guilt is placed on the conspirator and the traitress exposed without defence. In fact she confesses to the brother of the man she loves rather than have the matter of the theft of the paper come under the notice of the police officials. The brother has really nothing to work on in obtaining the confession but by smooth trickery which under the circumstances is quite legitimate, gives the guilty one to understand that he has in his possession absolute proof of her treachery. The renewal of the blissful domestic relations between the wronged wife and the mistaken husband marks the happy conclusion of the play.

In "Diplomacy," Victorien Sardou has written a drama that is intensely interesting and well conceived and at the same time contains many a line in the brightest vein of comedy.

The company that interpreted the play was excellent. Every member of it did the greatest justice to his or her role, and the drama was given a cordial reception by the very large and representative audience. Mr. Wm. Sauter as Captain Beauclerc, gave a finished portrayal of the part, and Mr. David Glassford as his brother Henry Beauclerc, imparted strength and refinement to the character. Miss Darragh as Countess Zicka a Russian spy and the chief trouble maker, excelled herself in the delineation of the part. To her lot fell the unpleasant role of the production but the audience to a certain extent were willing to forgive her almost unforgiveable work by reason of her clever acting. Miss Jane Marbury as Dora, the wife of Capt. Beauclerc lent a freshness and grace to the role that was very pleasing. She had to play an exacting part and did so in a particulary happy manner.

Between the stars of the company it was almost impossible to distinguish, all were so uniformly good. All were conspicuous for their splendid work.

Mr. W. H. Moore Opposes the Accepting of Carnegie Grant

Says That Both Sentimental and Business Reasons Are Against it—Another Letter on Interesting Subject

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—In your last Friday's issue Mr. Dumble's ready pen provided other "views," but I fear added little conviction for what he contends. Figures, additions, substractions and balances are of little moment when not founded on known facts. He assumes things to have an existence and then asserts the conclusions to be so and so. May I nto ask, is it not too much to expect people to take for granted we have a "free site" for a library where others can find none, unless our re-claimed riverfont, or the Hilliard farm will answer. No one would vote to give a part of the Central Park. It has more than enough buildings on it now; or, again, that the Nicholls endowment will be $1,125.00 yearly, with only $10,000.00 in hand and the remainder an unconverted asset; or that the Nicholls endowment may be applied to the payment of the ten per cent required on Mr. Carnegie's advance, for which he shows no warrant. I observe, however, that he has lopped $5,000.00 from his former figures, and finds, $25,000.00 to be as great a burden as the city can comfortably bear. I am inclined to believe that citizens will not be averse to a repetition in paring down if we must have Mr. Carnegie's assistance, and are quite unable to help ourselves. I think we should give much weight to instances of other quarters where Mr. Carnegie's bounty has been taken. I have already pointed out that Detroit refused it. That city was in line for $750,000.00 ,but after long consideration decided against the money with the "usual conditions" added, as is invariably expressed in his gifts. Nor would Chicago take it, but erected its own grand library, furnished it, and pays the expense of its maintenance without asking help from any one. I find that many other cities have shown like independence ,and I believe that as people continue to reflect and gain experience, less of Mr. Carnegie's money will be asked for. In the considerable cities of Bath, Bradford, Great Harwood and other cities in Great Britain his kindness with the "usual conditions" attached has been declined.

It is said that we will not require to name our library "The Carnegie Library," yet all will agree that it would scarcely be decent to accept his benevolence and ignore the giver altogether. That would rather be the act of a barbarian. A Chicago paper thus refers to these circumstances however: "Somewhere in the imperishable stone in most of these buildings is cut the name "Carnegie." in many is found the sculptured bust or a bronze medallion of the donor who was the first to pronounce upon mankind the "shame of dying rich." His yearly income averages two and a half million over his benefactions, and it seems hopeless to expect that he will ever be able to save himself from the disgrace he fears. We may add that many have found that instead of a benefit derived from his money, what they really got was a pretty sizeable "gold brick" and concludes with the remark that in his colossal scheme of gift giving perhaps no man ever had so many of his gift horses looked in the mouth as has Mr. Carnegie.

It is a characteristic of Mr. Carnegie that he always refuses to help existing libraries, even if crippled for lack of funds. The building being once on the ground he ceases to interest himself, and that libraries may stagnate or go to ruin appears to be no concern of his.

I have in the past dealt with the business aspect. There remains the sentimental. On this ground also I am opposed to Mr. Carnegie's money, or to any other short cut to a library building. Let us exercise a spirit of independence, and not confess ourselves dependents. If this cynical giver of library buildings, who has on occasions expressed his contempt of British institutions, must distribute his hampering wealth, which his "business capacity" has extracted from the people ,let him donate it to the less fortunate. We would compromise our dignity by its acceptance. We would also condone his offensive references to the nation of which Canada is proud to form a part.

Your obedient servant,
W. H. MOORE.

REMOVE THE SNOW

To the Editor of the Review;

Sir,—We are having a very big snowfall this winter as everybody knows. What we are to have in the way of slush most people know also. Now if the unemployed were hired to take big sleighs and remove this extra snow out of the middle of the town in the area bounded by Brock, Bethune, Charlotte and Water streets, it would be a great boon to the people who pay taxes and want comfort. Ald. Phelan is open to suggestions and I hope he will think this a good one as many others do, including,

DANGER POINTED OUT

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—My note yesterday should read "Hovels and Insanitary Conditions," as mentioned in the Toronto News. Why do I draw attention to this matter? Because of the alarming official report on consumption. Although I believe this to be grossly exaggerated; yet, next to the extension of tuberculosis from bovine animals to milk consumers, the great cause of ill health and mortality is an insanitary dwelling.

Yours, etc.,
W. A. BAILEY.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26,

COMPULSORY VOTING

On Sunday last Rev. E. A. Pearson, B.D., pastor of the George street Methodist church, gave it as his opinion that people enjoying the franchise should be compelled to live up to their privileges. There is a vast deal in favor of this contention, but we think that sermons upon the duties of citizenship like this one of Rev. Mr. Pearson's, will go a long way of themselves to remedy the evil. That it is an evil and an avoidable one, few can deny. Some refuse to vote because they are too lazy, others because they are not bought, and others still because they are too silly or too selfish, it matters little which. If there were no voting there would be no law makers, without whom there would be no laws, without which there would be no order. If this is what the balky ones are looking for they will never get it. There are too many, thank God, who realize their duties and their privileges to allow those who act in this unreasonable way to upset the whole scheme of progress and civilization. Be up and doing, and perhaps in that case public affairs will not be so bad. We hope that the clergy, generally will speak strongly upon this topic while yet the elections are some distance off and their references will be free from suspicion. Of compulsory voting we are not sure. The word compulsory has an ominous sound. The Laurier Administration put it in their programme, but seems to have scratched it out again along with moral reform, decrease in taxation and economy in public expenditure. People obtain many privileges that they do not avail themselves of, but it cannot further be decreed by others that they shall lose those privileges, without running a serious risk of undue interference. Public opinion is a good guide and a powerful influence in such cases. A free conscience is a great desideratum, and it can only remain free as long as it remains untrammelled by the dictation of others.

WATERED STOCK

"What is watered stock?" is a question frequently asked. Watered stock to put it briefly is stock that has not been paid for. A company finding its earning capacity twice the ordinary rate of interest, doubles the capital in name and makes the earning power equal to the ordinary rate of interest. At one stroke that company has appropriated to its original members one hundred per cent in stock which if sold to a confiding public at par is one hundred per cent in cash. A pretty good stroke that! This is one phase and the commonest one of watering stock. It is this way in which enormous fortunes are made. The question then arises, "Why don't the lambs get on to it?" We can only answer that the crop of "lambs" young and old seems inexhaustible. After a hundred per cent is made in this easy way the company probably and starts another maker sells out of that particular or, this time maybap with the farmer. Hard-earned dollars go in and stay there. The farmer frequently has parted with them forever and is told simply that the market went wrong, times were bad, &c, &c. while the truth is he is the victim of law-protected robbers. Penalties for such would should be stiffened. A few years in a penitentiary carries no terror to a man who has no conscience.

The Examiner makes an unkind reference to our having "bestowed" a D.D. upon Rev. A. H. Brace. All we can say is that if he has not got that title no one will dispute his qualifications for it. Rev. A. H. Brace is a fair-minded, tolerant, kindly gentleman, whose aim has been to do well whatever his hand found to do, and we honor him accordingly. We wish we could say the same of the Examiner.

The operating expenses of McGill University last year were $33,000 more than the revenue.

IMMIGRATION BONUSES

"House resumed consideration of the proposed motion of Mr. Cockshutt;

That in consideration of the great congestion that at present prevails in the labor market in many of the industrial centres throughout the country, it is highly expedient that assisted immigration, excepting only the agricultural and domestic servant classes should immediately cease, and that no further bonuses shall be paid to individual agents or companies for sending or bringing in such immigrants. Further, that the time has come for the strict enforcement of the law that requires that only the financially, morally and physically fit shall be allowed to enter this Dominion as settlers, and the proposed amendment thereto of Mr. Johnston.

Mr. Uriah Wilson, Lennox. Mr. Speaker, in rising to continue the debate on this question, I desire to say that while I am in favor of the motion it would better meet my view if it went a little farther than this one does. The House will be aware, I am sure, that I have been opposed to the bonusing of immigrants for a long time. I do not think it is necessary or in the interests of the country that we should bonus immigrants to come to this country, because instead of getting a better class of immigrants we are liable to get a poorer class, as the slick-tongued agent can go to a weak or worthless man and induce him to change his mind as to the place where he intended to go. People who are susceptible to such influences are the kind that we do not want in this country. The orders in council that have been passed lately look to me as if they pointed to some influence that the North Atlantic Trading Company still have with the government. On the 30th November, 1906, the contract with the North Atlantic Trading Company was cancelled and from that time until the 19th February, 1907, there were no bonuses whatever paid, in so far as I can learn on European immigrants. On the 19th February, 1907, there was an order in council passed, of which I have a copy, giving a bonus of 10 shillings upon adults 5 shillings upon children between the ages of 1 and 18, and 10 shillings upon female domestics. The rates under this order in council, as applied to all the different classes of people, are about the same as those covered by the contract of the North Atlantic Trading Company. This went on until the 6th January, 1908, and why the bonus should have been raised at this season of the year under the circumstances which exist in Canada at the present time, when the market is glutted with those who are living on the charity of our own people, is something that I cannot understand and the action is one which cannot be justified by this government or anybody else. On the 6th January, 1908, I find that the bonus on European immigration was changed from 10 shillings for adults, to £1 from 5 shillings upon children from 1 to 18, to 10 shillings and from 10 shillings for female domestics to £1. In view of the number of immigrants that we have in this country who are in a serious position—because I do not think you could put it much milder than that—it was simply outrageous to pass this order in council, holding our larger inducements for agents to persuade people to come to this country, where we have no employment to give them, and when the country has no need for them. But that is not all. The government was not quite satisfied with the encouragement given to immigrants, and on the 6th of January 1908, they passed an order in council, saying that any person coming to Canada before the 15th day of February must be possessed of $50, and after the 15th of February until the 1st of April he must be possessed of $25. Why offer an extra inducement to bring people here and then place this barrier in the way of their coming in? And even that was not all because they seemed to be right in the business at the time, and so they passed another order in council giving the Minister of the Interior power to prohibit people coming into this country if he saw fit, and that order in council said;

Immigrants may be prohibited from landing on coming into Canada unless they come from the country of their birth or citizenship by a continuous journey and on through tickets purchased before leaving the country of their birth or citizenship.

These immigration regulations seem to be a heterogeneous mass. In the first place the government increase the bonus to encourage people to come to this country, which I think was entirely unnecessary; then they say the immigrant must not come to the country unless he has $50 in his pocket if he lands before the 15th of February and $25 if he lands between that and the 1st of April; and then they say the immigrant must come direct from the land of his birth or citizenship. They also say in one of these orders in council that immigrants must come direct to a Canadian port except in winter time when they may come to the port of Portland, United States. Now we will suppose that a party of these immigrants to whom such great inducements are held out decide to come to Canada, and half of them come to Portland and the other half to New York, and the people that come via New York cannot enter Canada. Is there any sense in that? I thought the government said we wanted immigrants in this country. I cannot see why if a Scotchman, or an Englishman, or an Irishman should decide to come to this country whether by way of Portland or by way of New York, or whether he lives in the United States, it makes the slightest difference what way he comes; because what we want is men who will make good reliable citizens and not such as a great many of those who have been brought here in the past.

This Government has been lavish in its expenditure on immigration. For the nine months ending the 31st of March, 1907, they have spent in bonuses to steamship agents, selected by themselves, $92,614.69. Any person who has seen these immigrants will I think say that there are quite a large number of them who are not desirable and are not such people as would make good citizens and help to raise the standard of our citizenship. When we come to consider what this Government has done in the way of spending money on immigration since it has come to power, it is simply astonishing. The Public Accounts show us that from 1897 to 1907 both years inclusive, this Government has expended $5,832,573.63 on immigration and in the estimates for this year they have $925,000 for the same service, which is quite a considerable sum considering the state of the finances of the country and the large expenditures during the past two or three years. Therefore, if the money voted is spent next year the Government will have expended on immigration $6,752,573.63. So far as I have been able to speak with the people, and I have been speaking to them on this question, I find that irrespective of politics the people in my section of the country are opposed to the bonus system and believe we are spending entirely too much money on immigration. I believe the feeling today is that we had better hold our hand until we can see what we can do with the people we have already here. In my section of the country the difficulty is this; the farmer wants a man in the agricultural season for six or seven months or eight months at the utmost; the farms in that section run from 100 to 200 acres, and so the farmers have no work for a hired man in the winter time and they cannot afford to pay him anything like a reasonable salary then. I do not think farm laborers can make enough in the seven or eight months working time to keep them comfortably through the winter, and so I think it is a great shame that the Government should hold out to these people the inducements they do. Only today it came to my ears that a man was working for a farmer out in the country from my town and he is very much dissatisfied because he was told before coming to Canada, that there would be nothing to prevent him getting steady work at least $20 a month and board and lodging. He finds a very different state of things now. When this question was being discussed in the House the other day, the Minister of the Interior instead of discussing the question fairly read a lot of letters, and he seemed to be trying to justify as well as he could the extension of the bonus system to others than farmers and farm laborers, because he has extended it to gardeners, to stable men, to navvies, and to miners, and perhaps to others. In my judgment the only reason why he has not extended it to mechanics is because of the trade unions, and the unions amongst railway men in this country, and the Government are afraid to do so, but they come as near to covering every class of the community as they possibly dare. It is only because the laboring men and the carters and the gardeners have not unions that the Government is giving bonuses on these classes of immigrants. The Government pretends to be opposed to the Manufacturers' Association and they are trying to create that impression on the public generally, but why did the Minister of the Interior read these letters from friends of the Manufacturers' Association and why did he censure my hon. friend (Mr. Cockshutt) because he inclosed a letter to the department from a gentleman who wanted to know where he could get help? I think the government is doing in this matter what the Hon. George W. Ross of Ontario, was accused of doing in the past—and a good many believe the accusation is true—Mr. Ross used to put a law on the statute book and then he would give a wink to the officials not to enforce it too rigidly. You can find very strong evidence of that in the license law of Ontario. Many of the people think that since Mr. Whitney came to power he has passed an entirely new liquor law, when the fact is that practically he is only enforcing the provisions of the old law. To illustrate this I heard in my own town this morning two gentlemen who are very respectable people, and who thought they could get a drink on the Sabbath day if anybody could, and they just thought they would test the thing, and they said they went to every hotel in the town but one and were absolutely refused. Why was that? It is because the law is being enforced and because under Mr. Whitney the liquor sellers are not given a tip that they may sell liquor and there will be nothing done about it. Now, to my mind this immigration business is a very serious matter, for I believe that a large number of people are brought to this country whom we do not want here. I have in my hand a hospital report from Winnipeg, which was sent to me by the Deputy Minister of Agriculture in reply to a request for information, and I will read it;

Patients treated in the wards of the hospital who have been resident in the Province less than three years, and were unable to pay for treatment; resident less than three months, 229, 4,803 days treatment in the hospital; less than six months and over three, 175 persons, treated 5,465 days; less than one year, 223, treated 5,405 days; less than two years, 254, treated 7,806 days; less than three years, 187, treated 5,569 days. Total number treated, 1,068, treated 29,048 days. Their nationalities were as follows; English, 349; Irish, 29; Scotch, 83; United States, 30; others, 577; total, 1,068.

In the newspapers we read of places like 'Shacktown' in Toronto, where 3,000 people who have lately come to this country are suffering severely for the common necessaries of life, and we have a report that in the city of Toronto alone 100 infants have died of starvation. Whether these statements are true or not, they are in the public prints of the country. If they are not true, they ought to be contradicted; and if they are true, they indicate a deplorable state of things in this country, which this Government ought to take into their serious consideration, instead of doubling the bonuses to people in foreign countries and sending twenty-two special agents to Great Britain and Ireland to try by every possible means to induce people to come to this country by telling them of the great things they can accomplish if they come here. We have a country quite as good as any other country in the world; but we cannot accomplish impossibilities, and we ought to be content with a little slower progress rather than to rush things at such a rate as to cause so much suffering and public expense. When the Doukhobors were brought at great expense to this country, we paid $5 a head for every man, woman and child of the whole outfit; and they came in such a destitute state that this country had to provide $20,000 to keep them over the first winter. We were told time and again in the Committee on Agriculture by the then deputy minister that we had a lien on their land, and that that money would all come back. In this connection I may say that I do not know what the matter is this year—we have not had any meeting of the Committee on Agriculture, except one to appoint a chairman; although last year we talked the matter over and came to an understanding that at another session we would meet earlier, before the other committees met, and would do a great deal of our business before the other committees got busy; but, for some reason unknown to me, we have had only one meeting of that committee, although we had a farmer for Minister of Agriculture and I believe a farmer as chairman of the committee; and still the interests of the farmers seems to be totally neglected. There was an interview with the present Minister of the Interior, in April, 1907, or 1906, by Mr. Reiban on behalf of the Doukhobors. He said;

'Before the Doukhobors came to Canada the Government of this country knew very distinctly the Doukhobors had desire to live in villages and to cultivate all their lands in common, and the Government agreed to it; and they hold original letters from Government officials to this effect; and we are surprised why Government was expecting that Doukhobors will live individually after they had been informed that they exist in common, and if Doukhobors had known the conditions which they are proposing to them now, they would not have come at all.'

If the Government had been honest with them and told them the conditions, we would not have had them in this country at all, and we would not only have saved our money, but got rid of an element that is to my mind very undesirable. I have had occasion two or three times to express my views on this matter and therefore it is not necessary to go very far now. Another gentleman who addresses the Minister of the Interior says;

'So far as we know, all conditions which were promised by the Government to the Doukhobors were changed altogether. We have a letter from the Minister of the Interior written to the Doukhobors in which he explained the conditions under which the Doukhobors have been accepted in Canada. In this letter he explained very clearly this Doukhobors may live in villages if they desire, and instead of cultivating each homestead separately, they can do it in one large block near the village.'

Whether that is the case or not I do not know, but it does appear that that was the impression made upon the minds of the Doukhobors, and for that reason they came to Canada, as I fear a good many others have come, through misrepresentation. They utterly refuse to take out their patents for their lands, because they refuse to become citizens of this country and to live on separate farms. They want to live in communities. I have here an extract from the report of Mr. McDougall, who is the commissioner in the North-west to settle the business. He says;

'For instance, the following is a typical conversation between your commission and the community Doukhobors; How long have you lived in Canada? Perhaps eight years almost. Is this a good country? Oh, yes, a very good country. What do you think of our Government? The Government never does us any harm. Is our Government better than it is in Russia? Oh, yes, very much better. Have you had peace and freedom here? Oh, yes, the Government never do us any harm. Why have you not joined this Government? Oh, we cannot join any Government in this world; God is our king. You have been more than seven years in this country; have you taken out any patents for these lands you are living on? Oh, no, we cannot get patents. Why? If we got patents, we would be subject to the Government; we cannot do that. Why are you afraid to be subjected to this movement? Oh, they would make us to fight, and we cannot do that. Do you know that unless you naturalize and become citizens of this country, you cannot secure patents for these homesteads you have entered for? Yes, we know that, but we cannot become subject to the government; God is our king.'

I think, Mr. Speaker, that shows a very strong reason why we should not have brought these people to this country—because when they came to this country first, we gave them special privileges—we agreed that we would not make them fight. I am opposed to giving any special privileges to any foreigners. I believe Canada should be a country where all men will be treated alike, and I may say that I believe the legislation passed in this House should be for the whole of Canada and not any particular province of Canada. Now, I want to read a few extracts from a book called "Russia's Strength and Her Weakness," by Wolf Brand Shelburne, which was published in 1904. It says—

'Its population is by no means homogeneous. One-third of the whole does not even speak Russian, and both religious and race strife are rampant.

While neighboring Protestant or Catholic countries have only from 58 to 65 non-labour days in the year, orthodox Russia enjoins on her peasantry ¼ of them.

And these are the people we are paying $5 a head for to our immigration agents. * *"

GIRLS' GUILD CONCERT

There was a fair attendance at the Girls' Guild entertainment in St. John's schoolhouse last evening, notwithstanding the many outside attractions. The programme consisted of a piano solo finely rendered by Mrs. Evans, an excellent duet by Messrs. Morphet and Chandler, "Tarry with me," and a series of readings from Thompson-Seton's "Lives of the Hunted," and Drummond's "Johnnie Courteau," by Mr. J. H. Burnham. Mr. Poe made a most acceptable chairman. A very pleasant evening was spent.

A Peculiar Charge Has Been Laid

Fenelon Falls Hotelmen Charged With Breach of Liquor License Act

Lindsay, Feb. 25th — Yesterday, County Police Magistrate Moore held court at Fenelon Falls, where two of the local hotelmen were confronted with rather peculiar charges. It appears that a couple of weeks ago the Coboconk hockey team journeyed to Fenelon to play a game of hockey with the team of that village. The boys from Coboconk arrived in the Cataract village, so they swore, at about 7.15, having been delayed in driving over on account of the extreme heavy roads. Immediately upon their arrival they repaired to the Twomey house, where they swore they saw Mr. Twomey and asked for supper, which Mr. Twomey was either unable or unwilling to supply, the evidence of the boys and the proprietor of the Twomey house being conflicting upon this point. From Mr. Twomey's place the boys from Coboconk went to the hotel of John Aldous, who at first promised to get them something to eat, but when he found that their horses were at the Twomey house, refused point blank to either give them meals or a room.

The charge against these hotel men is for not providing accommodation for the travelling public contrary to a section of the Liquor License Act. Judgment was reserved to allow Mr. Weldon, who appeared for the License Inspector, and Mr. McLaughlin, K.C., who appeared for the defendants, to argue the matter before the Magistrate.

GIVES THIS VERY SIMPLE TEST

A well known authority states that there are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity, often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble, many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged, kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance companies always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine. It is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made by every man and woman at least once each year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases and if desirable the sufferer can mix it at home. Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive. Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow, immediately the use of this simple prescription.

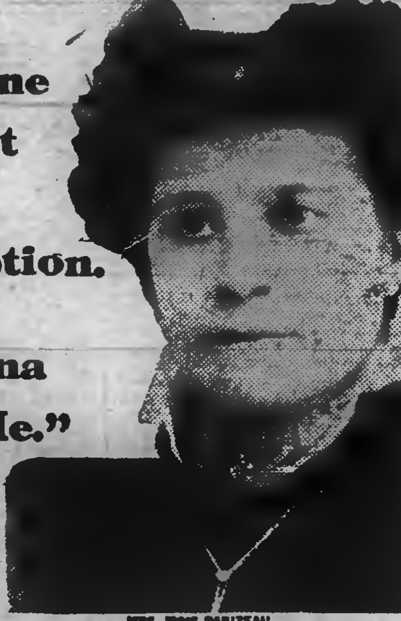
Railway Along the River Front

Senic Line Between Brockville and Prescott Proposed

Brockville, Feb. 26.—It is proposed to build a railway along the banks of the St. Lawrence from Brockville to Prescott, a distance of sixteen miles, through the picturesque scenery of the Thousand Islands district.

The chief promoter of this latest scenic line is Mr. J. B. Gaughn, of Brockville, who, it is reported, has succeeded in interesting some British capitalists, including the Marquis of Queensbury, in the scheme. The project includes a street railway in Brockville, which will connect with the new inter-urban line at Butternut about four miles outside that city, and the erection of a summer park on the Dominion Park model at Maitland, midway between Brockville and Prescott. Altogether the scheme will involve an outlay of about $1,500,000, and it is exciting much interest in the district, which contains a population of about 150,000.

It is reported that application will be made to Parliament within the next month for a charter, and that during the summer surveys will be made and part of the grading done.



"Every One Thought I Had Consumption.

Pe-ru-na Saved Me."

"I THANK DR. HARTMAN FOR PE-RU-NA."

MRS. MOIS PARIZEAU.

"I hardly know how to thank you for the good Peruna has done me.

"I suffered five years with pain in the stomach. About a year ago it became so bad I could hardly bear it. I coughed day and night and grew weaker and weaker. The pain extended through my body and I also had difficulty in breathing, which made me cough. Everyone thought I had consumption.

"My husband heard of Peruna and bought five bottles. This treatment virtually cured me and now I recommend Peruna to every one who is suffering.

"I thank Dr. Hartman for this excellent remedy."

Sta. Julie de Vercheres, P. Q., Canada. —Mrs. Mois Parizeau.

A NEGLECTED cold is generally the first cause of catarrh.

Women are especially liable to colds. These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year. Often they are not considered serious and are allowed to run on, or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh.

WOMEN SHOULD BEWARE OF CATCHING COLD.

By reason of their delicate structure, the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of these organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body.

It would be wise therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible.

Peruna has been found the most reliable of all remedies for coughs, colds and catarrh, by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble.

It searches out every crevice, every duct of the body. It quickens and equalizes the circulation of the blood, thus relieving the congested mucous membranes. It exercises a healing and soothing effect upon the mucous membranes, no matter whether they are the more exposed membranes of the head and throat, or whether they line the remotest cells of the lungs.

PE-RU-NA THE REMEDY FOR CATARRH OF THE LUNGS.

Mrs. Jaechob, 1681 Hicks St., Toledo, Ohio, writes:

"When I wrote to you for advice, I had been sick for three years. I had trouble with my throat. Often I could not breathe through my nose. I also had pains in my chest and a cough. I took Peruna according to directions and it has cured me."

The following statement is given out by a unanimous meeting of several councils which met for the purpose before leaving on the train for home, viz:

The deputations were received by the Hon. George P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, very favorably, and after the explanations made by the solicitor of the Company, (E. C. S. Huycke, K.C., of Cobourg,) and members of the deputation, the Minister stated that he understood the matter differently than before. He also stated that when the location of the canal works at Healey Falls were completely arranged (the surveys now being completed) and that when the legal matters are decided by the Minister of Justice, that the Northumberland-Durham Power Company would be favorably dealt with and that these matters would soon be settled. The works of the Company must also be subject to the approval of the Department. Deputy Minister Butler was also present.

A Pioneer Resident of County

Death of Wm. Pegg at Norwood Grim Reaper is Busy—Other Norwood News

Special to the Review.

Norwood, Feb. 25.—There passed away in this village on 19th day of February, Mr. Wm. Pegg, who was at the ripe old age of 88 years.

He was one of the oldest pioneer settlers in the County of Peterborough. He has been able to walk to the village and transact his business in a manner to be wondered at, at such such an advanced age.

He retained his faculties up to within two hours of his death, when he peacefully passed away to join the great majority from whence none ever return.

The funeral which was held last Friday at 2.30 was well attended.

At the age of sixty-four years there passed away at his birth-place, Mr. John D. Buck of Asphodel on Sunday morning, Feb. 16th inst. His father the late Daniel Buck emigrated from Yorkshire, England many years ago, when this part of the country was in its infancy, and took up his residence in Asphodel, where he reared his family and made a success of farming. Mr. John S. Buck was married in early life to Miss S. A. Parker, who with three sons and one daughter survive him. The funeral on Tuesday was very largely attended which shows the esteem in which th edeceased was held.

A very sad death occurred on Wednesday evening, Feb. 19, when Mr. George Kempt, aged 37, years, was called to his long home after a very brief illness. Mr. Kempt was taken with rheumatism, which was not looked upon with any alarm by his family until only a few hours before his death. In fact he was taken away almost without a moment's warning. For a few days he had been complaining of rheumatism in his leg, and Dr. Pettigrew was called in and was attending him. He seemed to be getting along all right but the trouble developed into an inflamatory type and attacked the heart with the above fatal result.

Deceased had been engaged in the tailoring business for himself for the past two or three years and was meeting with marked success. He was extremely well liked by the residents of the village and surrounding country, and apparently had a very successful business career in store for him. But death snapped the cord and now his wife and friends are left to mourn his early demise. The funeral on Saturday was the most largely attended that has been seen here since the death of the late Dr. Moffat. The local lodge of C.O.F., of which deceased was a member, attended in a body. Mrs. Kempt has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in her sad bereavement.

Mrs. Eton, relict of the late Wm. Eton, died on Tuesday morning at the residence of her daughter Mrs. A. S. Harrison, after a prolonged illness.

Miss Lila Finlay is visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Winnie Bailey of Peterborough, was in town last week.

Miss Winnie Bailey of Peterborough, was in town last week.

The Rev. N. H. Adams is attending the convention of Alliance.

There will be a concert under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school next Friday evening. Seventy persons are to take part. The leading feature of the entertainment will be the presentation of the famous "Peake Sisters."

Miss Ada McGill, White Cross nurse of Chicago, was visiting her sister Mrs. T. J. Rahal.

A successor to Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman is being looked for, and while Mr. Asquith is next in line, he is not personally popular.

Asiatic Problem Again; 200 Hindoos About to Arrive

The Prospects for the Future Are Very Dark—The Dominion Government May Have Precipitated a National Crisis.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 25—Attorney-General Bowser and several other members of the McBride government on Sunday night addressed a large Conservative mass meeting when the Asiatic question was discussed. Mr. Bowser announced that the Natal Act would be applied to the two hundred Hindoos coming on the 'Monteagle,' even though the vessel left before the passing of the Act. Mr. Bowser defended Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir's refusal to assent to the bill as constituted and ridiculed the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux's claim to having settled the whole question by a visit to Japan. The letter Mr. Lemieux brought back, said Mr. Bowser, really bound Japan to nothing. In the cases of the Japanese released by Chief Justice Hunter, Mr. Bowser declared it was the Dominion, and not the Japanese government, which was solicitous. Mr. Bowser added;

'If the full court in the coming appeal should overrule the rights of the Provincial Legislature, that will show where the responsibility for the present condition lies. It will be at Ottawa and nowhere else. There is still time for Ottawa to enact remedial legislation before the Dominion Parliament prorogues and respect the wishes and rights of the people of this province. We intend to keep this a white man's country, not one for Asiatics."—The Witness.

Accused Policeman of Using Threats to Make Her Answer

Lillian Armitage Made Above Accusation in Court To-day—Young Man Charged With Assault Was Dismissed, But Was Heavily Fined for Disorderly Conduct.

John Meade was discharged this morning at the police court on the charge of indecently assaulting Lillian Armitage, a girl of fifteen years on the night of Feb. 19th. Mr. G N. Gordon appeared for the prisoner while Mr. R. E. Wood conducted the prosecution.

Lillian Armitage was the only witness called on this charge. She stated that she met Meade in the post office on Wednesday afternoon and in order to get rid of him promised to meet him there the same evening. That night another man was with him and the three were in the post office yard together. The witness denied that there was any improper conversation took place between them

At this statement of the witness, the Crown Attorney deemed it advisable not to go on with the case as the girl was the principal witness and she denied the alleged assault.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

Ephraim Windover, who was in company with Meade last Wednesday night was charged with being drunk and disorderly. Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for him and pleaded not guilty. In this case there was a direct contradiction of the evidence but on strength of P C Newhall's, His Worship found Windover guiltty fining him ten dollars to be paid in three days.

P. C. Newhall in his evidence, swore that on the night in question, Windover and Meade came down George street drunk and using considerable bad language. They went up to the post office and by their unseemly conduct attracted a large crowd. The Armitage girl went into the post office. The men followed her. The three went into the post office yard where the talk that took place was certainly not that which would be spoken by respectable persons. Witness took the girl who told him she had been insulted. He then arrested Meade who on the way to the police station resisted strongly. He afterwards returned and got the Armitage girl who later was taken to the shelter.

Windover and Meade went into the box and denied the policeman's story. Lillian Armitage again took the stand.

Regarding certain questions asked her by P C. Newhall in the police station she said she had been asked questions she shouldn't have been.

'He threatened to put the handcuffs on me and put me in the cell, if I wouldn't answer,' she said.

To contradict this last statement, a gentleman who was present in the station at the time was sworn and denied that any such threats or inducements were made to her by the policeman.

Another heated argument took place when the father of the girl accused the policeman of telling him to go to the shelter and persuade his daughter to plead guilty. In doing so the prisoner would receive a sentence.

This startling accusation was positively denied.

Mr. Newhall stated that when stopped on the street by Mr. Armitage he refused to speak to him on the matter. He did not know why he should ask him to have his daughter plead guilty when no charge was laid against her.

A charge of disorderly conduct against Meade was next proceeded with. He was also fined ten dollars.

DRESS FABRICS

NEW AND EFFECTIVE

The largest stock of Dress Goods that has ever been shown in Peterborough or any city of a similar size, has been imported by us this Spring from Bradford, England, and Paris, France. These two cities produce the finest dress fabrics in the world, each manufacturing a distinct and separate style of cloth.

The main pattern feature for Spring and Summer '08, is the beautiful stripe effect. Never before has there been such pronounced tendency to any one pattern. There are also a great many plain clothes shown, such as Panamas, Voiles, Eolinnes, Armures, Cord de Soie, etc., in shades of Brown, Tan, Blue, Green and Grey. We also show some very nice light tweed effects for the Summer costume.

Our Prices are as ever consistent with true value from the lowest to highest Grade Goods. Choose your dress early and secure a place among the first on our Dressmaking Order Book.

HANDSOME SKIRTS

The Favored Dress Skirt

The much favored Dress Skirt has gained a prominent place in the women's wardrobe, and is not a minor part of it either. Our usual elegant range this season far surpasses any previous year, both in style and finish. Among the more pronounced styles are the gore and circular effects—seventeen, twenty and twenty-two gore—also pleated effects. They are made with folds, designs and silk trimming, in Chiffon, Panamas, Voiles, fine Serges and Venetians. All the newest styles of cut and trim are found here prices from $8 to $17

Also lower priced garments in natty styles.

GRACEFUL CORSETING

D. and A., the embodiment of grace and beauty, with pliancy and comfort a strong feature. The pose of the figure has a great deal to do with the appearance of a costume. With poorly fitted corsets there can be nothing but an unattractive, deformed pose, and with the result that an otherwise elegant costume is oft times made an ill-fitting excuse.

The D. and A. Corsets are the result of art genius and skill, they will embellish and beautify the wearer—give comfort and style alike. D. and A. Corsets are made in Canada and are the celebrated Corsets of form. All prices from .50 to 4.00

Especially Note—The New Form Training Corset for Stout figures without sacrificing ease and comfort. A perfectly hygenic garment, filling all the requirements of a Form Training Corset—a Corset without a rival.

Increase Taxes of Railways; Matter Considered at Toronto

Mr. Bowyer Says Railways Do Not Pay Fair Share.

No Adequate Return Given For Concessions—Hon. Col. Matheson Promises Government Will Consider the Question—Non-Resident Voters—Fishing Licenses Granted—Municipal Councils and Drainage.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—The ready response of Hon. A. J. Matheson to an urgent appeal to consider the question of railway taxation demonstrated in the Legislature yesterday the willingness of the Provincial Government to examine both sides of every question. While the Minister held to his view that it would be unwise to take any radical step suddenly at the present time he invited Mr. P. H. Bowyer (East Kent), who brought forward the question in a vigorous address, to confer with him and gave assurance of the fullest Government consideration.

In these days of subservient partyism in public life a member who has the stamina to differ frankly and openly with his leaders always creates a stir. Consequently the House, which had been more or less sleepily plodding through the order paper, suddenly sat up and began to take notice when Mr. Bowyer unexpectedly proceeded to stir the Government up on the question. The member for East Kent holds advanced views upon this, as upon other questions and he told his leaders he expected from them an increasing of the municipal tax from railways. Mr. Bowyer's remarks were punctuated by repeated applause. and the Provincial Treasurer congratulated him at the close.

It was during the discussion on the Government measure to amend the Supplementary Revenues Act that Mr. Bowyer created his mild sensation.

"I would like to learn," said he, "the Government's intentions on the question of railway taxation, and to urge upon it the advisability of increasing it to a sum more adequate and commensurate with the assessment of the farmers. I am ready," he continued, "to give the Government every credit for what it has done. It was a material advance in the right direction. But last year I was given reason to hope that it would go further. Is this hope to be realized?

"The Dominion Government has already paid to the railways in subsidies something like $181,000,000, besides some 40,000,000 acres of the public domain. Of this sum Ontario's share will reach $14,000,000. This province has done much for the railways. What has it secured in return?

"The present Provincial Government has done something—something material—and I give them credit therefor. But I was given to understand that what had been done was not a finality and I hope for additional good works. (Applause.)

"In Ontario to-day the railways do not pay their just share of taxation. I know they claim that this is a hard year, but the farmers had a hard summer, yet they do not escape their just share of taxation on that account.

"Throughout this province the railways only pay, in both municipal and provincial taxes, $100 per mile. In Michigan they pay $400; in Ohio, $478; in New Jersey, $1,000 and in Massachusetts, $1,500. What is the return? In Ontario we pay a three-cent passenger rate; in the States they only pay two. Besides the railways give the farmers a better freight rate on the other side than they do here.

"Let us take action," concluded Mr. Bowyer warmly, "and I urge the Government to demand and see to it that the railways pay their fair share of the taxes of this province." (Applause.)

Hon. Col. Matheson expressed his appreciation of the earnestness and conciseness with which Mr. Bowyer had made his appeal. It would bear fruit in time. The Government would give the fullest consideration to all he had so ably urged. At the present time, however, and with conditions as they were, coupled with the desire to secure additional railways, he did not think it would be wise to take further action. He commended Mr. Bowyer for the progressive and forceful attitude he had taken on the question, and said the Government would consult with him further.

Mr. Preston (Brant) complimented Mr. Bowyer on holding his party to its pledges. He recalled the enthusiasm of the present Government for the Pettypiece bill, and the manner in which they had instanced the Michigan system in the bye-gone days. In view of it all when they attained power big things were expected, but they had merely doubled the railway taxation.

Mr. Preston said he had no fault to find with what the Government had done, but that instead of carrying out all they had promised, they had all only gone a portion of the way. They, too, now regarded the Michigan system as a species of robbery.

Mr. A. B. McCoig (West Kent) introduced a bill to amend the Municipal Act under which clerks of municipalities are authorized to place the names of non-resident municipal voters on the lists at the polling place nearest where they reside. The bill is designed to avoid the necessity for the issue of an illegal number of certificates, an action which caused the recent annulment of the Raleigh Township elections. The bill was read a first time.

Mr. R. H. McIlroy (Carleton) secured the first reading of a bill to incorporate the Ottawa Hunt Club.

In response to a question from Mr. C. N. Smith (Sault Ste. Marie), Hon. Dr. Reaume stated that ten fishing licenses were granted on Lake Nipissing during 1907. They were granted to J. J. Martin, E. J. Weese, Mulligan and Terrance, D. Lang & Son, A. L. Hatch, W. A. Cockburn, John Sullivan, J. R. O'Neil and J. J. Sullivan. Two nets were granted for each license. One licensee had two licenses and the others one and $300 was paid for each license.

Hon. Richard Harcourt desired to know what was the average salary paid to rural teachers in the past three years. The Minister of Education said he would supply the information, adding thereto the average salary in the three years previous.

Mr. P. H. Bowyer (East Kent) moved the second reading of his bill, asked for by the Kent County Council extending the powers of municipal councils in drainage matters, and providing that farmers and land owners must be consulted by engineers who are building drains through their property. Mr. Bowyer warmly championed the matter.

Mr. McDougal (Ottawa) took exception to the bill. It would make drainage work more long-drawn-out and expensive. "If the engineer has to stop and consult with every farmer through whose property the drain runs and listen to complaints," Mr. McDougal said, "he will never get through. I don't see the necessity of it. The engineer is best able to judge."

"Clause two should carry if nothing else," observed Hon. Mr. Hanna, and the bill was passed.

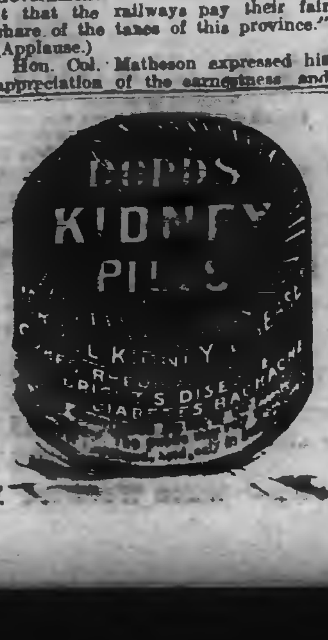
Mr. McMillan (Glengarry) wanted to know how many cases had been tried by Drainage Referee Henderson and what expense had been incurred over and above his salary.

Hon. Mr. Foy said there were two drainage referees, the senior being Col. J. B. Rankin, K.C., of Chatham. He would make the returns for both.

The presentation of bills to amend the Assessment Act by Messrs. Mahaffy (Muskoka) and Ferguson (Grenville) for second readings, prompted a statement from the Prime Minister, Hon. Mr. Whitney, that it was not desired, unless found absolutely necessary, to tamper with the Assessment Act at the present session.

Mr. Hoyle's bill to amend the Landlord and Tenant Act went to the legal committee, Mr. Auld's bill to amend the Drainage Act to the municipal committee, and Mr. Hoyle's bill to amend the Line Fences' Act to the agricultural committee.

One Government bill was introduced by Hon. Dr. Reaume to amend the Game and Fisheries Act. The amendment permits the keeping of game, under ordinary conditions, for fifteen days after the close of the open season, and makes the keeping of game in cold storage for an indefinite period legal.



SWEATING IN LONDON

Terrible Conditions Under Which Seamstresses Are Working.

Make Trousers at Two Pence a Pair—Labor Till Daybreak to Earn a Crust of Bread—Cheap Shirts Put Together For Six Pence a Dozen—Bill For Relief In the House of Commons.

New York, Feb. 27—The Herald has received the following cable despatch from London: In an interview yesterday Mr. J. J. Mallon, secretary of the National Anti-Sweating League, cited a number of instances of sweating which had recently come to his notice. Appalling cases, he says, are continually occurring in factories and in homes, particularly in the cheap tailoring trade.

A terrible story has just been told to a coroner in the East End. A trousers finisher created a sensation in court by saying that she got two pence a pair. She had often worked until 4 o'clock in the morning to get a crust of bread. She had to fetch her work and take it back again.

An officer of the Anti-sweating League had found that a trouser worker labored very often from daybreak until she no longer was able to see the garment upon which she was engaged and she earned five shillings a week. When food was lacking she sustained herself entirely upon weak tea, which she sometimes drank to the extent of fourteen cups a day. At night her covering was the trousers which were being finished. With much plying of the needle the worker's hands had become misshapen.

Shirt-making is equally as bad in some of its branches, and in Woolwich cheap shirts are made for as little as sixpence a dozen. Again and again one hears of poor seamstresses who have pawned the material given them for shirt-making to get food.

"In homes in East London there are a number of comparatively small trades in respect to which there is much sweating. The brushworker for filling a thousand holes with bristles, which she has first to pack into appropriate bundles and then secure with wire, gets sixpence halfpenny.

The bill against sweating which the league has been promoting has passed its second reading in the Commons and will probably become law this year.

A PLOT WHICH FAILED.

How Portugal Was to Have Been In General Revolt.

Lisbon, Feb. 27.—The mystery behind the murder of King Carlos and Prince Luiz is not likely ever to be completely lifted. The new Portuguese Government prefers that the crime should be regarded both at home and abroad as the deed of individuals carried away by the political passions of the moment.

The connection between the Republicans and the regicides is difficult to establish. The disclaimers of leaders like Bernardino Machado must be accepted so far as the "peaceful wing" is concerned, but this cannot be said of the advanced or Radical wing, as there is plenty of evidence that they had planned a rising on the night of the crime.

Signals to the ships in the harbor and the barracks on the slope of St. George's Hill were shown toward midnight from the roof of the national library, and bands of men went to the barracks of an artillery and infantry regiment, which were to join in the proclamation of a republic. The signals brought no responses, and the doors of the barracks were found locked.

The entire conspiracy fell through, it is related, because of the treason of a young lieutenant, who, after the assassination of the King, confessed to his father, an officer, the role he was to play. The young man claimed that he had been deceived, as he did not know regicide was contemplated, having been led to suppose that only the life of the dictator was to be taken.

DOUMA MEMBERS VISIT CZAR.

Crown Prince Toddled Along Between Royal Pair—Visitors Cheered.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—Emperor Nicholas received at Tsarkoe-Selo yesterday a deputation from the Douma, numbering 320, and representing all parties excepting the Constitutional-Democrats, the Radicals and the Poles. His Majesty made an address, in which he said that the adoption of the agrarian problem, on the basis of observance of the rights of private property was the most important question before the Parliament. In making this recommendation the Emperor appeals again to the loyalty of the peasant masses of the empire.

In conclusion, His Majesty expressed his wishes for the happiness and prosperity of Russia, and then made a sweeping bow to the Douma delegates. Then, with the crown prince between the Emperor and the Empress, moved through the assembled ranks of deputies, stopping to greet each delegate and recalling to many of the members present that they had met before. The little crown prince was in high spirits and he pranced along between his parents. The presence of this little boy of four years was an enlivening feature of the reception.

Upon completing the circle the imperial pair withdrew. As soon as the Emperor left he was cheered time and again by his visitors.

A Surplus at Belleville.

Belleville, Feb. 27.—The waterworks system of this city, which is a municipal utility, has just been shown by the auditor's report, now in press, to have made a net profit of $2,874.41 in 1907, after paying running expenses and providing for interest and sinking fund.

Charged With Swindling Mother.

Hamilton, Feb. 27.—Joseph Scanlon, whose home is near Guelph, was summoned to the Police Court yesterday as a witness in an assault case, and was placed under arrest in court by High Constable Merewether on the charge of obtaining $590 from his mother, who is 91 years of age, by false pretences. It is alleged that he brought his mother to Hamilton and induced her to sign a check for $500 in his favor by telling her that she had diphtheria and could not get home unless she signed a document, which afterwards turned out to be a check. The prisoner claims that his mother knew what she was signing, and that she was perfectly willing to give him the money.

In the House at Ottawa; Need for Cheap Alcohol

Mr. Bole's Motion For a Committee of Enquiry.

Aim to Reduce the Cost—Inland Revenue Department to Consider Question — Mr. Lemieux Censured In Regard to Postal Changes—What New Arrangement Has Accomplished—Some Immigration Figures.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—The order paper was cleared of several pages of questions at yesterday's sitting of the Commons, most of them relating to land transactions in the west and contracts in the east.

There was also a talk on alcohol precipitated by Mr. Bole of Winnipeg, president of the drug trust, who moved for a commission to look into the question of cheapening alcohol for the manufacture of drugs. Incidentally, the subject of pure alcohol for industrial purposes was introduced into the debate, and the Minister of Inland Revenue made the statement that until Canadian farmers can produce potatoes for eight to ten cents a bushel, they cannot expect to get pure alcohol for 20 cents a gallon.

Mr. Miller of South Grey renewed his plea of last session in favor of the cheapening of denatured alcohol, and advocated the establishment of a denaturing plant in Toronto.

Mr. Robitaille contended that the present protection on alcohol amounted to about 10 per cent. Owing to the high price of grain alcohol, methylated spirits was being used, unfortunately, in the preparation of drugs and essences.

The Minister of Inland Revenue said the motion called for practically alcohol for pharmaceutical and medicinal purposes. This was an entirely distinct proposition from that of denatured alcohol. The real difficulty in regard to the former was that after the medicinal preparations were put up from alcohol, they went out into general use beyond the jurisdiction of the department. The use of duty free alcohol was not permitted in England, Germany or in the United states. It was impossible to permit the several thousand druggists in Canada to use alcohol free in the preparation of their productions.

Certainly, Mr. Templeman declared, the Government could not consent to the appointment of a commission.

Mr. Perley congratulated the Minister upon resisting the demand of his followers, from Winnipeg, for pure alcohol for patent medicine purposes. Some of these men, so strong on alcohol that they were used by some people in lieu of spirits, for drinking. The question of denatured alcohol for industrial and other uses, was so important, he regretted it had been mixed up with the subject of the resolution. It was important that the farmers of the country should get cheap alcohol for machine fuel.

Mr. Templeman feared that it would be long before alcohol could be produced in Canada cheaply enough to compete with petroleum. In Germany there was a duty on petroleum and potatoes for distillation were produced for eight to ten cents per bushel. Until Canadian farmers could raise potatoes at that price, we could not expect to get alcohol for 20 cents a gallon.

The resolution was passed as amended by the Minister, an investigation to be made by the Department.

Mr. Monk was informed that during the period ended June 30, 1907, there entered Canada 105,512 immigrants via ocean ports, and 211.859 from the United States. Of the former 211 were refused admission and 126 deported. Of those from the United States three were refused admission and one deported.

Sir Frederick Borden replied that no Ross rifles had been reported unfit or unserviceable except in the case of accident, which was the result of its being tampered with. Last year the rifle had been suspended by the Northwest Mounted Police, so the police could be armed with the improved pattern. At present the force was armed with 804 Winchester carbines, 20 Lee-Enfields and 204 Lee-Metfords. The force would yet be armed with the Ross rifle.

Mr. Armstrong of Lambton, on a motion for correspondence respecting the recent changes in newspaper postage, censured the Postmaster-General for having maintained the high postal rates on weekly papers while arranging to have dailies carried to addresses in the United States at the former low rate of postage. He argued that no better immigration literature could be sent into the United States than the Canadian weekly papers.

Mr. Lemieux explained at length the present arrangement, declaring that unless Canada would consent to allow into the country a class of publications that was undesirable it would be impossible to give for Canadian weeklies going into the United States the benefits of the old rates of low postage.

Mr. Lefurgey and Mr. Martin (Prince Edward Island) criticized the arrangement as unreasonable, and a reflection upon the business methods of the Department. Finally the motion for the correspondence was adopted.

REDISTRIBUTION IN QUEBEC.

Number of Members In Legislature to Be Increased—Private Bills.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—It is understood that the session which opens in Quebec on Tuesday next, will be of considerable importance. It is said that a redistribution bill will be introduced, by which the number of members will be increased.

At Confederation the number of members was placed at 65, and this was increased by Premier Mercer's redistribution measure to 73. It is believed that the County of Hochelaga, which has a population of 50,000 and one member, will be given three representatives by the coming bill, and that the County of Pontiac will also be given two members, as that constituency is like a great province by itself.

It is thought, however, that La Prairie and Napierville will be joined together as they are for federal representation, and there is also a report to the effect that the Magdalene Islands, with only 500 voters, will be again tacked on to the County of Gaspe, as was the case before the last gerrymander.

Several private bills will also be introduced, amongst others one by Mr. Langlois, M.P.P. for St. Louis, who wants the people to elect their school commissioners here in Montreal, as they do in Toronto and other cities. This measure, however, may be fought by both the Catholic and Protestant clergy and will, perhaps, be thrown out. The statement is also made that the close of the coming season will be followed by the dissolution of the Legislature.

BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE FIRM.

Debate on Congo Question In Imperial House of Commons.

London, Feb. 27.—The House of Commons, after a short debate, adopted a resolution asking the Government to "do all in its power to secure the transfer of the control of the Congo Independent State, and failing such transfer within reasonable time, assuring the Government of Parliament's hearty support of any measures that it might be necessary for the British Government to take, either alone, or in conjunction with the powers that signed the Berlin Act, to ensure the effective carrying out of its provisions."

Sir Edward Grey, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in a speech sympathizing with the terms of the resolution, repudiated, on behalf of the Government, to establish political or territorial terms, or doing anything directed against the Belgian people. No transfer, he said, would be satisfactory unless it gave the Belgian Parliament a free hand and full control.

It would be impossible for Great Britain to take the initiative, while the discussion on the Congo question was pending between King Leopold and his people, "but," he added, "this Government will always welcome the co-operation of the other powers and if, at the close of the Belgian Parliamentary session, we have to deal with the existing Government of the Congo unchanged, we must be free to deal with the questions arising out of our own treaty rights in our own way."

Earl Percy, on behalf of the Opposition, expressed approval.

TO STOP UNDESIRABLES.

Immigrants Must Have Certificate of Fitness From Society Sending Them.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—The Minister of the Interior, after consultation with the officials of the immigration branch, both in this country and in London, have taken steps which will, it is believed, result in preventing the influx from the British Isles during the present year of any immigrants other than those of a desirable class.

Investigation has shown that the least desirable class of immigration which we are now receiving from the United Kingdom is that which results from the efforts of the benevolent and charitable societies, and of those who are out of employment in Toronto and other Canadian centres a very large proportion is found to belong to this class.

Under these circumstances the Minister of the Interior has thought it best to order that, after April 15, any person who comes to Canada on assisted passage, through charitable or public funds, will be subject to exclusion from this country, unless he has a certificate from the Canadian immigration authorities in London that he is a suitable settler.

Ex-Mayor Not Guilty.

Sydney, Feb. 27.—D. M. Burchell, ex-mayor of the town of Glace Bay, and for some years superintendent of stores of the Dominion Coal Co., was yesterday declared not guilty of the charge of theft of $389.75, preferred by J. K. L. Ross at the instance of the coal company.

This is the second of eighteen counts on which Burchell was indicted by the grand jury.

The remaining sixteen counts will hardly be tried, inasmuch as the evidence is practically the same in the remaining charges.

Meantime Burchell was allowed to go on his own recognizance in the sum of $3,000.

Queen's Narrow Escape.

The Hague, Feb. 27.—Queen Wilhelmina and Prince Henry, her husband, had a miraculous escape from serious injury in a carriage accident near the palace yesterday. The prince was driving the carriage in which Her Majesty was also seated. In a narrow part of the road an electric street car, coming at full speed, suddenly collided with the vehicle before the prince could turn out. The carriage was badly wrecked, three wheels being torn off, but neither the Queen nor the prince was hurt.

Bucket Brigade Saved Town.

Toulon, Man., Feb. 27.—Fire broke out at midnight in the Pioneer Hotel, which was burned with a loss of $10,-00. A bucket brigade of fifty men saved the business portion of the town.

The Royal Hotel, Campbelltown, N. B., was burned yesterday with $25,-000 loss.

Programme for The Convention

Of National Sanitarium Association to be Held at Toronto March 4th.

The programme of the conference of municipal representatives called to meet in the Royal Alexandra Theatre Toronto, on March 4th, by the National Sanitarium Association to discuss how more effective provision can be made for the relief of those who are suffering from and for the prevention of the spread of tuberculosis is one that will likely attract a large number of delegates from all parts of the province.

His Excellency Earl Grey will preside and address the conference. Addresses will also be delivered by His Honor Sir Mortimer Clark, a number of leading medical men, mayors, wardens and others.

The Mayor and Council of the city of Toronto propose to entertain at luncheon the municipal delegates at 12.30 noon, and His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor will give a reception in the evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The conference will be opened at 2 p.m.

There has been a remarkable awakening within the past year regarding the tuberculosis problem. There is little doubt that the outcome of the conference on March 4th will have an important bearing on legislation that is expected from the Local Legislature during the present session.

There is not a municipality in the province that is not interested in this great problem.

The Peterborough branch will appoint delegates at a meeting tomorrow.

POOR OUTLOOK IN MONTREAL

Coming Season Likely to be Slack in Building Line

Montreal, Feb. 27—Thousands of men may be thrown out of work in the building trades in Montreal during the coming season.

The above statement was made today at the office of the Building Inspector at the City Hall. There are no big buildings in sight, and up to the present, said the official, the record shows a falling off of 40 per cent, when compared with last year which would indicate a slump in building operations in this city.

It was pointed out to the Star that the cost of building material had increased during the last few years to such an extent that those desiring to own their own homes prefer to buy buildings that were constructed some years ago when material and labor were all cheaper.

No applications for factory permits have been received and it is not expected that there will be any extensions whatever during the coming season owing to the depression in the United States the tight money market, and the stand taken by the banks against broadening out.

"There is an army of unemployed men in the city today," he added, "and the out-of-work problem will in all probability be one of the most important questions with which the authorities will have to grapple with in the near future."

Railway Along the River Front

Senic Line Between Brockville and Prescott Proposed

Brockville, Feb. 25.—It is proposed to build a railway along the banks of the St. Lawrence from Brockville to Prescott, a distance of sixteen miles, through the picturesque scenery of the Thousand Islands district.

The chief promoter of this latest scenic line is Mr. J. B. Gaughin of Brockville, who, it is reported, has succeeded in interesting some British capitalists, including the Marquis of Queensbury, in the scheme. The project includes a street railway in Brockvile, which wil connect with the new inter-urban line at Butternut about four miles outside that city, and the erection of a summer park on the Dominion Park model at Maitland, midway between Brockville and Prescott. Altogether the scheme wil involve an outlay of about $1,500 000, and it is exciting much interest in the district, which contains a population of about 150,000.

It is reported that application will be made to Parliament within the next month for a charter, and that during the summer surveys will be made and part of the grading done.

Yankee Sailors See a Bull Fight

Lima, Peru, Feb. 26.—Ten thousand spectators, more than half of whom were officers and men of the American fleet, witnessed a thrilling bull fight here yesterday afternoon. President Pardo and his staff occupied the royal box, and the adjoining boxes were filled with the higher officers of the visiting warships.

Society, too, was prominently represented and the spectacle from start to finish was not soon to be forgotten, especially by those who had never witnessed such a scene before.

The dangers of bull fighting were graphically illustrated for the first bull in the ring tossed the chief matador and disabled him from further work. The fifth bull gored the throat of the second matador and he was carried bleeding to his quarters. It is not likely that he can survive.

PREMIER HAS NO PROMISE.

Three-Fifths Clause Not Likely to Be Repealed.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—Replying to the request of a deputation of about a thousand delegates of the Ontario Alliance, that the three-fifths clause in local option voting be repealed, Premier Whitney yesterday declined to make any promise. It was really a challenge on the part of the Alliance, a resolution having been adopted "that the delegates to this convention use the franchise for the repeal of the three-fifths clause in reference to local option contests."

The Premier, after listening to addresses, said: "It is altogether possible that we may fail in many respects because we are mortal, but it is our duty to carefully consider a public matter. But, when we have considered it, is it not our duty to stand by it? Is it our duty to be moved by threats? Is it our duty to be moved by cajolment? Whatever else we may be, let me tell you this: As long as this present Government exists, as long as it has the breath of life in it, it will act upon its honest convictions, and we are prepared to take the consequences which our fellow-citizens may visit upon us."

AFTER MONTREAL ITALIANS.

Search by Police Secures Many Revolvers, Dirks and Razors.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—The latest news concerning the recent Italian tragedies is as follows: Vitto Miccoli, the alleged murderer of Antonio Di Luca, has not yet been arrested, and detectives are searching for him in the United States. Pasquale Pelegrine admits that he gave Miccoli $5 to enable him to leave town, and Chief Carpenter yesterday took out a warrent against him for assisting the escape.

Michael Totoro, who shot his wife, has been liberated on personal bail of $2,000, and two bonds of $1,000 each. He attended his wife's funeral.

Chief Carpenter and Chief McCaskill have approached the judges with a view to obtaining power to search on the street any Italian suspected of having weapons, and the matter is to be brought under the notice of the Government. Pending the Government's decision, Chief McCaskill searched a number of Italians and got revolvers, stilettos, razors and dirks.

Who Is Baby John?

Oakland, Cal., Feb. 27.—"Baby John" Martin, whose confession has implicated his mother, Mrs. Isabella Martin, in the alleged dynamiting of the home of Judge Ogden, in Oakland, and arson in Weaversville, where she is confined to jail, was brought to Oakland yesterday and placed in charge of the matron at the city prison. The police hope to prove that "Baby John" is not a son of either Mrs. Martin or of the Princess de Chimay, (formerly Clara Ward, of Detroit), and they will try to discover the true parentage of the child.

A Pretty Picture of Local Politics

A doctor not a hundred miles distant from the city recently mistook one well-known citizen of Peterborough, for another, and poured his longings for the revival of a friend's political career into his ears. He outlined the success already achieved by the for-the-time-being-sufficiently-submerged one in getting well known and powerful magnates, lay and clerical to promise to support him. One candidate of the opposite persuasion was to be allowed in by acclamation with the hope that he would wink his left eye in return. Another candidate for another house of the same political bias as the latter, was supposed to be a likely objector to this but he was to be silenced by force of arms (and gab). The prospect was it is true a forlorn one and is one still and will likely remain one, but the highly-colored word picture of the fond one's intentions was worthy of a place in an art exhibition, somewhere.

WITNESS TAKEN FROM BOX AND WAS ARRESTED

Two Young Men Arrested During Progress of Case in Court To-day

Considerable excitement was caused in police court this morning over the arrest of one of the witnesses in the Crouter case. Emmett Kane was giving evidence but being intoxicated, Chief Rossel thought that in fairness to the witness he should be given time to sober up. His Worship ordered that he be placed in a cell for awhile. P. C. Newhall went to take Kane but he put up such a stubborn resistance that P. C. McGinty had to come to Newhall's assistance. Holding tightly to the door the policemen had a hard struggle with their prisoner, and it was not until P. C. Meharry took a hand in it that Kane was finally placed in the cell.

Another young man gave vent to his feelings by yelling as loud as he could and then rushing downstairs, but P. C. Newhall caught him and locked him up.

ENROLLMENT OF MEMBERS

At S. A. Barracks To-night—Programme and Presentation of General Booth's Picture

A special enrollment meeting will be held tonight at the Salvation Army Barracks when new members will be received. A good programme of music, singing and drills will be given.

A feature of the evening will be the presentation to Mr. J. Carr of the local corps, of a handsome picture of General Booth. The picture is the prize for selling the largest number of Christmas War Crys in Peterborough. Mr. Carr disposed of 310.

Local Market Likely to be Made Municipal Enterprize

Property Committee Will Make This Recommendation at Council Meeting To-night—Sanitary Inspector Ball to be Made Market Clerk.

If the recommendation of the Property committee is adopted at to-night's meeting of the City Council the Peterborough market will be made a municipal enterprise. It is proposed to place Sanitary Inspector Ball in the position of market clerk commencing April 1st, and to have the market under the direct control of the city. At a meeting of the Property committee yesterday afternoon the market question was discussed at some length and it was decided to recommend to the council that the city place Sanitary Inspector Ball in charge of the market and make it a municipal enterprise. In the past the market clerkship has been sold by tender, the person securing the position collecting and retaining all fees. The present clerk's tenure of office expires at April 1st, and if the committee's action is endorsed tonight the change will take place on the date indicated above.

The committee also authorized the chairman to have the plate glass in the old Richard Hall building on Simcoe street insured so that the city would be protected in case of accident. The city, now owns the building, it having been donated by the Nicholls estate as a site for the public library.

It was decided to fix up the small room adjoining the city council chamber as an office for the assessors.

Those present at the meeting of the committee were; Ald. Bradburn, chairman; Johnston, Gillespie and Morgan.

Another Advance Man Hurt; Mr. Barnett Thrown Out of Bus

This seems an unlucky time of the year for advance agents. A short time ago Mr. Harry LaBelle, the man ahead for Green's Picture Show, had his right hand so badly burned by an explosion of the electric light at his hotel here that he was unable and probably is still unable to write with it.

The latest advance man to get injured is Mr. Barnett, the representative for the Royal Alexandra Stock Company. The Company appears at the Grand all next week and Mr. Barnett is here in the interests of his show.

It happened at Trenton the other day. Mr. Barnett, in company with some others, was in the 'bus going from the hotel at which he was staying to the station, when the horses became frightened and ran away. In the toss up he fared badly, being thrown out and receiving several cuts in the face. As a result his face is swathed in a big bandage and it will be some time before the marks of his unpleasant experiences are effaced.

Wages for River Drivers Will Be Lower Than Last Season

The wages which river drivers will receive during the coming season will be less than they obtained last year. This is the opinion of several of the local employment agents. The amount of lumber cut during the present winter was less than last year, they say, and consequently there ther ewill be less logs to bring down and fewer drivers required.

"I shouldn't wonder if some of the men who received $2 a day last year should receive only $1 this spring," said a local lumberman. "Only the very best men will receive $50 a month, which rate the majority of them last year obtained."

"River drivers' wages will be from $30 to $36 a month, I expect," said a prominent member of another lumber firm. Of course the very best men will receive a higher rate, but not many of them will be paid as much as last year.

OBITUARY

JOHN ANDERSON

A respected citizen of Peterborough passed away yesterday morning in the person of Mr. John Anderson, one of the oldest residents of Peterborough in his 80th year. The deceased gentleman was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1828 and removed to Canada when a boy in 1855, settling with his parents in the township of Seymour, in the County of Northumberland. He removed to Peterborough about fifty years ago, where he has resided ever since. His wife and ten children survive. They are John C., Chas. E.; Miss Lucy; Miss Susie; and Mrs. W. G. Robertson, Peterborough; Bruce and Mrs. Decker, Oxbow, Sask.; Mrs. Davidson Alameda, Sask.; W., H. and Jane of Bobcaygeon.

In religion the deceased was a member of St. Andrew's church and in politics was a Liberal. Mr. Anderson was one of Peterborough's most respected citizens and was highly esteemed by those who knew him intimately for his sterling qualities, and uprightness of character. During his whole residence here Mr. Anderson was connected with the Dickson Company, which regarded him as deserving of the most implicit confidence.

For some years Mr. Anderson represented the then village of Ashburnham in the municipal council.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, 522 Rogers St. tomorrow at 2.30 p.m. to Little Lake Cemetery.

SPORTING NEWS

A Comic Opera To-night "Examiner Versus Review"

Peterborough Band Will Play the Instrumental Score—The Review Will Make the Actual Score—Some Parting Notes.

Manager Craig, of the Examiner team, handed the Review this morning the following statement for publication:—

"The Examiner team is going on the ice to-night determined to see what the ice feels like. We will win if we score enough goals; if we do not win the spectators will know why. We don't ask for your cheers, but we want all the lemons that can be thrown on the ice. We will feel more at home with plenty of yellow fruit to swell our ranks. The more the merrier, you know. We are making the sacrifice for the benefit of the Children's Aid Society.

The game starts at eight o'clock and will continue until nine, wind and weather permitting. There will be skating between nine and ten o'clock. The admission fee is only ten cents. The proceeds go to the Children's Aid Society.

The Peterborough band will supply a good programme of music during the game and for the skating afterwards. The musicians are giving their services gratuitously in view of the fact that the Children's Aid Society are to have the proceeds.

The Review hockey team has been strengthened by the arrival of a new man. However, he will not be in the game to-night but we hope to have him on the line-up in February 1928.

A "hobo" hockey league has been organized in Lindsay. We nominate the Examiner seven as fit and proper persons for the organization.

Strathconas and Norwood In Interesting Exhibition

The Locals Won by 7-4—Although Only Two Regular Men Were on Their Lineup—Doherty and Huyck—The Losers Put Up a Great Argument—An Excellent Game.

Considering the fact that they were short four of their regular players, Norwood did surprisingly well in their game with the Straths, last night, when the latter defeated them by 7 to 4. Norwood was without the services of Kempt, Scott, Nichol and Pearce, who were unable to accompany the team owing to different reasons. Doherty was the only one of the regular forwards who chased the puck for the speedy wearers of the green and white and in the latter stages of the game particularly he chased it to great advantage.

The Strathconas presented their their full line-up and played fast and aggressive hockey. Ray was the particular star of the Strathcona bunch, and he played a dazzling game. His work was quick and accurate and he played the whole game without legging a minute. Weatherstone at right wing also broke away for many straight and strong dashes and played a first-class game. Long and McMillan did good work, the latter showing up best in the latter portion of the second half. Wilson played a neat game in goal, while "Bill" Meagher at point was right on and did some excellent relief work. Dusty at cover played his usual hard and effective game.

There was not a great deal to pick between the Norwood men. Every player showed good form and the whole seven gave an exhibition of hard game playing.

The forwards skated and checked back with a dash and a vim that was a revelation to the spectators. Hendren, Morrow and Rogers, the Trent Valley wing men, are not as fast or as experienced a trio as Kempt, Scott and Pearce, but they stayed with the pace all the way through and hung on to their checks and caused them all the bother possible. Doherty made some great individual runs, and in this respect he and Ray were undoubtedly the most conspicuous men on the ice. The Norwood captain, however missed Kempt, the team mate with whom he has cooperated so well this season.

There was a good attendance of spectators and enthusiasm ran high. The game was as interesting as any seen on local ice this winter, and much more interesting than the large majority of them. In fact, it was a pleasing surprise to those who saw it and was a fitting aftermath to the city league series this winter.

The contest was a strenuous one, and several penalties were handed out by Referee George Lynch, who gave the greatest satisfaction, to both teams. They were not for any serious offences, however, and were mostly for lesser infractions incidental to any close and hard fought game. The ice was in good condition.

THE GAME

Huycke was the first man to give the referee displeasure, and was boarded for one minute. It was anybody's game as far as the play went for the first few minutes. Ray got the first tally on a pass from Dusty after seven minutes' play. 1—0.

Rogers and McMillan slashed each other in a little mix-up and were counted away for two minutes. Morrow drew first blood for the visitors. 1—1.

Ray, on a scintillating lonesome dash, found the nets for the Straths. 2—1.

Dusty secured the last goal in this half. 5—2.

SECOND HALF.

Dusty tripped Hendren and the referee gave him two minutes. Morrow did the necessary for Norwood after a pretty rush. 5—3.

Hendren was given a minutes' rest. A trip of Weatherstone's was seen by the man with the bell and he was instructed to leave the ice for a minute. McMillan scored. 6—3.

Doherty made a lightning dash and tallied. 6—4.

McMillan beat out the Norwood goaltender on a splendid shot. 7—4.

Dusty was penalized two minutes for tripping.

The teams;—

Strathconas		Norwood

Wilson		J. Doherty

Meagher		Huycke

GOALS SCORED.

Strathconas—Ray.
Norwood—Morrow.
Strathconas—Ray.
Strathconas—Long.
Strathconas—Long.
Norwood—Hendren.
Strathconas—Dusty.

SECOND HALF.

Norwood—Morrow.
Strathconas—McMillan.
Norwood—Doherty.
Strathconas—McMillan.

NOTES.

It was a game worth seeing.

Norwood's showing was much better than expected.

The spectators were divided in their support of the teams.

Huycke played a great game at point. His experience in goal served him well and he helped out Doherty a lot, playing close to the nets and stopping many shots.

NO PUCKS OF WOOD THANKS

One Rubber Puck is Enough for the Examiner-Review Game To-night

There has been some talk of throwing wooden pucks on the ice during the press game tonight. While the game is essentially a humoresque there is such a thing as carrying the joke too far. The wooden puck stunt is by no means a new or a funny one, and one puck is enough on the ice for any game whether it be a burlesque or a Stanley Cup match.

The wooden puck jokers are requested to think of something more original. There is no sense in spoiling the fun for both the spectators and the players.

Eurekas May Play Straths

The Eurekas will go to Barrie to play Johnny Dyment's Colts on Thursday night, and will try and play a return game here next week.

Mr. Joe Hay was in the city yesterday and interviewed "Pete" Sanagan, manager of the Eurekas, and Eurekas, champions of last year's junior city league, will likely go to Peterborough on Friday night to play the city league champions of that burg. A return game will be played here. Three of the O.H.A. team will figure on the line-up; Kyle, Hunter and Curson. The other players will be Lowry, Tackaberry, Green and Cronk.

Harry Despard, the Picton star, will play point for the Eurekas in the games for the city championship. Andy Kyle will be moved to cover, and Hunter to rover. This will make the fast defence in the junior O.H.A. —Toronto News.

CRESSMAN'S LOST TO LAKEFIELD

Local Option Intermediates Won by 5-4—Tisdale Was Hurt

Cressman's played the intermediate Lakefield seven in Lakefield last night and were defeated by 5-4. At half time Cressmans' led by 3-2 but were weakened in the second half, Tisdale being knocked out by a heavy check which forced him to retire for the rest of the game, the play being continued with six men a side.

Cressmans lined up as follows:

Gola—Titterson.
Point—Little.
Cover—Scott.
Rover—Darling.
Centre—Tisdale.
Right—Harrison.
Left—Patterson.

CURLERS GO TO LINDSAY

Four rinks of Peterborough curlers leave for Lindsay this evening and tonight will meet the representatives of the Lindsay club in the second round of the Peterborough-Lindsay cup competition. Tomorrow afternoon they will meet four Orillia rinks in the second round of the Shepherd-Neilll competition. The locals will have four strong rinks and will work hard to pull out a victory.

ATHLETICS

Cleveland Leader; "When a Cleveland crowd saw crack skaters from New York, Chicago, Milwaukee, Buffalo and other American cities beaten in every race last Saturday by a Toronto lad, while another Canadian from the same place was the winner's swiftest rival, the result seemed largely a matter of climate. There is more ice in Canada than there is in the United States. The point is that the Canadians do what might be expected of them in winter sports—and a little more. Then, to prove that it is not all a question of climate, they go out in the summer and made a splendid showing in rowing and yachting, golf and lacrosse. They are not bad at baseball. They have won more honors in recent years than this country, where there are fifteen times as many people to pick athletes from, in long distance running. Clearly, it can't be all climate."

RUNNING

There is a chance of a three-mile race between Tom Longboat and Percy Sellen. Although they are both club-mates in the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club, intense rivalry exists between the pair ever since the Indian came within a second of beating the Englishman's five-mile Canadian record of 26.25, made at the Island oval. At Boston in the other day Sellen took the first three miles. He set a hot clip, and in a desperate finish beat Tom in by five yards. Sellen fell exhausted, while the Onondaga was so angry over the trimming that he wanted to hold a war dance on his prostrate form. He demanded a chance to get at Sellen, and has been sore ever since over it. Today when he was told that he could name his distance to meet Sellen he simply said, "Three miles."

Sellen said three miles suited him, and they will be put together shortly. The chances are that the race will be pulled off indoors at an I.C.A.C. Club affair. There will be blood on the moon when they get away from the mark.

After Sellen and the Indian get through Tom Coley and Jack Tait can have a whirl at him if they are as anxious as their friends would have the public believe.

Hartley is Apparently in Fifth Place at Kansas City

Despatches Are Somewhat Mixed—Hard to Get Definite Information—Hoagland Maintains a Good Lead.

News of David Hartley is as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth. A despatch this afternoon does not mention Hartley at all, but there is a probability that an error has been made in the names of the contestants and that "Blake" has been put in where Hartley's name should be.

The despatch from Kansas City is as follows;—

Toronto, Feb. 27.—A despatch from Kansas City, Mo., says that at midnight last night the standing of the walkers in the six day race was as follows;—

NAME.	MILES.	LAPS
Hoagland	154	5
Slater	148	1
Meiser	148	0
Player	144	10
Blake	125	7
Simpson	100	0
Lloyd	86	9
Stokes	84	9

This despatch does not mention David Hartley, the Peterborough walker, who started in the contest and who yesterday was 15 miles behind the leader, Hoagland, of Auburn, N.Y. However, there is no record of a Blake competing in the contest, and Blake competing in the contest, and this may be Hartley.

The standing of the walkers at the end of the first 24 hours was as follows;—

Hoagland—108 miles 9 laps.
Meiser—102 miles 7 laps.
Player—101 miles 4 laps.
Slater—100 miles.
Hartley—93 miles 4 laps.
Simpson—79 miles.
Stokes—56 miles.
McLinn—74 miles.
West—69 miles.
Mitchell—62 miles.
Pratt—81 miles.

C.G.E. TEAMS WILL PLAY

THE PROGRESS OF THE G.T.R.

Line Will be in Operation Between Fort William and Edmonton in Spring

Winnipeg, Feb. 27.—Quickly, steadily and systematically the Grand Trunk Pacific railway west of Winnipeg and the Transcontinental lies east are making elaborate preparations for opening, and especially from Fort William to Edmonton. Throughout the extreme extent thousands of men are working with unceasing energy to make possible the movement of grain to the head of the lakes this spring.

The great yards in St. Boniface are totally enclosed by a high fence and are about two miles in length and several hundred yards in width. Twenty to thirty miles of track have been laid east of St. Boniface. Track layers have reached Rennie, where a large force of men are engaged in constructing an overhead bridge across the main line of the C.P.R.

Six miles west of Winnipeg, where the temporary yards and shops of the G.T.P. will be situated, several miles of side track have been laid, and work on the shops will be commenced shortly.

The line will be completed from Portage to Winnipeg by June 1st, which will give a clear track through to Saskatoon.

While the company have not as yet brought any passenger equipment from the east, already there are some 32 engines and 5,961 box and flat cars on western lines. These will be greatly supplemented before September, when harvesting operations begin.

At Rivers, the first divisional point on the line west of Winnipeg, there has been a brisk demand for lots and the nucleus of a goodly sized town is now in sight. Some twenty buildings, consisting of stores and dwellings, are at the present time in course of erection. The work of construction of the telegraph line between Fort William and Winnipeg is being pushed vigorously from the Fort William end, and by the close of summer this city will be in communication with Fort William through this medium.

Busy Week for Park Street S.S.

Entertainment Will be Held on Friday Evening

The Park street Sunday school is having a busy week in preparing for the great entertainment on Friday evening next. The school will have tea at six o'clock and at eight the public entertainment will commence. Chair taken by the Rev. A. H. Brace. The proverbial "Mother Goose" will be made exceedingly interesting with 19 characters in costume. "Dr. Cureall," by adults. Very catchy. "The Daisy Bouquet," in costume. Ten characters. Recitations, "Why he Would Not Die," and "Poor Little Jim" are among the very interesting items. The committees have all reported, and a most enjoyable time is looked for. A silver collection on behalf of school.

AFFAIRS OF YORK LOAN CO.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—"The claim of the shareholders outside of the Province to rank as creditors on the ground that the issue of their shares or the collection of calls thereon, was ultra vires of the company or in breach of the statute law of any province, is disallowed.

"The holders of shares issued and delivered to persons outside the Province of Ontario are in the same position as the holders of shares issued and delivered to persons within the Province.

Such is the judgment handed out by Referee Kapelle today in regard to the contentions of the Nova Scotia shareholders.

The total amount of stock of the York Loan Company held outside of Ontario totalled about $500,000. The fact that these shareholders now rank as ordinary shareholders and not as creditors means that the prospect of the general body of the shareholders is much improved.

Mr. G. N. Babcock Passes Away

Death Occurred This Morning—Funeral on Saturday

The death occurred at five o'clock this morning at his late residence, 34 Homewood Ave. of George Newton Babcock after an illness of only ten days' duration. His death came as a great shock to a wide circle of friends, who, while they knew he was ill were hoping that he would rally from his serious illness and recover. He was suffering from Bright's disease and although all that medical aid could do, was done he gradually sank until the end came. The late Mr. Babcock was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Babcock of Stratford. He was fifty years of age. He was a graduate of the Ontario College of Pharmacy and of the Detroit Medical College. For fifteen years he was a member of the wholesale drug firm of Smith & McGlashan of Toronto and was well-known and highly respected in that city. He came to Peterborough five years ago, taking over the optical business of Dr. Joseph Tate. During his residence here he made many friends who will learn with deep regret of his demise. He was a member of the Masonic Order and of the Anglican church. He was a staunch Conservative.

Seventeen years ago he was married to Miss Mary Hamilton, of Toronto who with one son, George, is left to mourn his loss. Besides his parents, one brother and two sisters, survive him. They are Mr. Frank Babcock, of Toronto, Mrs. Morrow of London and Mrs. Muir, of St. Louis.

The funeral will take place on Saturday at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence, 34 Homewood Ave., to the Little Lake cemetery.

"O! MY POOR HEAD"

Stop Those Headaches.

Headache and neuralgia are pronounced signs of blood poisoning. This poisoning of the blood comes from the waste matter of the body being left in the system, instead of being regularly carried off by the bowels, kidneys and skin.

When the bowels do not move regularly, the refuse is absorbed by the blood. Thus, the blood is loaded with foul poisons which irritate the nerves.

Poor skin action also causes headache and neuralgia. Impurities cannot escape through the skin, so the blood must take them up and deposit them on the nerves.

If the bowels and skin are not ridding the system of waste, the kidneys try to do so and are overworked.

There is just one way to cure headaches and neuralgia—to regulate bowels, kidneys and skin so that all the poisons of the body will be properly carried off.

"Fruit-a-tives" keep blood pure and rich—relieve the stomach and kidneys—regulate the bowels; and invigorate the skin to healthy action. "Fruit-a-tives" are a wonderful discovery, being a combination of fruit juices and tonics. 50c a box—six for $2.50. At all dealers, or from "Fruit-a-tives" Limited, Ottawa.

THURSDAY, FEB. 27, 1908

WHO WERE THEY?

We must suppose that Mr. Sam. Clarke, Liberal member of the House of Assembly for West Northumberland, knows what he is talking about when he reveals what took place in the party caucus just before the Liberal party went to the Province under the leadership of the Hon. G. W. Ross in 1904. Mr. Clarke says that Mr. Ross would have made "Prohibition!" his battle-cry for that campaign if he had not been balked by members of his Cabinet. His majority at the time was at the most three hence the defection of two would have left him in the political lurch. Perforce therefore he had to yield to the minority and go to the country on what the two balking members of his cabinet had decided upon. Who were the balking members of Mr. Ross's cabinet? Mr. Clarke doubtless has told his friends. The Examiner might enlighten us a little and we think it can. In any event the bit of inside history given by Mr. Clarke on the floor of the House while it might have been news to some, was well-known to many. Mr. Ross surrounded himself with men who at the last moment held him up and having made his own grave no doubt he was when the time came, content to lie in it. Whatever the opinion of the majority of the electorate upon the ultimate issue involved may be, one thing is sure and that is the "Kickers" will never be forgiven by the Liberal party.

It was open to these gentlemen to resign from office but this they did not do. Instead they chose to risk the defeat of their party at the polls with the off chance of getting complete control in case it won.

A GLIMPSE OF CHARACTER

It takes very little daylight sometimes to show a man up in his true colours but it is not often we get from Hansard, the official record of parliament such a pretty political vignette as the following extract therefrom. Hon. Mr. Oliver, the successor of Mr. Sifton, as Minister of the Interior having suffered at the hands of Mr. Cockshutt, adopts equivocal methods of getting back at him. Mr. Cockshutt, however, as it will be observed, has turned the tables on his superficial opponent.

Mr. Oliver—I know it is but it is my hon. friend, and not I, who is finding fault. He was at that time with the policy of the government so far as the need of immigrants was concerned, but his policy differed from the policy of the government in that he wanted to empty the overcrowded tenements of Europe into the city of Brantford, and other cities of Ontario, when the policy of the Dominion government as stated to him in black and white over the signature of an officer of the department was to settle the Northwest to cultivate the prairies, to fill up that western country in order that there might be employment and business for the commercial and financial interests of Eastern Canada.

Mr. Cockshutt. Does the Minister think it is fair to say that I wished to empty the overcrowded tenements of Europe into Brantford, in the face of the fact that the letter, distinctly says that 'a few' of these could be handled?

Mr. Oliver. I do not think my hon. friend likes this letter and I must say that I failed to find the words in the letter which he refers to.

Mr. Cockshutt. May I draw the hon. gentleman's attention to them?

Mr. Cockshutt. It is in the last last paragraph, but one, beginning:—

We could aid a few of our less fortunate fellows and thus in a measure help to relieve the congestion.

Perhaps the minister has left that out of his copy.

Mr. Oliver. Does my hon. friend stand by his present position, that ed glimpse of canada he is responsible for these words he read?

Mr. Cockshutt. The hon. gentleman has placed the record on 'Hansard' and I am prepared to stand by the letters and meet them as I have done.

Mr. Oliver. Then I am very glad we have found where the hon. gentleman does stand and we find he does endorse—

Mr. Cockshutt. I did not say I did endorse; I said I stood by the letters as they were.

Mr. Oliver. Then we have not found out where he does stand yet.

Mr. Cockshutt. He certainly does not endorse and never did."

EDITORIAL NOTES

An operation for removal of the stomach has made life without stomachs as easy and pleasant as life without an appendix. We have long observed that certain newspaper men whose names need no mention, have been able to live without brains. The same may be said of frogs and geese but nature has endowed them also with an unusual power of making a noise that sounds like reason.

The Liberal convention for the East Riding has been arranged for, and will be called together at a date as yet unnamed. The West Riding is not so fortunate. The manoeuvring for nomination is so occupying the attention of those most concerned that they are afraid to open their mouths for fear they'll put their feet in them. However, when the sparring has gone on about as long as the Liberal party will stand for it, no doubt the convention will be called together. So must the times be served. The opening hymn at the convention will be, "There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight."

Hon. Mr. Pugsley can hardly expect to escape rough handling in the House so long as he is content to remain in the position of a man who makes reckless charges on the "stump" which he refuses to repeat in Parliament even when specifically challenged to do so. No member of Parliament—and certainly no Minister of the Crown—should say outside of Parliament what he hesitates to say to Parliament assembled, and with the men he accuses sitting before him and ready to answer. Such conduct is the conduct neither of a responsible public man nor a man of courage.—Montreal Star.

The recent accident to Mr. Alex. Kennedy, which turns out to be more serious than at first supposed emphasizes the need for watchfulness on the part of those entrusted with the care of icy streets. It is always of course, easy enough to talk but it is true all the same that a man going about constantly with fine sand putting it here and there where it would do most good would be a positive boon to the whole population of the city. Spasmodic sanding is just so much better than nothing. Constant attention is what is needed.

WILL LECTURE AT PORT HOPE

Rev. Dr. O'Brien to Give an Address There on Monday

Port Hope, Feb. 27.—An illustrated lecture descriptive of Rome and Northern Italy will be delivered by Rev. Dr. O'Brien, of Peterborough, under the auspices of Branch 450, C.M.B.A., in the Port Hope Opera House, on Monday, March 2nd. The views are the finest ever shown in Ontario, and as the Rev. Doctor has spent some years in Italy, and is thoroughly familiar with his subject, his address will be highly entertaining and instructive. In addition to the lecture a choice musical programme will be rendered. The branch has been fortunate in obtaining the services of Miss Lavina Hallihan, Peterborough's sweetest soprano, who will be assisted by local talent.

An Enjoyable Social Event

Delightful Time Spent at Residence of Mr. D. Johnston, Monaghan

On Thursday night a most enjoyable party was given at the residence of Mr. David Johnson, Monaghan, about 75 guests being in attendance. Dancing and games formed the evening's amusement and a thoroughly pleasant time was spent by all in attendance. Among those present were a large number of guests from the city.

An orchestra from the city consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Carter and Mr. Wood supplied good music for dancing.

George St. Church Has Had A Most Prosperous Year

Annual Meeting Held Last Evening—Most Encouraging Reports Presented—Excellent Programme Rendered and Social Time Spent.

One of the most successful years in the history of the George street Methodist church has just been closed and at the annual meeting last evening there was no feeling of discord that sometimes marks such gatherings. It has been a most prosperous year and the congregation have much to be thankful for. The encouraging reports read and the feeling of unity and fellowship that prevailed last night were very gratifying to the pastor and officials of the church.

The meeting was presided over by the pastor, Rev. E. A. Pearson, and after devotional exercises, a male quartette consisting of Messrs. F. Miles, H. Mallory, A. Gray and Pritchard gave a selection, the solo part being taken by Mr. Mallory in excellent voice. They were forced to respond to an encore.

In his opening remarks Rev. Mr. Pearson welcomed those present and expressed his pleasure at seeing such a large representation of the congregation. One thing Mr. Pearson referred to with delight was the fact in George street church there were no pew rents and no friction among the people. No one was found acting in an uncourteous manner. Mr. Pearson thought that members would take a greater interest in church affairs if they held an office and consequently many new names are on the different committees this year.

In the Sunday school, the pastor stated that there had been a large increase in the average attendance. Also at Grace Sunday school the year had been a successful one and the number on roll showed a good increase.

One new feature introduced into the church was the organization of a Junior Epworth League, and it bids fair to do good work.

The pastor next referred to the energetic work of the Ladies' Aid. The society has undertaken to visit different homes in the city and in this way many new members who the pastor had previously not known are being brought to his notice.

The Girls' Guild recently organized, is also doing good work among the young ladies of the church.

In concluding his remarks the pastor said that he did not think the choir received the encouragement they deserved. They did good work in the praise services and are to be highly commended.

Mr. Felix Brownscombe, treasurer of the church, then referred in detail to the financial report. During the past year, the congregation had responded liberally to the financial obligations of the church.

Mr. Geo. Robertson, secretary of the church next made a few remarks. He said that at first the people did not think that the new system of financing would work satisfactorily. However, it has proved its worth. The total number of contributors at the present time is 345. Fifty-two new names had been added during the year while 25 had been taken off.

Mr. D. W. Dumble spoke a few words last evening. He said that anyone who carefully reads the reports must realize that there has been a lot of work done and that it has been well done. Never in the history of the church had it been so well done. The funds have been faithfully subscribed. The present debt on the church has prevented the congregation from taking up the work of erecting new churches in other parts of th city. Mr. Dumble believed that Methodism had grown to such an extent in Peterborough that a new church was a necessity. He thought that the people should be more interested in the heathen of Peterborough and not so enthusiastic over the heathen Chinese and other foreign races. In conclusion Mr. Dumble expressed pleasure at seeing so many present and thought that it was a grand thing to have the congregation meet in a social gathering.

Mr. George Powel also took occasion to congratulate the officials on their splendid reports. The congregation were extremely fortunate in having such capable men as Mr. Robertson and Mr. Brownscombe. He thought that it would be advisable to never let them go and in a few years the debt would be wiped out.

A vote of thanks was unanimously passed by the above officials. A vote of thanks was also tendered the choir.

A short programme was then given after which dainty refreshments were served by the ladies. The programme was as follows:

Vocal solo—Miss Mowry.
Recitation—Mr. D. Moore.
Solo—Miss C. Reesor.

MINISTER'S REPORT.

Dear Fellow Workers;—In presenting this Annual Report we have nothing to boast of, much to be thankful for, and a great deal to make us anxious. It is with the Church as with the individual Christian;—There is never anything to boast of, if the Church did all that it ought to do, if it discharged its duty up to the last item. What has been done seems so small in comparison with what should be done, that all boasting or pride is shut out. But we have so much to be thankful for. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Our blessings have been so many during the year. The Divine Presence has been our support, amid all our varied experiences. So many of us in prosperity have remembered God, in adversity have proved the sufficiency of His grace, and in the last hours our dear ones have gloriously triumphed.

REV. E. A. PEARSON
Pastor of the George St. Methodist Church

The formation of a Junior League and the growth of our Sabbath school especially in its Adult Department, are matters calling for special gratitude. Let us give this year more attention to the religious nature of the childhood of our Church and homes, and to the matter of personal evangelism.

We have much to make us anxious, and concerning which we should pause and consider. Our class and prayer meetings are not sustained as as they should be. So many of our young men fail to appreciate what they might receive and impart through our excellent Epworth League. Why should there not be a greater number of conversions in connection with the ordinary means of grace and our daily association with our fellows? The additions to to the membership during the year have been 101—67 by letter and 34 on profession of faith. By letter 35 have been removed, and by death 16. The present membership stands 683, or 50 more than last year.

GIRLS' GUILD.

The Guild was organized in November. Its object is to awaken an interest in, and sympathy with the work of the Church in its various departments, and to develop its members along social, intellectual and spiritual lines. The work is divided into three departments namely; Literary, Social and Practical, the latter including sewing for the poor and visiting the poor and aged.

The society contributed $4.00 for candy and oranges distributed at the Children's Aid Concert in December, and several poor families have teen given gifts of clothing and provisions.

The meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

Two Meetings At St. John's

Women and Men Met Yesterday in Preparation for Mission From Mar. 8 to 18

There were good attendances yesterday afternoon and evening at St. John's school house at the meetings held there to make preparations for the approaching mission at St. John's, which will be held from March 8th to 18th. The women's meeting in the afternoon was held at 3 o'clock, and the men's meeting at night at 8 o'clock, Canon Davidson presiding at both.

The whole programme, which has been almost completed, was submitted at both meetings, and different details as to the method of work were discussed. The list of speakers for the mission will include some distinguished clergy.

Reports received indicated a general interest on the part of the congregation and a determination to unite in pressing the enterprise forward to success.

Full particulars concerning the mission will be announced in a couple of days.

FATHER'S ECZEMA AFFLICTED CHILDREN

Mr. Chas. Noble, of 375 Colonial avenue, Montreal, the assistant chief operator of the G.N.W. Telegraph Co., and several of his family have been cured of eczema by Zam-Buk, the great herbal balm. He states the facts as follows; "The disease started in the back of my hands in the form of small sores and eruptions. These were very irritating and when rubbed and scratched turned into very painful sores. I tried waters, lotions and salves, but the disease continued to spread and so I consulted a doctor. He treated me for a time, but still the disease spread and I got no relief. Then to my alarm the eczema spread to several of the children. The pain and irritation in all our cases was very great, and we were very much disheartened as all we tried proved unavailing. Zam-Buk was recommended and I obtained a supply. I tried it first on a small patch of the eczema, and this showed so much improvement that I was convinced Zam-Buk would do good if persevered with, and therefore obtained a supply. Each application greatly relieved the itching, pain and soreness, and it was not long before the eruptions and sores dried up and disappeared. In a few weeks from commencing with Zam-Buk every spot was removed.

"The children who had also taken this disease were treated in the same way and have each been cured. Unlike all other preparations used, Zam-Buk seemed to search to the roots of the evil and it was really surprising how quickly the sores were healed. In my case and that of my children the cure was most effectual and permanent as it is now some months since we were cured, and there has been no sign of any eruptions or sores returning."

Of all druggists and stores 50c. box or post-paid from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. No home should be without Zam-Buk.

Spicy Case Attracted Big Crowd

Albert Crouter and Wife Charged Keeping House of Ill Repute—In Court To-day

That a certain class of people in Peterborough feast their minds upon the daily grind in police court was very evident this morning when the immense throng that congregated around the door leading to the courtroom reminded one of a rush for seats at some theatrical attraction. Long before 10 o'clock men began to gather in large numbers about the police station eagerly awaiting the arrival of the magistrate and the consequent opening of the door. When P. C. Newhall walked out with the key he had to force his way through the crowd and immediately the door was opened the shoving and jostling was as bad as at a circus. The case that attracted such a concourse of people was that of Albert and Mrs. Crowter who were charged with being the keepers of a house of ill fame and that of Crenie Grant, an inmate and Elton Yorke, a frequenter.

"There is a large class of men whose morals are very low," said His Worship as he viewed the throng before him.

"If any case will draw a crowd it is one of this kind," said Chief Roszel.

The charge against Crouter and his wife was first taken up. Mr. G. N. Gordon conducted the defence. Several witnesses were heard, all of whom told practically the same story.

Wesley Howell was the first witness. He knew the prisoners and where they lived.

"What is the general reputation of the house," asked the Chief.

This the witness refused to answer as he did not care to swear to what he had heard.

"You must tell what you heard about it," said His Worship.

The prisoner was still very reticent in answering.

"I will send you down to the lock-up if you do not answer the questions put to you," said the Magistrate.

The witness then told what the general reputation of the house was. He had been to the place two or three times and saw the prisoners there. He gave the names of two or three young girls who frequented the house, also the names of several young men who had been seen there.

There also was drinking there. Witness admitted carrying liquor to the house.

Questioned by Mr. Gordon, witness said that he knew Crouter quite well and had just dropped into his home to have a smoke and chat with him. He never knew of any acts of impropriety taking place there.

Emmett Kane was the next witness. He knew the place only as respectable. He had been there several times and knew the people well. This man was so intoxicated that he had to be locked up.

An Italian was next called. He said that the general reputation was that it was a house of ill fame. He had been to the place twice and remained all night. It was a pretty rough house.

Antonio Levasso, another Italian, next took the stand. He said that his home was in Millbrook. He knew the prisoners. He never heard anything bad about the place. He said that he boarded there for a few weeks.

Charles Stevens was called. He knew Mr. and Mrs. Crowter. They lived on Carlisle Ave. He had heard that there was considerable drinking done there but nothing else.

Several other witnesses were heard this morning, after which the court adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon, when it is expected the trial

Crouters Were Found Guilty

Albert and Mrs. Crouter were found guilty this afternoon by His Worship Magistrate Dumble on a charge of keeping a house of ill-repute. Crenie Grant, an inmate of the house, was also found guilty. Elton Yorke, who was charged with being a frequenter of the house was discharged. Judgment was reserved until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

L. Borden, Esq. KC, MP., and to express their admiration for the manner in which he is conducting the great battle against the venality and mismanagement which characterizes the methods of the Liberal administration at Ottawa and they pledge themselves to use every legitimate means in the approaching general elections to remove from power the men who in open violation of their pledges have so grossly abused the confidence of the people and squandered the resources of the country.

Moved by Dr. S. P. Ford, Norwood, seconded by Thos. Wilson, Apsley that the Liberal-Conservative party of East Peterborough, represented by this large and representative convention hereby express their continued confidence in their provincial leader, Hon. J. P. Whitney, Esq, KC, and their great gratification with the manner in which he has fulfilled his pre-election promises, resulting in good and honest government, the wise and economical expenditure of the funds of the province and the prudent conservation of its valuable resources, and that we pledge him our most loyal and hearty support when he again appeals to the electorate.

The association then adjourned and the delegates were called together for the selection of candidates.

Two names were submitted for the House of Commons which came first in the order of balloting, viz.,

John A. Sexsmith, of Westwood proposed by Mr. S. S. Joyce and seconded by Mr. John Lane.

R. C. Strickland, of Lakefield, proposed by Mr. S. S. Spence and seconded by Mr. Jas. Watson.

Mr. Sexsmith was chosen on the first ballot.

Nominations for the House of Assembly were then called for by the chairman when the following were made;

Jas. Andrews, proposed by Dr. Ford and seconded by D. McQuoig.

H. A. Moore, proposed by T. J Wilson, seconded by R. Hill.

Jas. Thompson, proposed by F. Moher, seconded by J. Mark.

Joshua Smithson, proposed by A. Carpenter, seconded by R. J. McCamus.

Mr. Frank Moher of Douro, was also nominated but retired.

The various ballotings were then proceeded with until it became narrowed down to two, Mr. Jas. Andrews of Belmont, and Mr. Jas. Thompson of Havelock. Warden Thompson was elected by a majority of four. The various candidates having addressed the meeting and thanked their supporters an adjournment was made at 6.30 p.m. till 8.15 o'clock, when Messrs. Foster and Downey were greeted by a packed house. A large number of ladies attended the evening meeting. The chairman, Mr. Sherry at 8.15, called the meeting to order, and introduced Messrs. Sexsmith and Thompson the candidates, and Mr. J. H. Burnham, who spoke briefly. Mr. Downey was then called upon and for an hour spoke eloquently of the record of the Whitney administration. He had that day, he said, seen a deputation numbering several hundred, representing the various temperance alliances, wait upon the prime minister regarding the three-fifths clause. With one accord the members of this deputation testified to the vast improvement in the administration of the license laws under the present Government, and to the frankness and straightforwardness with which the various questions with which the deputation was most concerned were treated by the administration. The contrast between the Government of Hon. G. W. Ross and that of Mr. Whitney, was also, the speaker said, most plainly demonstrated in the treatment of the finances of the Province. From Mr. Booth the Whitney Government obtained $300,000 for limits which the Ross Government had alienated for a few thousand. From the Metagami and Georgian Bay Companies $50,000 was recovered where the limits had all but been disposed of to the same companies for a trifling sum. The plan of selling by board measure instead of by area as formerly, had resulted in a saving of fifty per cent. to the public treasury, and in the salvation of the forests themselves, from which the taking of every sapling and shoot was no longer the object of the lumberman.

The sale of Cobalt concessions and the present wise policy of withdrawing areas from discovery for the public benefit were in striking contrast with the sales under the Ross Government, of areas withdrawn from public competition to be disposed of for a few hundred dollars to officials without notice. The saving in this department alone had been immense. In one instance the Whitney administration received no less than one million dollars for 36 acres, whereas under precisely similar or parallel conditions under the Ross regime claims were sold for one dollar an acre. There were many other similar cases of venality and waste. In the rural schools alone the Whitney Government has justified the electors' confidence expressed at the polls. Where formerly in the County of Peterborough in 1904, the Ross Government had contributed $2,246.00 for rural schools in 1907 the Whitney Government had contributed $7,209.00. Mr. Downey sat down amid prolonged cheering.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster on rising was cheered for several minutes. He began by speaking of the necessity of a developed citizenship in order that men might understand and appreciate privileges of the democracy which they lived under. This, he said, was the era preeminently of competition and unless a man had a good education he was but ill-equipped for the struggle of life. The broken pledges of Sir Wilfrid were led up to by a vivid description of a state of society in which no man or woman spoke the truth or attempted to redeem their promises. In opposition Sir Wilfrid had many times put on record his propositions with regard to the Senate, but in power he was bold enough to affirm that he had no plans whatever regarding it. Instead of reducing taxation he had greatly increased it. The burden which he loved to portray the elector, and especially the "poor farmer," as groaning under was now more than three times as heavy with conditions practically unchanged. If the farmer groaned then, he must be dead by this time. The conduct of the Laurier administration was in violent contrast with that of Mr. Whitney. In the one case public franchises had been well disposed of. In the other they had been handed over to favorites, members of Parliament and officials, for practically nothing.

Eleven hundred square miles of fishing rights in the best waters in the world for $300 a year all told was by no means the worst feature of a shameless programme. Fish in these different lakes scattered throughout the great west were the rightful food of settlers who were by so much impoverished and deprived of the necessaries of life. Rights acquired for a song were turned into sources of great profit and these lakes once teeming with fish, would be in a few years depleted. American companies were laying waste both our waters and our lands without let or hindrance that hirelings and campaign fund contributors might enjoy their reward. Fifteen thousand miles of of coast and river fishing—privileges were granted for long terms without tender, all told, for $3000 a year. No wonder the Government fought against bringing down original documents. But the opposition had taken a resolute stand and the Government capitulated. More of the same good work remained to be done but it would be done against no matter what odds and in face of no matter what opposition.

Mr. Foster, who looks well and strong, was never in better speaking trim. The elaborate working-up of his points from time to time, and the inimitable manner of driving them them home, was itself a study in public speaking, and the audience appreciated it. At 11.15 the meeting closed with hearty and prolonged cheers for the speakers, the candidates and the King. There was, it is safe to say, never a finer meeting in East Peterborough.

NOTES

On the platform, besides the chairman, President George J. Sherry, were Dr. Ford, and Messrs. Phelan, Garvin, Moher, Strickland, Smithson, Ald. Buller, Sexsmith, Burnham, Birdsall, Jas. Kendry, and several others.

Ald. Buller, President of the Young Conservative Club, made a rousing appeal to the men of the East Riding to visit the club rooms and become members. He was heartily received.

Mr. J. W. Garvin spoke very eloquently upon the improved conditions in public life and appreciatively of the candidate for the West Riding, Mr. J. H. Burnham, for whom he prophesied certain victory. He promised Mr. Burnham his heartiest support and co-operation.

Ald. Phelan, who was received with prolonged applause, appealed to the electors of the East Riding to work with a will and their men would be sure of election. "We'll do it in the West!" concluded Ald. Phelan amid cheering.

There was not a man under the influence of liquor at Norwood yesterday. Temperance was seen at its best.

From the number of candidates both on the Liberal and the Conservative side, who say that they are going to run, they don't care who else runs, there will likely be lively doings during the campaign. But this may all be transient irritation, and no more. Men under stress of excitement will say things in anger that they laugh at later on.

Dr. Fraser, of Lakefield, who was unable to attend, sent a long and encouraging letter of explanation and good-will.

Mr. Jas. Kendry, President of the West Riding Conservative Association, was present, and added his good wishes for the success of the candidates. He is just as energetic and resourceful, and, we may add, as popular as ever.

BANQUET AFTER HOCKEY MATCH

Teams and Referee Dined at Long and Hooper's Palm Parlours—The Toast List

After the great press game Long & Hooper's Palm Parlors were the scene of a pleasant banquet, at which the two teams and Referee Lynch were present. A friendly controversy took place concerning the local hockey event of the season.

The city editors of the Examiner and Review, Messrs. Huston and McRae, occupied seats at the head of the table and shared in the capacity of toast master. After the "King" the first toast was that of the Examiner team. It was replied to in a pleasing way by Mr. F. D. Craig, the Grit sporting editor and goal tender. The Review team was proposed by Mr. Huston and replied to by Mr. A. C. Yokome. "The Ladies" were honored by Mr. Percy Crane and Mr. John Hogan responded to the toast to "The Police Force."

During the evening Mr. George Lynch told in his inimitable way a couple of very amusing stories. The thanks of the teams is due Mr. Edwards, of the Crystal, who kindly loaned his gramaphone for the banquet.

In the Commons at Ottawa; Dominion Should Have Navy

Canada's Interests Sacrificed For Sake of United States.

Rights of Canadians In the Sealing Grounds—Tone of Resentment In the House of Commons—Composition of New Railway Board—Mr. Graham's Bill to Widen Jurisdiction Promised Soon.

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—Enlargement of the powers of the board of railway commissioners to enable it to deal with pressing problems of public interest was urged upon the Minister of Railways in the Commons yesterday and with evident success. Mr. Graham, to his credit be it said, evinced a readiness to profit by the suggestions which were given him by members of the Opposition.

The discussion arose in committee on the resolution increasing the membership of the commission, Mr. Graham explaining that it was proposed to add three members to the board, one, he said, is to be assistant chief commissioner whose qualifications must be that of a superior court judge or barrister of ten years' standing, his salary to be $9,000 a year. The salaries of the other two will be $8,000 a year. It is proposed that the board shall have power to hold more than one sitting at the same time, but each section to sit as a whole board. The bill also requires that each railway company shall have a representative at Ottawa upon whom notice may be served when required.

W. F. Maclean observed that not only was the Minister increasing the membership of the board, but he was probably also going to increase its powers. The Government ought to take the House into its confidence and say what these enhanced powers are to be. Everybody in the country favored enlarging the scope of the commission. It was said the Government proposed to place under the jurisdiction of the board telephone and telegraphs, as well as sleeping car service. Should not the commission also have control of the rates charged by cartage companies which form in many instances a large proportion of railway freight charges? Mr. Maclean suggested further that news companies as well as express companies should also be brought under jurisdiction of the board. The question of demurrage might be included, too.

The Minister of Railways replied that he had hoped to introduce the two bills concurrently, but had been disappointed. However, the bill widening the jurisdiction of the board would be introduced before the present bill had proceeded much further.

Mr. Lennox suggested that the board should be given power to decide in the matter of connections between Dominion and provincially chartered railways.

George Taylor trusted that the board would be empowered to compel railways to deliver freight at the rate agreed upon with the railway which first handled it. He gave concrete instances of injustices done in this matter.

Mr. Kemp asked what were to be the qualifications of the other two commissioners.

Mr. Graham trusted they would be such as would appeal to all classes. Manufacturers, commercial travelers, farmers and other classes were claiming for the appointment of a special representative, but the Government would appoint good all-round men.

Claude Macdonnell advocated the appointment of a commissioner in sympathy with employes, and Mr. Owen (E. Northumberland) expressed preference for a man of business and one having the interests of the farmer at heart.

Mr. Clement (Kent), impressed upon the Government the necessity of making provision of giving fair play to farmers and shippers generally.

Mr. Graham said in answer to Mr. Christie that Dr. Mills was appointed on the Railway Commission at the request of many farmers in the country.

Mr. Henderson remarked that he did not think Dr. Mills, a professor in a college, was the man to fill the bill. Of course, it was said, too, that Dr. Bernier was a farmer, but he supposed he was like the Minister of Agriculture—a theoretical farmer.

The resolution was reported and the bill introduced and read a third time.

Mr. Sloan (Comox-Atlin) brought up the matter of the seizure of the Canadian schooner Charlotte G. Cox by a United States revenue cutter on May 29, 1907, and other matters concerning the Canadian pelagic sealing operations in the North Pacific Ocean. When the seizure was made no less than five Japanese schooners were plying their trade unmolested, he said. He thought The Hague tribunal should interfere.

Dr. Thompson followed with an attack upon British diplomacy in the matter of sacrificing Canada's interests for the sake of securing the friendship of the United States. Canada should have a navy, which in time would be large enough to protect her own interests. We should have an arrangement by which Canadians would get rid of the name "colonials" and be received in London as the equals of Americans.

The treaty-making power, said Sir Wilfrid in reply, must remain with the British crown; Canada was not a sovereign power.

He commended that portion of Dr. Thompson's speech which dealt with the new condition of things which had arisen on the Pacific Ocean. The complications which existed then could not escape the notice of any serious or patriotic man. But it should be remembered in this connection that the policy of Great Britain is far-seeing, and we might depend upon it for a solution.

It had been suggested that Canada should approach the United States with a propositon to restrict the killing of seals on land. That, however, was a subject for negotiation.

Mr Monk said no matter how much one might be attached to the Empire, the unsatisfactory treatment of questions arising between Canada and the United States must be apparent to every observer of the political events of the past few years.

Mr. Fielding rather regretted the tone of Dr. Thompson's speech, fearing lest it might be interpreted abroad to mean that there was a section in Canada favorable to a change in our constitutional status as a member of the British Empire.

In this view Dr. Sproule quite concurred.

Ross Rifle "Secret."

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—Replying to a question by Col. Worthington in the House yesterday, Sir Frederick Borden said that there was in the Department of Militia a "secret" communication from the War Office, sent through the Colonial Office, in May, 1902, in regard to the interchangeable nature of the different parts of the Ross rifle with those of the Lee-Enfield rifle.

No one ever pretended that there could be an exchange of parts of rifles built on different patterns. The Minister of Militia was aware that there was "an alleged" trial at Blythe, England, between what was stated to be a Ross rifle and the Lee-Enfield, but subsequent investigations proved that the Ross rifle was used either with the knowledge of or by the authority of Sir Charles Ross.

FIGHTING IN INDIA.

British Troops Engaged In Punitive Expedition Against Tribesmen.

London, Feb. 28.—Lord Kitchener's little frontier war in the Bazar Valley against the Zakkakhels tribesmen is making rapid and successful progress.

The purpose of the expedition is to punish the tribesmen for numerous raids into Indian territory, and in a remarkably short campaign they have been scattered and broken, their forts have been destroyed and many of them have been killed.

The expedition is thought here to reflect credit upon the reorganization of the Indian army as carried out by Lord Kitchener. Tommy Atkins is profiting by the lessons learned from the Russo-Japanese war and he is being taught to follow the tactics used by the American army in its Indian campaigns and in fighting in the Philippines.

The British troops advanced on the enemy in open order, with wide intervals between them. The men took advantage of all available cover.

This method of procedure surprised and disheartened the natives, who were accustomed for their sniping tactics to the targets made by the more or less compact column formation employed by previous expeditions.

LAWLESSNESS IN MONTREAL.

Canadian Senate Discusses Recent Outbreaks Among Italians.

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—At the evening sitting of the Senate, Senator Cloran called attention to the deplorable condition of things which attained in Montreal and other cities owing to the lawlessness of undesirable immigrants, and quoted from Montreal papers in condemnation of the recent murderous crimes of Italians there.

Hon. R. W. Scott said the trouble was that Montreal abounded in drinking places to such an extent that the police made no attempt to suppress this illegal traffic. Fifty hotelkeepers were recently hauled up for illegal liquor selling, but was dismissed on payment of $5 each. If the Montreal police had arrested Italians at the outset for carrying dangerous weapons, crime would not have been so conspicuous.

BRITISH LICENSE BILL

Mr. Asquith Introduces His Measure in Imperial House.

Principal Government Bill of the Season—Provides For Compulsory Reduction of Saloons—One-Third to Be Cut Off Within Twenty Years—Compensation to Lapse After a Period.

London, Feb. 28.—Chancellor of the Exchequer Asquith introduced the Licensing Bill in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. This is the principal Government measure for the present session of Parliament. The capital invested in licensed property in this country is about $1,200,000,000, while over 2,000,000 people are employed in the traffic.

Briefly the bill provides for the compulsory reduction within a specified period and on a uniform scale of the number of saloons licensed throughout the country. In cities it is proposed to allow one saloon for every 750 persons and in the country districts one saloon for every 400 people. This regulation, it is estimated, will wipe out in the neighborhood of 30,000 licenses, about one-third of the present total.

The bill proposes that this reduction be effected within 20 years. Local option is to govern the issuance of new licenses and a majority of the parochial electors is sufficient to prohibit the granting of a license.

Chancellor of Exchequer Asquith expressed the opinion that England was not yet ripe for compulsory Sunday closing, but he said that outside the metropolis no saloon would be allowed to keep open on Sunday for more than one hour at midday or more than two hours in the evening. In conclusion the Chancellor declared that if this bill was adopted the state in 20 years would obtain unfettered control of the license system.

The system of compensating those entirely deprived of their licenses is to lapse after a period of 14 years from the commencement of the act, and an end thus will be put to the vested interests in all licenses.

TROUBLE IN HAYTI.

British Commander Pelted and Struck by Stone—Apology Given.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Feb. 28.—The British Minister to Hayti has presented to President Nord Alexis a statement from the commander of the British cruiser Indefatigable, now in these waters, setting forth that on returning from the palace on Wednesday a large stone was thrown at his carriage while passing the Rue Bonne, hitting the captain's aide on the leg. For this insult to His British Majesty the commander of the warship demanded an immediate apology.

The chief of police declared that two men were fighting in the street when the captain's carriage was passing, and a stone may have been thrown. The affair, the official added, should properly be referred to the correctional court.

President Alexis, however, sent two officers of his staff to the Indefatigable with instructions to express to her commander his regret at what happened, especially as the incident occurred just after the British commander had left the palace, after paying the President a cordial visit.

The apology of the President was coldly received by the warship's commander, but the Haytian Government regards the incident as being closed.

Scandal In Russian League.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—Dissensions, which have existed in the League of Russian People for some time past, have broken out in the last day or two into an open scandal. The league is a reactionary organization, and a most bitter foe to the Parliamentary system. It is accused of responsibility for the anti-semitic outrages at Odessa and elsewhere. The league is now holding a congress in this city.

Financial irregularities were intimated, and an investigation of the large stipends drawn by the leaders was demanded. This was followed by a stormy session, at the end of which Dr. Dubrovin and several other leaders were expelled.

A Vagrant Who Vanished.

Woodstock, Feb. 28.—John Henry Marshall Thomas, a man of questionable intelligence, who has been a prisoner at the jail for nearly six months, on the charge of vagrancy, is missing. Thomas was sentenced from Ingersoll, and was a "trusty" about the jail buildings. He was helping William Toull, janitor of the courthouse, together with a fellow prisoner. His comrade teased him and told him that he would be sent to the asylum.

Wednesday evening Thomas was gone. He left his jail garb, and is at present probably wandering about the country in his overalls.

To Serve Ten Years.

New York, Feb. 28.—Capt. William H. Van Schaick, aged 70, master of the ill-fated steamboat General Slocum, in the burning of which 1,000 persons were killed, surrendered himself yesterday, and was taken to Sing Sing prison to serve his term of ten years' imprisonment for negligence.

On his trip to prison the aged man was accompanied by his newly married wife.

British Schooner Wrecked.

Turk's Island, N.S., Feb. 28.—The British schooner Marjorie J. Sumner, from Weymouth, N.S., Jan. 30 for Sagua, Cuba, was wrecked and became a total loss on North Caicos Island four days ago. She was laden with lumber and her cargo probably will be saved.

UNKNOWN TRAMP SHOT DEAD.

Was Robbing a House and Showed Fight When Cornered.

Granby, Que., Feb. 28—An unknown tramp, in appearance much like an Italian, and with a thick, black, bushy bear, is lying dead here as the result of a shot through the heart by a prominent resident of this town.

Yesterday morning Mr. Robinson's mother had occasion to visit the house, and was amazed to find fresh footprints at the rear of the building, and her astonishment was increased when on looking through the kitchen window she saw a man of the tramp class investigating the contents of the larder.

She did not disturb the man, but went back to her home and told her son that a guest was at Jenkinson's house, making himself at home. Mr. Robinson summoned his father and acquainted half a dozen neighbors of the possession of Mr. Jenkinson's habitation.

The little army proceeded to the house and surprised the tramp. When the intruder saw that his presence to the neighborhood was known he fled with only one boot on, the half dozen or so neighbors following in hot pursuit.

The tramp gave them a good chase and managed to reach a wood some two miles from the town before he was overtaken. Finding it was hopeless to escape he suddenly turned and showed fight. He produced a revolver and turned it on Mr. Robinson, who, however, was a little too quick for him, for Mr. Robinson was himself armed and got the first shot home, which went right through the fugitive's heart. The clothing of the dead man was searched, but nothing was found upon him that would lead to his identity. He was absolutely penniless. Whilst the pursuit was going on some of the neighbors examined Mr. Jenkinson's house and found that that very morning the man was about to consume the last contents of the larder.

Mr. Robinson returned to Granby and reported the affair to Judge Savage, who, after hearing the facts of the case, allowed him out on his own bail.

Dr. Ballianecourt of Waterloo opened an inquest last night, but adjourned it until to-day.

DEATH IS THE SENTENCE.

Seven Terrorists to Be Executed In St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—A military court, sitting in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, under the presidency of Gen. Mikiforoff, yesterday condemned to death seven of the terrorists charged with complicity in the attempt last week in this city upon the lives of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch, a second cousin of the Emperor, and M. Chtcheglovitoff, the Minister of Justice, and sentenced three others to 15 years' imprisonment at hard labor.

Among those upon whom the death sentence was passed is a supposed Italian journalist, Gavino, who has represented in St. Petersburg La Vita of Rome and Il Tempo of Milan. A special attorney was secured by the Italian embassy, but Cavino spurned the assistance of the embassy, saying he wished to share the fate of his comrades. Addressing the court in broken Russian, he made the sensational declaration that the passport that bore his name was not really his and that he therefore desired to be tried as a Russian subject. All efforts on the part of the court to induce him to disclose his real name and status proved unavailing.

Two women were also sentenced to death and one to imprisonment. The accused all refused counsel, but were represented by four civilian lawyers appointed by the court, which also delegated two military advocates for the defence.

Exclusion League's Hot Time.

Vancouver, Feb. 28.—The Asiatic Exclusion League of Vancouver talked for three hours last night on the advisability of holding another parade. Then the meeting broke up in a small riot. The lie was passed so frequently that the word lost its significance. The lights were finally turned out to avoid prolonging the agony.

Vice-President Gordon Grant charged that a plot had been hatched to pull off riots in all cities on the coast. Sam. Gothard declared that the man who furnished this information was a liar. Then a resolution was introduced to dissolve affiliation with the North American League, recently formed in Seattle, and the lights were turned out.

Bad Mine Explosion.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 28.—A special to The Express from Sabinas, Coahuila, Mexico, says:—

At 5 o'clock yesterday morning there was an explosion of gas in mine No. 3 of the Cia Carbon de Sabinas mines at Resita. There are about 200 men working in the mine, and up to 7.30 a.m. none have come out. It is expected that many are dead or badly burned.

Paardeberg Cables.

Lord Minto, Viceroy of India, wired: "Hearty good wishes to you all on Paardeburg day."

Lord Roberts cabled from Ascot: "Warmest greetings to Paardeburg Canadians, who are ever held in grateful remembrance by me."

Injured at Whitby.

Whitby, Feb. 28.—In an unsuccessful attempt to stop a horse and cutter from Brook's Livery, Oshawa, running away past the 34th Regiment Armory, Wm. G. Watson had his thigh-bone broken and suffered internal injuries.

Dundas must pay to a resident named Cummings $30 per year since 1904 for flooding his premises.

The Legislature at Toronto; Is After the Absentees

Studholme Wants Deductions From Indemnity Enforced.

Says He Is Keeping Tab on Shirkers—Salaries of Rural School Teachers—Bill to Impound Automobiles For Exceeding Speed Limit—Premier Whitney Complains of an Omission in Report.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—Hon. J. P. Whitney, the Prime Minister, announced at the close of yesterday's Legislative session that on Monday he hoped to consult with the Opposition leader in reference to the Redistribution Bill, which he expected soon to bring down, while in response to a question from Mr. Harcourt, Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education, submitted figures showing that during the last five years the salaries of rural school teachers had increased from an average of $436 for males to $547, and for females from $313 to $389.

While the measure relating to the Legislative Assembly was under discussion, Mr. Allan Studholme, the Labor member for East Hamilton, announced that he was keeping tab upon the attendance of members with a view to having deduction made under the absentee clause.

The clause provides that a deduction of $4 per day shall be made from a member's $1,000 sessional indemnity for every day upon which he does not attend the sittings, unless in case of sickness.

Hon. Mr. Foy moved its adoption.

"How are you going to deduct it?" asked Mr. Studholme.

"The clause is not changed," replied the Attorney-General, "and the regulation process will be followed."

"But I want to know," persisted the Labor man, "how you are going to keep tab. I've seen members away for days and I've never heard of the deduction being enforced. It looks like a farce."

"The provisions of the act govern this matter," replied Hon. Mr. Whitney. "The member goes to the Accounting Officer under the provisions of the statute and presumably gives a truthful accounting."

"But," persisted the member for East Hamilton, "there are members who are not here half the time, and who draw $1,000 just the same as though they had been working."

"I presume," observed the Premier, smiling, "that hon. members would not do anything like that."

"But they do," persisted Mr. Studholme. "In the Dominion they have a roll call and have them regular. It's a shame how it goes on here. If I can get hold of a good lawyer I won't mind paying a little to get the information as to how to proceed, and then I'll act on it."

And with the warning the Labor man sat down.

Mr. McElroy (Carleton) has given notice of an automobile bill under which he will empower the magistrates in various localities, at their discretion to impound machines at the cost of the owner, for all infractions of the speed or other laws, for a term not less than 15 days.

This is the fifth measure in the war upon autos that has come before the House.

Another comes from Mr. Devitt (West Durham). He proposes to prohibit the roads to motors in towns, townships and villages on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays and on Sundays between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m.

At the opening of the sittings the Prime Minister drew attention to an error which had occurred in reporting his remarks to the Temperance Alliance in a morning paper. Speaking to the issue one of the clergymen who spoke had said that they were in politics in this matter, and Mr. Whitney, speaking later, had said the Government was in politics, too. The word "too" had been omitted in The Globe's report, "conveying the wrongful impression," said the Prime Minister, "that politics was the sole consideration which influenced our action in the matter."

Mr. J. Kohler (Haldimand) introduced a bill entitled an act respecting county Houses of Refuge, under which the time for the completion of these institutions is extended from 1908 to 1910.

With Mr. Hoyle (North Ontario) in the chair the Government bills of Hon. Mr. Foy respecting the Legislative Assembly and respecting controverted elections of members, were advanced in their committee stage. During their consideration the Liberal leader several times conferred with the Premier and the Attorney-General and at his suggestion a number of the clauses stood over.

Edison was operated upon for mastoiditis last night at the Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital, where he has been a patient since Sunday, when an abscess which had formed in the middle ear was opened. Montreal, Feb. 28.—Eight Italians arrested Wednesday for carrying weapons came up yesterday before Recorder Weir. Six were fined $50 and one month in jail and to find two sureties of $250 each for good behavior for one year, or stay in jail an additional three months.

Four men met afterwards in a hotel near the court and one Italian with a stiletto in his hand was heard to declare he would kill Recorder Weir. Chiefs Carpenter and McCaskill were notified, but by the time they arrived on the scene the man had disappeared.

Canada's Credit High.

Montreal, Feb. 28.—The Star's correspondent cables from London: "I am officially informed that the lists of the Canadian Government $15,000,000 loan, which closed yesterday at the Bank of Montreal, were over-subscribed. Small subscribers are allotted in full, and others get 67 per cent. of the amount applied for.

The credit is a surprise to the market, which has not hitherto realized that Canada's credit stands sufficiently high to make a success of a 3 1-2 per cent. stock at par, even under more favorable market conditions. I was officially informed yesterday that the actual subscriptions to the Grand Trunk Railway's new $5,000,000 loan amounted to $7,500,000.

FAIR MASKED SINGERS.

Mysterious Young Women Have a Piano on London Streets.

Yet another charming mystery has been added to the many which make the western squares of London as romantic as the New Arabian Nights. Two masked ladies, both obviously young, both divinely tall, and both, as the crepe fails to hide, much more than common fair, have begun to appear there night after night, seated in a rude cart containing a strangely-shaped box, and, says the London correspondent of The Liverpool Courier, drawn by a spavined horse led by a dour-faced driver. The cart stops. The driver leans sombrely against the shafts. One of the masked figures rises—the strange box is discovered to be a piano—and in another moment a swift prelude has rippled out, and a round throbbing soprano voice is soaring through the silences.

The young voice sways, the white fingers flash easily above the keys, the masks show queerly in the vague lights of the lamps. A little crowd inexplicably collects, shirt fronts and cigar ends gleam on the balconies, and—the sad-faced driver may be observed to have pulled himself together and to be making an undemonstrative pilgrimage with another and much smaller box. The song ceases, the singer resumes her seat, and the strange equipage, jolting like a tumbril, carries the silent figures further into the night.

Rumor, of course, ever busy on such occasions, has not failed to surround the apparition with much conventional romance. The girls are girls of high birth, making a tour out of sheer devilry and for the sake of a startling wager, or they are once-famous concert artists whom competition has forced into the streets, or they are women of title, whom the recent financial crisis has robbed of all their fortune.

The second of these speculations is probably nearest the mark. For the songs that are sung are always concert-room songs, and the manner of their singing betrays the practiced professional. And although somewhat less melodramatic than the others, this theory does nothing to reduce the affair's intrinsic romance. For its intrinsic romance is due to just that concert-room quality in the singing, as all your readers would agree, could they once hear, as I heard the other night, Tosti's voluptuous "Good-bye" ringing passionately out amongst the trees and scattered lights of one of Belgravia's opalescent squares.

King Edward's Royal Train.

A London paper tells of the royal train built for King Edward by the London and Northwestern Railway Co. While some continental sovereigns have had railway coaches built for them at the expense of the state or of their own privy purse, the royal trains provided by the London and Northwestern and two or three of the other English companies have been constructed at the companies' own expense. They then remain the railway's property, the members of the royal family paying their fares like ordinary passengers, with merely the usual charge for a special train. The most elaborate precautions are taken to insure the safety of the King's train, a pilot engine running fifteen minutes in advance throughout the entire journey. The train itself contains a saloon designed for His Majesty, with a smoking-room, a day saloon, a bedroom and dressing-room, all equipped with handsome furniture.

Anti-Rat Crusade.

The great anti-rat crusade was started recently with such supporters as Lord Avebury, Sir Lander Brunton, Dr. Crichton-Browne and Sir Harry Johnston. They proclaim the astonishing fact that the rodents cause $50,000,000 worth of property damage annually in England alone, while their hygienic danger is still more appalling. It is pointed out that they are chiefly responsible for the spread of plagues and epidemics, and trichinosis has been traced to rats, which infect pigs and subsequently people who eat pork. Rats multiply at the rate of eight hundred descendants yearly from one pair.

Denmark has tried the experiment of paying two cents for each dead rat, at a cost of $18,000. It is calculated that these rats would have done damage to the amount of $186,000. The English agitators of the rat crusade advocate a similar law in England. The first meeting, however, was a walkover for the rats, in that it proved a fiasco almost.

Inclusive.

Prescott, the historian, possessed a quiet and quaint humor. Mme. M. S. van de Velde gives an instance of it in "Random Recollections." Mr. Prescott was taking a foreign visitor for a walk in Boston Common one Sunday. The special object of the stroll was to see the fountain in the frog pond. When the two arrived at the spot they found the water shut off.

"Oh," said Prescott disconsolately, by way of apology, "I knew little boys were not allowed to play on the Sabbath, but I did not know that fountains were not permitted to do so."

The proposed Hygienic Institute building at London will cost $30,000.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

BOOST PLEASANTLY.

Oh, is there not some little thing
That you might kindly say
To help some poor, downhearted one
And cheer him on his way?
You might approach him and remark:
"Old man, you're looking punk.
Your hat is three years out of style.
That necktie—pipe the junk!"

Or you might meet him on the street
And say: "You're looking blue,
As though perhaps you might be sick.
I hope that you'll pull through."
Some sweet and soothing words like that Might add to his good cheer
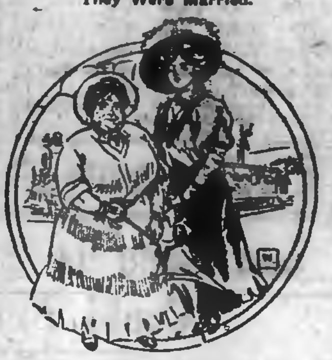
Unless he's the ungrateful kind
And biffs you on the ear.

It's such a very little thing
To hand a man a smile;
It helps you both upon your way
And really is worth while.
Of course you always should explain,
To make the thing complete,
You're smiling at the awkward way
He stumbles with his feet.

By some such scheme, not patented,
By some such simple plan,
You may do something more or less
To help a brother man.
Although it's always very well
And prudent, I should say,
To keep things open so that you
May make a getaway.

They Were Married.



"Anything happen in the tunnel?"

"Yes; John went to sleep."

Might Ask His Wife.

"Brown is in a quandary."

"What's the trouble?"

"He is carrying a heavy life insurance, you know."

"Yes."

"Well, he is tired of it."

"Well?"

"Now he doesn't know whether to throw up his insurance or lay down his life."

They Dissemble.

"Did you ever notice," asked the wayside philosopher, "how much more cheerfully a man turns the crank of an automobile when the machine will not run than he turned the grindstone when a boy?"

"You are mistaken," replied the close observer. "He only tries to look cheerful to fool the rubbernecks."

Progress.

"How close are you getting to that automobile you started out to purchase some months ago?"

"Well, I feel that it is in sight. My wife got enough money together to buy an automobile veil."

Hard to Squeeze Through.

"Why is it hard for a rich man to get into heaven?"

"That's easy."

"I don't see it."

"Because his head is apt to be swelled."

As Usual.

A small, dainty missive,
Directed to me;
A leap year proposal
I felt it might be.
I cautioned my fluttering
Heart to be still,
For I knew it contained
But the washlady's bill.

A Safe Conclusion.

"If John had three apples and he gave three to Mary, what would he then have?"

"Probably a cigarette."

Toronto Live Stock.

TORONTO, Feb. 27.—Receipts of live stock at the City Market, as reported by the railways, were 69 carloads, composed of 906 cattle, 908 hogs, 459 sheep and 140 calves, since Tuesday.

Exporters.

There were no export steers bought for shipping purposes, at least, none were reported. A fair supply of export bulls were sold at $3.75 to $4.25 for the bulk, with a few choice at a little more money.

Butchers.

Owing to light supply and several outside buyers, there was a little sharper trade, but there was no difference in price, at least the leading dealers so reported. A few, not more than 20, prime picked cattle sold at $4.80 to $5 per cwt.; loads of the best sold at $4.40 to $4.60; medium, $4.25 to $4.40; common, $3.75 to $4.10; cows, $2.50 to $4 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

None were offered or sold as such, but there were many light cattle on the market, that other years would not have been taken for any other purpose than for feeding, and fully half the cattle offered and sold to kill this winter were nothing more or less than feeders. Harry Murby has orders on hand, but cannot get either feeders or stockers, to fill them. Mr. Murby bought 180 cattle, 850 to 1100 lbs., at $3.60 to $4.00 per cwt., amongst which were cattle that ought to have gone to the stable.

Milkers and Springers.

Many milkers and springers have been brought on the market this week. A large number of them were of poor quality, which at the latter end of the week were hard to dispose of. Good to choice milkers and forward springers sold fairly well at $40 to $55, and a very few of extra quality sold well up to $60 each; light lean common springers and milkers sold from $18 up to $35; medium cows, about $35 each.

Veal Calves.

The bulk of calves offered were of poor quality. Prices ranged from $3 to $6 per cwt. Prime quality calves are worth more money.

Sheep and Lambs.

Export ewes, $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt.; rams, $3 to $4; lambs of good quality sold at $6.50 to $7 per cwt.; common lambs, $5 to $6 per cwt.

Hogs.

Mr. Harris quoted prices lower at $5 for selects, fed and watered, and lights at $4.75 per cwt., which is a decline of 15 cents per cwt.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, Feb. 27.—Cattle—Receipts, 100 head; firm; prime steers, $5.60 to $5.85.

Veals—Receipts, 150 head; active and steady.

Hogs—Receipts, 4000 head; fairly active and 10c to 15c lower; heavy and mixed, $4.65 to $4.70; yorkers, $4.60 to $4.70; pigs, $4 to $4.50; roughs, $3.90 to $4.10; dairies, $4.50 to $4.65.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 8000 head; active; lambs, 10c; wethers, 15c higher, lambs, $5 to $7.00; yearlings, $6.25 to $6.50; wethers, $5.50 to $6; ewes, $5.25 to $5.50; sheep, mixed, $3 to $5.65.

Chicago Live Stock.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Cattle—Receipts, estimated about 7000; market steady; steers, $4.25 to $6.25; cows, $3.25 to $5; heifers, $3.00 to $5.25; bulls, $3.00 to $4.50; calves, $3.75 to $7.25; stockers and feeders, $3.25 to $4.90.

OBITUARY

JAMES H. WATTERS.

Mr. James Watters, another of the pioneer settlers of Seymour, was called to rest yesterday morning, after an illness of about four weeks. He was in decling health for about two years, and a month ago his condition became decidedly worse, and early yesterday morning the spirit took its flight.

About four years after coming to this country he was married. Mrs. Watters died twelve years ago. Two sons, Wm. and Thomas, and two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Best and Mrs. George Anderson, all of Seymour, survvei.

Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church, and was highly respected by all who knew him. The funeral will take place tomorrow (Friday) to Mount Pleasant cemetery, service to be conducted at the house by Rev. A. C. Reeves at 10.30 a.m.

The deceased was an uncle of Mrs. William T. Crane, East City.

BAND PLAYED SPLENDIDLY

Peterboro' Band Supplied Good Music at Last Night's Press Game

The Peterborough band, which was kind enough to give its services gratuitously for the press game, played splendidly, and were heard to the greatest advantage in their various selections. Conductor G. Common and his efficient musicians are deserving of great praise for attaining such efficiency in the short time the band has been organized.

The Examiner and Review offices desire to express their thanks to the band for their much appreciated assistance towards the success of the evening.

City Council Decides to Operate Market for 1908

Mr. George Ball Will be Market Clerk at a Salary of $750 Per Year—Change Will Take Place on April 1st.

The City Council last night adopted the report of the Property Committee recommending the operation of the market, commencing April 1st. Mr. George Ball, who is now sanitary inspector, will be market clerk, at a salary of $750 per year and he will have an assistant on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The latter has yet to be appointed. It is the intention of the Council to have the sanitary inspection work done by the police in future, as was the case before a sanitary inspector was appointed.

The report of the Property Committee presented by the chairman, Ald. Bradburn, at last night's meeting, was as folllows:—

Gentlemen,—Your Property Committee beg leave to report and recommend as folllows:—

1 That the market tolls and charges be not sold for the coming year, but that the city appoint a market clerk to take charge of the market and collect the tolls.

2. That George Ball be appointed market clerk and given charge of the collection of tolls, etc., for the year, bginning April 1st, next.

3 That the chairman be authorized to have the plate glass in the Public Library building insured against accident.

4 That the chairman be authorized to have the room adjoining the Council Chamber fitted up for the assessors.

The report was adopted and read.

Now that the Garbage by-law has been turned down by the electorate, George Ball will collect the market tolls at a salary of $750 a year. He will have the aid of an assistant two days a week, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Ald. McIntyre hoped that the inspection of milk would not suffer by this change, as it had been productive of good results since the milk by-law had been passed.

Ald. Elliott agreeed with Ald. McIntyre, and he offered that Inspector Ball's salary had been well earned if only for the improvements in the quality of milk assured by milk testing.

Ald. Gilespie said the people were now being educated up to keeping their milk stirred up until after the tests were made, and this went a long way towards securing tests fair to all milk vendors.

Ald. Buller in talking on the change in George Ball's duties, contended that the caretaker of the City Hall and even the plumbing inspector could assist Mr. Ball on Wednesday and Saturday, market days, and at other times found necessary. He thought the change in not selling the market tolls a move in the right direction.

The Property Committee will subsequently take up the question of who shall assist Mr. Ball.

The sanitary inspection will be conducted by the police as was the case before last year, but the milk will be tested by Mr. Ball as in the past.

A Sad Case is Reported; Could Not Enter Hospital

Young Man Named Phelps Died Under Distressing Circumstances—Had to Find Accomadation in Private Home.

A despatch from Huntsville says: A young man named Phelps, who was brought to town a few days previously from Burk's Falls, in the hope that he might be granted admission to the hospital died. Both institutions here are now only private enterprises, the Government grant having been withdrawn, and as the young fellow had insufficient money to pay for an operation and treatment admission was denied. His hands, feet, and nose were in a state of decomposition as a result of old and oft-repeated frost bites, which had never had, so far as the statement of the young fellow goes, proper medical treatment. He was accompanied by his former employer, a farmer living about three miles from Burk's Falls, who brought with him the promise of municipal aid to the extent of $40. After considerable difficulty accommodation was secured for him in a private home. A doctor was called in, performed an operation on one of his feet, and gave him medical treatment, but in a day or two he became delirious and one week after his admission to the home he died.

Before death called the suffering lad he told a pitiful tale. Nine years ago he had, according to his story, been left with the Burk's Falls farmer where he received board and clothes, but his supply of clothing had been but scanty. He had not heard of his mother since she left him at Burk's Falls, nor anything about the whereabouts of his friends or other relatives. Phelps was 19 years old, and his former home was given as Carlow, Ontario.

Peterborough Canoe Company Sent a Canoe to Brazil

From Peterborough, Canada, to Brazil, South America, is a long trip and a long distance to ship goods from this city. A few days ago, however, the English Canoe Company, shipped a canoe to Brazil and there is a probability that more will be sent in the future. This is the first canoe ever sent by the English company to that country and perhaps the first canoe ever sent from Peterborough to Brazil.

The canoe was shipped to New York and at that city will be placed on a steamer and taken to South America. The incident goes to show that Peterborough products are all over the world—even in the remotest corners.

8 Between Brock and Dublin, from Stewart street east, to the river, J. W. Covey, George street.

9 From Dublin —and Smith west of Downie— north, and Aylmer west J. J. Hartley, 234 Antrim.

Visitors will receive notice by letter informing them of the district to which they are assigned and the location of their headquarters. They will be expected to report there on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 11th when they will be given instructions as to the outcome of their work.

A meeting of all the workers will be held in the YMCA hall on Tuesday evening, March 10th at which Mr. Yellowlees will be present to give instructions and explanations as to the details of carrying on the work.

The organization is now fairly complete and all that is necessary to carry the work to a successful finish is energy and faithfulness on the part of the workers.

WEDDING BELLS

NORTHCOTT—COULTER

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. John Coulter, Pontypool, on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 19th, the contracting parties being Miss E. H. Coulter and Mr. W. H. Northcott, of Hamilton, the Rev. D. B. Marsh, F.R.A.S., officiating.

The bride has for a number of years enjoyed the distinction of being the most popular girl in Manvers, and very numerous indeed were the good wishes she received for a happy wedded life. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, and never was a more sumptuous repast dispensed than on this festive occasion, reflecting great credit on the friends of the bride, who so competently took charge of the culinary department.

The bride wore a handsome princess costume of cream Marvellieux silk trimmed with Irish lace, and pearls, and was assisted by Miss M. Fee, who wore a pretty creation of electric blue silk. The groom was supported by Mr. A. J. Coulter, brother of the bride.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Northcott, Mr. and Mrs. V. Cochrane, Miss A. Coulter, Messrs. G. and T. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coulter, Mrs. James Coulter, Mrs. Syer, Miss N. and Mr. E. ALLAN DOONE

Lovers of real good Irish comedy should not miss seeing "Allen Doone," Ireland's sweetest singing comedian, in his new play "A Romance in Ireland." Mr. Doone will be favorably remembered playing Joe. Murphy's "Kerry Gow" here last season, the opera house management being obliged to bring him back ten days later when he played to capacity business. Besides being a person of real wit, Mr. Doone is also the possessor of a rich tenor voice which he uses to advantage throughout his play. The numbers which he will sing on Saturday will be Joe Murphy's famous song, "A Handful of Earth," "Love's Serenade," and "A Toast to Old Erin." No expense has been spared to properly stage the play, the full equipment being carried by the company.

SPORTING NEWS

The Review Slightly Worsted At the Annual Press Game

The Grit Men Won by 14-3 in a Sensational Struggle—Both Teams Played Fine Hockey—All "Went Merry as a Marriage Bell"—for the Examiner.

We take off our hat——what's left of it—to the Examiner hockey team. Any unkind things which were said for the purpose of advertising the great game, are now withdrawn and the Review buries the hatchet and its reputation for another year.

The Review scored three goals in the match at Brock street rink last night. This has led our professional humorist to say that it was cold for the Review last night—just three above zero. The Grit gooseberry seven are credited with scoring fourteen goals, but the number cannot be authenticated. It will have to be taken as read.

The attendance was in the neighborhood of seven hundred; at any rate six hundred paid, and it is generally known that about a hundred Examiner supporters worked their nerve overtime and got in without paying. The spectators were all with the Review—more so than the goals scored.

The game was a strange heterogeneous mixture of hockey, shinny, harpooning—and Josiah Craig. The aforesaid Josiah appeared in a make-up which made it impossible to tell which way he was heading. Front and back bore such a striking resemblance to each other that it was hard to tell which was which. This was a great handicap to the Review team as it was out of the question to decide where to check him. He wore one of the suits of the Peterborough Rugby team, which won the championship in 1892. The trousers were cut with a deep flounce and the upper portion was designed . . a la oatmeal sack.

It has been said that the Review team was worse than Josiah Cragi's famous Limericks, but we protest that this is too cruel. Such a sweeping condemnation is not deserved.

Although the Review's record—at least what's left of it—has been considerably tarnished, the players from this great family journal achieved the distinct honor of going through a game without a man being ruled off. This is a record that no other team in Peterborough can boast of, that is if such a thing is to be boasted of in these degenerate days.

The half time score was 5—0 in favor of the hole in the street seven, and it was just about as bad on the home stretch. The spectators, however, had a night of rare enjoyment and have come to the conclusion that nothing equals the press game.

THE GLADIATORS.

The teams were as follows:—

Examiner.		Review
	Goal
Craig		Dobbin
	Point
Clarke		Thompson
	Cover
Burridge		Burns
	Rover
Theobald		Yokome
	Centre
Huston		Wilson
	Right Wing
Robinson		McGuire
	Left Wing
Henry		McRae

Referee—George Lynch.

An Impartial Criticism Supplied by an Outsider

Dobbin in goal was lenient with Examiner men and allowed several to go through that he might easily have stopped. The veteran goal man was instructed to give the boys a chance and very frequently he did so.

Thompson at point was in grand form and when he took the notion broke up the Examiner rushes with an ease that caused outbursts of applause and enthusiasm on the part of the spectators.

Burns at cover did stellar work. It was understood of course that he was to save himself for the approaching Review-Wanderer game, but he nevertheless let himself out surprising at times considering it was only a practice.

A. Chopin Yokome was the only obstacle to the success of the forward line. It was just a matter of kindness that he was allowed to play and his showing was at all times much to be regretted. The least said about him the better. Some one on the Examiner team was unkind enough to hit him one time when he volunteered to touch the puck, and as a result he has now a lump on his knee that is as big as a bird's nest.

Wilson, the Strathcona star, scintillated at centre. Whenever he took the notion to go sailing down the ice it was really painful to see the feeble efforts of the Examiner forwards and defence to stop him. He was considerate enough to pass the puck to the Grit lemons once in a while however, when it was quite obvious that it would be more convenient for him to continue in his unopposed pleasure jaunt and land the rubber in the Examiner nets.

McGuire of Orangeville, once in a while showed what he was really capable of doing. But he was usually contented to watch the amusing efforts of the Examiner with the tantalizing disc.

McRae undoubtedly excelled himself and for that matter any man on the ice. He was neat both in appearance and in the matter of play. On no less than eight occasions he carried the puck through the entire Examiner defence then swooping back beat out the Examiner forwards and scored on the Review goal.

Jim Craig played goal for the Examiner. He was a mark that the Review forwards hit several times. It was amusing to see him endeavoring to dodge the puck. At length he became so discouraged that he left the nets and attempted to make good on the forward line.

Clark at point was big, but unsteady. McRae ran into him on one occasion and it was the downfall of John Dough.

Burridge at cover was a little more sensible than some of his team mates. He has good ideas and with a little more practice with the Review team and some coaching and advice might develop into a fair player.

Theobald, the Examiner rover, did remarkably welll when it is considered that he was in such fast company. He willl be spare man for the Review team in the Review-Wanderer game.

City Editor Beef Tea Huston was somewhat embarassed in turning out with the Grit grafters. He was a little backward in the first part of the game, but his embarrassment wore off as the contest progressed.

The names of the Examiner wings were Henry and Robertson. Both were tall and fairly good skaters.

Craig in his outfit looked like an Irogotte head hunter from the midway at Toronto exhibition. Some of the spectators thought a deep sea diver or pearl fisher had hove into their midst when he made his appearance. He was graceful rather than effective.

When Clarke came on the ice the band struck up "Every Little Bit Added to What You've Got Makes Just a Little Bit More."

The City Council struck the rate last night, but the Review team struck something a blamed sight worse.

Once when Clarke was making a rush the band played the Dead March. All the Review team stood solemnly aside. He had a clear course before him, but carried the puck behind the Review nets and scored from the wrong side. The goal was allowed, however.

Huston's Otonabee friends cheered wildly for him, being under the impression that he was playing a good game. This was one of the humorous features of the contest.

The Review is obliged to the spectator who furnished the above. Enough has been said of the workout.

A WORD ABOUT THE REFEREE

Mr. George Lynch Was the Right Man in the Right Place

Mr. George Lynch had a pretty heavy task last night in handling the big press game. He made an excellent referee however, and was a most fortunate choice.

He understood the nature of the contest and of the Review seven and as a consequence tempered justice with mercy. It would have been impossible to secure a better official to handle the bell.

Opposition for the Press Game

Another One at the Knox Church Rink Last Evening

An exciting game of hockey was played on Knox rink last evening when the Old Maids defeated the Bachelors by the score of 6—0.

From the time the game started it was easy to be seen that the Old Maids would win, although they had a tendency to play off-side quite a lot, but they had a number of things in their favor which helped them to hand the Bachelors the lemon. First it was noticeable that they were the better with the brooms and were able to get in the corners before the Bachelors could get theirs in shape, and from lightning rushes from behind the goal generally resulted in a score.

In the second half the Bachelors had to be ruled of a number of times for mixing it up between themselves. It rather seemed as though they were scrapping over which of the fair sex they were going to skate with after the game and at diferent times they were seen over in the corners trying to decide this matter. Either that, or the Old Maids were taking the advantage of it being leap year, and were trying to settle their trouble. A number of proposals were made and it is expected that KNOTS that are not easily untied will soon be coming of.

In the first half, Mr. Duncan Campbell acted as referee and peacemaker, but he did not give satisfaction. There were too many of the Batchelors ruled of, and the Old Maids found it very lonesome on the ice by themselves.

In the second half Mr. Dan Hillier tryed to restore peace, and it was generally said by the large crowd present that he gave satisfaction. As both teams are very modest they do not wish to have their names in print.

As the Bachelors are not at all satisfied with the lemons they received last evening, they wish to state ceived last evening they wished to have it stated the return game will be played in the near future when different results are anticipated.

In Fifth Place at Kansas City

David Hartley is Inside the Money—Is Not Gaining or Losing Any

David Hartley is in fifth place in the big walking contest at Kansas city and is just about holding his own. When the walkers stepped at midnight he was 25 miles behind Hoagland of New York, who is still in the lead. There is much speculation locally as to whether Hoagland can keep up the pace until the end of the week.

There are many who think that Hartley will now start to pull up and will finish well towards the front. Even if he only holds the place be now occupies the local man will be inside the money as there are prizes for the first seven men.

Special to the Review.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 28.—When the walkers in the six-day race stopped for the day at midnight last night, the score was as follows;

Hoagland	198
Slater	193
Messier	191
Player	187
HARTLEY	173
Blake	160
Lloyd	110

BURNS READY FOR ANYBODY

London, Feb. 27—Canadian Associated Press— Tommy Burns, interviewed by Sporting Life, declared that he is ready to box Moir, Squires and Tiger Smith or any three Englishmen, six round each on the same night with a fifteen minute interval between the bouts or any two of them ten rounds each.

Sporting Life declares it is an amazing challenge but Burns says that he is serious. Sporting Life saw Smith, who expressed his willingness to fight Burns singly or as he suggests. Burns' offer has created a sensation.

Their mother was taken ill and she sent word to the officers of the Society asking them if they would take her boy and girl until she should recover. They are bright children and were comfortably dressed.

RAILWAYS EXPERIENCE MORE TROUBLE

Snow Drifting the Tracks, Delaying the Trains

The railways are experiencing more trouble today and the trains are all behind scheduled time. The snow is blowing and drifting and filling up the tracks. On the G.T.R. today the Toronto flyer did not leave here until 9.15 this morning, and at noon the 11.45 Toronto train did not get in here until twenty minutes past two. The noon C.P.R. train was also two hours behind time, the snow blockading the track. The snow plough has been kept busy all day keeping the road clear.

Is Honesty a Strict Necessity?

What a millionaire merchant thinks are the requisites for business.—I was talking only a few months ago with one of the wealthy merchants of the country —a man who had made his way in the world from comparative poverty to vast wealth. In making this colossal fortune not only had he not antagonized the critical element in society but had received from it a considerable degree of approbation. In the course of our conversation, however, the necessity of honesty in business was dwelt upon by him, and in touching upon this theme of his he showed me where he might have hidden a little grain of irritating self consciousness. "'Do you know,'" he said with a trace of resentment in eye and voice, "I was invited some time ago to speak to the men's Bible class in a prominent church on the question of whether a man honestly might become a millionaire." The words and tone of this man reminded me of a question which I long had wanted to ask a man in the position of this nettled millionaire. With a little more tact than he had accredited to the minister I led up to a frank invitation by the millionaire to propound my question, which was this;

"'You are the head of a vast business, employing thousands of men in intricate, complex lines of modern business. Suppose you should have as an applicant for a position in your house a clean cut, brilliant man active and energetic, and capable—promising in every way, according to your judgment as you apply it in the measure of men —could you find a place for that man worthy of him if he should say to you in the earnestness of his nature that the one high ideal which always had prompted his actions was unswerving, uncompromising honesty and honor?" "'No,' was the answer of my millionaire friend. True, it was not the one syllable negation which I have written but it was 'No' none the less. "If he were not too impracticable; if he could make reasonable concessions now and then; if he were not too idealistic"—with these and other qualifying generalities which begged the question, my suppositious candidate "might prove himself a valuable man" to the business.

Now, this millionaire man of business meant to tell me the truth. If he should chance to see this article it will be his first intimation of the fact that in his truthfully trying to say "Yes" to my question his truthfulness compelled a literal "No." Manifestly this is a economic question. It must be unfitting the young man for a business career if in his academic days he has preached into him the law of unswerving honesty according to the highest ideals, when at first shock of business experience he discovers that he has been training carefully along lines that tend only to unfit him for his work. No philosophy of the optimist can square the teacher of such idealism.

There are few pessimists who would dare to say that the philosophy of the horse trader holds in generral business. At the same time there are few men in competitive businesses who have not felt the impulse to make concessions in their ideals of honesty, however liberal these ideals already may have been. Yet still there are men in business who have led lives of ideal honesty, and whose ideal honesty money never will buy. This fact alone may mark them as successes among thousands. To seek recognition of the millions, however, theirs is not the standard code.—Trade Review.

A FRANCHISE FOR ONE YEAR

Orillia Agreement's With the Bell Telephone Company

At a meeting of the Town Council yesterday it was decided to grant the Bell Telephone Company a franchise for one year. In exchange the company will grant the town the free use of six telephones. The question of installing the central energy system which does away with the ringing of the bell, was discussed. Mr. A. T. Smith, district superintendent of the Telephone Company, stated that it would be installed here as soon as possible, but at the present time it was a physical impossibility, and he thought it would be two or three years before we could look for it. The state of the money market was the chief reason of delay as the company could not get money for construction and installation purposes. Nor was there any probability at the present time of the company placing its wires underground on Mississaga street. The cost of this would be about $7,000 and the business did not warrant the expenditure just now. The revenue of the telephone office here from long long distance business last year was slightly over $10,000 and from the local exchange about six thousand.—Orillia News-Letter.

FARMER'S RIGHTS

Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., seems to have resolved to ignore the rights of the farmers above the Buckhorn dam, to damages for the flooding of their land. When the Conservatives were in power they sent inspectors in such cases to investigate who made detailed reports upon which the Government acted promptly. But in this era of broken pledges and public waste, there seems to be no time for such a simple thing as justice. Favorites and officials can get miles of limits, coal areas and fishing rights, but there is not one cent for the man who loses part of his farm or maybe the whole of it by the Government's own action. Years have passed, promises have been made, broken and laughed over by the makers, but still no sign. We would recommend to the sufferers that a large deputation of Liberals and Conservatives proceed to Ottawa and instruct the Opposition. It will not take long for Messrs. Borden, Foster & Co., to bring the Government to time. They are doing it every day, and men who can compel an administration to bring down the original charters of its own misdeeds can in all probability secure justice or something approaching it for the farmers above Buckhorn.

It will take more than bindertwine to bind up wounds made by one's own friends. "No dividends, no damages, and no 'nothin.'" one farmer contemptuously termed it — "All right—we'll see."

"IS HONESTY A NECESSITY?"

This question was asked recently of a respectable millionaire man-of-business by a representative of the Canadian Trade Review published in Montreal. The answer was in the negative so far as the query applied to business. It was laid down by the millionaire as an undesirable but nevertheless fact that to be a successful man-of-business, one must, be at least a little crooked. The idea of plain, frank, healthy honesty ever permitting a man to become a millionaire was sat upon at once. If this be so and the Trade Review is a thoroughly representative paper which would not dare to put in print a gratuitous libel upon its clientel, then business is at war with religion and common honesty. In other words a successful business man if he becomes a millionaire is ipso facto a branded liar. This is unpleasant reading. We would go so far as to say that we have known very many honest business men but they never became millionaires It is true. We cannot suppose however that what is implied is that a man-of-business must necessarily be dishonest or that dishonesty is a sine qua non in successful business. The standing of the Trade Review is such, however, that we must admit misgivings on this important point, It is appalling to think of the prospect before the rising generation. Their first lesson is in jollying. Their second in quasslying and they graduate in straight stealing.

The Review's estimate of business life may account for the seemingly unprofitable labors of the righteous. After all it is a melancholy but stern fact that self-protection is alone always to be relied upon when other things so to speak, fail and apparently they do fail. We publish the Trade Review's article in full in another volume.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Yesterday it was often remarked that we could have our squabbles as well as the next man But we were all free and as free men enjoyed our privileges of squabbling if we wanted to. It all comes right in the end.

"A volunteer is worth too pressed men," is an old saying and a true one especially so of conventions. It would be a strange convention that no one had an ill word for, but where the conduct and good faith of all concerned remains impeachable, there is no cause for complaint.

Havelock Feels Highly Honored

Over the Result of the Conservative Nomination on Wednesday

Special to The Review.

Havelock, Feb. 27.—Havelock feels highly honored with the choice of the Conservative members in East Peterborough, the nominee from the Provincial House being from town, and that for the Dominion House from Belmont.

Reeve Jas. Thompson of town, following closely upon the honor he brought Havelock by his appointment as warden of the county, has again brought this growing and prosperous railway town into the limelight by being on Wednesday nominated to carry the standard of the Liberal-Conservative party in this riding at the Provincial elections.

The nomination was very interesting indeed, the successful nominee being closely pressed by Mr. Joseph Andrews of Asphodel.

Mr. John A. Sexsmith of Belmont, who lives at Preneveau, three miles east of here who has twice carried the Conservative standard at the Dominion elections and each time succeeded in lowering the record of the other party was again appointed to that position.

Both of these candidates are well and most favorably known throughout the county, and members of the Conservative party are already looking forward to a victory at both elections for their party in East Peterborough.

APPARENTLY FORGOT THAT WIFE WAS ILL

Sad Case Reported From Tweed—Inquest Will be Held

Tweed, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Lindsay, wife of Dick Lindsay, died under very peculiar circumstances at her home about one mile beyond Johnston's Corners on Monday of this week.

It seems that Lindsay was sent for a doctor on Saturday morning as Mrs. Lindsay was in a very critical condition, but he decided that he would combine business with his trip and drove a cow to Bridgewater to sell. He succeeded in selling the cow, but proceeded at once to spend the money in the hotels there and then came to Tweed and continued his spree without notifying a doctor of his wife's illness.

On Monday Mrs. Lindsay, who was left alone with a young son, gave birth to twins, and was without aid until the boy ran to the nearest neighbors over a half mile away, and before help arrived the unfortunate women died.

Coroner Dr. Farel was summoned on Tuesday and he thought the circumstances surrounding the case warranted an inquest. The jury was summoned for Wednesday and met at the scene of the death, but decided to adjourning the meeting for one week in order to consult with County Crown Attorney Anderson. They decided the circumstances warranted the holding of Lindsay, and a warrant has been issued for his arrest.

TELLS YOU HOW

Directions to Prepare Simple, Yet Remarkable, Home Mixture.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home;

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminish with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

The annual meeting of the Sunnyside branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Curtis. It was attended by a large number including several from St. Luke's Woman's Auxiliary. After the devotional exercises the annual report was presented by Mrs. Geo. Curtis. The society had during the year sent a bale of clothing to the Indian agent at Saskatchewan Twenty-two meetings had been held and there was a balance of $21 in the treasury. Reference was also made to the resignation of Mrs. Chas. Curtis, who for many years was president of the auxiliary. Owing to domestic duties, Mrs. Curtis has been unable to attend the meetings. Her resignation was received with much regret.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. John Michels,
Vice-Pres.—Mrs. H. Mackey.
Sec.-Treas.—Mrs. Geo. Curtis, Sr.
Delegate to annual meeting at Toronto—Mrs. Geo. Curtis, Jr.

Dr. Langfeldt and Mrs. S Gaskins, president of St. Luke's Woman's Auxiliary expressed the thanks of the visitors for the hospitable way in which they had been entertained.

Church Marriage Made Compulsory

Winnipeg Archbishop Reads Papal Letter Concerning Interesting Question

Montreal, Feb. 28. — Archbishop Langevin has sent out to his clergy a pastoral letter transmitting a decision of the Holy See, on the subject of marriage and giving it effect in the archdiocese of St. Boniface. The action of the Papal authorities relates particularly to marriages celebrated without the pale of the church. In the past a Catholic who went to a magistrate or a Protestant minister to be married, was held to be guilty of moral sin and generally was required to make a public apology for the scandal he had occasioned. The new rule is even more severe, for after Easter next all marriages of Catholics contracted outside the church will be treated as null and void by the ecclesiastical authorities. The marriage ceremony will have to be celebrated again before a priest before offending parties can be restored to standing in the church. The letter also deals with the matter of betrothal. Provision is made that engagements to marry in order to be binding that is to be considered as an obstacle to the marriage of one of the parties to another person than the betrothed must be declared before the parish priest or the bishop.

"The new ruling," said a priest to the Free Press yesterday, "shows how difficult it is to make laws concerning marriage. For instance, it may have this effect. The church does not admit divorce. But Catholic married before a minister and subsequently divorced by a civil court would be free to remarry since the church holds that there was never any legal marriage according to its own laws."

Death of Former Local Minister

Rev. E. Roberts Passed Away in Cobourg—Funeral To-day

The death occurred in Cobourg on Wednesday of a former Peterborough pastor in the person of Rev. Edward Roberts. The late Mr. Roberts had been ailing for some time. On Wednesday he suffered a stroke of paralysis which caused his death. He was 77 years of age and was many years engaged in the ministry. At one time he was pastor of the Bible Christian church, which was situated whether the Murray street church now stands. His last charge was the Baptist church at Lindsay. He was widely known in this city and highly esteemed for his many sterling qualities.

A wife and six children are left to mourn his loss. The sons are Messrs. Edward and Thomas of Toronto. The daughters are Mrs. McCrea of Omemee, (Rev.) Mrs. Cannon of Welcome, Mrs. McCracken, Leaford, and Miss Roberts at home.

The funeral took place this afternoon in Cobourg. Messrs. Wm. Yelland and F. Brownscombe attended the funeral from this city.

BRITISH DIPLOMACY

To the Editor of the Review;

Sir,—It may be that Englishmen have not the "way" of telling lies to suit Canadians. Personally and in business an Englishman is treated much better in most foreign countries. What does England gain from Canada? Little gratitude or even politeness. In speeches "from Hansard," I read Russia has only four non-labor days in the year. Within 50 miles of Peterborough I had recently to work always 12 hours, 18 and even 24 hours a day—no dinner hour and no holiday, not even Sunday, and then not paid as promised.

Yours, etc.,

New Temperance League Meeting

Held Last Evening in Y.M.C.A Hall—Constitution Adopted

An enthusiastic meeting of the recently organized temperance league was held last evening in the Y.M.C.A. hall. The ministers of the city were present in addition to several representatives from the different churches. Rev. J. G Potter, president of the association, occupied the chair and opened the meeting with devotional exercises. On Thursday evening a public meeting of the league will be held to which the citizens generally are invited. The report of the convention of the Dominion Alliance recently held in Toronto will be presented at this meeting.

The constitution of the society was discussed in detail last night and finally adopted. The work of the association will be largely in taking up some means to bring about local option in Peterborough or the abolishment of the bar in some way.

A law enforcement committee who will act as a stimulus to the license officials was appointed, consisting of the officers of the league and Messrs B. F. Ackerman, G. M Roger, R Neill R Lees, G. A G Gillespie, J J Howden, D W Dumble K F Matthews W. Madill and Dr. Scott. Financial and literary committees were also appointed.

TO SPEAK ON ORGANIZATION

Mr. Ames M. P. Will Address Members of Young Conservative Club

Mr. Ames, of the St. Antoine Division of Montreal, will address the members of the Young Conservative Club on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. Mr. Ames will speak on organization and give illustrations by lantern views. This will be the most instructive and profitable evening that has yet been held in the rooms, and every loyal Conservative is earnestly urged to be present.

It is almost certain that the elections will come on in the fall, and the Club has been fortunate in having Mr. Ames consent to address them at this opportune time.

WAS DRUNK AND DISORDERLY

Thomas Clarry was given ten days in gaol this morning for being drunk and disorderly last night. He appeared before Magistrate Dumble at the police court and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was given the option of a fine of two dollars or ten day son the hill. He had not the necessary two spot, so will sojourn on the hill.

As Apology to Mr. Goodwill

In the confusion the teams forgot to ask Mr. E. L. Goodwill to face the puck. This is much to be regretted as the accomodating secretary of the Children's Aid Society, was the unanimous choice of both teams for this purpose.

It is to be hoped that both Mr. Goodwill and the spectators will overlook the forgetfulness of the teams.

Reeve Will Not Stand for it

Reeve Burnham has promised to make things very interesting through out the town if certain accounts are passed by the Finance Committee of the Council. A couple of accounts are in the possession of Town Clerk Sanders and these are for hacks used by the promoters of the Municipal Lighting Bylaw. Mr. Burnham says he will strongly object to this town paying one cent of the account and if they do he will endeavor to upset the bylaw on these grounds. He thinks the proposal a high handed proceeding on the part of the Council and if permitted, every member would be perfectly justified in asking the town to shoulder his election expenses.—Port Hope Guide.

BIRTH

MacDONALD.—On Feb. 27th, 1908, at 248 Monroe Ave., East City, Peterborough, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacDonald, a daughter.

Winnipeg council proposes to spend over a million in local improvements

Council Will Endeavor to Revive Wm. Hamilton Works

Will Seek Legislation to Advance $30,000 to any Company That Will Take Over the Plant and Operate it—Other Matters Dealt With at Meeting of Council Last Night.

The City Council had a busy session last night, many matters being cleared off the blotter, Those present were Mayor Rush and Aldermen Morgan, Johnston, McIntyre, Buller, Gillespie, Turner, Morrow, Bradburn, Phelan, Elliott and Tovey.

Ald. Bradburn was added to the committee appointed to attend the Toronto Legislature in the interests of the city's application for special legislation.

SPECIAL SESSION.

Mr. F. D. Kerr addressed the council on behalf of G. Walter Greene, who protests against the municipal body applying to the Legislature for permission to bonus to the extent of $30,000 the company which shall resurrect and operate the Wm. Hamilton Co. Mr. Kerr pointed out that in the Municipal Act it is recognized that bonusing any institution is unlawful and unfair to the other industries, unless with the consent of any person or persons who have by their own industry and capital built and worked up a similar business to that proposed to be bonused. Mr. Kerr said he had been advised by Mr. Greene that his business is of the same nature to that to be conducted by the proposed new William Hamilton Co., and on behalf of his client he made public protest according to law, against the Council petitioning the Legislature for power to bonus the proposed new company.

FINANCE REPORT.

Ald. Morrow submitted this report:—

Gentlemen,—Your Finance Committee beg leave to report and recommend as follows:—

1. That the property in arrears for taxes the length of time required by law, be put up for sale.

2. That the salary of the city treasurer be fixed at $1,350 from 1st of January, 1908.

3. That D. W. Dumble be paid $500 in accordance with the settlements made by the mayor for his land taken for the extension of George street south of Romaine street, and that a cheque for that sum be issued to the city solicitor.

4. That two hundred printed copies of the auditors' report be procured as usual.

5. That the Mayor be appointed to attend the conference regarding tuberculosis in Toronto, on March 4th, and that his expenses be paid.

6. That a bylaw be submitted to the electors to issue debentures for $14,500 for expenses in connection with street extensions, and for $5,500 for expenses in connection with filling in the city's water lots, the debentures to bear four and three-quarters per cent. interest.

7. That a cheque for $6 be issued to John McMahon on account of taxes on property purchased from him for the extension of Aylmer street, and a cheque for $5.25 to the tax collector for a portion of the taxes on 50 Westcott street, purchased for the same purpose.

8. That a number of accounts be paid.

The report was adopted as read.

CHARITY DISTRIBUTION.

E. F. Mason was appointed to distribute the funds available for charity purposes under the will of the late Elmira Foley.

CUTTING DOWN OVERDRAFT.

Ald. Morrow, chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that such financial arrangements had been entered into that in a few days the city would only owe the bank $7,000. This news was received by the aldermen with much satisfaction.

STREET WATERING.

A bylaw providing for street watering next summer passed its several readings.

WM. HAMILTON CO.

Notwithstanding Mr. G. Walter Greene's protest, the Council decided to seek legislation empowering them to advance $30,000 to any company resurrecting and operating the defunct Wm. Hamilton Co. Should the Legislature confirm the Council's proposition, a bylaw to provide for a loan of $30,000 and fixed assessment to and for any company operating the old concern will go to the people.

FIREMEN'S SALARIES.

The firemen applied for an increase of salary.

Ald. Johnston here objected to the Fire, Water and Light Committee's estimate having been reduced from $7,500 to $7,000, which estimate he conted to be too low for all requirements, to say nothing of the increase

Ald. Morgan concurred in Ald. Johnston's views.

Moved by Ald. Phelan, seconded by Ald. Buller, that the matter of an increase in the firemen's salaries be referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

LIGHTS WANTED.

Ald. Morgan wanted to know why the Light and Power Company had not put incandescent lamps on James and Mark streets, as ordered some time ago.

Ald. Johnston replied that the company claim that they have not arms on which to hand these lamps, that they have ordered the goods though.

Ald. Morgan thought it took the company so long to get the goods that the Fire, Water and Light Committee might hang up a couple of gas lamps as a gentle reminder.

Moved by Ald. Morgan, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, that the Clerk write the Peterborough Light & Power Co. and inquire the reason for their delay in hanging these lamps.

THE BOGUE DRAIN.

Ald. Buller, Johnston and Phelan were instructed to interview Mr. V. Eastwood and demand that the understanding arrived at between the city and Mr. Bogue for re-opening the Aylmer street drain through Mr. Bogue's property, be caried out without further delay. Otherwise the city will act on their own responsibility.

The council then adjourned.

Powder Works to be Moved From Tweed to Stoney Point

As regards the effect of the recent explosion at the Powder Works, we have just reached the point where we are able to relax somewhat our efforts towards the preservation and salvage of a vast amount of raw material stored in the wrecked buildings; and, while it may seem superfluous just now, we wish to repeat through the medium of the press, our often verbally expressed regret at the damages and great inconvenience caused a number of the people of Tweed.

Certain gentlemen have been good enough to take steps towards ascertaining the extent of the larger casualties, through broken glass, etc., and if those who have not been called upon will be good enough to let us know the amount of their damages, we shall be prepared after looking into the claims to make good all legitimate losses.

With reference to the future we are also unable to say, that, while presently we shall endeavor to produce in a small way, to hold important contracts, it is the intention of the Company, when weather permits of building to erect the Gelatin plant on Stoney Point; and just as soon as this is accomplished, to build over there also, the nitrator, nitro-glycerine storerooms, mixing houses and packing houses, for the manufacture of dynamite, and to so separate quantities, and buttress or barricade the plant as will not only ensure every means of safety in the works, but prevent a recurrence of loss or damage in the village.

In view of some uneasiness felt within the corporation as to present location and the ultimate ideas of the company in this respect it has been deemed expedient and timely that this information be given out; and it is hoped this intimation may allay to a large extent any apprehensions felt as to the safety of the village.

Will Endeavor to Have it Thrown out on a Technicality, the Claim Being That the Watches of the Officials Were Not According to Standard Time—Other News From the Railroad Town.

Special to The Review.

Havelock, Feb. 27—There is considerable interest taken over the result of the vote on the high license bylaw on Monday, which was carried by a majority of 98, and whereby the license fee is raised from $250 to $750 after May 1st. If the local hotelkeepers do not take out a license before the first of April, then Havelock will go dry on May 1st, and this place will be to all intents and purposes a local option town.

A newspaper reporter interviewed the proprietors of the local hotels since the bylaw was carried and they all state that they do not intend to take out licenses for the coming year claiming that they can not make it pay when they have to pay such a high license.

It is rumored about town that steps may be taken to endeavor to quash the bylaw owing to the fact that the watches of the officials conducting the bylaw proceedings on Monday did not go according to standard time. It is claimed that they were some seven or eight minutes faster than the C.P.R. time and as a result one vote was shut out. The opponents will endeavor to quash the bylaw on this account and on other points which they claim to be illegal.

A school hockey team composed of seven small boys made a trip to Norwood on Saturday of last week and as a result the team at that burg have a game marked down against them. The score was 8-6.

Miss Irma Puffer and Mr. Braund, of Hastings spent Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Edith Montgomery has returned to her home in Peterborough after visiting Mrs. S. J. Cross.

Mr. Jos. Lonergan, of Norwood, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Caroline Scott has returned from visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Thomas Bennett entertained a number of her friends on Thursday night last in honor of her guest Miss G. Flynn of Peterborough.

The regular February meeting of the Belmont council will be held at the town hall, Preneveau, on Saturday of this week, Feb. 29th.

The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church was held on Wednesday for the election of officers for next year. Mrs. Ernest Spencer resigned her position as President, but accepted the office of treasurer. Miss Charlotte R. Stirling was elected secretary: Mrs. Geo. Chiles, president, and Mrs. Jas. M. Watson, vice-resident. According to the report for last year the society is in a most prosperous state.

Miss Lillian Webb spent a few days with friends in Smith's Falls last week.

A most enjoyable time was spent at the social at Mrs. Wm. Webb's residence under the auspices of St. John's church on Wednesday evening when there was a very large attendance.

Prof. Fox's dancing class will be held in the opera house on Friday night of this week.

Miss Kate Mahoney, of Rochester, N.Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Young.

Mr. H. G. Scott, of Niagara Falls, formerly of this town, was the guest of his uncle, Mr. Jas. Scott, for a few days last week.

March Number of Busy Man's Magazine

The March issue of the Busy Man's Magazine will be found unusually instructive and interesting, particularly to those who can devote only a short time each day to reading. The articles are timely and profitable, while some of the best short stories of the month will be found within its pages. The illustrations are good and brighten up the number wonderfully. The story of the Progress of a Canadian from Cadet to Rear-Admiral in His Majesty's Navy is told in an attractive way. A clever sketch of "Tobogganing in Canada," will appeal to all lovers of the great winter pastime. Other acceptable contributions from leading writers are; "How Business Men can Maintain Prosperity," "$25,000 Jobs that go Begging," "The Science of Selling Goods," "Titled Women who are in Business," "Industrial Canada as England sees it," "What Germany can teach us," "The Life Story of a Buffalo," "How Money Carries Poison," "The Circulation of British Journals" "Cutting down Electric Light Bills," etc. There are many other features bright and impressive, which will please 'busy men.' The March number of the Busy Man's Magazine is certainly well worth perusing.

Large Manufacturer Joins In Request for More Power

T. H. Bush, Port Hope, Endorses Application of Northumberland-Durham Power Company Regarding Healey Falls.

The following letter written by a manufacturer—one of the largest in Canada, viz., H. T. Bush, of Port Hope, president of the Standard Ideal Company, and of the new Central Foundry, Limited, an employer of 600 men, an American manufacturer who has come to Canada—is addressed to J. A. Culverwell, managing director of the Northumberland-Durham Power Company:

Feb. 24th, '08

"Much to my disappointment I was unable to go to Ottawa with the deputation last night, as I had just returned from a long business trip and was physically unfit to undertake such a strenuous trip that evening.

I was with the deputation to the Ontario Government nearly three year ago, when they granted the company's request.

As a director of this company, I have always been ready to do what I could to help forward its progress. You can forward this letter to the Honorable Mr. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, and to the Hon. Mr. Aylesworth, Minister of Justice, as it is the substance of what my address would have been at Ottawa.

I wish them to understand that I am a strong supporter of this company and strongly urge them to grant a lease of the Dominion Government's intervening portion of the upper Healey rapids, so that the company can make a proper and full development of the whole property.

I am sure that the company can in return, give consideration to the Government in the way of lockage water and lands for their locks and canals at Healey Rapids.

Besides it is only right that the company which is now officially endorsed by eighteen councils in four counties should have its lease against all comers, and particularly so when the company's shareholders include a large majority of the manufacturers and business men in the whole district.

The company have now waited over two years for the completion of the canal surveys—since the last large municipal deputation went to Ottawa—and it is only fair that this matter should be hurried, particularly so when nearly all the rest of the canal surveys of the River Trent have been completed and the work put under contract, and some even under construction.

I can sympathize with you in the opposition that has been directed against the company, by private people in another district in endeavoring to "dig under" us at Ottawa, and it is under the circumstances wonderful that the company has been as successful as it has in its organization.

With the strong local men now at the back of the company I feel certain that they will have no difficulty in securing a great deal of financial support, throughout the counties, when they can issue a proper prospectus and when the financial stringency lets up a bit.

Based upon my experience in the United States, I am confident that there will be no trouble in securing the rest of the large amount of money that is required in the States.

As President of the Standard Ideal Company, Limited, and also of Central Foundry, Limited (the new factory that we have just completed) I have been made to feel keenly the necessity of cheap electric power.

We have had to put an additional new steam engine in our first factory and in Central Foundry, Ltd., we have put in an entire new, steam power plant, when we should have preferred having cheap electric power.

This means considerable to an employer of some six hundred hands, in the cheapness of the manufacture, and had we received the lease when the company first applied for it, some three years ago, I would not have been compelled to have adopted steam power.

We are becoming extremely jealous of the wonderful progress made by the territory from Toronto, west, inclusive of Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford and the Niagara peninsula.

Our territory from Toronto, east, to Deseronto, is seriously handicapped in our endeavors to meet modern power competition. Also in our struggle to locate American industries through this section of Ontario.

It appeals to me that the Government could not do a better stroke of business for this section of the country or secure greater political prestige by any other act than that of granting the Northumberland and Durham Power Company, without further delay what they have asked for, thereby placing them in a position to relieve the manufacturers, and place the municipalities in a position to progress, particularly when the request is universal from eighteen councils in four counties.

Yours respectfully,
H. T. BUSH.

ONTARIO LICENSE REPORT

The annual report of the Liquor License Department was laid before the Ontario Legislature last week by Hon. W. J. Hanna. It shows a decrease in tavern, shop, and wholesale licenses last year of 198. The total amount collected on account of licenses and fines, including the sums imposed by municipal by-laws, was $991,652.86, an increase over the preceding year of $338,839.42. Of the total collected, $411,916.71 went to the municipalities. During the year there were 4,774 convictions for drunkenness, as compared with 4,210 in the previous year. Since 1876 the convictions for drunkenness have increased by about 1,000. It may be that this increase is due to a growing public sentiment that finds expression in stricter enforcement of the law. One thing seems plain, that while arrests for drunkenness are on the increase, it is no time to slacken the efforts of the temperance hosts to get rid of the drunkard-making traffic. One gratifying feature is that in the local option communities the drunkenness has largely disappeared. —The Christian Guardian.

THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY

To the Editor of the Review;

Sir,—The question of accepting or not of Carnegie's money for the building of a Public Library, has been before the public for such a long time one wonders if the matter has received more or less consideration than it deserves.

The city of Peterborough is like unto a woman whose internal economy has reduced her to skin and bone. A costly gem is offered that she may wear by paying one-tenth of its price per annum in perpetuaty to keep it burnished. Let us observe how she decides between vanity and corporate necessity.

May one ask for whose benefit it is mentioned that some other city accepts a gift from a distiller. Why not also mention that Christian parliaments give gifts—grafts sometimes—out of the revenue derived from Jno. Barleycorn's expanding industries from the manufacturers up to dollar and costs or ten days.

There's only one party more unmanly and disquieting than the one who gives alms and that is the one who complacently accepts them.

Figure if you can how many dollars worth poison for the soul contained in each cent's worth misguided philanthrophy.

To the city of Peterborough so poor of pocket and so abandoned of spirit she is content to sit forever among the flunkeys.

Beside industrial progress is fast doing away with the utility of public libraries to the masses. There are two classes of knowledge—what one possesses oneself and what one does not possess but knows where to obtain. How often is a public library utilized for this except in large centres and then only for abstract research.

There is not a well equipped Sunday school these times that does not possess a full library equal to the ambition and leisure of the class Mr. Carnegie and some others feel so badly about.

P. B. PUBLICO.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY

Sir,—Mrs. Nicholls gave the town parks, an hospital, etc., why did the city not refuse them?

Yours truly,
CONSISTENCY.

FINE CUTS IN A CATALOGUE

Just Issued by the Wm. English Canoe Company

The Wm. English Canoe Company has just issued a handsome catalogue advertising the goods manufactured by the company. The catalogue is an unusually interesting one as it contains a number of splendid cuts of scenes in the Kawartha lakes district. The Ketcheoum Hunt Club loom up largely, the majority of the cuts being made from pictures taken by R. M. Roy last fall.

THE DEADLOCK AT OTTAWA

House Will Likely Sit Until Midnight To-night—How the Money Goes

Special to The Review.

Ottawa, Feb. 29—The House of Commons probably will sit until midnight tonight. The dead lock shows no sign of breaking up. The item of $50,000 for patrolling in Arctic waters is the casus belli and it is figured out that the cost of this debate is about .50 a minute while Hansard entails about $6.20 per column so that the country will pay largely for the spectacle of a wearied house determined to force matters to conclusion. Ten or twenty members stand by the guns all the while and relays go home for respite, while the faithful remain in the littered chambers.

Beginning to-morrow night in St. Andrew's church, the Rev. James G. Potter will give a series of short addresses on practical subjects during the month of March at the evening service as follows:—

March 1—"Is life measured by length of days?"

March 8—"Is life valued by the portion of goods that falls to us?"

March 15—"Is life a time of probation?"

March 22—"Is life merely spectacular?"

March 29—"Is life worthy of loyalty to Christ?"

These addresses are particularly arranged for the young people of the congregation in view of the April Communion (April 5).

Communicants' classes will be held each Monday night at 7.30 sharp, and each Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Guild room.

St. Luke's A.Y.P.A. Social Evening

Mr. R. M. Roy Delighted Audience With "Mysteries"

The meeting of the A.Y.P.A. at St. Luke's last night was a very entertaining one, and a large number of members attended. Mr Harry Potter was in the chair and conducted the meeting, while Rev. Dr. Langfeldt read the prayers.

After routine business Mr. R. M. Roy mystified the audience by his wonderful performance. Mr. Roy is a fine entertainer, and his exhibition of wonderful tricks for the exposure of spiritualism was heartily appreciated. Several new members were admitted. After the meeting refreshments were served and a social hour spent.

To-day's Market Was Small One

Today's market was not so largely attended as it was last Saturday, and there seemed to be a scarcity of products offered for sale. The prices demanded remain about the same. Eggs sold at 27 and 28 cents, while butter also brought twenty-nine and thirty cents per pound. Some asked as high as 32 cents. Very little fowl was on the market. A few chickens were sold at 80 and 90 cents per pair. On the outside market beef sold at 5 1-2 and 7 cents per pound, while pork brought 8 and 9 cents.

BULLETINS AT THE ORIENTAL

Bulletins of the Wanderers-Ottawa game will be given at the Oriental tonight. The game is creating much interest and the bulletin service will be appreciated by the local hockey fans.

Change in Local Livery Business

Messrs. Akey and Millburn Take Charge of Dr. McKercher's Business

Messrs. Akey and Millburn, two two popular local young men, have purchased the livery business of Dr. McKercher, on Hunter street, and are now in charge. They are both experienced in the livery business, and should meet with every success. They intend to improve the equipment greatly, adding new rigs, horses, etc.

STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

New York, Feb. 29.—The market turned weak during the second hour today, support being lacking in many of the important issues, which encouraged the floor traders to take the bear side. Bullish manipulation among the industrials has all been for the purpose of selling some stock, although in some cases, it has been encouraged by bears who wish to put out short lines at more favorable levels.

Union Pacific became quite weak, especially during the middle of the last hour when it sold down sharply to the extent of a point after having broken 1 1-2 points from last night's close. All the snap went out of the movement in (Smelters, and it lost two points net for the day.) Union Pacific was the most active stock, and fluctuated feverishly. Next Monday will very likely see further attacks against values, and probably some further reaction, but the extensive short interest will probably be used as an instrument of bullish tendencies, and we see no reason why good profits should not result from buying the good issues on these drives. This is a trading market, and movements in either direction are not likely to be very extensive.

London market was dull and featureless today except for Grand Trunks which were completely demoralized, falling to 5 points on the report of a decrease of $5,000 pounds in the January earnings.

REMEMBERED THE KINDNESS

And Returned Amount Subscribed After Forty Years

Forty years ago a man named Thos. McNearney, then a resident of Emily township, lost his right hand in a threshing machine accident, and his neighbors subscribed about $35 to help him through. Last week County Treasurer McNeillie received an order for the amount from Mr. McNearney, who is now living in the state of Iowa. McNearney could not send the money to those who subscribed it, as the only ones he had any recollection of are dead, so he sent it to the county treasurer to be used for the benefit of the poor of the county.

ARMY TRACTION ENGINE THAT WALKS

Grotesque New Military Device—Invention of a South African Engineer.

The military authorities have just been testing at Aldershot a military traction engine of remarkable appearance and still more remarkable powers. It is a gigantic machine, almost grotesque in shape, invented by a young South African engineer Mr. Henry George De Trafford Wright, son of a well known Kimberley engineer.

The value of the machine to the Army lies in its power of traversing the roughest ground with ease and safety at high speed, and in its enormous power development which enables it to drag heavy guns into position.

The final and conclusive tests of Mr. Wright's engines were carried out a week ago in the Long Valley, Aldershot, when it performed several wonderful feats. It climbed hills at a gradient which would have proved too much for the ordinary traction engine, finally reaching a position on the crest in which disaster seemed inevitable. It crossed a deep ditch five or six feet in width, and manoeuvred with ease in its own length.

CATERPILLAR NO. 1

It has been impossible to keep so huge a machine altogether from the view of the soldiers at Aldershot. Obedient to strict orders they have kept away from it, but viewing the marvel from afar, they have christened it "Caterpillar No. 1."

They have had other and good reasons for keeping at a respectful distance from the monster. Not only does it travel at nearly forty miles an hour over rough ground, which causes it to pitch and toss like a man-o'-war in a heavy sea, but its inventor occasionally tests its remarkable power of turning on one of its wheels at top speed as on a pivot, and the spectacle of the armour-plated "Caterpillar" taking a sudden jump at an angle of ninety degrees to the line of its apparent route is sufficiently terrifying to the uninitiated to keep them from coming too near.

In all the machine weighs nearly thirty tons. The peculiarity of its appearance arises from the high, prow-like stem, resembling a steel lighter or barge on the Thames, surmounted by a business-like funnel: its caterpillar-like belts with the thirty-two feet; and its high cab, from which the running and steering of the engine are controlled.

A ride in the cab is an exciting experience. There is barely room for two men on the steel platform, 8 ft. from the ground. One man holds the starting and stopping levers, the other the steering wheels. The monster start easily with a purring sound It is remarkable how little noise it makes even at top speed. Over the sand at Aldershot, it walks with deliberate ease, each great foot, 18 in. square, pressing downwards upon the soft soil.

The swaying motion backwards and forwards, which has been felt already, becomes accentuated. The driver grips his handles more tightly, as his charge steps up the hill and over the inequalities of the ground.

SIX YEARS IN BUILDING.

At the crest a thrilling moment follows. Half the bulk is poised in mid-air. Should the crest be very steep the whole of the monster may be balanced on two hind feet, instead of on the eight normally on the ground. Then it comes down again, deliberately or swiftly, according to the speed, and begins to walk down the other side.

The whole idea came to Mr. Wright when he saw the unwieldy traction engines sent out to South Africa to pull our heavy guns up the kopjes. Any number of these got stuck and were lost.

Beginning to experiment six years ago, Mr. Wright gradually built the machine now being tried at Aldershot It has cost him and his father a fortune, and almost every part has been through his hands. If the War Office buys this monster it will probably be sent to India or Egypt, and others will be made here.

LESSONS BY MARCHIONESS AND VICAR'S WIFE

In the poorest parish in London —St. Stephen's, Southwark—Julia, Marchioness of Tweeddale and Mrs. Dodge, the vicar's wife, are teaching "Manners for Girls and How to Behave in Polite Society." The girls belong to the very poorest class. The best of them are factoryhands, cigar makers, label-stickers, jam-stackers, and brush workers, and they are learning to be orderly, well-behaved girls, to dress tidily, to speak gently, and to "behave themselves in a room."

Lady Tweeddale asks them to tea with her at her house on Chelsea Embankment, and tells them what they should and should not do. "You should not say that you 'Don't mind,' when I ask you to tea," says the instructress, "but 'Thank you, I should like to come,' or 'Thank you, I am sorry that I cannot come come.'"

On Saturday night the girls, in batches of six or eight, have a weekly supper party at the vicarage. They cook the supper under instructions from the vicarage cook. "When they first come to me," said Mrs. Dodge on Saturday, "they are very different people from those you see now. Every week there is some improvement—a clean apron, smoother hair, the hem of the dress mended, and the gradual dropping of holiday gauds in order to be neat all the year round."

Mr. Norman Reid Accepts Responsible Position in Connection With Esplanade Foundry Co.

The announcement is made that Mr. Norman Reid of the firm of MacGregor & Reid, plumbers and heating contractors of this city, will in future reside in Toronto, where he goes to assume a responsible position in connection with the Esplanade Foundry Company, of that city. Mr. Reid's father, Mr. H. Reid of Rosedale, Toronto, has for many years been the controlling member of this company, and has recently acquired the whole business, in his own name. He has given each of his three sons a financial interest in this business a fact which necessitates Mr. Norman Reid's removal to Toronto.

Mr. Reid will retain his interest in the firm of MacGregor & Reid, and his removal from the city will not in any way interfere with the business here. His brother-in-law, Mr. T. D. MacGregor will continue to carry on the business as formerly, giving his personal attention to all plumbing, heating and electrical contracts, so that no re-organization of the business will be necessary.

Increasing attention will be devoted to contracts for electrical wiring, electrical installations and electrical supplies. All such will receive the careful supervision of Mr. MacGregor, whose valuable experience in large and important contracts in Toronto, Ottawa, and this city, especially fit him for.

The very gratifying success which this firm has met with in the past has given them a sound standing in the community. They wish to thank the public for the confidence reposed in them in the past, and to assure all that their best efforts will be directed to meriting a continuance of their favors in the future.

Mr. Reid made many warm personal friends during his three years' residence in this city, who, while they will regret his departure from the city, will be pleased to learn of the success that is coming his way.

ECCLESIASTICAL AND CIVIL LAWS

Chicoutimi, Que., Feb. 22.—A curious but interesting statement was made in the Superior Court before Judge Pelletier this week by Bishop Labreque, Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese of Chicoutimi. The case was one of libel, taken against three residents of Chicoutimi, and the local newspaper, by Mr. L. B. Belley, a lawyer, and Bishop Labreque was summoned as a witness in the case, which was founded on a statement sent to the Bishop that Mr. Belley had spoken in a derogatory manner against the clergy of the diocese. This statement was supposed to have been signed by two of the defendants, and, as they denied having signed any such statement, it was necessary that Bishop Labreque appear in the court as a witness to prove the truth of the allegation of the plaintiff. When the case was called Bishop Labreque did not appear, and the plaintiff made application to the court to have him give reason why he had not answered the summons. The judge agreed with Mr. Belley that it was necessary that he should appear just as any other witness should, but agreed to write a letter asking His Lordship to appear.

On the reopening of the court the Bishop appeared, and in course of examination, the following dialogue took place between him and the plaintiff:—

Will you, My Lord, produce this statement which you received, and of which you have just spoken?

Answer—No, you have understood properly; not

Question—For what reason?

Answer—Because this statement was handed to me as being a judge of an ecclesiastical court, and because I do not occupy myself with your civil laws.

As the Bishop refused, even when asked by the court to produce the statement in question, the plaintiff refused to continue the case until such time as the judge shall decide if the Bishop can be forced to produce the statement in court.—The Witness.

The funeral will take place on Monday to the Front Church Cemetery, Cavan.

THAT POETICAL BRAINSTORM

Another Cyclone in the Examiner Camp—An Ill Balanced Concoction

The Examiner had some pleasing references to the Review team in last night's issue of the gooseberry and all were in good taste except the poetry. Whether it was Josiah Craig's or not it is impossible to say but on account of its lopsidedness and general sorrowfulness of misplacement it read as though it were. It was a dark blotch on the sage and newspaperdom as well.

Young Man Victim of Bad Accident at C. G. E. Yesterday

Mr. Maurice Crowley, East City, Had Left Hand Caught in Roller—Hand Was Afterwards Amputated at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Just a few minutes before 6 o'clock, who work would have been suspended for the day, Maurice Crowley was the victim of a serious accident at the C.G.E. works yesterday. As a result Mr. Crowley had his left arm amputated at the elbow. Mr. Crowley is employed in the rubber department of the works, and while adjusting some machinery his hand caught in the roller, drawing it in and mangling and crushing it into a jelly. His fellow workers noticing the awful predicament he was in at once hurried to his assistance. However, it was some minutes before he was relieved from the tight grasp of the roller. It was not until the machinery was taken apart that the injured man was free. The intense pain that he suffered while the rolls were being separated was something terrible.

Dr. Young was called and had the young man removed in the Dan Spence ambulance to St. Joseph's hospital where the injured limb was amputated just below the elbow. Dr. Neal assisted in the operation and Dr. Carmichael administered the chloroform.

Mr. Crowley is an unmarried man and resides on Oxford street, East City.

Rev. Father McColl to Leave For Trip to Old Country

Rector of St. Peter's Will Endeavor to Regain His His Health—Has Been Unwell for Some Time—Departs Within Three Weeks.

Rev. Father McColl, rector of St. Peter's, will temporarily retire within three weeks on account of ill-health, and take a trip to the old country to recuperate from the effects of his recent illness. While it is known that the retirement will take place no definite arrangements in connection with the matter have yet been made. Prior to his leaving a presentation will be made to the esteemed rector of the cathedral.

Rev. Father McColl as is generally known has been indisposed lately, and while he is feeling somewhat better does not feel well enough to assume the arduous task and heavy responsibilities in connection with his rectorship until after he has had a prolonged rest. He has been an arduous and beloved rector, and even his temporary retirement will be much regretted by his parishioners.

Another Successfull Carnival At Jackson Park Last Night

Second One Given This Season by the Peterborough Radial Railway Company—150 in Costume and About 4000 in Attendance Altogether—The Prizewinners and the Prizes.

The second carnival to be held this year at Jackson Park under the auspices of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company, was a repetition of the former one in the matter of success. Last night the people crowded the cars going out to the rink, where the gayest scene imaginable was presented.

Special preaution was taken by the Railway Company to insure a quick and regular service and in this respect the greatest praise is due the company. They had besides the regular cars, six cars on the Jackson Park route and in spite of the great crowds that went out on the cars the service rendered was of the very best. The matter of transportation is one of the most important in connection with the handling of big crowds and the company are to be congratulated on the excellent carrying facilities they gave.

150 IN COSTUME.

There were about 150 in costume and the ice was in splendid shape. To add to the brilliancy of the occasion special colored lights were provided.

Characters too innumerable to give were represented, the majority of the costumes being original and striking. After watching the skaters for a considerable length of time the judges, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Denham, decided upon the following as worthy of the prizes:

Best dressed lady—Miss V. Logan.

Best dressed gentleman—Mr. Walter Fitzgerald.

Best comic lady—Miss N. Logan.

Best comico gentleman—Mr. Hupie.

The prize for the best dressed lady was a gold watch and a gun metal watch for the best dressed gentleman. A gold buckle was the prize for the best dressed lady in comic costume and for the best dressed gentleman a gold fob.

4,000 IN ATTENDANCE.

It is estimated that there were about 4,000 persons in attendance at the carnival. Of course all these did not go to the park on the street cars, many of them going out to the Slide, which was fairly alive with toboggans. It was one of the busiest toboggan nights of the winter.

A section of the 57th Regimental Band was present and rendered their usual first-class programme, playing several selections in harmony with with the spirit of the affair.

The carnivals given by the Peterborough Radial Railway Company are among the most enjoyable outdoor winter events in Peterborough and that they are always appreciated is shown by the mammoth crowds that invariably attend them.

Commander Peary the Celebrated Arctic Explorer May Speak Here

When in Toronto this week, Rev. Dr. Marsh, President of the Royal Astronomical Society, had an interesting chat with Commander Peary, the famous Arctic explorer. Commander Peary has succeeded in penetrating farther into the solar regions than has any other Arctic explorer.

Dr. Marsh states that there's a possibility of him lecturing here under the auspices of the Royal Astronomical Society, but no definite arrangements towards securing his services have been made.

Should he speak here the occasion will be one of great moment. It would certainly be a treat for the people of Peterborough to hear the interesting story of his exploits from so famous an explorer. Commander Peary goes on another expedition next summer in th ehope of finding the Pole.

I AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them.

Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardstown, Ky., writes:

"I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR IN THE MERCER

Queenie Grant Given Above Term in Court To-day—Albert Crouter and Wife Give 15 Days to Leave the County

Queenie Grant was given one year in the Mercer reformatory, and Albert Crouter and his wife were given fifteen days in which to get out of the county at the police court this morning. The above was the sentence meted out by his Worship Magistrate Dumble in connection with the charges against the Crouters for keeping a house of ill repute and against Queenie Grant for being an inmate. They appeared for trial on Thursday and his Worship found them guilty, reserving judgment until to-day.

In sentencing the Grant girl, the magistrate reminded her of the dreadful life she had been leading. He considered that out of mercy to her, the only thing to do was to send her to the reformatory.

The prisoner dropped her head when she heard her sentence and with difficulty restrained the tears. She pleaded for one more chance, but she was again reminded that she had been previously convicted in Toronto for a similar offence and it was of no use. When she was taken to her cell she gave full vent to her feelings and cried for some time.

To the Crouters, his Worship said that he was allowing them to go on suspended sentence. "You will have fifteen days to leave the county, and any time you are seen back here you will be arrested and sentenced."

Meeting of T. A. S. Young Men's Literary Club — A Programme of Merit

A pleasing concert and debate were given at the T.A.S. rooms last night under the auspices of the Young Men's Literary Club of the T.A.S. There was a splendid attendance, and Rev. Father Kelly was in the chair.

The subject debated was "Resolved that Travelling is a Better Educator than the University." The affirmative was taken by Messrs. Hughes and H. Theobald, and the negative by Messrs. M. O'Brien and C. Brady. Good arguments were put up by both sides and when the judges had fully considered both sides of the question, Mr. Jas. Drain, one of the judges, announced that a decision had been reached in favor of the negative.

The following programme was rendered;

Chorus—Glee Club.

Instrumental Duet —D. Heffernan and A. Primeau.

Recitation—Leo. Dorocher,

Vocal Solo—J. Mercier,

Politics, Is it right for a church member to be a politician?

What are politics?

What shall we demand from the Government? and what must we expect?

What must be done. $3000 raised the first day of the convention to do it.

No man or woman with the welfare of our boys at heart should be absent from this meeting.

Government Makes Grant

Vote $15,000 for Canadian Olympic Team

The Olympic Commissioners at Ottawa are evidently not letting the grass grow under their feet, as the announcement came from the Capital yesterday that the committee had been informed by the Dominion Government that a grant of $15,000 would be made towards the expenses of the Olympic team.

This is certainly very cheerful news to the members of the committee and it is self evident that no trouble will be found in raising the necessary fund for the trip with such a splendid start as this. All that remains to be done is the falling in line of the Provincial Governments and larger municipalities, which in addition to the proceeds from the test games will give the committee a handsome sum to work on. The Canadian team should have no trouble from a financial standpoint.

Excursion Will be to Guelph Again

At a meeting of the executive of the Farmers' Institutes of East and West Peterborough, and East Durham, at the Munro House this morning it was decided to have the annual excursion the coming summer to the Ontario Agricultural College. June 11th was selected as the date provided that satisfactory arrangements can be made with the College and the Grand Trunk Railway, on which line it was decided to have the excursion.

The representatives of the executives were as follows;

West Peterborough—President J. N. Telford and Secretary Wm. Collins.

East Peterborough — President F. Birdsall, Vice-Pres. E. Hawthorne and Secretary C. O'Reilly.

East Durham —President Arthur Vance and Secretary A. J. Fallis.

WEAK, PALE AND WORN OUT WOMEN

Can be Saved From a Life of Misery by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Women are called the 'weaker sex' and yet nature calls upon them to bear far more pain than men. With too many women it is one long martyrdom from the time they are budding into womanhood until age begins to set its mark upon them. They are no sooner over one period of pain and distress than another looms up only a few days ahead of this. No wonder so many women become worn out and old looking before their time.

In these time of trial Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are worth their weight in gold to women. They actually make new, rich blood and on the richness and regularity of the blood the health of every girl and every woman depends.

Mrs. Urbane C. Webber, Welland, Ont. is one of the many women who owe present health and strength to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. Webber says: —"About three years ago while living in Hamilton my health began to decline. The first symptoms were headaches and general weakness. After a time the trouble increased so rapidly that I was unable to attend to my household duties. I lost flesh, looked bloodless and had frequent fainting fits. I was constantly doctoring, but without any benefit, and I began to feel that my condition was hopeless. One day a friend asked me why I did not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and mentioned several cases in which she knew of the great benefit that had followed their use. After some urging I decided to try the pills and had only used them a few weeks when I began to feel benefitted and from that time on the improvement was steady, and by the time I had used about a dozen boxes of the pills I was again enjoying the blessing of good health. I cannot too strongly urge other discouraged sufferers to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure all troubles due to poor, watery blood such as anaemia, general weakness, indigestion, neuralgia, skin troubels, rheumatism, the after effects of la grippe, and such nervous troubles as St. Vitus dance and partial paralysis. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Hoagland Has Lead of Five Miles Over Second Man

At Commencement of Last Day's Race He Looks Good to Win—Remarkable Determination of Blake—Hartley Making Good Showing in Fifth Place.

Special to The Review.

Kansas City, Feb. 29.—With W. A. Hoagland of Auburn, N.Y. world's champion pedestrian, leading by a safe margin of five miles and Tom Slater, of Syracuse, N.Y. and H. O. Messier, of Milwaukee fighting hard for second place, the contestants in the six day walking match at noon today entered upon the last twelve hours of their journey. Of the sixteen men who started last Monday only seven remained. Of these probably the most popular with the crowds is J. F. Blake, a southern negro who has displayed remarkable powers of endurance and determination both in his desire to enter the race and by his work in the past five days in the contest. When Blake heard of the race to be held here, he was in Florida, but determined to compete he walked from Tallahassee to Kansas City. The last day of his walk, the negro was without food or funds. He had no training as did the other walkers and none noticed him. During the first twelve hours of the race he walked without food and when the first day was over, Blake slept in the hall. He uttered no complaint but when the managers heard his story they relieved him of his hunger. Blake started today sixth in the race and probably will share in the money. Hartley of Peterborough, Canada, is making a splendid walk in fifth place.

Last night's Toronto News had the following despatch:—

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 28.—David Hartley, of Peterborough, Ont., is still in fifth place. He lost ground in the last twenty-four hours. Player, who is fourth, having gained nearly two miles. The pace set by the leaders has been very strong. Hoagland, the leader, walking over forty-four miles in the allotted time. Hartley chipped off forty-one miles. Slater, who was tied yesterday with Messier, pulled away, and is now a good second, with 192 miles to his credit. Messier is third with 191. Player fourth with 187. Hartley fifth with 173, Blake sixth with 160, and Lloyd seventh with 110 miles.

The Star Takes a Jab at President of the A. A. A. U.

Of all the Jim Crow, one-horse jobberies James "Czar" Sullivan, the sporting goods traveller, president of the American Athletic Union, was ever guilty of, the cheapest, to Canadian eyes, is his ukase in the matter of Canadian entries of the 74th Regiment games at Buffalo on Saturday night.

On what ground?

No one knows! All along the excuse when Sullivan wanted to block out certain Canadian entries, was that they had competed with or against Tommy Longboat. Three weeks ago the A. A. U. let a number of Canadians, including Bobby Kerr and White, of Hamilton, and Hitchens and McIlMurray, of Toronto, compete, yet yesterday he throws Kyle, the West End sprinter; Chuck Skene, and A. C. Jewell, the walkers, out, on what grounds no one knows, and leaves in Jack Tait. Now, Jack Tiat is the only man of the quartette who has been competing with the Indian, and Sullivan knows this as well as he knows the brand of goods he sells.

Why is Tait exempt?

Tait don't know, but he has his shrewd suspicion and he is just hovering on the verge of tossing the whole thing up.

"It is a snide trick," remarked Tait this morning. "If any man should be thrown out under Sullivan's Longboat ruling, I should, not Kyle, Skene, and Jewell. I think that Sullivan sees that my race with Bellars of New York, is the chief attraction at Buffalo, and he does not want to deprive the Buffalo people of the money. If it wasn't that my withdrawal would hit the regiment pretty hard, I would pull out now and tell Sullivan to go hang. I suppose if I do quit the race it would rebound on Sullivan's head, but the first people I feel it would be the regiment. However, I am leaving the matter to West End people, who are now in Buffalo. If they say so, I will refuse to race. If the game doesn't look good to me I will pull out even after I get to Buffalo."

"If Sullivan thinks that he is making trouble among C.A.A.U. athletes by such tactics," said N. H. Crow, secretary of the C.A.A.U., "such cheap tricks only serve to bind our boys together. They do not blame us, because the trouble is restricting the area of their operations, but they grow more bitter against the A.A.U. as every piece of smallness is exposed."—Toronto Star.

The first half was the fastest hockey ever seen on this ice, score 4 to 2 in favor of the home team. The second half was just as fast with the home team scoring the first goal, but the Cannington boys could not stand the pace set and kept up all through by the Midgets who scored the next five goals.

Lively Row at a Recent Game in Tweed

There has been bad blood between the various lacrosse and hockey clubs of Madoc and Tweed for several years back, and it is the generally accepted idea that almost anything is fair in games between these teams. At least Tweed sports say that is the Madoc idea, and no doubt the enthusiastic ones of Madoc say the same of Tweed. This spirit of long standing antagonism was shown in the Madoc-Tweed hockey match on Friday night. The game was a rough one from start to finish. The Madoc team seemed to have decided on rough play, and took every advantage offered for questionable tactics.

This exasperated some of the spectators and twice local men jumped on the ice and tried to thrash the visiting players, but friends separated them before the trouble became serious. During one of these rushes the of the Madoc players, Pine, hit Chas. Leal a blow in the face so that Leal decided to look him up at the hotel after the game with the idea of continuing the argument. This was done with the result that Pine carried home some new marks of conflict.

As a result of this row Pine had Leal summoned for assault and battery. The case was heard before Magistrate Wood, in Madoc on Tuesday and resulted in a fine of $5 and costs for the local man.—Tweed News

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" SAVED HIS LIFE

Mr. Dingwall was Superintendent of St. Andrews Sunday School in Williamstown for nine years and License Commissioner for Glengarry — and Tax Collector for Charlottenburg—for fourteen years continuously. Read how strongly Mr. Dingwall comes out in favor of "Fruit-a-tives."

Williamstown, Ont., April 5th., 1907.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the almost marvellous benefit I have derived from taking "Fruit-a-tives." I was a life long sufferer from Chronic Constipation and the only medicine I ever secured to do me any real good was "Fruit-a-tives." This medicine cured me when everything else failed. Also, last spring, I had a severe attack of bladder trouble with kidney trouble, and "Fruit-a-tives" cured these complaints for me, when the physician attending me had practically given me up. I am now over eighty years of age and I can strongly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" for Chronic Constipation and bladder and kidney trouble. This medicine is mild like fruit, is easy to take, but most effective in action. 147

PARTY CANDIDATES

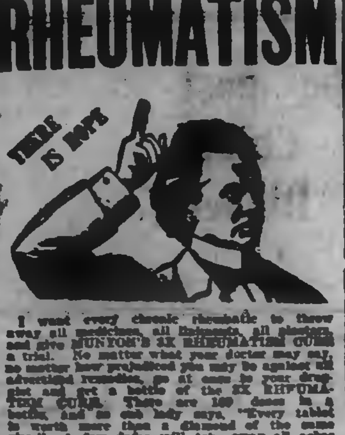
The trouble which has arisen in the East Riding over the selection of the Liberal-Conservative candidate for the Legislative Assembly although confined within narrow limits, demonstrates the necessity of avoiding in future all trouble of a similar character. Mr. Smithson accepted his defeat with equanimity, because in his case the office sought the man and not the man the office. Whenever this is the case there can be no cause of complaint, for where a Convention by a standing vote or otherwise decides, who shall be bold enough or ill-advised, enough to say it "nay"! When a man announces that it is his last chance and that he wants the position he is making a very serious mistake and one not likely to be conducive to the welfare of a riding or to his own standing in a community. It is also defying the opinion of his own party in Convention assembled to do otherwise than to bow deferentially to its all but unanimous decision. When a man announces to a convention that he is in its hands and when defeated proceeds to show that he considers that in reality the convention was in his hands an error has been made which the convention may be relied upon to set right. A body of respectable men will not submit to dictation. Wreckers are at a discount when it is found that they care more for themselves than for their fellow-citizens. We mistake if the "row" which we at first thought would "blow over" of its own accord, will not in the end be blown over by the party when the time comes which will unite with all thinking people in endorsing the principle that a representative convention shall decide, and not one man.

MR. J. P. DOWNEY

A sincere, earnest, thoughtful, forceful, eloquent man is Mr. J. P. Downey, one of Mr. Whitney's right hand men, although not yet a member of the latter's Cabinet. Those who had the privilege of hearing him at at Norwood, will not soon forget the force and splendor of his sentences. No doubt a man has to have some Irish in him or at least to think he has, if he is to be an speaker at once sympathetic, and successful.

The difference between a phonograph and an orator is the difference between a responsible, earnest advocate and a metallic hard-sounding Grit talking-machine. Of fine presence and possessing an equally fine voice Mr. Downey at once captivates the audience and paves a gilded way to its complete confidence. That he is is on the slate for the first vacancy we have no doubt, and he will do honor to the position.

RHEUMATISM



I want every chronic rheumatic to throw away all medicines, all liniments, all plasters, and give MUNYON'S 3X RHEUMATISM CURE a trial. No matter what your doctor may say, no matter how prejudiced you may be against all advertised remedies, go at once to your druggist and get a bottle of the 3X RHEUMATISM CURE. There are 100 doses in a bottle, and as one lady says, "Every tablet is worth more than a diamond of the same size." A few doses will take away all aches and pains, and a cure generally follows before one bottle is used.

THE DOUKOBOR

The carelessness which the Laurier Government shows towards the all-important immigration question is an alarming sign of the times. Had the North Atlantic Trading Co., whose select members would have committed suicide if their names had been divulged, paid the slightest attention to their duties in return for the millions squandered on them and their wards we could never have had the Doukobor. This gentleman declines to be loyal because he might then have to fight which is against his religion.

He declines to eat meat and so goes crazy from exhaustion. He declines to put on clothes and yet will not consent to be arrested for indecency. He will not steal timber limits because Sifton's favorites have stolen them all. He will not stay in Canada although we paid to bring him here. He is a sample copy of the latest and enlarged edition of "The Bunglers Paradise," being a full and typified account of the "Great West and who Stole It." There is one consolation, however. Sir Wilfrid can take his cast-off clothes as security.

THE THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE

"This Government has come to the conclusion that it will do its duty in this and in all other matters as it sees it—and by doing our duty I mean doing what seems to us conscientiously to be best. It is altogether possible not to say probable, that in many respects we may go wrong, for we are mortal and very human. But after considering carefully and reaching an honest conclusion we feel it to be our duty as honest men to stand by it.

"We have, I may tell you, experienced both threats and cajolements, but I think we would be equally recreant to the trust imposed in us if we permitted ourselves to succumb to the one or be swayed by the other. Whatever else may be said of it, so long as this Government exists—yes, even so long as it draws a breath of life—it shall be governed by its own honest convictions. It may be mistaken; it may misinterpret the will and the desires of the all-powerful people whose creature it is. If so, it is prepared to take the consequences its fellow-citizens will mete out to it. And if we are defeated, we will not quarrel with the verdict we will go down feeling that we have done our duty by the people as we saw it and ready to take the humbler part in the great future of the Province, for Ontario's progress is assured, and will remain undisturbed by the rise or fall of any Prime Minister or any Government.

"The present laws are not perfect. We all recognize that. And in due course the Government will refer to this and some other features of the existing statutes in an endeavor to further perfect and improve them."—Toronto News.

This report of Mr. Whitney's reply to the minister deputation waiting upon him places the issue regarding the three-fifths clause fairly before the people. We call upon the Peterborough Examiner to say whether it is in favor of, 1, Local option. 2, If so then by what majority. It would save a lot of ink and (for it) much brain-storm if it would truthfully tell the world what it really wants to see come to pass and in what way, in the case of the three-fifths clause. Returning to a more congenial theme we must place once more upon record our high appreciation of Mr. Whitney and his cabinet. If Diogenes were on earth again we believe he would settle down in his tub for good and all in front of the parliament buildings. Having disposed of all doubts regarding the three-fifths clause Mr. Whitney took instant exception to Mr. J. G. Gibson's remark anent, "the middle clause." Promptly he exclaimed, "Thank God! There is no class in Canada. We want no class distinctions in this province." Mr. Hanna reminded the deputation that church courts require more than a mere majority. How far this bears on the three-fifths question we do not know and therefore, unlike our evening contemporary cannot say

NATIONAL TRANSCONTINENTAL—PURCHASE OF TIES IN THE UNITED STATES.

Mr. A. C. Boyce (West Algoma). I desire to call the attention of the House to a matter that has been laid before me in correspondence with respect to the operation of contractors on one division of the Grand Trunk Pacific in the northwestern part of this Province. I think I can best introduce what I wish to say by reading an extract from the Beaudette 'Regime.' The town of Beaudette is on the Minnesota side of the Rainy river, directly opposite the town of Rainy River, on the Canadian Northern Railway. This newspaper says;

Tamarack against wheat. — Figures talk.

Would it not surprise you that a stretch of territory along the Rainy river and the Canadian Northern Railway in Minnesota, will sell more than $500,000 worth of timber this winter! Out of this, one firm alone will buy stuff to the extent of $25,000. Talk about your farm lands ranging in price from $50 to $100 per acre. They never yield a proportionately bountiful crop. Frost, water, drought and hail do not seem to 'phase' the the hardy tamarack and cedar. Speaking of the Grand Trunk Pacific contractors, Crocket & Tharle, of Port Arthur, and Lewis Foss, their local agent, we submit the following facts;

Including the territory around Baudette and Warroad, and all the stations of Roosevelt, Williams, Cedar Spur, Graceton and Pitt, they will have nearly 300,000 tamarack and cedar ties, and about 350,000 posts. On the American side of the Rainy they have contracts for 75,000 ties, and half a million railway fence posts. Hence in the territory previously referred to they will have about 365,000 ties, and about 825,000 posts, representing a value of a quarter million dollars turned loose among our settlers and local population. This, from the firm of Crocket & Tharle alone. The lumber industry is a great factor in producing revenue in this country, but we are not dependent on it alone. The figures just submitted, together with what is sold outside of this firm, eclipses anything the lumber interests can produce during a season.

Baudette alone will ship timber, such as ties, posts, poles and cordwood, which will have a market value of at least $50,000. There have been threats of hard times, but with such an influx of money, and such comparatively heavy exports, it is bound to leave a heavy trade balance in favor of the border teritory of Minnesota. We are not ashamed to hold these facts and figures up for public inspection. They can easily be verified. We are proud of the results obtained by the people living up on the oft despised frontier, and are pleased to compare notes with the good farmers who have secured excellent results from farming, and especially diversified farming and dairying. But our settlers should bear in mind that the timber will soon be cut away, and they must look to the soil for support. So it would be well to tuck away a handsome bunch of money to tide you over the transitory period between the times you are timber farmers, and grain and grass farmers.

That is what the Beaudette 'Region,' published in Minnesota said about the matter. My attention has also been called to an extract from the same paper which appeared in the Fort Frances Times on December 26th, 1907, which I will read;

Last Tuesday the largest timber deal that has been put through in this part of the country was consummated at Roosevelt some 18 miles west of this village. As is well known the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is buying large quantities of ties and fence posts in this state on which to lay their rails and fence their way on their onward march across the Canadian plains to the far west Pacific. There must be some reason for their coming into this little neck of Minnesota to do their shipping. The contract for this material calls for 125,000 ties of standard sizes, and 150,000 fence posts 8 feet long with at least a five-inch top. This contract was assumed by Norquist Brothers & Conco, and Maloney Brothers, who will furnish Messrs. Crockett & Tharle, Grand Trunk Pacific contractors, with this material. Their agent here is Lewis Foss, formerly of Wisconsin, and he has been letting several large contracts around here. The people who agree to furnish this material are good substantial business men at Williams and Roosevelt. They have sent to Bemidji and Stephen for fifty teams, and will employ about 200 men. They are expected to deliver this material at Williams and Roosevelt before June 1, 1908.

It is well to remember this is no small undertaking, as it will require 700 freight cars and about 15 large freight trains to haul this material, and that the timber represents the snug value of about $65,000. These men now have 27,000 ties and 25,000 posts cut, which will be moved with the first snowfall.

It is not expected that strangers would know the shipping extent of these oft despised 'jerkwater' towns along the Canadian Northern in Minnesota, but it will make their eyes bulge with surprise when they learn authoritatively that several million dollars worth of stuff have been shipped from them into Canada and points in the States since the construction of the railroad. Few people realize there is more stuff shipped into Beaudette every year than into any other town between Winnipeg and Port Arthur, with the possible exception of Fort Frances, Ontario.

This article also an extract from the Beaudette paper in Minnesota. Now it does seem to me that in construction of the National Continental Railway through the Dominion of Canada, a railway every foot of which the Prime Minister declared was to be built through Canadian terrority, regard should be had to the country in which those materials are purchased. All this material in Northwestern Ontario is peculiarly capable of providing for the construction of that railway. The hon. member for Thunder Bay and Rainy River (Mr. Conmee) knows very well that all this material grows most bountifully in that part of the country. Cedar, tamarack and spruce timber are very abundant in Northwestern Ontario, and if there was a great demand for that class of timber for the construction of this road, surely it should have been purchased from Canadians who own timber along the shores of the Rainy River, just as accessible as the Minnesota timber, and that timber should have been used by the contractors, and their money should have been spent in Canada instead of in Minnesota. I have only the facts which are contained in the two clippings from the Minnesota paper which I have just read; and if the facts are as there stated, it seems to me that it is incumbent upon the Railway Commission to look into the matter, and see that Canadian resources and Canadian men are being employed in the construction of this road. I think also that the contractors of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway are not permitted by the terms of their contract to purchase in the United States material which can be got in Canada upon the same terms. I think in future some restrictions should be placed upon the making of contracts for the supply of materials, as well as for the engagement of men, so that Canadians may get the benefit in both respects.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance; I regret I have not a personal knowledge of the matter which would enable me to add much to what my hon. friend has said. It is clearly a case in which further information is required before we can make up our minds. I learned from what the hon. gentleman said that the Grand Trunk Pacific Company, in their efforts to obtain ties, are purchasing them in the country along the line of the Canadian Northern, as a portion of the Canadian Northern runs through the State of Minnesota. I supposed what has happened is that they are buying ties on both sides of the line. Now, if there is an abundant supply of ties on the Canadian side and they can be obtained at reasonable prices, unquestionably they should be bought in Canada. I know in a general way that the price of ties has advanced very much during the last two or three years, and great difficulty has been experienced by railway companies in obtaining the ties. Though I have no knowledge of this matter, I almost venture to surmise that the fact probably is that the contractors have bought all the Canadian ties they could get and now have to look elsewhere. Now, it is desirable that the ties should be purchased in Canada, but what is more important and more desireable is that the ties should be obtained, and that quickly and if they cannot be obtained in sufficient quantity in Canada, nobody can object if the contractors purchase ties along the line of the Canadian Northern where that line runs in the United States. I hope the facts will show that ties which are available in Canada are being purchased in Canada, and that only those which are not available in Canada have been bought from the United States. That ought to be the condition. But if that is not the fact, if there is an abundant supply on the Canadian side and buyers are importing from the United States, there certainly would be good cause for complaint.

Mr. J. Conmee (Thunder Bay). If my hon. friend (Mr. Boyce) would use his influence with the Ontario Government," with whom he is very friendly, I think he would probably do more good than by appealing to this Government. Let him use his influence to persuade the Ontario Government to change their policy and to give better facilities to the Canadian settler on the Canadian side of the line to furnish those materials instead of putting them beyond their reach. If he will do this, he will have accomplished something for the settlers in the Rainy River district. The conditions are most favorable to the Canadian settler, he is closer to the point where these supplies are needed. The natural interest of the contractor will be to buy his ties in the cheapest market and buy them in Canada if he can.

Mr. Boyce; The contractors themselves are Americans.

Mr. Conmee; Some of them are. I suppose that Americans may be engaged sometimes in this line of contracts, but they are sub-contractors and not original contractors, and my information is that they are home ties—I regret it very much — being purchased on the American side."

HOLD UP AT LONELY SPOT

Tamworth, Feb. 24.—The wild east will not have to take a back seat to the wild west, if the story of the hold-up near Tamworth be true. It is said that while Mr. Curtis Storing was driving home from church on Sunday night, and had got about a mile out of Tamworth, a man jumped out from the bushes at the side of the road and grabbed the horse by the head and at the same time demanding in true western fashion, "Throw up your hands."

Mr. Storings at first thought it a joke and started to whip up the horse, but the voice of the stranger continued "Hold up your hands or I'll blow your brains out!" This decided Mr. Storing. He knew he could spare the small amount of cash on hand better than his brains and he handed over his money. The highwayman escaped in the darkness and as yet has not been located.

"The Sky Pilot of Black Rock"

Ernest Shipman to Produce a Real Canadian Play

Ottawa, Feb. 27—To produce a drama with a thorough and distinct Canadian spirit pervading it is the aim of Mr. Ernest Shipman, the well known theatrical manager who is in this city for the purpose of selecting one of the companies competing for Earl Grey's trophy, to make a tour of several cities in the States.

Mr. Shipman has secured the privilege of dramatizing Ralph Connor's books. From several of them he will select enough players to make a good play. As Ralph Connor makes no pretence to being a dramatist, Mr. Shipman will employ a playwright to whip into shape his drama which he will call "The Sky Pilot of Black Rock" a combination of the titles of two of Connor's novels.

Mr. Shipman will endeavor to secure a company of Canadian actors to portray the characters of his Canadian play. Miss Margaret Anglin of Toronto will be the star of the company. The manager has his eye on Theodore Roberts who has made such a success of Jo Portugis in "The Right of Way." It is possible that Mr. Shipman's wife, who is known to the theatregoers as Miss Roselle Knott, will also be in the company.

They play will first be produced in Australia and if it proves successful there will be brought up from the Antipodes for an extensive tour of Canada and the United States.

"Ralph Connor has given us the key to the Canadian drama," said Mr. Shipman discussing his patriotic project. "There is a distinct type in the English, French, and American dramas, but in Canadian plays it is lacking. Ralph Connor has given us the thought for a thoroughly national drama, and now it is only necessary to develop that thought. A dramatisation of Connor's books will appeal to the home people, as does "The Bonnie Brier Bush," and I believe will receive hearty patronage from Canadians, whose play it will be."

KICK KILLED DOG

On Friday morning last while Mr. Charlie Benton was driving near the station a collie dog jumped at the rig and attempted to bite the horse. Charlie immediately stopped the rig and got out. When the dog made a spring at him and tried to catch him by the leg, a kick from Charlie's boot caught the dog behind the front leg, the blow taking such effect that the dog expired almost instantly. The animal was a stray one and had been a nuisance in the neighborhood. —Lakefield News.

"Satan Reproving Sin" The Examiner Criticises

The Conduct of the Delegates Assembled in Convention at Norwood—Not so Bad as it Seems.

The Examiner has in its issue of Friday, a letter signed "A Vice-President," which we reproduce below.

"Editor Examiner.

"Dear Sir—Kindly allow me to state the facts of the recent Conservative convention in Norwood.

Regarding the substitution of delegates a motion was made in accordance with the ruling at the executive meeting some time before that substitutes be allowed the day of the convention. This motion was carried by a large majority at the convention of delegates and by the ruling of a certain clique the motion was disallowed and the ballot proceeded with.

The day of the convention the vice-president of Belmont was allowed to place substitutes who were not legally appointed, whereas the vice-presidents of Asphodel, Dummer, Douro and Otonabee were refused the same privilege.

Now, sir, I would ask the electors of East Peterborough if there is any British fair play if ten substitutes from Dummer and Asphodel standing by ready to vote, were refused, while others were allowed to vote who were no more qualified!

Yours,
A VICE-PRESIDENT,
Norwood, Feb. 72, 1908."

Five candidates were nominated for the Legislative Assembly at the Norwood convention and four went to the ballot. There was considerable sparring over the rules governing the filling of the places of those delegates who could not or did not attend. This naturally aroused excitement and some hard feeling. But one thing we can say, our representative being on the platform during the entire meeting, and that is that nothing was done, no move was made, no step taken without the point or matter in question's being left to the meeting which alone decided and on whose shoulders the responsibility of whatever was done must alone rest. This is absolutely true. None of the vast body of delegates will deny the perfect fairness of the manner of leaving the division of the various matters of contention to the delegates in convention assembled. In each case the chairman ruled as the vote decreed that he should. Last but by no means least the convention by a standing vote and with the exception of three of its members one of them directly interested, ratified the nomination of Mr. Jas. Thompson. At the suggestion of Mr. Smithson, one of the candidates for nomination, the proposal to make the nomination by the convention, of Mr. Thompson unanimous was left to the meeting and the whole convention we repeat, stood up with three exceptions and when those contrary were called for only three stood up. What lack of 'Fair-play" can there possibly be in this? The convention which was a very large one, was most carefully consulted and upon the delegates alone the charge, if charge there is, must rest. Surely no complaint can be made of their action unless we deny the right of responsible government altogether. As for crookedness there was not the slightest trace of it at the convention and with exception of slightest trace of irritation.—Ed.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS SAVE A LITTLE LIFE

Mrs. T. Osborn, Norton Mills, Vt., writes;—"I do not think enough can be said in praise of Baby's Own Tablets. I am satisfied that our baby would not have been alive today if it were not for the Tablets, as he was so weak and sick that he could take no notice of anything. In this condition I gave him the Tablets and they have made him a bright-eyed, laughing baby, the pride of our home. He is one year old, has nine teeth, and is now as well as any baby can be. He sits and plays nearly all the time and lets me do my work without worry. I would say to all mothers who have sick babies, give them Baby's Own Tablets and I did mine, and you will have healthy, happy babies." The Tablets will cure all the minor ailments of little ones and are absolutely safe. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 52 cents cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville. Ont.

Troublesome Days of Indian Mutiny Recalled by Veteran

Mr. Connor Murphy, Louis St., Spent Fourteen Years in the Service of the Late Queen in India—Recent Dinner to Veterans of Mutiny Given in London, Eng., Awakens Memories.

In connection with the recent dinner given in Albert Hall, London, England, to the veterans who fought during the Indian mutiny of 1857, it is interesting to note that in Peterborough there resides one who fought side by side with many of those who gathered at the dinner given in their honor a few weeks ago. The local veteran is Mr. Conn. Murphy, who resides on Louis street, and who yesterday showed a Review representative a recent issue of a London paper which contained pictures of those assembled, many faces being familiar to the old soldier. Although far advanced in years and thus very feeble, Mr. Murphy in a surprising clear manner related many incidents of his long military experience in India. For over twenty years he served in the British army, fourteen years of which were spent in active service in India.

"I enlisted at my home at Clifton, Karamara, Ireland in 1847, going to India shortly after, where I remained for fourteen years," said the old veteran. "It was fourteen years of hardships and what some soldiers endured has not been surpassed in many warfares. During the years 1848 and 1849, the troops were engaged in subduing the Sikhs, native tribes of India, who afterwards fought with the British in the Indian mutiny." Mr. Murphy was stationed in many towns in the Punjab.

Persons who have read the history of the Indian mutiny of 1857 and 1858 will remember that it grew out of the discontent felt by the Sepoys, native soldiers of the country, at the treatment of the English. The introduction of greased cartridges gave the natives a fine opportunity to rebel as they thought it a great sin to use grease in any way.

"The mutiny broke out on a Sunday in July, 1857," said Mr. Murphy. "We were stationed at Meerut when it broke out. Three Sepoy regiments stormed and burned the village. The people were returning from church and many were massacred. The rebellion spread rapidly through upper India, and the English had to fight against great odds as they were much weaker numerically than their enemies. "They had three times as many as we had," said Mr. Murphy. Delhi was besieged and the British residents were gathered at Lucknow where they held out until relief came. At Cawnpore, before Sir Henry Havelock arrived with reinforcements, an awful massacre of men, women and children took place. After a four months' siege Delhi was taken and while the soldiers were marching from Delhi to join Havelock at Lucknow, the news reached them that it had also been relieved, and the mutiny was practically at an end.

The pictures of the generals who took part in the meeting, including Sir Henry Havelock, Sir James Outram and Sir Colin Campbell, were in the paper received by Mr. Murphy, and were quite familiar to him. There are few veterans in Canada at the present time of the Indian mutiny, and it is interesting to know that one resides in this city. Mr. Murphy has lived here twenty-five years, having come here from Ireland after retiring from the service. He holds several medals and stripes for good conduct and acts of valor while in the army.

Another Interesting Letter on a Widely Discussed Question—Opposition Falling Back on the Sentiment Prop, Says Correspondent.

To the Editor of the Review;

Sir,—This question has for some time now occupied a considerable space in the columns of the city papers, and I desire to add a few words to what has already been said.

In the discussion of the question so far little or no attention has been paid to the educational side of it. In the reports of last night's meeting of the City Council, at which the estimates for this year were considered the sum of $66,850 was voted for education. Less than one-twentieth of that sum is all that it is proposed to spend on a public library, and a large part of that already provided for. In many of the cities of the United States, and several of the more progressive towns and cities of our own Province now, the library has ceased to be a mere place of entertainment and is recognized as one of the most important educational institutions. In such places as Brantford, St. Thomas, Galt, and others the libraries are cooperating with the teachers in directing the reading of the pupils with excellent results. The same may be done here. In spending $2000 a year of the funds of the city on the maintaince of an efficient and well equipped public library, we would be devoting that comparatively small sum to a purpose that from an educational point of view ranks on an equality with our schools of which we are justly proud.

I dwell on this phase of the question, because it seems perfectly clear that the real question is not "Shall we accept a gift of a library from Mr. Carnegie or build one at the expense of the city," but "shall we accept a library as a gift or do without one." The financial side of the matter has been so clearly and fully presented by Mr. Dumble in a series of articles he has recently contributed to the press of the city that it seems a reflection on the intelligence of the public to say anything more along that line. Yet it is probably worth while saying that if we are unwilling to undertake the support of a library when it is given to us, it is hardly likely that we will undertake both the original cost and the maintainance. That would be too ridiculous a proposition for a sane community to consider. The annual cost to the city would in the one case be at least double what it would be in the other.

While it is perhaps desireable that this question should be fully discussed, the discussion should be fair and with a desire to arrive at the truth. This can hardly be said of some of the recent contributions to this controversy. When the statement is distinctly made by those who have had experience of the facts, that Mr. Carnegie makes no conditions as to the sources of the ten per cent. guaranteed for maintainance, writers on the other side might surely have the fairness and courtesy to at least offer some evidence in support of the opposite before again producing it as an excuse for argument. The same may be said in regard to the matter of a name. If some of those who persist in using these statements, were half as anxious to get at the truth as they profess to be, or has a knowledge of conditions in other towns at all proportional to what they claim they would have little difficulty in finding out from the experience of others that their statements are not in accordance with facts.

The stock argument of all those who oppose the acceptance of Mr. Carnegie's gifts for libraries is the appeal to sentiment. You may have observed that some of those who have recently taken part in this discussion, started out very bravely on other grounds but gradually, as they felt one prop after another going, they fall back on this. It is really the only argument that can be produced, and if we lay down the broad principle that the city ought not to accept gifts for libraries or other public uses, there may be something in it, but it is of no use to try to discriminate between a gift from Mr. Carnegie and some one else. It may be observed here, that most of those who take this ground would be quite willing to set aside their sentimental objections if the gift was such as would put $100 a year in their own pockets.

Finally it is important to keep fully in mind the following facts;

1. We must have a free public library if we are to keep abreast of the times and be in a position to compare favorably with our sister towns and cities intellectually and morally.

2. A properly conducted public library is one of the most useful educational assets a city can possess.

3. It will cost no more to maintain a library built by Mr. Carnegie than one built by the city.

4. The Nicholls endowment, Government grants and income from all other sources will count as part of the ten per cent. of cost pledged for maintainence. In this respect Peterborough is most favorably situated compared with other places.

5. The statement that we will not be free to call the library by any name we choose is a mere bugaboo to frighten people into refusing the gift.

6. If we do not accept Mr. Carnegie's offer we are not likely to have a free library for a long time.

Yours truly,
RICHARD LEES.

THE BURDEN OF THE LORD

(By Rev. H. J. Keith, B. D. M. A.)

The following sermon by Rev. H. J. Keith, B.D., M.A., of Knox church, Peterborough, appeared in last Saturday's issue of the Montreal Star;

THE BURDEN OF THE LORD.

Text—"What is the Burden of the Lord?" Jeremiah XXIII;33.

"The Burden of the Lord! The Burden of the Lord!"

There is nothing like a catching slogan for a campaign, one that arouses interest, and creates enthusiasm, and at the same time gives you the impression of something serious behind it. In India at the present time one frequently hears a cry from bands of enthusiastic young men, "Bande Mataram! Bande Mataram!" "Hail to thee mother earth." To the initiated it means "India for the Indians. Let us do what we can to get rid of the British who have become to us a burden." Kipling has made popular a phrase that causes us to look at India and Africa and other dark continents under British rule, from an opposite point of view—the white man's burden. There is no doubt but that the vast majority of people in the British Empire who think seriously, believe in such a burden. Many others will say that there is no such burden that we should assume. If we asked the natives of India or Africa, they would probably tell us they regarded such a burden as a farce. To them the great burden is the white man.

So with the cry that gives occasion to our text, the burden of the Lord. There may be a few preachers who use startling phrases to attract the people, but when the message is declared there is nothing in it to warrant the cry. It has been a sheep in wolf's skin. The vast majority who cry "the burden of the Lord' have a real burden to lay upon the people, that should also be the burden of those at least who believe in Him, and who are supposed to work with Him. But there are some who tell us that the burden of the Lord is a myth,—there is no such thing. Still others speak and act as if the ones who cry "the burden of the Lord," were a burden themselves on the community.

If we could get into touch with some of the people of Jeremiah's day they would say to us—"this is an old story. We had this problem up in our day and there was the same spirit shown. We learned by bitter experience that there is a real burden." There were some in those days who cried "the burden of the Lord," but it was only a slogan to give weight to their lies. They had no burden to tell of. They gave the people the impression that they could live as they liked and be at peace about their condition. No wonder if the people treated the cry with contempt or so lived that they did not realise the real burden.

At the time of the French Revolution the Reign of Terror was set up as an incarnation of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity, and with this cry in his ears many a poor patriot went off to dream in peace of Liberty, Equality, Fraternity, but while he slept the soldiers crept in and made sure of him as a future victim for the guillotine.

Some of the cries of today lead to a false security but one has only to turn to personal experience to be convinced that there is a solemn truth in the cry "the burden of the Lord."

(1) What is the burden of the Lord? We reply, THE BURDEN OF SIN. Sin rests as a grievous burden upon God. The Bible gives us a true picture of the various sides of life that has become sordid. It shows us contrasted scenes of life that is pure. By this means we become acquainted with God's view of mankind and His relation to us His creatures. As a result we realise that a great many things we do each day or many things we have done are sinful and this sin at God's creatures rests as a heavy burden upon Him. When we realise the seriousness of this fact, we will change our attitude towards many things that go on in us and around us. There are many who do not take sin seriously, too many, but this is one of the evidences of its existence. A hundred influences are at work dulling the keen edge of the truth that sin is a fearful reality of life, and as a result of the deadening influences, we think less of our own case as to whether we sin or not, or whether we are measuring up to standards.

Those who do not take sin seriously do not take Paul seriously, for to him the burden of the Lord was the burden of sin. This, too, is one of the secrets of the strength of St. Augustine that he realised the burden of sin and the power necessary to lift it. Even the Reformation has behind it the realization on the part of Martin Luther and other reformers, of the awful burden of sin. Few men understood life as well as John Bunyan, and if there was one thing he was conscious of, it was the burden of sin resting on the lives of men. It is the knowledge of this truth that gives him power with men. Witness the sense of sin manifested in one form and another in all religions, and voiced in all literature and verified in human experience and be convinced of this, that there is a great burden of sin, the result of your life and mine, and others, that rests heavily on the heart of God. This is the burden we must become conscious of, and realizing its fearful reality, how shall we lift it?

It is not the burden that is bothering the world today, nor the burden that is troubling a great many people in the Church. Yet it is the burden the members of the Church must become aware of, if men are to be saved. Those who have taken a stand in opposition to the Church and all she stands for, regard the Church herself as a burden on society. The Church galls them. It does not occasion surprise to hear them speak of an arm of the Church such as the Lord's Day Alliance as a useless burden rather than an organization of broad-minded farsighted men, seeking the highest welfare of all their fellow creatures. Nor is it surprising to hear supporters of the liquor traffic speaking of temperance organizations as heavy burdens that the world would be well rid of, so that we might live as we liked without being interferred with by narrow-minded zealots who take the burden of our life upon themselves. But when one turns towards the churches and find so many who look upon the very things they should regard as vital, and in which they should manifest a keen personal interest, as burdens grievous to be borne, he has occasion for surprise, for discouragement, and sadness. How can they treat the departments of church work as burdensome, and even church services as slightly entertaining but more wearisome than necessary? Back of all such evident carelessness and indifference, that mark the lives of so many Christians as well as those who make no profession, there is a manifest absence of deep thought of personal shortcoming—no sense of sin, and this must be of concern to us who believe before we may expect to find evidence of it in unbelievers. To mention such a thing to such people would be sufficient to mark you off as queer. Some young men were once invited by a fellow Christian to attend a Bible class. They looked at him in surprise and said: "What do you think we are, —heathen?" Some might rightly think they were not far removed from that stage.

Back of all is the lack of a sense of sin—of a conviction that you are not perfect, that you do things that grieve God; things you ought not and must not do; that you are not showing the evidences of a Christian life and the zeal that is looked for in the followers of Christ. What is your view point? Has worldliness and selfishness got such a strong hold upon you that you have no view point? Or are you comparing your life with your neighbor's and resting quietly with the thought of moral superiority? Surely not. You want the strongest search light thrown upon your life that you may see yourself as no human eyes sees it, but as God alone gazes upon it. You in your heart want to know how you really stand and how you compare with what God expects of you. Let conscience have its way, for a period of testing. Honestly and frankly bring to bear upon your life the light that the Bible sheds upon God, upon man, upon you; come once again close beside the Christ in His spotless life and teachings, the absolute standard, and as you stand in His presence, your honest exclamation that will be that of Peter, 'Depart from me for I am a sinful man, O Lord." This personal Christ causes you to realize as never before the burden of sin. By contact with Him you learn God's thought of sin and realise that you sin has weighed as a great burden on His heart as it now weighs down upon you. It is this burden that makes you seek and cling to a Saviour who can help—who can remove the burden that man has never been able to remove, for ever against the burden of sin stands the cross, and on it the Divine Christ.

2 There is another burden, or another way of feeling the burden of sin. It is by feeling the burden of souls. It is because men and women are of such concern to God, because He cares so much that sin is such a burden. It affects you in this manner. The burden of sin is first a personal individual burden. The burden of souls is consequent and social—a burden you carry because of your concern for the welfare of those you touch day by day. God so loved that He gave. Thus He shows His tender compassion. See Jesus yearning over Jerusalem, indifferent, careless, rebellious and you have a picture of God; revealing His concern for their welfare. 'O, Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killest the prophets and stonest them that are sent unto her," how often would I have gathered thy children together even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not." Picture the shepherd in the dark wilderness looking for lost sheep; follow the story of the prodigal son and lay emphasis upon the constant watching the yearning heart, the spontaneous joy of the old man quietly and alone gaze upon Calvary, until you have in a sense, absorbed it, and your heart will know that the burden of souls is an awful burden.

You have not gone very far in rightly solving the problem of life if you have not realized your obligation to those around you. You have not gone very far in Christian life if you have not realized what concern your own life is to God, and what other lives should be to you as well as to Him. And you will not reveal this to others in a professional way merely because you are a Christian and therefore you are expected to do so, but because God is in your heart and His burden has become yours. Because of this, you will seek opportunities of making others realise the same burden.

The realization of this burden will alter our view point of life. To meet men and women and to have some thought of what God thinks of them and of what they think of God is a remover of temptation. It lifts one above sordid relationships and keeps conversation and dealings pure. How do you regard the man next to you? —as a mere passing acquaintance, or a human machine turning out so much work and earning his bread and butter? He is on a much higher plane—a life with the possibilities of of God's likeness in him, unwittingly perhaps to himself, he is speaking to you, telling you by his work, his spirit, his conversation, what is his attitude to life, to duty, to home, to his fellowman, to God; and you are speaking to him. How much better if you speak to him in such a way as to show him your concern, as it is God's care, for his life. It brings soul to soul and life is best and sweetest when things eternal are held in common. Let him see that you care, and have a warm interest in his eternal welfare. Speak to him as a dying man to dying men, possessing a life bordering on a larger life and desiring him to have the same. This will give you a new and true attitude to life. It will raise you above petty bickerings and strife. It will cause you to forsake the narrow circles and make for the larger circumference. It will make you drop the questionable and seize hold of the eternal. It will cause you to see or want to see the Divine in men where before you saw the human and the material. It will affect your attitude to all living questions relating to social life, to labor, to international relationships, to immigration, to people of foreign lands. For the lower must be raised to the higher and the possibilities of equality and brotherhood must be recognised as existing between all classes and races. All are souls with the possibility of divine life. The Divine must seek to impart Himself, and is so far as God is in us, to this extent will we assume a God-like attitude to those about us, to all with whom we can ever have anything to do. God seeks all human souls to impart to them His divine likeness. If we know anything of God, this we know, and the burden of the Lord is the burden of souls. It must be our burden too.

"Only like souls I see the folk thereunder
Bound, who should conquer, slaves who should be Kings,
Seeing their one hope with an empty wonder,
Sadly content with a show of things.
Then with a rush the intolerable craving
Shivers throughout me like a trumpet call,
Oh to save these, to perish for their saving!
Die for their life, be offered for them all.

This is your burden as it is the burden of the Lord and back of it in striking relief, bringing the burden into greater prominence, is the cross, and on it the Christ.

Your sin is therefore a burden of sorrow, your soul a burden of love. These form the burden of the Lord made known to the world by the death of Christ on the cross, a burden that cannot be treated lightly, for it is the real cause of Gethsemane and Calvary, a burden you must realise and share. It is only as you become conscious of its existence and feel its weight, that life assumes its true seriousness, and you learn to look at the real issues of life, issues that find their solution only in the Cross. —Montreal Star.

He Surprised The Operators

Youth Posed as Girl in a Telephone Office

St. Louis, Feb. 25.—When it became known among the girl operators of the Forest exchange of the Bell Telephone Company today that their associate, "Helen" Iles, was really a boy in disguise there was general consternation, because there was not one among them who had not at some time confided to him her most intimate secrets.

Five months ago a supposed graceful young girl applied to James W. Thompson, traffic manager of the company, for a position as operator. The applicant stated that her name was Helen Iles, and that she had held a similar position in Chicago, her home city. Her dignified manners impressed Mr. Thompson, and she was employed.

The new operator made a good impression upon her associates, who were attracted by her peculiar swaggering gait, her independence of speech and action, her free and easy manner and her general air of being a "good fellow."

A change came over "Helen's" mood a few weeks ago, when a new operator, a tall, stately, dashing brunette, whose first name is Margaret was assigned to the exchange.

The climax came a week ago, when "Helen" sought Margaret in the restroom and declared that he loved her and could not live without her. To her he confessed that he was a man. Margaret repulsed him and immediately sought Miss Burns, the chief operator, and related all that had occurred. Miss Burns obtained a confession, and ordered "Helen's" immediate discharge.

ADVERTISING

A writer in Printer's Ink makes an interesting diagnosis of the reason why some towns are 'slow.' He says; "Anybody who has had experience travelling among the small cities and towns of this Country knows that wide differences are seen between places of the same population and in much the same locality, and enjoying what would seem to be equal opportunities for trade. One place of 10,000 people, for instance, will be thorough alive, its shops bright, its people brisk and prosperity apparently on every hand. Another, perhaps but 25 miles away, will be thoroughly dead, its stores deserted, dull, dusty, its people given to the habit of cracker-box conversation. In one town it is a pleasure to step off a train and look for business, while in the second an experienced travelling man has no sooner alighted than he wants to know the time of the next train out."

The diagnosis is ridiculously simple. In one, the newspapers encourage live advertising which includes setting up new ads. as often as the merchant cares to change. In the other, an antiquated rate system is in vogue, making a low charge for space and an extra charge for every change of advertisement. It's just worth while considering what good, live advertising by the merchants does for a town and its trade.

NEED OF GOOD COMPOSITION

Recently a writer in this department let fall some words of wisdom about the power of the small advertisement. Few, indeed, after reading his article, would deny that he had made out an excellent case for the small advertisement. But his argument was based on a condition, which does not always prevail. That is, he assumed that the small advertisement was well written and well set.

Passing over the wording of an advertisement for the present, allow me to refer to the composition of the advertisement, by which I mean the putting of the words into type. Composition can spoil the best written advertisement, and that is why it is important to consider composition first. If a printer can set up a good-looking advertisement from poor copy he can usually be depended on to make a strong ad. from good copy.

In order that an advertisement should be powerful, it is essential that the right words should be emphasised or displayed. There are so many advertisements in the average newspaper, and they are crowded so closely together that only those which display some striking word or phase will appeal to the great mass of readers. The advertiser knows the words he wants displayed. The printer cannot be expected to know unless he is told. It follows that the advertiser should indicate the words he desires to have emphasized, and should see to it that the printer follows his instructions.

In order to illustrate just how much good composition helps an advertisement, I am reproducing on this page the first and second prize advertisements in a recent ad.-setting competition held by the Canadian Printer and Publisher. It happens that a popular novel was the object to be advertised, which makes the illustration much more instructive to readers of Bookseller and Stationer.

The competitor who set the first prize advertisement has made a correct choice of the words to be displayed. He has noted that "Nedra" is the central word—the keynote of the advertisement—and he has accordingly given it a strong central position. He has gone further and has observed that the sale of "Nedra" is going to de depend largely on the popularity of the author's earlier books, "Graustark," and "Beverly of Graustark." He has, therefore, given a secondary display to these names and has connected the three by a few well-chosen lines of display type. Having accomplished this he feels that he has succeeded in emphasizing the real point of the advertisement and he proceeds to set the description of the book in ordinary type.

The second prize advertisement, it will be observed, differs slightly in the words selected for display. The emphasis is laid entirely on the book itself, while the compositor endeavors to whet the reader's appetite by displaying the expression "You will surely want to read."

While speaking of this ad.-setting competition allow me to refer to one point and that is the use of the illustration. Glance for a moment at the two prize advertisements and imagine how much their value would be diminished if the cuts were not there. The cover picture lends character to the advertisement; it stamps it as essentially a book advertisement.

There is no reason why any bookseller's advertisement should not have a similar illustration. Publishers are usually only too pleased to supply cuts to their patrons. I would advise every dealer to experiment in this direction and see if they cannot improve the appearance of their advertisements.

If readers of this page will consider how much this proper display means in the composition of the advertisement they will then have learned the lesson which I have endeavored to teach in these few words.—From The Bookseller and Stationer of March, 1906.

RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS IN ITALY

That the sons of Sunny Italy residing in foreign countries send back to the Patria Italiana the sum of 200,000,000 francs every year; that the northern part of the kingdom is now going through a period of unexampled prosperity, and that the population is increasing rapidly, were some of the statements made yesterday by Victor Emanuel's newly-appointed commercial representative in Montreal.

Dr. Lionello Scelsi, the new consul-general, was at his desk early yesterday, and began to work for the fatherland for the first time in the Dominion of Canada. He is a young man, an ardent believer in the future of Italy, and looks forward with pleasure to his sojourn in the first colony of Great Britain, which has always been such a firm friend to the fatherland. He could not say anything yet as to increased trade relations between Italy and Canada, but one thing was certain, and that was the good will of the Italian Government, its representative and the people at home. At the present time the doctor said that Northern Italy is more prosperous than ever before, and the manufacturing establishments of the land are busy as they never have been busy before. The industrial development of Italy, he says, grows apace, the only drawback being the fact that the coal has to be imported from abroad. At present their coal has to be brought from England, and the price is, of course, very high. However, he added, that there were water powers in abundance, and the greatest possible progress is being made in the development of electrical energy throughout the country. It would be remembered that at the St. Louis Exposition Italy came out second to the United States in electrical works, and they were still advancing very rapidly, while they are straining the very best class of electricians. Of course, Southern Italy, he said, was still backward, but this is not the fault of united Italy, but rather of those who had been the rulers at a previous date.

The consul-general also said that the question of population was also quite satisfactory, as it was now 38,000,000, and notwithstanding the drain of imigration the population is rapidly on the increase. But he said that it must not be forgotten that those who are in other lands send home each year vast sums of money, last year amounting to 200,000,000 francs. Besides the great strides the country is making in industrial enterprises, it must be said that Italy is an agricultural country, and the consul-general was glad to state that the farmers are also prosperous. In a word, he believed that his native land had never been so well off as she is today.

Dr. Scelsi also observed that in spite of the reports to the contrary, religious peace is general in Italy, as the best understanding existed between the governing party and the clergy. He believes that the papacy is in as much strong position today than if the Pope had his own states, as was the case before the arrival of Victor Emanuel, the representative of united Italy, for instead of being the shuttle cock of the Catholic powers, she is now quite free to carry out her plans as best the Pope thinks fit. At all the past conclaves when a new Pope had to be elected, there were generally scenes of the wildest disorder, but since the change of regime of Leo XIII. and Pius X. everything had passed off in the most peaceful manner. He believed, indeed, that the Pope is much stronger than when His Holiness had his own states.

"What is there in the statement that His Holiness would be insulted if he were to leave the Vatican?"

"On the contrary, the Pope would be received by the troops with royal honours if he were to leave the Vatican grounds and come out into the streets of Rome."

The consul then spoke of the return of the Papal representative to Paris, who for the first time asked to be accorded that reception due his rank, and sure enough the troops lined the streets through which the church dignitary passed when he returned to the city."

The people, he said, for the greater part, are indifferent, and there is no hard feeling against the papal throne in Italy. To show the good will of the Italian Government towards the Church, the doctor cited the case of the expulsion of the Congregation from France, and said that if the Italian Government had been so disposed all they would have to do would be to enact a little law prohibiting their entry into Rome and the rest of Italy, but, as everybody knows, they did nothing, and the result was that a great many of those people who had been expelled from France took up their abode in Italy, and purchased establishments in that country. Signor Scelsi thought this was a very good answer to the statement that Italy is harrassing the papacy.

He says that the present Prime Minister of Italy is a wise, conservative, yet progressive statesman, and the condition of affairs from a socialistic point of view had greatly improved, and in fact offered very little menace to the permanent peace of the country. The Socialists, he added, had got pretty well split up among themselves, and they did not appear so advanced in their views as of old.

Dr. Lionello Scelsi is an unmarried man and is staying at present at the Windsor.—Montreal Gazette.

CARICATURING THE IRISH

Strongly Condemned by Kingston Hibernians

At a recent meeting of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of this city, a resolution was adopted condemning in the strongest terms the slanderous caricatures which are usually flaunted before the public on or about St. Patrick's Day. Below is given the resolution which expresses in very vigorous language the indignation the Irish people feel to be thus chosen out from among the other nationalities for the purpose of public derision:

"Whereas, it causes us the keenest regret and resentment to see, each year, our ancient and honored race misrepresented and slandered before the public by abominable caricatures which are exhibited in comic journals cheap magazines and post cards, usually on or about the feast of our national apostle.

"Resolved, that we, who have undertaken to uphold the dignity and honor of our race, protest in the strongest possible manner against such a gross insult, that we no longer submit to be presented in the eyes of the world as the personification of all that is vile and vulgar, and further that we call upon Irishmen of all classes and creeds to taboo such loathsome prints which are the productions of artists who are as ignorant of Irish manners and customs as they are of common sense and decency."

IN ICELAND.

The stringency in the money markets of the world is felt quite keenly in Iceland at the present time, affecting particularly the commerce of the island. Grain products, such as flour, oatmeal, corn and rye, which must all be imported from abroad, have advanced in price considerably, while Icelandic exports, including fish, wool and salted meats, have correspondingly decreased in value.

The last Althing, among other items deliberated on the long-felt necessity of a new Icelandic dictionary, with the result that an appropriation was granted by the Government, and Jon Olafsson, of Reykjavik, who has now permanently retired from journalism, chosen for the task of compiling it.

Mr. Olafsson is especially well adapted for this undertaking, being an accomplished scholar, a linguist of marked ability, with a profound knowledge of the Islandic language.—Free Press, Winnipeg.

A deputation from Sudbury asked Sir Wilfrid Laurier for a French speaking judge for their district.

PREFERS PIPE TO MAYORALTY

Berlin, Ont., Feb. 25.—The inaugural meeting of the new town council was held today, at which Mayor-elect Allen Huber took the chair. In his inaugural address he referred to his ancestors being among the earliest settlers of Berlin, and pointed with pride to a photograph of his father, Henry S. Huber, in the council chamber, who was reeve for seven successive terms and warden of the county for two years. He advocated strict enforcement of all bylaws, and urged retrenchment in expenditures during the present year. There were to be no more bonuses, no more exemptions, no more questionable transactions, and honest government.

George Rumpel resigned as a member of the water and park commissions, refusing to sit on these boards with Mayor Huber. The council accepted the resignation and appointed K. Hartung, who was elected in elected in January and defeated last week, to the water commission, and voted down Mayor Huber's first nominee. E. Quirmbach, a prominent socialist, for the park commission, the second nominee, Herman Ahrens, being appointed. While the business was in progress his worship smoked his pipe. He stated to a press representative that if he came to the question of giving up his pipe or the mayor's chair he would give up the latter.

WEDDING BELLS

CLARK—WADDELL

A quiet wedding took place at Mill street Presbyterian church on Thursday, Feb. 27th, 1908. The Rev. Alex. McNaughton and the Rev. W. H. Brokenshire, M.A., performed the beautiful ceremony when James Carl Clark, Esq., youngest son of J. F. Clark, Esq., merchant, was united in marriage to Margretta Elizabeth (Gretta) only daughter of George Waddell, Esq., "Woodville," Port Hope.

The happy couple left on the morning flyer for Montreal, Ottawa and other eastern points. Upon their return they will take up their residence in No. 2, Deyell's Terrace, Mill street.

At the close of the ceremony the Rev. W. H. Brokenshire, on behalf of the Mill street congregation, presented the bride with a richly bound copy of the Bible and Presbyterian Book of Praise. Mrs. Clark has been a faithful attendant and active worker in the church and will be greatly missed in all its branches.—Port Hope Guide.

BEVERLY OF GRAUSTARK

By GEORGE BARR M'CUTCHEON, Author of "Graustark." Copyright 1904, by Dodd, Mead and Company.

CHAPTER I.

FAR off in the mountain lands, somewhere to the east of the setting sun, lies the principality of Graustark, serene relic of rare old feudal days. The traveler reaches the little domain after an arduous, sometimes perilous, journey from the great European capitals, whether they be north or south or west—never east. He crosses great rivers and wide plains; he winds through fertile valleys and over barren plateaus; he twists and turns and climbs among somber gorges and rugged mountains; he touches the cold clouds in one day and the placid warmth of the valley in the next. One does not go to Graustark for a pleasure jaunt. It is too far from the rest of the world, and the ways are often dangerous because of the strife among the tribes of the intervening mountains. If one hungers for excitement and peril, he finds it in the journey from the north or the south into the land of the Graustarkians. From Vienna and other places almost directly west the way is not so full of thrills, for the railroad skirts the darkest of the danger lands.

Once in the heart of Graustark, however, the traveler is charmed into dreams of peace and happiness and—paradise. The peasants and the poets sing in one voice and accord, their psalm being of never ending love. Down in the lowlands and up in the hills the simple worker of the soil rejoices that he lives in Graustark; in the towns and villages the humble merchant and his thrifty customer unite to sing the song of peace and contentment; in the palaces of the noble the same patriotism warms its heart with thoughts of Graustark, the ancient. Prince and pauper strike hands for the love of the land, while outside the great, heartless world goes rumbling on without a thought of the rare little principality among the eastern mountains.

In point of area Graustark is but a mite in the great galaxy of nations. Glancing over the map of the world, one is almost sure to miss the infinitesimal patch of green that marks its location. One could not be blamed if he regarded the spot as a typographical or topographical illusion. Yet the people of this quaint little land hold in their hearts a love and a confidence that are not surpassed by any of the lordly monarchs who measure their patriotism by miles and millions. The Graustarkians are a sturdy, courageous race. From the faraway century when they fought themselves clear of the Tartar yoke to this very hour they have been warriors of might and valor. The boundaries of their tiny domain were kept inviolate for hundreds of years, and but one victorious foe had come down to lay siege to Edelweiss, the capital. Axphain, a powerful principality in the north, had conquered Graustark in the latter part of the nineteenth century, but only after a bitter war in which starvation and famine proved far more destructive than the arms of the victors. The treaty of peace and the indemnity that fell to the lot of vanquished Graustark have been discoursed upon at length in at least one history.

Those who have followed that history must know, of course, that the reigning princess, Yetive, was married to a young American at the very tag end of the nineteenth century. This admirable couple met in quite romantic fashion while the young sovereign was traveling incognito through the United States of America. The American, a splendid fellow named Lorry, was so persistent in the subsequent attack upon her heart that all ancestral prejudices were swept away, and she became his bride with the full consent of her entranced subjects. The manner in which he wooed and won this young and adorable ruler forms a very attractive chapter in romance, although unmentioned in history. This being the tale of another day, it is not timely to dwell upon the interesting events which led up to the marriage of the Princess Yetive to Grenfall Lorry. Suffice it to say that Lorry won his bride against all wishes and odds and at the same time won an endless love and esteem from the people of the little kingdom among the eastern hills. Two years have passed since that notable wedding in Edelweiss.

Lorry and his wife, the princess, made their home in Washington, but spent a few months of each year in Edelweiss. During the periods spent in Washington and in travel her affairs in Graustark were in the hands of a capable, austere old diplomat, her uncle, Count Caspar Halfont. Princess Volga reigned as regent over the principality of Axphain. To the south lay the principality of Dawsbergen, ruled by young Prince Dantan, whose half brother, the deposed Prince Gabriel, had been for two years a prisoner in Graustark, the convicted assassin of Prince Lorenz of Axphain, one time suitor for the hand of Yetive.

It was after the second visit of the Lorrys to Edelweiss that a serious turn of affairs presented itself. Gabriel had succeeded in escaping from his dungeon. His friends in Dawsbergen stirred up a revolution, and Dantan was driven from the throne at Serros. On the arrival of Gabriel at the capital the army of Dawsbergen espoused the cause of the prince it had spurned, and, three days after his escape, he was on his throne, defying Yetive and offering a price for the head of the unfortunate Dantan, now a fugitive in the hills along the Graustark frontier.

CHAPTER II.

MAJOR GEORGE CALHOUN was a member of congress from one of the southern states. His forefathers had represented the same commonwealth, and so, it was likely, would his descendants, if there is virtue in the fitness of things and the heredity of love. While intrepid frontiersmen were opening the trails through the fertile wilds west of the Alleghanies a strong branch of the Calhoun family followed close in their footsteps. The major's great-grandfather saw the glories and the possibilities of the new territory. He struck boldly forward from the old Revolutionary grounds, abandoning the luxuries and traditions of the Carolinas for a fresh, wild life of promise. His sons and daughters became solid stones in the foundation of a commonwealth, and his grandchildren are still at work on the structure. State and national legislatures had known the Calhouns from the beginning. Battlefields had tested their valor, and drawing rooms had proved their gentility.

Major Calhoun had fought with Stonewall Jackson and won his spurs, and at the same time the heart and hand of Betty Haswell, the stanchest Confederate who ever made flags, bandages and prayers for the boys in gray. When the reconstruction came he went to congress, and later on became prominent in the United States consular service, for years holding an important European post. Congress claimed him once more in the early nineties, and there he is at this very time.

Everybody in Washington's social and diplomatic circles admired the beautiful Beverly Calhoun. According to his own loving term of identification, she was the major's "youngest." The fair southerner had seen two seasons in the nation's capital. Cupid, standing directly in front of her, had shot his darts ruthlessly and resistlessly into the passing hosts, and masculine Washington looked humbly to her for the balm that might soothe its pains. The wily god of love was fair enough to protect the girl whom he forced to be his unwilling, perhaps unconscious, ally. He held his impenetrable shield between her heart and the assaults of a whole army of suitors, high and low, great and small. It was not idle rumor that said she had declined a coronet or two, that the millions of more than one American Midas had been offered to her and that she had dealt gently but firmly with a score of hearts which had nothing but love, ambition and poverty to support them in the conflict.

The Calhouns lived in a handsome home not far from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Grenfall Lorry. It seemed but natural that the two beautiful young women should become constant and loyal friends. Women as lovely as they have no reason to be jealous. It is only the woman who does not feel secure of her personal charms that cultivates envy. At the home of Graustark's princess Beverly met the dukes and barons from the far east. It was in the warmth of the Calhoun hospitality that Yetive formed her dearest love for the American people.

Miss Beverly was neither tall nor short. She was of that divine and indefinite height known as medium; slender, but perfectly molded; strong, but graceful—an absolutely healthy young person, whose beauty knew well how to take care of itself. Being quite heart whole and fancy free, she slept well, ate well and enjoyed every minute of life. In her blood ran the warm, eager impulses of the south; hereditary love of ease and luxury displayed itself in every emotion; the perfectly normal demand upon men's admiration was as characteristic in her as it is in any daughter of the land whose women are born to expect chivalry and homage.

A couple of years in a New York "finishing school" for young ladies had served greatly to modify Miss Calhoun's colloquial charms. Many of her delightful "way down south" phrases and mannerisms were blighted by the cold, unromantic atmosphere of a seminary conducted by two ladies from Boston who were too old to marry, too penurious to love and too prim to think that other women might care to do both. There were times, however—if she were excited or enthusiastic—when pretty Beverly so far forgot her training as to break forth with a very attractive "yo' all," "suah 'nough" or "go 'way, naow." And when the bands played "Dixie" she was not afraid to stand up and wave her handkerchief. The northerner who happened to be with her on such occasions usually found himself doing likewise before he could escape the infection.

Miss Calhoun's face was one that painters coveted deep down in their artistic souls. It never knew a dull instant; there was expression in every lineament, in every look; life, genuine life, dwelt in the mobile countenance that turned the head of every man and woman who looked upon it. Her hair was dark brown and abundant; her eyes were a deep gray and looked eagerly from between long lashes of black; her lips were red and ever willing to smile or turn plaintive as occasion required; her brow was broad and fair, and her frown was as dangerous as a smile.

As to her age, if the major admitted, somewhat indiscreetly, that all his children were old enough to vote, her mother, with the reluctance born in women, confessed that she was past twenty, so a year or two either way will determine Miss Beverly's age so far as the telling of this story is concerned. Her eldest brother, Keith Calhoun (the one with the congressional heritage), thought she was too young to marry, while her second brother, Dan, held that she soon would be too old to attract men with matrimonial intentions. Lucy, the only sister, having been happily wedded for ten years, advised her not to think of marriage until she was old enough to know her own mind.

Toward the close of one of the most brilliant seasons the capital had ever known, less than a fortnight before congress was to adjourn, the wife of Grenfall Lorry received the news which spread gloomy disappointment over the entire social realm. A dozen receptions, teas and balls were destined to lose their richest attraction, and hostesses were in despair. The princess had been called to Graustark.

Beverly Calhoun was miserably unhappy. She had heard the story of Gabriel's escape and the consequent probability of a conflict with Axphain. It did not require a great stretch of imagination to convince her that the Lorrys were hurrying off to scenes of intrigue, strife and bloodshed, and that not only Graustark, but its princess, was in jeopardy.

Miss Calhoun's most cherished hopes faded with the announcement that trouble, not pleasure, called Yetive to Edelweiss. It had been their plan that Beverly should spend the delightful summer months in Graustark, a guest at the royal palace. The original arrangements of the Lorrys were hopelessly disturbed by the late news from Count Halfont. They were obliged to leave Washington two months earlier than they intended, and they could not take Beverly Calhoun into danger ridden Graustark. The contemplated visit to St. Petersburg and other pleasures had to be abandoned, and they were in tears.

Yetive's maids were packing the trunks, and Lorry's servants were in a wild state of haste preparing for the departure on Saturday's ship. On Friday afternoon Beverly was naturally where she could do the most good and be of the least help—at the Lorrys'. Self confessedly she delayed the preparations. Respectful maidservants and respectful manservants came often to the princess' boudoir to ask questions, and Beverly just as frequently made tearful resolutions to leave the household in peace—if such a hullabaloo could be called peace. Callers came by the dozen, but Yetive would see no one. Letters, telegrams and telephone calls almost swamped her secretary; the footman and the butler fairly gasped under the strain of excitement. Through it all the two friends sat despondent and alone in the drear room that once had been the abode of pure delight. Grenfall Lorry was off in town closing up all matters of business that could be dispatched at once. The princess and her industrious retinue were to take the evening express for New York, and the next day would find them at sea.

"I know I shall cry all summer," vowed Miss Calhoun, with conviction in her eyes. "It's just too awful for anything." She was lying back among the cushions of the divan, and her hat was the picture of cruel neglect. For three solid hours she had stubbornly withstood Yetive's appeals to remove her hat, insisting that she could not trust herself to stay more than a minute or two. "It seems to me, Yetive, that your jailers must be very incompetent or they wouldn't have let loose all this trouble upon you," she complained.

"Prince Gabriel is the very essence of trouble," confessed Yetive plaintively. "He was born to annoy people, just like the evil prince in the fairy tales."

"I wish we had him over here," the American girl answered stoutly. "He wouldn't be such a trouble, I'm sure. We don't let small troubles worry us very long, you know."

"But he's dreadfully important over there, Beverly; that's the difficult part of it," said Yetive solemnly. "You see, he is a condemned murderer."

"Then you ought to hang him or electrocute him or whatever it is that you do to murderers over there," spoke Beverly promptly.

"But, dear, you don't understand. He won't permit us either to hang or to electrocute him, my dear. The situation is precisely the reverse, if he is correctly quoted by my uncle. When Uncle Caspar sent an envoy to inform Dawsbergen respectfully that Graustark would hold it personally responsible if Gabriel were not surrendered, Gabriel himself replied, 'Graustark be hanged!'"

"How rude of him, especially when your uncle was so courteous about it! He must be a very disagreeable person," announced Miss Calhoun.

"I am sure you wouldn't like him," said the princess. "His brother, who has been driven from the throne—and from the capital, in fact—is quite different. I have not seen him, but my ministers regard him as a splendid young man."

"Oh, how I hope he may go back with his army and annihilate that old Gabriel!" cried Beverly, frowning fiercely.

"Alas," sighed the princess, "he hasn't an army, and besides he is finding it extremely difficult to keep from being annihilated himself. The army has gone over to Prince Gabriel."

"Pooh!" scoffed Miss Calhoun, who was thinking of the enormous armies the United States can produce at a day's notice. "What good is a ridiculous little army like his anyway? A battalion from Fort Thomas could beat it to"—

"Don't boast, dear," interrupted Yetive, with a wan smile. "Dawsbergen has a standing army of 10,000 excellent soldiers. With the war reserves she has twice the available force I can produce."

"But your men are so brave!" cried Beverly, who had heard their praises sung.

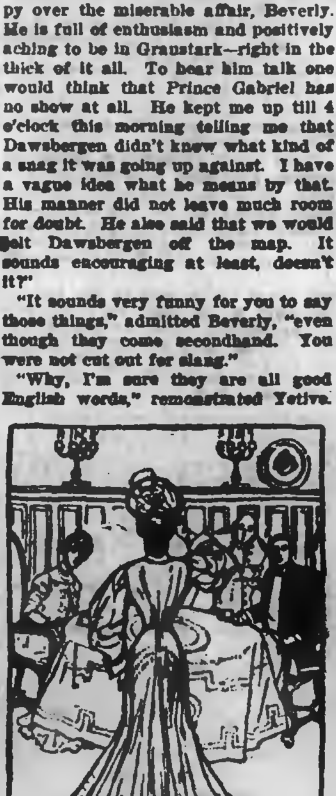
"True—God bless them!—but you forget that we must attack Gabriel in his own territory. To recapture him means a perilous expedition into the mountains of Dawsbergen, and I am sorely afraid. Oh, dear, I hope he'll surrender peaceably!"

"And go back to jail for life?" cried Miss Calhoun. "It's a good deal to expect of him, dear. I fancy it's much better fun kicking up a rumpus on the outside than it is kicking one's toes off against an obdurate stone wall from the inside. You can't blame him for fighting a bit."

"No, I suppose not," agreed the princess miserably. "Gren is actually happy over the miserable affair, Beverly. He is full of enthusiasm and positively aching to be in Graustark—right in the thick of it all. To hear him talk one would think that Prince Gabriel has no show at all. He kept me up till 4 o'clock this morning telling me that Dawsbergen didn't know what kind of a snag it was going up against. I have a vague idea what he means by that. His manner did not leave much room for doubt. He also said that we would belt Dawsbergen off the map. It sounds encouraging at least, doesn't it?"

"It sounds very funny for you to say those things," admitted Beverly, "even though they come secondhand. You were not cut out for slang."

"Why, I'm sure they are all good English words," remonstrated Yetive.



Her hearers stared at the picturesque recruit.

"Oh, dear, I wonder what they are doing in Graustark this very instant. Are they fighting or"—

"No; they are merely talking. Don't you know, dear, that there is never a fight until both sides have talked themselves out of breath? We shall have six months of talk and a week or two of fight, just as they always do nowadays."

"Oh, you Americans have such a comfortable way of looking at things," cried the princess. "Don't you ever see the serious side of life?"

"My dear, the American always lets the other fellow see the serious side of life," said Beverly.

"You wouldn't be so optimistic if a country much bigger and more powerful than America happened to be the other fellow."

"It did sound frightfully boastful, didn't it? It's the way we've been brought up, I reckon—even we southerners, who know what it is to be whipped. The idea of a girl like me talking about war and trouble and all that! It's absurd, isn't it?"

"Nevertheless, I wish I could see things through those dear gray eyes of yours. Oh, how I'd like to have you with me through all the months that are to come. You would be such a help to me, such a joy. Nothing would seem so hard if you were there to make me see things through your brave American eyes. The princess put her arms about Beverly's neck and drew her close.

"But Mr. Lorry possesses an excellent pair of American eyes," protested Miss Beverly, loyally and very happily.

"I know, dear, but they are a man's eyes. Somehow there is a difference, you know. I wouldn't dare cry when he was looking, but I could boohoo all day if you were there to comfort me. He thinks I am very brave, and I'm not," she confessed dismally.

"Oh, I'm an awful coward," explained Beverly consolingly. "I think you are the bravest girl in all the world," she added. "Don't you remember what you did at"— and then she recalled the stories that had come from Graustark ahead of the bridal party two years before. Yetive was finally obliged to place her hand on the enthusiastic visitor's lips.

"Peace," she cried, blushing. "You make me feel like a—a—what is it you call her, a dime novel heroine?"

"A yellow back girl? Never!" exclaimed Beverly severely.

Visitors of importance in administration circles came at this moment, and the princess could not refuse to see them. Beverly Calhoun reluctantly departed, but not until after giving a promise to accompany the Lorrys to the railway station.

* * * * * * *

The trunks had gone to be checked, and the household was quieter than it had been in many days. There was an air of depression about the place that had its inception in the room upstairs where sober faced Halkins served dinner for a not overtalkative young couple.

"It will be all right, dearest," said Lorry, divining his wife's thoughts as she sat staring rather soberly straight ahead of her. "Just as soon as we get to Edelweiss the whole affair will look so simple that we can laugh at the fears of today. You see, we are a long way off just now."

"I am only afraid of what may happen before we get there, Gren," she said simply. He leaned over and kissed her hand, smiling at the emphasis she unconsciously placed on the pronoun.

Beverly Calhoun was announced just before coffee was served and a moment later was in the room. She stopped just inside the door, clicked her little heels together and gravely brought her hand to "salute." Her eyes were sparkling and her lips trembled with suppressed excitement.

"I think I can report to you in Edelweiss next month, general," she announced, with soldierly dignity. Her hearers stared at the picturesque recruit, and Halkins so far forgot himself as to drop Mr. Lorry's lump of sugar upon the table instead of into the cup.

"Explain yourself, sergeant!" finally fell from Lorry's lips. The eyes of the princess were beginning to take on a rapturous glow.

"May I have a cup of coffee, please, sir? I've been so excited I couldn't eat a mouthful at home." She gracefully slid into the chair Halkins offered and broke into an ecstatic giggle that would have resulted in a court martial had she been serving any commander but Love.

With a plenteous supply of southern idioms she succeeded in making them understand that the major had promised to let her visit friends in the legation at St. Petersburg in April, a month or so after the departure of the Lorrys.

"He wanted to know where I'd rather spend the spring—Washin'ton or Lexin'ton—and I told him St. Petersburg. We had a terrific discussion, and neither of us ate a speck at dinner. Mamma said it would be all right for me to go to St. Petersburg if Aunt Josephine was still of a mind to go too. You see, auntie was scared almost out of her boots when she heard there was prospect of war in Graustark, just as though a tiny little war like that could make any difference away up in Russia, hundreds of thousands of miles away"—with a scornful wave of the hand—"and then I just made auntie say she'd go to St. Petersburg in April, a whole month sooner than she expected to go in the first place, and"—

"You dear, dear Beverly!" cried Yetive, rushing joyously around the table to clasp her in her arms.

"And St. Petersburg really isn't a hundred thousand miles from Edelweiss!" cried Beverly gayly.

"It's much less than that," said Lorry, smiling. "But you surely don't expect to come to Edelweiss if we are fighting. We couldn't think of letting you do that, you know. Your mother would never"—

"My mother wasn't afraid of a much bigger war than yours can ever hope to be!" cried Beverly resentfully. "You can't stop me if I choose to visit Graustark."

"Does your father know that you contemplate such a trip?" asked Lorry, returning her hand clasp and looking doubtfully into the swimming blue eyes of his wife.

"No, he doesn't," admitted Beverly a trifle aggressively.

"He could stop you, you know," he suggested. Yetive was discreetly silent.

"But he won't know anything about it," cried Beverly triumphantly.

"I could tell him, you know," said Lorry.

"No, you couldn't do anything so mean as that," announced Beverly. "You're not that sort."

IN FASHION'S REALM.

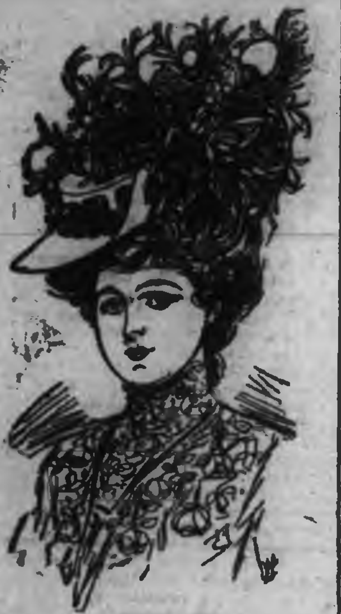
Jabots Attractive Means of Freshening Up an Old Blouse.

MODISH STYLES IN NECKWEAR

Long Jabots Not Universally Becoming—Short Effects Are More Easily Made—Butterfly Bows Arranged as a Cascade Very New and Smart.

When a blouse has lost its freshness there is nothing so useful as a jabot to give it a new and smart appearance.

A good style to follow in making one is the jabot which reaches below the bust and forms a cascade down the center of the blouse. To fashion this get white mousseline and cut it in two strips across the goods. Two are enough for the average length. Each strip should be about four inches wide. Half an inch above the edge run a tuck the same depth, and a short distance above that run another a little narrower. Roll the edge and whip on valenciennes not over half an inch in width. After this much is accomplished have the strip accordion plaited and sew it to a double piece of fine muslin. At the top of the strip the plaited frill should be sewn across and then carried down one side and ended in a point.



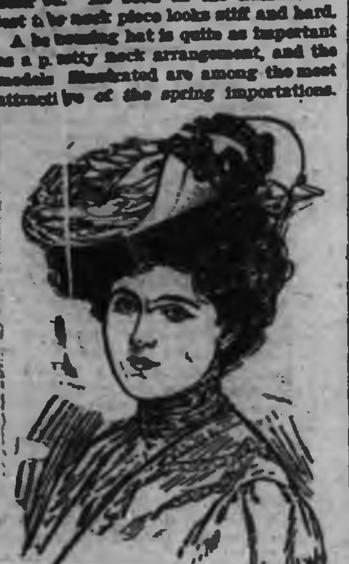
A NEW TOQUE.

Wide lace and chiffon frilling can be bought ready to put on, but if one wants something of a little different and of really good materials the better way is to make this kind of neckwear at home. A washable jabot is a joy forever and gives the plainest shirt waist or blouse a dressy air. Some of the longer jabots of lace or mousseline have the top finished with a ribbon bow, often in white and again in colors.

Not every woman will find a long jabot becoming. The length should be carefully studied by each one, and if the short neck frill is more suited to her she should forego the fascinations of these delightful long ones which reach almost to the belt. The short ones are even more easily made than the others, and they take so much less lace that real pieces can be utilized in this way. A very full plaited frill of three-quarters of a yard of four inch lace is gathered on a strip of silk tape or ribbon an inch long.

To adjust lace so that it forms butterfly bow effects all down the front from the throat to the end of the jabot is more difficult to achieve, but it is worth the time devoted to its creation. In making one of these neck pieces it must be borne in mind that lightness and daintiness are the effects desired. As soon as the fullness is lost the neck piece looks stiff and hard.

A becoming hat is quite as important as a pretty neck arrangement, and the models illustrated are among the most attractive of the spring importations.



WHITE NEAPOLITAN STRAW.

HEALTH AND GOOD LOOKS.

How to Obtain and Keep These Blessings.

Don't let the thought that you cannot at all times get to sleep when you wish cause you any anxiety, for often the fear of insomnia has a worse effect on the system than the lack of sleep. Often a bath just before retiring is advantageous.

Make the attempt to learn why you do not sleep (do this during the day, not at night); then make every possible effort to correct your habits, and you probably will succeed. To take a raw egg, separate an egg, beat the yolk till thick and lemon colored and the white till it is stiff; then blend them, adding a heaping tablespoonful of powdered sugar, a dash of salt and two tablespoonfuls of brandy. The brandy cooks the egg, so that the raw taste to which some object is gone. There is nourishment enough in it to make a meal for any one with a weak stomach. Wrinkles in a young person's face are often merely lines of congested pores, tiny lines of blackheads, which will be found upon opening a wrinkle. Steaming the face gently, afterward massaging the wrinkles easily with cold cream, will produce a wonderful effect. Steaming must not be done often, however, once a week being frequent enough.

For odorous perspiration make a powder of one-half ounce of oleate of zinc, one ounce of powdered starch and one scruple of salicylic acid. Mix thoroughly. Buy some salicylic soap and use that to wash the parts most affected. Dry and wipe over with toilet vinegar. The vinegar helps to contract the pores, preventing perspiration. After wiping with vinegar dust on the powder. Put on fresh linen as often as possible and wash the dress shields every day, using the salicylic soap.

UMBRELLA HOLDER.

Made of Material to Suit the Hangings of the Room.

These holders will be found very convenient to hang in a cupboard, as good umbrellas are apt to get damaged if left in the hall stand. They look well made in figured linen or of any material to suit the hangings of the room. The one shown in the illustration is of linen with a cream ground and red roses. A yard of thirty-six inch material is cut into five parts, two pieces for the back, which measures thirty-four inches long and eight inches in width, the gussets and sides, measuring thirty inches long and four inches wide; for the front cut one piece thirty inches by seven inches wide. To make up the holder first put the two back pieces together and bind them round the top and six inches down on each side with braid. Stitch the two gussets to the front piece and make a deep hem at the top, then stitch on to the back down each side and across the bottom, folding the gussets in and stitching them across twice. Secure two brass rings to the top corners to complete the article.

The advantage of hot water taken inwardly is well known, but not every one knows that it has been found valuable in fighting grip.

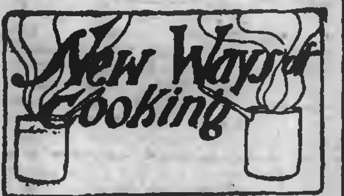
Willie—No; I remembered all right, but I didn't do it, 'cause none of the ice cream was chocolate.



The most perfect French coffee is made in the steam coffeepot, a tall brass affair with two receptacles. The lower one is filled with water, the upper one with coffee.

The water is heated by a small lamp and the steam generated rises to the coffee and is condensed in the upper receptacle and comes back again filled with all the delicate aroma of the coffee.

None of the flavor is allowed to escape, and the steam coffee is said to be the strongest and most delicious made anywhere.

The Arabian coffee is delicious in flavor, due to the freshly roasted coffee berries and to the presence of cinnamon. The coffee is roasted freshly every day.

After it is thoroughly ground up or pounded it is passed through a sieve, and only the fine brown flour is used. Two teaspoonfuls of this flour are used with two cups of water and boiled together with a little piece of cinnamon.

It is boiled, then allowed to cool off and then boiled again until it forms a thick paste; then half a cupful of boiling water is added, and the coffee is drunk in this semithick state without sugar or milk.

The Viennese are famous for their cafe au lait. Sometimes the coffee and hot milk are mixed at the table, and the skillful waiter knows just how to pour the two ingredients so that they will blend thoroughly almost before touching the cup.

When large quantities of coffee are to be made, the coffee and milk are boiled together, the coffee being roasted brown, ground and tied in small linen bags. It is then put into a large kettle with two parts water to one of milk and allowed to come to a boil. It is served with whipped cream.

Coffee being the national drink of the Turk, the sultan is often graciously inclined to give away his own silver coffee cups to favored guests as souvenirs. These coffee cups resemble eggshells in shape and are of silver filigree, with an inner lining of very thin pale blue porcelain. The Turkish coffee is the same as the Arabian coffee and is always made of freshly roasted coffee berries ground to a powder and served in a thick, sirupy state. It is made very strong and is served without milk, sugar or other addition.

MODISH AFTERNOON TOILETTES

JAPAN'S NEW YEAR'S CAKE.

Lasts a Year and Supposed to Bring Good Luck.

Important in the celebration of New Year's in Japan is the making of the New Year's cake, which every family must have if good luck is to follow it during the coming year.

This cake is made of a peculiar variety of rice, boiled and pounded in a great wooden mortar until it is of the consistency of dough. Although the pure white dough is often colored yellow or pink, the shape of the cake is always the same—that of the sacred mirror, one of the three sacred symbols of the Shinto faith. A piece of this cake, writes Clara W. Kaji in Leslie's Weekly, is offered to the Shinto deities because it is of the shape of the sacred mirror which wooed the sun goddess to come out of the cave where she had hidden herself in wrath and thus saved the land from total darkness. Each member of the family takes a hand in the manufacture of the New Year's cake. Even the baby is carried out and his baby hand guided in lifting the heavy wooden mallet for a "good luck" blow.

Enough is made to last nearly the whole year through, and it occupies an important place in the daily menu.

The Universal Mother.

A woman who looked as if she had a commuter's ticket in her hand bag kept a long line of customers waiting in an uptown bank one snowy morning recently. She was writing something and was in no hurry. She was not one of the fashionable "no hips" creatures, but was of such generous proportions that she could not be circumnavigated. There was nothing to do but wait and wonder what her business was. The cashier himself was in doubt, but waited politely to see.

"There, young man," she announced triumphantly to the cashier after putting her pencil in her mouth for the fiftieth time—"there is a prescription that has been in our family for fifty years. It will knock that cold of yours endwise. Hustle right out and get it filled and be sure and soak your feet in hot mustard water tonight. Don't let your cold run on."

The smiles that went round were kindly ones, it seemed so good to meet a "universal mother," ready to coddle any human being she thought needed her ministrations.

What is Happening in the Provincial House at Toronto

Fourteen Should Be Minimum For Children to Start Work.

Bill to Amend Shops' Act — Serious Increase in Child Labor—Foreign Population Needs Watching, Says Mr. Preston—Young Boys in Hotels —Budget Debate Next Week—Estimates Thursday.

Toronto, Feb. 29.—Hon. A. J. Matheson, the Provincial Treasurer, will lay the public accounts before the Legislature on Monday. He made this announcement at yesterday's sitting.

"From the reports of the staff, who are now busily engaged upon them," the Minister continued, "I do not expect to be able to bring down the estimates before Thursday at the earliest. I propose to follow the Dominion House precedent in not delivering the budget speech now, but going on with supply. This gives more time to members on both sides of the House to look into the accounts and estimates for themselves."

Hon. Mr. MacKay, the Liberal leader, acquiesced.

In response to a question from Mr. Smith (Peel) Hon. Mr. Hanna stated that 214 justices of the peace had been appointed in Peel County since the present Government attained power, 161 of whom had qualified. In the town of Brampton 41 had been appointed and 33 had qualified.

On the second reading of Hon. Nelson Monteith's bill to amend the Shops' Act by raising the minimum age at which children could be employed from 10 years to 12, Mr. T. H. Preston (Brant) urged that the age be determined at 14. He reviewed the work of the special committee on child labor during last session, and complimented the work of the Minister of Agriculture thereon. It had been shown that child labor to a serious extent existed in the province, and the foreign population which was pouring in necessitated the most careful legislation. The fact had been shown that the public school attendance in the province was only 56 per cent. of the enrollment. Mr. Preston expressed the hope that, at the present session, the Minister of Education would bring down some important amendments to the Truancy Act. They were needed. He further urged enactments prohibiting the employment of young boys in the hotels.

Hon. Mr. Whitney—"If we should banish the bar there would perhaps be no need for that enactment."

Mr. Preston—Well, it would be a short cut. For myself, I think every boy ought to be called upon to attend school until he is 14."

Mr Preston urged that an educational qualification be required and that dangerous and immoral places, sweat shops and street sales be dealt with.

"This bill is not even a crumb to the labor interests," began Mr. Allan Studholme. "You might as well throw it in the waste paper basket for all the good it will do."

Hon. Mr. Monteith did not regard the age named as a finality. It was a start and the desire was not to make it too radical to obtain enforcement. He told Mr. Studholme he was considering the changing of the 11 o'clock at night hour to 10.

Hon. Mr. Whitney said that while he was prepared to go as far as anyone in preventing the dangers of child labor, he thought to obtain an effectual enforcement of the law it was best to make haste slowly. "As to the newsboys," added the Premier with a smile. "I fancy those I have come in contact with can be let alone. They will make their way in the world."

The bill was given its second reading.

SUFFRAGETTES SCORE.

Women's Enfranchisement Bill Passes Its First Reading.

London, Feb. 29.—The Women's Enfranchisement Bill passed its first reading in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon by a vote of 271 to 92, and as soon as the news reached Westminster Palace the waiting crowds of women suffragists who had assembled there broke out in round after round of cheers.

The measure is identical with the bill defeated March, 1907. Herbert Gladstone, the Home Secretary, declared that personally he favored the principles of the bill, but he thought that public opinion would have to be moved before any effort could be given to it.

The opponents to the bill made no objection to the vote of the House being taken, and as its promoters consented to its reference to a committee of the whole House, the bill is effectually shelved for the present session.

Great crowds of women awaited the result near the House of Commons and strong detachments of police had been brought up to guard against possible disturbance, but beyond cheering there was little demonstration.

LICENSE BILL CONDEMNED.

Opposition Press Denounce New Measure—Balfour Says "Robbery."

London, Feb. 29.—Chancellor Asquith's bold and drastic licensing bill, which was introduced in the House of Commons Thursday is raising a storm of denunciation in the Opposition press.

Mr. Balfour gave his party a lead in a brief speech stigmatizing the measure as "robbery."

The tremendous strength of the brewing interests throughout the country will be brought to bear in an endeavor to prevent the passage of the bill or to obtain an extensive amendment, especially as in the direction of securing a longer time limit than fourteen years, which is regarded as likely to inflict serious injury to the interests of the shareholders of brewing companies representing a capital of $1,200,000,000.

Some of the Unionists regard the bill as another move in the campaign against the House of Lords.

The best opinion in the lobby, however, favored the view that Mr. Asquith is asking much more than he hopes to obtain, and that the bill would pass in greatly amended form.

Monk a Murderer.

Verkhoturye, Perm, Russia, Feb. 29. —The Circuit Court of this town yesterday meted out partial justice to a monk of the Greek Church named Feodotoff, whose criminal and iniquitous life was revealed last fall, by sentencing him to penal servitude for 15 years.

Feodotoff came to Verkhoturye from another province about two years ago, and set up a shrine in a neighboring forest, where he lived as a hermit. He soon attained a great reputation for marvellous cures, and his little chapel in the solitude of the woods became the objective for pilgrimages from all parts of the province of Perm. The monk enjoyed a great reputation for sanctity but when the revelations came it was learned that his holy ways and words were nothing but a cloak for robbery, murder and debauchery of every kind. The repeated disappearance of female pilgrims who visited the monk's chapel finally attracted the attention of the authorities, and resulted in a careful investigation. This disclosed the bodies of no less than 20 victims whom Feodotoff had murdered and then buried in the cellar of his house.

Effort to Save Terrorists.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 29.—That the sentence of death imposed Thursday against Calvino, the Italian newspaper correspondent, and six other terrorists who were convicted of complicity in the recent plot upon the lives of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaivitch and Chtcheglovitoff, the Minister of Justice, will not be carried into effect without an effort being made to save them was made manifest yesterday, when an appeal based on constitutional grounds and involving the competency of the Douma was lodged with Gen. Hasenkampf, chief of the general staff.

Run Over by a Train.

Woodstock, Feb. 29.—Leonard Coutts of London, an engineer on the G.T.R. was killed some time Thursday night on the G.T.R., just west of the station. His body was torn and mangled into a thousand pieces, and conditions looked as though it had been run over by a dozen trains. The head was left intact, and by this he was identified. Sectionmen going to work yesterday morning discovered the gruesome spectacle, and with their shovels they loaded the parts of the body in a wheelbarrow and had it sent up town.

Broken Rail Ditches Train.

Ottawa, Feb. 29.—A broken rail at Eganville Junction caused a wreck to the overland express, No. 96, on the C.P.R. yesterday morning at 6.58. The engine and one car got over the break, but the others went off the track. The sleeper, dining-car and express car went down the embankment, while the mail car was placed crosswise on the track. The other cars were derailed, but did not go over.

It was marvelous that no one was seriously injured. The rolling stock was much damaged.

Bridgeburg, Ont., Feb. 29.—A nervy robbery was perpetrated here Thursday night, when a stranger entered one of the leading stores about 7 o'clock in the evening and walked off with a cash box containing $200.

WRECKED SHAH'S AUTO

Two Bombs Hurled From Roof Killed Three Outriders.

Royal Motor Car Had Been Sent Ahead as a Decoy—Persian Ruler Was Following In Closed Carriage and Escaped Assassins—Many People Wounded — No Arrests Have Yet Been Made.

Teheran, Persia, Feb. 29.—An attempt was made in this city yesterday afternoon to assassinate the Shah of Persia by a bomb. His Majesty was not hurt. Three of the outriders who were accompanying him at the time were killed.

The Shah owes his escape to the precautions taken to protect him from just such an attempt as was made. He was on his way to a nearby town, where he intended to pass a few days. The procession had left the palace and was traversing a narrow street, when two bombs were hurled at it from the roof of a house. One exploded in the air, but the other struck the ground near the Shah's automobile. This missile killed the three outriders, wounding the chauffeur and a score of bystanders and shattered the vehicle.

The Shah, however, was not in his automobile, having taken the precaution to send the motor car on ahead and ride himself in a carriage further in the rear of the procession. The motor car was a closed one, and it was thought that the sovereign was inside.

As soon as the Shah heard the explosions he alighted hurriedly from his carriage and entered a neighboring house. Here he remained quietly while his attendants sent word for a detachment of troops. The soldiers were hurried to the scene and formed in front of the house where the Shah was. He then came out, and, surrounded by a bodyguard, returned to the palace.

The house from which the bombs were thrown and the buildings nearby, were searched by the police, but no arrests were made.

BOMB FOR PRESIDENT.

Bold Attempt on Life of Head of Republic at Buenos Ayres.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 29.—A dynamite bomb was thrown against a carriage in which President Alcorta was driving, but failed to explode.

Four persons were arrested charged with complicity in the plot.

Recently there has been political unrest in Argentina owing to the issuance, Jan. 26, of an executive decree closing the extraordinary sessions of congress, and putting into effect for the current financial year the budget of 1907. This extreme measure was made necessary by the obstructive tactics of a majority in the Senate which made impossible the passage of the budget or other legislation, leaving the Government powerless to meet ordinary expenses. President Alcorta announced at the time that the Government was prepared promptly to suppress any subversive or violent movement on the part of the Opposition, and on Jan. 27 large forces of police prevented the Senators and Deputies from attempting to take possession of the Parliamentary halls. It was stated at the time that the decree of President Alcorta was approved by a majority of the people.

Boy Murderer Is Penitent.

Detroit, Feb. 29.—"Mother, just wait until I get paroled, then I'm going to be God's own child and devote myself to saving lost souls."

This passage was contained in a letter that Percy Bowin, the self-confessed slayer of Mrs. Cornelia Welch, wrote to his mother in Woodstock, Ont., Thursday.

Apparently Bowin has little hope of acquittal of the charge of murder for which he is to be tried soon, as in the letter he made no reference to the approaching trial except to express the hope that she would be there. The whole letter was filled with expressions of penitence and determination to lead an exemplary life when he regains his freedom.

The letter was the result of several days of hard labor on the part of Bowin, who is anything but a scholar. The missive was scrawled, blotted and misspelled, but he finally finished it, and it was forwarded to the brokenhearted mother in Woodstock yesterday morning.

On several occasions recently, the despatch says, suspicious persons have been arrested while trying to approach King Alfonso. The authorities, however, maintain strict secrecy about these arrests. Extraordinary precautions have been taken to safeguard the King.

British Flag Good Enough.

Montreal, Feb. 29.—"The British flag is good enough for us," constitutes the head lines of a very outspoken article in last evening's La Patrie referring to Dr. Thompson's independence speech in the House of Commons.

"We are aware," says La Patrie, "that a few people in Canada have had dreams of independence, but no one ever thinks of the thing to-day."

An Italian foreman on some construction work going on at that place not far from Sorel wanted to marry a girl named Lamire, but was rejected. In the course of his argument he shot at the girl three times, fracturing her arm, with one shot, also shot her father who rushed to the rescue, and wounded the girl's brother with a stilletto. He was finally disarmed and taken to jail at Sorel.

All Night Sessions are Now in Order at Ottawa

Spectacular Struggle in the House of Commons.

Members Sleep In Relays While Battle Wages Hot—Hon. G. E. Foster Leads the Opposition—Determined to Probe Marine Department Expenditures — Brodeur Begins to Back Down.

Ottawa, Feb. 29.—In the early morning of leap year day the House of Commons is sitting, the Opposition unbending and determined; the Government stubborn and angry. Since 3 o'clock on Thursday afternoon the House has been steadily at it, except for the brief automatic adjournments which 6 o'clock in the evening affords.

The Marine estimates were taken up at midnight on Thursday, when Mr. Foster pitched into Mr. Brodeur for having taken $2,000 from the vote for ice-breakers to pay his expenses at the Imperial Conference. This, he said, was in conformity with the Minister's custom of asking for more money than he wanted for marine services, carrying it about for a long time and then making a refund of the excess.

Mr. Brodeur angrily retorted that this was tantamount to a charge of dishonesty.

Not one cent would the Opposition vote for the Marine Department. Hon. George E. Foster went to bed at 4 a.m. and Mr. Taylor assumed the leadership, R. L. Borden being in Montreal.

The Minister of Marine and Minister of Finance remained all night in their seats and a quorum was maintained. Sir Wilfrid was in his seat yesterday morning until 2.30.

History Repeats Itself.

On the subject of returns, Hon. Mr. Brodeur asserted that he had brought down this session more returns than any other Minister of the Crown had ever been called upon to produce since Confederation. Returns had already been made to the House in regard to his Departmental audit and in regard also to the expenditures of his mission to London and Paris.

If there were any missing letters in these returns they would be procured at once.

But still the Opposition would not budge. "We say," said Dr. Sproule, "that there are no non-contentious items in the estimates for this Department."

During the night Mr. Boyce (Algoma) read at great length from the report of the committee of last session as to the cruise of the Government steamer Arctic to Hudson Bay. When he got through Mr. Leonard (Laval) read the same evidence over in French.

F. D. Monk, too, engaged the attention of the House at great length in both languages. Dr. Sproule and George Taylor (Conservative whip) complained that Hon. Mr. Brodeur's record was one of extravagance as an administrator.

Mr. Brodeur Complains.

The occasion recalls the record made by the opponents of the Franchise Act in 1885, when the House was in session from Thursday afternoon till Saturday midnight. This occasion was made famous by the speech of Edward Blake, who kept one eye on the clock the last ten minutes before midnight, while the Liberal members and crowded galleries kept up a sustained applause.

The First Breathing Spell.

Along about noon Mr. Bennett of Simcoe had the floor and devoted himself to eliciting information from Mr. Brodeur as to an item of $4,000 for the board of the expert accountants brought to Ottawa from New York to change the system of bookkeeping in the Marine Department. The accountants charged $3, $4 and $5 a day for board. But it so happened that Wm. L. Jackson of Elgin stayed at the same boarding-house with two of them and the rate there was not over $1 a day. Moreover, Mr. Brodeur said the vouchers were to be produced. There were no vouchers produced.

Dr. Barr declared that Ministers "suffering from swelled head or something were responsible for this situation." Of all Departments he said the marine was the most suspicious, and all session there had been rumors of its being "rotten to the core." He kept up the talking till the Speaker left the chair for the 6 o'clock recess.

This was the first break since 6 o'clock Thursday night. It is automatic, and gives both sides a breathing spell.

Members Sang "O Canada."

The departure of the Speaker was marked by the singing of "O Canada" by Dr. Beland of Beauce and the French-Canadian contingent.

On resuming Mr. Blain (Peel) asked the Minister to state the address of the firm of accountants employed by the Government to change the system of bookkeeping in the Marine Department. The Minister of Marine had misled the House when he said the firm was located in Montreal, as the accounts showed traveling expenses to and from New York paid by the Government.

Mr. Brodeur, however, was silent, except that he backed up Duncan Ross of Yale-Cariboo in demanding that the Peel man stick closely to the item before the committee. Later on he said he refused to answer questions not pertinent to the item. But Mr. Blain went on and there was an uproar, several members attempting to speak to the point of order and both sides getting so far away from it that the Deputy Speaker did not make a ruling.

Finally, Mr. Foster discoursed on the wisdom of invoking the strict rules while in committee of supply.

Liberal Cohorts Jeered.

"The Government's life," said Mr. Foster, "absolutely depends, and its comfort as well, upon the courtesy of the Opposition." While repeating this defi in other forms the Liberal cohorts jeered.

Duncan Ross attempted to silence Mr. Foster by again working the rule, but was set down by Deputy Speaker Marcil, who declared that the North Toronto man had the floor.

"He might as well learn to do it now as later," said Mr. Foster, in offering the advice to the Minister of Marine that it pays to be frank and accurate. He has to live with us longer than midnight Saturday. One of the Minister's faults is lack of frankness, another is lack of accuracy."

At length Mr. Brodeur was urged to his feet. If the Opposition wanted to be treated fairly, it should treat the other side fairly, he said.

Foster Invites Brodeur.

After ten last night Mr. Foster noted the absence of the Minister. In the afternoon Mr. Brodeur had complained that he (Foster) had [illegible] "vicious attack" upon him. [illegible] Mr. Foster proposed to give the [illegible] of the statement he made, but the Minister was not in his seat.

Mr. Fisher, who was leading the House, sent the chief whip for Mr. Brodeur, who came in amid Liberal applause.

Mr. Foster detailed the Falconer transaction and his comment upon the looseness of Mr. Brodeur in making a verbal contract involving a large amount was severe.

Afternoon and evening Lanctot (Richelieu) created amusement by interrupting English-speaking members with explosive ejaculations which the Speaker did not understand.

Mr. Foster turned his guns on Lanctot, but it did no good.

Mr. Lanctot's words and gestures indicated a belief that Mr. Foster was making a violent attack on the French-Canadian race in the person of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

At 1.30 this morning it looked like a surrender on the part of Brodeur. He asked for an hour to get the papers complete, and left the Assembly.

RUMBLINGS IN SENATE.

Virtues of Montreal Find a Champion —Long Rest For Senators.

Ottawa, Feb. 29.—Senator R. W. Scott's statement, that crime was rampant in Montreal, brought on a spirited discussion in the Upper Chamber yesterday, Senator Cloran declaring that the law was enforced in the Canadian metropolis just as much as in Ottawa. He demanded that the Government take further measures to prevent the criminal class coming to Canada.

Senator David said the Secretary of State had the right to defend the Government and show that they are not responsible for everything that happens in Canada, but it was not necessary for him to attack Montreal. Senator David said he was obliged to criticize the statement attributed to the Secretary, that Montreal had a body of police who committed crime for $5, and that fact was an inducement to commit crime.

Hon. Mr. Scott said he had not intended to convey this.

The Senate adjourned until March 10.

STORK BRINGS SIX.

Physicians Declare the Case the Most Remarkable Ever Known.

Steubenville, Ohio, Feb. 29—Six perfectly formed children were born here yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell. Three of the infants died within an hour after birth. One boy and girl will live, it is said. Three were boys. Mrs. Campbell weighs less than a hundred pounds. The combined weight of the infants was 23 pounds. Physicians declare the case to be one of the most remarkable known. Campbell is a millworker and has four brothers. To the family of two of these, twins have been born, and each of the other brothers is father of triplets.

Campbell's first wife died after becoming the mother of triplets.

Campbell was for twelve years in the U. S. navy and fought under Schley off Santiago.

Riot at Fredericton.

Fredericton, N.B., Feb. 29.—A wild riot took place at the rink here on Thursday night, caused by the arrest of one of the Moncton hockey team players on account of his actions in a previous game. The result was that the game was not played at all, the referee deciding in favor of the Fredericton team. The people became greatly excited and demanded their money back, breaking windows and destroying other property. Amateur hockey received its deathblow. There has always been great bitterness between the two teams, and the climax came last night.

May Give Up Congo State.

Brussels, Feb. 29.—The recent debate in the British House of Commons and the speech of Sir Edward Grey relative to the Congo situation has caused a deep impression in political circles.

It is reported that King Leopold now demands a civil list of $[illegible] from the Congo and the various parties are showing signs of impatience.

It is even considered probable that the Belgian Parliament will abandon the Congo Free State altogether unless a prompt decision is reached.

Russian Naval Setback.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 29.—The project for the rebuilding of the Russian fleet has received a setback as a result of the attitude taken by the Ministry of Finance which sees no possibility, under the present circumstances, of the country raising the funds needed for the construction of a great and powerful navy. The naval estimates submitted amounted to $1,000,000,000 for ten years' construction.

Fire In Montreal.

Montreal, Feb. 29.—There was a small fire last evening at the Incurable Hospital, Cote De Neiges, but the 250 inmates were undisturbed and little or no damage was sustained.

Paint Factory Burned.

Ottawa, Feb. 29.—The Ottawa Paint Works factory was completely gutted by fire yesterday.

Painting of the Statue Will be Investigated

It is learned on authority that the Provincial Treasurer, Hon. Col. Matheson will hold an investigation into the painting of Miss Wallis' statue after it was placed in the museum at Toronto. The painting of the statue "Mercury charmed with his own invention" was ordered to be done by David Boyle, curator of the provincial museum. The government has already taken out of Mr. Boyle's hands the right to purchase any works of art for the museum and the investigation will decide who is to compensate Miss Wallis for the loss she has sustained.

It appears that when the statue of Mercury was placed in the museum several weeks ago, Mr. Boyle thought it was not just spick and span enough so he ordered that it be given a coat of paint. This was done and of course considerable damage resulted.

Painting of the Statue Will be Investigated

It is learned on authority that the Provincial Treasurer, Hon. Col. Mathieson will hold an investigation into the painting of Miss Wallis' statue after it was placed in the museum at Toronto. The painting of the statue "Mercury charmed with his own invention." was ordered to be done by David Boyle, curator of the provincial museum. The government has already taken out of Mr. Boyle's hands the right to purchase any works of art for the museum and the investigation will decide who is to compensate Miss Wallis for the loss she has sustained.

It appears that when the statue of Mercury was placed in the museum several weeks ago, Mr. Boyle thought it was not just spick and span enough so he ordered that it be given a coat of paint. This was done and of course considerable damage resulted.

Sulphur Wrecks a Mill; Employees Horribly Burned

Six Men Terribly Burned by Explosion at Brooklyn.

Spark From Grinding Mill Ignited Powdered Sulphur — The Victims' Clothes Torn Off — Bodies Dreadfully Torn and Injured—Driver on Passing Truck Has Skull Fractured by the Falling Roof.

New York, March 2.—Six employes of the National Sulphur Co. mill in Brooklyn were terribly burned and lacerated by the explosion of sulphur in the company's plant Saturday. A driver of a passing truck was struck and his skull fractured by a section of the roof which was blown off the building.

The factory was destroyed by fire, with a loss of about $100,000.

The burned building was a four-storey brick structure on Kent avenue, Brooklyn, the rear of the building extending to Wall, about creek. The six employes were at work in the milling section grinding sulphur, when it is supposed a spark from one of the grinding machines ignited the powdered sulphur, causing a series of heavy explosions.

The rear wall of the mill was burnt, one of the side walls was bulged outward until it threatened to crash a small building adjoining, and a section of the roof was torn off and thrown 120 feet over the front portion of the mill into the middle of Kent avenue.

The six victims, Thomas Hogarty, William McCullough, Robert Kerr, William Dischend, Jeremiah Egan and Thomas Williger, were found unconscious by the other employes, who rushed into the milling room after the explosion. Much of their clothing had been torn off by the explosion and their bodies were terribly torn and burned.

So far as it is known, all of the men in that department were taken from the mill and hurried to hospitals, but several are thought to be fatally injured.

The big section of the roof which was blown into Kent avenue fell upon a coal truck driven by William Clark, which was passing, fracturing Clark's skull and injuring him internally. He may not recover.

They Talked Till Midnight; Long Session at Last Over

House Had Been in Session For Fifty-Seven Hours.

Mr. Fielding Moved the Adjournment—Said Members Must Keep Sabbath—Return For Which Opposition Have Been Fighting to Be Brought Down To-Day—Attack on Brodeur May Be Renewed.

Ottawa, March 2.—At 5 minutes before 12 o'clock Saturday night, the longest sitting of the House of Commons since 1896 was brought to a close.

At that moment Hon. W. S. Fielding rose, while Jacques Bureau, Solicitor-General, was speaking, and said as it was the desire of the House to observe the Sabbath he would move that the committee rise and report progress. This done, he moved the adjournment of the House.

The House had been continuously in session 57 hours, or from 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, except for the automatic dinner recess from 6 to 8 p.m. each day.

On Monday the full return for which the Opposition fought for three days will be laid on the table. Mr. Brodeur had it on Friday, but could not produce it in due form while the House was in committee. The return relates to the appointment of a firm of New York accountants for the purpose of changing the system of bookkeeping in the Department of Marine and Fisheries. It was because these papers were not available that the Opposition threatened to refuse supply for this Department. A partial return was tabled, and on Friday Mr. Brodeur met the demand of the Opposition by promising to get the missing papers if given an hour away from the House. He did leave the House and return with a bulky volume, but the Government was obstinate in the attempt to force through a number of items before the rising of the committee.

Monday is private members' day, and till the order paper is cleared the Government cannot get back into supply. Tuesday is a Government day, and then the order of business will probably be the French treaty and the Marine estimates.

If the Minister of Marine and Fisheries shows a disposition to supply the House with full information regarding the expenditures of his Department, he may not encounter further obstacles, though he will not be immune from attack for what the Opposition claim has been gross extravagance and mismanagement.

No Exciting Climax.

The last hours of the long sitting were not marked by any exciting incidents. Late in the afternoon Mr. Bergeron (Beauharnois) suggested that the committee leave the item on which it had spent three days to pass a few uncontested items and rise. This, said Mr. Fielding, was what the Government had been contending for. Mr. Bergeron was not aware of this, however, and the Opposition continued to contest the voting of any supply for the Marine Department.

In the evening the galleries were filled with spectators, most of whom remained till midnight. Gerald White (Renfrew) began by filling in a couple of hours by reading from Hansard, and was followed by Mr. Henderson (Halton), who took up the accounts for outfitting the Arctic. He discovered that eighty dozen pairs of shirts and drawers were bought for the thirty-seven members of the crew, and other necessaries in like proportion. The cargo of liquors and cigars for the crew was enumerated, and provided much innocent diversion, during which the Minister of Agriculture promised to send him a box of Canadian leaf cigars, a burst of generosity that afforded much amusement. Presently a huge box, containing a 15-cent cigar, was carried across the floor to the member for Halton.

Mr. Foster re-entered the Chamber after 11 o'clock. He had been at the press gallery dinner, and his return brought Jacques Bureau to his feet. Foster was railed for doing what he had condemned in Mr. Brodeur, namely, taking an amount from an appropriation for improving trade relations and applying it towards the expenses of a trip to the West Indies. This, in the opinion of Mr. Bureau, was as serious an offence as that charged against Mr. Brodeur.

Mr. Bureau talked till 11.55, when Mr. Fielding moved the House out of committee.

Mauretania's Short Turn.

New York, March 2.—Clever seamanship on the part of Capt. Pritchard of the Cunard steamship Mauretania, arrived Saturday, permitted him to get his passengers who live here to their own tables for dinner.

He manoeuvred his ship, which had been swung around by the wind and tide at Quarantine, so as to get her bow pointed toward the dock, by working the propellers in different directions and circling the boat in a narrow part of the bay. This has been done before with smaller ships, but is considered remarkable work for a vessel of the size of the Mauretania.

Strange Suicide.

Montreal, March 2.—J. S. White of Ottawa, who came here Saturday and put up at the St. James Hotel, killed himself during the night. Yesterday he was found dead with a bullet-hole in his abdomen and a revolver lying on the table.

Mr. White is proprietor of a business college in Ottawa. It is supposed he came down to see the hockey match, but it is certain that he never left the hotel during the evening.

An Ottawa despatch says White was clever but eccentric and addicted to drink.

Edison Out of Danger.

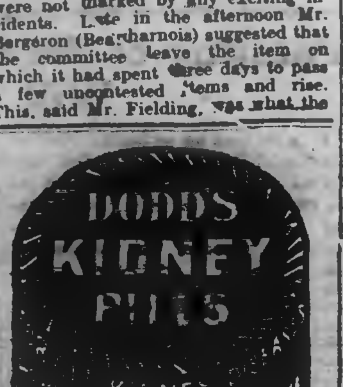
New York, March 2.—Thomas A. Edison was yesterday morning pronounced out of danger.

A Suicide At Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, March 2.—In a fit of despondency brought on by financial troubles and ill-health, Alexander Ross, a well-known tailor, committed suicide Sunday afternoon in his store on James street, by shooting himself through the mouth. He had been in the city seventeen years and took part in the Northwest rebellion with the 90th Regiment.

Brodeur to Resign.

Ottawa, March 2.—It is persistently rumored here that Hon. Mr. Brodeur has determined to resign in consequence of the lack of support given him by his colleagues during the 57-hour deadlock.



HON. A. C. KILLAM DEAD.

Chairman of Railway Board Collapsed Suddenly on Sunday Morning.

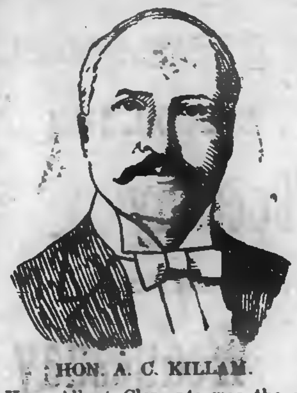
Ottawa, March 2.—Hon. A. C. Killam, chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, died at nine o'clock Sunday morning at the Russell House. Ten days ago Judge Killam contracted a cold, which confined him to his house for several days, but he recovered sufficiently to be able to be around on Monday.

Thursday a relapse came, and pneumonia developed. He was under the care of Dr. Powell, and serious complications were not looked for until half an hour before his death, when he suddenly collapsed.

Mrs. Killam, who came to Ottawa about two weeks ago, was with him when he passed away. The chief commissioner leaves one son, George Knight of Winnipeg.

Judge Killam was appointed chief commissioner in February, 1905. He was appointed a judge of the High Court of Manitoba by Sir John Macdonald in 1885, and in 1903 was appointed to the Supreme Court.

He was born in 1849 at Yarmouth, N.S., and graduated from Toronto University, being admitted to the Ontario Bar.



HON. A. C. KILLAM.

Hon. Albert Clements was the son of the late George Killam of Yarmouth, N.S., and grandson of the late Thomas Killam, formerly M. P. for Yarmouth. He was born Sept. 18, 1849, and graduated from the University of Toronto, capturing with his B.A. degree in 1872 the silver medal in mathematics and moderns and the Prince of Wales' prize.

In 1877 he was called to the Ontario Bar, and practiced in Windsor, Ont., until 1889, when he removed to Manitoba. In 1884 he was appointed Q.C. by the Marquis of Lansdowne. He represented South Winnipeg in the Manitoba Legislature from the general election in 1883 to his elevation to the bench in 1885.

In 1877 Mr. Killam married Minnie, youngest daughter of the late R. A. Whyte of Windsor.

The more recent honors which have fallen to Justice Killam are well-known to the public.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific he has become by the nature of his duties on the Railway Commission a widely known figure.

Russia's Bad Plight.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—A committee of representatives of the trades and industry of Russia has issued a statistical report on the industrial activity of the empire for the last ten years, which throws a gloomy light upon the present economic conditions.

Up to the year 1900 the coal production and the output of cast iron progressed. Both have fallen off since then. The export of cereals fell during 1898 to 1900, when the coal and iron industries were prosperous, but rose as soon as the industrial crisis appeared. There was a great decrease in the volume of all freight by rail and river at this time.

Between 1901 and 1905 industrial companies with a capital of over $85,000,000 went into liquidation, and others with a capital of nearly $25,000,000 made arrangements with their creditors. The average rate of dividend paid by most undertakings in recent years has been lower than the state bank rate of discount. Direct and indirect taxation has risen 20 per cent., to 19s. 2d., or $4.79 per head. The amount raised by this taxation in 1897 was $501,283,655, and in 1907 $713,577,125.

Tampa Fireswept.

Tampa, Fla., March 2.—The entire extreme northeastern section of the city proper was destroyed by fire yesterday. The area burned covered fifty-five acres and three hundred and eight buildings were destroyed with a loss estimated at $600,000, including four large and one small cigar factory, and numerous restaurants, saloons, boarding-houses and over two hundred dwellings occupied by cigarmakers.

The factories burned and the losses sustained were M. Stachelberg & Co., $100,000; M. Peres & Co., $50,000; Gonzales Fisher & Co., $40,000; Esberg, Gunst & Co., branch office, Stachelberg, $40,000, and Fernandez & Bro., $20,000.

Skeletons a Murder Clue.

New York, March 2.—Workmen excavating for a new building on Oak street, near the waterfront, found the remains of two or three human skeletons in the bottom of an old and long disused cesspool.

Many years ago there was a sailor's boarding house and saloon on the spot and the police believe that the skeletons are those of sailors who were robbed and murdered.

Costly Fire at Marseilles.

Marseilles, March 2.—There was a large fire Saturday morning on the docks in a warehouse belonging to the Chamber of Commerce. The damage amounted to several million francs. The warehouse, which covered an area of 10,000 square yards, were filled with inflammable material.

Burglars at Belleville.

Belleville, March 2.—Someone broke into the office of the Mac Machine Co. and stole $20 from the cash drawer in a desk. The police have no clue.

Three Men Killed and One Mortally Wounded.

Workmen In Kentucky Camp Quarrelled Over Dispute Which Their Children Had Had—Several Shots Fired With Deadly Effect—Three of Them Found Dead When Fight Was Over.

Evelyn, Ky., March 2.—Three men were killed and a fourth was mortally wounded in a battle with revolvers in a quarrel in the logging camp of Congalton & Williams Bros., on Rose Creek, near here.

John Hamilton, James Bowles, Richard Spicer and George Frazier had been working, together with about 79 other men, hauling lumber and staves. The children of Bowles and Frazier had disputes with those of Spicer and Hamilton. The men quarreled over the matter at they worked.

Finally Bowles whipped out a revolver and began firing. He killed Hamilton instantly and shot Spicer in the leg. By this time Spicer had drawn his revolver and was firing at Bowles, when Frazier joined in the shooting. When the smoke cleared away it was found that Spicer was dead, with two bullets in his chest, and Bowles had been killed with a ball through the heart.

Frazier was shot through the abdomen and will die.

WEALTHY WOMAN SHOT.

Mining Engineer Admits Murder, But Says She Threw Acid.

Los Angeles, March 2.—A quarrel over financial matters is accepted by the police as the most likely origin of a murder committed early Saturday, when Mrs. Charlotte L. Noyes, a young widow, who came from Boston about five months ago, was shot and instantly killed in her apartments in the fashionable West Lake district by W. P. McComas, a mining engineer, who has been paying her attention.

The slayer reported to the police that Mrs. Noyes had attempted to fling a cupful of sulphuric acid in his face; that he shot at the ceiling to frighten her, and that he then fired to protect himself, exhibiting in proof of his statement acid burns on his face, which required treatment at the receiving hospital.

The detectives express a belief that he deliberately applied the acid to his face. Mrs. Noyes was apparently quite wealthy.

When asked for a statement, McComas stated to the police: "I have known the woman for five years, and she has been bothering me. I could not stand it longer, and put an end to it."

The revolver which McComas used is said by the police to contradict his claim of self-defence. It shows that between the first and second discharge of the weapon the hammer fell upon two other cartridges, which failed to explode. In addition to this, although McComas claims to have fired once at the ceiling, both bullets were found in the body of his victim.

Detectives who searched the elaborately-furnished apartments of Mrs. Noyes discovered a sheet of paper, presumed to contain an account of the operations of McComas and Mrs. Noyes at the race-track. It showed heavy winning up to two weeks ago, but the total losses, all seemingly during the last few days, amounted to between $3,000 and $5,000. The list was kept in the handwriting of Mrs. Noyes. A bundle of special delivery letters showed that Mrs. Noyes had directed to her daily a statement of "tips" on the races.

Throngs See Murdered Priest.

Paterson, N.J., March 2.—Ten thousand persons yesterday looked upon the face of Rev. Father Leo Heinrichs, C.F.M., at St. Bonaventure's Monastery, of which the murdered priest was for 22 years the pastor.

The body lay in state from noon until 11 o'clock last night, and during the nine hours an unbroken procession of mourners passed the bier.

So great was the throng that a detail of 50 police was required to maintain the formations of two lines that extended for blocks on West 15th street and West 27th street, at the intersection of which the church stands. Through a succession of snow, sleet and rainstorms outside the parishioners stood for hours, patiently awaiting their turns. There was no untoward demonstration.

Italian Fomenters Dispersed.

Rochester, March 2.—Because they were suspected of having anarchistic tendencies and fomenting disorder, about 50 Italians, who had arranged for a meeting in commemoration of the death of Giordano Bruno, burned to death in Rome in 1600, were dispersed by the chief of police and a squad of detectives here yesterday afternoon.

A circular issued by the Italians, calling themselves the "Italian Socialist Federation," drew the attention of the police to the meeting. Among other things this circular said that Bruno was "burned alive by the rascally and infamous ministers of God."

Eighty-One Horses Burned.

Poughkeepsie, March 2.—Eighty-one horses were burned to death in a fire in the livery stable of Sweet & Carman, on Main street this city, yesterday. The fire was discovered in several place at the same time, and is believed to be of incendiary origin. The loss is estimated at $35,000; partly covered by insurance.

Tragedy at Sea.

Norfolk, Va., March 2.—The British steamship Cardiff, Capt. Godwin, which sailed from Baltimore Saturday for Rotterdam, signaled as she turned the tail of the Horseshoe, in Lower Chesapeake Bay, that the captain of the ship had been shot and needed a surgeon. Further details are lacking.

Six new cars have been ordered for the London and Port Stanley electric line.

AMUSEMENTS

On account of her sunny disposition and always smiling countenance Kathryn Osterman was given the title of the laughing-loving actress by a Colorado critic. Speaking of laughter, Miss Osterman has had ample opportunity to study out, not only her own infectious laugh, but that of appreciative audiences as well. In her capacity of comedienne she has evolved a unique philosophy of laughter.

The basis of her theory is that long interludes of serious reposeful thought are essential to all whose business it is to amuse the public; in other words, that constitutional gravity is the only perennial fountain of the sparkling brand of humor that alone makes the reputation of the genuine comedian.

"Proverbially, smiles and tears lie close with the average run of mortals but they at least are generally free from extremes" declares Miss Osterman. "The laugh that calls to yours every time is that rare combination of spontaneity, childlike innocence and silver bells." It is by such a laugh her admirers maintain that Kathryn Osterman will be remembered long after the Girl Who Looks Like Me, is committed to the limbo of the theatrical "has beens." Miss Osterman's infectious laugh has exceptional opportunities, it is said, in her new comedy which will be seen for the first time in this city at the Grand Opera House the latter part of March.

GOOD MUSIC AT CHARLOTTE ST.

The musical portion of the services at Charlotte street yesterday, was given in a thoroughly satisfactory manner.

In the morning Miss Clara Bellegham sang in good voice, "The Brightest Day." Mr. Harold Tanney most acceptably took the solo in the evening anthem.

A feature of the music at the evening's service was a selection rendered unaccompanied by a mixed quartette, consisting of Miss Clara Bellegham and Miss S. Lee, and Messrs. Jas. Browne and Chas. Harmer.

TRAINING DIVERS.

The Way Science Helps These Submarine Workers.

The Admiralty trains divers, and every British warship carries at least one representative of the craft and frequently more. There are training schools at Portsmouth, Devonport and Sheerness.

One of the difficulties with which divers have to contend is probably not realized by a landsman—namely, that the greater the depth the greater is the pressure of water on the man's body and the greater the labor and exhaustion of working. The naval authorities limit their men to a depth of 120 feet. The greatest depth to which a man has descended is said by Siebe to have been 204 feet, and the pressure at that depth was extraordinary—namely, eighty-eight and one-half pounds to the square inch. One wonders how any human being could stand it. Twelve fathoms, or about seventy feet, would be enough for most men. The ears and nose would probably begin to bleed, and the pressure on the head would be very serious. A practiced diver can of course descend much deeper without such unpleasant sensations.

His dress costs more than $500. It is of tanned twill and rubber and made in one piece, with a big opening at the neck. The helmet is of copper and screws on to the shoulders so tightly that the water cannot penetrate the joint. Air is pumped down to him by a pipe made of canvas and rubber, and outlet valves, which only open outwardly, are placed at convenient places to permit the vitiated air to escape. These valves are extremely important, as by them the diver can regulate his supply of air.

In addition to this pipe the diver has a life line, enabling him to communicate with his assistants above water. This was formerly done by a series of concerted tugs or jerks on the line, but that method has been superseded as a means of communication by the telephone, the wires being conveyed by the life line. He therefore touches the button and talks as if he were in the city.

Another great improvement is the use of the electric lamp, though in some West Indian waters a diver can see clearly for some distance. In other waters, again, the darkness is intense twenty or thirty feet down. The weight of the dress is extraordinary and is necessary to enable the diver to maintain his stability. His helmet weighs considerably over a quarter of a hundredweight, and his boots, taken together, weigh about as much, while if these be not sufficient he claps lead upon his shoulders.

THE MAIL-RUNNER.

Interesting Facts About the Indian Postman.

The mail-runner still plays a large part in spreading the network of posts over the face of India, though at the present day, according to Sir Arthur Fanshawe, in "Blackwood's," he takes up his wallet only when the railway, the river steamer, and the mailcart have done their work. He is usually recruited from the laboring or peasant classes, but in the wilder regions the hill and forest tribes have been enlisted in the service of the post. In the Central Provinces, the mail-wallet is borne by the Gond over the forest roads of the Satpura highlands; alike in Rajputana, in Central India, and in the northrn districts of Bombay, the Bhil has long been a trusty servant of the Department; in Burma the Shan now carries the post across his own wild hills; and in Assam the Naga has exchanged his tufted spear for the peaceful staff of the runner.

This staff, which is sometimes carried in the hand, and sometimes used over the shoulder to help to support the weight of the mail-wallet, has a small spear-head of its own, below which is fastened a cluster of tiny, rough, metal bells. The sound of these bells is familiar to everyone who has lived in India, and serves to scare away wild animals when the runner is passing along lonely roads. The wallet is fastened knapsack-fashion on the back, being usually secured by the runner's cloth, passing under the left arm and over the right shoulder and knotted on the chest. In Western and Southern India, however, the mail-bag is sometimes balanced on the runner's flat turban, so that in the moist heat he is able to run with his body bare to the waist.

Of Practical Use.

"Well, Jack, what are you studying in economics?"

"Graft, father."

"Now, of what earthly use will that ever be to you?"

"Oh, I dunno. Say, dad, for twenty plunks I won't let mother know why you were late to dinner last night, and I'll fix it so you can go to the club this evening."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

PASSPORTS WERE FORGERIES.

Calvino Not an Italian Journalist—Premier's Narrow Escape.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—Gen. Hazenkampf, chief of the general staff, over-ruling the plea of counsel for the defence, has confirmed the death sentence passed by a court-martial on the seven terrorists, including the mysterious Italian Calvino, who were convicted of complicity in the plot against the lives of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaivitch and M. Chtcheglovitoff, Minister of Justice.

A new trial for the condemned men had been asked on the ground that the verdict of the military court is invalid, since the state of extraordinary security ceased to exist in St. Petersburg in January, and that the general statute establishing various classes of military law, promulgated in 1881, had expired in August, 1907.

In addition, delay in the execution of the sentence as it affected the Italian Calvino, was originally sought by the Italian ambassador, Signor Melegari, but yesterday the ambassador dropped all his efforts in behalf of the man, having received confirmation of the previous reports that the Italian is not the person he represented himself to be.

When he was arrested the police found on the man a passport apparently issued to Signor Calvino, the St. Petersburg correspondent of two Italian newspapers. The real Calvino is living in Italy, and the documents the terrorist had in his possession have been found to be forgeries.

Gen. Hazenkampf has commuted the sentence passed upon Mlle. Yanchewskaya, a 17-year-old school girl, from fifteen years' imprisonment, to ten years.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—It was learned yesterday that Premier Stolypin had a narrow escape when he delivered the Ministerial statements to the Douma on Nov. 24. The Italian, who was posing as Calvino, was present at this session with a bomb in his pocket. He lay in wait for the Premier in the restaurant, but fortunately for himself the Premier left the building early and did not run across the man.

Russian Terrorists Hanged.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—The seven terrorists who were condemned to death by a court-martial for complicity in a plot against the lives of Grand Duke Nicholas Nichalaievitch and M. Ohtcheglovitoff, Minister of Justice, and whose sentence was confirmed Saturday by Gen. Hazenkampf, chief of the general staff, were hanged at day break yesterday at Lissy Noss Peninsula, opposite Kronstadt.

Among those who suffered death were Calvino, the supposed Italian, who had in his possession, when arrested, a passport issued to the real Calvino, the St. Petersburg correspondent of two Italian papers, and three women, two of whom were 18 and 19 years of age respectively.

BANK TELLER SHOT.

Desperadoes' Daring Attempt at Robbery in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, March 2.—Saturday night about 8 o'clock, while the Logan avenue branch of the Union Bank was open for business, three armed men entered the bank and commanded Teller W. F. Sussex and Manager A. E. Rae to throw up their hands.

Taken by surprise the latter could not reach their own revolvers, but they immediately dropped behind the counter.

The desperadoes promptly fired and Teller Sussex received a ball through the fleshy part of his arm.

The desperadoes, disconcerted by the dropping out of sight and range, and realizing that in a few moments the bankers would like be armed, and fearful that the shot already attracted attention, swiftly walked out unmolested and unnoticed got away. Chances of arrest are said to be slim.

The Union Bank in common with other banks, having savings departments, are accustomed to open Saturday evenings to enable wage-earners promptly to bank a portion of their wages.

Jealous Italian Shoots Wife.

New York, March 2.—In a fit of jealous rage, Giuseppe Aniello crept up behind his wife, who was fondling their nine-months-old baby, in their home in Elizabeth street early Saturday, and fired a charge of shot from a heavy fowling piece into her body. She died instantly. Following the shooting, Aniello himself was so seriously beaten by the brother of the dead woman that it is believed he will die.

Aniello is 46 years old, his wife was 26. They had three children. Aniello was out of work for the last three months. Aniello accused his wife of receiving too many attentions from men who worked with her in the sweat-shop.

Blaze at Hamilton.

Hamilton, March 2.—The service at the Church of St. Thomas was disturbed yesterday by an alarm of fire, but everybody got out safely. The fire was in the Sunday school room, adjoining the church and was caused by the furnace. The flames worked their way up to the attic under the plaster, and the firemen had to tear quite a bit of the plaster off. The damage is about $2,000.

Fatal Iceboat Collision.

Watertown, N.Y., March 2.—In a collision of iceboats sailing at the rate of 50 miles an hour, on the St. Lawrence River, opposite Clayton yesterday, Roy O'Brien, aged 11 years, son of Fred O'Brien, a steamboat engineer at the Thousand Islands, was almost instantly killed, his companion, Roswell Sherman, 13 years of age, was badly injured.

Samuel Turner, of Eugenia Falls, a pioneer of Artemesia, is dead, aged 83 years.

JAPAN DEMANDS APOLOGY.

For Seizure by China of Ship Carrying Arms and Ammunition.

Tokio, March 2.—Japan has demanded that China apologize and pay an indemnity for the seizure of the Japanese steamship Tatsu, at Macao, by Chinese customs officers, but the Foreign Office say that no ultimatum has been sent to China. It also says that the despatch of the cruiser Idsumo to Hong Kong is not intended as a threat. It is certain, however, that Japan will resort to force unless her demands shall be conceded within a reasonable time.

The Portuguese Minister at Pekin supports the Japanese contention, Macao being a Portuguese port, and the rifles and ammunition on board the Tatsu having been regularly consigned to a Portuguese merchant at Macao. China wishes to submit the matter to a mixed court.

The Tatsu was seized by the Chinese authorities on Feb. 7, while anchored in Chinese waters off Macao. She was taken to Canton by a cruiser and three Chinese gunboats. She carried several cases of rifles and thousands of rounds of ammunition. This cargo, it is reported, was destined for Chinese revolutionists, but it was consigned to a Portuguese merchant.

Macao is a seaport town of the Portuguese in China, on the Island of Macao, at the entrance of the Canton River.

Because the arms and ammunition were supposedly intended for revolutionists the Chinese Government felt justified in the seizure.

Arrested at Jail Door.

Brockville, March 2.—The term of two months imposed upon John Larocque, the Montreal man, by the county judge for an attempt upon the life of his brother-in-law, Max Philion, expired Saturday. When he left the jail he was met by a constable, armed with a warrant issued by Philion, whoc harged Larocque with being dangerous to the public safety. At the Police Court the prisoner stated that he had no further grievance against Philion, and it was his intention to return home at once. The magistrate took his own recognisance of $1,000 to keep the peace for one year, and allowed him to go. Since the trouble Philion and his wife have separated, the latter returning to her former home in Montreal.

A plea of guilty to murder in the second degree had been offered by Pisano's counsel, and sentence would have been not less than 20 years was about to be pronounced when the prisoner remonstrated.

"I don't want to go to prison for the rest of my life," he said through an interpreter. "I would rather die. I want to go to the electric chair. Tell the judge I have been abandoned by all my family. Tell him I am all alone, and that I want him to sentence me to die."

The prisoner was sent back to the Tombs to await sentence. Pisano shot and killed Luigi Mapolitano at Hester and Mulberry streets last October when Mapolitano was getting the better of Pisano's brother in a street fight.

First Ordination Since Year 1891

At St. John's Church Yesterday —Ottawa Clergyman Ordained That Year

In connection with the ordination service at St. John's church yesterday it is interesting to note that it was the first ordination in that church since February, 1891. A few days ago it was reported that the last ceremony of this nature was held at St. John's in 1876, but later it was found upon looking up the records that, Rev. W. M. Loucks, the present rector of St. Matthew's church, Ottawa, was ordained here in 1891. Rev. Mr. Loucks was for three years curate at St. John's and conducted the services at All Saints' church, which then was a mission of St. John's church.

Address by Mr. Ames, M.P. Largest Meeting in the History

Of the Young Conservative Club—Address to Workers Only—A Fine Statement of How to Win an Election Honestly.

Mr. Ames, M.P. for St. Antoine division, Montreal, favored Peterborough and the Young Conservative Club on Saturday night with the best address on organization it has been the good fortune of the club to hear. Conservative workers only were invited to hear the address and the crowd responding to the invitation numbering over two hundred and fifty, was an evidence in itself of what may be expected in the way of work and energy at the coming elections. The Examiner of the same date issued an editorial trumpet-call for a meeting of the Liberal Association nominally for the purpose of organizing and getting ready for the local elections only, but no doubt both Dominion and local conventions will be held together. In striking contrast with the disorganization which our contemporary bewails, in its own ranks, is the organization of the Liberal-Conservative party in both the Peterboroughs. Mr. Ames pointed out that the chief necessity in organization lay in reaching the elector not only before but on election day. Having summarized the methods which enabled him to stop the personating and ballot-stuffing that disgraced his division and nearly put his illustrious predecessor Dr. Roddick out of the running Mr. Ames gave by request a short and succinct history of the origin and progress of the fight for original documents in the House of Commons. Word having reached the Conservatives in Parliament, he said, that copies were not always true copies of original documents held in custody of the departments for and on behalf of the people of Canada, an appeal was made to Sir Wilfrid for the originials. This Sir Wilfrid refused. For two weeks the Opposition used the only weapon an opposition has, viz., obstruction, to force Sir Wilfrid to give them the only trustworthy information available, viz., the original documents. At last, in the particular case under consideration he yielded and the revelations began.

Frauds transparent and expensive were visible on every page. But the Government, for which Mr. Fielding spoke, declined to admit any abstract right to original documents on the part of the Opposition. He enunciated the doctrine that a minority had no rights except what the majority may see fit to grant. It took two weeks more to fight this out before the public opinion of the whole of Canada demonstrated the necessity to the Government of changing this contention speedily. No sooner however was the right as a right acknowledged than Sir Wilfrid fell back on the original refusal, in a particular case. It is this question that is now being fought out in the House once more at great expense to the people in money but for their perpetual benefit in the future. Liberty would cease to be liberty instantly that a subservient majority alone has the right to speak and criticise. A muzzled opposition is no opposition at all and the infamous steals of timber limits would never have been discovered in such an event.

A hearty vote of thanks moved by Mr. Burnham and seconded by Mr. Kendry, was carried amid great applause and tendered by the chairman, Ald. Buller, to the speaker of the evening, who replied briefly.

NOTES.

For a crowd, enthusiasm and interest it would be hard to beat Saturday night's meeting.

Mr. Ames is a most able and satisfactory speaker, leaving nothing to be desired either in detail or in the manner of describing it.

Mr. Garvin in the course of an eloquent speech said, "An attempt is being made to show that there is a split in the Conservative party here. There is no such split. We are all united and will do our level best to put our men at the head of the put our men at the head of the poll."

When the Langevin-McGreevy scandal was broached did Sir John refuse the original documents? Certainly not. Conservative leaders and members alike protected the people whom they had gone there to represent.

City Will Likely be Asked To Assist Chemong Indians

It is likely that the Indians of Chemong will make application to the City Council for assistance towards building a floating bridge at The Narrows, reaching from Chemong village to the Ennismore shore. It will be remembered that they made a similar request to the County Council, and that a deputation was appointed to go to Ottawa and press the claims of the Indians for assistance in this connection.

It is understood thatthe County Council does not feel thatthecounty has any more right to grant assistance to the Indians thanhas thecity. The Indians pay no taxes to the county and any trading they do is to the advantage of the city. The county representatives consider that the City Council should interest itself in the matter. It is claimed that the Indians will apply to the city for support in connection with the deputation to Ottawa.

Must Pay for Cup O' Tea; The Price Advances Rapidly

"The cup that cheers, but not inebriates," is growing gradually dearer, much to the annoyance of careful housewives in Peterborough, who have to husband their funds, and who have until lately been able to get tea that was tea as cheap as 20 cents per pound. The dealers admit the advance ,and say that they can see no remedy. On the other hand, they say that 25 cent tea is declining in quality, and that to secure a decent quality it will soon be necessary to charge 30 cents a pound.

To the objections of the housewife who does not like this constantly ascending scale in price, the dealer can only answer that the cost of production has materially increased, and that the output of the tea gardens of the world is diminishing. At the same time the consumption of the beverage has enormously increased. What the tea drinker complains of most seriously, though, is the fact that the quality of the tea has not kept pace with the advance in price. This is his answer to the story of the dealer, who says it was a case of either decreasing the quality of the tea or advancing the price.

It would appear that the statistics bear out the dealer. Last year Ceylon produced 25 million pounds of tea. The area under cultivation has not increased ,while the consumption in England alone increased by four million pounds, and for January, 1908, the proportionate increase was 25 per cent over January, 1907. Indian teas,used largely in package teas in Canada, are in a similar case, while China and Japan teas are in small demand in the Dominion. Thus stands the Canadian situation.

Owners of tea plantations in Ceylon and India say that their estates have been earning by far too small a margin of profit to justify the continuance of the growth of tea; especially as the tea lands are especialy adapted for rubber plants, which give handsome profits. As a matter of fact, the area under cultivation for tea is constantly diminishing, and the rubber plant is taking the place of that giving the tea leaf as a profitable investment.

Jury Objected to in The Ontario Bank Case

Ex-President and Former Directors Believe That They Would Not Get a Fair Trial Before Twelve Ordinary Citizens.

Notice of motion has been given on behalf of Messrs. G. R. R. Cockburn, R. D Perry, Richard Harcourt, Ruleff Grass, Thomas Walmsley and John Flett that an application will be made on Tuesday next before the Master-in-Chambers, for an order changing the trial of the action of the Ontario Bank against them from the jury list to the Non-Jury Assizes.

In a joint affidavit in support set forth that 'owing to the widespread publicity given by the press to the cases of the King against McGill and the King against Cockburn, and owing to the biassed and inflammatory reports and comments of some of the newspapers upon the said case, we verily believe that we will not be able to obtain a fair verdict from a jury upon the intricate questions of fact in issue in the action.

"The failure of the Ontario Bank aroused very great interest by reason of the sensational disclosures that McGill had wrecked the Bank and it was asserted without any foundation in fact, that the directors knew or should have known, of his practices. As a result personal reflections were made upon the directors and the opinion freely expressed in the press and in the city of Toronto that they should be made liable in some way.

"Editorals were written and published, and scareheads were used to excite and keep up public interest. Added to this new directors of the bank advised the shareholders to sue the present defendants and public statements and agreements have been and still are, to the present time being used to keep public attention fixed on this case, and to aid in keeping up the determination to proceed with the suit."

The affidavit goes on to say that at the time of the suspension there were 585 shareholders, "and we believe it would be impossible to select a jury in which some of the members would not be relatives or friends of some of them."

It goes on to set forth that owing to these various circumstances a fair jury trial would be difficult to obtain. The accounts are exceedingly complicated, and no jury could properly understand them. Many mixed questions of care and fact are so intermingled that only a judge can decide them.

Percy L. Patterson, an accountant also makes an affidavit as to the complicated accounts.

A Popular Young Lady Passes Away

Death of Miss Kitty Hurley Occurred on Saturday—Was Clever Pianist

On Saturday afternoon Miss Kitty Hurley passed away at the home of her parents, corner of Hunter and Stewart streets. Her death had been expected for some time. She had for many years been organist of St Peter's Cathedral, and at the same time taught with much success large classes in music, and was generally accounted a pianiste of rare ability. Too close devotion to work brought on failing health. To recuperate she spent the winter of two years ago and last winter in Houston and Galveston, Texas. The benefit, however proved to be merely temporary. Miss Hurley received her education here at St. Peter's Convent School afterwards attending for a time Loretta Convent, Niagara Falls, and the Toronto Conservatory of Music. The deceased was a young lady of affable, gentle and refined manner, universally esteemed at home and beloved by many a friend in the South.

Left behind to miss her winsome presence are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hurley; three sisters, Mrs. R. Coughlan, of Hastings; Mrs. F. J. McCarthey and Miss Lily Hurley, of town, and one brother, Rev. A. E. Hurley of St. Michael's College, Toronto.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. After Requiem Mass at St. Peter's interment will take place at the Catholic cemetery.

CATTLE BUYER LOST DRESSED HOG

Mr. W. A. Stabler called at the police station this afternoon and complained that on Saturday he lost a dressed hog on the market. He bought five of them for Mr. H. P. Kennedy and left them at the market weigh scales. On coming to get them for delivery he found to his great surprise that there were only four instead of five. Mr. Stabler does not suspect anyone of stealing the hog but thinks that it was accidentally carried off by someone who thought it was theirs.

BLUE WOMEN

Women should understand that melancholia, commonly called "the blues," is in nine times out of ten a sure symptom of some serious female organic derangement and should have immediate attention.

Women whose spirits are depressed, and who are ailing and miserable, should rely upon as is evidenced by following letters.

Mrs. R. Gentleman, 1093 St. James Street, Montreal, Quebec, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I suffered from a severe female weakness, and extreme nervousness, and was blue and utterly discouraged.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking several bottles, I am not only cured; but am an entirely different woman, and on the whole a healthier woman than before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Bridgeport, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been suffering from a female trouble, backache and headaches, and was so blue that I was simply in despair. I feel it my duty to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. The change in my appearance is wonderful, and I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

"Hal" Pearson to Speak Here

The members of the cast to produce the piece have their lines well mastered and it is needless to remark that it will be given a thoroughly pleasing interpretation by the competent amateur players of the dramatic section of the TAS.

The action of the society is evidenced of the great regard the members have for the rector of St. Peter's.

HAD SCALP CUT AND RECEIVED A SHAKING UP

A young man named Fred Milton received a nasty cut in the scalp and a rather severe shaking up this morning. He was struck by a farmer's team on Reid street near the corner of Hunter while crossing the road. The driver and another gentleman who was nearby immediately went to his assistance. He did not want to be taken to a physician and at his own request was driven to his boarding house on Aylmer street.

A METHODIST REPLIES

To the Three Presbyterian Professers Who Opposed Church Union.

Kingston, Feb. 28—To the Editor—I have read with much interest the discussion at the meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on church union, and desire to point out a few eccentric utterances made by some of the professors.

Dr. Gordon dealt with the question as submitted by the general assembly to the congregations, but the professors saw the red flag and cried, "Put on the brakes! Danger, danger!"

The mover of the resolution could not get away from a 'grand historical church," "continuity of its history" and therefore desired St. Andrew's to make a deliverance, 'that they were not prepared to hand their splendid inheritance over, to a numerically stronger body." I ask what made the Methodist body stronger?

Prof. Callendar considered union was a 'turning away from a past which should be sacred to every one of them, a surrender of truth and dignity, and a turning to an unknown future." Allow me to say it might be well to "let the dead past bury its dead," and make the future replete with the dignity of Truth, that Truth which draws all men unto itself. Such should be the work of the best and strongest intellects.

Prof. Ferguson deals with the educational side of the question and illustrates his arguments from the time of the Stuarts, when, as he says, the pulpits were filled by men in low class of education but no man knows better than Prof. Ferguson that it was not the lack of education that brought about low morals, but because the pulpits were filled by place seekers, by political renegades, religion not being an essential qualification but the Methodist church, that boasts of only a century and a half of history, was cradled in education and today her pulpits are filled by the brainiest men in the dominion, but she demands piety first. What church should not demand such?

Again, he refers to some remark about giving the Methodists a 'slap in the face." This must not trouble the professor, for the Methodist people will never feel the sting of such a slap, in the face. We do not court union as a benefit for our church or people. One hundred and fifty years of life, growth and usefulness prove that God has been with us in all our work of faith and labor of love, but union would be welcomed by me only as a great factor in the evangelization of the heathen, in the development of Christian ethics, in our North-West with its rapidly increasing population from every class of European nations and as an object lesson for the Christian world.

The professor sees another danger when he says; "The Methodists have 300 ministers on the roll more than we have. We hand ourselves over to the dictation of the Methodist body" as majorities rule. I am sure the Presbyterian church does not fear any trouble from this source, for when the union of the Methodist churches in Canada was consummated worth was counted, therefore, Dr. Carman, leader of one of the weakest bodies was elected to preside over the greater church, and has, under God retained that position ever since. Fear not, merit will gain its own reward and in no place more so than in the Christian church.

When the professor stated that one of the senate of Toronto University said that the union of Victoria Col. was one of the greatest misfortunes to the University, I cannot understand the meaning of such, when, last year, the students of Victoria College carried away the highest honors in the university. "Facts speak louder than words."

"Let union come or let it not come. Methodists have nothing to fear. We will continue to work for the highest good and the future will, as in the past, try our work of what sort it is.

METHODIST LAYMAN

—The Kingston Whig.

Owing to the enormous advance in the price of teas at the gardens during the past eighteen months, The "Salada" Tea Co. have had to raise the price of "Brown Label" from 25c to 30c, and "Green Label" from 30c to 35c per lb. No other changes in prices have been made. The chief reason for this advance in the price of Ceylon Tea is due to two causes; First, the enormously increased demand coming from Russia, which country is abandoning China Tea in favor of the finer teas of Ceylon. The other cause is due to the planting out of Rubber, which is more profitable to the grower than tea.

HEAVY FINE FOR SWEARING ON THE STREETS

Young Man Swore on George St. Last Tuesday Night

For using profane language on George street, on Tuesday night about half past ten o'clock, a youth of 17 years, was fined two dollars and costs amounting to $4.60, in the police court this morning. The young man did not appear in court, but another fellow who was with him was present, and stated that he heard the defendant use filthy language. P. C. Newhall also went into the box and stated that on Tuesday night last he was coming down George street, and about half a dozen young fellows were walking down the street and the filthy language that was used was very disgraceful. There was a lady passing down the street at the time.

"I intend as far as I can to make the punishment for this offence a heavy one," said his Worship. "The ears of respectable pedestrians are not going to be polluted with such profanity.

GIVEN HIGH POSITION IN CANADA LIFE

Mr. Frank Sanderson, M. A. Has Been Appointed Joint General Manager

Toronto, March 2nd.—The Board of Directors of the Canada Life Assurance Company have announced that at their last meeting they appointed Mr. Frank Sanderson, M.A., F.F.A., to be joint General Manager of the Company.

Mr. Sanderson, who has been connected with the Canada Life Assurance Company for seventeen years, was appointed assistant actuary in 1895 on the special recommendation of the former President. In 1900 he was promoted to be chief actuary, with full charge of the acturial department, and of late years he has been closely identified with the executive of the company.

The long illness and recent death of the secretary, Mr. Hills, and the increasing responsibilities thrown upon the President and General Manager in the conduct of its large business, not only in Canada, but in the United States and Great Britain, has made advisable the identification of the acturary of the company in the responsibilities and counsels of the management.

Mr. Sanderson, although he still has his best years before him, has been known in the life insurance world of Canada and the United States for a number of years, and his services to his company will undoubtedly be increasingly valuable in the wider field he is called upon to occupy.

Mr. Sanderson is a native of Smith township and has many friends in Peterborough and vicinity who will be glad to hear of his success.

Snowstorm Again Delays all Trains

Railways Again Experience Difficulty—Trains Very Late To-day

The heavy snowstorm of yesterday and today again caused a gret delay in traffic on the railways. More than in any other year, the winter of 1908 has caused heavy expense and inconvenience to railway concerns. Today the trains are all late many of them being several hours behind scheduled time. On the G.T.R. the train from Belleville, due here at 8.30 did not get in until two o'clock this afternoon. The Toronto train at noon was also very late, not arriving here until about 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The other trains were not so late being in the neighborhood of an hour behind.

On the CPR. the morning train from the East got in about nine o'clock. The noon express from Toronto was an hour and twenty minutes late. Two snowploughs went through on each road and the track is practically all cleared now.

Hartley Finished Fifth in The Big Walking Contest

Peterborough Man Made Splendid Showing and Comes in for a Share of the Prize Money—Hoagland Maintained the Lead and Easily Won First Place.

Contestant:	Miles.
Hoagland	278
Slater	274
Messier	270
Player	267
Hartley	260

Peterborough's pedestrian, David Hartley, finished fifth in the big six-day walking race at Kansas City and comes in for a slice of the prize money. The local man's showing is highly creditable, and citizens have a right to feel proud of the game little walker and his splendid achievement. Hartley was competing against the best heel and toes men in the world, and when it is considered that he was sick on the first day of the race his showing is remarkable. With the exception of Monday, Hartley held his own with the others and showed himself the possessor of both speed and pluck.

A Kansas City despatch says;

The close of the six days' walking match tonight found Hoagland, the champion heel and toe walker of the world, an easy winner with 278 miles to his credit. Slater, of Syracuse, who was sick, and hardly able to navigate during the first days of the grind, was in second place, but four miles behind the leader. The game fight put up by Slater under circumstances which should have kept him out of the race entirely, was easily the feature of the week.

Messier came in for third money, having covered an even 270 miles; while Player, a Kansas City amateur brought up the tail-end of the quartet, with a score of 267 miles. Hartley, of Peterborough, Canada, was the only other remaining man on the track at the close of the race. He had covered 260 miles and 1 lap.

The small distance covered is due to the fact that the men have been walking but ten hours a day since second day of the contest.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 29.—At 7.30 o'clock tonight at the end of the 8th hour, W. A. Hoagland of Auburn, N. Y., had such a safe lead on his nearest competitors that nothing but an accident could prevent his winning the six-day walking match at Convention Hall, which ended at 11 o'clock tonight. The score at 7.30 o'clock was;

Name.	Miles.
Hoagland	262
Slater	257
Messier	2555
Player	250
Hartley	240
Blake	205
Lloyd	157

Of the twenty who entered the race Monday noon, only seven finished. The men who dropped out, could not stand the strain of the contest and most of them succumbed to their weariness the first half of the week. Tom Slater of Syracuse, N.Y., and H. O. Messier of Milwaukee, both made bids for second money, and the outcome was in doubt until the race was finished. H. T. Player of Kansas City, made a great showing against the professionals in the race. It was his first effort in fast company. Dave Hartley of Peterborough, Canada, plodded away, and finished fifth. One of the features of the race was the work of C. G. Blake, a Florida negro. The prize money is divided among the first five men.

OFFICE AND PRODUCTION DEPT. PLAYED

C. G. E. Teams Each Scored a Goal in Game on Saturday—Office Led at Half Time

The hockey game on Saturday night between the C.G.E. office and the production department, played on brook street rink between 6.30 and 8.30 resulted in a draw, the score at full time being 1—1. A large crowd of enthusiastic spectators witnessed the game, which was by no means slow, the score at half time being 1—0 in favor of the quill pushers. During the first part of the second half the pros. managed to tally one making the score read one all. The play was pretty much in the pro's territory in the second half, and it looked as if they would have to buy the oysters, but when the gong sounded, to their relief and joy, the score was 1 all. Mr. R. Hillier gave perfect satisfaction as referee.

It is expected that the game to cide the winners, and who is to pay for the oysters, will take place at Brock street rink on Wednesday next from 7 to 8 o'clock.

RUNNING

Buffalo, N.Y., March 1.—John Tait, of Toronto, was the feature of the 74th Regiment games at the Armory here last night. He won the three mile event in easy style from E. P. Carr, of the Xavier Athletic Club of New York, and demonstrated himself not only a hardy man for the distance, but a heady track man.

At the crack of the gun Car took the pace, closely followed by Tait. For six laps Tait, by easy strides, kept only a few yards behind the New York runner, who was tiring rapidly. On the seventh lap Tait began to sprint, and opened up 15 yards on his rival. After that it was nothing but Tait. For a mile the Toronto boy satisfied himself with a small lead, and then he began to lengthen his stride, and the last five laps of the race were run as easily as the first had been by the Toronto plugger. Carr was tiring fast at the last, and had the race been for any great distance would have collapsed on the track. Tait won by nearly a lap or 175 yards. His time for the three miles was 15 mins. 1 3-5 seconds. The time closely approaches that of the record holder for that distance, George Bonhag.

Robert Kerr, of the Hamilton Y.M.C.A.'s, feat of running the 100-yard dash in 10 sec. flat. from scratch, was another feature. The 74th Regiment won the relay race from the Hamilton Y.M.C.A., but the race was very close and exciting.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

We have received a very badly printed account of the proceedings of a very good body of men and women. We refer to the "Proceedings of the Public and High School Trustees' Department, of the Ontario Educational Association for 1907." The attention of those directly concerned in Peterborough, is hereby called to the necessity of providing delegates for the coming year to represent this district. We do not suppose that the matter has been overlooked, but we have been asked by the association to call public attention to it and we do so with pleasure. That the age of educational fads is over, we sincerely hope. Ontario has passed through a cloud of new ideas evolved out of the heads of new men that has pretty nearly caused the disappearance both of education and common sense in our educational affairs. A child well-drilled and well-directed in the way of finding out for itself, is worth in a few years any number of hot-house plants forced forward, but beyond appearing so, of little real use. The most surprising feature of this educational breakdown is the utter failure of clerks in subordinate positions to show a particle of fitness for office duties. Most of them can neither speak nor write their own language correctly, have little idea of its meaning and in the mechanical department that of the lower mathematics, they are as guiltless of knowledge as they well can be. The "natural" course is again showing itself to be the wise one. Whatever will help to restore it we welcome.

THE OPPOSITION LEADER

Mr. A. G. McKay, the leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Ontario House, has expressed the policy of the Liberals regarding the three-fifths clause. He is against it. He also lays down the principle that in temperance matters a bare majority should rule. The issue is fairly before the people. Mr. Whitney takes a strong stand on the same question and is just as pronounced as ever in favor of the three-fifths clause. The weight of moderate or disinterested public opinion is with him. But it by no means follows that there is not much in favor of the opposite contention. There is a very great deal in favor of it.

The usual way of deciding public matters of public weal is by a bare majority. In most cases it works well. The minority however large, submits, at any rate for the time being. But in such a case as the one we are considering a bare majority cannot be said to represent "public sentiment." The customs of a people cannot be set aside or ignored so easily. If followed out this plan will produce discontent and evoke resentment. Such has been the case in the past and we have no reason to doubt will be the case in the present. The action of the city council of Toronto resulted in a "snap verdict" for the license reducers and while very many men not prohibitionists are in favor of the abolition of the bar, they are not in favor of "snap" work in any case.

It is reported that this recent action by the City Council of Toronto is to be rescinded and then a proper course of action regarding the desired end entered upon. We hope so. No cause can afford to be lowered to the level of "slick work" if it is to accomplish what it purports to be seeking for—the uplifting of the people. That the opponents of reduction and of local option sometimes "do likewise," is no excuse. They make no such pretensions and cannot be judged by the same standard.

TEMPERANCE AND POLITICS

The Peterborough City Temperance League meets on Thursday evening next, at the Y.M.C.A. Rev. A. H. Brace will introduce amongst others the following question for discussion: "Is it right for a church member to be a politician?" We should like to take a hand in the discussion of this question. First of all let us define the word "politician." If a politician be one simply interested in the public and general welfare of his country, then beyond all doubt or cavil whatsoever, a churchmember should be a politician. If, however, as is commonly understood, "politician" is merely another name for "blackguard," then, we submit, he should not become such. Under such circumstances, however, it is a churchman's duty to fight the blackguard, alias politician, with all his might at the polls. No coward's part is his if he would help to preserve what he professes to pray for, the well-being of his country. Granted, however, that the word is taken in its best sense, in that case why should not churches have representatives in Parliament? Why should the laws which govern a country be wholly at the mercy of those who can do and will do what they see fit to do for the side-tracking of all religion and all believers. Why should they alone represent a nation in the council of nations? Is the world that God has given us to live in, and in which we are bidden to live and move and develope ourselves for a higher life, not fit for the purpose intended? If it is fit, we should not act as if we despised God's handiwork, much less condemned it. Until such time as men of good report do the missionary work here which they send others to do in foreign lands, let them cease grumbling. Grumbling never won a battle in the world's history.

THE FEVER OUTBREAK

What is being done with reference to the establishment of an isolation hospital? We hear a good deal about it from time to time, but there seems to be no likelihood of talk materializing at an early date, at least, so far as we can find out. The outbreak of scarlet fever at the Barnardo Home empasises the pressing need for something of that sort and we think that Mayor Rush and his Council are the right men to take the matter up and put it through.

BOYCOTT GOV'T HOUSE

Some Conservatives Will Not Attend Dinners—Reason is Said to be That Mr. Gamey Has Been Ignored in the Invitations Issued.

The boycotting of official dinners given by his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, on account of Mr. R. R. Gamey, M.P.P., for Manitoulin, having been ignored in the invitations has been openly declared by some Conservative members of the Legislature. For the dinner given Thursday night, it is stated, that fully one-third of the invitations issued to members of the Legislature who sit on the Speaker's right hand were refused. The matter was being openly discussed in the corridors at the Parliament buildings yesterday. One Conservative member stated that he would never accept a Government House invitation until the attitude adopted toward Mr. Gamey was changed. Of the 57 invitations issued for the function on Thursday it is understood that 26 were declined. Some of the refusals were on account of illness or previous engagements, but the majority were by Conservatives who took exception to the non-inclusion of their colleague. — The Globe.

MANITOBA'S NEW LICENSE BILL.

The Provincial Government in Manitoba brought down its new lence bill on February 15th, and some of its provisions seem to mark a distinct forward step. The obnoxious three-fifths majority required for the passing of local option in any locality is removed, and in future, if this bill becomes law, a simple majority in any municipality will be sufficient to carry the local option bylaw, but if such a bylaw be repealed, two years are required before re-submission. The provisions concerning habitual drunkards are verymuch elaborated. Six convictions in any one year make it possible for a magistrate to declare the person concerned incorrigible and an habitual drunkard, and the magistrate or justice of peace shall have power to send such a person to jail or other protection of society from the criminal and his punishment as a deterrent to crime. These ends must still, of course, be kept in view; but the other end of seeking the reformation of the individual and his restoration, wherever possible, to good and worthy citizenship, must not be neglected, both in the interests of the state and of a common humanity. It is a question, indeed, if that is not the matter of greatest moment.

It is to be hoped that the proposals of this commission will not be carelessly laid aside, on the unworthy and utterly false plea of economy. — Christian Guardian.

PRETTY GIRL GETS FORTUNE

Little Actress Playing at Hamilton Becomes Heiress

Hamilton, Feb. 27.—One often hears of a pretty actress marrying a millionaire, but few actresses become wealthy in the same manner as Miss Redmond ,the dainty little singer at the Savoy this week, who has been notified that she has come into a large fortune. Eight years ago when Miss Redmond was starring in a comic opera in the Western States, she ran across an old school chum, who was on his way to the Klondike, but on his way to the Coast he strayed from the narrow path ,and when he reached Spokane he was almost stranded. He lacked the necessary funds to carry him the rest of his journey and he was naturally much disappointed, as he had planned to make the trip with a party of friends.

He had about given up all hopes when Miss Redmond struck Spokane with the opera troupe, and James Storey, who occupied a seat among the baldheads, recognizewd his old school chum. He called on her after te show, and during the course of the conversation he told her about his hard luck .Without asking for any security, Miss Redmond loaned him $100, which she considered as good as lost, as she had no faith in mining in the frozen north.

She heard nothing from Storey till last Friday, when she was notified by her attorney in New York that Jas. Storey had died in Dawson City and had left his entire estate to her and that it would be worth at least $75,000. The news came as a shock and surprise to her ,and she immediately notified Wm. Morris, who does the booking for the Savoy, that she could not fill her date in Hamilton. It was only after Mr .Morris threatened to take legal proceedings that she came here, and now she is trying to break all her contracts for the future, as she says that a girl with so much money has no need to be on the stage

She notified Wm. Morris to that effect through her New York representatives ,and an interesting legal battle is expected, as Manager Appleton claims that she will have to fill her engagements if she is worth a million. She received word from New York yesterday confirming the good news, and as a result she will be discontened until she has had the affair straightened out and the money in her possession. She claims that she draws a larger salary than the average single woman on the stage, but she is through with stage life after this week.

Revelation About French Women

From a book on women's work and pay recently prepared by the French Minister of Labor it appears that there are 14,382,000 adult women in France, and of these about 6,382,000 live on the products of their trades or occupations. A few receive high pay, as Paris figures it. Cutters and polishers of precious stones receive $1.85 a day which is as much as many men make. This about the maximum.

The minimum for female factory workers is found in some country places where they get two meals and five cents a day.

The average factory wages for women and girls is figured as from 50 to 70 cents a day.

The ministerial report figures that in trades in which men and women are employed indiscriminately, doing the same work the man averages $1.07 a day and the woman only 50 cents. Sometimes the quality of the woman's product is slightly inferior to the man's but to offset this she is more patient, polite and amenable to orders.

After figuring up what the women receive the report goes into a discussion of what a working woman needs to live on. It concludes that she can just keep alive on 40 cents a day in a large city and 40 cents in the country.

Perhaps by way of breaking the force of the figures collected — for they have given a painful shock to French public opinion —similar statistics have been collected and published regarding women's pay in Germany. In Berlin, it is said, female clerks receive by the month, about $16.25, heads of departments and chief workwomen' get $21, men's pay being about one-third to one-fourth higher for similar work. The wages for lower workers are $5 to $15 a month.

Then comes a calculattion of the cost of living to a working woman in Germany as follows:

	Per Year
Lodging and breakfast, —$3 a month	$36.00
Dinner—10c a day	36.50
Supper—8 cents a day	29.20
Washing—12 cents a week	6.25
Dress	13.75
Shoes	6.50
Repairs	3.75
Soap, toilet requisites	4.00
Heating and light	2.50
Taxes	.75
Compulsory old age and sickness insurance	6.00
Trade union dues	.75
Postage, car fares, pleasure and extras	3.00
Total	$148.95

This gives an average expenditure of $12.41 a month, which is twice as much as home working girls receive in pay. It is stated that out of every 100 working women of all classes in Germany 38 would be unable to live on their earnings. —The Witness.

Brantford Adopts Merit System

For Policemen of That City—Salary Schedule Re-Arranged

The following taken from a Brantford paper shows the rearranged schedule of salaries for the policemen of that city. Brantford is a city of nineteen thousand, while Peterborough has a population of fifteen thousand. The salaries of the local officers do not compare very favorably with those of the Brantford corps. The article is:—

The police commissioners have adopted the merit system of badges in recognition of services—eight, fifteen and twenty years. At the end of each period the member receiving the badge will receive an additional ten cents per day. A new salary schedule has been adopted. Chief Slemin, $1,550 a year; Sergeants, $2.50 per day; constables, first year, $1.70; second year men, $1.80; third year men, $1.90; fourth year and fifth year men, $2; Class A men, $2.15.

THROUGH THE STRAITS OF MAGELLAN

Those who have had the matter in charge wisely chose the best season of the year for the passage of the battleship fleet through the Straits of Magellan into Southern Pacific waters—a passage noted among sailors as one of the stormiest and most dangerous in the world. It is now midsummer in the Antarctic Zone, and the danger from "williwaws"—storms peculiar to the Straits of Magellan—is much less than during the winter season, when there are weeks together without a single clear day. The williwaws are whirlwind squalls that come down from the almost perpendicular walls of the lower Andes without warning and seemingly out of a clear sky. At certain seasons one squall follows another in such rapid succession that it is impossible to get through the "Narrows," for which passage there must be clear weather.

It is true that there is less danger as well as a saving of time in passing through the Straits instead of going round the Horn, for the latter is considered one of the most dangerous bits of navigation in the world. But even the Straits have their perils, for the entrances are partly blocked by huge rocks, where breakers dash high and white in the fairest of weather; the channel is narrow and tortuous; the tides which roll between the "Narrows" near each entrance change only at stated hours, and woe betide the navigator who dare to disregard the current and tries to pass these danger spots at the wrong time .

In fair weather, by the most minute calculation, the passage from ocean to ocean may be made in forty-eight hours ,but many a valiant steamer has battled with tides and storms for fully five days before emerging into the open Pacific.

Here it is; Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparillia, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc. It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them life and power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood relieving the worst forms of Rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The extract dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also extensively for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound sarsaparilla cleans and enriches the blood.

As you or anyone of your family, especially the old folks, may be attacked at any time it would be wise to cut this out and save it.

Laundry Men Long for the Summer

Chinese Laundries Not Very Busy at Present

Winter weather is none too good for the laundry business, said a Chinese laundryman the other day.

"Too cold yet," he said, "not hot enough for big business in collar and shirt." Just now this particular Celestial said he was only "middlin' busy." Next month he expects that there will be a noticeable increase.

"Hot weather," he explained, "then begin to come. People get hot easy, collars and shirts soiled, and have to be cleaned often.

He was certainly wise to the situation, and from his experience he had doped out the case as he found it.

A collar a day is about the average in summer, and that same collar in February might maintain its glossy sheen for three days in winter. Similiarly with shirts. The fine weather means an open coat and necessarily a clean shirt front.

Career of Late Rev. E. Edwards

The Cobourg World has the following reference to the death of Rev. Edward Roberts;

Rev. Edward Roberts passed away suddenly at his residence here on Wednesday last. Mr. Roberts has been in failing health for the past two years and for two or three months has been confined to his residence the most of the time. On Wednesday he was suddenly stricken with paralysis and passed away shortly afterwards. Mr. Roberts was one of the most highly esteemed ministers of the Methodist church. He was well beloved by his brethren in the Bay of Quinte Conference, for his genial temperament, for his words of help and encouragement so freely given and for his kindly helpful interest in the welfare of others. He entered the ministry in 1858, and since that time had occupied many important charges throughout the Conference. Mr. Roberts took an active and influential part in the union of the Methodist bodies in 1883 and 1884. Before the union of the two Methodist churches here he was for some years the well beloved minister of the King street Methodist church and his many beautiful qualities of mind and heart, his wise counsel, his tender sympathy, his solicitude and zeal not only in the interests of the work of his own church but in all that was true and pure and of good report in civic and social life endeared him to very many of our citizens. In 1892 Mr. Roberts was honored with the highest office in the gift of his brethren in teh Conference in being elected President of the Bay of Quinte Conference. His last charge was Omemee. In 1900 he retired from the regular work of the ministry and removed to Lindsay. But although he had entered upon a superannuated relation, for several years Mr. Roberts continued to perform much active service. Upon two or three occasions during his years of faithful ministry Mr. Roberts was elected a delegate from the Quintee Conference to the General Conference. About a year and a half ago Mr. Roberts and his family removed to Cobourg to spend the remaining years of his life in his old home town.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, one at Toronto and one at Welcome and four daughters, Mrs. McCracken, Meaford; Mrs. Cannon, Welcome; Mrs. McCrae, Omemee, and Miss Ada Roberts at home. The deepest sympathy of our citizens goes out to all in their great sorrow.

The funeral takes place this afternoon. There will be a private service at the residence at 2 o'clock and a public service at the Methodist church at 2.30 p.m.

Mr. Roberts was 75 years of age.

Record Year for Big Snow Flakes

Another Lot of Big Ones Came Down This Morning

"This has been a record year as far as large snow flakes are concerned" said a citizen this morning. The speaker was a man who takes more than a passing interest in the weather and he drew attention to the fact that there have been over a half dozen snow falls this winter, when the snow flakes were extraordinary large. The big flakes that came down this morning brought the matter to his attention.

"I don't remember a winter," he said, "when I have seen so many large snow flakes as this season. Some of them are really beautiful, but I suppose everybody has noticed that."

Mr. R. N. Jolliffe Attaining High Position in Toronto Musical Circles

This week's Toronto "Sunday World," contains a two-column cut of Mr. R. N. Jolliffe, on the musical page, along with the following notice;

"Mr. Norman Joliffe, whose photogravuer appears, is one of Toronto's clever baritone soloists. He is at present filling with distinction the position of soloist of Sherbourne St. Methodist church, which position he was persuaded upon to take after some other tempting offers were considered. Mr. Jolliffe came to Toronto from Peterborough some three years ago, and since that time has had a brilliant career. He is a pupil of August Wilhelmj, the eminent vocal teacher, and it is only in justice to his ability as a teacher that we say, that his pupil is indeed one whom he must be proud of.

"The future of Mr. Jolliffe should bring him to the distinctive place which his talents entitle him to. Mr. Jolliffe has opened his studio at Gerhard Heintzman's where he will be pleased to meet prospective pupils in vocal study.

Two Take Upward Step In Service of the Church

Impressive Ordination Ceremony at St. John's Church Yesterday Morning—Right Rev. Bishop Reeve in Attendance—An Event of Much Interest.

The beautiful and impressive service in connection with the ordination of candidates into the Deaconate of the Anglican Church was held yesterday at St. John's Church when Messrs. R. E. Wilkinson, AKC, of Apsley and H. F. Battersby of Youngs' Point were ordained by His His Lordship Rev. Bishop Reeve, assistant to His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto. The service was held at 10.30 in the morning and the church was well filled. The service was of a particularly bright and interesting character. His Lorship's sermon was an inspiring and instructive one and the large congregation was deeply interested throughout.

The clergy present were: Rev. E. A. Langfelt, MA., Ph.D; Rev Mr. Soward, and Rev. Canon Davidson, MA., besides the two candidates, Messrs. E. E. Wilkinson, AKC, apsley and H. F. Battersby, of Youngs' Point.

Previous to the service yesterday Rev. Dr. Langfeldt and Rev. G. Warren, Archdeacon of the Diocese conducted the examination of the candidates.

At the hour for the service, 10.30 a.m. the church was well filled, and when the choir and clergy entered from the vestry singing the processional hymn, No. 352,

Christ is gone up; yet ere He passed,
From earth, in Heaven to reign,
He formed one Holy Church to last
Till He should come again,

The regular service of Morning Prayer was then said after which the special service set apart for the "Making of Deacons" was commenced. Rev. Dr. Langfeldt acted as Bishop's Chaplain and presented the two candidates who were habited in cassocks and surplices and carrying their stoles folded over the left arm, before His Lordship, who was seated within the chancel, saying "Rev. Father in God, I present unto you these persons to be admitted Deacons."

Having received from their examiners the answers to questions regarding the candidates the Litany was said by, the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt.

His Lordship then ascended the pulpit and preached the special sermon. In substance His Lordship said, "Before beginning my sermon I must take this opportunity of commending you, my brethren, for the beautiful vestry you have provided for the use of the clergy and choir." He also spoke in commendatory terms of the coming mission which opens next Sunday, and he urged upon the congregation to use it as a means of worship, and to pray for it both in private and in public, as the success altogether depends upon your prayers and your work on that occasion. He said he hoped that the listless indifference of the members of the Church of England on account of the set services that we have would be aroused on this occasion—and that the non-participation in the services of the Holy Communion would vanish and that all would gather around the table of our Lord in communion with one another. I heartily commend these special services to your attention and my only regret is that I cannot be present to help in this grand work of the spread of the gospel.

His Lordship took for his text, I Tim., 4.12: "Our attendance to reading, to exhortation and to doctrine.' "These words," he said, "are addressed more especially to those engaged in the ministry. The epistles of Timothy and Titus are pastoral epistles, and these are especially, this morning, commended to those, two who are about to be ordained into the service of our blessed Lord, and Saviour." He then proceeded to say that in the scriptures the three orders of Ministers, Bishops, Priests and Deacons, are taught, and while the word Bishop may be construed by some to mean Presbyter or Deacon, but the New Testament has those two offices mentioned elsewhere in another light. He then went on to show how the apostles set apart some as priests and some as deacons, for the important services of ministering to the wants of the church spiritually and temporally, respectively. The importance of these offices are shown in the Bible.

The word deacon means "servant," and "messengers." They are messengers of the gospel, watchmen upon the walls of the Church, stewards of the messages of God, and they ough to be faithful to Him in their calling, as they will be called upon to give an account of their stewardship as shepherds of God to look after His sheep and to guide them, and anbassadors in His Church. They should be patterns and examples in holiness of the Lord Himself, and they need the constant watchfulness of prayer and of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, they need your prayers, that they may be strengthened for their holy work so that they will be bold to carry on their work. He urged upon the candidates the necessity of constant watchfulness, and of reading and studying God's Word and of our Books of Common Prayer It is not everyone who excels in preaching; many do not reach the highest points in the ministry, but we can all do our duty. He referred to St Paul's injunction to "Preach the Gospel," and to the custom of some ministers of the Gospel, who give out a text and then go on to some worldly topic and never mention one word of the truths of the gospel. He, in conclusion, said that he hoped that the coming mission might be a means of great awakening among the people of this district. He urged upon his hearers the necessity of not being led away by the many new ideas and doctrines which are among us today. Keep in mind always that the objects of your mission is the salvation of the souls of men. It was this object which brought the Lord Jesus into the world, and it was for this that the Apostles contended, and we should do likewise.

The sermon ended, His Lordship again took his seat within the chancel and examined each candidate, and having received the proper answers regarding their duty to their superiors and their office, they each separately knelt before His Lordship, who, laying his hands upon their head, said: "Take thou authority to execute the office of a Deacon in the Church of God committeed unto thee; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen."

HIS LORDSHIP RT. REV. DR. REEVE
Who Ordained the Candidates at St. John's Church on Sunday.

The Bishop then delivered unto them the New Testament, saying: "Take thou authority to read the Gospel of the Church of God, and to preach the same if thou be thereto licensed by the Bishop himself."

The licenses were then presented to the newely ordained deacons by His Lordship.

The Bishop's chaplain then took the stole from the left arm of the candidates, and crossing it over the right shoulder and fastened it under the left arm.

His Lordship and the clergy, with the deacons, then proceeded to the altar, when the Gospel was read by the deacon appointed by the Bishop, after which His Lordship proceeded with the celebration of the Holy Communion.

The musical part of the service consisted of Hymn No. 352; Venite, Woodward's; Tedeum, Burk's; Benedictus: Jacob's; Communion Service, Woodward's. Miss M. Flower presided at the organ in a very efficient manner, and during the offertory played with much acceptance, "The Angel's Serenade," by Broga. Mr. Herbert Morphet had charge of the choir, and with the choir, deserves special mention for the efficient manner in which they took the service.

In the evening the choir sang "No Shadows Yonder," from Gaul's Holy City," Mr. Chandler taking the solo part.

Dr. Lowrey Spoke to the Sabbath School Children

Delivered Address at Morning Service in Connection With George Street Sunday School Anniversary—An Event of Interest—Prizes Given in the Afternoon and Service at Night.

The anniversary services at the George street Methodist Sunday school, held at the George street Methodist church yesterday, were very interesting and largely attended.

In the morning the pupils of George and Grace churches assembled in the church in large numbers and assisted in the services. There was also a good representation of parents and teachers. The children sat downstairs and the older persons largely occupied the gallery.

Dr. Lowery, of Toronto, who thirty years ago was superintendent of the George street school, gave an address of great interest, simply worded and expressed in order that his juvenile listeners might fully comprehend the significance of his statements. His remarks were interspersed with bright anecdotes and illustrations.

The service was conducted by Rev. E. A. Pearson, the pastor. On the platform besides him were seated Mr. S. R. Armstrong, superintendent of the Sunday school, and former superintendents D. W. Dumble and T. W. Robinson. Mr. J. J. Hartley, superintendent of Grace church Sunday school, also occupied a seat on the platform. One of the features of the musical portion of the service was the singing of a sacred selection by the primary department of the Sunday school, the solo being taken by Master Joe Zepp, a little fellow five years of age. He sang from the platform, the rest of the little ones joining in the chorus from the body of the church.

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and these things shall be added unto you."

The above text was the one chosen by Dr. Lowrey, and was particularly applicable to his discourse. He told his young listeners of the necessity of seeking God early and not putting it off until later in life.

He spoke of the calls of the different parts of the country for religious work and workers. Among these was the Cobalt. He went there about once a month. But what a motley and picturesque crowd was to be found there. Men were there from all parts of the world seeking for wealth. Some of them found it—but perhaps only one in a hundred. They were optimistic cheery fellows who never lost heart and never were discouaged.

At this stage the speaker related the story of a Cobalt spendthrift, who spent his fortune of $7,500.00 in eighteen days. It was of a diverting character and showed how discreet some people can really be.

Everybody at Cobalt was seeking for a treasure. The treasure he wished to speak of was "The Kingdom of God and His righteousness." That is the greatest one possible to obtain.

He had seen many young persons who wished to put off God until a time more convenient than the present. They seemed to think that the acceptance of Him involved too much responsibility. "We don't want to be old men and women before our time," was their argument. They wanted to wait until after they had received their education or their trade or profession, and not to be burdened until they were in a position to take life seriously. He told of approaching people at various stages of their lives with a view of having them accept Christ. As they grew older they became more unapproachable. Many old men and women if they had their lives to live over again would seek God when they were young.

In Mr. Lowrey's class of 30 years ago at George street, he had 40 young men, most of whom had since attained success and some distinction in various spheres of everyday activity. Six of them had become ministers of the Gospel, some of them lawyers, and others had entered different fields. He read the names over and among them were J. W. Flavelle, E. R. Wood, both of whom are well known to Peterborough; R. Junkin, a prominent Toronto business man, F. G. Clark and A. R. Clark, the well-known wholesale leather manufacturers. These are only a few of the many who were pupils in the class. In almost every case they had turned out to be leading men.

The speaker said God knew what we needed and will give it to us as was shown by the success that attended the careers of those who had been members of the class. In concluding his remarks he made complimentary reference to the pastor, Mr. Pearson.

The Sabbath school orchestra assisted in the services and occupied a position on the platform.

In the afternoon Dr. Lowrey delivered an instructive address at the Sunday school. Thirty prizes were given to the teachers and pupils who had not missed a Sunday of the past Sabbath school year.

At the evening service, Rev. Robert Pogue, pastor of St. Paul's, was the speaker, and he dwelt on the importance of personal work with reference to the efforts of Sunday school teachers. Rev. Pearson took a seat in the pulpit with him and officiated in the services.

Well rendered solos were sung by Miss Reesor and Mr. Scriver.

Strong Address by Rev. Mr. Pearson

Many Present at Meeting at Y.M.C.A. Yesterday Afternoon

Rev. E. A. Pearson gave a strong helpful address at the YMCA. Sunday afternoon. There was a good attendance, especially of young men. Mr. D. Campbell sang "Your Mother's Prayer.' very sympathetically. Mr. Pearson showed our dependence on each other and how in some ways we are all alike. The first point was that we all have sinned. Everyone is guilty and the need of every man is to realize his guilt. Sin means separation from God and forgiveness can be had only through Christ. Santification was spoken of as the process of making better men, the development of what is best in us with God's help. Four ways of help were mentioned to make better men.

1st. Look much at Christ; keep His life before you and try to live as near like Him as possible.

2nd. Keep good company. So much depends in a man's environment. Many a young man has been dragged down to disgrace by keeping bad company, and others have been led to do great deeds by companionship with men of high ideals and noble thoughts.

3rd. Have some work to do for God Every man has a work and every man should work. To grow he must work so every one should feel the responsibility of some special work for God.

4th. Pray. We may do our best but without God's help our efforts are vain. and we are told to ask and that we shall receive. We need to keep close to God through prayer.

The address was listened to with close attention and made a decided impression.

The mission opens on Sunday next, and special speakers have been engaged to speak during the two weeks that it is being held.

Public Speaking Has Done More for World Than Press

Judgment Given as Result of Interesting Debate at Meeting of Philomathean Society.

The regular meeting of the Philomathean Society of the Collegiate Institute, was held on Monday, March 2nd at 4.15 p.m., in the Y.M.C.A. Hall. The president, Mr. M. O'Brien, was unable to be present and the chair was ably filled by Mr. C. Lees. The attendance, though not as large as usual, showed that great interest is being taken in the work of the society.

The first item on the programme was the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by Miss L. Elliott. A difficult piano solo was then excellently rendered by Miss S. Minns. The next on the programme was a reading from "The Tale of Two Cities," by Miss Hallihan.

The main feature of the programme was the debate, "Resolved that Public Speaking has done more for the world than the press. Both Mr. Dobbin and Mr. Walton, for the affirmative seemed to be right at home on the subject and gave their addresses in a most acceptable manner. Mr. J. Garvin, in a speech more eloquent than many to which we have listened put up a brilliant defence and was ably assisted by Mr. Eyres. The judges appointed were;—Miss E. Pollock, Miss G. Yenny and Mr. H. Balfour.

After the judges had retired, Mr. Browett gave a very humorous reading. This was followed by a piano solo by Miss Squair. It was a very difficult composition by Beethoven and was well rendered.

Mr. G. Ingham carefully criticized the programme to the entire satisfaction of all present. Miss G. Yenney then brought in the judges' decision, which was in favor of the affirmative.

With the singing of "God Save the King," the meeting was dismissed.

The order throughout the meeting was excellent and the applause vigorous.

Conservatives of Ontario do Honour to Whom Honour is Due

A Great Gathering in Toronto—A Memorable Speech by the Prime Minister of Ontario—The Government's Record—Power Policy Dealt With—Public Schools and Redistribution Referred to.

The banquet tendered to the Prime Minister of Ontario was a success, which was a tribute to the popularity of the guest of honor and an evidence of the general respect felt for him. Three hundred guests filed past to shake his hand at the reception held in the banquet hall, and afterwards took their seats at the tables in the American dining-room of the King Edward, where Controller H. C. Hocken, president of the Borden Club, acted as chairman and toastmaster for the evening's festivities.

Those at the head table, reading from left to right were;—Mr. Edmund Bristol, M.P., Mr. J. R. L. Starr, Hon. J. S. Hendrie, Hon. Dr. Reaume, Mr. W. K. McNaught, M.P.P., Hon. Thos. Crawford, Hon. Adam Beck, Hon. J. J. Foy, Mr. A. E. Kemp, M. P., Mr. R. L. Borden, M.P., Controller Hocken, Hon. J. P. Whitney, Mr. George Tate Blackstock, K.C., Hon. W. J. Hanna, Hon. Dr. Pyne, Hon. A. J. Matheson, Mr. J. L. Englehart, Hon. Nelson Monteith, Mr. W. J. Douglas and Dr. W. Seccombe.

After the usual toasts and the reading of letters of regret, Mr. Borden was called upon.

THE OPPOSITION LEADER.

Loud cheers greeted Mr. R. L. Borden, the leader of the Opposition, as he arose to respond to the toast. He expressed his pleasure at being able to attend the banquet, but intended merely to act as a pacemaker for the guest of honor, Mr. Borden, in paying a tribute to Hon. Mr. Whitney, extended to him sympathy for his trials when in Opposition. Since he had turned out the right hand of Sir Wilfrid Laurier—the Ross Government—Mr. Whitney had fulfilled, and more than fulfilled, every promise made when in Opposition. It could be said of him that at all times in his political career he had placed the interests of the country above all other considerations. Mr. Borden hoped that that good work which had gone on under Mr. Whitney's Administration might long continue under his able guidance.

THE OPPOSITION FIGHT.

Addressing himself to the subject of the toast, Mr. Borden said he did not altogether approve of the present constitution of the Parliament in Canada. He referred to the strenuous labors of the legislators at Ottawa. Men were not likely to go to such lengths unless there was a cause for it. He thought that the cause for which the Conservative Opposition was fighting was the cause which was supposed to be won 300 years ago before Parliamentary institutions were known in this country. Upon what were the rights of Parliament founded? They were founded, it seemed to Mr. Borden, upon two essentials. The right of free debate in Parliament was recognized by the Bill of Rights.

"I do not think there is very much difference between asserting those rights against the tyranny of the Crown and against an oligarchy in power," said Mr. Borden. He quoted the statements of Hon. Mr. Fielding, the Minister of Finance, to the effect that the Opposition had only such rights as the majority afforded it. He had replied in the affirmative to a question from Mr. Foster, asking whether the majority could have the power to pass a resolution to prevent the Opposition speaking a word. "No more absurd, oppressive or outrageous declaration has been made by any public man in this country," said the leader of the Opposition.

Controller Hocken then proposed the guest of the evening.

Mr. Whitney, in opening, said that much had happened since Jan. 1st, 20 years ago, when he entered the Legislature and took his seat in the back row of the old Parliament Buildings.

"I take that demonstration to mean more power to your elbow," he remarked smiling, and greeted with hearty applause. He went on to describe the electric power situation. On coming into power they had found a commission which had no power. Whose usefulness was stopped. They had at once enacted a law creating a commission which was able to deal with the whole question. Under the control of this commission and with the assistance of Mr. Beck (applause) and his colleagues, they had been able to develop the policy of cheap electric power for the people.

"To tell the whole story in a few words we have done all we said we would do and are now waiting for the municipalities to do their part," he declared.

With regard to the Electrical Development Co. he had this to say.

"We spent eight months of our time trying to induce that company to come in and deal with us. The company refused and consequently we made a contract with the lowest bidder. Even then we induced the lowest bidder to consent to a division of the province and offered the Development Co. the part east of a line drawn from Hamilton to Collingwood and again they would not accept.

"We said as this was a Canadian company we would still try and treat this company fairly. We have been treated fairly by the press. I don't propose now, though the time may come, to answer the unworthy attacks made upon us. We hear, forsooth, about offers we had got and things we might have done. Suppose you got an offer like this. Take a company with $10,000,000 of bonds, $2,000,000 of which were sold, and with $6,000,000 of common stock. That makes $14,000,000. One likes to roll one's tongue around millions like that. (Laughter.) Some think the Ontario Government has only to snap its fingers and millions will come to them.

"Suppose now the people who owned these bonds came to you and said, 'Here, you Ontario Government, guarantee a subsequent issue of $2,500,000 bonds supplemented to the $8,000,000 which means that the guarantor will carry on his back the $8,000,000 as well—then we will give you Niagara power at $10, the very amount the Ontario Power Co. gives us power for if we will take 25,000 horse-power."

He understood what some of the papers meant now when they warned him against the slick and smooth financiers they had to meet. There was something more. In addition, they were to have control of the rates to consumers. This looked as though it deserved to be looked at and turned over in one's mind. But it turned out that the company had a contract with the Toronto Railway Co. and the Toronto Electric Light Co., and these contracts could not be controlled, and there were no other rates or contracts to be controlled.

Mr. Whitney concluded his references to the power question by stating that the Government was ready now to supply cheap power to the municipalities as they had promised—"And the next move does not come from us."

Devoting the last of the three hours during which his speech lasted, to the redistribution, law reform and other measures, he closed one of the most memorable orations ever delivered in Ontario, or for that matter in Canada with a renewal of his obligation to duty and of his devotion to the betterment, morally and materially of the noble Province of Ontario.

KNIGHTS HAD ENJOYABLE "AT HOME"

Pleasant Gathering at Foresters' Hall Last Evening

The Knights of Columbus held a most enjoyable "at home" in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, last night, about two hundred being in attendance. The early part of the evening was spent playing euchre and afterwards dancing was indulged in to excellent music supplied by the Grand Opera House orchestra. Miss O'Brien won the lady's prize in the euchre contest, and Mr. George Hall captured the gentleman's. Booby prizes were also given.

Splendid arrangements had been made for the event, and the committee in charge deserve great credit. Everything passed off most harmoniously and the evening was a delightful one.

The patronesses were, Mesdames H. Phelan, D. O'Connell, B. Morrow, H. LeBrun, F. P. McNulty and John Corkery.

The jolly gathering broke up about two o'clock.

Ald. Phelan was chairman, and Mr. J. F. Foley, secretary of the committee in charge.

The catering was splendidly done by Coleman Bros.

Crop Conditions in Old Country

Special to J. R. Heintz & Company.

Liverpool, March 3.—Broomhall's weekly foreign crop summary says United Kingdom and Spain: The weather is somewhat cooler and the outlook for the crops continues generally favorable.

Italy and North Africa—The outlook is favorable with the exception of some complaints from a few droughty districts.

Bulgaria—Latest advices state that the crops have wintered well.

Roumania—The weather continues favorable and the outlook for the winter crop is favorable; sowing has commenced.

France—There is some resowing of wheat in the north as a result of the early unfavorable climatic conditions; otherwise the outlook is favorable. Holders are firmer in their views.

Germany—The weather is colder and conditions of the crop is not considered satisfactory. This country has purchased large quantity of wheat from Argentine, but still the markets respond quickly to foreign strength.

Russia—In the southwest the outlook is unchanged from our last report, which was given on Feb. 25th, as being more hopeful. Elsewhere the outlook is more satisfactory. Arrivals of wheat at the ports of shipment are very small, or in some cases nothing.

Got Out of Gaol Yesterday and Returned To-day

Harry Watters the Prisoner's "Cook" Got Another Three Months

Harry Watters, a man of about 50 years of age, was given three months in the county jail at the police court this morning on a charge of vagrancy. Watters was just released after a six months' sojourn on the hill yesterday. He was drunk yesterday and was arrested. At first the charge was drunk in a public place, but his Worship changed it to vagrancy. Watters wanted to go back as he had no home or money. "You should get a good horse whipping every day," said his Worship. "This man is the cook up there," said the Chief.

"Well, he better go back to his work," added his Worship and Watters went down to his cell with a broad smile on his face.

Board of Trade to be Addressed by Senator Ferguson

It is understood that Senator Ferguson who is here on a visit to his son, will address the members of the Board of Trade this evening on a subject of general interest, viz., The Trade Conditions of the Dominion at the Present Time. Senator Ferguson is not billed for a long address but short or long it will undoubtedly be well worth hearing. No doubt a crowded house will greet him in the Council Chamber.

COMPLAINS AGAINST THE ST. CAR CO.

W. A. Bailey Writes the Magistrate About Their Action

His Worship Magistrate Dumble, has received the following communication from a citizen complaining against the manner in which the street railway company cleared their tracks. It reads as follows:

Peterborough, March 3,

Sir,—May I draw your Worship's attention to the outrageous action of the street car company in sweeping the streets, yesterday, (Sunday). Walking on the foot path on George street I was covered with the wet sweepings of the road. The result is a severe cold. Officer Newhall drove past just afterwards. I should certainly enter an action for assault against the manager if well enough.

Yours obediently,
W. A. BAILEY.

The Higher Criticism; Views of Rev. J. R. Webb, B.D.

In response to a request by the Review the pastor of the Murray st. Baptist church expressed his views on the Higher Criticism as follows:—

"All students are seekers after truth and should welcome any light from whatever source it may come. The man who feels that he has truth will not object to its being submitted to the "white light of any throne.

It is the utmost folly to change men with insincerity because their conclusions are different to ours, but it is equal folly to think that the most modern school is necessarily the infallible one. I do not like the term 'Higher Criticism,' because men who are in every way the peers of those whose conclusions you speak of are as far from their positions as the equator is from the poles.

The danger of the present hour is not that the critics will rob us of our Bible, but that a few who may accept the unfinished and untried goods because they are of new style may by and by find themselves in shrunken and ridiculous raiment long after men of real scholarship have revised their conclusions and are happy in a strong faith. Men of real strength can go into strange latitudes and come back little worse for their experiences but if they are followed by puny persons who forget that their guides have confessed that they do not know where they are going, the poor followers may find themselves in a pitiable flight by and by.

If it were not so pathetic it would be interesting and almost humorous to watch a certain class who read nothing but a few magazine articles rushing after the tentative hypothesis of some scholar and saying 'This is truth.'

There never was an hour in the world's history when the Bible was considered by thinking men, more truly the revelation of God to man than the present and I may add (what is hardly to the point) that men who exercise their rationality are finding their way to active Christian service now as never in the past."

SPORTING NEWS

Y. M. C. A. to Make Spurt In the Athletic Line

Big Meeting Will be Held on Friday Night to Organize for the Coming Season—Lacrosse, Football and Baseball Teams Proposed.

The local Y.M.C.A. intends cutting a wide swath in the sporting field during the coming summer. Arrangements are being made for the organiation of lacrosse, football and baseball teams, and of course the Harriers Club will still be doing business at the old stand. Four or five years ago the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. was a power in local athletic circles, but for the past couple of seasons this branch of the association has been allowed to fall behind. With the present movement under way, however, there is little doubt but that even the palmy days of a few years ago will be accepted.

A mass meeting of the members of the association will be held on Friday night of this week to take the initial steps towards organizing for the coming season. Important business will be transacted and every member is asked to be on hand, especially those interested in athletic sports. Every young man connected with the association is wanted at the meeting.

The meeting is called for 7.45 o'clock and the members should be hand in good time.

In another month the snow will be gone and outdoor sports will be coming to the front. The present is the time to organize.

Mr. J. B. Hay Wants Press Teams To Open His Bowling Alleys

Mr. J. B. Hay, proprietor of the new bowling alleys, which are being installed in the Bradburn opera house, says they will be opened in the course of a couple of weeks, and when they are one of the most modern and best equipped bowling alleys in the province will be at the disposal of the Peterborough bowlers.

Work on the alleys, which is in charge of Mr. A. Fagerstedt, a Chicago expert, is being carried on rapidly. Mr. Fagerstedt came here from Cincinatti, where he had been superintending the construction of the Cincinatti tournament alleys, the largest in America.

Mr. Hay is optimistic concerning the success of the alleys here, and says already enough teams have expressed their intention of taking up the game to form a league. Should sufficient interest be shown among the fair sex, he will allow the lady bowlers to have the use of the alleys for one afternoon each week. Bowling is quite popular among the feminine enthusiasts in several cities, and there seems no reason why it should not meet with favor here.

Mr. Hay desires to have teams from the Examiner and Review formally open the alleys. The game, if arranged, will be an aftermath to the great press hockey match. The Review is quite willing and would be glad to know the pleasure of the Grit ten pin in the matter.

WILL PLAY TO-MORROW NIGHT

A combined team from Richard Hall and Son's and J. C. Turnbull's play Cressmans' tomorrow night from 6.30 to 7.30. Considerable interest is being taken in the game and there promises to be a good crowd in attendance.

No word has been received from David Hartley, since the announcement was made at the finish of the race. It is not known exactly when he will be home, but he is expected the end of the week.

HOCKEY

The Peterborough Young Ladies Hockey team challenge the Strathcona Girls to a game to be played as soon as the rink can be arranged for.

Some Notes About "Y" Gymnasium

The physical committee of the Y.M.C.A. will meet this evening at 7 o'clock sharp, in the physical directors office. Several matters of importance will come before the committee and it is important that all members be present.

The plunge bath at the Y.M.C.A. has been given two good coats of white paint which adds greatly to its appearance as well as making it much more inviting.

The last game of basket ball before the finals will be played this evening after regular class work. Teams 4 and 5, are to struggle for supremacy.

The public are invited to the game tomorrow night at 8 o'clock sharp. This is sure to be a closely contested game and all lovers of good basket ball will of course be present.

The lockers are being repaired and will be in good shape from now on. All members desiring lockers can procure them from the physical director.

A large attendance is looked for this evening at the senior mens' gymnasium class at 8 p.m. sharp.

They Discussed the Library Question

Interesting Meeting of A.Y.P.A. of St. John's Church

At the meeting of the A.Y.P.A. of St. John's church, last night, Mr. Jos. Bell read a paper on the Carnegie Library question in which he came out strongly in favor of Peterborough, asking for a grant to provide this city with a good public library. Afterwards an interesting discussion took place, the majority of the speakers opposing the views advanced by Mr. Bell.

There was a large attendance of the members and the meeting was a most interesting one.

AMUSEMENTS

ROYAL ALEXANDRA COMPANY.

The Royal Alexandra Stock Company opened a week's engagement at the Grand last night before a fair sized audience. The cast is headed by Arnold C. Baldwin, who was the popular lead with Marks Bros.' first repertoire troupe for many years, and was with that organization until Mr. Joe N. Machan took it over a short time ago under the name of the Royal Alexandra Stock Company. The company is presenting a list of first-class plays, and last night played "The Bondman," an excellent drama, which they cleverly interpreted. Throughout the week they will give a strong line of attractions, which will be first-class in every particular.

The specialties are distinctly good, and the child act of Roselyn and Glory Machan is distinctly good and very original. The juvenile artists are very original and their work called forth the unanimous approval of the audience. Others who appear to good advantage in the specialties are Lyons and Lyons and Ralph Wordley, the droll comedian.

The Royal Alexandera Company should draw big houses for the balance of the week.

TRIED TO KILL CHIEF

Head of Chicago Police Department Attacked by Anarchists.

His Son Shot Through the Breast and May Die—Driver Also Wounded—Wife's Plucky Conduct—Searched Assassin For Weapon—Chief Shippey Stabbed In the Arm — Kills Assailant.

Chicago, March 3.—An unsuccessful attempt to assassinate George M. Shippey, chief of the Chicago police department, was made by an anarchist at his residence yesterday morning. The chief, his son, and his driver, James Foley, were attacked by two men with revolvers. Young Shippey and the driver were wounded.

The chief returned the fire, killing one of his assailants outright. The chief was stabbed in the right arm during the affray. Harry Shippey is seriously hurt, and Foley may die.

The attack on the chief is believed to have been inspired by the recent activity of the Chicago police following the killing of Rev. Leo Heinrichs, a Roman Catholic priest, who was shot by an anarchist in Denver while the priest was administering the sacrament to his slayer.

Chief Shippey says he believes the intervention of his son saved his life. He thinks the man planned to kill him.

"I didn't like his looks. He appeared to me to be an anarchist. I grabbed his arms and forcing them behind his back, called to my wife, who was in another room. When she ran in I said: 'Mother see if this man has a revolver.'

"She felt one of his back pockets and said that he had. I tried to hold him with one hand and draw my revolver with another, but he jerked away and fell against the door. I caught him again and he fought hard to reach his revolver.

"My son must have heard the struggle, and just as he came to my aid the man freed one hand, drew his revolver and fired two shots at my son. Then Foley ran in and the man shot him.

"By this time I was able to draw my own revolver. I fired at the man four times. The first two bullets entered his head and the others his body. He fell at the first shot and I fired three more into him.

"The man drew a knife also in the struggle, but I did not know I had been cut until after."

Harry Shippey is the most severely hurt of those injured in yesterday's affray. He was shot through the breast and was probably fatally wounded. His father was stabbed in the arm, while Foley received a bullet in the wrist. Mrs. Shippey was kicked by the desperado, but her hurts are slight.

It was learned later that a man resembling yesterday's assailant had called at the Shippey home on Sunday during the chief's absence. He said he would call again. Nothing was thought of the incident at the time.

A box of losenges found on the body of the slain anarchist bore the name of the Trowbridge Confectionery Co., Meadville, Pa. The candy in the box was sent to a chemist to be examined for traces of poison. The police believe that the assassin had provided himself with it as a means of possible suicide.

The man was identified as a member of a group of anarchists, who have been holding regular meetings in the Ghetto district in the west side of the city. A friend of the police who attends the meetings recognized the body. He told the authorities that the man had been selected by lot and told to kill Chief Shippey and Mayor Busse.

Immediately following the tragedy in Denver attempts were made to trace the crime to a conspiracy hatched in Chicago.

The local police discovered that the society of Italians formed here had been issuing inflammatory literature aimed at clericals, and also that several local clergymen had received threatening letters.

Sunday, while the funeral of Father Leo was being held in Paterson, N.J., details of police guarded several of the Roman Catholic churches here. Especial precautions were taken in the Italian quarter, where officers in citizens clothes scrutinized every worshipper as the congregations entered. Later the officers moved to the altars and stood guard over the priests as they conducted the services. ..

In addition to these measures, all known anarchists in the city, among them Emma Goldman, were warned that they would not be allowed to make addresses in public. So far as is known none attempted to disobey the order. The documents sent out by the Italian organization was carefully worded and an extents one might have failed because of technical terms.

Although all self-declared anarchists in the city are known to the Chicago police, the identity of the man who attacked Chief Shippey is a mystery.

Three Burned to Death.

Port Washington, L. I., March 3.—Three men were burned to death and fifteen others seriously injured in a fire which destroyed three workmen's shacks on the north side of Manhasset Bay. All the men were Italian laborers, employed in Goodwin Brothers sand bank. They lived in the three buildings, which were burned.

He leaves a wife and family.

Former Peterborough Boy Now Member of Legislature

George Walton is Liberal Representative for Emerson in the Manitoba House.

The Winnipeg Free Press of February 19th, contains a cut of George Walton, Liberal representative of Emerson, in the Manitoba Legislature and a former Peterborough boy, along with the following biographical sketch:

"George Walton, the Liberal representative of Emerson in the legislature, was born in Peterborough, Ont. in 1853, and in 1879 he came west to what was then the flourishing town of Emerson, where he was engaged in mercantile business for twenty years until the boom broke, when he moved to Winnipeg. During his residence in Winnipeg he was much interested in the work of the agricultural societies and in all the sports of the day and in the early days was one of the councillors of the town. Nine years ago Mr. Walton contested the federal seat of Provencher against A. A. C. LaRiviere but was defeated. During the last nine years in Winnipeg Mr. Walton has been engaged in the real estate and auctioneering business and has also travelled several years as representative of the Fairchild Company. In 1903 the Liberals of Emerson had sufficient confidence to ask him to carry the Liberal banner against Dr. McFadden and again last March when he was successful.

"In the House one of the notable things in connection with the member for Emerson is the fact that he always listens to all speeches, which is more than can be said for most of the members. He is a member of the committee on agriculture and immigration and printing, and has taken a great interest in all committee work, especially in the public accounts where he probed so deeply that the government objected to his close scrutiny of their affairs. As a speaker Mr. Walton is one of the ablest in the House, having a clear voice and a convincing manner. In the debate on the Dauphin lists his his familiarity with the statutes furnished arguments which members of the government were not expecting. He has also spoken on the beef question, on the budget, the address and on the public accounts report. Mr. Walton also took a strong hand in favor of amending the charter of the grain exchange in the interests of the farmers of the Province. He, however, wanted the government to go still further and take control of the internal elevators of the Province in order that the farmers might get full benefit of the remedial legislation. The member for Emerson is a strong factor in building up an able opposition.

Freight Engine Left Track And Trains Delayed Here

As a result of a freight engine jumping the track at the west switch of the CPR. station at 4 o'clock this morning, the Ottawa and Montreal trains were delayed here three hours. The freight train was going east and the switch being open, before the train could be brought to a standstill, the engine was off the track. It was impossible to have it replaced without the assistance of the auxiliary and consequently it was wired for. The trains from the east came in but were unable to proceed. Each carried a large number of hungry passengers and Mr. Fowler, the George street caterer, got a big order for sandwiches and coffee to be served at the depot as quickly as possible. They were detained three hours but as soon as the auxiliary arrived from Havelock it was only about twenty minutes until the freight train was ready to proceed. The Ottawa and Montreal trains combined and left here about twenty minutes to nine. With the double header engine, excellent time was made, to make up for the long wait here.

Local Man Victim of Brutal Assault Last Evening

Harry Castle Had Lip Seriously Bitten in Row on Hunter St.—Confined to Nicholls Hospital—Le Barge Who Committed the Assault Still at Large.

Harry Castle, Maria street, East City, was the victim of a dastardly assault last night at the Royal Hotel and as a result is confined to Nicholls hospital suffering from a serious wound in his lower lip.

About half past six last evening Castle was entering the hotel when he was hailed by a man by the name of LeBarge who resides on Parnell street, with an uncomplimentary term. A lively scuffle ensued in which blows were freely exchanged. LeBarge in a fit of temper like a madman, grabbed Castle and it is alleged bit a large piece out of his lower lip.

The police were phoned for and it was not many minutes before P. C's. McGarry and Newhall were on the scene. They took Castle in charge but the culprit of the affair was nowhere to be found. Castle was brought to the police station where he suffered considerably as a result of his injuries. Dr. Bingham was called and dressed the wounds temporarily until Dr. Morgan was able to come. Upon examination of Castle's lower lip, the doctor found it to be in a very serious condition. He ordered him removed to Nicholls Hospital where it was found necessary to put several stitches in the lip. Castle will be confined to the hospital for some days and he is suffering intense pain as a result of the assault.

Le Barge certainly disappeared mysteriously for although the police searched diligently he was nowhere to be found. A warrant for his arrest has been issued, on a charge of assault, inflicting actual bodily harm.

Mr. S. Holland, proprietor of the Royal Hotel has also laid an information against LeBarge for creating a disturbance in a public place.

Lindsay Man Run Over While Employed as Snow Shoveller—Verdict of Accidental Death.

Special to The Review.

Lindsay, March 3—Fred Stubbins, of this town, aged 32 years, was killed this morning by being run over by a snowplough about one mile north of here on the Fenelon Falls branch of the G.T.R.

Stubbins was a carpenter by trade, but was employed by the Grand Trunk as a snow shoveller. Along with a number of other men he was employed clearing out a deep cut this morning at the point referred to above when a snowplough and several cars came along. Stubbins did not get far enough out of the way and slipped back on the track and was run over by one of the cars. The body was badly mangled and the unfortunate man only lived a few minutes. The remains were taken to Lindsay and a coroner's jury pronounced it a case of accidental death.

Stubbins was an Englishman who had been in this country for about two years. He leaves a wife and three children. He was a member of the Sons of England and well thought of.

Street Car and Cutter in Collision

On George St. To-day at Noon—Driver Thrown into the Ditch

An Auburn street car and horse and cutter collided on George street near the Central Milling Co's. mill, today at noon, resulting in the cutter being badly smashed and the occupant of the cutter and horse had a narrow escape from serious injury. A man by the name of Gordon was driving up George street and attempted to cross before the southbound car, going at an awful fast rate. The car struck the horse and its feet became caught in the fender. Mr. Gordon was thrown into the snowbank, but fortunately escaped unhurt. Mr. Louis Le Grander, the motorman on the car, stopped it as quickly as possible. Considerable damage was done to the cutter, rendering it almost unfit for further use.

SUNDAY PAPERS WERE STOPPED

Sunday World and Montreal Standard Not Allowed at Ottawa

Ottawa, March 2.—The police yesterday prevented the delivery of the Saturday night issues of the Toronto World and Montreal Standard. These papers published on Saturday evening were shipped to Ottawa for sale on Sunday at the hotel news stands, but the police, acting evidently on some complaints by the Lord's Day Alliance on Sunday morning stopped the taking of the papers from the trains. Several newsdealers threaten as a test suit to insist upon the complete enforcement of the provisions of the Lord's Day Act, and thereby precipitate a situation similar to that which recently occurred in Winnipeg.

Last Tribute of Respect Was Paid

Funeral of Late Miss Kitty Hurley This Morning Was Largely Attended

The funeral of the late Miss Kitty Hurley took place this morning. The mass was celebrated at St. Peter's cathedral by the deceased young lady's brother, Rev. A. F. Hurley, of St. Michael's College, Toronto. Rev. N. Roche, president of St. Michael's College, officiated as deacon. Rev. P. J Galvin, as sub-deacon, and Rev. Dr. O'Brien, as master of ceremonies. Rev. W. J. McColl, rector of St. Peter's and Rev. P. J. Kelly were present in the sanctuary. Out of regard for their late organist, the members of the choir all attended to sing the Requiem for her who had played so many for others. Mrs. Jas. Weir rendered "Face to Face," as the cortege entered the cathedral and Mrs. George Ball "Angels ever bright and fair," as it departed. The offertory selection was "De Profundis," by Misses Lavina Hallihan and Annie Simons. Special friends of the deceased acted as pallbearers, Doctors, Gallivan and McNulty, Messrs. Myles Henry, George Ball, M. J. O'Leary, Toronto, and James McNeil. The large number of floral offerings, spiritual bouquets, letters and telegrams, from far and near as also the number of friends that thronged the house and cathedral, testified to the high esteem in which the gentle Miss Kitty was held during life and in her death.

Havelock Masons Have Banquet and "AtHom e"

Special to This Review.

Havelock, March 3.—Havelock town hall was the scene of a very pretty "at home" on Thursday night last when the Havelock Masonic Lodge entertained a large number of friends and the evening was to say the least of it, a magnificent success. About 150 guests gathered about the festive board, a great many of them being from outside towns.

The hall was beautifully decorated by J. J. Turner & Sons of Peterborough, for the occasion. Flags and buntin waving in monstrous folds, gave the hall a most elaborate appearance. Many welcome and patriotic signs were artistically arranged in several parts of the hall.

The stage was elaborately decorated with large ferns and palms while the glittering gold trimmed Masonic ensign of the Havelock lodge formed a most beautiful back ground.

At about 8.30 the guests sat down to a delightful meal with the most tempting of the season's eatables laid out on four long rows of tables extending the whole length of the hall and which were handsomely decorated with flowers and silverware neatly arranged.

The caterer for the occasion was Mr. Thos. Hooper of Peterborough, who carried out the terms of his contract in a highly creditable manner. Those present having done full justice to the good things set before them, the toast list was proceeded with after Mr. Wilmost Herrington, the master of the lodge had extended a hearty welcome to all present.

The national anthem was sung by the guests in response to "King and Craft." Messrs. J. W. Bryans and Wm. Mathison, members of the Havelock lodge, responded to "Our Country," followed by a toast to the ladies to which Mr. Ed. Chapman and Mr. Wm. Ritchie ably responded. Mr. A. Wilde and C. A. Ghent responded to the toast of "Visiting Members."

When the toast list had been completed, Mr. J. E. Wilson of Toronto, entertained the guests and all were highly pleased. Mr. Wm. Culligan of town, kindly favored those present with several violin solos.

The tables were then cleared away and dancing took place. Excellent music was provided by the 45th Regiment Orchestra of Campbellford, while Mr. C. Williams of town acted as master of ceremony during the evening.

All the guests were highly delighted with the evening, and extend their hearty thanks to the committee in charge.

Programme of Great Merit At S.S. Anniversary Concert

George Street Church Crowded Last Night—Many New Features Were Introduced—A Successful Event.

A new era in connection with Sunday School entertainments in Peterborough was inaugurated at the anniversary concert in George street church last night. Of such excellence was the programme and so many of the features were new that it may be said that a new standard has been set and all previous efforts in this line outdone.

The church was crowded both down stairs and in the gallery and the large attendance combined with the magnificent programme made the event a big success in every respect. Great credit is due those in charge of the arrangements and those taking part in the concert for the excellent manner in which everything was carried out. There were no delays of any kind and everything went along with a smoothness that bespoke skilled instruction, and assiduous work on the part of the pupils. They were trained by Miss Amy L. Doty, of London, Ont. who has been in the city for the past ten days. Miss Doty has had much experience in this line of work and had a score of new ideas which were carried into effect. She deserves to be heartily congratulated on the results of her efforts. The programme was better than the most sanguine expected—so many of the features were new, in this city at least. The superintendent of the Sabbath School, Mr. [illegible] R. Armstrong and the other officers also deserve credit for the splendid management. The teachers of the classes also worked hard and last but not least, reference must be made to the pupils themselves. Had it not been for their good work, faithful attendance at practices, and general interest shown, the concert could not have been made the success it was. Everyone taking part acquitted herself or himself with credit.

The programme was as follows;

PART I.

Chorus—Living for Jesus Here—200 scholars.
Invocation—Rev. E. A. Pearson.
Address of Welcome—16 Boys.
Solo and Chorus—'Katy Did'—Josie Callender and 100 scholars.
Recitation—'The Methodist Way'—Palmer Wiley.
Chorus—'Disobedient Chickens'—110 scholars.
Recitation—'Things Inside'—13 boys.
Chorus and Drill—'The Snowflakes'—70 girls.
Recitation and Concert—"The Boys Complaint"—16 boys.
Double Quartette—"Aunt Jerusha's Cat"—Gladys Moran, Reta Graham, Muriel Moran, Kathleen Hawely, Harry Thornton, Milton Brown, Joseph Zapp, Palmer Wiley.

PART II.

Song—"Chips of the Old Block"—16 boys.
Recitation in Concert—"The Kiss in School"—24 girls.
March Song and Drill—"Mr. Volunteer"—Young men.
Recitation—"The Mourning Veil"—Miss Amy L. Doty.
Solo—"I'm Tying the Leaves"—Howard Armstrong.
Illustrated Hymn—"Lead Kindly Light"—12 young ladies, solo by Miss Chasty.
The Seasons—March and Drill, Winter—16 young ladies. Handkerchief Drill, Spring, Summer, Autumn—12 girls.
Exercise—"The Flags"—70 scholars
National Anthem.

The accompanists were Miss Evelyn Chasty and Miss L. Smith, both of whom performed their duties in a highly satisfactory manner.

The first part of the programme was contributed largely by the pupils of the primary department while the second part was given almost entirely by the seniors.

The opening chorus "Living for Jesus Here," was given by the whole school. The two hundred pupils, drawn up in an artistic formation, made a very pretty sight. They were appropriately costumed and drawn up in a block formation, with the little ones in front, the taller ones back of them, and the uniformed boys at the back.

So good were all the numbers on the programme that it is hard to specialise. Mention, however, must be made of the chorus, "Disobedient Chickens," by 110 scholars. The movements of the chickens, for the time being, were graceful as well as amusing and there was not a wrong movement during the whole number.

The solo and chorus, "Katy Did," by Josie Callender and 110 scholars was also well done. The double quartette "Aunt Jerusha's Cat," was one of the features of the programme, and evoked great applause.

Probably the best number of the second part of the programme was the illustrated hymn, "Lead Kindly Light." This was given by twelve young ladies dressed in white. The solo was taken by Miss Chasty, and the scene was a most impressive one, the lights being turned low to add to the effect.

A solo, "I'm tying the leaves," by Master Harold Armstrong, was exceedingly well rendered and in her recitation, "The Mourning Veil," Miss Amy L. Doty showed herself to be an elocutionist of rare ability. The work of the boys and young men in the different drills and choruses is also worthy of much praise.

Palmer Riley's recitation, "The Methodist Way," was a number that won much applause.

Altogether the programme was one of extraordinary merit, and was a decided treat to those in attendance.

Astronomical Society to Meet

Interesting Programme Prepared for Friday Night

A meeting of the Peterborough section of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada will be held at the Y.W.C.A. on Friday evening at eight o'clock. The session promises to be a most interesting one, as an unusually good programme has been prepared.

The President, Rev. Dr. Marsh, will tell about the condition of the heavens at the present time, and the results of some observations made since the last meeting. Messrs. H. B. Collier and H. O. Fisk will give accounts of observations made recently. Mr. Collier will also give a talk on the moon, illustrated with blackboard sketches. Mr. Fisk, who was a recent visitor to the Dominion Observatory, at Ottawa, will tell about what he saw there. He was the guest of Dr. King, the Dominion astronomer, who visited Peterborough a few weeks ago.

The public is cordially invited to the meeting. There is no admission fee.

Letters to The Editor

WHAT IS HEAVEN

To the Editor of the Review;

Sir,—Few people can find out where Heaven is or what it is. No one seems to know but that it is a place we all ought to want to go to. Some people think it is a moving picture machine perhaps, with a man hollerin' at the door. Then others think it's a place where they can get all they want to eat for nothing and mebbe drink too. Others say no it is local option there. The idea of gold and precious stones bigger than the Sullivan diamond is in the minds of them that want such things. My wife thinks and hopes it is a place of rest where she can lie around in a hammock and do nothing and when I told her I hoped it was a place of work she just laughed. (Now, Sir, I am not wanting to make fun of sacred things but I do want to know what I am to feel like when I get there the same as if I was going to any other place on earth. I aint a higher critic or Biblical scholar, so I can not find it all out for myself and my preacher knows or says nothing about it for I asked him point blank Sunday week. Can any body tell me what Heaven really is. I don't want to know what it is like, I'm tired hearing that. Hoping no offence, Sir,

Yours truly,
INQUIRER.

CONSUMPTION

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—The Medical Department's local Government Board, England, report on "Sanatoria for Consumption and other aspects of the Tuberculosis Question," is just issued. Conclusions:—The magnitude of the evil greatly overrated, steadily declining; far less fatal than supposed. If decrease for 30 years same as last 30 the disease would totally disappear. Meat and milk supply of the nation call for more careful supervision.

The existence of the Sanatoria has not produced any perceptible effect upon the rate of decline of consumption materially.

Yourst ruly,
W. A. BAILEY.

4 HOSPITALS FAILED

James Heard, of Morton Park, Ont., says:—"While employed at the Specialty Works of Newmarket 6 or 7 years ago I bruised my ankle, but through neglect this bruise turned to an ulcerated or burning sore, which caused me a great deal of suffering. I tried a great number of doctors, and was in the hospital four times. I tried almost everything, but nothing did me any good. I could not sleep at night with the scalding and burning pain, but from the first application of Zam-Buk I never lost any sleep, and felt nothing more of it than if I hadn't had any sore at all. It started healing and gave me no further trouble. Shortly after this, as I was getting on a street car, my foot slipped and I came with all my might down the edge of the step and gave my foot a terrible mangling up. This made it far worse than ever, but I started again with Zam-buk, and it did the same work over again, as it did at first and my ankle is sound and well as ever it was. I cannot speak too highly of Zam-buk.

Zam-buk cures cuts, burns, chapped hands, chaffing cold sores, itch, chilblains, eczema, running sores, sore throat, bad chest, ringworm, piles (blind or bleeding), bad legs, inflamed patches, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, abscesses and all diseased, injured and irritated conditions of the skin. Obtainable of all druggists and stores, 50c. or post-paid upon receipt of price from Zam-buk Co., Toronto.

Trip Bristling With Incidents; Mr. B. Lastar is Home Again

Local Man had Many Strange Experiences on Trip to Russia—Went to Within 65 Miles of Moscow in the Fulfillment of His Task—A Dangerous Voyage Across Atlantic, During Which Young Man Died—Held by Frontier Police—Quick Travelling From Town to Town—Reads Like a Romance.

Some of the situations and climaxes in many of the modern novels telling of swordplay rides through forests on dark nights foiling the plots of nihilists hairbreadth escapes, etc., seem grotesque to the large majority of us. But Mr. Bernard Lastar, the Simcoe street merchant had just as marvellous and exciting a time on his recent visit to Russia as did pen heroes of Anthony Hope, Guy Boothby or other unkiliable creations of fanciful writers of convenient romance. For a month and a half he was away on a secret mission and had many experiences during his travels. Owing to their number it is impossible to make introductory reference to them but they are described in the following account of Mr. Lastar's trip.

THE MESSAGE

Shortly before Christmas Mr. Lastar received a message from Russia. It was from a private source of which Mr. Lastar would divulge no particulars. It stated that a mission of importance was to be fulfilled and by a man who knew Russia and who would not be afraid to spend his own money. At that time Mr. Lastar was unable to go. On the 12th of January he received another message saying that a man was wanted to do the work required at once. Two days later, on the 14th of January he went to New York and on the 18th he embarked from the American metropolis on the steamer St. Paul to carry out the responsible task allotted him

A TERRIBLE VOYAGE.

From the very commencement of his mysterious journey things were interesting for Mr. Lastar. The voyage across the Atlantic was exceedingly rough and was made with the greatest discomfort to the passengers. On the third day those on board were locked from the deck for 32 hours the last eight of which were spent in the passenger's respective compartments and during that time they were without anything to eat or drink. It was feared that the St. Paul would turn turtle. She plunged and churned around in a manner that struck terror into the hearts of her large cargo of human beings. In spite of the many seasoned ocean travellers on board, there was hardly one of them that wasn't sick during the perilous voyage. Five were dangerously injured twenty-two were injured to a less extent and one steerage passenger died six hours before the landing at Plymouth was made. The ship's physician said he had succumbed to sea sickness but apparently this was not the cause to which his death was due

A PROTEST AGAINST DOCTOR'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Lastar and another passenger framed a written protest against the cause of death as given by the physician. They did not believe the unfortunate young fellow died from sea sickness but from exposure and neglect. The passengers' opinion was transmitted from the vessel to London to the American consul. One hundred and twenty-six passengers by their signatures endorsed the protest. Mr. Lastar showed his interviewers the signatures of six passengers who are ready if necessary to give evidence in the matter which is now under investigation. The American Consul said he could do nothing of his own accord but will submit the case to the United States government as it is an American steamship company that owns the St. Paul. The young man who died was a Hungarian, 19 years of age. His name was Popowatch Janush and he came from Negrovo in the province of Beregmie.

LORD STRATHCONA ASKS ABOUT LIFT LOCK.

On Sunday, the 26th of January, the vessel reached Southampton and on the same afternoon Mr. Lastar arrived in London. He was introduced there to Lord Strathcona who gave him a passport to Russia. The famous Canadian talked genially with him and when Mr. Lastar told him he was from Peterborough, he asked him about the lift lock.

On Tuesday the passport was signed by the Russian Consul and every thing was in readiness for the continuance of the secret expedition.

THE JOURNEY RESUMED

On the evening of the 28th Mr. Lastar set sail for Harwick and from there to the Hook of Holland. The night before the Hook of Holland was reached the "Amsterdam" had been wrecked. The story of the wreck is familiar to many newspaper readers, the passengers drifting in three boats and being picked up by a schooner. On the 29th Berlin was reached by Mr. Lastar at 7 o'clock in the evening. Some of his relations knew of his coming and met him at the station. He left Berlin at 11 o'clock the same night and went to Corshan, Prussia, arriving there on the evening of February 1st. He had to go fifteen miles by stage to Rossel where he visited his brother-in-law evening of February 1st. He had to

He arrived here on the morning of the 2nd and stayed two days leaving on the 4th for a city on the Russian frontier. He stayed here over night, and on the 5th visited another of his relatives at Tilsit, which he had to pass through on his way to his destination. He got there at 7 o'clock in the evening and continued his course at 10 o'clock on the same night landing at Stalopen at 1.30 in the morning. He paid a hurry visit to his aunt there leaving shortly after his arrival. Edekunen on the border of Prussia and Russia was next reached.

IN DARKEST RUSSIA.

On the 6th of February the Russian frontier was crossed, and the man with the serious undertaking to carry out was in the country of the bear. Vershblovo was the first place he stopped at in Russia. On the same morning that he arrived Mr. Lastar left Vershblovo and went to Mersk where he stayed over night with his parents whom he was naturally very glad to meet and the next was on his way again. When near Gomel he was in a railway encounter between a freight and a passenger train. Particulars of the collision appeared in the local papers.

Mr. Lastar brought home with him as mementoes some of the fragments of the cars that were smashed in wreck. He stayed at Gomel over night and in the morning arrived at Kiev where he was the guest of his aunt until the next day when he left for Moscow. On the way there he met in the train the person to whom he had to report concerning his mission and continued to Smolensk. He went next to Dorogobush where his boots were stolen. He had to travel twenty-two miles in a wagon with no boots, wearing three pairs of socks and his rubbers which fortunately were not stolen. He visited his sister at Dorogobusk, and left for Vensma which is about 65 miles from Moscow. Here he had the second meeting with the man whom he had on the occasion referred to above. His work was accomplished at this meeting and he was instructed to return.

DETAINED BY FRONTIER POLICE

He reached Mersk on his return trip on the night of February 12th, and stayed there over night. At 5.30 o'clock on the 14th he was stopped by the frontier police and held till the 16th. He could not tell what he had been doing in Russia owing to the fact that the nature of his mission had to be so closely guarded. The law required that he should tell his business. He made the excuse that that he had been simply travelling in Russia and had forgotten the names of the places he had visited. He sent word of his plight to London by Germany, and instructions to release him were immediately forthcoming and on the 16th he was allowed to go. It is superfluous to state that Mr. Lastar was glad to leave the land of tyranny and oppression and once more start for the country where the Union Jack proclaims freedom and protection.

COMING HOME.

It was a relief for Mr. Lastar to leave the Hook of Holland on the homeward voyage on February 18th. After doing some business in London he embarked for the direct voyage to Canada on the 21st, landing at St. John's on Saturday, February 29th. As far as the atmospheric conditions were concerned, it was an enjoyable trip, but its pleasure was marred by the death of two young children, both of whom were buried at sea.

Mr. Lastar reached Peterborough on Sunday after having had a trip brimful of incidents and excitement. If the particulars of his mission were known a veritable play might be woven out of them but a secret's a secret.

Letter Got into the Wrong Box—Matter Now in the Courts

A Toronto despatch has the following reference to a case of local interest;

Robert J. Kidd was formerly a clerk in the Legislative Buildings. He lost his job.

G. N. Kidd was a member of the Local Legislature. He is now dead.

The first mentioned lost his position because a letter intended for him got into the letter box of the M.P.P. Its contents were forwarded to the official superior of R. J. Kidd.

As a consequence of the incident, R. J. Kidd entered action against G. N. Kidd, in 1905, to recover damages. Application has been made to Master-in-Chambers Cartwright to dismiss the action for want of prosecution. Judgment was reserved.

EAT ORANGES

IF YOU WANT TO KEEP WELL

Careful tests have proved beyond question that orange juice has clearly defined medicinal virtues. Those who suffer with Indigestion—are compelled "to diet"—find that after eating oranges regularly for breakfast there is no distress, no palpitation.

Where there was a tendency towards constipation, the eating of oranges regulated the bowels.

In skin troubles, those who began the morning meal with an orange were noticeably improved.

There is, however, a quicker way to get better results. This is to take one or two "Fruit-a-tives" tablets at bedtime in addition to the juice of an orange before breakfast the next morning. "Fruit-a-tives" are the juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes, in which the medicinal action is many times intensified by the special way of combining them. Valuable tonics are then added.

Take the juice of an orange before breakfast—take "Fruit-a-tives" at night—and you will quickly be rid of Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, Constipation and Biliousness. "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box—6 for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price by "Fruit-a-tives," Limited, Ottawa.

CAUSE OF LONG SITTING

Saturday at midnight brought to a close the long sitting of the House of Commons —a sitting of 57 hours. What was the cause of this extraordinary session?

It is the practice of Governments when supply is being voted to hold over such items as cannot be discussed either through the absence of details or of documents. On Thursday night the Government proposed the passage of the three remaining votes for the Marine Department. Hon. George E. Foster pointed out that several documents had not been produced and proposed that other votes be taken up instead.

The Government declined to accede to the proposition and threatened to keep the House in session until the votes for the Marine Department had been passed. By the Opposition this attempt to push through the supply in this tyrannical manner was resented.

For two days and two nights the Opposition fought for full information and for the documents. During this period the Government strove to secure the passage of the votes without information, without the documents, in the face of the objections of the representatives of the people and in violation of the principle and the practice hitherto observed.

The Opposition carried its point, after heavy work, for Sunday stopped the struggle and thwarted the designs of the "Ministry".—The Mail and Empire.

The Marine and Fisheries Department seems to have vied with the Department of the Interior in an effort to suppress exposure of extravagance that is at once reckless and sinister.

SINS OF THE PAST

On page 6 of the magazine part of Saturday's Globe is a photograph of Parry Sound, showing a large town as a huge lumber centre. At the bottom of the photograph is this legend: "Lumber Mills at Parry Sound, the fruit of the Prohibition of the Export of Sawlogs." If this should catch the Examiner's eye we hope that it will think with deep regret and equal contrition of the part it played not many years ago in fighting that very prohibition of export which the Globe praises. These were the days when the Examiner and its proprietor, Mr. Stratton, were arrayed against the workingman, when any limitation to the free sale of our limits in the American market was denounced as sacrilege, when the accompanying right to ferry our logs across the lakes to American mills was defended as divine when a plea for the prohibition of export of our logs was proclaimed as trade heresy, the edge of the wedge of protection, &c. All this they would no doubt forget now when prohibition of export has come to pass and such pictures as the one we speak of are as common as encouraging. Who will ever forget Mr. Stratton in the Town Council-Chamber, with his small army of political backers seeking to terrify men, who merely asked the right to discuss the question, into submission? It was at once grave and laughable. This obtuse politician sacrificed the future to the present, unmindful of the fact that an injured people never forgets. We invite the Examiner to tour with the Globe through this immense district of Georgian Bay, where on all sides it will see an industry which it did its best to destroy, that corporations might flourish and the Canadian workingman might starve. The revenge of time! It may be slow, but it comes all the same. An Opposition at that time weak and maligned, triumphed alike over persecution and stupidity. Their policy, like their spirit of honesty and progressiveness, appealed to the people, and the people put the sign of its approval upon both. Saturday's Globe is a great journalistic enterprise worthy of a truly metropolitan paper.

EDITORIAL NOTES

One would think that the government of a country was not less important than domestic government, but some people seem to think otherwise. Babylon, Greece, Rome and England have demonstrated the value of the science of government, known to us broadly as "politics." That it should be necessary to discuss the desirability of a church member's taking part in the government of a country is itself a matter for discussion.

Knee high rubber boots will be the fashion this spring. Either that or some one will have to prevail on the Board of Works to clear the middle of the city of snow. The railway track is an excellent conduit but when the snow is deep it cannot do the work quickly enough. Wet feet mean colds and probably pneumonia, if not rheumatism. It would be money in the pocket of the people, though not in those of the doctors perhaps, if a portion of the snow at least were cleared away.

Mr. Ames asked for nine pages of originals and expressed himself satisfied with mere copies for 455 pages. The nine were refused. The debate began and yet Sir Wilfrid pretends to blame Mr. Borden for the length of it. If Mr. Ames has asked for 5000 pages instead of nine, he would have been justified we should think. Sir Wilfrid and his followers in vain tried to draw a herring across the scent.

"Meetings in several parts of Ontario have condemned assisted immigration. It must be remembered that in doubling the bonus to booking agents on the continent the assistance has merely been brought up to the level of the bonus on British immigrants."

This quotation from the Globe represents its idea of the value of the British immigrant. No better than the continental variety! Is this really the Globe's opinion or is it only an attempt to shield the Laurier Government?

A MYSTERIOUS FIND

In the Vestibule of a Cobourg Church.

The Cobourg Star says;—On Sunday evening quite a congregation assembled to hear the curate of St. John's church, Port Hope, preach at St. George's church, Grafton. Everything passed off nicely until a hymn about "Listen to the Angels Sing" was being sung. Some one's little darling—rather young to be so conceited—took up the refrain, and the congregation got their first surprise. In the second verse the babe repeated the solo as the organ again struck up about angels singing. Then a couple of young men went out, and then several ladies were called out. Things certainly looked mysterious, and a mystery it was. In the vestibule was found a young babe about three weeks old, well bundled up, but with no one there to claim it. Some parties say that they saw a sleigh drive up to the entrance of the church, and the party got out with a parcel. The baby was taken care of, but who the parents of the child are is a mystery.—Port Hope Guide.

Missionary Institute Will Be Held in This City in May

Decided Upon at Conclusion of Missionary Rally at Knox Church Last Evening—An Enthusiastic Gathering of Young People—Excellent Address by Rev. E. A. Armstrong, of Toronto

Knox church was crowded to the doors last evening with an enthusiastic gathering of young people from all the city churches and one of the most successful missionary rallies that has ever been held here was conducted. It was a union meeting of the Young People's Societies of every denomination and it was indeed gratifying to note the spirit of harmony that prevailed throughout the evening. The meeting was an interesting one and was no doubt productive of much good, awakening as it was sure to do, fresh interest in the missionary cause. One good result of last night's meeting is that in the near future, a missionary institute will be held here at an early date. At the close, last evening, it was the unanimous opinion of those present that it would be advisable to hold a missionary institute.

The meeting was presided over by Rev. J. R. Webb, who in his introductory remarks, expressed pleasure at seeing such a large number present. He thanked the young people of Knox church for their kind invitation. A letter of regret was read from his Lordship Bishop Reeve, at his inability to be present, he having been called away to Toronto. On behalf of Knox church, Mr. D. Campbell extended a welcome to the visiting societies expressing a wish that all would profit from the address to be heard.

After a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Dawson, Rev. Dr. Langfeldt introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. E. A. Armstrong, of Toronto. Dr. Langfeldt said that it gave him great pleasure to introduce the speaker. He had heard glowing accounts of his good work recently done in Orillia.

"The young people and the world's evangelization," was the subject of Mr. Armstrong's address and for over an hour he kept his audience deeply interested. Beginning the speaker referred to the young people's missionary movement. It was not the evangelization of the heathen, of foreign lands only, but the people of our own country. This is a fine and prosperous country and it should be kept Godly. There are twenty millions of young people in the Young People's Societies throughout Canada and when one considers the possibilities wrapped up in the young people a great work could be done in the cause of missions. Five years ago (the Young People's missionary movement was organized at Silver Bay, N. Y. Realizing that very little interest was taken in missions, it was decided that the children of the present day should be educated in missionary work and the matter of what could be done along these lines in the Sunday schools and the Young People's Societies was discussed. The missionary movement is a federation of mission boards of all denominations. The Board of Managers consists of thirty-nine members and they control the operations of the movement. The young people's missionary movement is the mission boards working unitedly. There is no membership. The only way to be a member is to join a mission study class.

The work of the movement is along educational lines. All the people want is to be acquainted with the needs of the missionaries and they will assist them. During the summer conferences are held and missionary topics are discussed. All the missionaries who are home on furlough, gather and give addresses. He referred to the inclusiveness of the study of missionary countries. In this way one learns the history of the country, the customs of the people and the country's commercial relations. Speaking of the recent missionary institute at Orillia, Mr. Armstrong said that it had been attended with great success. It lasted three days and each evening there was in the neighborhood of one thousand people present.

The first international convention of the Young People's Missionary movement will be held next week at Pittsburg, when it is expected 2500 delegates will be present. It will be the greatest missionary convention that has even been held. The speaker hoped that Peterborough would be largely represented at it. He concluded his remarks by hoping that there would be a great missionary awakening in heathen lands and that a greater interest would be manifested in the work.

While the offertory was being taken Miss C. Belleghem and Mr. Jas. Brown sang a duet.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker of the evening for the excellent address and to Knox Young People for the invitation to join with them in the rally, Mr. W. Garbutt, of Murray street church, making the motion and Mr. Chas. Barrie, of Park street Baptist church, seconding the motion. Miss Robinson then gave a vocal solo, in excellent voice.

Upon motion of Rev. J. G. Potter, and seconded by Mr. H. L. Brace, it was decided to hold a missionary institute at an early date.

The meeting was closed with the singing of a hymn and the benediction by Rev. H. J. Keith.

The missionary exhibit in the afternoon was attended by a large number and proved to be very instructive. Many curios from every heathen land were shown and attracted a great deal of interest.

At the conclusion of the meeting a conference of the ministers and clergy was held with Mr. Armstrong president of the Young People's Societies and it was decided to hold the missionary institute the first week in May. A committee consisting of Messrs. H. C. M. Potter, D. Campbell, E. Best and Jas. Goodwin were appointed to look after the arrangements.

"Some Day When Dreams Come True" as Regards Havelock

Great Things Expected When C. P. R. is Double Tracked and New Grain Line is Constructed—New Station May be Erected—Rosy Prospects Confront the Villagers.

Special to The Review.

Havelock, March 3—Havelock is at present building its aerial castles for the coming year but before the year is out if everything works right, they will indeed be more than mere dreams. It has already made some great advances but the outlook for Havelock is that in the near future, the improvements and onward marches will be greater. Havelock believes in symmetrical development, the secret of all greatness. When it makes an advancement in one particular line it does not shut down operations in other things. Everyone puts away their little hammer—self interests—and puts a shoulder to the wheel with one another to keep the ball rolling and although the upward road to success is a steep and rocky one, by perseverance they mean to win.

An old and self proving maxim, which can be depended on is "that Havelock grows with the Toronto-Montreal line of the CPR." This being true if you want to judge the growth of Havelock. Keep your eye on the doings of the CPR at this branch.

There is something worth noticing in store for Havelock this year. It is the fact that the CPR. are going to double track their line from Toronto to Montreal. This means a growth in Havelock for with double tracking there will be more traffic over the line and that means several men and their families will be situated at this point.

Another thing that the people of Havelock are looking forward to, is the construction of the grain route from Victoria Harbor, which will mean a great advance in Havelock, as this small metropolis is quite sure of being the divisional point. If Peterborough was about 25 miles east of its present site there might be some good of it competing with Havelock for the divisional point, but as it is Peterborough is altogether too far away from Havelock. Havelock is about 100 miles from Victoria Harbor by direct line while Peterborough is about 75 miles and that is much too short for a division while the division to Smith's Falls would be 152 miles and that is too long and so in all probability the capital of East Peterborough will be the divisional point and not the capital of West Peterborough.

When the line was surveyed last year it was found that the best route would be to pass south of Lakefield, near Warsaw, go near Norwood and join the Havelock-Toronto line about half a mile west of Havelock. This route would be the easiest to construct because it is a much easier grade than by way of Peterborough. The CPR has also purchased a large stretch of land to the south of the yards at Havelock upon which to lay tracks as a great many more tracks will be needed on account of the increase in traffic.

When the grain route is constructed it will cause the CPR to station a large number of men at Havelock. It is estimated that one hundred men and their families will be stationed here and perhaps more. There will be need of conductors, brakemen, firemen, engineers, car repairers, wipers, shopmen, etc. amounting up to the hundred mark. Havelock with the present railroad line has a population of about 1300 and the new grain route to be erected will need as many men as the present line and thus the population will be doubled. At this rate of going it will only be a little while until Havelock will be an incorporated town.

In the spring of this year, work will be begun on the improvement of the present coal chutes which are much too small. The coal chutes will be built longer so as to hold five cars, while at present they only hold four cars. The sheds will also be constructed so that engines may be coaled on both sides. At present there are only chutes on one side and the CPR. find that enough coal cannot be stored in the chutes at once to supply the engines.

Great improvements will be made on the round house, which now is a semi-circular building. Next year, the whole will be made into a circular building with places for the engines on all sides of the turn table. This is being done to have a repair shop for the engines that will be used on the new grain route. The new addition to the building will be made of brick with a strong cement foundation and will be the same height as the other part. There will be two openings; one at the east to allow the engines to run down to the coal shutes to be coaled and the other on the west to allow the engines to go out to be filled with water. The turn table will be covered over so that snow cannot cover it in winter. Several devices will also be installed to carry off the steam and smoke given off by the engines. When the new parts are constructed to the round house and coal shutes, the number of employees in these buildings will be doubled.

NEW STATION!

It is rumored among the CPR men that a new station will be shortly constructed in Havelock. If a new station is erected the present building will likely be used for freight and express offices.

Another needed improvement is a larger freight shed as the present one is much too small for the amount of freight that is received at Havelock.

It is likely a large number of tracks will be built this year to the south of the present yards as the CPR have bought land there and large amounts of supplies are being stored in Havelock for their construction.

A new water tank has already been built to replace the old one that collapsed some time ago. The new tank is a very large round one, about the same size and holding the same amount of water as the old one. It is build on a foundation of cement and hooped with iron hoops which will remove all possibility of it collapsing.

DELEGATES TO GO TO PITTSBURG

Will Attend International Convention of Young People's Missionary Movement

At the International Convention of the Young People's Missionary Movement, which will be held at Pittsburg next week, or three days, will be attended by four delegates from this city. At the conclusion of the missionary rally at Knox church last evening, there were four who gave their names to Rev. Mr. Armstrong, as decided to go. There were some others who had not fully decided upon going. Those who will leave next Monday are Mr. H. C. M. Potter, of St Luke's church; Rev. H. J. Keith, of Knox church, and Misses Pearl Sheridan and Pearl Bell, of Charlotte street Methodist church.

SAVINGS OF 20 TO 50 PER CENT. ON NEW GOODS

This might seem an impossible offering, but these goods were bought by us in an unusual way and at unusual prices. Some were secured from manufacturers who were frightened by the money panic; some were orders cancelled by Western dealers and left on the makers' hands; another big lot was secured from a Tapestry Curtain Manufacturer who received a large amount of insurance through an accident to the water tower on his factory.

THE INSURANCE COMPANIES HAVE PAID ABOUT HALF YOUR BILL—

Not often you get a chance to get even with an Insurance Company, but here they practically have paid half your bill. 325 pairs heavy Tapestry Curtains were secured from a maker, who, through an accident to the water tower on his factory, received a per centage of insurance on his stock. Some of them were badly soaked, but most of them are none the worse. There are three qualities in the lot:

3.00 Tapestry Curtains, 1.79

5.00 Tapestry Curtains, 2.79

9.00 Tapestry Curtains, 3.75

75 pairs best silk finished Tapestry Curtains, in all the new shadings of Browns, Green and Rose, Crimson and Self Greens. Extra heavy fringed, hand knotted. Regular $7.50 to $9.00 a pair. These are slightly water marked. 14 Days only 3.75

Prince of Wales to Pay Second Visit to Canada

Will Represent King Edward at Quebec Celebration.

Premier Announces Visit of Prince of Wales—Will Come Last Week In July—$300,000 Voted to the Fund—Debate on French Treaty Resumed —Mr. Monk In Critical Vein—Lectured Quebec Compatriots.

Ottawa, March 4.—His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will come to Canada to attend the tercentenary celebration of the founding of Quebec. He has however stipulated that the event take place during the last week of July.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the announcement in the House last night, in moving the second reading of the bill to appropriate $300,000 for the Quebec battlefields scheme.

Speaking to his resolution, the Prime Minister said the idea of preserving the battlefields of Quebec had impressed itself upon the minds of the people and has been received with universal approval.

In connection with the tercentenary of Quebec, he paid a tribute to the memory of Champlain, and said the occasion seemed appropriate to recall the last stages of the long struggle which was maintained between France and England on this continent, and to dedicate and consecrate the ground which has been hallowed by the blood of so many noble men, who gave their lives for the respective causes in which they were engaged.

Last night the debate on the third reading of the French treaty suddenly collapsed. In order to force a vote a number of Liberals rose in their places and the Speaker called for the ayes and nays.

Only five opposed the third reading. They were Lancaster, Chisholm (Huron), Marshall, Jackson (Elgin), and Owens, while 103 votes were recorded for the bill.

During the debate Mr. Monk (Jacques Cartier) commended the convention, but maintained it was the duty of the Opposition to criticize details. He also took occasion to read a sharp lecture to his Quebec compatriots who have endeavored to make political capital out of the fact that the Opposition had seen fit to object to some of its features.

In opening, Mr. Monk declared that the treaty had been very well received by the Opposition. Some had very properly found fault with details while approving of the principle of securing commercial advantages with the country. For criticizing the terms, the Opposition had been condemned by newspapers supporting the Government in Quebec and attacks on the Department of Marine last week were considered as having been launched with the object of detracting from the achievement of Mr. Brodeur in negotiating the treaty. "Le Canada," declared the object of the obstruction of last week was to "spoil the merit coming to Mr. Brodeur." "Le Soleil," taking similar ground, said the members of the Quebec district "formed a hollow square around Mr. Brodeur." Again Le Canada had attacked Mr. Monk, declaring him to be "lacking without Latin quality," which would make him unacceptable to people of Quebec.

Laurier's Attitude In 1893.

Mr. Monk had looked up the attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as to the French treaty of 1893. What was his Latin mental condition? Mr. Monk was surprised to find that he opposed it hammer and tongs. There was not one word to commend the Conservative Government for negotiating the treaty.

Mr. Monk, in proceeding to criticize the new instrument, said it would have been well if we had secured fewer concessions, but had made an effort to receive more substantial ones.

Mr. Zimmerman (Hamilton) spoke of the increase that is expected to come to the International Harvester Co. as a result of the treaty, while Mr. Brodeur spoke at some length, repeating his former explanation of advantages and dealing with the claim the all-important departure had been made in Canada's treaty-making powers.

Kingston Religious Census.

Kingston, March 4.—The religious census recently taken here puts the population at 20,072, compared with the Dominion census of 19,263 in 1891, and 17,961 in 1901. This was very carefully done. The religious preferences of the inhabitants were: Anglicans 4,935, Roman Catholics 4,873, Methodists 4,068, Presbyterians 3,108, Congregationalists 954, Baptists 469, Salvation Army 305, Hebrews 244, Free Methodists 143, Holiness Movement 120. Some 147 declare no preference.

At the previous census the Roman Catholics were the most numerous denomination.

Edmonton Expanding.

Edmonton, March 4.—Building permits for January and February are almost double the corresponding months of last year. They total $500,925.

Customs returns for February were $15,644, an increase of $3,602 over February last year. Vital statistics: Births 34, deaths 12, marriages 7.

He Robbed Churches.

Limoges, France, March 4.—Antoine Thomas yesterday was sentenced to six years' imprisonment at hard labor. Thomas is the cooper of Clermont-Fer, who committed the series of sensational church robberies in France, the revelation of which created a sensation last fall.

The trial began here Feb. 27. His son Francis and his mother, together with three antiquaries, Michel, Faure and Dufay, were charged with complicity in the thefts. The mother and Michel were acquitted. The son and the other two antiquaries were found guilty and sentenced each to two years at hard labor. Orders were given that the stolen relics be turned over to the state.

Sold Out Whole Town.

St. Petersburg, March 4.—The news of an interesting transfer of real estate is reported here from the Government of Volhynia. The entire town of Dubno, which count some 13,000 inhabitants, has been sold by the owner, Countess Shuvalovo, to Offendorf, an Austrian, for $2,000,000. The transfer includes the site of the Russian fortress at Dubno.

This town is one of several in Russian Poland that has been held under the ownership of a single individual since the old feudal days.

Murdered For $6.

New York, March 4.—A man who had been employed as a watchman in a stable on South street for more than a year was brutally murdered Monday night by robbers, who secured only $6 as a reward. One side of the face was beaten beyond recognition with a hammer.

More Troops For Morocco.

Paris, March 4.—The Cabinet yesterday voted formally to send 4,000 additional soldiers to Morocco to continue the aggressive policy of the Government in that country and relieve the troops worn out in the recent fighting with the Moors.

Jumped From Brooklyn Bridge.

New York, March 4.—An unknown man, said to be about 30 years old, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge into the East River yesterday and was killed. His body did not reappear on the surface and the police began a search for it.

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.

Made Spurious Coin Which Could Scarcely Be Detected.

New York, March 4.—A complete counterfeiting plant for making spurious half-dollars was seized in Brooklyn yesterday and four men and one woman were arrested, charged with making and circulating the imitation coins. Secret service agents have been searching for two months for a band of counterfeiters who have flooded the city with half-dollars so nearly like real money that detection was next to impossible.

They say that newly moulded coins found in the Brooklyn house were made in the same moulds (and from the same material as those which have caused so much trouble.

The bogus coins, while almost an exact reproduction of those turned out by the United States mints, were found upon expert examination to contain a considerable quantity of tin and also to be slightly overweight.

The prisoners arrested are: John Hart, Raymond Scruton, Jos. Gifford, Thos. McPartland and Mabel Hamilton.

When arraigned before United States Commissioner Benedict the men were held in $2,500 bonds each and the woman $500.

CAUSES OF SUICIDE.

Why 7,298 Persons In Germany Ended Their Existence.

Berlin, March 4.—Statistics relative to suicide in Prussia during 1906 show that in the 12 months no fewer than 7,298 persons, 5,385 men and 1,714 women, ended their own lives.

Of each 100 persons who had tired of life 6.6 men killed themselves from disappointment with their conditions, and 5.6 per cent. of women from the same cause; owing to physical sufferings 10.3 men, 8.8 women; nervous disorders 3.3 men, 6.5 women; insanity 21.1 men, 33.9 women; weakness of intellect 1.0 men, 2.2 women; alcoholism 11.6 men, 10.3 women; attacks of passion 2.8 men, 6.3 women; consequences of morality 0.5 men, 0.2 women; sorrow and despair 9.4 men, 7.4 women; shame at own actions or guilty conscience 7.3 men, 6.9 women; anger and quarrels 1.6 men, 1.6 women; while 24.5 per cent. of the men and 21.1 per cent. of the women took their lives for unknown reasons.

WHOLE TRAIN DESTROYED.

Two Cars of Powder Explode While Running Full Speed.

Litchfield, Ill., March 4.—A cargo of powder carried by a freight train on the Big Four Railroad exploded yesterday while the train was running at full speed two miles from here. Two men were injured. The train was badly wrecked and several cars burned. The concussion shook houses and shattered windows for many miles.

The accident happened at a sharp curve, ten minutes after the freight left here, and two cars filled with powder, in the middle of the train, were blown high into the air. The debris was scattered over twenty acres of ground. What remained of the train after the explosion was practically destroyed by fire.

The track was torn up for a hundred feet.

TOOK CURVE TOO SHARPLY.

Motorman Blamed For Street Car Wreck Near Bridgeport.

Glace Bay, N.S., March 4.—About 11.15 Monday night a car jumped the tracks of the Sydney & Glace Bay Electric Railway near Bridgeport, ran about twenty feet from the track and turned on its side.

About twenty passengers were on the car. Bart Myles had his skull fractured and the side of his face nearly torn off. He will die. Neil McMullin had an artery in his arm severed, but will recover.

Councillor Daniel Graham had two ribs broken; Miss May McEachren, hand hurt, but helped remove Graham from the wreck.

Motorman Duncan Macdonald is blamed. He has only been a month on the road. He took a curve too sharply.

Hing Leads in Law.

Montreal, March 4.—McGill has a yellow peril. It is Peter Hing. The law examinations are in progress, and the results are known in one subject. Peter Hing heads the list in that subject, and it is one of the most difficult of the course—gifts and obligations. In this subject he obtained 88 per cent.

Peter, as he is known by all, is a native of China, and came to Canada about ten years ago with his father, who is an eminent evangelist. He will enter the diplomatic service of his country.

Boston Appeals to Boston.

Boston, March 4.—Mayor Hibbard, in response to a message to the "Right Worshipful Mayor of Boston" from the mayor of Boston, England, has opened subscriptions for $6,000 to be used to renovate the collegiate church in the English town. In 1855 Boston applied to her namesake on this side of the water for $2,000 for the same purpose, and got it. Now the municipality wants to repair the whole building and expects to get the money here.

No Right to Search Italians.

Montreal, March 4.—The city attorneys have handed down the opinion that the police were ultra vires of their rights in searching the Italians on the streets for weapons. The only people they can search are those who have committed a felony or are about to do so.

As a result a large number of actions will be taken against the city.

Fire at Reston, Man.

Reston, Man., March 4.—Fire destroyed the Massey-Harris warehouse and contents yesterday. Nothing was saved. Snow was falling and a volunteer bucket brigade saved Ireland's livery and probably half the village. The loss is about $6,000, mostly insured.

Fire did $300 damage to woodwork in St. Thomas' church, Hamilton, on Sunday.

MORE ANARCHISTS ARRESTED.

Reign of Terror May Be Instituted Against the Law.

Chicago, March 4.—Isador Maron, 20 years old, a Russian Jew, known as the "curly-haired boy" companion of Lazarus Averbuch, 20 years old, 318 Washburne avenue, the anarchist who was shot and killed Monday in his attempt to assassinate Chief of Police George M. Shippey, was arrested yesterday near Averbuch's home.

Maron attended an anarchist meeting at Workman's Hall with Averbuch last Sunday and is declared by the police to have been the assassin's most intimate companion.

Maron, the police say, cannot read English and speaks very little of the language. Three other persons are being held by the police in connection with the attempted assassination of Chief Shippey. Their names are: Olga Averbuch, 22 years old, a sister of Chief Shippey's assailant; Tonoitis Korimiros, a bartender in the employ of Mrs. Adams, and Edward Berman, 40 years, a cobbler. Berman with William B. Sigel, a business partner, was arrested early yesterday after the police had intercepted a telephone message. A sergeant was using the telephone when the wires became crossed and he heard someone say to Berman: "For God's sake, get out of town. They're on." Sigel was released later after being severely questioned. The police say that they have received information that Berman's shop was the congregating place nightly for a crowd of men.

Three weeks ago detectives brought word to Chief of Police Shippey that the "Reds" had marked a Chicago man for assassination. They did not know who it was, and from that time all their efforts were concentrated on the discovery of the identity of the intended victim. Once or twice the chief received through the mail a scrawling note informing him he was marked for assassination if he did not desist from his repressive measures against "The Friends of the People."

The situation is thus discussed by the chief:

"A number of attacks were made upon the police at a meeting in Brand's Hall recently. Several of the speakers might just as well have told their deluded hearers to go out and murder every policeman they saw. That was what one of the speakers said he wished he could do—go out and kill every policeman and throw their bodies in the lake to the fish."

"It is the suggestion that causes these poor deluded men to go out with their knives and revolvers to kill.

"Should I denounce the ministry of any church because one of the ministers happened to go astray? Why, then, should the entire police force be denounced in such bitter language because there are some mad men on it. These black sheep among the police are punished severely. I am the first man to see them punished."

Frank Zejicek was arrested yesterday charged with sending a threatening letter to a Roman Catholic clergyman, Broconius Nuzil, a prior of the Benedictine Fathers. The prisoner, who is 38 years old, admitted sending a demand for $1,000 to the priest.

MERGE MEDICAL BRANCHES.

Premier Promises Deputation of Doctors Serious Consideration.

Ottawa, March 4.—A consolidation of the medical branches of the various departments of the Government into one central department under the direction of one Minister and administered directly by a Deputy Minister was urged yesterday by a deputation of medical men who waited upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Sydney Fisher. The deputation represented the public health committee of the Canadian Medical Association and medical men in the Commons and the Senate.

Such a bureau would in no wise interfere with the work now being done by the various provincial boards of health, and could afterwards be gradually broadened to include a national laboratory for testing of vacines, anti-toxins, etc., and to promote general measures for the preservation of public health, encouragement of better sanitary conditions, prevention of disease, etc.

Sir Wilfrid and Hon. Mr. Fisher expressed themselves as being much impressed.

Japanese Justice.

Salt Lake City, March 4.—Because Utah did not have the money to bring back two embezzlers from Japan, the Mikado's Government not only tried and convicted the offenders for a crime committed in the state, but has paid Utah for collecting and forwarding affidavits in the case.

The culprits fled from Brigham City more than a year ago with more than $18,000 entrusted to them for safe keeping by 75 Japanese laborers employed in the beet fields.

Need Fear No Explosions Now.

Kingston, March 4.—The Ontario Powder Co. of Kingston is to build its permanent works at Stony Point, a quarter of a mile farther away from Tweed, and will so buttress or barricade the plant to ensure every means of safety in the works. The company is meeting all claims for damages caused by the late explosion.

Textile Workers on Strike.

Montreal, March 4.—Twelve hundred operators of the east end mills of the Dominion Textile Co. are out on strike, and both plants have closed down. A sympathetic strike at the other mills of the company is threatened, and this would result in over 3,000 operators being out of employment.

Fear Danger.

Madrid, March 4.—Considerable concern is being felt in this city for the safety of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, on their approaching visit to Barcelona, which has been fixed for March 12.

The newspapers regard the trip as imprudent.

Hartley's Great Finish in The Six Day Walking Race

Just Reached the Finish Line in Time to Get Inside the Money—Plucky Canadian Cheered on by Hundreds and the Excitement Was Intense—High Praise for the Peterborough Man.

The Kansas City Star contains the following interesting account of the finish of the big six-day walking race;

A gong rang.

"Number two a mile!" shouted the man at the bell and the scorekeeper that stood in the balcony of Convention hall last night, hung a card on a large black board.

The five men out there on the sawdust track walked wearily on. It was the last night of the six-day tramp and an hour remained before the finish. The men, Hoagland, Slater, Messier and Player had all walked more than 260 miles—the distance required to share in the prize money. Only Hartley had three miles more to cover.

A band started to play. The music put new life into the men and for a few minutes they sprinted around the sawdust track. Then back to the old gait they went, trudging wearily around and around.

The cheers, when they came, weren't for Hoagland, the champion, or for Slater, the second man. They were praise and good will for a tall young man who limped steadily along, and a short, nervous appearing little individual who was exerting his every power to make three miles in the last hour.

WALKED 45 MILES YESTERDAY.

The first was Hal Player of Kansas City, an amateur who had entered and "stuck" with the professionals to the last; the second, Hartley, still short of the distance limit.

When the walking started yesterday morning the little Canadian had 45 miles to cover. And Hartley is 55 years old. Toward the finish last night Messier, Player and then Hoagland left the track. Slater was still trudging on, but he stopped frequently. Once he put an arm around Hartley's shoulders and urged him on. Then he, too, left the track.

HELPED ON BY THE STARS AND STRIPES.

"One lap left," the scorekeeper shouted.

A gong started to ring. A man ran down the track with a vari-colored piece of cloth in his arms. He threw it around Hartley's shoulders and Canadian walked still faster. It was an American flag.

"Come on, come on, come on!" a woman in a box cried. Men jumped from the boxes and surrounded the little man who came trudging up to the finish line. He had reached the requirement. The race was over.

Here is the lineup of the winners and the amount they will receive as prizes; Hoagland, first, 278 miles; Slater second, 274 miles; Messier third, 270 miles; Player, fourth, 267 miles, and Hartley fifth, 260 miles. They will receive respectively 40, 25, 18, 10 and 7 per cent. of the receipts for the week.

Hartley Was in Toronto Yesterday; Ill at Kansas

David Hartley, the Peterborough walker, who competed in the six-day walking race at Kansas City last week, arrived in the city this afternoon on his way home.

The race was won by Hoegland of Auburn, N.Y., with 278 miles to his credit. Hartley says Hoagland is a good walker, but he believes that he can defeat him under ordinary conditions and is endeavoring to have the champion come to Toronto and engage in a competition.

Hartley claims that during the race he was ill from the heat and the water, particularly the latter. May weather prevailed and in the building in which the contest was held hot air registers adjoined the track and choked the walkers. The track was of sawdust and hard to negotiate.

The Kansas City Journal thus describes the final night of the contest:

"In a blaze of speechmaking which followed a sensational attempt on the part of David Hartley to get into the money, to do which he was compelled to cover 260 miles, the big six-day walking match at Convention Hall ended last night with Willard A. Hoagland, champion of the world, the winner, having covered exactly 278 miles. Tom Slater, the Syracuse crack, was second, with 274 miles; Messier, of Milwaukee, was third; Player, the great Kansas City amateur, fourth, and Hartley, of Canada, fifth. None of the others finished in the money.

"The last night was marked by the desperate efforts of Hartley to walk 260 miles. The game little Canadian was forty-five miles behind his mark when the race started at 2 p.m., but with set teeth he went right at his task and just did succeed. Hartley travelled forty-five miles in nine and a half hours, a wonderful performance. At the last two laps he carried the American flag around the track, being encouraged by Slater, who also deserves great credit for his work."

BANKERS AND STRATHCONAS

Lindsay Bank Seven are Trying to Arrange Game With Local City League Champions

There's a possibility that the Bankers, winners of the Lindsay City League, will play an exhibition game with the Strathconas here on Friday night. The Lindsay bankers wanted to arrange a game with the local money counters, but the latter did not have enough men, so it is likely the Strathconas will take the place of the Peterborough Bankers. Among teh men who will appear with the Scugog bankers will be Koyle, Sillivan and Cota, of the celebrated Midget team. With the last three mentioned stars on their lineup and a few more good ones the visitors should make it interesting for the local septette should they come. They are very anxious to play and from present indications the match will likely take place.

CURLING

The Peterborough open air curling rink has been closed for the season, as the ice can not be kept in condition, and the lease of the waiting rink has expired. The members have been requested to take their stones home. Lindsay curlers have nearly a month's good curling before them at it.—Lindsay Post.

A baby three weeks old was found deserted in a vestibule of St. George's church, Grafton.

Examiner and Post To-night

Press Teams Will Play the Game—Bridgenorth and Chieftains in First Game

The Examiner and Lindsay Post sevens meet tonight at the Brock street rink, and the game should be witnessed by a big audience. Last year the teams played tie games in Peterborough and Lindsay, the score in both places being 1—1. The Lindsay newspaper men are said to have a strong aggregation this season, and the Examiner will place a fast team on the ice.

Lindsay is bringing a big bunch of rooters with them and the game is regarded as quite an event in Scugog town.

The ice will be in fine condition for the contest and as the line-up of both teams indicates, the play will be fast and interesting. As it is impossible for the Lindsay team to make quicker connections the game will not commence until nine o'clock. The visitors had thought of coming C.P.R. and returning G.T.R., in order to make the trip more quickly, but on second thought were of the opinion that it would be better to leave and return on the G.T.R.

Between seven and eight o'clock the Chieftains play Bridgenorth. The Chieftains are a fast bunch of youngsters and should make it interesting for the septette from the northern hamlet.

From eight to nine there will be skating and then the Examiner-Post match. The price of admission for both the games and skating is ten cents. On account of the small admission and the excellent evening to be provided it is expected that an unusually large crowd will be in attendance.

The teams will line up as follows;

Examiner		Post

Craig		Connell

Glover		Williams

Clarke		Henley
	Rover
Theobald		Barry

HOCKEY

Collingwood defeated Midland last night in Collingwood by 12—8. At half-time Midland led by 6—4. This gives Collingwood a lead of four goals on the round for the Intermediate O.H.A. championship.

Stratford won the junior championship of the O.H.A. last night. They lost to St. Michaels in Toronto last night by 7—6, but Stratford had a lead of seventeen before the game.

The hockey match that was to have taken place in Lindsay last night between the Strathcona Girls and the Lindsay lady hockeyists, was postponed until next Tuesday. A card was received by the locals from Lindsay stating that the latter would be unable to play. No reason, however was given.

The following is from the Lindsay Post;

"The Ladies' hockey match, which was to have taken place tonight between a septette of Lindsay young ladies and an equal number from Peterborough, has been postponed till next Tuesday.

Basketball at Y.M.C.A. To-night

The final game of basketball in the February league will be played this evening at 8 p.m. sharp. There will be no admission charged and a large attendance is looked for. Come and cheer the boys on to victory.

The teams will line-up as follows.

No. 4—Martin, Darling, Campbell, Maguire, McKone, Stabler.

No. 2—Turner, Sutherland, Hall, McCarroll, Gibson, Gillespie.

The game last evening resulted in a win for team No. 4. The game was hotly contested all through the final score being 17 points to 12. Mr. J. Laing filled the office of referee and gave satisfaction.

Shales of Plains, near here died yesterday after three weeks of suffering. She was a clerk in a laundry in this city, and it was her duty to mark articles as they were received. She did this with an indelible pencil, which she moistened with her tongue hundreds of times during the day. This caused the poisoning three weeks ago, and she gradually succumbed to it.

Portrait of Late Mr. Wm. Pringle

Shown to Board of Education Last Night—Many Complimentary Remarks Regarding it

The beautiful portrait of the late Wm Pringle recently finished by Mr. R. M. Roy to be hung in the King Edward school was on exhibition before the Board of Education last evening. Many complimentary remarks were made regarding the excellent finish and the superiority of the work. It is quite large and it is framed in black oak. An inscription is written at the bottom, referring to Mr. Pringle's labors as chairman of King Edward school building committee. The inscription was very kindly done by Mr. T. Q. Quartermaine who did the work simply as an act of love. The penmanship is faultless and at last night's meeting of the board, several members referred in appreciative terms to Mr. Quartermaine's kindness

WOLF SKINS ARE SCARCE

Montreal, March 2.—Notwithstanding the reports from the north of the havoc wrought by wolves among the herds of deer and even in the farmyards of the thickly settled districts, the slaughter of these predatory animals has been probably less than for many seasons. This is the opinion expressed by R. M. Pierce, of the Pierce Fur Company, who has just completed some large consignments of raw furs for shipment to the London market for March sales. Mr Pierce states that the dealers have found it very difficult to secure wolf skins this winter, and he is somewhat at a loss to explain the reason, as it was thought that on account of the mildness of the winter that the hunters and trappers would have had easy work in pursuing the animals. The largest consignment which he has had this winter was six hundred skins which came in from Edmonton district, where it is said the wolves have been particularly troublesome this year, attacking the cattle and horses of isolated settlers in some cases. Old hunters and trappers would have had snow this winter has been a handicap to them, as they are accustomed to do most of their wolf hunting with deep snow. The mildness of the winter has had a bad effect on the industry of the Indian hunters, who provide most of the fur. They hunt better when they are driven to it by privation. This season they have not experienced want and have consequently been negligent in the taking of game.

Mr. Pierce states also that the black and silver fox, which is so much prized for its fur, has been marked by absence from the packs of hunters this year, not a single black fox having been sent in this year. Some cross fox skins have been brought to the city, but not to the extent that has characterized other seasons, with the result that the prices have advanced considerably. The price of wolf skins has practically doubled.

Mr. Pierce says that the districts from which furs are sent to Winnipeg are rapidly becoming more distant. This season considerable quantities of furs have been sent from the north-eastern districts of British Columbia, while northern Alberta is still a big producer. The returns from the timber districts east of the city are dropping off in a very marked manner, as the fur-bearing animals are receding from the approach of civilization indicated by the projection of the new railway and the constant menace of men engaged in the lumbering business.

Conservatives Win A Sweeping Victory

Robinson Government Snowed Under in New Brunswick and Conservatives Have Majority of Over Twenty.

Liberals Meet Severe Defeat in New Brunswick Elections.

Government Entrenched For Twenty-Five Years Overturned by Great Wave of Public Sentiment—Result a Personal Defeat For Pugsley—Opposition Make Clean Sweep in St. John.

St. John, N.B., March 4.—The Robinson Government was snowed under yesterday, the Liberals majority of 26 seats in the Legislature being turned into a majority for the Conservatives of 19, with three independents who will undoubtedly support the new administration.

The result is a great blow to the Minister of Public Works, who has been camping in the province for the last week, speaking several times.

Hundred of old-time Liberals voted with the Opposition, claiming that they are still Liberals so far as Federal issues are concerned, but that they are disgusted with the local Government's policy in regard to the maintainance of highways and school books. The rapid increase in the provincial debt also told against the Government.

Notwithstanding Premier Robinson's declaration that he would repeal the Highway Act, so unpopular amongst farmers of the country, and would have school books supplied free to the lower grades, the feeling of discontent was so strong that all efforts to overcome it and its influence the "silent" vote proved fruitless. The secret ballot had much to do with Mr. Hazen's victory, and from the first gave the Government leaders considerable worry.

Although Mr. Hazen stated Monday night that he would carry the province by a majority of twenty-one, it is doubtful if his most sanguine supporters expected any such landslide as actually occurred.

Four Ministers Defeated.

Premier Robinson and his ticket were elected in Westmoreland County, and Attorney-General McKeown succeeded in being returned in St. John County, but four members of the Cabinet went down to defeat.

These are L. P. Farris, Commissioner of Agriculture (Queen's); E. H. Allan, Provincial Secretary (York); W. P. Jones, Solicitor-General (Carleton), and D. J. Purdy, member without portfolio (St. John). Speaker Osman and his colleague were hopelessly beaten in Albert County, which was probably the greatest surprise of the campaign.

Another surprise was the defeat of Mayor Sears in St. John City. He was considered by the Government to be probably the strongest candidate in the field. The ship laborers' vote told against him, however.

Hon. L. P. Farris has been the Government representative in Queen's County for thirty years, and his defeat came as a great surprise. Last year he was elected mayor by 1,500 majority.

Premier-Elect's Statement.

St. John, N.B., March 4.—Mr. Hazen was given a great reception when he arrived in the city late last night from Sunbury County. Hundreds of enthusiastic supporters accompanied by a band escorted him to the Keith Theatre, where, in an eloquent speech, he promised to give the province good and progressive government.

In a statement to the press Mr. Hazen said: "The result is due to the overwhelming public sentiment in the province against the administration. After being in opposition for many years the result is naturally very pleasing to us all."

Immigrants Beginning to Flock to Western Canada

C. P. R. Expects to do Record Breaking Traffic—A Number Have Passed Through Peterboro—Mr. George McDougall, of Glasgow, Thinks West Affords Great Opportunities.

The C.P.R. is expecting an enormous immigration traffic this season and it is stated that passages are already being booked months ahead, and that the coming season will witness perhaps the biggest immigration in the history of the country.

Nearly 2500 immagrants have passed through Montreal during the past two days bound for the Canadian West.

Large numbers of Salvation Army immigrants passed through Montreal yesterday for Ontario and the West. There were also 450 Jews, who came from New York. Most of them went West and a number of them passed through here on westbound C. P. R. trains.

A reporter from the Review had a conversation with one of them, Geo. McDougall by name and a native of Paisley, Scotland. Mr. McDougall is a harness maker by trade and was employed up to the time of his departure for Canada with the firm of Kerr, Kerr and Cutter, a well-known Glasgow saddlery and harness manufactory.

"Have you ever heard any tales of hardships suffered in Canada by recent arrivals," he was asked.

"I have," he replied, "but am of the opinion that they hang around the cities too much. There are thousands of acres of rich agricultural lands in Western Canada, which it seems to me will provide a good living for anyone industrious enough to till them. I am going out West with a determination to do my best and think I can succeed."

Before the reporter could have any further conversation with him the engine whistled and he jumped on board the train which was to bear him to his new home in the prairie country. He is a well built young fellow of twenty-five and has a wife in Scotland. If he prospers in Canada he will bring her out here and if not his employers are ready to take him back.

Seventy Five Children Meet Death by Burning of School

Little Ones Were Trapped in Building This Morning and Burned to Death—Many Bodies Already Recovered.

Special to J. R. Heintz & Co.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 4—Fire is raging in the Lake View school at Collingwood, a Cleveland suburb. Early reports indicate that a number of school children have been injured and a panic resulted. One hundred children were trapped by the fire. Reports from the scene say that there are scores of dead and injured. The janitor's three children and another little one named Bravo are known to be dead.

LATER.

A later despatch says:

Cleveland, Ohio, March 4—One hundred children were trapped in the North Collingwood school this morning. It is estimated that 75 of the children lost their lives. Thirty bodies have thus far been recovered. Only the walls of the building are left standing.

Mr. Nesbitt Will Stand as Supt. of Public Instruction

The following from the Fort Pierce News, Florida, refers to Mr. Walter H. Nesbitt, formerly a resident of Peterborough, and well-known here:

W. J. Nesbitt, who was appointed county superintendent of public instruction last summer, announces himself for that office. Mr. Nesbitt is also well-known all over St. Lucie county, having been in business in Fort Pierce for several years, and when St. Lucie county was created he was appointed to represent the second district on the School Board. He was elected to this office by the people two years ago and served in that capacity until the death of Dr. C. P. Platts left the office of superintendent vacant, and Mr. Nesbitt was chosen to complete the term by appointment of the Governor on the recommendation of influential citizens. He is familiar with all the details of the office and knows the condition and needs of the schools and altogether qualified to continue in office.

Smith St. Bridge Will be Repaired at an Early Date

In a few days work will be commenced on the repairing of the Smith St bridge. The repairs would have been under way several days ago, were it not that there was a delay in securing the necessary material. It was a difficult matter to secure the timber required for the strengthening of the structure but it is now on the ground and the work will be proceeded with at once.

The bridge is considered in none too safe condition and in the opinion of those who pass that way the sooner it is strengthened the better.

RUNAWAY ON WATER STREET THIS MORNING

Horse and Cutter Collided With Express Sleigh on Hunter St.

An exciting runaway took place on Water street this morning shortly after eleven o'clock. A gentleman left his horse and cutter standing while he went to make a call. The animal took fright at something and started off up the street. It was going at an awful rate and at Hunter street collided with a Dominion Express, Co. sleigh. This, however, did not stop it, and it ran on as fast as ever, till it was finally stopped by Mr. F. Greene at London street. Fortunately no damage was done, as a result of its mad gallop, and it was driven quietly back to its owner.

OBITUARY

Mr. F. R. Clarke, George street, has received the sad intelligence of the death of his niece, Miss Lily Free, who passed away in Rochester, N.Y., last Saturday. The late Miss Free was 16 years of age and was the daughter of Mr. Thomas Free, chief of the fire brigade of that city. The funeral took place there on Monday.

Letters to The Editor

The Review Does Not Hold Itself Responsible for Opinions Expressed by Correspondents

GENERAL BOOTH CRITICIZED

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Would you allow me to say a little for the English emigrant? I read in the Toronto Globe that General Booth had been addressing a lot of emigrants at Euston Station, London. This is part of his speech: "You will have heard a disturbing story about the failure of our past efforts. You can set your mind at rest on these questions. It was said in the newspapers that the people who had been transferred to Canada were wandering about the country without employment, without food or friends. We immediately set on foot a most careful inquiry through our agents in Canada, and we find, on investigation, from the Pacific to the Atlantic, throughout the whole of Canada, not more than 50 men were out of employment or in circumstances of distress, I am certain we are on the right lines and we must go on progressing." Now, why did General Booth say that when he knows it is not true? He cannot be ignorant of the facts that thousands are out of work. It is time that something was done to stop Gen. Booth. Why does he not tell the emigrants that they will be lucky if they get work for more than nine months of the year. But who's going to keep them the other three months? Commissioner Coombs has tried to alter the words of the speech, but, sir, it will not do. It is high time they stopped deceiving the London public. What is the use of us English fellows writing home and telling our friends not to come out and not sell their homes, if General Booth takes advantage of his position to say such misleading statements? Canada is all right, but Canada has plenty of its own that wants work without having all the Army to hoodwink them over here. Now, Mr. Editor, you would not have all these emigrants if the Army did not get a commission. So leave Canadians to see the moral.

Yours, etc.,
W. BRACKSTONE HOLMES

HEAVEN AND HELL

To the Editor of the Review;

Sir,—Your correspondent "Inquirer," opens up a subject that interests the subscriber more than any other except his eternal salvation. Where and how shall we rejoin our loved ones? Shall we know them in reality just as we know them here though perhaps spiritualized. Now hell and the intermediate state are one and the same since Christ, Himself could not have descended into a place of torment. Why is it that there is such uncertainty and diversity of opinion? It would be a great great rest to me if I could see "face to face," although we are bidden I know to wait for it is "as through a a glass darkly" at present.

Yours truly,
SUBSCRIBER.

IMMIGRATION

To the Editor of The Review;

Sir,—In view of this rapid increase in crime in eastern Canada due almost entirely to the importation of criminals from abroad and in view of the danger to our great west, likewise from the tyrannical action of the Laurier government in forcing British Columbia to open its doors to the cheap and bad from the East I, in common with a large number of others would respectfully ask Dr. Morrison and the Board of Trade to call a meeting to protest against it as soon as possible.

Yours, &c.

Fine Scholarships Donated to Collegiate by Ald. Gillespie

A generous offer of a scholarship to the Peterborough Collegiate Institute from Ald. G. W. Gillespie, was read last evening at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education. This scholarship was gratefully acknowledged by Mr. D. W. Dumble, who in a few remarks moved that the gift be received with thanks. This motion was seconded by Mr. W. H. Hill and unanimously carried by the board. The gift is indeed an excellent one, entitling as it does, the winner to the course leading to the arts degree without fees. Ald. Gillespie cannot be thanked too much for his kindness and the interest he has displayed in the Collegiate Institute cannot be commended too highly.

The communication read last evening is as follows:

To the Board of Education, Gentlemen,—Ald. George A. Gillespie has given, through St. Andrew's church, a gift to Queen's University, Kingston, which gives him the right to nominate a student for a four years' course in Arts in that University.

Alderman Gillespie has transferred the right to me and with his consent it is offered as a scholarship to the Peterborough Collegiate Institute as an award for general proficiency.

The scholarship entitles the winner to the course leading to the Arts degrees without fees.

Board of Trade Favors Taking Grant From Carnegie

Resolution to This Effect Passed Last Night

INTERESTING DISCUSSION

Majority of the Speakers Strongly in Favor of Asking for Outside Assistance.

THE RESOLUTION.

Moved by Mr. D. W. Dumble, seconded by Mr. R. E. Wood,

"That this Board of Trade approves of the proposal to erect a fine public library and thoroughly approves of accepting from Mr. Carnegie sufficient money to erect a suitable library building."

The above resolution was passed at the meeting of the Board of Trade last night after a spirited debate on the public library question. The discussion largely centred about the point whether or not Carnegie should be asked for a grant and the Carnegie followers carried the day. The resolution given above was not carried unanimously, about four members of the Board voting against it.

Mr. W. H. Moore, K.C., was the chief speaker for the anti-Carnegie people and the others who espoused similar views were Mr. D. Hughes Charles and Mr. A. P. Poussette. Among those who favored taking a grant were, Messrs. D. W. Dumble, Richard Lees, Robt. Fair, W. H. Hill, Rev. J. G. Potter and E. R. Wood.

Added interest was given the meeting by the presence of Hon. Senator Ferguson, of Prince Edward Island, who gave an interesting address on the benefits of public library, touching on the present situation in Peterborough.

Among those present were:—Ald. Turner, Ald. Bradburn, Ald. Gillespie, Messrs. D. Hughes-Charles, W. G. Dodds, John Riddell, R. E. Wood, R. J. Todd, Rev. J. G. Potter, John Nugent, Richard Lees, Jas. Drain, W. H. Moore, Jas. English, Thos. Barrie, Dawson Kennedy, Wm. Rudkins, Dr. Caldwell, R. M. Waddell, R. McWhinnie, G. Walter Green, W. R. Morris, Robert Wilson, W. J. Stubbs, A. Mowat, D. W. Dumble, Dr. Gowan, F. D. Kerr, Robt. Fair, W. H. Hill, J. H. Ferguson, E. F. Mason, R. Laing and others.

The president drew attention to the point that the public library question was to be discussed.

Mr. D. W. Dumble, who was asked to open the discussion, said that the three questions to be considered were:

1 Do we need a public library?

2 Shall it be a free library?

3 How shall we obtain a library?

It had been said by some writers in the press that a public library was not needed in Peterborough, as the Sunday school libraries were sufficient to meet the demands.

Mr. Dumble dealt briefly with the relation that existed between industrial development and mental culture. Industrial progress was the result of mental development. This was one reason why Peterborough needed a public library.

Peterborough spent some $60,000.00 the education of the children, but the children were not all. The older people did not stop learning when they left school.

"If we tax ourselves so much for our children, why do we not tax ourselves a little for ourselves," said the speaker. "We are students all our lives, and God help the people who cease to read when they leave school. That home is a wretched one when there are not books to lift the people away from the sordid side of life." There was no doubt but that Peterborough needed a public library.

Coming to the Carnegie library question, Mr. Dumble reviewed briefly the life of the great capitalist, particularly the difficulty he had in securing an education and Mr. Carnegie desired that every community may have a library. But he does not want it to become a rubbish heap and therefore specifies that ten per cent. of the grant given must be provided per annum. A site must also be provided.

Mr. Dumble then touched on the sentimental side of the question and said it was all balderash about Carnegie's money being tainted more than that of any other man and that patriotic grounds would make it undesirable to accept a grant from him. "My patriotism is," said Mr. Dumble, "to do the greatest good to the people, and if this can be done by utilizing Carnegie's money, then take a grant by all means."

Mr. W. H. Moore, K.C., said it was not altogether settled whether the library in Peterborough should be free or a membership fee charged. If the class of books was going to be similar to that of the present library then he would have a fee charged. Three-quarters of the books in the library at the present time were no good to anybody on earth. If the books were those of a reference and historical character and of a good class of literature, then the library should be free. A better selection of books should be made in the future than in the past.

Mr. Moore considered that the old Bank of Montreal building would make a fine library building. It could be fitted up at comparatively small expense. Regarding the Carnegie proposition, Mr. Moore came out strongly against it. Ten per cent of the sum granted by Carnegie would have to be raised by direct taxation each year. This would make the gift burdensome.

Mr. Moore also opposed the accepting of a grant from Carnegie on sentimental grounds. He did not believe in Peterborough going outside looking for money. The city had always paid its way and its finances were good enough at the present time to pay its way still.

Mr. D. Hughes Charles said he opposed taking a grant from Carnegie for two reasons: Firstly, because Carnegie was an alien, and, secondly, because he showed himself to be unfriendly to Canada. As to Carnegie's wealth, he did not believe that any man could accumulate six hundred million dollars honestly in business though he lived a hundred years. It would be a disgrace to Peterborough to take the money. He would never favor any kind of a proposition of that nature.

Mr. A. P. Poussette, K.C., agreed with Mr. Moore and Mr. Hughes Charles. He did not believe, however, in utilising the old Bank of Montreal building for a library. He was opposed to purchasing any building whatever for a library site. The time had come when some effort should be made to beautify Peterborough. A new library building would be a step in this direction. He was opposed to taking any of Mr. Carnegie's money. With $25,000 already to the good, Peterborough could well afford to have a good library without any assistance from outside.

Mr. Robert Fair said he agreed with Mr. Dumble. It seemed to him that Peterborough could follow in a measure the action of many of the leading cities in Great Britain, the United States and Canada, where Carnegie's money had been taken.

Mr. W. H. Hill said he would be glad to accept Carnegie's money. He hoped other millionaires would follow Carnegie's example. If the people wouldn't accept his money, what was he going to do with it? Mr. Hill pointed out that Carnegie had given millions of money for libraries and for universites in Scotland, and there were also Carnegie libraries in England, Ireland and the United States and Canada. Mr. Hill pointed out several reasons why a grant from Carnegie should be accepted. There was no doubt but that a good public library would be a great benefit to the city.

Rev. Mr. Potter also favored taking a grant from Carnegie. A good public library would be an untold benefit, and he could see nothing wrong in taking some money from the great Scottish-American millionaire.

Mr. Richard Lees made a strong speech in favor of accepting a grant from Carnegie. By quotations from the report of the inspector of libraries for Ontario, he refuted Mr. Moore's argument that it was necessary to raise ten per cent per year of the amount of the benefaction. It did not matter how the money was raised as long as the municipality provided it.

SENATOR FERGUSON.

Hon. Senator Ferguson, of Prince Edward Island, who was given a hearty reception by the members, gave an interesting and fluent address. He pointed out the benefits derived from good libraries and made his remarks exceedingly interesting by relating several incidents in this connection that had come under his personal notice. Regarding the situation in Peterborough, he did not see why there should be objection to taking Carnegie's money. He did not think that it was any more tainted than that of the average business man. Senator Ferguson went into the subject at some length, and created a decidedly favorable impression. He was heartily applauded on resuming his seat.

The debate was concluded by a few more remarks from Mr. D. W. Dumble. He advocated a portion of Central Park as a site for the library.

Mr. R. E. Wood said that if King Edward thought Carnegie was good enough to be worthy of a visit from His Royal Highness, then Carnegie's money was good enough for him.

The resolution was then put and carried.

Many Attended the Banquet

Held Under Auspices of Ladies' Aid Society of St. Luke's Church Last Night

A large number of people attended the Shredded Wheat banquet held last night under the auspices of St. Luke's Ladies' Aid. The sales tables of work and candy were well patronized as was also the "Bran Pie" presided over by Miss Calcutt. The banquet was served to about 250 people by the Canadian Shredded Wheat Co., Ltd. which in this manner demonstrated the quality of Shredded Wheat and many ways it can be prepared for food. The Menu was as follows:

Creamed Chicken in Shredded Wheat Baskets
Pickles
Cold Meat
Triscuit
(The Shredded Wheat Toast)
Jellied Fruit Sandwich with Whipped Cream
Triscuit and McLaren's Cheese
Shredded Wheat Ice Cream
Chocolate Triscuit
John's Quality Coffee
John's Special Tea.

After the banquet had been served a programme of great merit was presented. Mr. R. H. Leary acted as chairman. He welcomed the guests on behalf of the Ladies' Aid and also thanked the Shredded Wheat Company for the banquet given to the church.

The following numbers were on the programme:

Dr. Langfeldt thanked, on behalf of the Ladies' Aid of St. Luke's, all who so kindly took part in the programme.

The thanks of the Ladies' Aid are tendered to Mr. J. John, who supplied the tea and coffee; to Mr. W. H. Stroud, who loaned the china, to Mr. R. Cox, who supplied the milk.

The consumption of tea in England increased from 1 1-2 million pounds in 1740 to 117 million pounds in 1870 and to 2461 million pounds in 1907. In Canada, since the introduction of "Salada" Tea, the consumption of tea is increasing in a like ratio.

Elected Secretary for Tenth Time

Mr. T. Q. Quartermaine was last night elected secretary of the Peterborough Board of Trade for the tenth time in succession. It is hardly necessary to add that this is an evidence of the confidence the members of the board have in Mr. Quartermaine's fitness for the position.

A Little Too Much Real Was This Scene at the Opera House

Mr. Joe. N. Machan, Victim of Painful Injury During the Presentation of "As Told in the Hills" Last Evening—Cut Severely by Dagger.

There was a touch of realism to the play "As Told in the Hills" presented by the Royal Alexandra Stock Company at the Grand Opera House last evening. During the third act, Mr. Joe N. Machan, the manager of the company and who was playing the part of "Tom Hatfield, a moonshiner," was the victim of a painful and somewhat serious accident.

The third act was a scene in the mountains with the moonshiners. The story of this part of the play depicted a revenue officer tied to a tree, about to be hanged as a spy, but before the deed is committed 'Ed. Fenton, who prefers the right" rushes in and a lively encounter between he and "Tom Hatfield" follows. Here is where the realistic part of the play took place. Mr. Arnold C. Baldwin taking the part of "Ed. Fenton" in the struggle with Mr. Machan dropped his dagger, striking Mr. Machan in such a manner that a deep gash was cut in his right knee. At first, the injury was not considered as serious and Mr. Machan bandaged it and continued to take his part. Today the wound is very painful and he is unable to bend his knee.

The dagger was much sharper than it first was thought to be. In the future, the manager intends to use dull ones for theatrical purposes.

Officers All Re-elected; Board of Trade Annual Optimistic Note Sounded by President Morrison in His Address Last Night—Past Year Has Been a Most Successful One.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Board of Trade was held last night when the officers were re-elected for another year and reports submitted by the president, secretary and treasurer.

The president, Dr. M. A. Morrison, sounded a most optimistic note in his address, alluding to the fact that although we had passed through a period of financial stringency not before experienced by this generation, not a single failure has occurred among the mercantile and manufacturing and business interests of Peterborough.

The meeting was well attended and much interest was manifested in the proceedings. The re-election of the officers was unanimous, the names of no other candidates being brought forward.

DR. M. A. MORRISON

Re-elected President of Peteborough Board of Trade.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read by the secretary, Mr. Quartermaine.

A communication was received from the Welland Board of Trade asking the local board to co-operate in petitioning the Provincial Government to make it illegal for municipalities to grant bonuses to capitalists looking for sities for industries. The resolution passed by the Welland Board pointed out that the bonus system was injurious inasmuch as towns and cities were pitted against each other to their own loss, and the benefit of the bonus hunter.

The communication was referred to the Manufacturers' Committee of the board.

Votes of thanks were passed ex-Mayor McWilliams, his Worship Mayor Rush, the aldermen and City Clerk Armstrong, for the use of the council chamber, and also to the press.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

The address of the president, Dr. M. A. Morrison, was as follows;

To the Officers and Members of the Board of Trade;

Gentlemen,—In presenting the annual report of the Board of Trade, I wish first to express my thanks to the officers and members for their loyal assistance during the year, and especially to those members who so ably contributed to the success of our meetings by presenting papers and addresses.

During the year we have held five board meetings, seven committee meetings and a very successful banquet. Our idea of a live Board of Trade is not in the number of meetings held, but in its readiness to grapple with any, and all public questions, and to serve the interests of the community at large. This has been evidenced in the past year by the interest taken in all our meetings.

Our Manufacturers' Committee has spared no effort in endeavoring to get some concern to take over the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co. Works, and operate them. After many efforts we succeeded in getting the City Council in touch with the A. R. Williams Co., of Toronto, and we believe have succeeded in arriving at an agreement whereby the works will soon be one of our active industries.

To the members of the Council of the Board of Trade together with the able assistance of the Manufacturing Committee of the City Council, and our vice-president, in particular, is due the credit of bringing the Dairyman Publishing Co., to Peterborough. This company publish three journals and will provide employment to about 35 hands, besides giving Peterborough a very wide advertisement.

It is with pleasure that I note that though we have passed through a period of financial stringency not before experienced by this generation, not a single failure has occurred amongst the mercantile and manufacturing interests of Peterborough, this indicates that the business operations of our manufacturies and business men are on a sound financial basis. I also note that where manufacturer's orders were not up to their full capacity, that the employer instead of dismissing a number of hands, and leaving some men without employment, adopted the other plan of shortening the hours of all employees, and retaining the largest number possible. This would indicate a practical sympathy between the employer and his men.

Building operations have been active during the year. The total number of permits issued was 296, making a total expenditure of $761,321. Last year we drew the attention of those contemplating building houses for rental, of the scarcity of a moderate priced house, I find that during the year there were 75 houses built that cost less than $1500.00 many of which should rent for $10 or $12 per month.

The fact that the Government is placing the balance of the Trent Canal under contract leads us to the belief that the long looked for water communication with the great lakes is about to be realized, and with it the advantages of water transportation. From a local standpoint this should mean the saving of thousands of dollars annually to our citizens.

As many towns and cities in Western Ontario can now compete with us in electric power, and whereas, there is now before the Legislature a bill to prevent all bonuses to manufactories. Therefore I would suggest that our manufacturer's committee meet with the manufacturers' committee of the city council and discuss ways and means of approaching manufacturers who contemplate locating in Ontario.

The outlook for the coming year is not all gloomy but on the other hand many indications point to a resumption of business on as voluminous a scale as that of the last three or four years. We have a great country with great natural resources, and in such a stage of development that it is impossible for it to stand still and with progress on all sides of us Peterborough is bound to go ahead.

Thanking you for the honor of occupying the President's chair for the past year, I wish you all prosperity and success.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The report of the secretary, Mr T. Q. Quartermaine, was as follows;

Mr. President and Gentlemen;

The secretary's report showed an increase in the membership.

Mrs. Craig, who has spent twenty-three years in India among the Telegoo, gave an excellent address on the work being done in that field. AMUSEMENTS

"AS TOLD IN THE HILLS

"As Told in the Hills," was the play capably presented by the Royal Alexandra Stock Company at the Grand last night. The scenic locale of the play was in the mountainous regions of the moonshiners hills and the plot was a strong one with many striking situations. A pretty love story ran throughout and the production had many points of real dramatic worth. Arnold C. Baldwin, Jos. N. Machan and Joe Lyons appeared to advantage in the principal male roles. Iva Evelyn Lyons gave a good portrayal of the part of Daisy, the old moonshiners daughter, and the heroine of the play. Ralph Wordley is one of the best repertoire comedians ever seen in this city and was funny and original as Lige, the coon, who always wanted to sleep. His specialty turn was also good and called forth much applause.

THE BOARD OF TRADE

The Board of Trade of Peterborough, has gone through much foul weather at various times and has given more than one indication of being unable to navigate, but at last "all's well" with it. Dr. Morrison's idea of holding meetings when they are needed is the correct one. It is wholly impossible, and in fact it is on its face unnecessary for a Board of Trade to meet about nothing. They have no official functions such as a board of education or of directors and therefore have no such regular duties to perform. While, however they may not meet as frequently as a rule the members of a Board of Trade might be and have been called together more frequently on occasion. Mr. Quartermaine is a very efficient secretary. That the board has done so much and so successfully for the re-establishment of the Wm. Hamilton Co., is a matter of profound congratulation. Attendance at meetings is a patriotic duty.

THE THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE

When the monster deputation met Mr. Whitney the other day by appointment and asked for a repeal of the three-fifths clause, Mr. Whitney replied that he would give his answer later on to their request. This meant that his Cabinet would take it into consideration. We are then in the position of waiting to hear what Mr. Whitney will say, about it. We know that he will do what he thinks best and fairest for people as a people, and not what, simply, may be most conducive to his own retention of power. It is usual, in discussing this question in private life, to make the statement that local option is an attempt to force prohibition upon free citizens. Such is not the case. It deals only with what the public as a public already deals with, viz., the license system. If a man wishes to enjoy his stimulant at home he may under local option continue to do so. The question under discussion really is that of the abolition of the bar and of the public sale of liquor in a municipality. It is well to bear this in mind in the discussion of Mr. Whitney's attitude on this question. We are all familiar with the old saying that what is done in haste is repented of at leisure. Conservatism is, as its name implies, a reasonable and deliberat edoing of that which may be done hastily, and serve accordingly, as a mere cause of irritation and discontent, if not injustice, without in the end doing, as a consequence, the good intended. That a great wave of temperance is sweeping over the entire world nobody denies nor can it be denied that people may, when they see fit, change their customs and habits. So long as the individual liberty of a people is not interfered with, it ought to be easy to deal in a fair and businesslike way with interests that are not individual, but public. A sudden change is sometimes a violent means of breaking a valid contract, and as a means of dealing with a contract deliberately entered into, it cannot be commended. No cause is the better for being badly handled.

THE SCHOOL BOOK QUESTION

The reduction in the price of school books effected by the Whitney Government means an enormous saving to the people of Ontario. The system observed by the Ross Government by which closed contracts were given to favored firms meant the taking of this money from the people and the putting of it in the pockets of the few. What should have been done by the Ross Government is now apparent and the promises of the Whitney Opposition, though declared impossible and absurd at the time by Mr. Harcourt and Mr. Ross, have been realized in full. We cannot forbear to congratulate the people of Ontario on the personal triumph of the great administrator, Mr. Whitney. The fall in price in public school readers and in class books of literature runs all the way from 20 per cent. to 70 per cent. In the future we may look for a handsome reduction in the price of all text-books. If the Whitney Government had done nothing else they would deserve a renewal of the confidence of the people on this one issue alone. To Hon. Mr. Pyne, as Minister of Education, much of the detail work has fallen, and it is needless to say that it has been discharged in a creditable manner.

THE PEOPLE RULE

From Blair to Emerson and from Emerson to Pugsley, the mantle of nominal government in New Brunswick fell, until in course of time these gentlemen and their followers came to think that the Province and the Federal portfolio of railways and canals belonged to them. Following close upon the heels of this idea came the feast of corruption and neglect of public interest. Whichever party succumbs to weakness and temptation it matters not. The people rule. Gradually if slowly nations are evolving from corruption and mere animal feeding into a sense of moral responsibility. We do not wish to triumph over our political enemies except in so far as they have rightly incurred the penalty of dismissal from power. It is a pleasant augury for Mr. Borden's success and is no doubt partly due to the corruption at Ottawa.

THE SEASON OF LENT

Are we a nation of cynics or are we imbued with a spirit of holiness and ultimate desire to live rightly? The answer to this question is the old one of the reality and certainty of our faith. Did God create the universe and all that is in it merely in order that it should go on in an interminable round without sentience and therefore without purpose? Could the universe have originated of itself? These old ideas are no longer maintained even by the most sceptical.

Faith has largely re-established itself. What then shall we lose if we have no faith? This is the question of the hour. Shall it be merely a loss of Heaven or is there a real hell too? The consideration of these questions brings the affair of the soul and of man's destiny directly home to us. Lent is a season especially for religious thought. The great problem of life and salvation is then uppermost in the mind. It is impossible to think deeply at all times hence there are times for deep searching as for rejoicing.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Chinese government has sent demand to this Dominion government for $150,000 recompense for damages sustained by Chinese during riots at Vancouver. Rather expensive government, this!

The Liberal Convention for the East riding is called for March 25th. Candidates for both houses are to be selected. Outside aspirants for nomination will no doubt receive the consideration which they deserve. They will be told in all likelihood that the proper field for the political ambition of these gentlemen is at home—if they care to face it.

Hon. J. P. Whitney when asked regarding the criticisms of his power policy by the Telegram, replied that he had no time to satisfy the ravings of neurasthenics. No doubt however, even the sensational Telegram will feel satisfied with Mr. Whitney if not with Mr. Beck, in a day or two. Mr. Whitney, though not the departmental officer in charge of the power policy is the general officer-in-charge and we may be sure! will see that it goes through properly. It is no light undertaking though it is electrical and it must therefore be handled conservatively and sanely, (which is the same thing.)

This report of the Commission appointed to look into the collapse of the Quebec Bridge shows that the breakdown was not an accident but due to faulty design. If this Commission would go a little farther and report upon the part played by the Dominion Government in this unfortunate proceeding it would be shown that the desire of Laurier & Co. to help Parent & Co. to make a million or two was faulty and their plan to no security for Parent & Co. without providing for the security of the Dominion treasury was even more so. The government seems to have been wholly ignorant of the first principles of good business.

Toronto, Feb. 29—It is understood the Government is now discussing the three-fifths clause with a view to reducing the disability in connection with local option from 60 per cent. to 55 per cent. This will be, in accord with the stand the Government has taken all the way along on the temperance question, and is acceptable to the leaders of the temperance movement. Premier Whitney is known to favor it while it meets with the approval of Hon. W. J. Hanna. But for a collusion of accidents last year the 60 per cent. might have been reduced to 55 per cent. It is understood to be the intention of the Government to make this one of the amendments to the Liquor License Act at the present time.—Kingston News. (Con.)

What truth there is in the above we cannot say. But the News is a responsible paper and the statement cannot be wholly foundationless.

A BOY'S CLEVER ORATION

Below will be found the text of the speech delivered by John Garvin Markle, in connection with the debate of the Philomathean Society on Monday afternoon. The subject under debate was; 'Resolved that public speaking has done more for the world than the press, and the student referred to above, was one of the speakers on the negative side.

When the printing press was invented, a little more than four centuries ago, the masses of mankind, even in the so-called civilized nations were still in a condition of semi-slavery. Feudalism had not yet been abolished; and the chief occupation of the ruling classes, as you well know, was bloody war and conquest.

If here and there a noble man arose and proclaimed from pulpit or platform the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, his words reached few only, the many received no betterment. Today chiefly because of the printing press the masses as well as the classes have a large measure of intellectual, moral and physical freedom, and every valuable utterance, discovery or invention in any part of the civilized world is spread broadcast by newspaper, periodical, pamphlet and book for the education and advancement of the human race.

The classical writings of ancient Greece and Rome, and the speeches of their greatest orators, which contained their best thoughts in art, science, philosophy and government have been given to the nations of the world by the printing press.

The Book of Books, the Bible since the invention of the printing press, has been translated into nearly every existing language, and distributed in immense quantities. Who can estimate the uplifting of mankind which has resulted among the peoples of the world from the study of the Bible?

Before the abolition of slavery in the United States of America, there was much public speaking in the Northern States in pulpit and on platform advocating that slavery be abolished. But it is generally conceded that one book, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," printed and purchased in tens of thousands, had more to do in arousing the people of the North and in bringing about eventually the liberation of the slaves, than any other cause.

In bringing about the abolition of slavery generally, throughout Christendom, the product of the printing press, was the most vital and powerful influence. Public speaking here and there could have had little effect had it not been for the printed publications which conveyed the burning message to the many and educated them to a higher and nobler conception of man.

On the 28th of November, 1814, the reader of the London Times was informed that he held in his hand a paper printed by machinery moved by the power of steam. This introduced a new era in the printing of newspapers and all other publications. The cost of production was greatly reduced, and today who is too poor to subscribe for a daily or weekly newspaper or for a good 10 or 15 cent magazine.

Where newspapers, periodicals and books are freely published absolute tyrannical government is impossible. It is enlightenment spread abroad by the printing press that has at last aroused the Russian people to endeavor to throw off the yoke of absolutism and tyranny.

Every nation that has a representative parliament is seeking to advance to a higher social level. Every improvement made by a wise and just law is known in a few hours to the people represented and often indeed to the peoples of other nations through the column of the daily press.

It may be true that public speaking first threshed out the new ideas and persuaded the representatives— I say it may be true, for the reason that editorial writers often persuade parliamentary orators —but how limited would have been the influence had it not been for the printing press. Today every prominent newspaper has its reporter in the parliamentary press gallery and a synopsis of speeches of importance is telegraphed or mailed without delay for publication. In the uplifting of a people who can overestimate the importance of such widespread daily interest in national affairs.

The world's leaders of thought and knowledge no longer serve and teach the few, but the many, no longer teach a class or an assembly here or there, or a locality there or here. Through the medium of the printing press they serve and teach mankind.

One of the most blessed products of the printing press is the private and the public library, to be found in almost every home and in every village town and city. Who is now unable to have access to the literary treasures of the ages and to the best literature of the present day?

It can be fairly argued, I think, that the many valuable scientific discoveries and mechanical inventions of recent times, which have so marvellously improved the material, mental and moral condition of mankind, have been mainly the mental quickening produced by the daily news of the world. Widespread and enduring fame is now in most cases the reward of the man or woman who benefits the race, and such reward for honorable ambition and arduous effort is chiefly due to the printing press.

It will be readily admitted that news and advertisements in the public press have given a wonderful impetus to trade and commerce, and have been the medium of conveying information to employers of labor, and to those seeking employment. This medium has also given information to the overcrowded centres of population in the old countries, which has led to emigration in large numbers to the new lands and to increased prosperity and happiness.

The cheapening of the price of school books has made it possible for every child of the nation to attend a public school and receive at least an elementary education. Indeed it is not now uncommon for provincial and state governments to supply school-books free of charge and to insist on attendance at school of every sane and healthy child for seven years or longer.

I frankly admit that there are publications, the reading of which degrades and suggests evil conduct but this is no truer than that evil speaking sometimes issues from the public platform. The trend, however, of public opinion, educated and directed by the press is towards the abolition of war and of unfair competition. the awakening of human intelligence and sympathy, the adjustment of capital and labor on an equitable basis in short is towards nobler and truer conception of the brotherhood of man.

In conclusion, Mr. President, let me say, that having heard the remarkable speech of the leader of the affirmative and having listened to the sound of my own voice, it would ill become me to decry or belittle the thrilling power of oratory, but, sir, how much more extended will be the ennobling influence of this debate after the able and eloquent addresses have been reported in Peterborough daily and weekly newspapers and particularly in the columns of the Collegiate Echoes.

The Decision is Final, Says Pastor

And Resignation of Rev. A. H. Brace Has Been Accepted

The deacons of the Park street Baptist church interviewed the pastor, Rev. A. H. Brace, at the close of the morning sermon on Sunday last, relative to re-considering and cause of the resignation. The reply was;

1. The step is final and I wish you to accept my resignation.

2. The responsibility of the resignation is entirely my own, and I do it with the view of the welfare and advancement of the church. My work is done. Everything is in good shape for a new man, who will soon get the church up.

3. The pastor also pressed the deacons to urge the membership to vote together and be unanimous in accepting.

The question was brought before the church at the close of the evening service and the resignation accepted, to take effect the first Monday in May.

WAIT TOO LONG

Says This Home-Made, Helpful Mixture Should be Used Promptly.

A well-known authority states that Backache and pains in the loins are only too often the danger signals which notify the patient that something is wrong with the Kidneys, and warns every one to be careful, particularly at this period of the year, when the skin pores are closed, forcing the Kidneys to do double their work of filtering the impurities and poisons from the blood and system.

At the first sign of Backache or pain in the region of the Kidneys, or weakness and Urinary trouble, the following simple home recipe should be used. Any one can easily prepare it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Any good prescription pharmacy will supply these three ingredients at small cost, which can easily be mixed by shaking in a bottle. Few people seem to know the value of these common remedies in the treatment of the kidneys. This simple prescription, when taken as directed, will regulate the urine, clear up and regulate the urine, clear and re- and cleanse the entire kidney structure, correcting bladder troubles in just a little while.

Looking for Location for Theatorium

Mr. Edwards of the Crystal in Campbellford To-day—Has Made No Definite Arrangements

Mr. Edwards, proprietor of the Crystal, is in Campbellford today, with a view of locating of a place there to establish a moving picture entertainment. He is of the opinion that an enterprise of the above would pay in Campbellford as outside of a few local and outside concerts and amusements, there is no means of public entertainment. He has made no definite arrangements whatever in the matter of securing a suitable place to start a theatorium, but is simply there to have a look around with that end in view.

Mr. D. W. Porter who has also some business to transact in Campbellford accompanied Mr. Edwards.

A SERIOUS AFFAIR

Victoria, B.C., March 4.—The Dominion Government has asked Attorney-General Bowser for a test case or the Natal Act, as to the exclusion of Hindus. Nearly two hundred are at present detained here. Twenty more arrived on the Empress of Japan last night, and also six Japanese. The latter are not affected, pending the final appeal from the recent decision.

1908 Rush to Canada.

Montreal, March 4.—The C.P.R. is expecting an enormous immigration traffic this season, and it is stated that passages are already being booked months ahead, and that the prospects are that the coming season will witness perhaps the biggest immigration in the history of the country.

Nearly 2,500 immigrants have passed through Montreal in the past two days, bound for the Canadian west.

Had Stolen Goods.

Montreal, March 4.—Thomas Hudson and John Brown, alleged safe blowers and robbers, were yesterday found guilty in the Court of King's Bench of having stolen goods in their possession and of having received these goods; but the jury did not agree on the charge of their having brought the goods over from the United States into Canada.

Went Over the Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 4.—A man, believed to be Grover C. Hoehn of No. 105 Carolina street, Buffalo, jumped from Luna Island bridge into the river yesterday and his body was carried over the falls.

The man placed his clothing, jewelry, hat, watch, and letters on the bridge and jumped into the current. His body went over the centre of the falls. It is doubtful if his body will be recovered.

Hoehn was a member of the brotherhood of railroad trainmen.

Despondency is said to have prompted his suicide.

Foster Gets Order.

Ottawa, March 4.—Hon. Geo. E. Foster secured an order in the public accounts committee yesterday for the appearance of Kenneth Falconer of Montreal to give evidence as to his bookkeeping inspection, for which an account of over $8,000 was rendered.

Tuberculosis Debate In the Legislature — Commission of Physicians Asked For—Many Deaths Are Preventable—Child Labor Bill Again — Crown to Pay For Polling Booths?—Non-Resident Voters.

Toronto, March 4.—Yesterday was a Legislative sitting of hard work with nothing spectacular to show for it. Many measures were carefully threshed through their committee stages and the order paper was well cleared. Discussing Hon. Mr. Foy's election bill, the Attorney-General said he had under consideration the advisability of having the crown pay for polling booths instead of the municipalities as heretofore.

Mr. Gamey (Manitoulin) presented a petition from the Gore Bay Council asking that the Government build and operate a railway through the island and to the C.P.R. on the north shore.

Mr. Thompson (North Wentworth) has given notice that he will again introduce his amendment to the Liquor License Act, which aims to prevent holders of shop licenses in one municipality from having agents canvassing in adjoining municipalities.

Mr. C. C. Hodgins (West Middlesex) introduced a bill providing for changing the Western University College, London, from a denominational to a non-denominational institution, making provision whereby the City Council of London may grant support to the arts department from municipal funds, and prescribing powers and duties of the senate, board of governors and amendments to the charter.

Dr. Godfrey (West York) presented his resolution asking the appointment of a commission of three, two to be physicians, to investigate the advisability and practicability of establishing a provincial sanitorium. He pointed out that there had been 3,000 deaths in Ontario from tuberculosis last year. It had been shown by tests in New York sanitoria that 75 per cent. of incipient cases were curable. He urged action.

On the Prime Minister's suggestion the debate was adjourned till Friday when the member for Wellington (Mr. Downey) will move the second reading of his bill along similar lines.

Hon. Nelson Monteith moved the second reading of the bill to amend the Shops' Acts, raising the minimum age at which children could be employed from 10 to 12 years.

Mr. Preston (Brant) appealed for the age to be set at 14 in order to make the act uniform with the Truancy Act.

Mr. Studholme (Hamilton) persisted that the committee reported in favor of 14 years. "If you can't get along without working your little ones, close your shops," declared the Labor man.

Hon. Mr. Monteith's bill to amend the Factories' Act was taken up in committee. Mr. Jamieson (South Grey) and Dr. Jessop (Lincoln) thought children under 14 years might be allowed to work in canning factories during the summer vacation.

Mr. Studholme challenged the suggestion. "Children need fresh air and sunshine," he declared.

The House then busied itself in putting a number of approved private bills through their committee stages.

Mr. P. H. Bowyer (East Kent) secured a second reading of his bill to amend the Municipal Act by prohibiting all exclusive telephone franchises.

Mr. J. Kohler (Haldimand) moved the second reading of his bill to extend the time for building municipal Houses of Refuge, and the motion carried.

The bill of Mr. A. B. McCoig (West Kent) to amend the Municipal Act by granting non-resident municipal voters the privilege of casting their ballots at the polling place nearest their residence, was also sent on to committee.

The news of the New Brunswick elections, which came in during the night session, caused much Government enthusiasm.

News of the Week From The Village by the Lake

Lakefield, March 3.—The tearing down of the old mill has been progressing rapidly under the superintendency of White Bros. This week will witness its complete demolishment.

About 20 men came up on the train on Monday last to shovel snow on the lumber roads of the Cavendish Lumber Company.

There was a great gathering at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes on Friday evening last, the occasion being a dance given by the host and hostess to their numerous friends in the village. A most pleasant time was spent, the evening being spent in cards and dancing.

Miss Cora Montgomery, of Haileybury, New Ontario, is in the village the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Hayes.

Mr. F. A. Kilbourn left at the latter end of last week for Montreal on a business trip.

Miss Kenneally spent Sunday in Peterborough visiting friends.

Miss Penny spent Saturday and Sunday in Peterborough on a visit to her friend, Miss Palmer.

A week ago last Sunday the writer of these notes saw seven or eight flocks of wild geese heading northwards. These are no signs of spring however, and the feeling is borne in one's mind that geese are as apt to be fooled in their calculations, as are human beings.

The forty-fifth anniversary services of the Presbyterian church will be held on Sunday next, the officiating minister being Rev. H. E. Abraham, BA. of Port Hope. Mr. Abraham is one of the most promising of the younger ministers of the church and no doubt large congregations will be present at both services. Rev. R. S. Burns, MA, will exchange pulpits with Mr. Abraham for the occasion.

Mrs. F. J. Tate, who has been so seriously ill with pneumonia is progressing rapidly towards recovery.

A meeting of the Ministerial Association was held in the town hall on Monday afternoon at which members of the Lord's Day Alliance were present to arrange for a date for a general meeting of the Lord's Day Alliance. After some discussion the matter was left open. The date will be announced later on.

Miss Sandville returned to Lakefield last week after a two weeks' holiday at her home in Peterborough.

Miss Beddie, of Hamilton, and her assistant will arrive in Lakefield on Friday next to take charge of the millinery department of Messrs. R. Graham & Son.

Miss Cott, who was head milliner for Messrs. Graham last season has accepted a position at Port Perry.

Mr. Roy Bravender leaves some day this week for Seattle, Washington territory, where he intends to enter into the practice of his profession.

Mr. Wm. Graham left on Monday for Toronto on his usual spring business trip.

A very enjoyable skating party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graham on Friday last, to which about forty guests were invited, including a contingent of seventeen or eighteen from Peterborough.

The concert in aid of the organ fund of St. John's church, which was held on Friday last in the town hall was a highly creditable one, judged from an artistic standpoint, but the audience was certainly select in point of numbers, there being only about thirty or thirty-five present to listen to the programme.

The sincere thanks of the choir are due to Mr. Johns of Peterborough and to the members composing the St. James' church quartette who volunteered their services on the occasion as well as to Mrs. J. H. Sherin, and Misses Kline and Montgomery, who so ably conducted towards the efficiency of the entertainment. The quality of the various numbers was certainly worthy of a larger audience.

There was an exciting match on Monday night between the Lakefield hockey team and the Rough Riders of Peterborough in which the victory perched on the banners of the village team. The score was 9-6 in favor of Lakefield.

Former Peterborough Man Secured Good Appointment

Rev. Darwin T. Owen Appointed Assistant Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Toront.

Rev. Derwyn T. Owen, son of Mr. T. Owen, formerly of Peterborough, has been appointed assistant rector of Holy Trinity church, Toronto. Rev. Mr. Owen is well known here, having resided here for some time, and having officiated at St. John's church, since he was ordained to the priesthood.

A Toronto despatch on Monday has the following regarding the appointment:

Yesterday at the morning service at Holy Trinity church the venerable rector, the Rev. John Pearson, D.C.L., before beginning his sermon, made this announcement:—

"I wish to inform my congregation that the Rev. Mr. Owen will commence his ministry in this church during the present week. This course has been rendered necessary by my advancing years, and I earnestly ask you, my friends, to give Mr. Owen a kindly welcome and every support which may be in your power."

Mr. Owen comes not as senior curate to Dr. Pearson, but as assistant rector, and though the latter will continue in full titular charge of the parish, the responsibility for the work will be upon Mr. Owen to a very great extent, while a curate to assist him will be appointed as soon as possible.

Dr. Pearson, the third rector of this church was appointed to that position in 1856. He is now in his seventy-ninth year, and in the whole course of his ministry in Toronto has practically never taken a holiday. It is only due to Dr. Pearson to add that he will, at his own expense, provide for Mr. Owen's stipend, with the exception of a very small amount which will be drawn from the congregation. The latter, though, will find the funds for the salary of the additional curate who is to be appointed.

We quote the following cases to show what Ferrozone has done for others. In your case it will act just as efficiently:—

FOR BUSINESS MEN
The Experience of a Well-known Lawyer Proves Ferrozone an Ideal Tonic.

Mr. N. W. Burke, a well known lawyer in Meriden, says:—"When I first took Ferrozone I was in a nervous run-down condition, almost sick enough to give up work. I lacked strength, and felt as if I could not get down to work. Ferrozone at once gave me a good appetite, and drove away the nervous, apprehensive feelings that formerly made my life miserable. As I continued the use of Ferrozone I grew stronger, and am glad to say it has brought me back to perfect health. I know that Ferrozone is an excellent tonic for business men and people inclined to a sedentary life. I can recommend it to such."

FOR NERVOUS WOMEN
Nothing Compares With the Nerve-Strengthening Power of Ferrozone.

Mrs. E. D. Emmerton, of Centreville, says:—"I am glad to think that there is at least one honest remedy for nervous people. No one can imagine what I suffered with my nerves, and I sometimes wonder at the number of useless prescriptions and medicines I took. But Ferrozone acted differently from all the rest. It built up my system, and gradually the irritability left my nerves, and I got well. Ferrozone cured me by removing the cause of my trouble, and by giving me enough additional strength to overthrow the attack of nervousness. I can recommend Ferrozone strongly."

Reduction on School Books; Government Fulfils Pledge

Hon. Dr. Pyne in Legislature Presents Figures Showing Ante-Election Promise is Lived Up To

Although the Legislature was in session only a short time on Monday afternoon, there was sufficient time for the Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education to convince the House that sweeping reductions in the prices of High and Public school text books have been made since the Whitney Government has been in power. These reductions vary from 30 to 70 per cent. thus ensuring a great saving to parents and pupils alike, and further reductions are expected.

Mr. Auld—South Essex—asked for the figures and when they had been read by Hon. Dr. Pyne there was prolonged applause, for one of the pledges of the Whitney Government was that the prices of text books would be reduced, and the figures were convincing proof that the Government had been carrying out the promises made before the last election.

The figures follow:

British literature texts.—Formerly these were sold for 50 cents retail. Arrangements have been made for their sale at 20 cents each, a reduction of 60 per cent. Editions without annotations have been arranged for at 15 cents and 10 cents each.

French literature texts—Formerly these were sold at 40 cents retail, and arrangements have been made for their sale at 15 cents each, a reduction of 62 1-2 per cent.

German literature texts — These were formerly sold at 60 cents each, retail and arrangements have been made for their sale at 25 cents each, a reduction of 58 per cent. An edition with limited annotations has been arranged for at 15 cents each, a reduction of 70 per cent. On certain of these there is a discount of 25 per cent. off the retail prices, on the others 20 per cent. off.

Public schools, Ontario Readers.—The former and the present retail prices are as follows: Part I, formerly 10 cents, now 5, a reduction of 50 per cent; Part II, formerly 15 cents, now 7, a reduction of 53 per cent.; Second Readers, formerly 20 cents, now 9, a reduction of 55 per cent. Third Readers, formerly 30 cents, now 13, a reduction of 56 per cent. Fourth Readers, formerly 40 cents, now 15, a reduction of 62 1-2 per cent.; On single copies of these readers purchased from the publishers there is a discount of 25 ', per cent. off the reduced retail price. On quantities of the value of $250 or upwards there is an additional discount of ten per cent.

For continuation classes in Public schools the reductions in the prices of texts for English, French and German literature have been made the same as for High Schools.

As to Separate school books which are issued under different agreements no changes or reductions have been made.

It is also expected that the prices of all text books will be reduced and as soon as possible.

Was Thrown Out Of His Sleigh

Mr. Wm. Swinton, of Smith, Has Unpleasant Experience on Drifted Road.

Some of the country roads are so badly drifted that it is impossible in some places for drivers to see approaching sleighs or cutters. Yesterday Mr. Wm. Swinton, of Smith, while driving home, and about three miles out in the country, was thrown out of his sleigh in trying to pass a cutter. The drifts obscured the views of both drivers to such an extent that they were unaware of each other's presence until they nearly collided. They were forced to turn sharply and Mr. Swinton was thrown out. He managed to control his team, however, and escaped injury.
